A DIET FOR THE MIND

Lesson for August 3, 1975

Background Scripture: Philippians 4:4-9; Colossians 3:1-7
Devotional Reading: Psalms 40:1-8

Several years ago the administrators of one of our national parks decided that one of its areas had suffered so much from campers, picnickers, and sightseers that it should be closed down several years so that it could rejuvenate.

Soon, however, they had a problem: what would they do about the bears in that area of the park? The bears had become so dependent upon the hand-outs of campers and picnickers that they had forgotten how to hunt for themselves.

Obviously the bears would have to be moved to another part of the park, but that would be expensive, time-consuming and even dangerous. The higher echelon of the park management worked on this problem with no solution.

At last a park ranger came up with a simple solution: they would move the bears into other areas by using trails of food. Since there would be no tourists in this area for a while, the bears would hungrily follow the trails of food from one section to another.

Now, this shaggy bear story is a kind of a parable for us: there is a principle in life that living creatures always follow their food. Anyone who's ever tried to picnic outdoors knows that. Put down your blanket and food and you will suddenly discover all kinds of animal and insect life!

The same thing applies also to events and experiences. In a sense, they too are living things and they also follow their food. It is our thoughts that are the food upon which feed many of the experiences and events of our lives. Unwittingly, many of us attract negative experiences because we leave behind a trail of food upon which these experiences can feed.

Just as some people seem to be "accident-prone," some people are "unhappiness-prone." There is something about their whole atmosphere of thought that continually draws them into unhappiness. There are others who are "failure-prone," people who seem to have some uncanny knack of always turning every good opportunity into disaster. Others are "fear-prone," "pessimistic-prone," "tragedy-prone," etc.

Think about these things!
As the late Elmer Fox said, "Fear thoughts, gloomy and critical thoughts, selfish thoughts, are the food of unhappiness, sickness, and failure." When you supply this kind of food in abundance, you can be sure that these things will come into your lives because they seek their food.

What we need to do, says Fox, is to try what he calls a "seven-day mental diet," a concentrated program to form a new habit in thinking, a whole week devoted solely to building a new mind. For one whole week, Fox advises us to keep out of our minds all negative, destructive thoughts.

In writing to the church at Philippi, Paul said much the same thing: Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things (4:8). Why not try this diet for the mind for just one week? It could change your whole life!

Looking Around

WITH SID HATHAWAY

Mrs. Mary Baker put a chair on display in front of her antique shop in Litchfield, England, and a stray spaniel decided that it's soft cushions were an excellent place for a nap. So Mrs. Baker put a sign on the chair "Not For Sale— for tired dogs."

To provide relaxation at any time, the Business Men's Art Institute in Los Angeles is open 24 hours a day for busy men to come in and do some sketching, or paint a cool mountain lake, before hurrying back to the commercial grind.

In Tokyo, Fire Chief Umezawa has talked 300 of his firemen into taking lessons in the art of flower arrangement. He says it builds character and security.

Mike Gabana, who holds the title of America's champion cross-country walker has settled down in Grand Island, Nebraska, and taken a job as a bellhop. Mike walked cross country in 84 days.

Scotland Yard announces that bobbies now may wear eye glasses. Commissioner Thomas Mahir says London's famous police force is hard up for good men and can't afford to rule them out just because they wear glasses.

Russia's Tass news agency reports that a camel named Jelmayan has given birth to twins in Kirgiz, Central Asia. This is one in a million.

Ricky Edwards, an eight-year-old colored boy, found an envelope containing $6,050 in cash under a park bench in Chicago. He gave it to his teacher and a retired Army sergeant. Noonon Baines, proved that he had lost it. He gave Ricky a big thank you and a $100 bill.

Harold Ford wanted to move his household from Townsend, Montana, to Portland, Maine, so he packed all the furnishings of an eight-room house, plus tractor, pick up truck and trailer, five cats, 16 bales of hay and 20 sheep in a boxcar and fixed up living quarters for his family along with the belongings. The railroad hauled the car to Portland for about half what it would have cost for regular moving.

Ronald Rothstein, a 23-year-old University of Miami law student, and Susan Green, daughter of a drugstore chain owner, had planned a big wedding reception at the famous Fontainebleau hotel in Miami Beach. Susan was going to descend a pink staircase from a cloud before 300 guests. The bride's father was going to send them around the world on an 83-day honeymoon. But Ronnie took a plane to an unknown destination before the wedding, alone.

Ray Lewis of Anchorage, Alaska, is looking for the owner of a box of tools that fell from a plane into his kitchen. He said he would gladly return the tools if the owner will pay to have his roof repaired.

Residents in Crewe, England, say there was some poor planning of an old folks home with windows looking out on a funeral parlor and a coffin manufacturing plant.

Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes went bowling in Dyersburg and had supper at The Hut last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Griggs, of Goldust, Mrs. Joe Parker and son, Joey, of Brownsville, and Miss Sandra Bizzell, of Memphis, were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Cleo Bizzell.

Confidential Corner

What We Think

There has been much conversation, speculation, etc. about the sale of grain to Russia and will it raise the price of bread and flour.

Of course it will raise the price of bread. Judging from recent actions no manufacturer or business firm is going to miss any excuse to increase the price of his product.

However there is another side to the question. By what right does the American public expect the American farmer not to increase the price of his product? Certainly the farmer is entitled to a fair return for his efforts and the public including us should have to pay our share of the increased costs.

The major question then would seem to be is the American farmer going to benefit from the grain deals as he apparently didn't at the time of the last sales. Also is Russia or the American taxpayer paying for the grain?

We are old enough to remember much of the history of communism in Russia and the rest of the world and we cannot remember at any time that the United States didn't come out loser when dealing with Russia. Our interest in the sale then concerns whether the grower of grain will benefit, is the sale being subsidized by the taxpayer, will Russia actually pay for the grain or is the sale being guaranteed to the grain companies?

After many years of doubting the wisdom of excess profit taxes because of federal controls with the tax, we are beginning to wonder if excess profit taxes shouldn't be imposed to keep prices within reason. The oil industry, perhaps other industries, apparently have no hesitation in increasing prices under any type of excuse. Maybe if they were unable to keep anything beyond a reasonable profit prices would advance much slower.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Barnett were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Barnett in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Burks, of San Antonio, Tex., spent last week with Mrs. Willie Burks. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Burks and children, of Halls, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, Jr., and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Roberts, all of Poplar Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMahan, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Williams, and Mrs. Virginia Elam, all of Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Davis and daughter, Beth, of Dyersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gaines, of Stanton, Mrs. John Baynes, of Nut Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Voss, of Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burks and children and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Voss enjoyed a cookout at the home of Mrs. Willie Burks Saturday evening.

VACATION SCHOOL

Westside Baptist Church will sponsor a vacation bible school, Aug. 4-8th, for children ages six through twelve. Meetings will be from 6 to 8:30 p.m. daily.

REPORT VOWS PROMPTLY

Detailed wedding accounts cannot be published unless received not later than the second Monday after the wedding date.

This deadline, more generous than most must be observed to avoid disappointment.

WARNING

The citizens of our town are to be commended for being so cooperative and law abiding. I appreciate this very much and I know our policemen do.

We do have a serious problem, however, in that several of our citizens follow fire trucks. I ask that you realize the danger in this because of the traffic problem and also interfering with our firemen.

Our policemen will now be instructed to issue tickets to people following fire trucks. ANYONE who is not a member of the fire department, we respectfully ask not to follow these trucks.

Please do not put us in the position of having to issue tickets and fine our friends for this dangerous practice.

Did you ever think of ads as guardians of your individuality? They are, you know.

In a time when the edges are being eaten off our personalities and we're all being reduced to card-index numbers, we need to hang on to some things.

