A Little Help Please

It has been quite a proposition to keep Chuck happy during the past week. He has felt neglected and somewhat imposed upon. It seems because of Buddy's operation in which his tonsils were removed has brought him a large number of get well cards, gifts, telephone calls, etc. and Chuck is now saying "Nobody calls me" or "Where's my mail?" Won't somebody please write Chuck a card? We appreciate all the thoughtfulness for Buddy. We are glad to report that he has done nicely and has had very little ill effects from the tonsilectomy.

Just Another Reminder

If you haven't paid your poll tax, Saturday is the deadline if you expect to vote in the City election May 5th. Better go to the Bank and pay up today.

A Little Remembrance

Although he has been in ill health for some time Uncle Jim Hilliard is still thoughtful enough to send your editor something once in a while. The latest being a huge sack of "cracklings" with which to make crackling bread. There were so many of them that Guy and Miss Lucy and Beck and Mutt were able to have some crackling bread too. Our thanks to Uncle Jim and Miss Josie.

States Appreciation

Louis Levy, chairman of the March of Dimes Drive in Halls, has requested that we express his appreciation to the people of this community for their support of this drive. More than $400 was donated for the National Paralysis Fund. (Cards of thanks are 50c and up, we probably will send Louis a statement.)

A Little Patience Please

During the past few weeks a number of clippings and items of interest but having no particular date have been handed to us with the request that they be published. Due to a scarcity of space and other circumstances beyond our control, many of these items we have not yet used. While of general interest they will be worth as much one time as another and if those persons will be patient we will be more than pleased to publish all of them at the earliest possible moment. We appreciate contributions of this sort from our readers and use them when possible but we must be the judge of when they can be published. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Red Cross Drive

L. B. Jones, Red Cross Roll Call Membership Drive Chairman, has announced that the annual membership drive of the Halls chapter of the Red Cross will open Monday and every effort will be made to complete the drive this coming week. No worthy cause is presented to the people of Halls and surrounding communities than the Red Cross. A portion of the funds raised is retained by the local chapter to aid the unfortunate of this community. In the event of an emergency such as a flood, cyclone or similar disaster the National Red Cross will step in and render assistance where needed. The funds for such help are raised through the annual roll call drive so if you donate then the money you give is used either in Halls to relieve suffering or wherever the need lies. Donate liberally when you are called upon.

UNION UNIVERSITY STUDENT LISTED IN COLLEGE WHO'S WHO

Miss Virginia Leggett, daughter of W. H. Leggett of Gates, has made such an outstanding record while attending Union University that she has been elected to membership in Who's Who in American Colleges. Students, in order to achieve this merited honor, must rank high in scholarship, loyalty, school spirit, personality, alertness and christian character. Miss Leggett is a graduate of Halls High School.

Methodist Church Building Program Progressing Nicely

Some time back we requested of Mr. R. B. Coles some facts about the building program which has been in progress at the Halls Methodist Church for some time and is being planned for the future. The following information as given us by Mr. Coles should be of interest to the people of Halls:

Original project of the building program was the decorating of the main auditorium and refitting the pews of the church. Following completion of the old project they overhauled the old furnace and later at considerable cost replaced the old furnace with a new one with a stoker and thermostat control.

Noting that the church membership was definitely interested in a building program, an architect was employed to draw up plans for future improvements in the church building.

Through donations from various individual families and as a part of the building program, art and memorial windows were installed throughout the church building. Many of these windows were dedicated to founders or early members of the church and bear plaques in memory of these persons.

Included in the church building program was the re-decorating of the parsonage inside and out and the installation of an electric range and hot water heater as part of the permanent equipment.

The electrical entrance panel for the church building was also wired and an electric range was installed in the kitchen.

For the second time the main auditorium of the church is to be re-decorated and new class room are to be added.

Some of the projects planned for the near future include carpeting and install new chandeliers in the main auditorium; the installation of a pipe organ and the remodeling of the pulpit and choir stand.

Also planned is the enlarging of the basement under the main auditorium and arranging it for recreation and Sunday School purposes.

With a membership of approximately 375, the church budget for this year is $5379.00 with the building program adding another four to five thousand dollars.

Pastor of the church is the Rev. W. F. Maxedon. Roy Patton is Sunday School superintendent and the Ross W. Dyer is chairman of the Board of Stewards. Others Stewards are: E. L. Rainey, C. C. Sumrow, R. B. Coles, G. T. Cothren, Joe Hurt, Gilreath Dyer, Bob Burnett, A. B. Turnage, J. F. Parks, Charles Alsbrook, H. T. Abernathy, W. A. McGarrity, J. W. Warren and Mollo Hurt. Honorary Stewards are W. C. Patton, F. B. Ragland, H. A. Townsend and C. M. Kimbrough.

The present church building was erected in 1907.

Beauty Revue To Be Held March 11

Miss Cindy Ashford, "Miss Halls of 1948", will reign over the Beauty Revue to be held at the Grammar School Auditorium on Friday night, March 11, at 7:30 o'clock. From a bevy of forty-five high school beauties competing, out-of-town judges will choose a successor to Miss Ashford. Also chosen will be two maids and an alternate maid. "Miss Halls" of 1949 and her attendants will represent Halls at the Strawberry Festival in Humboldt.

At intermissions during the Revue a musical and dance program will be presented. Appearing in individual numbers will be Mackie Cutler, Jerry Lucas and Hutson McCorkle. A Senior Chorus, of the fourteen boys in the Senior class, will sing under the direction of Miss Mary Martha Hemby. Members of the chorus are: William Archie, Jackie Belmont, Clyde Simmons, Douglas Collins, Thomas Simmons, Charles Love, Romaine Smith, Barton Simmons, Bobbie Gean, Glover Throgmorton, Bobby Hale, Her-tiss Daugherty, and Lloyd Cates.

Mrs. Ross Dyer will act of Mistress of Ceremonies for the Revue which will be directed by Mrs. Will Sugg. Mrs. James Voss will have charge of the music and Mrs. Elmer Hoffius is chairman of the decorating committee. The advertising committee is composed of Mrs. Hartwell Strain, chairman, Anne Stallings, Betty Jones, Patricia Avery and June Clement. Mrs. W. A. Smith, Jr., will be in charge of program production; Jimmy Mosley will be stage manager. Boys who are members of the high school senior class will serve as ushers.

The event is sponsored by the high school and is under the general direction of Miss Hazel Griffin.

BOOKS CLUB TO MEET

The Great Books Club of Halls wants to remind its members of the coming meeting to be held on March 8 at 7:30 P. M. at the High School. As stated previously, the reading to be discussed at this meeting is the "Communist Manifesto" by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels.

The reading will, of course, be discussed in the light of the latest current events as well as considered from other and less immediate views.

Farm Bureau Seeks More Members

H. G. Lee, Executive Secretary of the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau, has announced that the annual state-wide farm bureau informational and membership solicitation campaign was launched February 25, and will climax on Farm Bureau Day on Monday, March 14.

Mr. Lee said, "With growing state and national problems facing the farmer, and a state and national legislative session before us, I sincerely believe a larger and stronger farm bureau, county, state and national, is most vital at this time."

"During this campaign each and every farmer that is not a member of this organization will be given an opportunity to become a member. See our advertisement in this paper for a few of the services the Farm Bureau is offering its members in Lauderdale County."

Mr. Lee further stated that at this critical time the farmers must not slacken their efforts now, because Congress and the State Legislature are considering matters of much concern to agriculture. He also added that the only way the individual farmer can make his voice heard is through a strong and militant farm organization.

Fishers Rites Are Held Wednesday

Services for Arthur Franklin Fisher, were held at 10 a. m. on Wednesday at Mt. Vernon Baptist Church at Unionville. The Rev. W. B. Oakley officiated with Suddaby Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Fisher was a member of the Woodmen of the World. He was 73 and a retired planter. He had spent most of his life in the Poplar Grove community.

He leaves nine sons, Newt Fisher of Ohio, Elmer, Wilburn and Ned Fisher of Brownsville, Roy Fisher of Dyersburg, Fletcher Fisher of Peoria, Ill., Huston Fisher of Illinois, Anvon and Olen Fisher, both of Halls; two daughters, Mrs. Jettie King of Milan and Mrs. Mary Rowles of Memphis; and a sister, Mrs. Dixie Pope of Memphis.

Our new telephone number is 8311.

Services For Mrs. R. J. Moore

Services for Mrs. R. J. Moore, who died in Memphis Tuesday morning of last week, were held Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Lee in Gates Thursday afternoon at 2. The William O. Beard of Halls officiated. Burial was in Gates cemetery with Garner Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Moore, a member of a prominent Crockett County family, lived in Gates for many years before moving to Memphis sixteen months ago. She was the widow of R. J. Moore of Gates. Mrs. Moore was 81 and a member of the Christian Church.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Walter R. Browne of Memphis, and Mrs. H. T. Neely of Amarillo, Texas.

To Display New DeSoto Saturday

Saturday, March 5, will be "At Home Day" at Balentine Motors, dealer for Plymouth and DeSoto automobiles for Halls, when the new line of DeSoto cars will be seen by the public for the first time.

In issuing a general invitation to the residents of Halls and nearby communities to visit his place of business, Mr. B. Balentine of Balentine Motors, said:

"We're proud of the beautiful new DeSoto car that just arrived and, naturally, we want to show it off to as many Halls people as we can. We hope everybody comes. The more the merrier. We hope that everyone will inspect the new car from bumper to bumper and also look over our building."

Balentine Motors has been decorated with pennants, special displays and banners, special lighting will bring out the true beauty of the new car, and Mr. Balentine and his employees will be ready to explain all of the many features of the new car.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD TO MEET

A meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Dyersburg Fourth District of the Methodist Church will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Halls Methodist Church. All members are urged to attend.

BOBBY JACKSON WINS IN GOLDEN GLOVES

Bobby Jackson, 14-year old son of Marvin Jackson, who is attending Tennessee Industrial School in Nashville has been doing himself proud in the Golden Gloves tournament which has recently been held in Nashville. Bobby has fought a total of four fights in the Golden Gloves tourney at the 107-lb. weight and has emerged with a victory each time. His most recent conquest was the winning of the championship over a teammate, Raymond Duncan.

Covington, Halls To Play Tonight

For the second time in the past ten days, the Halls and Covington girls basketball teams will meet in a semi-final game of a basketball tournament, this time the regional tournament. The game will be played tonight (Thursday) at 8:30 and although Covington came out on top 34 to 31 last week in the district tournament, the game is classed as a tossup from the beginning.

Despite the winning of the championship by Brighton in the district last Saturday night, the Halls and Covington girls are classed as 1-2 in the tournament and one of them is favored to win the regional tournament. Most observers say that the hard game with Halls Thursday night of last week brought about their loss to Brighton in the finals.

Wednesday night the Halls girls were unable to stop Betty Jo Carre, of Alamo, during the first half and wear trailing 22 to 19 at the end of the half. In the third quarter the Halls guards held Alamo scoreless for five minutes (Continued on Page 2)

Red Cross Drive To Open Monday

The annual Red Cross Roll Call drive will get under way next Monday, March 7, according to an announcement by L. B. Jones, Roll Call Drive Chairman. Mr. Jones also stated that every effort will be made to complete the drive in one week's time with the quota set at $700.

District Chairmen for the business and residential districts of Halls have been named and they will be expected to enlist their own assistants in working their assigned territories stated Mr. Jones.

District chairman are: Business District: Main St., So. Side, W. S. Perry; Main Street, North Side, H. L. Rhodes; Highway 51, Marshal Pierce; Front Street, J. O. Thompson.

Residential Districts: West Tiggrett Street and North of West Tiggrett, Mrs. Charles Alsbrook; East Tiggrett Street, Mrs. Charles Moore; East Main Street and South of East Main, Mrs. J. O. Thompson; West Main Street and North to Tiggrett Street, Mrs. Henry Murchison; College Street and South and West of Main Street, Mrs. F. W. Hurt; Shannon and Front Street, Mrs. E. S. Crichfield; Church and Sharp Streets, Mrs. Winston Daws.

In charge of the colored portion of the drive will be Lillie Mae Laurison.

Results of the drive will be announced as quickly as figures are available and the names of donors will be published at the earliest possible opportunity. The assigned quota of $700 is the smallest set for the Halls chapter in some years.

Brotherhood Dinner At Christian Church

Wednesday Evening, March 2, members of the Halls Christian Church and their guests met in the dining room of the church at 7 o'clock for their annual Brotherhood Dinner.

Arrangement of white and yellow flowers decorated the tables where the members and their families, the pastors of the other churches in town, the superintendents of the Sunday Schools, the teachers of men's classes and their wives were seated.

Speaker of the evening was Charles P. Herndon, pastor of the Alamo Christian Church, who was introduced by William O. Beard, who acted as master of ceremonies.

Next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, March 15.

Urges Farmers To Join Farm Bureau

F. H. Paschal County Agent

Under the leadership of Col. Tom M. Scott, President, and Mrs. Vernon McBride, Chairman of the Home and Community Department, the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau is this week launching a membership drive to continue through March 14.

The County Farm Bureau as a unit of the State and American Farm Bureaus is the only organization which effectively speaks for the farm people and indirectly for the business and professional people in this county to get and keep legislation which makes it possible for farmers and those dependent on farmers for their own prosperity to have a fair share of the nation's income.

In 1932 when we were in the middle of the worst depression in our history, the 25 percent of the people of the nation then living on farms received less than 7 percent of the nation's income, low as it was.

The Farm Bureau is desperately needed to help keep Congress and the general public informed on the needs of the farm people and to get favorable legislation enacted and to prevent unfavorable legislation.

Farmers Should Understand It Better

Roger Babson this week recounted the fact that the first group in this county to get special legislation passed for their particular benefit were the manufacturers who got tariff protection, which was just as much a Subsidy to manufacturers as parity support is now to farmers. Mr. Babson stated that the next group to get special subsidies were the builders and operators of steamboats, the next Civil War veterans, and later the Spanish War veterans, and later the World War veterans. Then Labor Unions began to be heard and they are now the great influential group with more than 13 million members of Labor Unions.

The American Farm Bureau Federation with only 1-2 million members desperately needs for every thinking farmer to join the organization, help formulate and carry forward its program, and work steadfastly with all other farmers of the nation for a fair deal for farm people.

As President Truman said last week, the nation as a whole can not prosper unless farmers are allowed prices for agricultural products in proportion to the wages and prices which they must pay for what they buy. Several hundred new members should join the 800 farmers who now belong to the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau and add their strength and influence to a worthy organization working for reasonable goals in a thoroughly American manner.

The Farm Bureau deserves to have every farmer as a member and it deserves the whole hearted support of every business and professional man in an area such as this which is entirely dependent on the income of farmers for its prosperity.

Lions Club Plans For Ladies Night

Plans for the annual Lions Club Ladies Night program were set under way at the meeting of the Halls Lions Club Tuesday of this week.

Lion President David R. Nunn named a committee composed of M. T. Hansbrough, chairman, Roy Patton and Louis Levy to make plans for the date and food for the program, and also to bring suggestions of location to the club at its next meeting. A Program Committee composed of W. C. Patton, chairman, W. S. Perry and O. J. Nunn was also named. The Ladies Night Program probably will be held some time in April.

Sixteen members were present at the meeting, the largest attendance since the first meeting of the year. No particular program had been planned but Lion W. C. Patton gave the club some facts and figures about the Forked Deer Electric Cooperative, local REA project. Among other interesting facts he revealed that the cooperative now serving 4926 families over 855 miles of lines and also that the local coop is the largest in the state serving a strictly rural population.

Next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, March 15.

CRADDOCK - STANLEY WEDDING VOWS SAID SUNDAY

Miss Dorothy Gene Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley, of Ripley, became the bride of Robert E. Craddock, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Craddock, in a beautiful candlelight ceremony Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the First Christian Church.

Arrangements of white gladiolus, white snapdragons and stock in floor baskets, a background of lacy smilax and numerous glowing tapers transformed the chancel into a lovely setting for the nuptial vows.

A program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Wymond Hurt who played Salut d'Armour, Liebestraum, Clair de Lune, To An Evening Star and Ave Maria. The traditional wedding marches were used. Miss Marian Moore, vocalist, sang "Because" and "At Dawning".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an original by Joel in gleaming crystalline slipper satin, fashioned with a transparent yoke of imported tulle applied to the quaint pointed bodice with the daintiest seed pearls embroidered in Camellia design. The embroidery continued down the center front of the bodice and skirt picking the skirt up in a cowl festoon over the ruffled tulle hoop skirt, miniature satin buttons fastened the bodice and trimmed the long fitted sleeves from the elbow to the petal point over the hand. Her three quarter double tier veil of imported french illusion with hand rolled hem fell from a regal tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, with a white orchid and show-ers of white hyacinth.

Miss Joy Stanley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. William G. Spence was matron of honor and Miss Shirley Wright and Mrs. J. F. Satterwhite of Tupelo, Miss., were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of aqua taffeta faille, designed with deep round neck line on fitted bodice and very full skirts with circular yoke, with gathered Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Craddock bands set on bodice and skirt. were hosts at a lovely four-course dinner in the private dining room They carried bouquets of fuchsia at Cordell Hull Hotel in Dyersburg Saturday evening for members of the Stanley-Craddock

Neil Dyer served Mr. Craddock as best man. Groomsmen were James A. Langley, Jr. of Memphis, William G. Spence and Eddie M. Steelman.

