INCOMPLETE CHRISTIANS

Lesson for June 8, 1975

Background Scriptures: Deuteronomy 6:5; Luke 4:1-4; 2 Timothy 3:10-17; 1 Peter 2:1-12.

Devotional Reading: Psalms 119:89-96.

A mother was helping her son to unpack his army duffel bag. In the breast pocket of one of his uniforms she found the Bible she had sent to him.

"Did you read it?" she asked.

"Oh, you bet," her son replied.

"How far?" she asked.

"Flashing a smile, her son replied, "From cover to cover!"

Handing him the Bible she said, "Turn to page three, please." Opening the Bible, he found on page three two twenty dollar bills. "I put them there when I sent you the Bible," she explained.

If it were forbidden

In relating this little story, I am not suggesting that all of my readers start paging madly through their Bibles. But I do believe that in many homes the Bible might be the very best place to hide money, for it seems to be one of the places least likely to be disturbed.

Church historians tell us that for daring to translate the Bible into English, William Tyndale was burned at the stake and Henry VIII did his best to keep the English Bible out of England.

Public notices with this warning were posted:

No women, nor artificers, nor apprentices, journeymen, servants, yeomen, husbandmen or laborers shall read the Bible in English to himself or another, privately or openly on pain of a month's imprisonment.

Perhaps we'd be further ahead today if our own government were to pass such legislation. The prospect of people reading it "on the sly," buying it under the counter at bookstores, having it sent in a plain wrapper, well, who knows what that might do!

The writer of 2 Timothy assures us that "scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work" (2 Timothy 3:16).

Ill-equipped

Judging by those standards and our biblical illiteracy, many of us are quite incomplete as followers of Christ. We are ill-equipped for our discipleship because, although we honor and venerate the Bible, we do not study it, know it, and use it up to anything close to its potential. The Bible is one of the Christian's finest, most important resources, but it is also one of the most neglected.

The most common excuses are that the Bible is just too difficult to understand. Yet, we live in an age of multiple popular Bible translations and have an almost unlimited supply of literature and other aids to help us understand it. There are courses in Bible study and even our television stations sometimes provide this kind of programming.

Why is it, then, that many of us continue to be so incomplete as far as the Bible is concerned?

C. L. Kee

Charles L. Kee, of Chicago, Ill., brother of Mrs. Frank Moore, of Halls, died May 25th at his home.

Services were at 11 a.m. May 28th in Chicago, burial in St. Boniface Cemetery in Chicago.

He also leaves his wife, Mrs. Louise Easley Kee, two sons, Charles Kee, Jr. of Chicago, and Joseph Kee, of Glenview, Ill., and a brother, Harris Kee, of Gates.

Sick & Ailing

Issac Duncan, of Halls, was dismissed Friday from Baptist Hospital in Memphis after placement of a heart pacemaker.

Mrs. Jerre Jordan, of Halls, had major surgery Wednesday in Parkview Hospital in Dyersburg. She had entered the hospital last Friday night. Visiting her during the weekend were her sons, Jerro Jordan, Jr., of Covington, and Steve Jordan, of Memphis State University.

Gasoline Going Up

Efforts to increase the gasoline tax 1c per gallon have increased in the state legislature, while at the same time the House of Representatives energy committee has advanced a program that is destined to increase gasoline prices about 23c per gallon.

We understand that energy is in short supply and that some definite effort must be made to conserve energy, and increasing the cost of gasoline is one solution, but we wonder if those advocating the huge increases really understand just what such increases can and probably will do to the economy as a whole.

Perhaps it isn't completely necessary, but the fact remains that the entire economy of this nation is based on the use of gasoline.

A great deal has been written about pleasure driving, unnecessary trips, etc., but by far the greater percentage of gasoline burned is for what could be considered as essential purposes, since it means moving trucks and goods along the highways and getting tractors and farm equipment, salesmen, doctors, ministers, etc., to and from their business appointments and other essential needs.

We do not favor rationing, since it normally creates a monster in the form of black market, etc., but even rationing, if reasonably set up, would serve better than continually inflating prices.

It would be much better if the general public would realize the need and co-operate with efforts to conserve energy and time, money, and effort spent in attempting to locate new sources of petroleum.

