THE KEY

Lesson for November 3, 1968
Background Scripture: Peter 1:3-5; 2:18-23
Devotional Reading: 1 Peter 5:1-11

Nothing so surprises some Christians as the fact of suffering. "What did I do to deserve this?" they ask in both bewilderment and indignation. "How can God do this to me? How can he let this happen?" In vain they search their memories for the remembrance of some sin that might explain or justify their present plight.

Nothing so surprises some Christians as the fact of suffering. "What did I do to deserve this?" they ask in both bewilderment and indignation. "How can God do this to me? How can he let this happen?" In vain they search their memories for the remembrance of some sin that might explain or justify their present plight.

Why? Is it because Christianity encourages us to inevitably regard suffering as punishment for sin? Of course not. Christ on the cross is the classic example of undeserved suffering. If ever anyone had the right to protest his suffering, Jesus did. Who would have been more justified to ask, "What did I do to deserve this? How can God let this happen to me?"

Despite the fact that Jesus was obedient to the will of his Father, he suffered. In fact, he might even say he suffered because of his obedience. It was the predictable consequence of his loyalty. And so it may be for all of us who seek to follow in his obedient footsteps. We are likely to find the cross a consequence of our obediences.

Indeed the writer of 1 Peter warns us: "Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal which comes upon you to prove you, as though something strange were happening to you. (1 Peter 4:12 RSV) Anyone who understands the meaning of discipline ought not to be surprised when suffering comes upon him. There is no crown without a cross.

More than physical
Of course, there are different kinds of suffering. We tend to think only in terms of Jesus suffering on the cross, of Paul being persecuted, of Roman Christians dying in the arenas of Rome, of reformers dying at the hands of the Inquisition, and of missionaries undergoing terrible hardships in far-off lands. All of this makes the experience seem pretty remote—long ago and far away.

Yet suffering, according to my dictionary, means "to be subjected to pain, distress, injury, loss, or anything unpleasant." Thus, it can mean physical pain, but it doesn't have to. Suffering can also mean emotional distress or any unpleasant thing. Even Christ's suffering on the cross was more than merely physical.

Rejoice!
Therefore, although we may not be called upon to bear physical pain for the sake of the Gospel here in America, we may still be called upon to bear periodic distress, rejection, ridicule, and unpleasantness. Sometimes these kinds of suffering are more frightening and insidious than mere physical pain. Often it is easier to die as a Christian martyr than it is to live as a Christian witness.

But Peter's counsel for the sufferer is not merely to be negative. "Don't be surprised." Along with the "Don't" there is also a "Do!" "... rejoice in so far as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed." (1 Peter 4:13 RSV) Suffering is a terrible foe and the only way to prevail over this enemy is to refuse to let him take away our faith and joy. If we can sincerely thank God for the privilege of suffering with Christ, the power of suffering will be broken. It is like defusing a deadly weapon. Our joy destroys its power to defeat us.

Here, then, is the two-edged key that enables us to meet suffering. Don't be surprised... and... Do rejoice!

Election Day Nears

Next Tuesday, Nov. 5th, at least 25% of the voters—probably more—will forfeit their birthright when they fail to go to the polls and vote for their choice for president of the United States.

During this campaign we have heard every candidate maligned and downgraded and raw lies told about each. We made our own decision a long time ago, on the basis of how we felt the nation should go, but it would be possible for us to vote for some of the candidates, if we believed as they do.

It is our feeling that the Democratic Party has gone too far on foreign aid and some of the civil rights programs, and we regret its general lack of financial responsibility; but for those of us who do not agree, the Democratic nominee, Hubert Humphrey, has a long history of supporting these programs and was the logical Democratic nominee.

In the case of Alabama's governor, George Wallace, we have no direct quarrel with the man, with the exception that we do not believe that he can or will accomplish what he says, and, also, we believe that many of his supporters are completely misled in what he expects to accomplish. Nevertheless, it is the right of every citizen to make his own choice.

In the case of the Republican nominee, Richard M. Nixon, he is not the ideal candidate, nor for that matter would be any other member of the human race. Nevertheless, we believe that Mr. Nixon has the experience and ability needed by a President of the United States, and also, we hope and believe, the fiscal responsibility that will slow down—not our deficit spending and seeming complete lack of foresight of what the future may hold in store if some of the spending is not curtailed.

As for the Viet Nam war, we cannot believe that most of the citizens of the United States want to just walk out, nor do we believe that a bombing halt can be justified, so long as our boys are endangered.

As for the constitutional convention, we have serious reservations about the questions that will be considered. Despite the support by farmers and farmer organizations, we can't see the justice of assessing farmlands—income producing property—at lower rates than residential property, and we are afraid of classifications of property.

We know little about some of the other questions, but we do know that should one pass, there will be no possibility of another convention for many years.

Retired Teachers To Hear Dr. Wise

Dr. Merrill Wise, a member of the Tennessee Council on Aging and director of the Dynamic Maturity Program for Madison County and Jackson, will be the guest speaker when the National Retired Teachers Association meets at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Farm Bureau Building in Ripley. Everyone is invited.

APPERSON PROMOTED

James F. Apperson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Apperson, Route 1, Ripley, was promoted to Army Specialist-4 Sept. 25th near Long Binh, Viet Nam, where he is serving with the 3rd Ordnance Battalion as an ammunition storage specialist.

Ripley To Fayette After A Field Goal Stuns Rams, 16-13

Barnes' Final Period Boot Went 25 Yards To Decide Contest With Humboldt

The Ripley Tigers will travel to Somerville Friday evening to face the always tough Fayette Panthers.

Ripley has a 2-3 record in the conference and a 5-3 record overall, while Somerville has a 2-5 record.

Last Friday, Randy Barnes, Ripley end, shocked Humboldt with a 25-yard field goal in the final period to bring the Tigers a 16-13 win over the favored Rams.

The Dyersburg-Brownsville game at Brownsville this Friday will do much to settle the championship picture in the Big Ten Conference as the Trojans, leading team in the western division, take on the state's No. 1 rated team, Brownsville.

Halls Hosts Lake Eleven In Finale

The Halls High Tigers closed their home season Thursday evening as they hosted Lake County High, of Tiptonville.

Lake County was rated a slight favorite over the Tigers, who held a 3-5 record after their 13-0 loss to Gleason last Friday evening.

The Lake County game was advanced to Thursday evening from Friday so that local fans could see the Dyersburg-Brownsville game in Brownsville this Friday evening.

Brownsville and Dyersburg are each undefeated, with 7-0 records. The winner is expected to be the Big Ten champion.