Like our freedom of choice. And that choice is yours only as long as competition and free enterprise and advertising are working for you. Guard them. For they stand between you and a dull and standardized life.

Notice of Finding of No Significant Effect on the Environment

Public Notice is hereby given that Lauderdale County and the cities of Gates, Halls, Henning, and Ripley, Tennessee have determined that its program activities under Discretionary Funds of the Community Development Program are not activities which significantly affect the quality of human environment.

- a) Lauderdale County Solid Waste Pick-up and Disposal System. b) Improvements on Rice and Cleveland Street Parks in Ripley. c) Improvements on the community and park facilities at the Old Halls Elementary School and at the Halls Community Center.

These funds will be released under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. After careful study and analysis of the proposed projects, recorded in an Environmental Review Record, the County and cities have determined that the proposed projects will have no significant effect on the environment because of the following reasons:

- 1. No areas of historical significance will be affected by any of the projects. 2. The noise level as a result of the projects will be minimal. 3. No floodable areas will be affected.

Copies of the Environmental Review Record are available in the County Judge's office in the Lauderdale County Courthouse, and in City Hall in Halls, Ripley, Gates, and Henning. This record may be examined, or copies secured during the normal working hours of each location. Persons wishing to make comments on this finding or the Environmental Review Record may do so by submitting their comments no later than August 22, 1975 to:

Judge Jerry N. Corlew Chief Executive Officer Lauderdale County Courthouse Ripley, Tennessee 38063

POSITION OPEN EDUCATION CO-ORDINATOR Responsible for the development and implementation of the Educational Component of the Head Start program in Lauderdale, Fayette, and Tipton Counties.

The Memphis Delta Area Agency on Aging And The Lauderdale County Committee on Aging Are Seeking Proposals From Non-Profit Agencies:

- The following guidelines are to be considered: 1. The proposed program must result in a dollar savings for older people (60+).

- 2. The program must be completed within twelve months or show a concrete plan to be self-supporting. 3. Cost of the program will be born by Federal funds and local resources with no more than 90% of the total cost being Federal and with a minimum of 25% of the 10% local share being in cash.

The total amount of money available in Lauderdale County is approximately $3,000.00. The Area Agency proposes to fund only one program out of this money. Applications for programs to meet these guidelines are to be submitted to the Area Agency on Aging by August 15, 1975.

CLEAN THE FILTER FOR 'COOL' SAVINGS

A dirty filter is more costly and damaging to your home's cooling system than you probably realize. A dirty filter really puts a strain on your central system or window unit, causing it to consume undue electricity and also shortening its life expectancy.

To help yourself understand the importance of a clean filter, think of trying to sip a thick milk shake through a bent straw. Like a clogged filter, a bent straw dampens air flow, so more suction is required, yet it yields less for the extra effort.

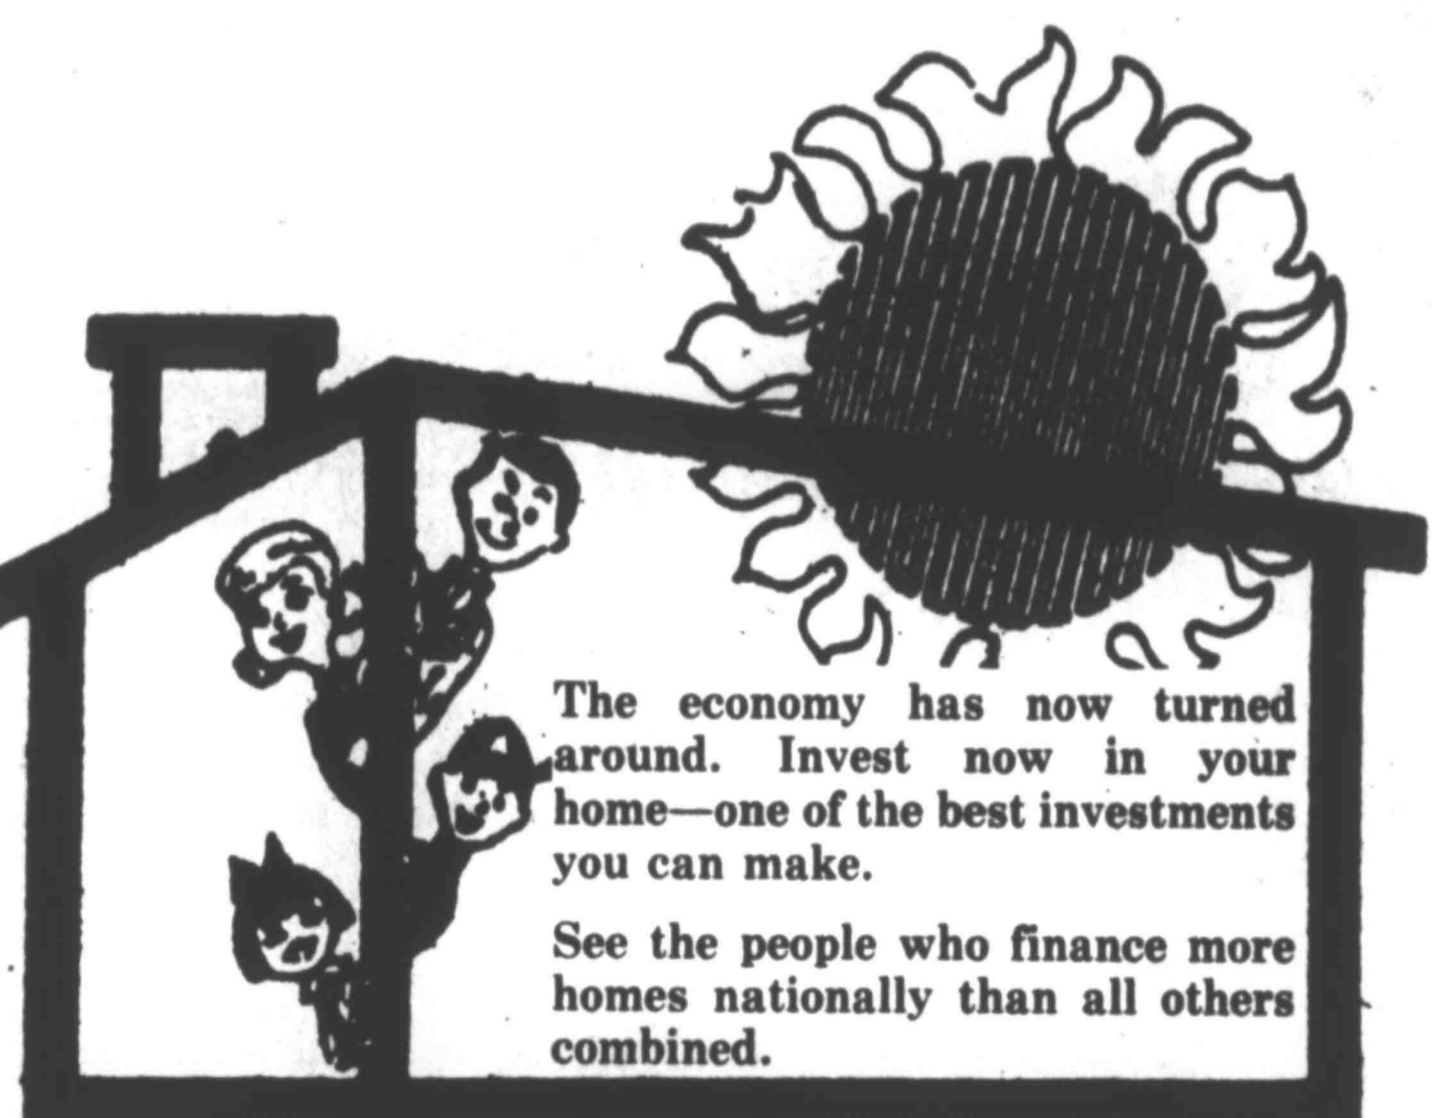

Basically, the same principle applies to your cooling system. To avoid such ill effects, clean or replace your air conditioner's filter regularly. (Check it at least once a month.)