Pay Cemetery Dues

Mrs. L. E. Critchfield, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Halls Cemetery Association, reminds lot owners in the cemetery that dues should be paid in order to maintain the cemetery.

Checks may be made to Halls Cemetery Association, and mailed to Mrs. Critchfield, or Bank of Halls.

Continually increasing cost of maintenance makes the collections of dues imperative, Mrs. Critchfield said this week.

Don't Delay

Many of our advertisers and contributors continue to delay until Wednesday turning in their advertising copy, or their news items.

It is becoming increasingly more difficult for your editor to assure insertion of advertising or news that should be included.

More and more we are having to turn down or delay publication of copy.

In the majority of cases, the delay is really not necessary. We make every effort to insert all copy, but the deadlines are beyond our control.

All society news should reach us some time Monday, advertising copy no later than Tuesday afternoon. Obituaries, late happening news, etc., will be handled Wednesday morning.

Please co-operate and get items and advertising into our hands as quickly as possible.

EARNs BLACK BAND

Miss Amy Baldrige, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldrige, of Halls, was among students of the University of Tennessee School of Nursing in Memphis to earn her Black Band in ceremonies Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldrige and daughter, Beth, and Mrs. Jim White attended the Black Band Ceremonies.

Miss Baldrige will continue her studies at UT and will earn her bachelor of science degree in nursing in May, 1976.

BEAUTY SPOT

The Halls Garden Club beauty spot sign was placed on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Vandike on East Main this week for a bed of red and white petunias.

SEN. BROCK IN RIPLEY

Senator Bill Brock will be at Forsythe's Restaurant in Ripley at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 14th, for a Dutch treat luncheon.

Looking Around

WITH SID HATHAWAY

"I had the vegetable knife in my hand. He was hitting me, so I pushed it at him!" Mrs. Francis Woodcock, 22 told a London judge that was how she came to stab her husband. The husband was hitting her because she botched his potatoes in a pan in which she had dyed a dress, and the potatoes came out bright green. They had been married only six weeks, so they made up, and the judge dismissed the case.

The doctor told Kenneth McIntyre of Port Augusta, Australia, that the best therapy for his thrombosis in the leg was to walk. So Mr. McIntyre has set out for Kalgoolie, a little over 1,000 miles across the desolate Nullarbor Plain. When he got there, he turned around and walked right back again.

Local drivers, not tourists, are the worst offenders in littering highways, the Keep America Beautiful organization reports.

Three pounds of bacon and two dozen eggs are the basis of an average breakfast in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of Denmore, New York, and their 16 children.

In Pretoria, South Africa, a dry-cleaner received his largest single order. He got the job of cleaning a stuffed giraffe, 18 feet high.

The Des Moines National Bank turned its bank robbery into a promotion after a man took $1,500 at gunpoint. In a large newspaper advertisement the bank said: "You have no need to use a gun to get a loan from us. We're a full service bank, but this is ridiculous!"

A self-propelled wheel chair that climbs stairs was invented by Rodvin I. Zamotin of Miami Springs, Florida.

Children who never had seen raindrops were terror stricken when the first rain in eight years fell recently on the desert city of Jaisalmer, of western India, officials said.

Nude bathing at a roadside pool diverted drivers' eyes from the highway and caused a four-car pileup near Vranje, Yugoslavia, police reported. They said they will seek closure of the pool, which is said to have therapeutic properties.

The Des Moines National Bank turned its bank robbery into a promotion after a man took $1,500 at gunpoint. In a large newspaper advertisement the bank said: "You have no need to use a gun to get a loan from us. We're a full service bank, but this is ridiculous!"

Teachers at St. Mary's school in Oak Ridge, Tennessee, could finally tell Chris and Tina Qualantone apart when one of the identical twins, Chris, broke her left arm. Then Tina fell and broke her left arm and they were right back where they started.

MOUNTAIN-TOP EXPERIENCES OF JESUS

There are a number of important Bible events that took place upon mountains. For example, the ark came to rest on Mount Ararat. Abraham was called upon to offer Isaac in the vicinity of Mount Moriah. After the Israelites came out of Egyptian bondage, the law was given at Mount Sinai. Later the blessings of the law were proclaimed from Mount Ebal. The contest between Elijah and the prophets of Baal was on Mount Carmel, and when King Saul killed himself, it was on Mount Gibeah.