Bob Thomas Leads 'Tiny' Knee Drive

The Lauderdale County Youth Council, at a meeting Tuesday night, appointed Bob Thomas, Ripley attorney, to head the drive to raise the remaining funds necessary to build a new "Tiny" Knee Youth Center to replace the "Shack," which was on the site of the new high school and can no longer be used. The fund has been started by gifts in memory of the late beloved "Tiny" Knee, who had already begun planning for the new building.

The Council will complete Mr. Knee's dream by constructing a 3,000 sq. ft. building to be named for the man who gave so much of himself for the youth of Ripley. Plans are under way to have the building completed in time for the Youth Council's Summer Program.

Tillman Pursues Assault On Ohio Valley Records

Murray State's Quarterback Was 'Player Of The Week' Versus Middle Tennessee

MURRAY, Ky., Oct. 31—Murray State quarterback Larry Tillman, a senior from Ripley, was named "offensive player of the week" in the Ohio Valley Conference for his play in Murray's 35-13 win over Middle Tennessee.

Tillman passed for two touchdowns and a conversion in the game and scored another TD himself on a 1-yard sneak. He completed 15 of 24 passes for 209 yards and rushed for 14 to maintain his lead in passing and total offense in the OVC.

The game saw Tillman complete 69 of 136 passes for the season for 1,013 yards and 12 touchdowns. His completion percentage stood at .504.

During the spectacular season last year, when he completed 190 of 380 passes for 2,300 yards and 18 touchdowns, Tillman practically rewrote the Murray and OVC record books for passing. This year, he's doing the same thing with the career records.

Last year he set school and conference season records for pass attempts and completions, touchdowns passes, yards passing, and total offense. This year, he has already broken the Murray career records for all these categories.

The game with Middle Tennessee, he broke the conference record for attempts and neared the conference marks for completions and TD passes.

The mark for yards passing may be out of his reach.

Tillman's career records have largely been the result of his play the last two years, while the former holders, Murray's Tony Fioravanti and Middle Tennessee's Teddy Morris, both started for four years.

Tillman played mostly on defense until last year. In fact, he was named to the All-OVC team as a defensive back in 1966 by The Louisville Courier-Journal.

Tillman's career figures, with five games still to go, were 299 completions in 598 attempts for 3,844 yards and 34 touchdowns. He had 4,098 yards total offense in 863 plays.

Morris' records were 326 completions, 4,799 yards, and 41 TD passes.

Tillman is captain of the Racers this season and, according to Coach Bill Furgerson, his leadership has been a vital factor in Murray's 4-0-1 record through the Middle Tennessee tilt.

Tillman's leadership qualities have also been recognized by another campus organization. He is cadet commander of the Murray State Reserve Officers Training Corps unit, which has ranked among the top units in the country for several years.

At 5-9, and 170 pounds, Tillman would be considered too small for a college quarterback by most coaches, but he makes up for his lack of size by a fierce determination and pride, according to the Murray coaches.

"Larry sets high goals for himself, and he'd move heaven and earth to achieve them," offensive Coach Carl Oakley says.

"He's also very intelligent, and he's able to see things happen on the field and knows how to react to them."