A clean filter is like double savings. Your air conditioner won't use as much electricity, and the unit will last longer, keeping you cool for less during the hot days of summer.

As We See It

During recent weeks there has been a tendency to attack the Tennessee Valley Authority because of the steadily increasing cost of electricity, especially in the Nashville area.

There can be no doubt in any consumer's mind that electricity is becoming more and more expensive almost every month and concern about this trend is indicated.

However, we wonder if the various politicians are trying to make political hay or do they really have some grounds for their loudly proclaimed concern.

It seems to us that a study of the continued rise in the cost of coal and fuel oil, which incidentally are largely owned and controlled by the petroleum industry, is not in order to lead up to an investigation of TVA.

Despite the greatly increased cost of TVA electricity, the rates are still far below average costs in non-TVA areas. Some have attributed this to the non-payment of taxes but the truth is that TVA does pay money in lieu of taxes.

Incidentally, there have been suggestions that the government should subsidize the cost of utility costs. This would be even more costly to the individual in the long haul as witness any bureau of the government.

Could Be Foreseen
It is too bad that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has ruled that the Arp and Henning schools must be closed.

The ruling will create serious problems for school officials, parents, etc. with little if any improvement of education for the children involved.

HEW and the courts continue to argue busing despite the fact that even original proponents of busing are beginning to realize the concept has failed.

We hope that school officials and others involved will make the best of a bad situation but the odds are that within a short time percentages in the schools will return to approximately their present ratio as has been true in other areas.

Mystery Solved
There proved to be a simple explanation for the case which suddenly appeared on our front porch last Wednesday.

Last week an explosion like sound was heard in Halls upsetting several persons. Chief of Police Buddy Moore asked us if we had heard it.

The Rev. W. T. Call, of Dyersburg, will bring the messages for the revival at 7:30 p.m. daily. The Layman Quartet of Dyersburg will present a special music program Friday evening.

Rains Aid Beans And Boll Weevil

The recent rains have been of real value to the soybean producers in that they have hastened maturity enabling the plants to bloom and set blooms and to delay the activity of the nematodes. Cotton has not been equally blessed in that the wet weather caused the boll weevil activity within reason.

We have observed cotton on some farms that has had a rather abnormal growth. Many times the plant has a very bushy appearance with excessive foliage. Most of these characteristics include the absence of terminals, or aborting nodes and a lack of fruiting. Cotton producers in Mississippi have referred to it as "crazy cotton." At this point there is no explanation as to the cause.

Tomato producers had a banner year. Prices were good and most producers sold every tomato that they could gather from the field marking quite a profit. Some outstanding net profits were reported depending on the type of market the individual had.

With this recent rain corn production could average considerably over 100 bushels per acre making it certainly an attractive alternative or rotational crop with soybeans on certain kinds of land. Lauderdale County has a higher number of acres of corn this year than in the past several years.

It is cut in the dough to the full kernel stage (no milk with kernels firm) and the percentage of protein and food value possible. Following the fermentation period, a green to yellowish green color is desirable with a light pleasant odor, no free water when a small amount is squeezed in the hand and small uniform sharp angled pieces of silage makes a top rated quality feed.

Old Classmates Enjoy Buffet

Some of the classmates in Halls High School of Mary Frances Jordan Edgerton, of Allegan, Mich., and R. B. Johnson, of Birmingham, Ala., were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dyer Thursday evening for an old-fashioned get-together.

Planned as a picnic, rain forced the group into the house where they enjoyed a buffet meal.

The buffet table was covered with a multi-colored, Indian cloth and centered with an arrangement of marigolds flanked by yellow tapers.

Entertainment consisted of "tall tales" from school days, looking over the old annuals, and listening to piano music by Doris White Moore, Elinor Faye Baker Bivens, and Anita Lacey Talley. Mrs. Talley and Martha Henby Dyer also did a comedy routine with their dancing dolls. The group heard a collection of Glen Miller records.

Attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Johnson, of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Doris Ferguson Cummings, of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bivens, of Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. John Talley and George and Carol Jordan. Also present, all of Dyersburg, were Mrs. Travis (Katie Lee Jones) Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dyer.

WHAT IS REPENTANCE?
Since it is necessary that we repent of past sins to be pleasing and acceptable to God (Lk. 13:3; S. Acts 17:30), it is important that we know what repentance involves. There is a great deal of misunderstanding concerning the subject of repentance. It is not sorrow, but it is true that sorrow involves sorrow, but there can be sorrow without repentance. Herod ordered John the Baptist to be put to death (Matt. 14:11). Later he was sorry for what he had done. In fact, he was "exceedingly sorry" (Mk. 6:26), but he did not repent.

REPENTANCE IS NOT SORROW AND CONFESION. Judas was sorry that he betrayed the Lord.
He even made a confession. In his case, there was regret, remorse, and a confession, but there was no genuine repentance. The Bible reads: "Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place" (Acts 1:25).

REPENTANCE IS NOT GUILT
SORROW. Paul says that "godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation" (2 Cor. 7:10). Godly sorrow precedes repentance, but godly sorrow is not repentance.
The potter works the clay, which becomes the vessel. The potter is not the vessel, but rather, he produces the vessel. In this way, godly sorrow is not repentance.

but it precedes repentance like the cause precedes the effect.
REPENTANCE IS NOT RESTITUTION AND REFORMATION OF LIFE. These two ideas are related to repentance, but they actually follow the act of repentance.
John the Baptist said,
"Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance." (Matt. 3:8). In other words, he is saying, "Let your conduct, your reformation of life be evidence of your repentance."
After the Philippian jailer was converted, he washed the stripes of Paul and Silas since they had been beaten and cast into prison. The jailer could not undo their beating, neither could he instantly heal them, but he could make restitution as far as possible, and he did reform his life. This restitution and reformation of life are fruits of repentance.
Paul has seen that "godly sorrow" precedes repentance, and
"restitution and reformation" follow repentance. But, what is repentance? Jesus said that "repentance toward God" is
"turning from wrong to right, turning from Satan to God."

ONEUPMANSHIP

Lessons for August 17, 1975

Background Scripture: Romans 12:9-21; Devotional Reading: John 3:11-16

Many people excel at the game of "one-upmanship." No matter what you may do, they can always "do you one better."

Under the right circumstances, that can be a very productive type of competition.

With the wrong attitudes, on the other hand, it can be—and often has been—very destructive. It is the stuff of which family feuds, sectional conflicts and international wars are made.

The escalation of vengeance nowhere is this phenomenon more evident than in the tragic story of Romeo and Juliet. Insult leads to insult, injury to injury, violence to violence and death to death. And the sum total of this spiral of escalation is always: tragedy!

Vengeance is often based on sheer emotion, but there is nevertheless a kind of rationality that goes with it too. The reasoning goes like this: "If my family, my clan or my country are wronged, honor requires that I must pay back that dishonor. Some people believe that vengeance serves as a deterrent: if you suspect that it will retaliate if you attack me, you are less likely to do so."

Unfortunately, it doesn't work that way. If it were true that repaying violence for violence were an effective measure, many people would never have been violent deaths in feds, batties, and wars. Statistics indicate that beginning was made. Today, several years later, FBI no longer a project of just that small group of people, nor even of our church, it has become a world-wide co-operative effort in which many different churches participate both with volunteers and financial support.