Mrs. Stanley, mother of the bride, wore a rose beige crepe complemented by a palomino hat. She wore a purple orchid corsage. Mrs. Craddock had on a black crepe dress and fitted bolero with pugle beads trim and a rose beige hat. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Kern Sears of Searcy, Ark.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley entertained with a reception at the reception room of the church. Love-ly arrangements of white stock and glowing candles decorated the reception room. The bride's table overlaid with a white satin cloth was garlanded with maline and clusters of gardenias. A three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom on a large crystal platter centered the table. Assisting in serving were Miss Rosalyn Nethery, Mrs. Bill Trenham, Miss Carolyn Cox, Miss Mariana Moorer and Mrs. J. E. Peery, Mrs. P. H. Henderson, Jr., presided at the register. The wedding gifts were artistically displayed for the guests to view.

Wednesday evening, February 23, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Langley and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Langley, Jr., entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Langley in Memphis with a four-course dinner as a special courtesy to Miss Dorothy Stanley and Mr. Robert E. Craddock who have been fasted with many events during the past two weeks and whose wedding took place Sunday, February 27.

The dining table was most attractive holding a centerpiece of mixed Spring flowers and covered with a handsome lace cloth. Covers were laid for Miss Stanley, Mr. Craddock, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spence, Miss Nancy Crawford, Rudolph Langley and the hosts. After dinner they enjoyed dancing at the Country Club.

Thursday evening Mr. Craddock entertained the groomsmen of the wedding party and his best man with a Stag Dinner at Reelfoot Lake. A bountiful meal was enjoyed at Boyette's Dining Room.

George Weakley of Dyersburg and Orris Espey were also guests of Mr. Craddock at the dinner.

NANKIPOO DEMONSTRATION CLUB HAS MEETING

The Nank'poo Home Demonstration Club met on Wednesday, February 23, at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Olds. The president, Mrs. J. R. Wright, called the meeting to order. We sang a spiritual "Old Black Joe", then gave the club prayer in union.

Vice-President, Mrs. L. E. Olds, read for the devotional a portion of the Third Chapter of St. Mark. The secretary, Mrs. Olen Olds, called the roll which we answered with some handy device, we had, and it was interesting to earn the different things that each one has that is useful. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. Then President Wright called for unfinished business after which we had a good report from all project leaders. Our Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Livingston, brought some good points on "Short Cuts and Household Hints" which was enjoyed by all. There were 9 old members present and one new member, Mrs. J. T. Koonce came back in after several years. We would be glad if some more of you would come back. We adjourned by repeating club creed in union. The Recreational Leader made us all laugh by reading the minutes of the last meeting with us filling in blanks with adjectives which we didn't know where they were going.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. E. Olds and they served boiled custard and cookies. - Reporter

IT'S HAPPENING!

The Greatest, Most Spectacular, Money Saving Sale That Has Ever Been In Halls! More than once we've had sales which were, we thought, the greatest. You'll say there's something wrong with the stuff, prices being so low. Before you pass judgement, we'd like for you to come in and see for yourself. Frankly we expect to lose fifteen hundred dollars or more during this sale. Our stock is entirely too large, also we have some items we're discontinuing, some items are floor samples. Our stock has to be reduced. Don't put it off, come early! All items priced are strictly subject to our present stock, plus sales tax.

Good Feed, Care Mean Long-Wearing Alfalfa

Well-Nourished Plants Resist Winter Killing

A deep, long-wearing carpet of alfalfa on rolling fields is a matter of timing, keeping the soil's dinner pail well filled with phosphate and potash and following pasture management methods that prevent premature "baldness."

Alfalfa will have a long life if it is well fed and cared for. When the plants are well nourished they are harder and better able to resist diseases and winter killing. They will anchor their roots firmer and establish healthier, thicker growth above ground.

Like other deep-rooted legumes, alfalfa takes large helpings of phosphate and potash out of the soil. Agronomists recommend that heavy amounts of fertilizer carrying these nutrients be applied at the time of seeding.

The life of alfalfa can be prolonged and yields increased by top-dressing with phosphate or potash in the spring or fall. Tests at state agricultural experiment stations have shown that applications of 300 to 600 pounds or more per acre have been beneficial.

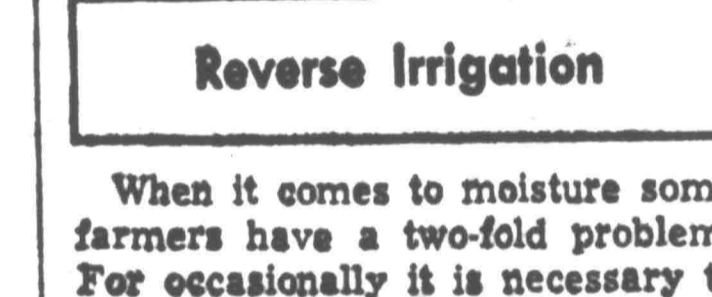

Good pasture management means going easy on grazing until stands are well established. It is wise to follow a rotation plan so cows will move from one field to another, before the pasture is grazed down to the ground. By this system the pasture will have a chance to renew itself while cows are on other fields.

Reverse Irrigation

When it comes to moisture some farmers have a two-fold problem. For occasionally it is necessary to remove excess moisture from a wet part of a farm while irrigating adjoining dry area at the same time. Such actually is the case on a Virginia farm.

The story behind this southern farmer's problem is simple: His irrigated land was producing satisfactorily—but the low, wet acreage adjacent to it was wholly unproductive. The solution to making both areas equally productive also proved simple. Here's what was done:

No change was made in the irrigation serving the high, dry land. The low land, however, received an "irrigation in reverse" treatment.

First of all a ditch was dug across the area so that the excess moisture would drain into it. Then a vertical type centrifugal pump, as shown in the accompanying illustration, was located at the roadside end of the ditch. With this arrangement, the farmer got practically automatic results.

Drainage from the low land is pumped out as rapidly as it accumulates in the ditch. But the moisture isn't wasted. It flows into a creek which supplies water needed for the more orthodox irrigation system serving the farmer's drier acres. Now, he reports, the formerly neglected wet land is producing on a par with the irrigated acres.

Lower Support Prices, Goals Set for Potatoes

Lower support prices and lower goals for 1949 early potatoes have been announced by the U. S. department of agriculture.

Agriculture Secretary Charles F. Brannan said the low parity price had been set with extreme reluctance, and should not be regarded as a precedent for other commodities. The goal for 1949, as usual, will be broken down to counties and individual farms.

Come in and see the new DeSoto
On display beginning Saturday March 5

Let us show you all the new features of this great car

Here is what thoughtful people everywhere have been looking for and hoping for!

Here, at last, is a car that gives you all the best features of modern design without demanding sacrifices of your family's comfort, safety or convenience. It was designed to fit YOU... instead of you having to fit into it.

You don't have to wriggle into the new De Soto. You walk in... and you keep your hat on. The steering wheel doesn't hit your knees. There's more leg room for all passengers, front and back. And not only are the windows and windshields bigger.

You can see out of them... because you're sitting on luxurious chair-high seats.

Yes, it's a thrill to look at. But you won't have to rebuild your garage to get it in. A dented fender doesn't mean an expensive body job. And you can still change a tire, if you have to.

Ride? The smoothest you ever had. Drive? De Soto lets you drive without shifting. New features? Come in and see them all. No matter what car you thought you were going to buy, compare it with this brilliant new De Soto. Then decide.

Tune in "HIT THE JACKPOT" every Tuesday night, all CBS stations

Sunday School Lesson

By Walter C. Davis, D. D., Tennessee School of Religion, University of Tennessee

Lesson for Sunday, March 6, 1949

(Mark 4: 1-9; Luke 15: 11-14)

"SOWING AND REAPING"

Every farmer knows that all seed bears grain after its kind. If he plants wheat or corn he expects to gather the same. Other things are involved, such as the kind of seed, soils, planting, seasons. These affect the abundance of the yield but do not change the harvest.

We need to keep everlastingly before us that in life we reap what we sow. Governed by a righteous God, the law of this universe is that good causes have good effects and bad causes have bad effects. "Sow a thought and reap an act; sow an act and reap a habit; sow a habit and reap a character; sow a character and reap a destiny".

Henry Drummond called this principle "The Natural Law in the Spiritual World". Our memory verse expresses the central theme exactly: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that will he also reap." Among the first parables of Jesus was that of the Sower. It is concerned with two main things—seed and soils. The seed is the word. Soils are the minds and hearts of men. Jesus sat in a boat and the crowd was "beside the sea on the land". A farmer could then have been scattering the grain. Or, he could have been harvesting. Before their eyes were the processes of seeding and harvesting and Jesus made them speak a lesson for the soul. A modern picture shows a father reading from "The Story of Jesus" to his little son. He is sowing the seed of life and prays for a good harvest.

Our second parable, The Prodigal Son, is perhaps the most loved of all parables. You love the prodigal even when he goes away, just like any mother yearns for her wayward son. You love him in his humiliation and dire need. You love him when he decides to go back and make a clean breast of it before his family. The worldly life had appealed to his adventurous soul. He wanted to try it. He sowed his "wild oats", and the harvest was not good. No wonder that when he returned "they began to be merry".

This is Temperance Sunday. What lesson could more strikingly enforce the evil effects of intoxicating drink? Sow a drink and you reap alcoholism. Sow a bottle and you reap a cell. Sow drunkenness and you reap death.

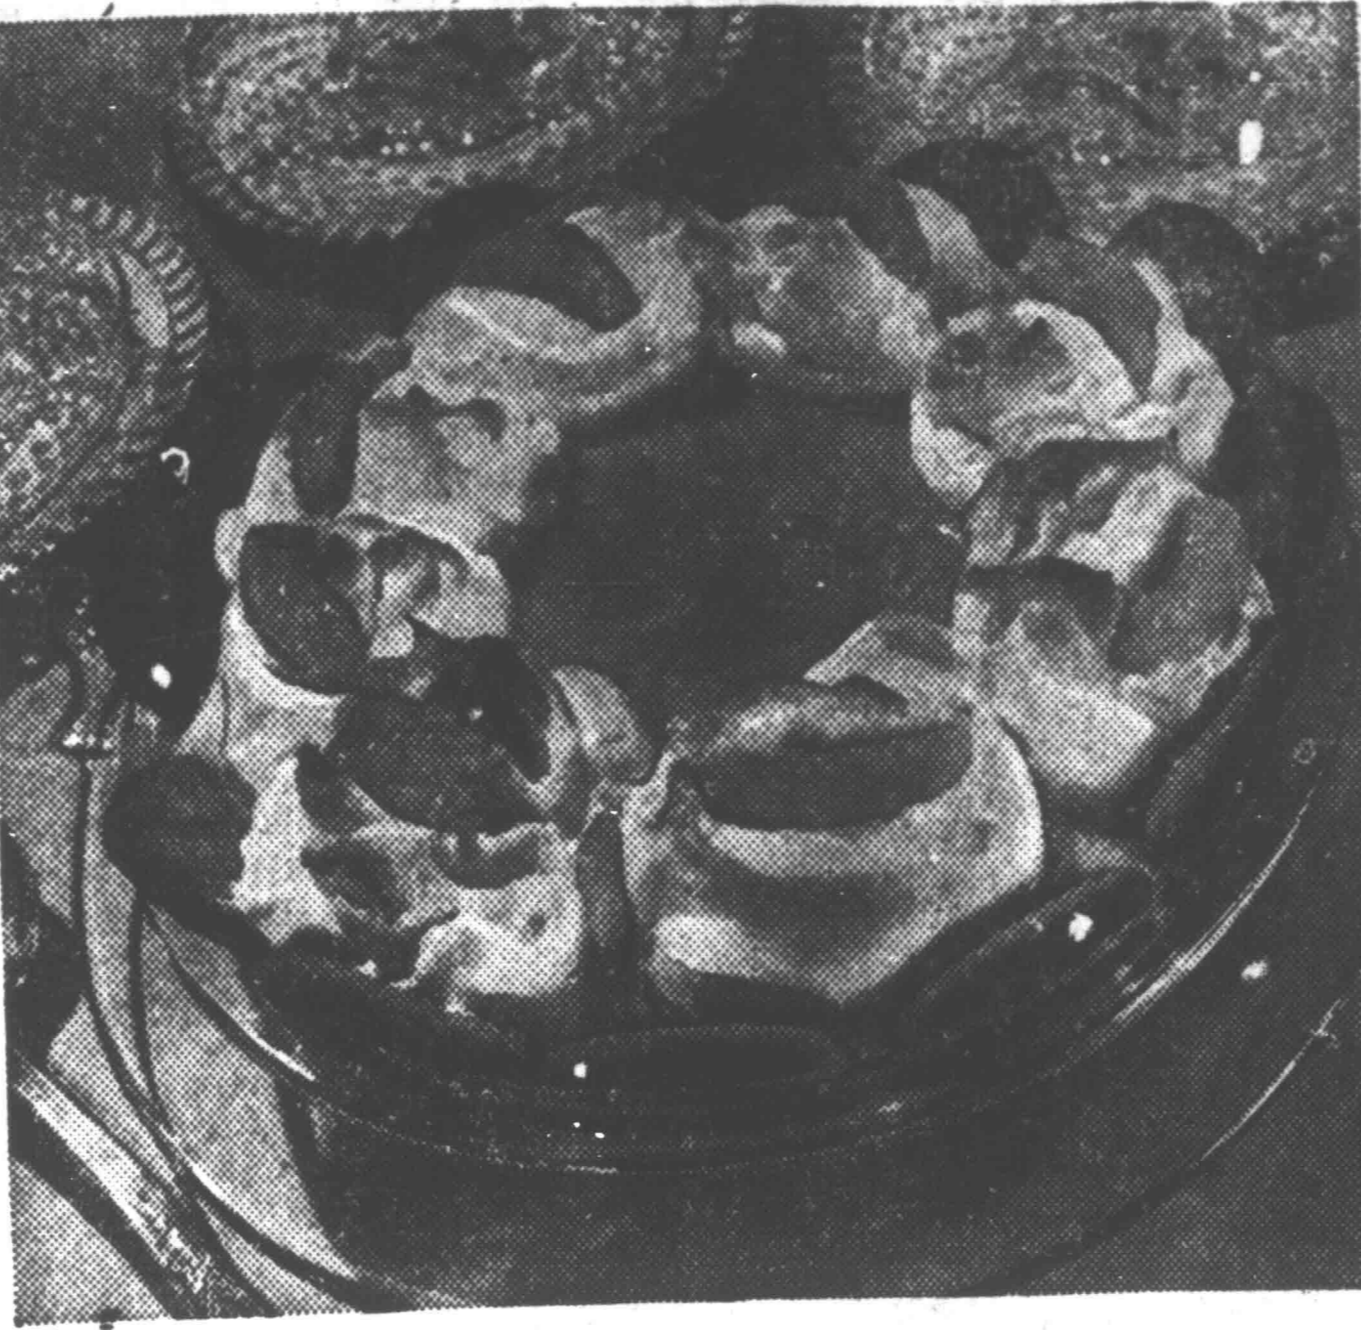

Evangeline Booth wrote: "Drink has drained more blood, hung more crepe, sold more homes, armed more villains, slain more children, snapped more wedding rings, defiled more innocence, blinded more reason, wrecked more womanhood, broken more hearts, blasted more lives, driven more people to suicide, dug more graves than any other poisoned scourge that ever swept his death-dealing waves across the world".

The Cardinal principle of fine diamonds are yours when you choose a Cardinal Bonded Diamond Ring.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Pies Are Perfect for Dessert!
(See Recipes Below.)

Favorite Pies

PIES ARE ONE of the favorite choices for dessert all over the country. This is really remarkable because all pies, whether served at home or elsewhere, are not always good. They're soggy and pale and their fillings are tasteless.

However, whether you're making your first, twenty-first or your hundred and first pie, there's no reason for it to be anything but the best. Measure ingredients with standard tools, follow directions for mixing carefully, and bake properly, and you will have a pie that meets the test.

It isn't difficult to make a good crust; neither does it require extensive experience. You'll have to have good ingredients, carefully measured and not over-handled, however.

Regular Pastry
(Makes 2 9-inch crusts)
2 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup lard or shortening
3/4 tablespoons ice water
Cut fat into flour and salt until the mixture resembles coarse meal. It's best to use a blender or two knives so that the heat of the hands does not melt the fat. Add only the amount of water recommended in the recipe. Crust may be chilled before rolling, if desired. Do not use too much flour in rolling crust or the pastry will be tough.

Hot Water Pie Crust
(Makes 1 double crust pie)
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
Bring water to a boil, add the shortening and stir until smooth. Sift measure and sift the flour. Add salt and baking powder. Combine the mixtures. Stir until smooth. Set away to chill for 12 hours.

Lemon Chiffon Pie
(Makes 1 9-inch pie)
1 tablespoon gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
4 eggs
1 cup sugar
6 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Mix egg yolks and sugar in top of double boiler; add lemon juice. Beat well and cook over hot water until the mixture thickens. Add gelatin, salt and rind. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Fold in to this the well-beaten egg whites. Pile into a baked pie shell. Place in a cool place until the filling sets.

Banana Prune Pie
(Makes 1 9-inch pie)
3/4 cup butter or substitute
1/2 cup honey
Juice of 1/2 lemon
Grated rind of 1/2 lemon
2 cups cooked, chopped prunes
4 bananas, sliced
Whipped cream
Blend butter and honey. Add lemon juice and rind, then prunes. Arrange bananas in baked pastry shell, then cover with prune mixture.

LYNN SAYS: Plan Your Meals With Eye Appeal

Combine food of different colors to add zest to meals. For example, serve rice, lamb chops and string beans for a colorful combination.

Picture pretty idea: salmon timbales with egg sauce, chopped spinach and chocolate meringue pie.

ture. Top with whipped cream fluted through a pastry tube.