Dr. Wm. H. Tucker Is Guest Speaker

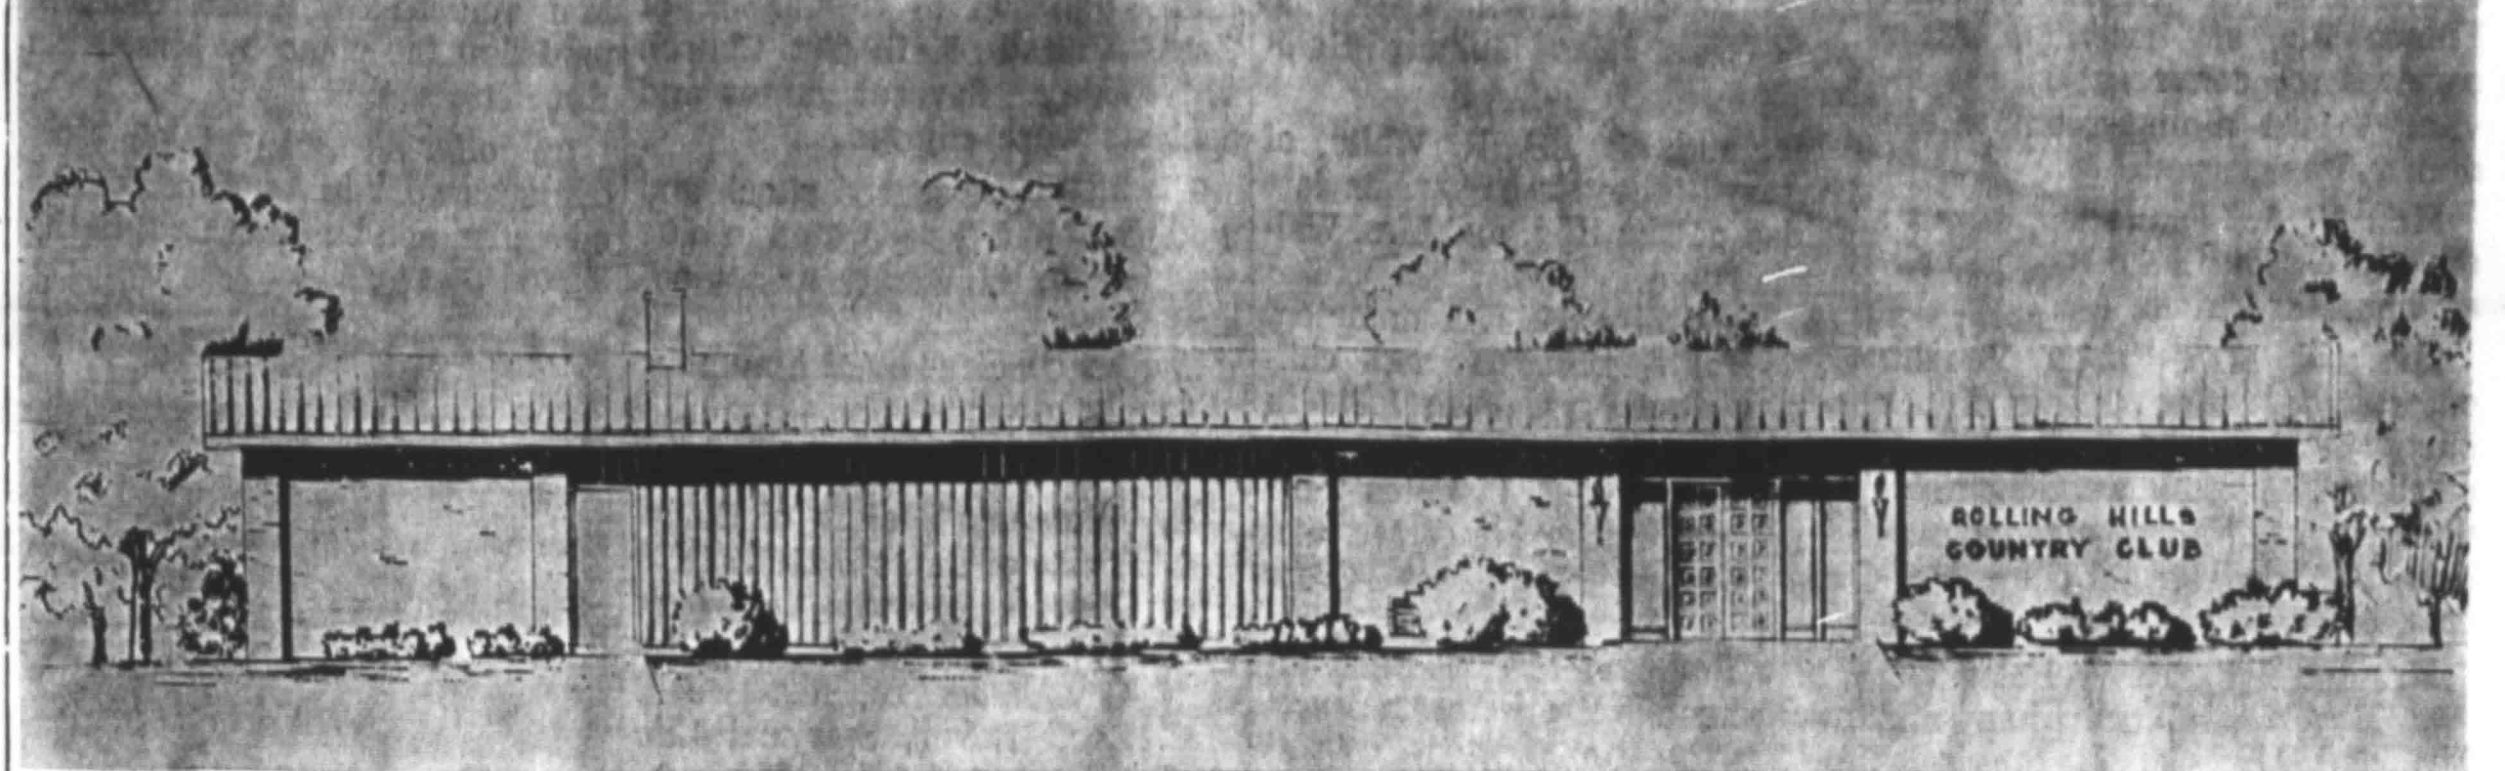

Dr. William Tucker, of Ripley, was the featured speaker at a special meeting of the Lauderdale County Tuberculosis Association in Ripley, last week. Speaking on respiratory disease, he told of the need for early detection of diseases of the chest. Early diagnosis, he said, greatly improves the chances for cure.

Mrs. Vernon McBride, president, welcomed those in attendance, and spoke of the goals and program of the association. F. H. Paschal gave the invocation.

The Farm Bureau Building, the scene of the meeting, was decorated with fall fruits and flowers, and emphasized Clean Air Week with displays of posters and graphs, done in colors.

After the program, refreshments were served from a table laid with an embroidered linen cloth and centered with a bowl of chrysanthemums. Coffee and punch were poured by Mrs. F. H. Paschal and Mrs. W. S. Thomas, Jr.

Country Club Awarded Loan

Mrs. Helen Klutts Editor 24 Years, Taken By Death

Enterprise Mourns Passing Of Self-Taught Journalist With Dauntless Spirit

Mrs. Helen Given Klutts, an editor of The Enterprise for 24 years, died of heart failure, following an infection, at 5:55 a. m. Wednesday in Lauderdale County Hospital.

She had entered the hospital Sept. 29th after nearly a year's illness.

She had observed her 70th birthday Thursday of last week. Services were at 10 a. m. Thursday in Ripley Funeral Home. The Rev. Bernard Scates officiated. Burial was in Maplewood Cemetery.

She was born Oct. 24, 1898, on the farm which her maternal grandfather, Gen. William Conner, named Belleville when he moved there from Ashport in the mid-1850s. Gen. Conner, a pioneer surveyor in West Tennessee, had previously resided at Woodville and before that near Brownsville, after having come from Culpepper County, Virginia, by ox-cart.

Mrs. Klutts was a daughter of the late Millard Fillmore Given and the late Mrs. Cornelia Hoven Conner Given.

She taught school at Central briefly and kept books, for George Scott's lumber firm in Ripley and for Albert Sidney Johnson's lumber company in Ripley and then in Trenton, before her marriage to Alonzo Klutts, cashier of First Savings Bank in Ripley, on April 7, 1925.

After her death on April 5, 1937, she resumed work as bookkeeper for City Lumber Co. in Ripley.

She became bookkeeper and society editor of The Enterprise in 1944.

After her son, William A. Klutts, became a partner in the paper in 1949, she assumed full charge of it in mid-November, 1950, and directed it for two years while her son was in Army service during the Korean War.

She also served for him as correspondent for The Memphis Commercial Appeal during this period.

She later resumed her supervision of women's news and continued it until a few weeks before she entered the hospital.

Her years with the paper saw it institute many important improvements as it earned 23 University of Tennessee-Tennessee Press Association state press awards. Her hand was instrumental in many of them, though she always gave the credit to others.

A self-taught journalist, she earned the affection and respect of newsmen in the Mid-South, in what is principally a male profession, by her courage and infectious cheerfulness in the face of whatever obstacles life might throw in her way.

In a traditional newspaper token of mourning, The Enterprise has "turned" the rules above and below the date-line on this page to print more darkly than usual, as the staff writes "30", newspaper symbol for the end of a story, to her loyal service.

A member of First Baptist Church in Ripley, she had taught in its Sunday School. She was long active in the Review Club in Ripley.

Besides her son, she leaves a brother, Robert E. Given, administrator of Lauderdale County Hospital; and two sisters, Miss Kathleen Given and Mrs. Monroe Belton, both of Ripley.

Pallbearers were Don Booker, Don Connell, Burnell Conner, Dunaway Conner, Terry Ford, Warner Pace, Robert S. Thomas, and Joe H. Walker, Jr.

Governor Asks Interstate Link

Halls Cagers Set 22-Game Season

Gov. Buford Ellington has announced that a 40-mile interstate highway connecting the new Mississippi River bridge near Dyersburg with Interstate 40 at Jackson has been approved by the state highway department.