This is a simple illustration of what one person's "one-upmanship" can accomplish for the Gospel. There was nothing dramatic about her efforts, but that one woman with her simple words of encouragement started in motion a most fruitful project that is reaching many lives for Christ.

Our people who have participated in this project have found that this opportunity for witness has produced "one-upmanship" not only for those who are the beneficiaries of "Fish," but also the volunteers. It has provided some extra "help" for their Christian lives, just as a simple salt can do that for dull, festalious foods.

Too often we wonder what just one person can do. Perhaps we should remember the words of that old nursery rhyme:

For want of a shoe, the horse was lost. For want of a horse, the rider was lost. For want of a rider, the battle was lost. For want of a battle, the war was lost. For want of a war, a kingdom was lost. And all for the loss of a horse-shoe nail!

Or... a pinch of salt!

Art Students Show Work

The works of Mrs. Tommy Hancher's art students were presented in a show last Sunday afternoon at the Halls Community Club.

The young students made studies in charcoal and pastel drawings of plants, flowers, animals, and prints. Those participating were: Mrs. Hancher, David Hart, III, Michelle Cook, Betsy Hoff, Hope Harris, Mike Sumner, Rose Marie Sumner, Robbin Lennox, Leah Roberts and Tony Palazola.

Mrs. Patsy Arwood, Mrs. Roy Archibald, Mrs. Ned Dyer, Mrs. Jim Ewell, and Mrs. Boby Selman of Halls and Mrs. Selman Rice of Dyersburg were members of the club. They exhibited works in water color, pastel and charcoal.

Looking Around

IN ALBION, INDIANA, Judge John Hagen has two sentences that he passes out to minors who violate liquor laws. He puts them to work cleaning up public buildings and he makes them get a haircut.

When a Special Forces military group called a practice alert in Coral Gables, Florida, Sgt. Kenneth Chambers responded promptly to the drill, leaving his brother's wedding at which he was best man, wearing formal clothes, complete with carnation.

State Senator John Walsh of Des Moines, Iowa, persuaded the Iowa Ways and Means committee to cut the proposed $10 marriage license fee to $5. Walsh will be married this summer.

An alarm clock for persons who are both blind and deaf has been perfected in St. Dunstan's hospital in London. It has a braile time switch and is attached to the bed, causing a vibration when it goes off.

Greek clergymen have been ordered by Archbishop Chrysostomos to stop driving cars. From now on, they must use public transportation, ride bikes, or walk.

In Tokyo, Takara Takaka dreamed of opening a shoe store but he lacked capital to go into business. He finally announced that he was ready to open his store when suddenly police swooped down on him and seized 186 pairs of shoes he had stolen to set up shop.

Nurses at Montreal's children's hospital are taking to rocking chairs to feed and soothe babies. The nurses say the relaxing movement of the rocker is important to a child's emotional development.

In Pretoria, South Africa, a dry-cleaner recently received his largest single order. He got the job of cleaning a stuffed giraffe, 18 feet high.

Name of the boy was not used, but police took one look at his long hair and locked him up with 18 girls following a demonstration in Amsterdam, Holland, recently. Police did not say how they eventually found out their mistake. Apparently the boy did not object.

Dr. Hugh Mobley of San Jose, California, was sentenced to work eight hours a week for one year in the electric as the penalty for violating Federal Income Tax laws. He owed the Government $17,653.

Candidates for public office in Rabbit Creek, Alaska, can make speeches at the community fair, and talk as long as they want to. They must, however, rent a soap box at the rate of $2 per minute.

The twin sons of Mrs. Evelyn Flannery, have historic names. One is Kennedy Flannery. The other is not so fortunate. His name is Khrushchev Flannery.

Recent Bride Is Given Shower

Friends and family members honored Mrs. John Waggoner, the former Alicia Burrough, of Martin, with a miscellaneous bridal shower last Thursday in the country home of Mrs. Wendell Perry with Mrs. Jim Ewell as co-hostess.

The hostesses presented the bride with an unusual corsage formed of dish towels and measuring spoons.

Guests included Mrs. Mary Waggoner, mother of the new bridegroom, of Owensboro, Ky., and Mrs. Sharon Burrough, of Double Bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner are moving to Aikin, S. C., where they will be employed in the school system.

A survey taken by the country's leading photograph company reveals that teenagers listen to records an average of nine hours a week. Biggest need is for a record player "that will sound loud to me, and soft to my parents."

Pulling officials rushed to help Mrs. Maria Lago into the wedding booth in Sabaudia, Italy. She is 28 years old. But Mrs. Lago brushed them aside and said, "Go help my sister, she wants to vote, too."

There is nothing unusual about the only woman cab driver in the city of Palermo, Italy, except that pretty Mrs. Vito Maranga will not take male passengers unless they are accompanied by a woman.

An army of white ants descended on the village of Bahari in Egypt and destroyed all of the houses. The government has come to the rescue and is rebuilding the houses, now that the ants have gone.

A court in Munich, Germany, has denied the application of a 126-pound man to carry a pistol. He needs it, he says, to protect himself against the 135-pound woman who lives next door and who wants to marry him.

The court in Folkestone, England, saw no reason why Beulah Benton, who stands four feet, 10 inches, should not marry Tony Page, six-foot, two inches. Beulah's mother had objected because she said the pair would look ridiculous together.

Two armed masked men held up Mrs. Ellen Woodhouse in Sheffield, England. She gave them some sound advice and his fare, but refused to part with her handbag. They asked her forgiveness and took the bus.

New York's City Hall strives to keep its personnel in top shape. Matthew Johnson recently became its permanent shoeshine boy.

Lester Horn, a fireman in McPherson, Kansas, went to Salina to pick up a load of fire extinguishers on his day off. On his way home, he came across Nick Kary, jumping around in the road yelling that his car was on fire. Lester was well equipped to take care of it, and did.

Jonathan Davies, 15, has disappeared from his home in Calvert, England. He left a note for his parents: "Gone to Australia. Will be back in 30 years." He took his bicycle with him.

When Arnold Levy won a twin-double payoff of $108,242 at Tropical Park in Florida, on a horse race, he accepted the money calmly, remarking: "That puts me about even."

REPENTANCE (NO. 3)

Repentance means a change of mind, which results in a change of conduct. When a person's mind is changed, his thinking is changed; his emotions are changed; his will is changed. In Matt. 21:29, Jesus illustrates the meaning of repentance: "But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented and went."

Another example of repentance is found in the experiences of the prodigal son. This son said, "I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee." (Lu. 15:18).

By way of summary, the word REPENTANCE will be used as an acronym, which means that each letter will stand for a requirement or characteristic of repentance: R - required of all men. (Acts 17:30, 31; 2 Pet. 3:9). E - enjoined by the Savior. (Lu. 24:47). R - received by godly sorrow. (2 Cor. 7:10). E - enforced by fear. (Lu. 13:35). N - necessary for the blotting out of sin. (Acts 3:19). T - turning from sin unto God. (Lu. 11:32; Jonah 3:10). A - accompanied by baptism. (Acts 2:38). C - comes of life—a grand consequence of both repentance and baptism. (Rom. 6:1-4). S - sinner great joy in heaven. (Lu. 15:7, 10). E - encouraged by the goodness of God. (Rom. 2:4).

Looking Around

A sad, not catching on too fast, but discouraging to purse snatchers, started in London where women are wearing handbags shaped like plastic bottles strapped around their hips.

The giant Pacific clam is sometimes four feet across and its meat will provide a fairly meal for 20 persons, not including its possibilities in a chowder.

Starlings are out of hand in Bugenland Province, Austria, and this year have caused an estimated $400,000 damage to buildings and electrical transmission systems. They fly wing through power lines in dense weather causing short circuits.