Here's a light custard pie that may use as a crust simply small cookies such as vanilla wafers or chocolate drops lining the bottom and sides of a nine-inch pie plate.

Orange Meringue Pie
(Makes 1 9-inch pie)
1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup heavy cream
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup water
1 1/2 cups orange juice
Grated rind 1 orange
2 small cookies
2 egg whites
4 tablespoons powdered sugar
6-8 orange sections

Combine and mix sugar and cornstarch. Add cream and egg yolks and mix thoroughly. Add water, orange juice and rind. Cook over hot water, stirring frequently, until thickened. Cover and cook for five minutes longer. Place cookies at bottom and sides of pastry tin. Fill with the orange custard.

To make the meringue, beat egg whites until stiff, add sugar gradually and continue beating until stiff and glossy. Pile meringue in spoonfuls on top of custard, top with orange sections and bake in a slow (325-degree) oven for 15 minutes.

Different Lemon Pie
(Makes 1 9-inch pie)
1 baked pie shell
6 egg yolks
6 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup sugar
Grated rind 1 lemon
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 egg whites

Meringue:
3 egg whites
6 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
Beat yolks, add sugar, lemon juice, rind and salt. Mix thoroughly and cook over hot water until a soft custard is formed. Stir constantly. Cool thoroughly. Fold in stiffly beaten whites and pour mixture into oiled shell. To make meringue, beat whites until stiff, then slowly add the remaining ingredients. Place in a moderate (350-degree) oven and bake for 10 to 12 minutes to brown meringue.

Coconut Custard Pie
(Makes 1 8-inch pie)
1 unbaked pastry shell
3 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Add sugar, milk, flavoring and coconut to eggs and pour into pastry shell. Bake in a hot (450-degree) oven for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake until a knife, inserted, comes out clean, about 25 to 30 minutes.

Combine foods of different textures in one menu for appetite appeal; carrot timbales, asparagus tips and broiled mushrooms.

Simple meal: Shepherd's pie with potato topping; lyonnaise or minted carrots; cabbage slaw; apricot-cherry upside down cake.

Here's a good meal for cold night: braised short ribs with browned potatoes, spinach or broccoli; butter-scotch pudding.

Chicken pie can be made into a balanced meal with vegetable salad and a heavenly chocolate cake!

TENNESSEE STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION AND YOUR COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY

YOUR AGE

Age is not determined accurately by birthdays alone. The lady who refuses to acknowledge her birthdays may be right. A person at 50 may be as youthful and energetic as another at 30.

Occasionally we have an opposite picture. A person of 50, because of impaired body structure and function, may seem as old as the usual 70 year-old.

There is some basis of fact in the statement that "you are as old as you feel". You may also be much older than you feel. Older persons often overestimate their ability to engage in strenuous exercise and sports.

According to the geriatrician

(a physician specializing in the care of the aged), the number of years lived is only one kind of age. He recognizes several other ages in the same individual such as the anatomic, physiologic, pathologic, biologic, hereditary, statistical, emotional, and intellectual. Obviously, one can get his own ages quite mixed up!

The above ages of an individual vary greatly. Thus a person may be decrepit anatomically, yet youthful mentally.

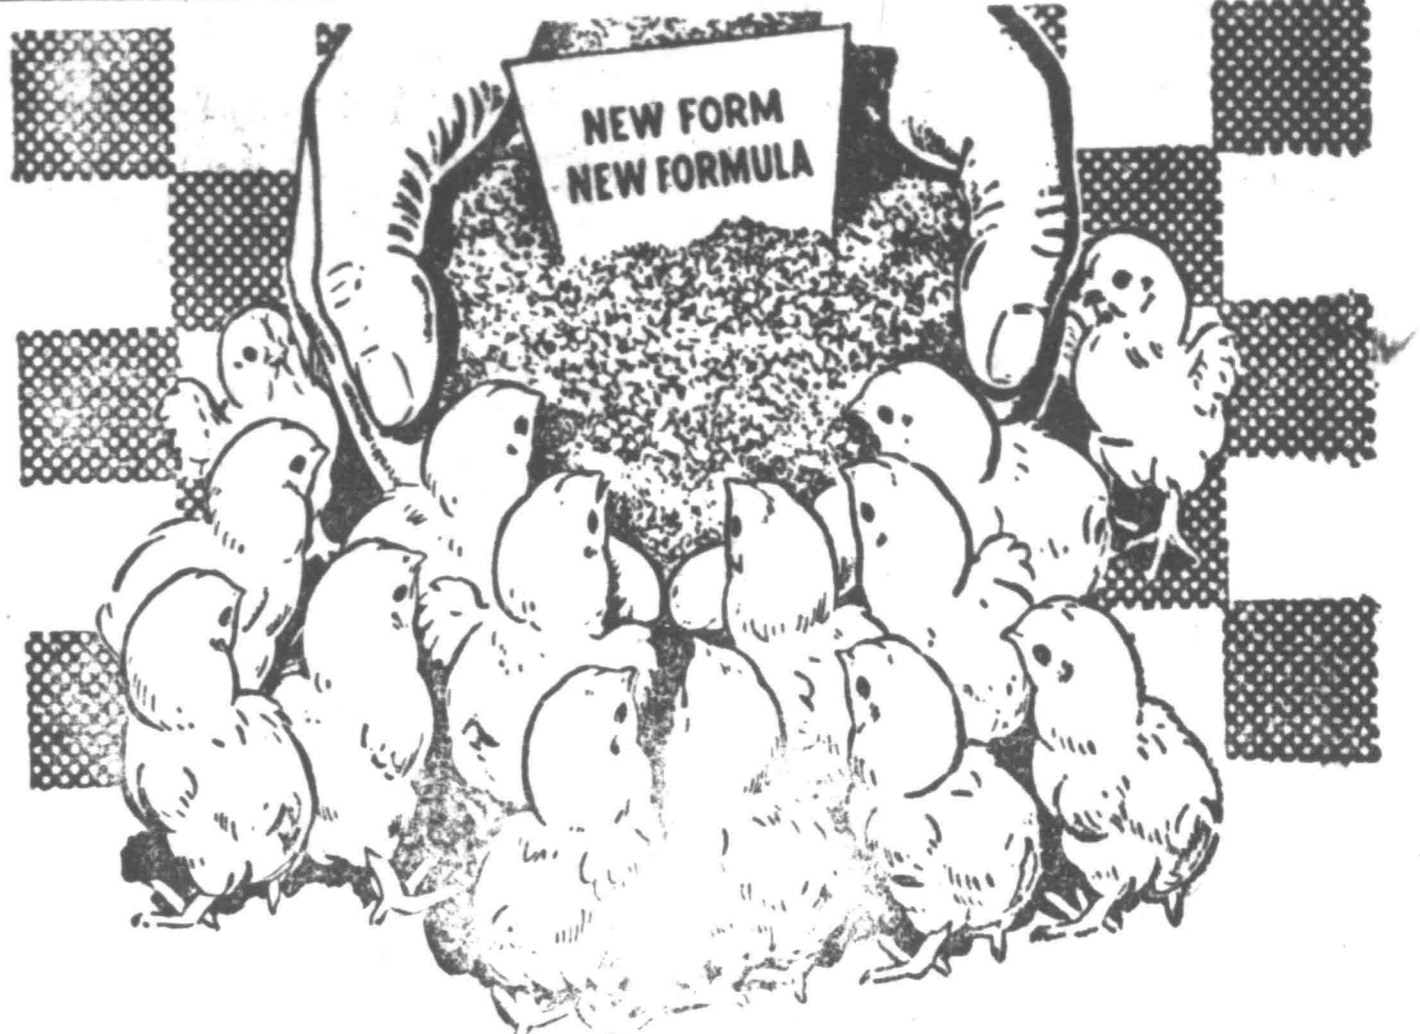

One thing is certain. More people are living longer in terms of years than ever before. The problem facing the geriatrician is to prevent the ages of our various body structures and functions catching up with or exceeding our calendar age.

This result is being accomplished. Through healthful living and the benefits of modern medical care, many are approaching their "three score and ten" years with physical prowess, emotional balance and mental clarity.

Who would say that men like George Bernard Shaw and Bernard Baruch are old?

Uncle Natchel's FERTILIZER TALK

"One of our neighbor farmers usually puts about 150 pound of Chilean Soda on his oats for top-dressing. Last spring he hauled it to the field in a wagon. Wherever he stop to fill the distributor, some of the Soda spilled on the ground.

"All season long those spots where the wagon done stood look greener and growed thicker than the rest of the field. The farmer figured that every place he stop must a got about 300 pound of Soda an acre and made twice as much oats. He told me, 'I should a parked that wagon all over the field!'"

We finally prevailed on the State Department of Finance and Taxation to allow us to keep application blanks on hand which may be filled out, notarized, and sent in for Gas Tax Refund Permits.

This eliminates one step and several days time in getting these permits.

Actual tests have shown that tractors will last 30 to 50 percent longer when burning gasoline than operated on tractor fuel. Furthermore, higher compression motors can be used with gasoline and this makes for more power at less cost.

Tractor operators should make full use of this Gas Tax Refund Law. Just make application for a permit, buy gas in lots of 50 gallons or more, and make application for refund every three months.

Watch For Strawberry Weevils
Strawberry weevils which took such a heavy toll of precious strawberries last season may strike again in our fields about March 1. The weevils makes an incision in the stems just about one-half inch below the bloom which destroys any chances of fruit for that stem. The control is not too expensive but it must begin when damage is first observed.

Growers are warned to carefully examine their strawberry fields every day or so beginning March 1. If weevil damage is found, the berries should be dusted every week from then on with a dust gun using 20 pounds of ure cryolite per acre.

Cryolite is non-poisonous to human beings, but is a very effective insecticide for use against these strawberry weevils, provided it is applied with a large dust run so that it can thoroughly cover the whole surface of every stem in the strawberry row. Applying the dust out of a sack or by any other method will not be effective against the strawberry weevils.

"HE THAT HATH EARS TO HEAR"
"And He said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God. But unto them without, all these things are done in parables, that seeing they may see and not perceive; and hearing, they may hear and not understand." Mark 4:9, 11, 12.

Our lesson next Sunday is built around two great parables of Jesus: The parable of the sower and that of the Prodigal Son. They teach related truths; those of sowing and reaping. "What doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." Gal. 6: 7.

Both parables contain much food for thought. That of the Sower for saint and sinner and that of the Prodigal Son is of vital import to the unsaved man.

The wayward son in the parable, left his father's house and went into a far country and spent his inheritance in riotous living. He began to be in want. He hired himself out to feed swine and even ate with them. But he came to himself. He realized his sorry plight. He resolved to return to his father and admit his folly and unworthiness. He put thought into action. We know the happy ending. His father forgave him and restored him to favor. There was great rejoicing. "For this my son was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is found." Some men are not wise. They choose to live away from God and follow the path of their own choosing, and all too soon life's short race is run and their sun is set, shutting the gateway of heaven forever. Christ calls them today. "Behold, I stand at the door and knock".

The Christian may get a lesson from the parable of the sower. The seed is the Word of God. The four kinds of soil represents four ways men receive and treat the Gospel. The hardened hearer does not accept it all and Satan immediately takes it away. (B) The superficial hearer gives it glad but only temporary consideration, but the first hot sun or fierce wind destroys his interest. (C) The third type of hearer gives assent to the truth but he allows the things of the flesh and desires of the flesh to choke out the word so it cannot yield a good harvest (D) The fourth type receives the word and ponders it and cultivates it and nurtures it until it motivates his life, thus producing a good harvest of varying yields but one that pleases the Master. Does this not typify the way Christians receive the Word, and thus mold their degrees of usefulness in the work of the Kingdom.

The goal of this Bible class is to awaken in its members a greater interest in the study of God's Word and thus to bear more fruit in all that the word implies, second to make the unsaved welcome if they are seeking the way to the Cross.

Crittendon To Run

The first official move in the forthcoming city election was made this week with the statement of P. W. Crittendon, present alderman, that he will be a candidate for mayor in the election. Mr. Crittendon stated to your editor Wednesday that he will be a candidate and that he will make his formal announcement during next week. Presently a member of the Board of Aldermen Mr. Crittendon asks the support of the people. So far Mr. Crittendon's announcement is the only one that has been made for any of the city offices.

An Explanation

With this issue of the Halls Graphic will be found a smaller sheet that has been inserted as a portion of this week's issue. Due to the coming in of several advertisements at the last moment and also that both Merle and your editor were neither feeling very well, (ate something that didn't set so well), we have used this size sheet in order to give our readers as much newspaper as was possible.

Join The Farm Bureau

Only three more days remain in which the formal membership drive of the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau is in progress according to an announcement by H. G. Lee, Farm Bureau executive secretary. An appeal is being made, to the farmers of the county to join with the Farm Bureau so that they may be well represented in state and national affairs which affect farmers. The Lauderdale County Farm Bureau has more than 800 members but this is far from the total number of farm families in the county. The Farm Bureau is working for your benefit, Mr. Farmer, why not give it your active support? Join today!

Did You?

This weekend marked the final opportunity under the present law to pay your poll tax in time to be eligible to vote in the coming city election. Incidentally, our face was almost red since we kept meaning to pay ours but finally waited until Saturday to do it. However, we do have ours and hope you have yours.

Cleanup Time Coming

Although the Mayor has made no official announcement the annual Spring Cleanup time is here. Mr. P. W. Crittendon has announced that his truck will be around Wednesday of next week and pick up trash and garbage which had been placed on the street where it can be easily reached by the pickup crew. Remember the date is Wednesday, March 16, and the trash must be placed at the street in containers which can be conveniently handled.

Pinch Hitter

I. A. Nunn has been pinch hitting for Mrs. Y. S. Brown during the past week as city recorder due to the illness of Mrs. Brown and other members of Mrs. Brown's family. He met with the board Monday night in behalf of Mrs. Brown.

Fighters All The Way

We suppose that some will object to our saying so but we went to the basketball tournament at Covington last Thursday night and saw some of the finest examples of the will to win and fighting spirit that we have ever seen. Unable to get going in their semifinal game with Covington until late in the third quarter the Halls girls were trailing by a total of nine points. Suddenly, the Halls girls — still trying — began to gain ground until they were trailing by only one point with time running out. Seemingly determined to win both teams fought right up to the final horn with Covington maintaining that one point lead and thus defeating the local sextet. Both teams were trying with all their hearts and in our belief would have outclassed any other team in West Tennessee on that particular night. The

ATTEND WCTU DIAMOND JUBILEE MEETING

Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Cooper, Rev. William O. Beard and Mrs. L. W. Simmons were in Jackson Tuesday where they attended the Diamond Jubilee meeting of the 8th, 9th and 10th districts of the WCTU held at the First Christian Church and where the Rev. Cooper attended a meeting of the West Tennessee Pastors' Conference.

One-Point Jinx Gives Covington Victory

That one-point jinx continued to dog the steps of the Halls girls as they suffered a 30 to 29 defeat by Covington in the semi-finals of the unit tournament Thursday night of last week.

Trailing 16 to 10 at the half and unable to get going the Halls girls were still behind 20 to 13 with six minutes of the third quarter gone. Suddenly they began to roll and moved into a one-point deficit which they were never able to overcome.

Superb playing on the part of the guards of both teams made the game outstanding. The playing of the Halls guards continued at the high level which has carried them to a fine record this year.

The championship game between Covington and Brighton Friday night was almost an anti-climax as Covington won over Brighton by a 10-point margin. In the game between Halls and Gadsden for third place the Halls team completely overwhelmed the Gadsden girls 41 to 15 with the second team playing a large part of the last half of the game.

JESUS' MINISTRY TO HUMAN NEEDS

Charles Wesley, crusader for Christ and composer of sacred hymns in a moment of deep devotion and contemplating the profound compassion and abundant power of Christ for the healing of the bodies, minds and souls of men, was moved to pen the inspired lines:

"Plenteous grace with thee is found
Grace to cover all our sins,
Let the healing streams abound,
Make me, keep me, pure within.

Thou of life the fountain art,
freely let me take of thee,
Spring thou up into my heart,
Rise to all eternity."

Our lesson for next Sunday under the above caption is taken from both Mark and Luke.

It is set forth in this story of some events in the life of Jesus grouped as it is around some of the miracles of Jesus. His reception of the delegation from John, The Baptist, and His visit with Zaccheus and the latter's salvation.

We find Jesus on the evening of the day he spoke the parables found in the 4th chapter of Mark, entering a boat with His disciples and crossing the sea of Galilee to the country of the Gadarenes, no doubt to escape for a time the great throngs who were always encompassing Him. It was while crossing the sea that a sudden fierce storm sprang up, and threatened to plunge their little ship guarding of the Halls girls was superb throughout with the Covington girls also playing almost errorless defensive ball. It was a hard one to lose but we think congratulations are due one of the finest teams that has ever represented Halls.

A Lot Of Plowing

Taking advantage of the several days of fine weather which ended with a slow rain beginning Tuesday afternoon, most of the farmers in the higher sections of this county have gotten a lot of plowing done. Friday afternoon of last week we were down at Knob Creek Farm (Henning Farm) and Mr. L. R. Viar took the time to show us around the farm as he has on several occasions. That day some five tractors and twenty-five teams were in the field breaking land with repair work and resupplying of tools for use being carried on. L. R. and his two brothers, Wilson and Charlie, have a huge undertaking in farming the plantation but they seem equipped to do the job. We always enjoy a trip to Knob Creek Farm.