The governor said that the highway has "high priority" among five projects submitted to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads for inclusion in additional interstate mileage.

The new route would link with I-155 near Dyersburg which in turn links with I-55 through Arkansas and Missouri to St. Louis. Also proposed for West Tennessee is a 125-mile project linking I-155 with I-44 at Clarksville near Fort Campbell.

No date has been set, but the governor said work could begin as early as 1971 or 1972.

SCHOOL NEWS

Construction began Thursday of last week on a new high school building to cost about $450,000. It will have 13 classrooms, an office, clinics for boys and girls, a guidance area, a conference room, and an information materials center.

Royalty for the homecoming football game were Julie Burks, queen, Pat Steelman, first maid, and Kathy Williams, second maid.

Six majorettes have joined the band—Susannah Spence, Pam Daugherty, Lisa Hayes, Debbie Hilliard, Gay Arnold, and Kathy White.

Seniors reached another milestone with delivery of class rings. Pictures are being made this week.

Distributive Education Club officers are Travis Smith, president; Dartha Garrett, vice-president; Judy Keen, secretary; Linda Jones, treasurer; Ken Webb, reporter; and Glen Cates, parliamentarian.

Smith and Webb will attend the state convention in Nashville Saturday. Smith is a candidate for state parliamentarian.

Tiger staff members this year are Nina Sellers, Sharlene Martin, Mac Haley, Felix Cook, Phyllis Mathis, Jackie Reeves, Sam- uel Reeves, Marty Hooper, Lisa Hayes, Sandie Woodward, Emily Cantrell, Nancy Viar, Ricky Lazure, Tommy Kelly, Gayle Garrison, Ken Webb, and Alecia Burroughs.

Cheerleaders have new uniforms. Leading the squad are Kathy Williams and Pat Steelman, with Darlene Arnold, Kathy Reynolds, Sharlene Martin, and Anetta O'Dell. Alternates are Terri Ward and Julie Burks.

Warming Contest For Presidency Closes Tuesday

Humphrey Battling Uphill; Question 3 Endorsed By Farm Bureau And Court

Citizens of the United States will go to the polls Tuesday to vote in a presidential campaign that defies analysis as Democratic nominee Hubert Humphrey wages an underdog fight to bring the results in doubt.

In the Eighth Congressional District, U. S. Rep. Robert A. Everett, who remains seriously ill in Nashville, is unopposed as are Democratic nominees for state representatives T. F. Garner, of Ripley, and John Palmer, of Dyersburg, and state senator George Gracey, of Covington, for the 37th and 38th House districts and the 27th Senatorial District.

Of considerable state and local interest is the proposed constitutional convention, with Question 3, fixing tax assessments, receiving the endorsement of Lauderdale County Quarterly Court and the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau.

Arch Latham

William Arch Latham, 79, farmer and landowner, died at 4 p. m. Monday at his home at Mary's Chapel.

Services were at 3 p. m. Wednesday in Mary's Chapel Baptist Church. The Rev. Wallace Vaughan and The Rev. Kenneth Stuart officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery, Ripley Funeral Home in charge.

Born in Madison County, he lived most of his life in Lauderdale County. He was a Methodist. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Emma Eula Parchman Latham, of Mary's Chapel; three sons, Herbert Latham, of Ripley, Jesse Latham, of West Monroe, La., and Frank Latham, of Gadsden; two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Langley, of Ripley, and Mrs. Mary Ella Baker, of Gates; a brother, Leonard Latham, of California; a sister, Mrs. Beulah Savage, of Ripley; nine grandchildren; and eleven great-grandchildren.

ROTARY STRAW VOTE

A straw vote taken at Ripley Rotary Club's meeting Tuesday gave Nixon 31 votes, Wallace 21 votes, and Humphrey 11 votes.

Warning: Delay Is Deadly For News

Despite repeated pleas in these columns, The Graphic continues to receive articles which their writers have neglected submitting for many days or even weeks after the events which they report. These are simply no longer news and cannot be published, no matter how deeply we regret the necessity of disappointing any contributor or reader.

Competition for newspaper space is intense: type-setting facilities are always under pressure and cannot be diverted from current news to set dust covered items which have grown old and stale.

We do, occasionally, publish items late when they were turned in promptly and were set, but were crowded out of an issue; these appear the following week. Otherwise, we cannot carry outdated news.

Our deadlines are: Society news, Monday; all advertising, Tuesday. Please remember these.

SMITH TO SPEAK

Eddie Smith, of Memphis, will speak on interior decorating at the meeting of the Halls Garden Club at 2:30 p. m., next Thursday in First Christian Church.

Vote Wallace For President Tuesday, November 5th Whose Platform Is America. Vote for an honest Southern gentleman: A chance in a life-time to vote for a Southerner for President of our Country. And remember that an honest man will be fair to all Americans. The policies of the other two men have had a part in getting our country in the worse mess in the History of our Nation. These men have condoned the marches, protests, etc. in the streets. The place to settle our grievances is at the polls and if this can't be done, then, we no longer have a democracy. Why be afraid of the Communists invading our country, when if we designate all the power and authority to our government, we already have Communism. Are we not tired of the politicians taking credit for the charity, when it is our money they are giving way. Shouldn't the ones that work and make the money be the ones to donate the charity and to receive the credit, if any credit is due. Are we not tired of the politicians bragging about what they have done for us, when they have created the largest indebtedness this country has ever known; more debt than all the other nations put together. And they are hollering for more taxes every day. If this indebtedness is not paid for in taxes, then it is paid for with inflation. If the amount of the indebtedness is more than the total value of our dollars, then we are broke and our currency becomes worthless. Wake up Americans... it's later than you think! Don't let Humpty Dumpty and Tricky Dick buy your vote with a little of your own money, keep the most of it for themselves, and give the rest of it away. Don't let a biased news media influence your vote. Vote your own conviction. If you vote for anyone that you don't think should be President, then you have already lost your vote. Lauderdale County Court Recommends You Vote FOR Question 3

ONLY NIXON CAN MAKE THE CHANGES YOU WANT! Humphrey doesn't want the changes you want. And Wallace lacks the Congressional support to make the changes you want. Only Nixon can bring a swift and honorable peace in Viet Nam. Because Nixon is the only candidate with experience in foreign affairs who is not tied to the mistakes of the present administration. Only Nixon can restore order under law. Because Nixon will appoint Supreme Court justices who will interpret the Constitution, not try to legislate. And he is the only candidate with sufficient Congressional backing to gain approval of such appointments. This time vote for the only man who can make the changes you want. This time Nixon! They say Love Is Blind— Politics Must Be Too! At the Democratic Convention in Chicago, there was almost a revolution inside the Convention Hall. There WAS ONE on the outside. A segment of our population was burning the cities down and our boys were dying in a war in Viet Nam and at the same time the so-called Democrats were playing and singing "Happy Days Are Here Again." I believe their record needs changing. I also remember the Titanic episode. David Hurt. Experienced and dedicated to the best interests of all Tennesseans.

