Cheshier Why Board Shaken

James H. Cheshier, Dyer Bros. Lumber Co. employee, defeated six-term Halls mayor Jerre Jordan for re-election in unexpectedly heavy balloting Thursday.

Cheshier was elected by 134 votes:

CHESH	HER .	 	 	456
JORDA	N	 	 	322

Mayor-elect Cheshier was successful in his second race against Jordan, his first having failed two years ago by only 62 votes.

The board of aldermen-all six of whom sought re-election-was severely shaken up by the city's voters.

Half of the incumbents—Grover Smith, Dorris Rod-gers, and Billy Viar—were defeated and were replaced by Sammy Arnold, Eugene Pugh, and Perry Williams. The incumbents re-elected were E. O. Dew, Jr., Harold Hart, and Paul Jordan.

International Uniform Sunday School Lausans AWRENCE W. ALTH Of God or Man?

Lesson for May 14, 1967 nd Scripture: Acts 5:12-42. at Reading: 1 Kings 8:54-61.

Let's assume that your pastor s involved in the drive to secure qual opportunities in employsible to obey civil authorithis case, you will remember, it all started when Peter and John healed a man by the Beautiful Gate and then witnessed to the power of Jesus. Dragged before warned not to heal, preach, or teach any more in the name of the help of God, they escaped from jall and resumed the very work they had been forbidden

There is really a parallel here, 't there? Peter and John got nto trouble with the civil authorities when, in response to God's guidance, they helped a man who was the victim of a physical disa-bility. Some Christians today gotten into trouble with the authorities when, in response to what they believed to be God's guidance, they have helped men who are the victims of preju-dice and injustice. In both cases there is civil disobedience, an atmpt to "obey God rather than ur noses at those who would seek to do the same thing today. Why is it that civil disobedience appears so much more holy in the First Century than in the WANTED-Floor sanding and fin-ishing iobs

Unless we want to reject much the New Testament, we Chrisans can hardly say that civil isobedience is never justifiable. wANTED e temple, overturned the tables f the money changers, and rove them out. That wasn't even Yet, isn't this also those engaged in issues of conscience may? True, we argue, but sup-my extended hospital confine ment. May God's blessings b e will of God? Then what?

There's the rub, isn't it? How n you don't agree or aren't Jerusalem. Peter and John be-lieved that they were doing the will of God, but the men of the certain that they amaliel reminded the Council that if something is of God, thing will defeat it in the long run; if it is not of God, nothing we do will make it ultimately suc-ceed. God always prevails. So, let us see whether this is of God or of man. There are bound to be issues which Christians will not agree concerning the will of God. et us respect the Christian conence of one another and follow our own convictions, confident that in God's own time his will

RECENTLY, CIVIL DEFENSE WARNING SIGNALS took on slightly different functions. As shown, a wavering tone or a series of short blasts for three to five minutes means an actual attack against the country has been detected, and that protective action should be taken immediately. The alert signal, a steady blast or tone from three to five minutes, may be used by local governments in case of tornado, flood or other types of "short-fuse" disasters, and will always be supplemented by explanation and instruction by radio, television or otherwise.

Both men knew that they were firmly in the hands of God and therefore did not fear death. Was it because they assumed that God would rescue them from their peril? Were they confident that he would keep them from all pain: and suffering? No, they had no such assurance. They knew they: would suffer; almost as certain was death itself. They were free from fear of death because they knew that, though their enemies might take their lives, they could ot destroy their souls.

It was this same assurance that inspired Martin Luther to