Beauty Revue To Be Friday Night

On Friday night, March 11, at 7:30 o'clock, the curtain will rise on the annual Beauty Revue. As a background for the forty-eight high school belles who will vie for the honor of being Miss Halls, the stage will be transformed into a Southern garden scene, featuring an old fashioned picket fence artistically decorated with flowers.

At the beginning of the Revue, Miss Cindy Ashford, graceful brunet daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van Ashford, who was last year's queen, will be presented. She will remain seated on the stage throughout the program. Seated at the opposite end of the stage will be Mrs. Ross Dyer, mistress of ceremonies.

A musical program, under the direction of Miss Mary Martha Hemby, will be given at intermissions during the Revue. Mackie Cutler, accompanied by Mrs. Wynmond Hurt, will sing "Mammy", Hutson McCorkle will play two piano solos, "Sunrise Serenade" and "The Missouri Waltz", Jerry Lucas will sing "Red Roses for a Blue Lady" and "Peg O' My Heart". The final number will be given by the Senior Chorus, composed of Jackie Belton, William Archie, Douglas Collins, Ray Cavness, Clyde Simmons, Charles Love, Thomas Simmons, Bobby Hale, Barton Simmons, Herts Daugherty, Lloyd Cates, Romaine Smith, Glover Throgmorton, and Bobby Gean. The Chorus will sing "It's My Lazy Day" and "Cool Water". Miss Rose Pennington will be the accompanist for the last two numbers.

Mrs. James Voss, musical director, will play throughout the Revue, which will be directed by Mrs. Will Sugg.

The contestants in the event are: Marion Norman, Ann Moore, Monnie Lou Tomlinson, Elizabeth Cates, Margaret Voss, Ruby Thurmond, Myra Hofius, Jennie Thompson, Joan Hoggard, Martha Alice Haynes and Jean Baker.

Betty Jones, Imogene Scallions, Jane Hall, Ree Cook, Helen Paige, Nell Armour, Ann Burrough, Jane Smith, Margaret Jo Benefield, Ann Stallings, Virginia Duggan, Elizabeth Powell, Marie Wiseman and Dorothy Newsome.

Joyce Belton, La Greeta Smith, Martha Yarbro, Sue Shannon, Tommye Latham, June Clement, Jeanne Palmer, Patty Jones and Alice Nunn.

Ellen Chesher, Dorothy Perry, Merle Cooper, Patsy White, Mary Algie Crook, Patricia Avery, Margaret Heathcott, Janette Ward, Melvia Stewart, Bettilee Gordon, Betty Jo Voss, Beverly Crieifield, Juanita Erwin and Era Sue Camp.

Mrs. Odell Hilliard was in Memphis Tuesday to see her husband, Odell Hilliard, who is a patient in St. Joseph Hospital.

Services for Isaac S. Jackson, who died at his home in Gates Wednesday night of last week after a 12 weeks' illness, were held Friday at 11 at Concord Church with the Rev. C. C. Lewis and Rev. B. A. Bishop officiating. Burial was in Concord cemetery with Garner Funeral Home in charge.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Dixie Jackson; eight sons, Wilbur, Pershing, Clyde and Russell Jackson of Gates, Raymond and Alfred Jackson of Ripley, Ernest Jackson of Blytheville, Ark., four daughters, Mrs. Josie Jackson of Ripley, Mrs. Raymond Sorrels of Ripley, Mrs. Bessie Woodard of Ripley, Mrs. Velie May Osteen of Halls; a half brother, Johnnie Jackson of Stanton and a half sister, Mrs. Pearl Ferral of Maury City.

Born in Crockett county near Maury City, he had lived in Lauderdale County the past 50 years. He was 71.

Services for Pfc. J. D. Kesterson were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Palestine Methodist Church near Halls. The Rev. Riley Jones officiated. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery at Dyersburg.

Private Kesterson was killed in action in Italy, May 13, 1944. He was 22, and a member of the Beech Grove Baptist Church. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Kesterson of the Bruceville community, near Halls; four brothers, Clinton, Tommy, Billy and Ricky Kesterson, all of Dyersburg; three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Kesterson of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Dwight Watkins of Dyersburg and Miss Marie Kesterson at home.

SGT. LINSON GETS ARMY DISCHARGE

BEECH GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH TO HAVE NEW BUILDING

Beech Grove Baptist Church building in the third district of Dyer county has been torn down to make way for a new structure. Meanwhile the congregation will hold regular services in the Hillcrest School building and will continue until the new building has been completed.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services. The Rev. Riley M. Jones is pastor.

Announce Cast Of Senior Play

The cast and production staff for the annual Halls High School senior class play, "Professor, How Could You?" was announced Friday, March 4, by Miss Mary Martha Hemby, faculty director.

Members of the cast are Jane Hall, Barton Simmons, Betty Leans, Clyde Simmons, Cindy Ashford, Jackie Belton, Ann Stallings, Tommy Simmons and Bud-die Love.

The production staff consists of Joan Hoggard, prompter; Pat Avery, property mistress; Alice Nunn, make-up assistant; Lynne Crieifield and Romaine Smith, costume assistants; Ray Cavness and Martha Alice Haynes, directors of publicity; Juanita Erwin and Margaret Voss, publicity assistants; Bobby Gean, stage manager; Anna Dell Strain, Lloyd Cates, Glover Throgmorton, and William Archie, stage crew; Douglas Collins, house manager; Herts Daugherty and Aunita McNeil, house managing assistants.

For an evening of rollicking laughter, don't miss "Professor, How Could You?" on April 8th at the Grammar School Auditorium.

Isaac Jackson Buried Friday

Services for Isaac S. Jackson, who died at his home in Gates Wednesday night of last week after a 12 weeks' illness, were held Friday at 11 at Concord Church with the Rev. C. C. Lewis and Rev. B. A. Bishop officiating. Burial was in Concord cemetery with Garner Funeral Home in charge.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Dixie Jackson; eight sons, Wilbur, Pershing, Clyde and Russell Jackson of Gates, Raymond and Alfred Jackson of Ripley, Ernest Jackson of Blytheville, Ark., four daughters, Mrs. Josie Jackson of Ripley, Mrs. Raymond Sorrels of Ripley, Mrs. Bessie Woodard of Ripley, Mrs. Velie May Osteen of Halls; a half brother, Johnnie Jackson of Stanton and a half sister, Mrs. Pearl Ferral of Maury City.

Born in Crockett county near Maury City, he had lived in Lauderdale County the past 50 years. He was 71.

Wesleyan Guild Has District Meeting

A Sub-District Meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Dyersburg District was held at the Halls Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Members of the Mary Emma Guild had artistically decorated the church with gladiolus, jonquills and forsythia.

Mrs. S. G. Sandlin of Union City, conference secretary, called the meeting to order. Misses Le Greta and Barbara Smith sang a medley of hymns. Mrs. C. F. Hayward and Mrs. James Voss played quiet music at the two pianos. Mrs. N. S. Daws gave the devotional, reading the 16th chapter of Mark. After the minutes the roll was called with seventy-five members and five visitors being present. Mrs. Sandlin gave an interesting talk on the four-point program for 1949.

Officers elected are Mrs. Ned York, Friendship, conference secretary; Mrs. Jim Powell, Friendship, district secretary; Mrs. Douglas Hurt, recording secretary.

Mrs. Leslie Moore of Tigrert dismissed the meeting with prayer. The group went to the reception room of the church where they were served white and green mints, cookies and coffee. A lace cloth over green and spring flowers presented a very attractive table. Mrs. Harry Lee Rhodes and Miss Gwendolyn Walker poured the coffee.

Body Of Soldier Returned Home

Services for Pfc. J. D. Kesterson were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Palestine Methodist Church near Halls. The Rev. Riley Jones officiated. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery at Dyersburg.

Private Kesterson was killed in action in Italy, May 13, 1944. He was 22, and a member of the Beech Grove Baptist Church.

He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Kesterson of the Bruceville community, near Halls; four brothers, Clinton, Tommy, Billy and Ricky Kesterson, all of Dyersburg; three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Kesterson of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Dwight Watkins of Dyersburg and Miss Marie Kesterson at home.

PATTON ABLE TO RETURN HOME

Attorney W. C. Patton was able to return to his home here Wednesday from the Dyersburg hospital. He had been confined to the hospital since Sunday after having suffered a slight heart attack while returning from Reelfoot Lake Sunday afternoon. He is reported as doing nicely.

Elementary News Notes

L. Hurt and L. Perry — GERUNDS are such terrible acting things!

And PARTICIPLES are much worse — If we worry over them much longer

We'll surely need a private nurse!

First Grade — We are pleased that almost everyone is back in school, but are sorry that Jerry Stanley is still ill. We are glad to see sunny days again so we can get out and play. Jonny Harper is a new pupil from Henning. We are glad to have him. There was so much chlorine in the water Friday that the children sputtered and said, "Oh! Miss Geneva, this water has throat mop in it!"

Second Grade — Gene Campbell had his birthday party in our room last week. The large white cake was lovely, and very good, so was the ice cream. We have enjoyed many such parties this year.

Bobbie Frances Mosley and David Hurt visited in Memphis over the weekend.

Third Grade — "Thanks, Miss Electra, for teaching us last Tuesday."

We sang "Happy Birthday" on March 2nd to Jerry Davis. We have some fresh coconut and some ocean shells in our science center. Mrs. T. G. Avery brought them to us from Florida. Baseball and marbles are number 1 with our boys during play time these pretty days.

Fourth Grade — Mr. Harward came to our room last Friday and played several numbers on his accordion for us. We surely did enjoy the music and hope he will come back and play again for us real soon.

Charles Gaines celebrated his tenth birthday Monday, March 7. Mrs. C. C. Sumrow surprised Charles and the fourth graders with delicious ice cream, cake, candy, and bubble gum.

Mrs. Bill Hudgins and Mrs. Odell Cutler helped with the entertaining. It was a very nice party. We all had a wonderful time. "Thanks, Mrs. Sumrow, Mrs. Hudgins, and Mrs. Cutler."

We extend our sympathy to Betty Jackson and her parents due to the death of her grandfather, Mr. Isaac Jackson.

On our sick list this week are Marshall Meyers and Juanita White.

Fifth Grade — The fifth graders are having fun drawing maps of the United States. We sang happy birthday to Tommy McDearman Tuesday.

We are glad to have Wayne Forsythe and Peggy Erwin back with us after being out several days.

We have enjoyed illustrating our favorite poems this week and our bulletin board is quite attractive as our ideas were so different. Some of the most interesting ones are, "The Rain", "Trees", "Western Wagon", "An Apple", "The Barefoot Boy" and "The Moo Cow Moo".

Some of the fifth grade boys reported fishing trips during the weekend and from the fish-tales they told, the teacher is expecting "fish" instead of "apples" during the rest of the term.

We extend our sympathy to Rodney Jackson due to the death of his grandfather.

McKINLEY CHERRY IS IMPROVED

McKinley Cherry, local cattle dealer, is reported as improved after being critically ill for several days. Mr. Cherry was rushed to a Memphis hospital Friday afternoon and immediately underwent a major operation.

P. T. A. TO MEET

Monday, March 14, is the regular meeting day of the Halls Parent Teacher Association. Mrs. Ross Dyer, president of the organization, urges all members to keep that date in mind and make plans to attend. Meeting time is 3:30 o'clock and the place is the Elementary School Auditorium.

Lauderdale Boy Gets Recognition

F. H. Paschal, County Agent, Vernon McBride, Jr., winning 4-H Dairy Cattle Judge and corn producer, is this week written up in one of the large ads in the Progressive Farmer. His picture appears with some of the high yielding hybrid corn which he produced last year. This same picture recently was shown on the stage greatly enlarged at a nation-wide meeting of the hybrid seed corn producers held in Bloomington, Illinois. We are proud of Vernon's good work and the encouragement he gives other 4-H Club boys to put everything they have in this worthy effort.

Livestock School Set For March 24

Dr. C. E. Kord, State Veterinarian, and W. P. Tyrrell, Livestock Specialist of the Agricultural Extension Service, Knoxville, will be the principal instructors in four Livestock Production Schools to be held on Monday, March 24, at Henning, Halls and Ripley.

Topics to be discussed are: enteritis, and pneumonia of hogs and Bang's disease, bacillus, mastitis, and other diseases of cattle will be discussed by Dr. C. E. Kord, who is an excellent speaker and a recognized Veterinarian of wide experience. All the parasites of hogs and cattle will be fully explained and methods of control demonstrated and discussed by Mr. Tyrrell of the University of Tennessee.

Seed Pastures In March — Good permanent pastures pay excellent profits. They provide the most economical feed at the lowest labor cost for the largest incomes from livestock.

Our climate is favorable to the production of good pasturage through 9 to 11 months of the year for profitable production of hogs, beef cattle, and milk. Our soil is the best in the world. It will produce pastures that will carry 2 to 4 times as many animals per acre as much of the so-called good pasture land in other counties of West and Middle Tennessee.

To get these high producing pastures we need to lime our land and apply 500 pounds of 20 percent phosphate or its equivalent per acre and 25 pounds of borax. These should be worked into the top soil and a well pulverized and firm seed bed should be prepared and seeded early in March or between August 15 and September 15. For well drained soils a mixture of 14 pounds of orchard grass, 3 pounds redtop, 6 pounds alfalfa, and 2 pounds of Ladino or White clover per acre will make an excellent pasture.

On poorly drained soils seed a mixture of Kentucky 31 or Alta Fescue 8 pounds, redtop 4 pounds, Alsike clover 3 pounds, and Ladino or White clover two pounds. Some of our flat lands which have gray soil should get an application of 200 to 300 pounds of 50 percent murate of potash in addition to lime, phosphate and borax.

Permanent Pastures Are Slow To Start — No permanent mixture should be seeded with the idea of leaving it on the land less than five years. In fact, experienced livestock producers say that it takes five years to get a good sou established. Some of the best pastures in Tennessee today have not had a plow stuck in them for 50 years. It is necessary to lime and fertilize and mow pastures, and they must not ever be grazed down to the ground, but there is never any advantage in plowing them up just in order to stir the ground.

The leaf of any plant is its stomach. Plant food is brought up from the roots of plants into leaves where the sunshine digests the food, after which it goes back down other tiny tubes to be deposited in the various parts of the plant. When pasture plants are grazed off down to the point where no leaves are left to digest the food being brought up from the roots, the plants die and the pasture is ruined.

Soil Testing Service Available — More than 350 farmers in the county have sent samples of soil to the laboratory in Nashville to be tested in the last year or two.

Special mailing boxes are kept at the county agent's office with instructions on the taking of samples and a sheet to be mailed explaining the crops that have grown on the land in the last three years. The laboratory tests

EASTER SEAL SALE LEADERS STRESS NEEDS

State and National leaders in the movement to aid crippled children met in Nashville recently to plan the annual Easter Seal sale of the Tennessee Society for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults, Inc. Col. E. W. Palmer, Kingsport, (left), president of the state organization and Mrs. Billie Vliet Keefe, executive director, discuss Tennessee's 1949 goal with Dr. John J. Lee, Detroit, dean of the graduate school at Wayne University and president of the National Society. Dr. Lee urged Colonel Palmer and Mrs. Keefe to try to raise between $150,000 and $200,000 this year. Last year the State Society realized $102,000 through the sale of Easter Seals. The 1949 Seal Sale starts March 17 and runs through Easter Sunday, April 17.

We are glad to welcome a new pupil to our room, Florine Harper, from Henning. This makes our enrollment 53.

Eighth Grade

We are studying infinitives, participles, and gerunds. (You can very well see what we think of them, in our poem at the first of the school notes!) The library seems to be having spring cleaning because we are hoping for some new books. We had a fire drill Tuesday and we cleared the building in 46 seconds. We are proud of our record. What do you think?

NEW MEMBERS WELCOMED AT CIRCLE MEETING

Mrs. Eugene Wyrick. A social hour was enjoyed after the program at which time Mrs. Hansford served delicious refreshments.

Three new members were welcomed to the meeting of Circle Number 4 of the Baptist WMS Monday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Parks presided over the meeting which was opened with prayer by Mrs. C. W. Dyer. Minutes of two previous meetings were read and approved. There were 11 members present and Mrs. R. T. Peal from the Mary Emma Guild was a welcome visitor.

The society voted to send a check to Bethlehem Center, Memphis, this quarter. Mrs. Millo Hurt had charge of the program and gave the very beautiful worship service "The Steep Ascent of Heaven." Mrs. H. T. Abernathy read the hymn "The Son of Man Goes Forth to War." "The Blacksmith of Longfellow's Day" was given by Mrs. S. F. Young. Mrs. R. H. Jordan's subjects were "A Century of Changes," "In the Train of Changes," and "Obligations Upon Us All" which she presented in her usual interesting and instructive manner. She also gave some helpful facts from a recent article by Roger Babson on the labor situation.

The meeting was dismissed with chain prayer followed by the collect.

A social hour was enjoyed at which time the hostess served delicious chicken salad sandwiches, pickle and hot tea.

SURPRISE DINNER HONORS MRS. GIRTHA JONES

The children and grandchildren of Mrs. Girtha Jones surprised her with a birthday dinner last Sunday it being her sixty-ninth birthday.

They met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Yarbrough with well filled baskets of delicious foods which was served at the noon hour.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Neely, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jaynes, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Randall and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. David Burford and daughters of Brownsville; Mrs. Irma Elmore, Walter Sorrell, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough and family.

In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Buster Campbell and family joined the group. All departed wishing Mrs. Jones many more happy birthdays.

CLUB ENJOYS THE HOSPITALITY OF MRS. HARRY LEE RHODES

Mrs. Harry Lee Rhodes' home was the setting for the meeting of the Town and Country Rummy Club Tuesday night. The house was decorated with spring flowers throughout where games were being played at four tables.