CONFIDENTIAL
Corner
By Henry Murchison
Too Much Politics
As we look back at the presidential election campaign, we feel that most of us are glad that the campaign is now ended. For many weeks, we have heard and read opinions which we have about it.

In general, we would say that practically no one, including the candidates, is too happy with the results of the election, since Richard Nixon did not receive a clear-cut majority. Vice-President Humphrey failed to win election, and the George Wallace campaign was not as effective as he had expected.
However, we are forced to disagree with many of the commentators who now contend that nothing has changed on the nation's political scene.

We would say that the election of Mr. Nixon, although by a very narrow margin, and the almost 10 million votes polled by Nixon should indicate that the majority of the nation's citizens do want a slowdown in the ultra-liberal trend that has been prevalent in the United States during recent administrations.

Neither Mr. Nixon nor any of the other candidates have nor could have the solution of all problems, but we believe that a more moderate President and a more moderate Congress may well do something toward easing tensions.

Despite the fact that our candidate was elected, we are not inclined to crow about it, but rather to hope that we were right in our belief that a change was needed.

While we are completely unable to agree with many of Mr.
Humphrey's liberal thoughts, we have gained a great deal more respect for him than we had previously held. It is to be hoped that his energy, enthusiasm and ability can be utilized in such a manner as to help our nation.

The one unfortunate thing is that it seems that organized labor, and the black segment of the nation, are aligned against the remainder of the nation, which cannot be good for any of us.

The fair will be opened to the public at 11 a. m. Wednesday.

Poverty Warriors
Due Here Monday
The Lauderdale-Crockett Economic Opportunity Corporation is expecting a new team of VISTA (Volunteers in Service To American workers Nov. 14th).
They will move into poverty neighborhoods, carry on projects already underway, and start new ones.
Projects now operating including day care for children; establishing a rural library; camping;
and adult education classes.
Probable new projects will be to get Christmas into every home by distributing toys, fruits, pastries, and treats to needy families;
and after-school study centers.
Co-ordinator for the new arrivals will be Jack Martin, 28, a worker in the Ashport area for the year.
"We still need homes for some of the Vistas, so if anyone has space, he or she should call 635-0977 or 635-1811," Martin says. "A minimum of $2 a day will be paid for room and board."
"We also need more toys, foods, reference books, and volunteers from the community to help with the various programs," he says.

Westside Baptist Chapel, sponsored by Halls' First Baptist Church, will occupy its new building on North Sunnnow Street Sunday morning.
Established in September, 1967, the mission has been meeting in Halls Elementary School with the Rev. Guy Murrain as pastor and Jimmy Taylor as Sunday School Superintendent.
Constructed of concrete blocks and paneled in the classrooms and assembly hall the building was erected by donations among members of First Baptist Church.
Sunday services are at 9:45 a. m., 10:45 a. m., and 5 p. m., with Wednesday services at 7 p. m.

VOLUME 74—NUMBER 45

County For Wallace While Nixon Takes State And Country

Lauderdale Countians gave former Alabama governor George C. Wallace a majority of 393 votes in Tuesday's presidential election, but the state and the nation went to the county's third choice—Republican Richard Nixon.

The county vote:

Humphrey	51	69	102
Nixon	218	1080	3236
Wallace	393	102	123

Nixon squeaked into the White House with only 287 electoral votes—17 more than the minimum 270 required. Hubert Humphrey had 172, while Wallace had 45, from five states—Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, and Mississippi.

In the only other count on the county ballot, incumbent Z. D. Atkins led Republican nominee W. Buford Bates for the Public Service Commission, 231:788. Atkins also led statewide, 227,448 to 167,765, with 1,915 of 2,634 precincts reporting.

The county voted in favor of a constitutional convention on all but the fourth question, which failed, 1034:1136, but the margin for the fifth question (lowering the minimum voting age) was narrow, 1167:1162. Questions 1 and 2 fared better, carrying by 1077:1379 and 1453:1285 respectively. Question 3, endorsed by the County Court and Farm Bureau, rolled to a 2460:1133 approval.

Statewide, all questions failed except Question 3.

Board Seat Goes To Leon Hargett

Ripley aldermen have elected Leon Hargett, a former alderman, to complete the unexpired term of the late Irvin (Tiny) Knepe, who died Oct. 23rd.

Mr. Hargett was sworn in Tuesday.

Mr. Knepe was elected in April to serve a two year term. Mr. Hargett was the unsuccessful alderman candidate with the highest number of votes, running seventh for one of his seats.

Halls Rushes Well As Old Ones Fail

Layne Central Co., of Memphis, will begin drilling a 12-inch well for the new water plant in Halls.

Completing the well, placing the pump, and making the connection is expected to take about four weeks.

Utility Supt. Joe Clyde Escue said Wednesday that a water shortage has existed in Halls for several months and has become acute during the past few weeks, due to deterioration of both the 40-year-old city water plant and the air base plant, which was designed for a 12-year usage and now has been in use almost 20 years.

Mr. Escue said that all problems will not be solved by the James Glass, public distribution will be eased to some extent.

Covington's A Prospect

Ripley's Tigers host Browns-ville's Tomcats this Friday evening for a berth in the Tiny Bowl game to be played on Koe Field in Ripley on Friday, Nov. 22nd, proceeds to go to Irvin (Tiny) Knepe memorial funds.

McKenzie, going into a game with Dresden this Friday with a 7-2 record this season, has been chosen as one team to represent the United States during recent administrations.

Jenkins Building Against Termites

By P. H. Paschal
Gen Jenkins is building a new home on Pain Springs Road out of Ripley and is working carefully with his building contractor to be sure that the house is fully protected against termite infestations.

The present, 30-year-old franchise expires in December.

The new contract is for 20 years, with an 8-year show-cause cancellation clause included.

The contract must be approved by the Ripley Board of Aldermen and the Tennessee Valley Authority before final passage.

It includes an annual payment to the Town of Halls in lieu of taxes, worked out on a formula negotiated by representatives of the two towns and TVA.

Through a technicality, the election of Elford Baker as alderman to succeed Harold Hart, who resigned, was found not to be keeping with the city charter. To correct the error, a public notice is published this week notifying citizens of the Board's intention to elect a new alderman.