Tenants of a Manhattan building need to complain to the City's Building Inspector Charles Moerder about their unresponsive elevator. When Mr. Moerder came to inspect the building the elevator jammed and he couldn't get out until tenants, familiar with the queer workings, pried the doors open.

Russia has placed an order in London for bows and arrows worth $1,000. They will be used to fire hypodermic-needle darts that will paralyze wild animals and enable doctors to take them alive for experimentation.

Florida, always believed to have the highest percentage of elderly people, is in second place. Iowa has 12 percent more.

Looking Around

Sign on a wrecker in Versailles, Kentucky: "Our business is picking up."

Diplomats at United Nations are prime targets for high pressure salesmen, even for magazine subscriptions. Mrs. John Loeb, New York City's agent at UN, warns foreign diplomats "don't sign anything!" American housewives have learned that lesson.

Dr. Robert Howard of Duluth, Minn., was too old for the draft in World War I, but has received notice to report to his local draft board. At 81 he says: "I'm just going to see what they do next."

When Mrs. Mary Kimball celebrated her 90th birthday in Freedland, Washington, there were seven guests between 90 and 100 years old. Her recipe for long life: "I eat rice for long life."

Speeding had become so common in Barnes, England, that a policeman stopped a slow-moving car to congratulate the driver, but arrested him for being drunk.

Shaking hands every five seconds for 12 hours, pianist and John Zachary, soloist. Vocal selections were "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face", "If", and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Venise lace appliqued on the English net bodice which featured an illusion neckline and cap sleeves. A matching beaded and lace Camelot Cap had her appliqued mantilla of this size. She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, sweetheart roses and stephanotis with a mother of pearl Jerusalem Bible.

Diane Tripp, of Knoxville, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kathy Gaudin, cousin of groom, of Dyersburg; Betty Greer, of London;

Hope Morris, of Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Michael A. McCormick, of Tucker, Ga.; Mrs. Michael Phillips, of Newport, R. I.; Debbie Sonar, of Beckley, W. Va.; Miss Brenda Chaney and Mrs. Porter W. Huff and Mrs. Albert L. Smith, of Chattanooga. They were silk organza gowns of rose print shawl, featuring scooped neckline with ruffled arm-eyes. They wore pink picture hats and carried baskets of pink sweetheart roses, baby carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

Earl Harrell Austin, of Halls, was best man. Groomsman were Stan Carrell, Paul Henderson III and Charlie R. Viar, cousin of groom, all of Halls; James R. Breedon, of Okla.; Jim Culp and Edward Shaffer, both of Nashville; Ronny O. Robertson, cousin of groom, of Dyersburg; Paul Viar, cousin of groom, of Louisville, Ky.; and Albert L. Smith, cousin of bride, of Chattanooga.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shipley chose a champagne beige gown of imported embroidered silk voile, featuring fitted bodice and natural waistline; long full-sleeves and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother chose an aqua chiffon gown featuring V-neckline and softly gathered bustline; A-line skirt attached at empire waistline; gown highlighted with a detachable cape of matching chiffon accented with a beaded collar. She carried a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

A reception was held at the Rivermont Golf and Country Club. Arrangements of pink roses, pink carnations, white daisies, white gladioli and baby's breath accented the tables. The groom's table accented with brown checked cloth and fruit arrangements. Assisting in serving were Eileen Flaherty, of Knoxville, Sally Luther, of Dyer, Monty Maspin and Judy Swint, both of Nashville; Judy Crabtree, of Maryville; Suzanne Achary, of Atlanta, Ga.; Gayla Gross and Helen Wild, of Chattanooga.

The Crystal Room of the Chattanooga Choo-Choo was the setting as the groom's parents were hosts to a rehearsal dinner on Friday evening.

Guests included members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests from Halls and Dyersburg. Pink sweetheart roses, pink carnations, white daisies, white gladioli and baby's breath added to the attractiveness of the dining room.

Mr. Criffield presented gifts to his attendants and to his bride-to-be.

Give your country a hand. But don't lift a finger.

Except to fill out this Payroll Savings Card where you work.

After that, just sit back and be lazy. Each payday part of your pay will be automatically set aside for U.S. Savings Bonds.

And that can mean big money for you in the years to come. For a new home, for education, or for retirement.

It means big money for your country, too. The kind it takes to put men on the moon, build highways, and keep the nation strong.

And the government believes in safeguarding your investment in it. Bonds are guaranteed. And the U.S.

Treasury will replace them — free — if they are lost, stolen, or destroyed.

There's a bonus, too. Each Bond you buy entitles you to buy a Freedom Share of the same denomination. Freedom Shares pay a higher rate of interest than Bonds, and mature in just four and one-half years.

Now doesn't that sound like easy handi-work?

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Qualifying As A "Church"

Four families moved into a house that was zoned for single occupancy only.

When the neighbors complained in court, a spokesman for the group pointed out that the zoning law made an exception for "churches."

Then he said "We think our house as a little church, because we all belong to the same religious denomination."

But the court decided that these factors were not enough to convert the house into a church—and that the families were in violation of the law.

It is not unusual for zoning ordinances to allow churches in an otherwise residential neighborhood.

One judge who said never—and lived to regret it—was the famous Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes.

In a case involving a truck-train collision, Holmes held that a motorist who comes to a blind crossing should never proceed without first getting out of his car and walking forward to check the tracks.

This rule, he said with finality, would settle the matter "once and for all."

But the Holmes rule lasted less than seven years. So many exceptions arose, poking holes in his logic, that the Supreme Court finally had to throw it out.

The incident might well have reminded a chastened Holmes of a warning he himself had once voiced against overconfidence.

"We have been cocksure," he had said, "of many things that were not so."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

A PINCH OF SALT Lesson for August 24, 1975

Background Scripture: Matthew 5:13-16; Acts 4:13-16; 9:4-5; 16:14-17; 1 Peter 2:11-16; Devotional Reading: Romans 10:14-15.

A number of years ago, a woman in my congregation found a little book entitled, 'FISH'.

While we cannot agree to any part of the answers Mrs. Ford is supposed to have given on moral issues, we wonder if she fully realized just what interpretation could be placed on her answers.

Any political figure, especially conservative thinking men or women, should realize that every effort will be made to place them in embarrassing positions.

Incidentally, while it certainly won't do him much good, we doubt that the interview will have any great effect on Mr. Ford's efforts in the forthcoming Republican primary.

Help Offered We doubt that we need any help in griping but several persons have come forward with additional gripes since we listed some of ours in last week's column.

Several particularly mentioned the irritating habit of some drivers in maintaining a speed much lower than other traffic thus causing traffic pile-ups and eventually some driver to take a chance in passing under dangerous conditions.

Others have listed the habit of a few truck drivers in tailgating them when they are traveling the legal speed limit and passing is dangerous.

Our list of gripes and those of our readers could go on and on but make a list of your own gripes. Sometimes it helps to just get them off your chest.

Some Differance John Moss Cherry brought us a copy of an invoice issued Dec. 4, 1964, to the late Buford Cherry by C. F. Rafferty Commission Co., of Memphis.

The invoice shows that Mr. Cherry sold eight head of cattle for a total of $110.08. Prices ranged from 1 lb. per pound to 2.5c with weights ranging from 540 to 880 pounds.

One should remember that this was during the Great Depression Years of the 1930s when money was impossible to secure. Prices are high today but most of us are better off because we are still able to pay them while in the 1930s many were unable to buy meat at any price.

Mrs. Studard Mrs. Ola Bell Studard, 86, widow of H. L. Studard, of Halls, died at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Parkview Hospital in Dyersburg.

Services were at 2 p.m. Thursday at Halls Funeral Home, burial in Halls Cemetery.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Jack Davis, of Halls; a brother, Gus Nichols, of Alamo, and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Hopper, of Lenox and Mrs. Leila Lovelace, of Dyersburg.