Club members playing were: Mrs. Marvin Hansford, Mrs. Earl Cridfield, Mrs. Beasley Robertson, Mrs. L. R. Viar, Mrs. Jerre Jordan and Mrs. Lynn Vaden. Visitors to the club were Mrs. J. W. Warren, Mrs. Louis Levy, Miss Gwendolyn Walker, Mrs. James Carnell, Mrs. David H. Hurt, Mrs. Elbert Viar, Mrs. J. K. Hinton, Jr., Mrs. Roy Patton and Mrs. Wilson Viar of Ripley.

Cokes and mixed nuts were served while the games progressed and at the conclusion of the games a delicious salad plate with coffee was served.

Low score winner for the club was Mrs. Jerre Jordan. The visitor's low scorer was Mrs. Louis Levy. Mrs. James Carnell binged.

ZONA DYER CLASS HAS BUFFET SUPPER

Members of the Zona Dyer Sunday School Class entertained at a Buffet Supper Friday night at the Methodist Church having as their guests members of the Nannie Rawles Bible Class, the Lyde Rawles Class and the Men's Bible Class.

A St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out with shamrocks being attached to the table cloth, the drapes and each guest received a shamrock to be pinned on them. Green crepe paper covered the length of the tables and evergreens and Irish potatoes formed an interesting centerpiece.

The Rev. W. F. Maxedon, pastor, made a talk on the Advance Movement of the Church. Mrs. James Voss played several piano selections during the meal. Several contests further carrying out the St. Patrick's Day motif were enjoyed.

Sunday School Lesson

by C. Davis, D. D., Tennessee School of Religion, University of Tennessee

(Matt. 22-42; Luke 7: 20-23)

"JESUS AND HUMAN NEED"
 what it would mean if we strike out all the loving and service given by our Saviour while here upon earth. We had not cared the sick and blind, given sight to the blind, raised the dead? What if He only proclaimed the power and sovereignty of God and then went to come, and had been passed by the sick and and this tender service that made His ministry so precious. They thought to the door of His love, all the sick and crippled of the neighborhood. He turned not away. He passed by no one who called out for help. We can say to us, O gentle Saviour,

It would be interesting to know more about this Jairus. Like Nicodemus, he belonged to the ruling class. He thought he directed the public worship in an important synagogue. He came to Jesus when in trouble, like willful men usually do. Jesus was ready to help. He brought the great blessing to his sorrowing home.

The same wonderful Christ with the old amazing power is here now. Sometimes men look up at their toll and sickness and despairingly say, "God does not care. He is not interested". And sometimes the Church seems cold and satisfied to worship in beatitude and complacency. We seem to have lost our expectancy. This is the teaching of ours, "Nothing will come of it". We ought to give a background of faith and hope, so men will strive to touch Him as they did of old, "Because His power went forth from Him and He helped every one." (Luke

6: 19). Martin Luther said, "Miracles take place, not because they are performed, but because they are believed."

We lull ourselves into satisfaction by saying that the days of miracles are past. You remember the blind man who sat at the same old place beside the road outside Jericho. Hearing the shuffling of many feet, he asked what it all meant. They told him that Jesus of Nazareth passes by. Seeing his chance, which might never come again, he sprang up, fighting his way toward Christ crying piteously, yet with a sudden mad hope in it, "Jesus, have mercy on me." You know they tried the likes of him. But Jesus stood still, saying, "Bring him to me," and He healed him that moment.

John, languishing in prison, was convinced by the way Jesus met human need. The same Christ is here. The same human need. He has the same power to heal our family hurts, our doubts, our fears, our worry and all the diseases of mind and body that follow in their train. He can break the slavery of the drink habit. Let us not limit His power by unbelief. And let the Church set the stage for His mighty deliverance of enslaved souls.

Perhaps there are many in our day who would agree with the cold philosophy of Nietzsche who said, "I will never believe in the Redeemer of Christians, until they prove to me that they themselves have men redeemed".

Plant To Prosper Contest Open

Farmers of Lauderdale County again this year will have an opportunity to compete for cash prizes and state recognition in Plant To Prosper and Live-At-Home Competitions, sponsored by the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

The announcement was made this week by County Agent F. H. Paschal, who said cash prizes totaling $4,050 will be awarded to state and sweepstake winners in the four-point farm program this year.

"Every farmer in Lauderdale County is eligible to enroll and participate in Plant To Prosper or Live-At-Home," Mr. Paschal said. "There are divisions for all types of farmers — landowners, tenants, sharecroppers, farm operators and for tenants who make improvements in their home".

The main prize in Plant To Prosper is $500 cash, which will go to the farmer who makes the best all-around record in the contest this year. There also will be a $250 tenant sweepstakes prize to the best tenant family entered, and a $100 home improvement prize to the tenant family which makes the most improvements in their home. Also to be awarded is a farm operator prize of $100 to the farmer who has more than two tenants working on his farm.

State prizes in Plant To Prosper are $100 for first to both landowners and tenants, $75 for second, and $50 for third.

In the Live-At-Home Competition for negro farmers, the main prize is $250 cash, and there also is a $100 tenant sweepstakes prize.

State prizes are $50 for first to both landowners and tenants, $25 for second; $15 for third and $10 for fourth.

You may enroll and qualify for the prizes by consulting Mr. Paschal, county agent, or Miss Cora Livingstone, home demonstration agent. You may also enroll by writing directly to the Commercial Appeal in Memphis.

All enrollments must be in not later than June 1, but prospective contestants are urged to register now and start planning for a prize.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method of expressing our deep appreciation to our neighbors and friends for their consoling words, acts of kindness, for the lovely flowers, and any other consideration or expression of sympathy extended us upon the return of the body of our son and brother, Pfc. William Freeman, for burial here. These deeds will always be remembered by us.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

 beneath the waves. Jesus rebuked the wind and waves, and the sea immediately ceased and the sea became calm. When they set foot on the other side, the Gadarene demoniac approached Jesus, and we are told "ran and worshipped Him". Jesus caused the evil spirits within the man to leave him and enter a herd of swine, who ran down into the sea and were drowned. Later the man was found by his countrymen sitting with Jesus and His disciples, clothed and in his right mind.

The Gadarene demoniac was freed of the evil spirit and made a happy normal man, who went out and published to his countrymen what Jesus had done for him. Mark 5: 1-20.

A little later in the same chapter we have the account of the raising of the little daughter of Jairus from the dead and curing the poor woman who had been afflicted for 12 years and been unable to find any cure whatsoever for her terrible diseases. She had faith enough to touch the hem of His coat and she immediately felt the plague leave her body. Jesus said, "Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace and be whole of thy plague." Mark 5: 25-34.

Then in Luke 7: 19-23, we have the account of the visit to Jesus by two of John's disciples who had come at John's request, inquiring, "Art thou he that should come or should we look for another?" We are told by the scriptures that while they were present He performed many miracles of healing and restoring of sight to blind and driving out evil spirits. Jesus sent these men back to John in His dismal prison, with a message of cheer and reassurance.

In the above acts of compassion and mercy by the Master, we find the bodily ills and the mental ailments of the people healed. And their bodies and minds restored to normalcy.

Now in the 19th chapter of Luke we find set forth the incident of Zaccheus meeting the Saviour on the Jericho road as Jesus passed by on His way to Jerusalem. Zaccheus was disturbed about his soul, though he was rich in worldly goods. He made sure he would see Jesus and be able to speak to Him.

We know the story's happy ending, for Jesus went home with him. He gave the Saviour of men a meal and received eternal salvation for his soul.

The ministry of Jesus on earth gives indisputable testimony to the Compassion of Christ for suffering humanity, and His love for the lost. He was not only the Master Teacher, He was the Great Physician healing both body and soul. There is not a situation, or sorrow, or suffering, or sin cursed person in all the world that the love of God through His Son won't cure, if approach is rightly made to Him.

"I have come that ye might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10: 10.

Forty-seven fine men took time and trouble last Sunday to attend our Bible class study. And they also stayed to hear the fine message Brother Cooper brought at the preaching hour. There is real fellowship in this Men's class, its members are taking hold of the job in a fine way. There are others, who need the fellowship and the spiritual uplift these class meetings engender, and these fellows need the unenlisted men of our Church to come forward and help them do this job right. What about it men?

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express our appreciation to our many friends for their kindness shown during the illness and death of our father, Arthur Fisher. It will always be a memory. Especially do we wish to thank the ladies for the covered dishes, and the beautiful floral offerings, and Bro. Oakley for his comforting words, also Dr. Hinton and Sudbury Funeral Home for their service. May God bless each of you in our prayer.

TEXAS VISITOR IS ENTERTAINED

On Thursday night of last week Mrs. T. O. Martin entertained at her home with a spring luncheon in honor of Mrs. W. A. Holley, of Greenville, Texas, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Henderson.

The large combination living-dining room was decorated with arrangements of early spring flowers.

At one o'clock a three-course luncheon was served to Mrs. P. H. Henderson, Sr., Mrs. P. H. Henderson, Jr., of Halls, Mrs.

Thomas Martin, Jr., Mrs. Robert Clark and Miss Bobby Clark of Gates and the honoree, Mrs. Holley. Mrs. Martin presented Mrs. Holley with a guest gift.

Uncle Natchel's FERTILIZER TALK

"One of our neighbor farmers usually puts about 150 pound of Chilean Soda on his oats for top-dressing. Last spring he hauled it to the field in a wagon. Wherever he stop to fill the distributor, some of the Soda spilled on the ground.

"All season long those spots where the wagon done stood look greener and grewed thicker than the rest of the field. The farmer figured that every place he stop must a got about 300 pound of Soda an acre and made twice as much oats. He told me, 'I should a parked that wagon all over the field!'"

Which Man would you hire?

The coolie is strong and works for little. For a few bowls of rice he may tote a hundred-pound load 25 miles in an eight-hour day.

But the man on the right accomplishes more. His train may carry 1,200 tons of freight many times as far in the same time — and not at a jog, either.

Every Illinois Central worker accomplishes thousands of times more than the sturdiest coolie — and with less effort. The railroader works with a wealth of modern equipment — locomotives, tracks, stations, shops —

$700,000,000 worth of transportation property. If you divide up a day's work done by the Illinois Central among its 40,000 workers, you find that each of them accounts for moving 96 passengers and 1,324 tons of freight one mile. Illinois Central people earn more because, with good tools, they produce more. Backed by this combination of good men and good machines (bought with the savings of thousands of investors), the Illinois Central will continue to serve Mid-America and to earn your continued friendship and patronage.

A Red Letter Day

Tuesday, March 15, was certainly a Red Letter Day in Halls. In the first place Uncle Sam took his cut out of your earnings for the past year as the 15th was the final day for paying income taxes without penalty. Also three prominent citizens of Halls celebrated birthdays. We could make a guess as to some of their ages but we are a little dubious of doing so. "Red" Thompson and Mrs. L. E. Critchfield, Jr. celebrated together. Our information didn't state whether or not Louise and Junior were present also but knowing them we feel sure that they were. Mrs. Avery, Nell's mother, also observed her birthday. Beek and Nell were hostesses at a birthday dinner for Mrs. Avery. Incidentally, "Red" will still accept any birthday presents that anyone cares to send.

Red Cross Drive

In progress during the past few days has been the annual Red Cross Roll Call Drive during which members of the Red Cross are enrolled. Chairman L. B. Jones of the Drive states that the drive is progressing nicely but still more donations are necessary if the quota of $700 is to be reached. This is the most desiring cause that one is called upon to support. Make your donations to Mr. Jones or the workers in your district so that the quota may be reached at once and Halls can continue its record of never having fallen down on a Red Cross quota.

What We Need

Setting a record, a large number of people were turned away from the Beauty Revue Friday night of last week because of lack of seating capacity. This, we suppose, is bad but isn't the point at all. Halls has no sort of adequate auditorium. The school and town have grown so much that it is no longer a question of sufficient room for the people of Halls. According to observers more than fifty percent of those attending the Beauty Revue were from surrounding communities (upon whom Halls business firms depend for customers) and not from Halls at all. These people are a part of the Halls schools and should be considered as such. Part of the plans for the proposed grammar school building should include an auditorium of adequate size to handle the crowds which attend events sponsored by the school or other public meetings.

Congratulations

Library To Honor Roark Bradford

At the suggestion of Paul Flowers of the Greenhouse, Memphis Commercial Appeal, the Sugar Hill - Lauderdale County Library Board has for some months been planning a Memorial Shelf to honor Roark Bradford, distinguished son of Lauderdale County.

Mrs. E. M. Browning of Nankipoo and her daughter, Mrs. John McBride of Memphis, cousins of Roark Bradford, are assisting in developing the Memorial Shelf and have given the first book of the author's stories.

"In December of 1927, Roark Bradford's first contribution to Collier's was published. During the twenty-one years that have followed, more than a hundred of his stories have appeared in our pages. We look back across these years with deep affection and respect for the modest, gifted man whose genius made our long association with him memorable.

"He was a casualty of World War II — which was the second war in which he had served. An amoebic infection, contracted on duty with the Navy in Africa ended his life. No living writer has equaled him in his chosen field. None is likely to replace him. Here is his latest account of humble doings on Little Bee Plantation — the unpretentious scene that his stories have made famous.

"It came to us a few days after his death and was the winner of the $1000 Fiction Award."

George Watkins To Seek Re-Election

Attorney General George C. Watkins of Ripley has authorized the Halls Graphic to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of Attorney General of the 16th Judicial Circuit, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held Saturday, May 7, 1949. The 16th Judicial Circuit is composed of Lauderdale, Tipton, Fayette, Hardeman and McNairy Counties.

Mr. Watkins has served three terms as attorney general and in seeking re-election asks the vote and influence of the voters of the circuit.

Mr. Watkins is a member of Ripley Baptist Church and active in civic affairs in his community. He has stated that later in the campaign he will make a formal statement to the voters of the five counties.

Red Cross Donors Are Listed

More than $500 of the $700 quota has already been raised according to an announcement by L. B. Jones, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call Drive, which is now in progress. Some districts have not yet reported but a partial list of the donors is being published this week with additional donors to be listed next week.

Anyone who has not yet made a donation and wishes to do so may still contact their district chairman; Mr. Jones; or they may come to the Graphic office and make their donation.

Miss Reed Addresses Parent Teachers

The regular monthly meeting of the Halls Parent Teacher Association was held Monday afternoon at the Elementary School Auditorium at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Ross Dyer, president, opened the meeting by reading the Objects of the PTA. Carolyn McCorkle and Mackie Cutler sang "Professor Bodkins and Widow Simpkins" dressed in costumes suitable to the theme of the song.

Miss Josephine Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Reed, who arrived last week for a visit with her parents after spending the past five years as a missionary in Africa, was the speaker for the afternoon and in a most charming manner gave the group a birdseye view of her work in Africa.

After the customary business the room count was taken with the PTA picture going to Mrs. N. S. Daws' section of the fifth grade.

Ross Dyer In Race For Attorney General

Ross W. Dyer, prominent young attorney of Halls, Tenn., and Mayor of Halls for the past two years, has authorized the Halls Graphic to announce his candidacy for the office of Attorney General for the 16th Judicial Circuit, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held on Saturday, May 7, 1949. The 16th Judicial Circuit is composed of Lauderdale, Tipton, Fayette, McNairy and Hardeman Counties.

Mr. Dyer is a native of Halls. He attended Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn. and the University of Tennessee at Knoxville and passed the bar examination in 1939. He has practiced law in Halls since 1941 with the exception of three years in the Army. He is a veteran of World War II with 27 months service in the European Theatre. Entering the army as a private he received his commission in the field in France and served with the Army of Occupation following the close of the war.

Mr. Dyer is a member of the Halls Methodist Church. He is chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Church and teaches the Men's Bible Class. He has stated that he will make an intensive campaign of all the counties in the district and will personally contact as many of the voters as is possible in the time remaining before the election.

Mr. Dyer states that he believes his training and experience has fitted him for the position he is seeking and he asks the support and influence of the voters in the various counties. He plans to make a further statement later in the campaign.

Mr. Dyer is married and the father of a son.

SAVE-ENRICH OUR SOIL RALLY

PEABODY HOTEL MARCH 18

130 Winners From 39 Counties in Tennessee-Mississippi-Arkansas Will Receive Certificates—30 Government Bond Awards To Be Made

March 18 at the Peabody Hotel in Memphis is the time and place of the 1949 Rally of the Save-Enrich Our Soil Contest. All county winners in 39 counties are invited along with the Bankers of the county and the agricultural agencies who cooperate in the Soil program sponsored by the Friends of the Land and the Memphis Press-Scimitar and the Memphis Chamber of Commerce.

$50 Government Bonds will be awarded to the Sweepstakes Winner in each of three classes: Father and Son, Landlord Tenant, Owner-operator. Nine bond prizes are awarded to each state ranging from $100 to $25, making a total of 30 bond prizes totaling more than $5,000.

Afternoon and Night Programs

Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. on the Mezzanine floor of the Peabody Hotel. At 2:30 p.m. each division will assemble in separate rooms to participate in forums to discuss problems of soil building. The county winners will receive their certificates at the afternoon sessions.

Mr. W. C. Lassiter, Editor of the Progressive Farmer will preside over the Father and Son Forum. He will be assisted by R. P. Cooke, President of Herndon Bank, Lawrence B. Gardner, Vice President of the Mid-South Bank, M. P. Moore, Circle of Ranch, Sonoma, S. G. McComb, Commercial Bank and Trust Company, Paris, Tennessee; Mr. Clara Kite, Director, Memphis U. S. Farm Labor Division.