The board heard interested citizens seeking low-rent public housing for the elderly to be erected in Halls.

Danny Cook Ends Year At DE Helm

Daniel W. Cook, son of Harold Cook, closed his year as president of Tennessee Distributive Education Clubs of America as he presided for two days in a Leadership Conference in Nashville Sunday and Monday.

Danny drove to Nashville Saturday with Mrs. Ruth Hallman, co-ordinator, Travis Smith, and Ken Webb. At an evening meeting, Smith spoke as a candidate for parliamentary, and the next day Web spoke in favor of his candidacy.

Danny's performance as president was applauded by nearly 40 co-ordinators and delegates. He was presented with a mahogany clock radio by the Tennessee Club, in recognition of his ability and devotion to the aims of the organization.

Danny is a freshman in Memphis State University.

He holds the land and get something growing quickly.

Plant Tree Orders
Tenn. Division of Forestry, Box 1663, Jackson, recently announced that seedling trees will be delivered to the farms or homes of those who order them on November 20th and December 4th and 18th.

The nursery has available loblolly pines at $4.00 per thousand, white pines at $2.00 and yellow pine at $1.00. The minimum order for pines is 500. Any number of yellow pine can be ordered at one cent each.

Homeowners who order trees should tell the county they live in. Make checks payable to Tennessee Division of Forestry.

Halls Will Extend Electric Contract

Halls Board of Mayor and Aldermen passed on first reading Monday evening an ordinance renewing the Ripley Power & Light Co. franchise in Halls.

The present, 30-year-old franchise expires in December.

The new contract is for 20 years, with an 8-year show-cause cancellation clause included.

The contract must be approved by the Ripley Board of Aldermen and the Tennessee Valley Authority before final passage.

TO BE SURE

Lesson for November 17, 1968

Readings: Matthew 1:1-12; Luke 1:1-4; John 1:1-18; Acts 1:1-6; 1 Peter 1:1-12; Revelation 1:1-6

The couple sitting next to us was served a most unusual, but appetizing dish. The long table we shared with them and perhaps several other people was one of several that filled the large Sabburg hall where amateur...

They were performing their delightful folk music and dances. I was surprised to see several of the men in the audience who were obviously Americans. I addressed my remarks to the audience and to the men who were performing...

What do you call that? I wanted to know, glancing at the food the waitress had set before me. My question met with blank stares. They weren't hostile, nor indifferent — no, it was obvious they hadn't understood me. Surely my German isn't that bad, I asked myself. So I tried again with the same result. Once more, this time pointing to their food, I asked slowly and distinctly and without any attempt at accent. When it was obvious that I still were not communicating, I smiled and turned away. As I did, I heard the woman say in the precise, clipped accent of the British: "I think the German gentleman was talking about our food, but I'm not sure."

Quite different I had been so sure they were American and they were obviously certain about me. And we were all wrong. How devastating a surprise can be. How difficult it is to be really sure when we set out to identify someone on the basis of what we have assumed he would be like.

If, for example, you were given the responsibility of surveying your neighborhood in a two-block radius, to determine the number of Christians residing there, at first glance it might seem a relatively simple task. You'd simply go door-to-door, asking people if they are Christians — a little embarrassing, perhaps, but workable.

But, hold on a minute: you were instructed to find out how many are Christians — not how many say they are. That's something quite different and much more difficult. In fact, it's impossible, for how can you really determine who is a Christian and who isn't? If you were checking on tuberculosis, you could give everyone an x-ray. Or if you were checking on heart disease, an electrocardiogram. Or if you were checking on eye-sight, an eye-chart. But what can you do to determine a person's commitment to Jesus Christ?

Guidelines The writer of 1 John gives us some guidelines by which we may measure Christian commitment, although these are intended primarily for the evaluation of our own faith, not that of others. The writer lays down a general principle: God is light and where there is darkness in someone's life there is separation from God.

Well, that's all very fine, John, but rather vague and un-specific. Can't we be more precise than that? So John becomes more specific and perhaps we would have preferred that he had remained vague.

First, "... if we walk in the light, we have fellowship with one another." (1 John 1:7) One cannot be close to God and separated from his fellow men.

Secondly, a Christian acknowledges his sin and need for God's mercy. (1 John 1:8-10). One sure indication of "darkness" in a person's life is his assurance that because he does this or doesn't do that, he is a "pretty good fellow" in God's sight.

Third, a Christian is one who keeps the commandments of Christ. Jesus himself said this (John 14:23).

Finally, "He who abides in him ought to walk in the same way he walked." (1 John 2:6) There needs to be some likeness between the way he lived his life and the manner in which we live ours.

None of these, John makes clear, depends much upon words: "If we say... and do not do it, we are liars." If one wants to be really sure, we will look, not so much to what is said, as to what is done.

HOSPITAL VISITORS' GUIDE

The hospital staff can best fulfill its mission when you cooperate by:

1. Complying with the posted visiting hours.
2. Making your visit short—five to ten minutes at most. The patient will probably have other visitors.
3. Not having more than two visitors per patient at a time.
4. Being cheerful—not discussing your problems with the patient.
5. Not smoking in patient's rooms.
6. Not sitting on patient's bed.
7. Not urinating in food (this could be harmful).
8. Leaving children 12 years of age and under at home.
9. Talking in a low, soft voice, so other patients will not be disturbed.

Looking Around

Packing education into every minute of school time, some elementary classes in Berkeley, California, analyze several often people was one of several that filled the large Sabburg hall where amateur...

Cubans have been using all manner of craft to escape the Castro regime, and the weirdest rig has been scooped out of the water south of Key West, Florida. It contained a man and woman, was the kayak powered by a lawn mower.

Lord Nelson's granite head is back in Dublin, Ireland. The 134-foot Nelson statue was blown up and the head disappeared but finally turned up in a London antique shop and was returned to Dublin.

Tourists driving West knew they were making progress when they came upon a real, live buffalo on the Indiana toll road outside La Porte, State Police were as surprised as tourists, but they cornered the roaming buffalo and returned him to the farm from which he had escaped.

On a hunch, Libby O'Brien bought thousands of old iron street signs dumped in a New York lot, and paid $478 for them. She is sorting them out and sells them for as much as $80 each, no less than $10, mainly to New Yorkers who want the old sign of the street where they were born. Business, says Libby, is very good.

Leo Horn was studying a book on the Fundamentals of Criminal Investigation" and left it in his car, parked in Houston. He reported to police that somebody stole his "criminal" book.