Presbytery to Meet The August meeting of Obion Presbytery will be held at 6:30 p.m. Aug. 26th with the Poplar Grove Cumberland Presbytery Church.

The meeting will be devoted to Bible, doctrine and committee reports.

The Rev. Dudley Condon will be the denominational representative.

Flag Flown Over Nation's Capitol was presented to County Judge Jerry Corlew (left) by U.S. Rep. Ed Jones as he spent Monday in Ripley to confer with local officials and citizens of the county during the recess of Congress.

Tigers To Host Alamo Sept. 5

With a squad of twenty-three men, Halls High Coaches Richard Tomlinson and Andy Pugh are working the Halls Tigers hard for the opening game with Alamo Sept. 5th.

The Tigers, depleted by graduation, suffered another loss when Morgan Steelman, last year's starting center, broke an ankle while skating just prior to opening practice.

The ten-game slate for the coming year is: Sept. 5, Alamo, home. Sept. 12, Dresden, home. Sept. 19, Dyer County (Newbern), away.

Sept. 26, South Fulton, away. Oct. 2, Tennessee Academy (Newman), away. Oct. 9, Gleason (Homecoming), home.

Oct. 17, Fulton County, Ky., away. Oct. 24, Houston County (Erin), home. Oct. 31, Middleton, home.

Nov. 7, Greenfield, home. The Tigers, second place winners in the Reelfoot Conference in 1974, lost only to Dyer County and Houston County and did not play Tennessee Academy during last season. Lake County, winner over the Tigers last year, is not on the 1975 schedule.

Poplar Grove Locals

Randy Harris made a business trip to Union City Monday. Buy at home. Print at home. Both pay off the long run.

Feeder Pigs Sell At $1 Pound

Charles T. Paul Extension Leader Leburn Barnes, Eddie Qualls and George Buck averaged over $1.00 a pound on their feeder pigs in the Brownsville sale on August 19th.

The average weight was $2.48 pounds per pig and average price per pig was $52.66. J. D. Pettigrew, County Agent in Haywood County, stressed the importance of farmers who can, to include swine in their farm enterprise year in and year out.

Statistics of the hog sales over the last several years showed that they have consistently made money for the producer.

Any farmer in Lauderdale county may participate in this cooperative sale by joining the Lauderdale County Livestock Assn., entering their pigs, and following the other rules. The next sale will be on Sept. 24th.

Applying A Fungicide To Soybeans Carey Gaines, Henning, is applying the fungicide Benlate to 50 acres of soybeans. As far as we know this is the first time that this material will be applied in Lauderdale County.

Its purpose is to increase yield and thereby profit by keeping down diseases which reduce our yields up to 20%.

Carey will be applying this to beans which he plans to keep for seed. The first application of one pound of Benlate per acre is applied at early pod set. One additional one is made 14 to 21 days later. The cost is more than $8 an acre per application.

The University of Tennessee is planning to make application of this material on a farm in the river bottom that was infested with diseases last year. A method of measurement will be used by U-T personnel to determine the increase, if any, in yield. If the use of the Benlate can be justified by increasing the yield then the University will be in a position to recommend it; otherwise, it will be discarded. At the cost of $16 per acre it cannot be applied to $4.00 soybeans.

Elizabeth and Frank Gianotti, of Memphis, are guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Younger.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Simmons and sons spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Nashville and Lebanon.

Ralph Colley, of Memphis, spent Wednesday with his mother, Mrs. J. F. Colley.

Mr. and Mrs. Holice Gilliland were in Memphis Saturday to attend graduation exercises of Memphis State University at the Mid-South Coliseum. The Gillilands' son-in-law, George Cogbill, of Ripley, received his master's degree in Rehabilitation Education.

Summer Farmers Meeting The farm shop of Charles Viar on the Halls Airbase will be the scene of a farmers open meeting Aug. 27th at 9:30 a.m. in which Dr. Melvin Newman, Agricultural Extension Pathologist from Jackson, will assist your County Agent in a two hour discussion on soybean nematodes and crop seed treatments.

Dr. Newman will present visual aids of different kinds emphasizing the importance of diseases and nematodes on the yields of soybeans. Machinery and equipment for the application of nematicides will be a part of the program. He will bring along a seed treator which will demonstrate that you can cost soybean, wheat, and cotton seed so that the hopperbox application of granular base materials, which are so troublesome, will not have to be used.

Farmers interested in learning more about the disease and nematode problem are invited to attend.

Sick & Ailing Hygiene Wright is in Lauderdale County Hospital in Ripley. Albert Elmore has been dismissed from Parkview Hospital in Dyersburg but remains seriously ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elford Baker.

BEAUTY SPOT Rees and granams on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Jim James on East Tigret were selected this week for the Halls Garden Club beauty spot sign.

RECEIVES DEGREE Mrs. Patricia Meeks Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meeks, of Porters Gap community, received her master's degree in adult education Saturday at graduation exercises for Memphis State University at the Mid-South Coliseum.

Mr. and Mrs. Meeks and daughter, Vicky, attended the exercises. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCartha and children, of Knoxville, friends of Mrs. Martin. The McCarthas had been guests of the Meeks during last week.

IN SCHOOL Halls Chief of Police Buddy Moore is attending a Tenn. Law Enforcement Agency chief of police school Wednesday and Thursday in Sweetwater.

Cpl. James P. Adams of Virginia Beach wrote to his parents for a "weapon" that he considered to be one of the most needed by a fighting man in Vietnam, a fly-swatter. They can't use fly sprays because the odor reveals their position to the enemy, and flies are a terrific torment.

Atty. Matthew Faerber of Newport, R.I., will receive his fee in lobsters. He represented Mrs. Lorraine Chapman in a divorce action and her husband was ordered by the court to pay Mr. Faerber's fee. Emory Chapman is a jobsterman and offered to pay the attorney with 75 lobsters, three a week. Mr. Faerber said that was fine.

Three sisters in Venezuela, Adelfina Verde, 107; Adolfa Verde, 95; Julia Verde, 82, claim to be the oldest sisters in the world. Their total age is 285.

At a memorial service held in a small London graveyard near the Thames, kind words were spoken for the illustrious Captain Bligh on the 150th anniversary of his death. It was noted that after the mutiny on the Bonny, Bligh distinguished himself in naval action and won a commendation from Adm. Lord Nelson.

Bengt Johansson, captain of a Swedish fishing trawler, caught the biggest fish of his life recently when the Swedish submarine, Mackeral, surfaced with the trawlers nets snared in her propellers.

CONFESSION OF JESUS AS THE CHRIST

Jesus of Nazareth was born of the virgin Mary in Bethlehem. He was first confessed as the Son of God by God Himself. "And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him. And a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." (Matt. 3:16-17). Later on the Mount of Transfiguration, God again acknowledged Jesus as His Son: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him." (Matt. 17:5).

John the Baptist was the forerunner of Jesus. He came to prepare the way for the Lord. (Lk. 1:17). He proclaimed Jesus as the "Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (Jno. 1:29) And later, John said, "I saw and bare record that this is the son of God." (Jno. 1:34).

When Jesus came into the world, He was received as the Messiah by the Jews. The situation looked familiar to the lieutenant, and when he consulted the record he found that he had made a similar arrest in the same store 20 years before, and it was the same man.

Dr. Thomas Cureton, director of the University of Illinois and physical fitness laboratory, says "the healthiest people in the world are those who work like dogs and eat like boys."

Ohio State Treasurer John Herbert pointed out that the state has collected over a billion dollars in cigarette excise taxes since the tax went into effect in 1961. "All that money goes up in smoke," he commented.