The Owner-operator Forum will be presided over by Raymond Shinn, Past President of the International Mill-Feeders Association and a Director of the United States Chamber of Commerce. This Forum will discuss "Credit Resources For Soil Building and Mechanization." Mr. Shinn's experts include: Messrs. Geo. J. Hildner, Villa Ridge, Missouri; C. R. Wilcox, State Director of Vocational Agriculture in Arkansas; W. M. Hardy, State Conservationist at Nashville, Tennessee; Phyllis A. Ashford, Extension-SCS, State College, Mississippi.

At 6:00 p.m. the Rally will assemble in the Ball Room of the Peabody Hotel to develop hundreds and hundreds of pictures of agricultural progress in the Mid-South territory.

Mrs. Geo. J. Hildner, whose story as a priest in a hilly Missouri County, told in a 1947 READERS DIGEST, will be principal speaker. The government Bond Awards will be made at dinner, colored slide pictures of the Sweepstakes Winners' farms will be shown.

Our County Winners

The winners from Lauderdale County as reported by W. T. Savage, of Ripley, key banker, are E. E. Ungerecht and Son of Ripley, Route 1, in the Father and Son division and Jim Meeks of Halls, Route 1, in the Owner-Operator division.

SERVICES HELD FOR GEORGE W. LEE

Funeral services were held at Sudbury Funeral Home Saturday morning for George W. Lee of Edwards, Miss. who died in a Vicksburg, Miss. hospital. He was 81. Burial was in the Gates Cemetery.

Mr. Lee leaves his wife, of Edwards; three sons, Joe Lee of Jackson, Miss.; Fred and Wilkin of Edwards; two brothers, Percy and Henry Lee of Gates; and two sisters, Mrs. M. W. Savage, of Gates, and Mrs. Nettie Baker of Memphis.

Lions Club Plans Ladies Night

Thirteen members were present at the regular meeting of the Halls Lions Club held Tuesday at noon at the Messingill Hotel.

Chief business of the meeting was completion of plans for the annual Ladies Night Program.

In the absence of the chairman of the committee, Louis Levy and Roy Patton, committee members, made reports to the club recommending dates and places. The club voted to have the Ladies Night Program on the night of April 5 in the Halls School Cafeteria and to ask Mrs. James Peery, Home Economics teacher, to plan the meal.

Each member of the club is expected to bring his wife or other member of the family and may also bring one additional guest. Club members should notify the committee whether or not they intend to be present and how many guests they will have not later than April 1st so that information concerning the number that will be present can be given those who will prepare the meal. Members of the committee are M. T. Hansbrough, Roy Patton and Louis Levy.

The program committee composed of W. C. Patton, O. J. Nunn and W. S. Perry did not make a report but have plans for the program under way.

The Ladies Night Program will take the place of the next regular meeting.

JESUS TRAINING HIS DISCIPLES

"And He said unto them, come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile." John 6: 31.

Jesus had chosen His Apostles for His work of making known the Gospel to all people. Now, we learn in this lesson for next Sunday, that He gave them special training for this work of evangelism.

Many Christians content themselves to spend their lives in spiritual idleness. They fail to seek counsel with Christ, or to make much effort to contact Him in prayer. They treat the Church of God with contempt by absenting themselves from most of its services. Thus their spiritual lives are starved and stunted. There is very little fruit for the Master.

"Why call ye me, Lord, and do not the things that I say." Luke 6: 46.

Again He said, "Ye hath not chosen me, but I have chosen you, that ye bear fruit, and that the fruit may remain." John 15: 16.

They forget the vow they made to the Lord and the obligation they assumed when they united with the Church. They have allowed the seed of God's Word to fall among thorns of desire for the worldly things, rather than letting it fall in fertile soil; pondering and nurturing it and cultivating it until it motivates their lives, thus magnifying the Church, which is His Body, and helping lift Christ up before the world.

We often fail to grasp the earnestness of Jesus in emphasizing the great truths He did along these lines.

We are also taught in this lesson of the power of prayer and the need of it, as Jesus at this time, at their request, taught them the way to pray and He reminded them and to all that were to follow that God would not turn a deaf ear to a Christian's prayers, if they were from the heart and with a sincere and righteous purpose. "Everyone that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and unto him that knocketh, it shall be opened." Luke 11: 10.

We were made glad again last Sunday by the large attendance in our class and the earnest attention to the discussion of the great truths of the lesson for the day.

The Pastor brought another inspiring and uplifting message at the preaching hour to a large and attentive audience.

Every man who is a member of this class invites others, saved and unsaved, to meet with us in these studies of Bible truths.

Services for James Bernice Parker, lifelong resident of Gates, were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Halls Funeral Home. The Rev. William O. Beard officiated with burial in Gates cemetery.

Mr. Parker, who was 55, died Saturday evening at the Baird Brewer Hospital in Dyersburg. Born in Alamo, he was formerly a grocery and insurance salesman. He was a member of the Union Avenue Church of Christ in Memphis.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Sadie South Parker; his father, W. D. Parker, both of Gates; and a sister, Mrs. Clara Bond of Louisville, Ky.

Bonnie Robison Died Wednesday

GATES — Services for Bonnie L. Robison, pianist and lifelong resident here, were held at 2:30 Thursday afternoon at the Gates Methodist Church. The Rev. A. D. Bishop, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. C. C. Lewis. Burial was in Gates Cemetery with Gardner Funeral Home in charge. He was 57.

He died at the Methodist Hospital in Memphis Tuesday night shortly before midnight after 3 months' illness. Born near Gates, he spent his entire life in this community. He worked for several years with the Gates Gin Co. and the Peeler Gin Co. Mr. Robison served on the Official Board of Stewards of the Gates Methodist Church, and held farming interests in this section.

MRS. BERTHA YANCEY

RIPLEY — Mrs. Bertha Bradley Yancey, formerly of Ripley, died Thursday, March 10, at her home in Ashville, N. C. of a heart attack. She was 74.

She was born in Hamilton, Ohio and came to Ripley where she lived for a number of years before moving to Ashville.

She leaves four daughters, Miss Margeurite Yancey of New York City, Mrs. R. L. Bird of Finley, Tenn., Mrs. W. H. Barkley and Miss Sadie Yancey of Ashville, N. C.

Jimmy Perry, of the seventh grade, drew a lovely picture of St. Patrick on the board for Miss Walker's room. The pupils wish to thank him.

Sammy Chumney had a birthday. "Happy Birthday, Sammy!" Miss Walker's first graders would like to thank Mrs. McCorkle for the tinker toys and jack sets.

Second Grade

Mrs. Kathryn is back with the second grade after being absent most of last week due to illness. We enjoyed having "Miss" Electra teach us while our teacher was away.

We had a lot of surprises for "Miss" Kathryn when she came back Monday morning. Mrs. McCorkle had brought us a lovely ship made of tinker toys and several packages of jacks. We're very grateful to Mrs. McCorkle for these gifts. Also Harry Wright from the third grade drew a lovely Easter rabbit on our board for us to color. We think that was very nice of him. Thanks, Harry, for our picture!

Livestock Schools Are Scheduled

F. H. Paschal County Agent

Dr. C. E. Kord, State Veterinarian, and William P. Tyrrell, Livestock Specialist of the University of Tennessee, will be the principal speakers at the Livestock Production School scheduled for next Thursday, March 24. Moving pictures showing symptoms and methods of control of several important diseases and parasites will be shown as part of the program at each school.

The schools at the Henning Picture Show and in the Ripley Court House will begin at 8:00 o'clock sharp and continue to 11:30 a. m. Dr. Kord will be on the program the first 90 minutes at the Ripley school and Mr. Tyrrell at the Henning school. Moving pictures will take up the next 30 minutes while the instructors swap places. This is being done in order that we can take care of all the people who want to come and in order that everybody can see and hear the demonstrations. The schools at Lauderdale County Training School for all the negro farmers of the county and the school at Halls Grammar School will begin at 1:00 o'clock sharp with Dr. Kord leading off at Halls and Mr. Tyrrell at the Training School. We expect 200 men at each of these schools. Every farmer in the county is invited to attend one of these schools.

We will not be making the best use of our good pasture producing land nor the use of our managerial abilities in this fine county in the next few years unless we materially increase the number of livestock of all kinds which we produce. Methods of control of diseases and parasites must be learned before we can make the greatest success of livestock production. These schools are a step in the right direction. We hope farmers will take full advantage of them.

Pecan Growers Meet

J. C. McDaniels, State Horticulturist and Secretary of the Northern Nut Growers Association, Nashville, led a very informative and interesting discussion in Ripley recently on the production of pecans and other nuts in this area.

Mr. McDaniels recommended Stuart and Moore as being the varieties of pecans best suited to this area. He recommended that pecans be set on deep, rich soils near the foot of slopes on soil that is not too dry but still well drained for the best yields of high quality pecans. He stated that the trees should be 80 feet apart in each direction and that pecan trees should be fertilized with a good fertilizer such as 4-8-8 at the rate have to buy them from the government printing office and make these are specialized bulletins we (Continued on page 2)

O O

We Wonder Why?

We were a little bit amazed Saturday night to see three men who are well known in local politics with their heads together over a steak apiece at a prominent Dyersburg eating place. Since the election is still six weeks off, we wonder if they are not a little premature in planning their strategy but one of them claimed he was merely getting all he could BEFORE the election. Could be!

This lamb shoulder takes on its tender in the form of a delightful fruit-bread dressing. The dressing has in it prunes and apricots as well as orange for tartness. The boned meat also makes an easy job of carving.

Dress Economy Cuts Of Meat, Save Money, Please Family Tastes

EVERY WOMAN will agree that there are very few cuts of meat that are really economical, but it's true there are some that are at least a bit cheaper than steaks, roasts or chops. You'll do well to watch for bargains weekly. If you don't want to buy as much meat as formerly, then extend what you get with vegetables or stuffings, and have plenty of other things to go with the dinner.

Don't economize to the extent that the family will grumble about what they eat. Make everything palatable and attractive when served and pay particular attention to having platters look lovely. Here's the time to use pickled fruits and rinds to garnish meat platters without anyone's knowing that even these are an extender.

Fruit Stuffed Lamb Shoulder (Serves 6) 1 lamb shoulder, boned 2 cups bread crumbs 6 cooked apricots 6 cooked prunes 1 small orange, chopped 1 beaten egg Salt and pepper

Have lamb shoulder boned and sew it on three sides, leaving the fourth side open for dressing. Make dressing of bread crumbs, diced apricots and prunes, orange, egg and seasonings. Pile into pocket. Skewer or sew edges together. Place lamb shoulder on a rack in an open roasting pan and roast at 300 degrees, allowing 30 to 35 minutes to the pound.

HERE'S A MEAT loaf that has vegetables right in it. You'll like the interesting flavor combination.

Vegetable-Meat Loaf (Serves 8) 3 tablespoons chopped onion 1/2 cup ground green pepper 2 cups ground carrots 1/2 cup soured cream 1 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon pepper 1 1/2 pounds ground veal

Mix all ingredients together. Shape into a loaf and place in casserole or loaf pan. Cover. Bake at 400 degrees for 40 minutes, then uncover and bake for 20 minutes longer.

HERE'S AN INTERESTING variation for drumsticks, using only a pound and a quarter of meat:

California Chicken (Serves 4-6) 1/4 pound ground pork 1 pound ground veal 1 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon pepper 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper 1/2 cup crushed pineapple, drained 1 egg, slightly beaten 1 tablespoon water

Combine ground meats, salt, pepper, green pepper and pineapple. Shape like a chicken leg on a wooden skewer. Combine beaten egg with water. Roll "drumsticks" in bread crumbs, then in egg-water mixture, and again in bread crumbs. Let stand for 30 minutes in the refrigerator. Brown in hot lard; cover closely and cook slowly for 45 minutes.

THE RICHNESS of pork sausage combines with nourishing kidney beans to make a hearty, meat-saving but appetizing casserole for cooler days:

Barbecued Sausage Casserole (Serves 6-8) 1 pound sausage links 2 tablespoons water 1 onion, chopped 1/2 green pepper, chopped 6 pieces of celery, chopped 1 can tomato soup 1/2 cup catchup 1 No. 2 can kidney beans

Place sausage links in frying pan. Add water; cover and simmer for five minutes or until water evaporates. Remove cover and brown links. Add onion, celery, green pepper, catchup and tomato soup. Cover and simmer slowly for 30 minutes. Add beans to cooked mixture and heat thoroughly.

SPANISH PORK is pork simmered to perfection. It's a beautiful reddish-brown color with peas and tomatoes combined with potatoes to make a perfectly extended meat dish that's complete enough to serve as a main course.

Spanish Pork (Serves 6) 2 pounds pork shoulder, boned and diced Flour and lard 4 medium-sized potatoes 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce 2 cups tomatoes 2 cups canned peas 1 green pepper Salt and pepper

Have pork shoulder cut into 1-inch cubes. Dredge in flour and brown in hot lard. Place alternate layers of meat and vegetables in a casserole dish. Pour tomatoes over all. Season and cook in a moderate (350 degree) oven until meat and vegetables are done, from one and a half to two hours.

Spanish pork is a delicious as well as handsome vegetable-extended meat dish. The pieces of succulent pork ride in a tomato-red gravy with green peas which will make the family delighted with its eye appeal.

WHEN PROPERLY prepared, kidneys can be a very tasty dish. Why not try these delicious veal kidneys, braised and served over hot, steaming noodles?

Braised Veal Kidneys (Serves 6) 3 veal kidneys Salt and flour 2 tablespoons chopped onion 2 tablespoons fat 1 cup canned tomatoes 1 bay leaf Hot, cooked noodles

Cut kidneys in half lengthwise; remove white membrane; soak in cold water for 15 minutes. Cut into one-inch pieces, season with salt and dredge with flour. Brown onion in hot fat. Add kidneys and cook with onion until browned for about five minutes. Add tomatoes and cook for 10 minutes, covered, until kidneys are tender. Drop in bay leaf during last five minutes of cooking.

Roast Beef Salad (Serves 4 to 6) 1 cup diced cooked beef 2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced 2 tomatoes, quartered 1 small head of lettuce French dressing or mayonnaise

Toss first three ingredients together. Serve on lettuce with dressing. Use diced cooked ham, tongue or corned beef, if desired.

Canned cling peaches make a delicious salad-desert if you fill them with cream cheese mixed with a bit of orange marmalade and candied ginger.

Chop orange pulp which has been scooped from orange shells and mix with mashed sweet potatoes, seasoned with butter, milk and nutmeg. Refill shells and heat.

Let slices of bologna fry slowly in a skillet in a bit of fat until the edges curl. These make excellent little cups for scrambled eggs—a good luncheon combination.

Rail oddities

In 1855 a railroad president commissioned a poor but promising young artist to paint a picture of the company's new road-house. It was to be used as an advertisement and the price paid was $75.00.

Years later—by an almost incredible coincidence—the artist himself ran across the picture in a second-hand shop in Mexico City, and he bought it back.

The painting, "The Lockawanna Valley," now hangs in the National Gallery of Art in Washington. It is admired as one of the finest early works of the renowned artist, George Inness (1825-1894).

F. H. Paschal

Mr. McDaniels explained that the male and female flowers on a pecan tree do not mature at the same time which makes it necessary that at least two pecan trees be planted, preferably of different varieties, in a planting in order that all the pecans will be pollinated.

Cultivation of the ground under and around the pecan trees in the spring helps to destroy the spores of fungus diseases which normally attack pecans. Limbs of trees which touch the ground at the ends should be pruned back in order that these will not get infected by the spores which may be on the ground under the trees. The growing of winter cover crops in pecan orchards was highly recommended as a method of adding nitrogen and organic matter to the soil and preventing erosion and leaching.

WELL STOCKED TIMBER LAND EARNS A GOOD INCOME

J. R. Galbraith, Farm Forester
Tennessee Forestry Division

This is a story of a two hundred acre bottom land tract of timber that is a good concern. It differs from an average bottom land tract only in that it is fairly well stocked with high quality species. It is located in the Hatchie River bottom in Hardeman County near Pocatons, and is owned by Mr. E. S. Miller, a successful lumberman of Jackson, Tennessee.

Mr. Miller knows the sound, vigorous, well formed trees of valuable species increase in value rapidly, and intends to have his land covered with such trees. With this in mind, he requested assistance of the Farm Forester. In 1947 an inventory of trees 12 inches in diameter and larger, showed a total volume of two million one hundred fifty-five thousand board feet. One million and eighty eight thousand board feet was marked for cutting.

Growth studies made at the time of the inventory show that the remaining one million sixty seven thousand feet will grow to one million seven hundred twenty one thousand feet in ten years, an increase of six hundred and fifty four thousand feet. The growth, per acre per year is therefore about 320 board feet.

The trees marked for cutting ranged from large mature red gum, white oaks, and red oaks, which had some top grade veneer logs worth over one hundred dollars per thousand on the Jackson, Memphis or Louisville markets, to small trees of poor form or poor species worth only a few dollars more than the cost of getting them from the stump to the mill. Most of the value of the cut was in the large trees of valuable species. This was the harvest cut. The small trees were cut to improve the condition of the timber stands by giving the remaining trees more space and making room for good trees to seed in where the poor ones stood.

The marked timber has been cut. After the cut was made, there were still a good many trees with no present or future value left in the woods. Mr. Miller has killed these trees by poisoning them. This is an investment in the next crop of timber, and the owner believes it is a profitable one.

He has also planted yellow poplar, one of the most valuable species on soil of this type. There were a few yellow poplar trees of seed-bearing size scattered over the tract. These and other trees of valuable species are filling in the opening with good young trees.