Smith Island, Maryland, in Chesapeake Bay, has its own problem with hot-rodgers. There are only 150 cars on the island, but also there is only one paved road and you can walk its entire length in 15 minutes. But youngsters like to zoom around just the same and although the speed limit is 10 miles per hour the two policemen on the island don't have cars.

Transport Workers Union president Mike Quill thought that subway and bus service should be provided free "like garbage collection."

There's A NEW FRONTIER

In Office Efficiency

Significant break-throughs in design and production of familiar products are revolutionizing the office supply field.

Good businessmen are improving efficiency and earning credit on income tax returns.

Before you invest unwisely in office tools of obsolete design, don't fail to see the newest and best.

NEW COMPACT STANDARD TYPEWRITER

Standard keyboard, standard large platen, every big-machine feature including half-spacing, tabulation—now even automatic indentation—An jet missile age techniques have reduced bulk and weight so that this heavy duty machine is easily carried. This all-purpose typewriter shaves flimsy lightweight coatings for more outperforming expense savers. It's writing class history for Underwood. Fully guaranteed, naturally!

UNDERWOOD-OLIVETTI BUSINESS MACHINES

They perform far beyond simple addition—subtract, give credit balance. They multiply, calculate discounts and percentages, total capacity $9,999,999.999. Just 5 1/2 inches high, desk space 8 1/2 x 14 1/2—yet with big machines' high efficiency and rugged dependability! Choose one-hand-operated Prima 20 at $89.50, the electric Quanta at $159.95, or the automatic multiplication, heavy-duty Multisuma, $299.95.

EVERY OFFICE MACHINE DESERVES AN A-1 RIBBON

Nothing peeps up any office machine's performance—and actually prolongs its life—like a first quality NYLON ribbon... the only ribbon we handle because it's the only one we can sell with pride... Yet some folks persist in using cheaper quality ribbons which date from the pre-war era—and actually pay more for them than our $1.25 price for nylon. By handling one grade in volume, we're holding the price line on the best ribbon you can buy. At that price, you can't afford any other ribbon for your machine.

Engaged

MISS BRENDA VADEN is engaged to Robert Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis, of Dyersburg. It is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vaden, of Halls.

The wedding is set for 2:30 p. m. Dec. 28 in Mount Vernon Baptist Church at Unionville.

Miss Vaden is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Vaden and Mrs. A. C. Dew and the late Mr. Dew, all of Halls. A graduate of Halls High, she attended the Newbern Area Vocational-Technical School and is employed by Lyman Ingram, Dyersburg attorney.

The groom-to-be is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis and Mrs. Jim Eaton and the late Mr. Eaton, all of Union. He graduated from Newbern High School, served with the Army in Hawaii, and is employed at Milan Arsenal.

Mrs. Henderson Is Hostess For Club

Mrs. P. H. Henderson, Sr., was hostess to the Bethesda Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon of last week at her home on West Main. Mrs. Will Lawrence, president, presided over the meeting.

The 103rd Psalm was read by Mrs. Henderson during the devotional, in keeping with her theme, "Being Thankful." Mrs. John Moore reported on community services. Mrs. Gwinn Matthews, Home Demonstration agent, gave an interesting program on buying and fitting of undergarments.

Spiced tea and cookies were served to the members and Mrs. Roy Brandon, a visitor from the Key Corner Club, at the close of the meeting.

Friend's Night By The Eastern Star

Halls Chapter No. 178 of the Eastern Star, and John Shaffer, of Newbern, were the featured speakers at the Friends' Night Monday, Nov. 18, at the home of Mrs. Lois Brandon, accompanied by Mrs. Genevieve Akin, of Newbern, sang "How Great Thou Art." The group sang "Count Your Blessings."

Cookies, spiced tea, and coffee were served to members and guests from Munford, Covington, Alamo, Newbern, and Dyersburg Chapters.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to use this means of expressing to my friends and neighbors my gratefulness for their prayers, visits, phone calls, gifts and every consideration shown while I was in the hospital and since I have returned home. May God bless each of you. Mrs. T. W. Clegg.

Luncheon Without Honoree Tuesday

Dyersburg Country Club was the setting for a Thanksgiving luncheon Tuesday with no special honoree and guests ranging from

Mrs. A. G. "Miss Astra" Hargett, who has been charming people in Halls since more than 50 years ago, to Mrs. Jerre Jordan,

Jr., a newcomer.

Mrs. R. J. Nunn and Mrs. W.

C. Vlar, Jr., hostesses, greeted the guests: Mrs. Hal Wallace, of Jackson, and Mrs. Hugh Nunn, of Ripley, were among those chatting with kinsin' kin and meeting newcomers.

An arrangement of painted daisies centered with a giant chrysanthemum blended with the colors and recreations in the club's dining room. The thoughtful donors were Mrs. Hal Wallace, of Jackson, Mrs. Neil Dyer, Mrs. David Nunn,

Mrs. J. T. Connell, and Mrs. Roy

Patton.

Guests were served a three-course luncheon in the main dining room. The U-shaped table was decorated with a scroll gilt arrangement of giant yellow chrysanthemum from Mrs. H. G.

Conner, flanked by miniature turkeys and cornucopias filled with fruit.

The recipe for the curried turkey over rice was furnished by Mrs. Ross Dyer, who was also a hostess. She had been in Parkview Hospital in Dyersburg since

Saturday, suffering with phle-bitis. Each guest wrote her a short note telling her how much they were enjoying her party and wishing her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Forsberg Is Speaker At ADK

Mrs. Jennie Forsberg, Vice

Regent of the local DAR chapter, gave an informative talk on the historical background and the valuable work of the DAR when PI

Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, international honorary society for women teachers, met Tuesday of last week in Town Creek Restaurant for a dinner meeting. Mrs.

A. C. Carter and Mrs. J. W. Va-

den were hostesses. Fifteen members were present.

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the table decoration.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson, president, presided at a business session. Mrs. Gladys Vaden, program chairman, presented Mrs.

Forsberg.

Luncheon Honors Mrs. Paul Griffin

Mrs. Elmer Hoffius complimented her house guest, Mrs.

Paul Griffin, of Memphis, with a luncheon Friday in her home.

Appreciation Days, when 43

Scouts in the Halls troop will make every effort to express their appreciation to the people of Halls for their support of the cookie sale and other activities.

CARD OF THANKS

Words will not express my thanks to all of my friends and neighbors, and others who were so thoughtful of me while I was hospitalized and since returning home. I am grateful for the flowers, the cards, the visits and each kind thought. God bless each of you. Mrs. James Bailey.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to all for the donations and prayers for the burning of our home. Your kindness has uplifted our courage.

May God bless each of you.