The Rev. Jeremiah Murphy returned to this country after four years as a Catholic missionary among the head-hunters in the jungles of New Guinea, where he never bothered to latch the door of his shack. In El Sagrado, California, in his parish house, an assailant held him up at knife-point and robbed him of $300.

Given half a chance the pig is the most fastidious of animals, says Richard Beard, Jr., who runs a 200-acre pig farm in Trussville, Alabama. But pigs are frustrated and nervous, he says, and he finds they do well if he gives them bowling balls to push around, old rubber tires to chew on and rub against a spotlessly clean house in which to sleep.

The "youngest" city in the United States is the Minnea-

Mrs. and Mrs. PAUL MICHAEL GOOCH exchanged double ring vows Aug. 9th in First Baptist Church in Ripley before an arch of glowing white candles entwined with greenery and flanked by tall baskets of gladioli and carnations. The Rev. Paul Woodford, pastor of the church, officiated. Other guests included Mrs. J. W. Howard, of Halls, and Jim Sumner, of Ripley. The bride, Theresa Gooch, wore a floor-length Empire dress of floral summer breeze organza with mint hued trimmings and baby's breath. The groom, Paul Michael Gooch, wore a white tuxedo with a white carnation corsage.

Nina Cherry Is Given Shower
 Nina Cherry, who will marry Thomas Gooch at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, with music beginning at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Halls, without formal invitation, was honored Aug. 10th with a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Bernard Mayo in Friendship, with Mrs. Willie Burs, Mrs. Barry Mayo, Mrs. Lynn Enckel, Mrs. James Love, Mrs. James Elmore, Mrs. Darrell Espey, Mrs. Cleve Spay, Mrs. Harry Hay, Mrs. Charley Halyer, Mrs. Dale Williams, and Mrs. Stephanie Holder as co-hostesses. Mrs. Mayo gave the honors, who wore a red, white, and blue, long-sleeved dress with red accessories, a corsage of red roses.

R. C. Sorrell
 Roland Chester Sorrell, 93, retired farmer, died Thursday of last week in his home at 179 1/2 of Salem, Ill. Mrs. Shirley Nelson, of Lexington; Emily Hoppers, of Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. John Shands, David Shands, and Vina Butler, of Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graves, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Bivins, Tim Bivins, Billy Bivins, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Boat, Mrs. Howard's peach—with white orchid corsages. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. K. O. Broome, wore a floor length dress of lavender, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Rosie Johnson, a blue knit floor-length dress, each with a white carnation corsage.

THE FAMILY LAWYER
 "Newly Discovered Evidence"
 Harry was found guilty of snugging an elderly woman. A few months later he demanded a new trial on grounds of "newly discovered evidence." It seems that although the woman had mentioned feeling snugged on her face, the records of the Weather Bureau showed no rain on the day of the crime.
 Was this enough basis for reopening the case? The court said no, because such an error—by itself—was not serious enough to constitute a miscarriage of justice.
 Generally speaking, courts are already been closed. They say it is too costly in both time and money to do so without good reason to believe that a second trial will have a different outcome.
 Another man was convicted in a month case after failing to produce any witnesses to support his alibi. Afterward, seeking a new trial, he claimed he did indeed have three alibi witnesses that he had failed to mention.
 "I just didn't think I'd need them," he explained.

THE HALLS GRAPHIC, AUG. 22, 1975

But the court ruled that since he had known about the three witnesses from the start, he could not call this newly discovered evidence. The court said a defendant cannot keep an "ace in the hole" just in case he loses the first time around.
 Of course, if a real injustice is uncovered, a new trial is clearly in order.
 In a murder case, years after a man had been convicted and sent to prison, important advances were made in the science of ballistics. Experts, re-examining the fatal bullet, decided that it could not have been fired from the defendant's gun.
 This was one of those cases, said the court, where "subsequent developments cast serious doubt on the justice of the conviction"—so the verdict could not stand.

Roadblock To Bankruptcy
 As the aftermath of an auto accident, a motorist is walloped by a big verdict in the courtroom. It is more money than he is insured for, more money than he can possibly scrape together. Can he "get out from under" by going into bankruptcy?
 Not necessarily. It depends on how wrongly he had been brought about the accident. The law says that not even bankruptcy will wipe out liability.

Camie Casualty
 Eye-witnesses agreed that the terrier was standing motionless in the street, plainly unaware of the approaching automobile. They also agreed that the driver had plenty of time to sound his horn, swing to one side, or at least slow down.
 But he did none of these things. Result: another canine casualty.
 Under these circumstances, could the owner of the terrier hold the motorist liable for damages? Indeed he could, a judge ruled later. The negligent destruction of a dog, said the judge, is no more justified than the negligent destruction of any other personal property.
 Nowadays this is the usual attitude of the courts. No longer does the law look upon dogs (as it once did) as creatures of no value.
 Nevertheless, in most of these cases, the owner cannot hold the driver liable because he cannot prove negligence. Thus:

Lauderdale County and the Cities of Halls, Henning, Gates and Ripley, Tennessee

Notice of Certification - Release of Funds Request

Lauderdale County and the Cities of Halls, Henning, Gates and Ripley, Tennessee will request that the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development release funds for the solid waste project, code enforcement project, Halls and Ripley parks project, and the loans and grants project for the rehabilitation of substandard housing. The effective date of the request will be August 29, 1975, which is five working days from today's date.

The certification and request for release of funds relate to the joint cities/county application for assistance under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

- Through these projects, the following will be accomplished:
- establishment of a county-wide solid waste disposal system.
 - purchase and demolition of dilapidated housing structures.
 - renovation and improvements in Rice and Cleveland Street parks in Ripley, and the Old Halls Elementary facilities in Halls.
 - a loan and grant program will be established for the purpose of renovation of substandard housing in the area.

The County and Cities have prepared an Environmental Review Record respecting the projects for which release of funds is sought. Interested parties may review the record which is on file in the office of the County Judge, and City Hall in Halls, Henning, Ripley, and Gates, during normal working hours of each office. Also, copies may be obtained if desired.

Lauderdale County and the Cities of Halls, Henning, Gates and Ripley, Tennessee will undertake the project described above with Block Grant funds from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

Lauderdale County and Halls, Henning, Gates, and Ripley, Tennessee is certifying to HUD that the County and its cities and Judge Jerry Corlew in his official capacity as Lauderdale County Judge, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making, and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied.

The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, Lauderdale County and Halls, Henning, Gates, and Ripley, Tennessee may use the Block Grant Funds, and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. HUD will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following basis: (a) That the certification was not in fact executed by the chief executive officer of the applicant, or (b) That the applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision, finding, or step applicable to the project in the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58), and may be addressed to HUD at:

Department of Housing and Urban Development
Knoxville Area Office
One Northshore Building
1111 Northshore Drive
Knoxville, Tennessee 37919

Objections to the release of funds on basis other than those stated above will not be considered by HUD. No objection received after September 26, 1975 will be considered by HUD.

Up, Up Again

Predictions are that postage rates will increase 13c before Christmas according to postal officials and sources in Congress.

For some time now there have been predictions of an increase in postage rates to slow inflation. Estimates are that the 13c increase will cost postal patrons at least $1.8 billion per year.

WHERE ARE YOU GROWING?

Lesson for August 31, 1975

Background Scripture: Matthew 5:43-47; 1 Timothy 1:3 through 2:7; Deuteronomy 30:15-20.

Some time ago I saw a bumper sticker that asked: "WHEN YOU GET WHERE YOU'RE GOING, WHERE WILL YOU BE? IT IS A VERY PROVOCATIVE QUESTION."