The following facts about this tract should be noted: The owner has harvested a large part of the present value of the timber, but he left more trees than he cut. The trees he left are fast growing trees and will produce valuable timber. Although this tract is better stocked than the average stand it can still support a much heavier volume. As the number of trees increases the growth in board feet per acre per year will increase. When the entire tract becomes fully stocked, it will grow eighty to ninety thousand board feet per year. The future cuts will be high quality because they will come from large sound trees of good form and valuable species. As long as the present management is continued, one half to three quarters of a million feet can be cut every ten years without reducing the growth capacity of the tract. Good timber management pays big dividends.

Excessive Use of Lime
Exhausts Soil Fertility
Specialist Warns Other
Plant Foods Required

Liming can exhaust rather than rebuild soil fertility, unless lime is big, two-fisted, out-spoken, professional plant food elements to the soil, declares Dr. William A. Albrecht, University of Missouri.

"Up to the present time in our land use," says Dr. Albrecht, "we have been putting limestone on our soils under the mistaken belief that its benefits rested only in reducing soil acidity. We have gone ahead with our campaign with the idea that lime is all that is needed, and that if a little is good, more will be better."

"This generous use of lime has helped produce more proteins in legume forage and other crops. But the added crop production has used up other plant food elements. Among these potash has been the most prominent."

"We have credited the lime and the neutralization of the soil with working wonders, but we have not realized that liming by itself was helping exhaust our soil fertility more rapidly," he points out. "It is essential," concludes Dr. Albrecht, "to remember that we need potash to make the carbohydrates in the growing plant before we can convert them into protein."

"The Apostles needed training. Their understanding of the Messiah was the accepted notion of that time. They never seemed able to throw off that prevailing idea during the life-time of the Saviour. Only as they carefully recalled all the things He had said to them did the notion of a spiritual kingdom dawn in their minds."

These men, though they were rough, did have fine qualities. They lived in a real world. They earned their own living. They loved the nation, and they were devoted to Jesus. They were men who could be molded. And they had the greatest of teachers. Just to listen to the words of Jesus was an education in itself.

In this lesson He is training them in prayer. He took them to a "lonely place by themselves." He called them away from the multitude where so many were coming and going "they had no leisure even to eat." Life can become so strenuous and full that God is crowded out, even as there was no room for the babe in Bethlehem. It is in the quiet place of prayer that we are able to regain our balance and walk wisely among men.

We, too, can learn. The lesson is never finished. Here in this prayer is the greatest challenge of all. It is not easy to forgive. Yet we ask God to forgive us in the same measure we forgive others. To nurse a grudge is pure selfishness, an exaggerated notion of one's own importance. It is not

TRAINING FOR LEADERSHIP

"The Big Fisherman" is the story of Simon Peter, so human we can all understand him. You meet him first at the Sea of Galilee, accompanied by his brother, James, a two-fisted, out-spoken, professional fisherman. He leaves his nets to follow Jesus and he always had a great admiration for the Nazarene. He believed that something big was about to happen and he refused to believe that Jesus was going to Jerusalem and would there lay down his life.

But at the end when he himself was about to die as a martyr he sent word to a friend, "Tell him," he said, "that the Kingdom will come, but they must not expect it to reign now — except in their hearts; for the world is not yet ready to receive the King". So Lloyd Douglas has given us the change in the understanding of Peter.

The Apostles needed training. Their understanding of the Messiah was the accepted notion of that time. They never seemed able to throw off that prevailing idea during the life-time of the Saviour. Only as they carefully recalled all the things He had said to them did the notion of a spiritual kingdom dawn in their minds."

These men, though they were rough, did have fine qualities. They lived in a real world. They earned their own living. They loved the nation, and they were devoted to Jesus. They were men who could be molded. And they had the greatest of teachers. Just to listen to the words of Jesus was an education in itself.

In this lesson He is training them in prayer. He took them to a "lonely place by themselves." He called them away from the multitude where so many were coming and going "they had no leisure even to eat." Life can become so strenuous and full that God is crowded out, even as there was no room for the babe in Bethlehem. It is in the quiet place of prayer that we are able to regain our balance and walk wisely among men.

We, too, can learn. The lesson is never finished. Here in this prayer is the greatest challenge of all. It is not easy to forgive. Yet we ask God to forgive us in the same measure we forgive others. To nurse a grudge is pure selfishness, an exaggerated notion of one's own importance. It is not air and plant nutrients. They need that room not only in the plow layer, but also in the subsoil below.

It takes plenty of organic matter to keep a clay or loam soil roomy, well drained and ventilated. Part of that organic matter is burned up every year in producing crops. If it is not replaced, then your soil packs down. It becomes "stuffy" and hard to cultivate. It loses its sponginess, or porosity. Roots cannot grow readily, top growth suffers and lower crop yields result.

Several steps are necessary to get good catches of legumes. Liming, based on soil tests, is important. So is the application of fertilizer carrying phosphate and potash.

To round out a balanced soil management program and add to the organic matter supply, animal manure and crop residues should be returned to the soil.

Steel Farm Trailer

This two-wheeled farm trailer has an all-steel frame on which any type of body can be placed. Welded fabrication on the trailer frame eliminates bolts which work loose and cause rattles or breakdowns. The tongue in this trailer is attached in a way that avoids trouble in service. It was designed at Colorado A & M college.

Johnson Grass Control Termed Community Job

Johnson grass control is a community job because it requires the attention of everyone in the neighborhood, according to Purdue University. Watch for new bunches of Johnson grass that start in clean fields. Kill them by pulling or hoeing before deep roots are formed. The grass spreads both by seeds and root parts and is scattered by water, in hay, by cultivator or wind.

Like melted cheese and creamy potatoes? They'll be even better when you add some flavor to them with celery, onions and frankfurters and place in potato shells to serve for a supper or lunch.

Winter Vegetables Need Pepped-Up Seasonings For More Meal Appeal

ARE YOU LACKING ideas for the preparation of winter vegetables? Glance through this column for really solid inspiration for I've packed it full of practical ideas and suggestions which you're certain to find helpful.

It's true that we don't have as many vegetables during these cool months as during the summer, but this is the time to dress and glamorize what you have with interesting seasonings as well as different methods of cookery.

Bake instead of boiling all of them just for the sake of interest and you'll save vitamins as well. Bring out the herbs and sauces to add new flavors to common vegetables. Make appetizing color and texture combinations and see how the family eats them up!

Here's a new way with carrots, good to use when you have an oven meal:

- Baked Carrots (Serves 8)
18 small carrots
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup boiling water

Scrape or pare carrots and place in a casserole. Cream butter, sugar and cinnamon together; add water and blend. Pour over carrots and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for one and one-half hours.

- Spiced Red Cabbage (Serves 6 to 8)
2 tablespoons mixed spices
3 quarts water
1 teaspoon salt
2 pounds red cabbage, shredded
4 tablespoons brown sugar
4 tablespoons vinegar
3 tablespoons butter

Place spices in a small cheese-cloth bag. Heat water and salt to boiling, add cabbage and spices and cook 30 minutes. Drain. Dissolve sugar in vinegar, add butter and combine with cabbage.

In place of plain vinegar in the above recipe, you may use basil vinegar for an interesting variation.

HERE'S A COLORFUL vegetable dish which will be a delight to bring to the table. Inexpensive tomato sauce comes in a can, ready to heat and pour over the vegetable.

- *Cauliflower With Tomato Sauce (Serves 6)
1 medium head cauliflower
1 8-ounce can tomato sauce
2 tablespoons butter or substitute
4 tablespoons grated cheese

Soak cauliflower in cold, salted water for 15 minutes. Drain. Place in a large pan of rapidly boiling, salted water. Cook, covered, for 20 to 25 minutes or until cauliflower is tender. Drain. Place cauliflower in baking dish. Cover top with canned tomato sauce. Dot with butter and sprinkle with cheese. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 15 minutes.

- *Wax Beans O'Brien (Serves 6 to 8)
6 tablespoons chopped pimiento
6 tablespoons chopped onion
4 tablespoons fat
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 cups cooked wax beans
1/2 cup water

Cook pimiento and onion in fat for two to three minutes. Add salt and Use These Hints to Make Vegetables Appetizing. Hollow out the halves of eggplant. Stuff the shells with a combination of cooked eggplant mixed with sauteed mushrooms, onion and cream sauce. Cover with crumbs and bake in a casserole in a hot (400° F.) oven for 20 minutes.

Onions may be hollowed out and filled with mushrooms and cheese sauce, then baked in a covered casserole in a moderate oven for an hour.

beans and cook five minutes longer. Add water and heat to boiling.

THERE ARE MORE than creamy potatoes to the following recipe. With the additional ingredients used to glorify them, you may use them for a light lunch or supper.

- Stuffed Idaho Potatoes (Serves 6)
3 Idaho potatoes, baked
6 frankfurters, diced
1 cup diced celery
1 small onion
2 to 3 tablespoons shortening
1/2 pound quick-melting cheese

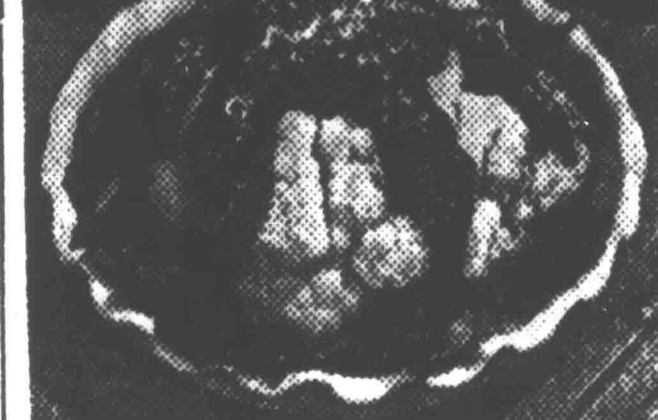

Saute the frankfurters, celery and onion in shortening; add a little water and steam until celery is done. Allow water to evaporate. Cut baked potatoes lengthwise and remove potato from skin. Mash the potato, adding seasoning and milk until they are creamy and smooth. Fill potato shell with frankfurter mixture; then a thin slice of cheese and top with the mashed potato. Place in a moderate (350 degree) oven until tops are lightly browned, about 15 to 20 minutes.

- Escalloped Spinach (Serves 10)
2 eggs, well beaten
2 cups milk
2 cups cracker crumbs
4 tablespoons melted butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups cooked spinach

Mix all ingredients thoroughly, reserving about 1/2 cup of buttered crumbs for the top. Place in a buttered casserole and cover with crumbs. Bake in a slow oven (325 degree) until crumbs are browned and the mixture is set in the center, about 35 minutes.

- French-Fried Cauliflower (Serves 6 to 8)
4 1/2 cups cooked cauliflowerets
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup dry bread crumbs

Dip cauliflower into slightly beaten eggs, roll in bread crumbs and let stand at least one-half hour.

Cauliflower will look prettier and taste better when you serve it with canned tomato sauce and a bit of Parmesan cheese as a pep-up touch. This may also be used as an idea for a vegetable platter, adding green beans or peas to surround the cauliflower.

Fry in deep, hot fat (350 degree) until brown. Drain on absorbent paper.

- Broccoli Souffle (Serves 4)
3 eggs, separated
1/2 cup hot, thick white sauce
1 cup chopped, cooked broccoli
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Beat egg yolks and add to white sauce. Add broccoli and cheese. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 50 minutes. Serve with cheese sauce: make two cups thick white sauce with three tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour and two cups milk. Season with one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and add one-half cup grated American cheese. Cook in double boiler until cheese melts.

- Fried Brussels Sprouts (Serves 6)
1 onion, chopped
3 tablespoons butter
4 cups cooked Brussels Sprouts

Cook onion in butter until tender, add sprouts and toss gently until heated thoroughly. Released by WNU Features.

Beets will be zippy if you cut cooked beets into thin strips and heat with 1/2 cup top milk, 2 1/2 teaspoons horseradish and 1 teaspoon salt.

Cauliflower leaves should not be discarded. Cook, covered for 15 minutes and, add them to white sauce.

Wax beans will be appetizing when served with toasted, slivered almonds. Chives or mint, chopped and added to melted butter will do flavorful things to boiled carrots.

Elementary News

As this goes to press we are taking an imaginary trip to Alaska and we are hoping to learn many interesting things about this territory which belongs to the U. S. and yet is so different to the land in which we live.

We are enjoying many beautiful spring folwers that the pupils are bringing the school.

The fifth graders are enjoying their map study very much. We have some beautiful colored maps on the walls of our room and did you know a long time ago Monastery bells rang eight times a day? The man sang a certain number of Psalms. When he had sung the right number of Psalms the bell was rung. We have been having races in English — the boys have won every time, but the girls haven't given up yet.

Sixth Grade
Twenty of our pupils attended Sunday School Sunday. We are studying China in history and geography.

A room play was enjoyed by all last Monday in which the pupils took part.

We are glad to have Martha Helen McAlister back after several days illness. We have completed our maps of Europe and are wondering who drew the best one because Mrs. McCorkle has given us permission to put the best one in the library.

Seventh Grade
Well, here we are again with the seventh grade happenings. We have been studying the Civil War in history. Test week is here again! Poor us!

We are glad to have Norma Belton back after her illness — the mumps.

Eighth Grade
We, the eighth graders, met in the auditorium last Friday for our music period. We invited the seventh graders as our guests. The guest artists were Mr. Neil Dyer and Hutson McCorkle. Mr. Dyer sang "My Buddy" and "When Day Is Done". Hutson played "Melody in F". We did appreciate them appearing on our program. Thanks!

The rest of the program was as follows:
Song — "America, the Beautiful"
Piano, "Lullaby", Thompson — Barbara Dunaway
Piano, "Rose Petals", Lawson — Marietta Woodard
Piano, "Thine Own", Long — Barbara Scott

"The Story of the Wonder Boy — Mozart" — Stuart Crichfield
Piano, "Fifth Nocturne", Leyback — Patsy Belton
Piano, "Romance in A", Lieurance — Annella Steelman
Boys Chorus — "Darling Clementine"

Girls Chorus — "In An Old Dutch Garden"
The leader of the program was Mary Simmons.

Charles Currie and Bobby Savage were the ushers.

Carolyn Woodley, Annette Tomlinson, and Joan Smith were in charge of the flowers.

See you next week!

Ringold Lady Dora Tops Hampshire Sows Raises Total of 71 Pigs to Weaning Age

First of her Hampshire breed to become a "seven-star" sow, Ringold Lady Dora No. 753,056 has raised a total of 71 pigs to weaning age, an average of 10.1 pigs per litter. This record is more impressive when compared with national averages. According to U. S. department of agriculture reports, the national average is 6.18

Here, with her seventh "star" family, is Ringold Lady Dora No. 753,056, champion production sow in the Hampshire breed and the first of her kind to qualify as a "seven-star" sow.

spring pigs and 6.39 fall pigs per litter raised to weaning age.

To qualify for a star in the Hampshire production registry a sow must raise a litter of at least eight pigs, without fault or defect, to weigh 320 pounds within 56 days of farrowing. And of course to gain a "seven-star" record Ringold Lady Dora has repeated this performance seven times. She is the first sow in the Hampshire breed to be listed for either the sixth or seventh "star" litters.

In her seventh "star" litter, this sow farrowed 15 pigs, nine of which were saved. The eight selected for registration weighed 443 pounds at 56 days after farrowing.

The production champion was fed a ration containing corn, oats, alfalfa and pelleted milk by-products prior to farrowing. Her pigs were creep fed early and raised on a ration of seven parts corn and three parts oats, with 8 per cent milk by-products added.

Ringold Lady has been owned and bred by William C. Goodheart, Jr., of Eaton, Ohio, since 1944, and was sold to Meadowlark Farms, Inc., Sullivan, Ind.

Farm Production Costs

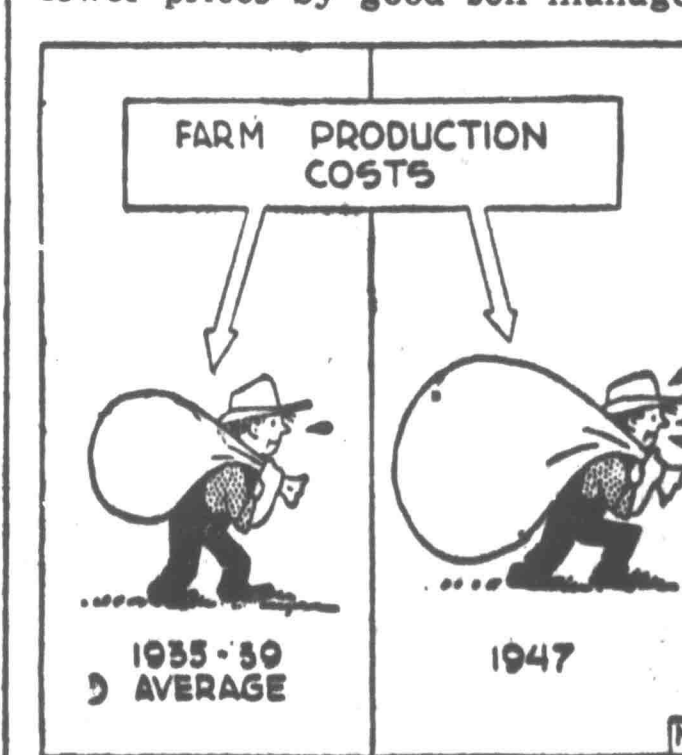

Farm production costs have nearly tripled since the pre-war years of 1935-39, according to U. S. department of agriculture statistics. These costs totaled 14.9 billion dollars in 1947, compared with 5.2 billion before World War II's outbreak. Farm wages are now three and a half times the 1935-39 average.