The foundation for the new school is now being poured.

"T" arrived Friday. "T" is a black and gold spirit stick. The cheerleaders won this spirit stick at cheerleaders camp this summer for having the most spirit. At pep rallies, the class which has the most spirit and the most signs will be allowed to keep it for a day.

It is not to touch the ground or to be misused in any way.

The "Tiger Tales" are now on sale at school.

John E. Cook

John E. Cook, 81, retired Central farmer, died at 7:30 a. m. last Friday in Lauderdale County Hospital after long illness. Services were at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in New Hope Methodist Church, of which he was a member. The Rev. C. A. Byrd, The Rev. Kenneth Stuart and The Rev. John Wingard officiated. Burial was in Grace Cemetery, Ripley Funeral Home in charge. He was a veteran of World War I and an honorary steward of New Hope Methodist Church. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Sadie Brantley Cook; a daughter, Mrs. Leon Hargett; a brother, B. M. Cook; a sister, Mrs. Pauline Reynolds, all of Ripley; and one grandchild.

AT STATE CONVENTION

Mrs. Delbert England, of Halls, president of Area 14 of Tennessee Licensed Practical Nurses, Inc., attended the 20th annual meeting in Knoxville last week. At which Mrs. Arbie McGee, of Dyersburg, was honored as LPN of the year for the area.

We care where our product is served.
Beer served in pleasant and wholesome surroundings is the aim of the United States Brewers Association. And we are always striving to do something about it. The USA is represented by field men around the country. They meet with proprietors of establishments where beer is sold. They work in every way possible to promote a set of high standards wherever beer is served. This USA effort means even more enjoyable places for America's great beverage of moderation.

You can take care of everyone on your Christmas list with one card—a BankAmericard. It lets you charge everything from toys to ties at thousands of different stores. And if you wish to visit out-of-town relatives over the holidays, a BankAmericard can pay all your travel expenses, too. There's a big advantage to using just one card at Christmas. Afterwards, you get just one bill. And you can pay all your holiday expenses with just one check. You'll have as long as 25 days to pay with no service charge, or you may pay in easy monthly installments for a small fee. So no matter how long a Christmas list you have this year, you can put it all on a BankAmericard.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

IN THE FLESH
Lesson for December 1, 1968

Background Scripture: 1 John 1:1-4; 2 John.
Devotional Reading: Hebrews 2:14-18.

Some people today, as we have noted before, are disposed to dispense with the divinity of Christ. To them, Jesus was simply a "good man," a great teacher, "our perfect example," "the most Godly man who ever lived," — but still a man!

There is another heretical temptation, however, that leads people to the opposite extreme. It is the temptation to disregard the humanity of Christ, to forget that Jesus was truly a man. This was evident a few years ago in the reaction of some people to the motion picture, The Gospel According to St. Matthew. Some objected bitterly to the film's depiction of Jesus as very much a man. Quite accustomed to the Hollywood bathrobe dramas in which the figure of Jesus is little more than a phantom, it was hard for some to think of him in such human terms.

"Very man"
This is not a new problem in the life of the Church. It is a controversy that has often plagued Christianity. In the fifth century A.D. there were Christians who emphasized only the divinity of Christ. They said that Jesus only "seemed" to be human. As a divine being in human disguise, he did not really get hungry as men do, he only "seemed" to get hungry. He also only "seemed" to get thirsty, tired, and tempted. He was, they said, a God who only looked human in appearance.

In time, the Church branded this concept as heresy. The Council of Chalcedon in 451 A.D. insisted that Jesus was "very man," ("very" meaning really). It declared that his manhood was complete. He didn't seem to be a man, he was a man. He is, they said, "of one substance with us as regards his manhood; like us in all respects, apart from sin."

The writers of the four Gospels also took pains to indicate that Jesus did not just seem to suffer on the cross, but that he really suffered and really died too. Thus in the so-called Apostles' Creed we are very careful to spell it out: "... suffered under Pontius Pilate, crucified, dead, and buried..."

By this you know
This same concern to preserve the truth of Christ's humanity is found in both 1 and 2 John. "By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God..." (1 John 4:2 RSV). And again in 2 John 7: "For many deceivers have gone out into the world, men who will not acknowledge the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh; such a one is a deceiver..."

Why is this so important to the writer of 1 and 2 John? Why has the Church always been so concerned to preserve the doctrine of his humanity? Why is it so important for the writer of the Gospel of John to say: "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us..." (John 1:14)? What does it matter for God to have come "in the flesh"?

Only a man
If Jesus had not been fully human, he would have little attraction for us. We could dismiss the price he paid on Calvary with the knowledge that he didn't really suffer. We could ignore his example and teachings, dismissing them as lying beyond human capabilities. We would not likely go to him with our problems, our concerns, our heartaches, nor accept his comfort and counsel: for what could a divine being know of the sufferings of men?

Because Jesus was fully human as we are, because he knew all that we know and experienced all that we experience, we cannot ignore the call he gives us. When he says "This is what you can become," we can take him seriously, for he has first-hand knowledge of us. Only a man, fully human, could inspire us to realize the full potentialities of our humanity. Because he became what we are, we are called to become what he is. That's why it is important that the Word became flesh.

In the County Court For Crockett County, At Alamo, Tennessee

Notice Of Sale Of Land

In obedience to a decree of the Court made in the above styled cause on the 9th day of November, 1968, the undersigned Clerk, acting as special Commissioner, will sell the following described land to the highest and best bidder for cash, at the west door to the Courthouse in Alamo, Tennessee, at 10:00 o'clock A. M. on the

7th Day Of December

1968. Said land is described as follows:

Lying and being in the 10th Civil District of Crockett County, Tennessee and bounded on the north by Chestnut Bluff-Maury City Public Road; on the east by the land of J. T. Ferrell; on the south by the land of Watkins; and on the west by the Perry Schoolhouse Public Road, and containing 52 acres more or less.

The above land is known as the J. M. Via Farm. The purchaser will be entitled to possession on or before Jan. 1, 1969, and the 1968 crops on said land will be reserved to the sellers.

This property will be offered for sale in two separate tracts, each of which contain as nearly equal acreage as possible, and which will be created by running a straight line from the north boundary line of the whole farm from the center of the Maury City-Chestnut Bluff Public road in a southerly direction to the south boundary line of the farm, being the north boundary line of land formerly belonging to Watkins, each of which halves will contain 26 acres, more or less. The land will be offered for sale as a whole, and then sold in parts as herein set out.

This notice will be published in The Crockett Times, a newspaper published in Crockett County, Tennessee, for not less than three consecutive weeks.

Witness my hand this 9th day of November, 1968.