Some of us, upon reflecting, would have to admit that we're not aware of "going" anywhere. We don't think of our lives as moving toward any goal or destination. We are just living day by day, and we have given little thought beyond that.

Farmers Fight Boll Weevils

By Charles T. Peal

"Boll weevils are as bad as I've ever seen them," says Billy Lanford, of Woodville. "I spray right on schedule, and they are still hard to control."

"Now we are having the boll worm come in, and the spraying will cost twice as much per acre."

"This, added to the production cost, will make this one of the most expensive cotton crops I have produced."

Reports from all areas of the county reveal that with weevil hatch-outs occurring daily, better producers are keeping counts below the 3% level. Infestations are varying from 2% to 75%.

Carey Gaines reports his cotton fruiting well and making rapid growth. Two more sprayings may be necessary to protect the squares against expected weevil hatch-outs.

"This year I've sprayed for white flies, an insect completely new to me," Carey says. "Using the cotton insect scouts trained by the Extension Service, I have been able to keep a close watch for weevils on each field and thus far keep them on a level which should allow me to make a reasonable yield."

Five flying services are working to keep Lauderdale cotton sprayed. They are using the insecticide Toxophene. Reports from all areas of the county reveal that with weevil hatch-outs occurring daily, better producers are keeping counts below the 3% level. Infestations are varying from 2% to 75%.

Tigers Rated 3rd In Conference

Dyer County High School Choctaws are favored for third consecutive Reelfoot Conference championship but the Halls Tigers and league newcomer, Bruceton, are rated closely behind.

Play in the conference will begin next week with a ten-member conference. New conference members are Bruceton coached by former Halls High Coach Julian Nunnamaker and Tennessee Academy, of Brownsville, coached by Edwin "Babe" Felker.

Tennessee Academy has been added to the Tiger schedule but Bruceton is not on the slate this year.

Standings in the conference at the end of the 1974 season were:

Team	Conf. Record	Overall Record
Dyer County	6-0	10-4
Halls	6-1	7-3
South Fulton	4-3	5-5
Greenfield	3-3	3-7
Alamo	2-3	3-6
Fulton County	2-3	4-6
Dresden	1-8	1-9
Gleason	0-7	1-9

The Jackson Sun's pick for the 1975 season lists Dyer County, Bruceton, Halls, South Fulton, Dresden, Alamo Fulton County Tenn. Academy, Greenfield, and Gleason in that order.

Time For Weed Killers

To stop wild blue-grass and chickweed from germinating in lawns, apply Daclon now. This material kills the germinating seed, providing a weed-free situation.

It comes in granular form to be applied by a cyclone seeder as wettable powder mixed with water and sprayed.

Farmer Paschal has applied the liquid form to his lawn. Your county agent has been successful with a granular material called Balan.

Home-owners can have practically a weed-free lawn by applying these materials in the spring and fall.

Berries Need Fertilizer

Tom Barnes, of Luckett, is applying 15-15-15 fertilizer to his newly planted strawberries. Fertilization now helps the crows grow and develop good fruit buds for next year's crop.

The application of nitrogen to old stands at the rate of 30-45 pounds per acre would be at the rate of 1 1/2 pints per 100 feet of row.

A broom can be used to sweep the fertilizer from the leaves.

BOBBY KIRBY BEATS THE ENERGY CRUNCH

By riding 12 miles to work on his horse, Second shift Danley operator at the Marentom Corp. plant of Ripley, he lives at Walnut Grove, and, faced with a broken down truck, turned to a cheaper mode of transportation. Patches placed third in tunnel and fourth in Western Pleasure competition at the Edith Riding Club in his first appearance before judges. Kirby says Marentom furnishes Patches all the clover he can eat.

Jan and Marion Dietrich, twins from Oakland, California, are both pilots and flew a Queenair 80 from New York to the Azores, to Madrid, to Bremen, Germany. They were delivering the airplane for Beechcraft.

Systems Development Corporation of Santa Monica, California, operates automatic computer service for physicians. It feeds information into its computers from doctors as far away as Denmark.

People who do not smoke cigarettes have a keener sense of smell than those who do, reports Dr. R. E. Joyner of Texas City after a survey for a chemical plant.

A canary owned by Eugene Murphy of Brooklyn, New York, won the solo song championship of the world in competition. A quartet of birds from Ontario, Canada, won the group singing award.

When tax officials checked up on Will Hubbard, 80, of Athens, Texas, they found he had kept a perfect record of his receipts, all the way back to 1903, when he paid $1.76 poll tax.

Less than 30 percent of sons and daughters have a keener sense of smell than those who do, reports Dr. R. E. Joyner of Texas City after a survey for a chemical plant.

Impossible Limited is the name of an organization that makes travel arrangements that are almost impossible. With its main office in London, Mrs. Sherri Richards says, we can do almost anything but get you a date to have tea with the Queen.

Mrs. Emily Thomas of Portland, England, not only is a good housekeeper, she also cleans the bus stop shelter in front of her home every day, and has done it for the past nine years. The town council finally sent her a letter of thanks.

Gillette, Wyoming, is prime antelope country and about 5,000 hunting permits are in force at this time of year. Actually the animal that most hunters seek around Gillette is not an antelope at all but a "pronghorn" and both the buck and doe have horns.

Money Saving Ideas

Save Dollars/Energy With Home Projects
Do-it-yourself home maintenance and installation, you can save 15 percent on the cost of professional service calls. If they also save you money on utility bills, you're even more money ahead, and you're conserving energy at the same time. There are some energy-related projects you can do in your home that can save you literally hundreds of dollars a year, depending on the temperature range, according to the home improvement magazine at Sears. For example, installing additional insulation on an easy do-it-yourself job, can cut $75 to $100 off your heating and/or air conditioning costs. In fact, proper insulation is so important to saving fuel that the government is now considering a substantial tax deduction for insulation costs.

Finally, don't forget the importance of your thermostat. When heating, keep it set at 68 degrees or lower. (Each degree lower will save about 3 per cent on power consumption.) When cooling, set the temperature at 78 degrees or higher. (Each degree the thermostat is raised cuts 3 per cent off air conditioning costs.)

CONFESSION OF JESUS AS THE CHRIST (No. 2)

There is an interesting letter still in existence from one of the subordinate Roman rulers to his Emperor, telling how he handled those who were Christians. A part of that letter reads: "When people are brought before me accused of the crime of being Christians, I ask them: 'Do you believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God?' If they answer negatively, I release them. If they answer affirmatively, I have them scourged and warn them of the danger of persisting in that course, and ask them a second time; if they answer negatively and renounce their faith, I discharge them; if they answer affirmatively, I have them scourged more severely and assure them that they have but one more opportunity for their lives—if they answer affirmatively, there is no appeal. I ask them the question the third time, and if they answer affirmatively, I hurry them away to execution to make room for the next."

At the beginning of the ministry of Christ, John the Baptist announced that Jesus was the "Lamb of God," and a little later he declared: "And I saw, and bear record that this is the Son of God." (Jno. 1:29, 34). At the end of the Lord's ministry, the Centurion at the cross said, "Truly this was the Son of God." (Matt. 27:54). In between these events, there were many who believed on Jesus and confessed that He was the Christ, the Son of God. But in the same span of time, there were many who did not believe, and some who would not confess Christ. John said, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God." (Jno. 12:42-43). One of the tragedies of tragedies is man's failure to believe in Christ and his failure to announce that belief to the world. Jesus said, "Whoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." (Matt. 10:32-33).

In the process of his conversion, the man from Ethiopia confessed: "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." (Acts 8:37). The apostle Paul wrote: "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Rom. 10:10). It is our desire and hope that if you have not confessed Christ, that you will do so in obeying Him. (Eph. 5:8-9).

You are cordially invited to worship with the Halls Church of Christ