Meanwhile, farm prices have slumped and many economists expect a further easing in months ahead. Corn and wheat are already 25 to 40 per cent under their early 1948 peaks.

Farmers can best meet the impact of higher production costs and lower prices by good soil management that steps up crop producing efficiency and lowers output costs per unit.

Good soil management involves no magic or mystery. It simply means playing fair with the soil by returning organic matter and plant nutrients used up by constant crop production. Organic matter can be restored by growing deep-rooted legumes such as alfalfa or sweet clover in the rotation and plowing them under for green manure.

When the soil is restocked with organic matter and plant food you will get higher yields and you will cut your production costs.

The ease and convenience of its use as well as its high nutritive value justify its place along with flour, sugar and salt on the pantry shelf of every homemaker.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

The Missus "Ducks" Out

Slim Hartman took his missus duck hunting the other day. And after five hours of sitting in a swamp, she'd had enough! Going home, Slim reminded her good-naturedly of the time she'd taken him to a woman novelist's lecture, and insisted that he sit it out.

So now the missus and Slim have an understanding. No more duck hunting for her—no more lectures for him. They decided each to his own taste.

It's because they can agree to disagree like that, I think, that

Slim and the missus get on so well — content to stay home nights together, enjoying one another's company over a glass of beer and a game of chess.

From where I sit, we can't all enjoy the same things—but we can share those little pleasures that we do enjoy—a glass of beer, a game of chess, some music on the radio—and live-and-let-live when it comes to the others.

Who's Running?

Only a few days — until April 6th to be exact — remain in which candidates for offices in the forthcoming city election may qualify according to our information since the qualification deadline is 30 days before the election which is set for May 5. So far only one man has indicated that he is a candidate for mayor although we have heard rumors that others are planning to make the race and not one candidate for alderman has been forthcoming. This is not a laughing matter as some seem to think but of vital interest to every citizen and taxpayer of Halls. There is a great deal of grief attached to serving as mayor or alderman but nevertheless the town must have good men to attend to the town's affairs for them. We have never been much of a believer in tickets but we think that strong and qualified men should seek these offices not only because the town needs them but because it is each individual's business also. From figures which we have recently published it seems to us that the town is in the strongest financial condition that it has been in many years and we need men who will keep it in that condition. May we urge that some of the leading business men give serious thought to becoming candidates for aldermen so that the business of the town may be administered in a business-like manner. There are plenty of qualified men but no one seems to be inclined to make the race. Only ten days left.

No Poll Tax

The State Legislature has passed a bill removing the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting in statewide primaries and Governor Browning is expected to sign it today. This means that the poll tax is not repealed but merely no longer necessary in order to vote in state primaries. This however does not mean that poll taxes will not be required in the city election since that is a general election and the new law applies only to primaries. Just at the present we are not clear whether or not poll tax receipts will be required in the attorney general race but poll taxes can be paid up until the date of the election.

Enjoys Trip

Mr. C. N. Wilkes has recently returned home after spending some time in Hot Springs, Ark., and he is spending a lot of time telling what a fine time he had. Among other things he did was be a guest of the Lions club there and hear Ed J. Foltz of the FBI and several other prominent men speak. Mr. Wilkes says he is feeling fine following his vacation.

A Fine Gesture

As a gesture of courtesy to Mayor Ross W. Dyer who is a candidate for Attorney General of the 16th Judicial Circuit and in an effort to further his candidacy a group of business men from Halls spent Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday in touring the district. This gesture is in keeping with the respect which Mr. Dyer has earned here and we believe it should be of great aid to his candidacy.

—O—O—

What — No Water

Considerable excitement was abroad in Halls late Sunday afternoon when the water tank ran dry and the town was without water for a period of some four hours. People were busy turning off hot water heaters, calling to find out what was wrong, etc. Just what happened we don't know but thank goodness there wasn't a fire. Seems to us that a careful check should be made to determine just what happened.

Station WHBQ Is Moved On Dial

Radio Station WHBQ in Memphis, owned and operated by Harding College, Searcy, Ark., has moved its position on the dial to 560, and has increased its power to 5000 watts daytime and 1000 watts nighttime.

Eugene Pournelle, station manager, announces that this move means that the popular WHBQ features, such as Freddie Burns, Light Crust Doughboys, Eddie Arnold, Joe Manuel, and other popular folk singers and musicians will now easily be heard in this territory. This is also true of such Mutual network favorites as Kate Smith, Cedric Foster, Gabriel Heatter and a host of popular radio stars.

WHBQ, in this progressive move to bring better radio to the entire Memphis trade area, has built a new four room transmitter which contains newest R. C. A. equipment. By this building is a group of five 310 foot transmitter towers to aid in bringing WHBQ features to at least a million new listeners who have been unable to hear this station before.

The studios of WHBQ are in Hotel Gayoso, where visitors are always welcome to see how modern programs are handled.

ATTEND GRADUATION EXERCISES AT U. T.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Parker, Sr. of Gates, Mrs. W. P. Alexander of Dyersburg, E. G. Parker, Jr. of Halls and Mrs. James Harwell of Nashville were in Knoxville during the weekend where they attended exercises of the graduating class of the University of Tennessee. Miss Cornelia Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Sr., was a member of the graduating class and received a B. S. degree in Education.

ENTERS U. OF TENN.

Wymond Hurt, Jr., left Sunday for Knoxville where he will enter the University of Tennessee. He has been assisting his father in the Western Auto Associate Store here.

Something Needed Here

May we again state to the merchants of Halls that we believe that it would be well for them to inaugurate some sort of Trades Day or similar event to induce additional business to come to Halls. Our neighboring towns of Dyersburg and Ripley have already started such a program and we think that local business men should give this serious consideration.

Respected Double Bridges Farmer Dies

Richard Arthur (Arch) Pitts, well known and highly respected farmer and landowner of the Double Bridges community, died Saturday night at his home in that community. He was 79.

Funeral services were held at 2 Monday afternoon at Elton Baptist Church with the Rev. C. L. Longe and the Rev. C. W. Baldrige officiating. Garner Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Never married, Mr. Pitts had been in ill health for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jones were residing with him at the time of his death.

Surviving are three nieces, Mrs. F. O. Herring and Mrs. Mamie Williams of Halls and Mrs. Price Autry of Trimble; and three nephews, Alsie Watson of Dyersburg, and Hershall Watson and Hayden Pitts of Memphis.

Baptist Men's Bible Class

JESUS' CONCERN FOR ALL PEOPLE

This lesson teaches of the love of Christ for all people, races, tribes and nationalities. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3: 16. The grace of Jesus Christ is able to make all "The children of God by faith in Christ Jesus; for their is neither Jew nor Greek, neither bond nor free," for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." Gal. 3: 26-28.

Our lesson brings us the incident of Jesus healing the servant of the Roman officer. The healing of the demon possessed daughter of the Syro-Phoenician woman and the restoring of the deaf and dumb man to health in Decapolis. The first was a Roman officer, that day; the second was a native generally hated by the Jews in the heathen country of Phoenicia and of the tribe of Canaanites whom the Hebrew people drove out of Canaan when they possessed of the land. The deaf and dumb man was a gentile, for whom the Jews had no respect or love.

The unbounded compassion and love of Christ crossed national boundaries, knew no racial, political or social distinctions. "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; these also I must bring and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd." John 10: 16. The sectional conflict over so called civil rights, now going on in this country and being fought over in Congress is largely instigated by those who hypocritically make their claims for tolerance a cloak for their own intolerance. The real underlying motives of these arguments are actuated by desire for political or economic advantage, or because of sectional dislike and even envy. Nothing but the spirit of Christ will ever dislodge these things from the hearts of men and women. Every problem between the races and colors and divergent religious and political groups could be solved by the love in their hearts for God and each other that Christ preached and lived.

The same spirit of intolerance was really at the bottom of the World War II and, as for that matter, all wars of History. This same lack of love for one's fellow man and the rights of others is preventing the return of international peace between the nations. Next Sunday the Pastor, Bro. Cooper, is going to address the men in our Bible Class and we are anxious to have at least 50 men to hear him discuss the great issues of this lesson.

The latch string is always on the outside for men of ages both saved and unsaved to attend these studies and discussions of God's Book.

Next Friday Set As Field Day

F. H. Paschal County Agent Spring Field Day at the West Tennessee Experiment Station at Jackson will be held next Friday, April 1, beginning at 10:00 o'clock sharp.

All West Tennessee farmers are invited to visit the station on that day to see experimental plots and hear explanations of results achieved. More than 150 farmers from Lauderdale County attended a similar Field Day last year and learned a lot about the making of good pastures, the growing of small grains, making a success of winter crops, and the production of beef cattle, hogs, and milk.

The shortage and high cost of labor on our farms makes it necessary that we make better use of our land and capital to produce livestock which allow us to work some every day during the year but which do not require such a large amount of labor at any particular time. We can grow and sell livestock each year that will bring us an extra million dollars to Lauderdale County without reducing the production of crops or bringing in any additional labor.

Farmers interested in livestock production and better farming in general will profit greatly by attending this Field Day at the Experiment Station next Friday, April 1.

Recreational School Announced

The high school gymnasium at Brighton will be the scene of a recreational institute for recreational leaders from the counties of Rippon, Shelby, Lauderdale, Dyer, and Fayette on the nights of April 4, 5 and 6.

All types of leaders of recreational activities in rural areas are invited to attend this school. Those who plan to come are urged to stay through the whole three nights. School teachers and supervisors, 4-H Club leaders, church recreational leaders, and others interested in recreation for rural people are invited.

Those interested in attending the school should notify the County Agents by telephoning 234 or by writing a postcard, since it is necessary that we know how many to expect to attend from this county.

NEW SON

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Galaw of Neenah, Wisconsin, announce the birth of a son on March 18th. He has been named Glenn Allan. Mrs. Galaw will be remembered here as the former Miss Jean King, daughter of Mrs. W. W. King, who at one time made their home in Halls.

Elementary News Notes

— Rainey and Woodard — We haven't just dropped out of sight, Because soon you will see there is light. When you find out what we have in store, You'll want to know for there'll be pleasure galore.

First Grade

Judy Wright and Freddie Lee Chipman both had birthdays this week. They celebrated the "ripe" old age of seven years. We are enjoying our tinker toys and jacks very much. The first graders all had green ties and hair ribbons for St. Patrick's Day. The first grade has discovered that they like to sing while they write and they do it much faster and better.

Second Grade

The second grade wishes to express their appreciation to Mr. C. F. Harward for entertaining us during our music period last Friday. We'd like for him to come and visit with us again. We are happy that W. T. Harris has enrolled as a member of our grade. He comes from Hillcrest School in Dyer County.

We enjoyed helping Jerry Chipman celebrate his eighth birthday Wednesday of last week.

Third Grade

Last week we enjoyed some of the long-liked Uncle Remus Stories on our record player. Evalyn Smith brought them to school for us to use.

We had 29 of our forty-eight to attend Sunday School last Sunday.

We are making travel pictures this week, and we are really enjoying doing it.

Fourth Grade

We are sorry to lose Leroy Harvey. He has moved to Crockett County. We are now fifty-two in number.

Barbara Alston and Walter Rogers celebrated their birthdays March 20th. Happy Birthday, Barbara and Walter.

We are having an interesting unit of work about South America in our social studies. Our bulletin board is full of South American maps and pictures. We have enjoyed listening to South American music on our record player.

Fifth Grade

The vernal equinox arrived and "Spring" has been officially ushered in and the fifth graders have enjoyed studying the meaning of the words and welcomed spring with outstretched arms. Luckily, too, our science this week is about birds, bees and flowers which makes us marveled at nature's own wonderful picture.

Thanks to all the mothers and friends who supported us at PTA — the picture is beautiful and has proved excellent material for art appreciation and some were able to draw good likenesses of it.

We are glad to have Shelby Jean Davis back with us after several weeks of illness. Burdette Smith celebrated her 11th birthday Sunday, March 20th. We have finished our U. S. maps, and they are looking good.

Tommie Wright has a new brother and she is looking very happy.

Sixth Grade

Twenty-two of our class attended Sunday School last Sunday. We missed Carolyn Akin as she was sick last week.

We are studying planets and stars in science, Outer Mongolia in Geography and we are surprised to learn that the Mongolians live in yurts.

In our devotional we are memorizing the thirteen chapters of Corinthians.

We are working on our behavior this week because we want to raise our grades in deportment.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade had its musical Thursday, March 17th, in the grammar school auditorium. The following program was rendered:

Little Anna Ray Hurt celebrated her fifth birthday Monday last week with a Drug Store Party in Dyersburg. Her mother, Mrs. Elbert Viar, and her grandmother, Mrs. Fred R. Hurt, took the youngsters to Dyersburg and they enjoyed ice cream there. Those helping Anna Ray to celebrate her birthday were David and Katie Lou Hurt, Pat Warren, Alix Hallman and Pamela Rhodes.

MISS CARMEN FIFE WED MARCH 17

Miss Carmen Fife of West Frankfort, Ill. became the bride of William De Bruhl in a ceremony performed at a Knoxville Methodist Church Thursday evening, March 17.

A program of organ music preceded the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a two-piece suit of iridescent faille with matching accessories. Her corsage was made up of orchids.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. J. K. Hinton, Jr. of Halls, who wore a dress of brown crepe and faille with matching accessories. Her corsage consisted of yellow rosebuds.

Bill Hunter of Knoxville served Mr. De Bruhl as best man.

Following the wedding a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. De Bruhl are making their home in Knoxville where Mr. De Bruhl will continue his studies at the University of Tennessee.

By Walter C. Davis, D. D., Tennessee School of Religion, University of Tennessee

(Mark 7:24 - 37)

"JESUS AND OTHER RACES"

We hear much about the over-worked phrase "race relations." We ought to hear more about human relations. Passing a few laws designed to insure racial rights will not solve our modern vexing problem.

A recent story, widely circulated, told of a school of white children raising money to send a colored infantile paralysis victim to a hospital for cripples. Such things are not unusual but should occur more often. It is this human feeling of care and helpfulness that will break across all color lines and help every child of God.

Jesus set the example. This woman of Syrophenicia belonged to a despised race. Their religion and their ideology were different. She came worshipping and begging help. Sickness and calamity make us all akin. Besides, she was a mother. Her daughter was devil-possessed. The disciples wanted to send her away. She was noisy and they didn't want her crying after them. Jesus seemed to fall in with their plans. He seemed cold and careless, and His words were sharp.

The mother persisted. She said, "Help me." If we make the sickness and souls of our children our personal care, God helps.

This woman had great love. Her daughter's affliction was her own. She had great faith. Jesus commended it.

She had persistence. Her persistence won.

She had humility. The crumbs or any small favor would do. She was willing to be counted a "dog" if only she could have the blessing.

This was the first lesson given the disciples that this religion of ours is to be a world religion. It is to know no boundaries of any race or color. No ideology is to be a barrier. No degree of culture is to have any preference. God is no respecter of persons.

We have no right to hug any treasure as our own possession. It is no credit of yours that you were born an American. If your skin is black that is no reproach, nor does it justify contentment or bitterness. No "Blue-Blood" has any right to boast of his ancestry. The world is not interested in who your grandfather was, but in what you are.

A wise man has said that a boy of rich parentage enters life handicapped. Maybe it is true that children of rich homes too may be "under-privileged." There may be plenty of money to give medical and dental care and educational advantages, which poor children are denied, and still a worse handicap may be theirs. They are handicapped unless they can free themselves of egotism and of self-importance. The children's bread may be "cast to dogs" unless they are worthy of it.

Girls' Chorus: "Old Dutch Garden"

We were happy to have our mothers and the sixth and eighth grades present. The ushers were Douglas Tomlinson and Hugh Cheshier. The flower arrangements were prepared by Sharon England, Shirley Dunaway and Everette Agee.

Friday the seventh grade had a party which was enjoyed by everyone. The girls brought the sandwiches and the boys brought the drinks.

We are all glad those dreaded tests are over and we hope we passed.

We are glad that Mary Chipman is back in school after a few days of illness.

Eighth Grade

We are still working on the globe that the Coca Cola Co. gave us and we do enjoy it very much.

Several of our 8th grade boys have gone out for football and next year part of the team will be made up out of these "freshmen"

Watch the News Notes for the eighth grade is planning something in the near future and the public will be invited.

Keep your eyes and ears open! S'Long

We take this method to thank our friends and neighbors for their love and kindness shown us during the illness and death of our darling husband and father, B. L. Robison.

Especially do we thank the Avery Quartet, Rev. D. A. Bishop and Rev. C. C. Lewis.

To each one who gave blood, sent flowers, cards and called. May God bless every one of you.

CARD OF THANKS

Words will not express our appreciation for the many flowers, the many acts of kindness, the many cards and calls following the death of our father, W. C. Love.

We especially thank Drs. Olds and Hinton, the Revs. R. J. Cooper and McFarland and the Sudbury Funeral Home.

Also we wish to thank the Avery Quartet and Mrs. Wymond Hurt for the beautiful music.

God's blessing rest upon each of you.

Mrs. W. C. Love and Children

Uncle Natchel's
FERTILIZER TALK

Farmers in our section always put mixed fertiliz under their cotton and side-dresses with natchel Chilean soda. Three years ago, they couldn't get no soda and had to leave off the side-dress. That year for the first time we had plenty of rust.

NATURAL CHILEAN NITRATE of SODA

Next year, we got our soda again and done like we always done before. And we didn't get no rust at all! Somebody say the soda in natchel nitrate acts jes like potash on rust. Maybe that's how come we got rust when we didn't get to use no soda.