When Jesus came, mountains also played a significant part in many events. The emphasis, however, is not on the fact that Jesus climbed mountains, but upon the events that took place.

JESUS WENT INTO A MOUNTAIN TO PRAY. More than once, reference is made to Christ climbing a mountain to pray. For instance, when Jesus chose the apostles, "He went up into a mountain to pray" (Lk. 6:12), and when He was transfigured, "He went up into a mountain to pray" (Lk. 9:28).

Prayer was very important to Jesus. When He was baptized, He was praying (Lk. 3:21); He prayed all night (Lk. 6:12) before selecting the apostles; He prayed while on the Mount of Transfiguration; He prayed shortly before going to the cross (Jno. 17); and, He taught much during His ministry on the importance of prayer and how to pray. If Jesus, the Son of God, felt the need of prayer, then how much more should we feel the need today? "Pray without ceasing," wrote Paul. (1 Thess. 5:17).

JESUS WENT INTO A MOUNTAIN AND TAUGHT THE "SERMON ON THE MOUNT." (See Matt. 5-7). This sermon has been called the "Manifesto of the King," and the "Grand Charter of the Kingdom." In Matt. 4:23, it is stated that He "went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom." And in the immediate context the Sermon on the Mount is recorded. Then in the conclusion of that sermon, the following words are found: "When Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at His doctrine." (Matt. 7:28). The first passage mentions the preaching of "the gospel of the kingdom," and the last passage states that they were astonished at "His doctrine." Therefore, the Sermon on the Mount, is the gospel of the kingdom and the doctrine of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and daughters Betsy and Debbie, of Jonesboro, Ark., spent Saturday with Mr. Baker's mother, Mrs. Robert Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murchison spent the weekend in Arkansas. Friday they spent some time with Mrs. Murchison's sister, Mrs. W. A. Perry, and The Rev. Mr. Perry in Little Rock, and Saturday, they had a short visit with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Burns, in Harrison, Ark.

Mrs. M. E. McDearman and Tommy McDearman were in Memphis Wednesday, where Mrs. McDearman saw her doctor.

Looking Around

WITH SID HATHAWAY

Susan Edwards, who is 12, can receive only "pocket money" until she is 21, even though she inherited $400,000 from her aunt in Sydney, Australia.

A burglar in Berlin reported to police, after his capture, that he had given $1,400 of his loot to the Salvation Army. Police were skeptical until Salvation Army officials read a news story about the claim, identified the gift and handed over the money to police.

In a "rededication of student energy to a constructive purpose" 1,000 members of Greek letter fraternities at the University of Maryland staged a "Trash Bash" one afternoon and picked up litter on the campus and in an eight-mile surrounding area.

A blonde airline hostess, Barbara Capozzo, clad in a bikini, saw a young man take her wallet and radio from the beach while she was swimming at San Juan, Puerto Rico. She set off in pursuit and when the man got in a car she hailed a passing truck to chase him. They all got in an accident. The thief jumped out and ran into a restaurant but Barbara, with blood on her bikini, followed him and he was held there until police arrived.

Ther, a San Francisco police dog, had a difficult assignment locating a burglar in a spice warehouse, but he did finally point out the man hiding behind a case of black pepper.

A United States Army lieutenant, five sergeants and a civilian have been landed on tiny Pitcairn Island in the Pacific to set up a satellite observation station. They join a small population made up largely of descendants of Fletcher Christian and others of the famous mutiny of the H.M.S. Bounty.

Capt. John Ridgeway and Sgt. Shay Blyth received an unpaid leave from their British paratroop regiment and rowed across the Atlantic Ocean from Cape Cod to the coast of Ireland in a 20-foot boat. It took them 92 days to travel 2,600 miles.

In Salisbury, Massachusetts safecrackers were scared away from a supermarket when they mistook a produce truck for police. They not only left the safe unopened, but also abandoned their own tools and a walkie-talkie radio.

A slightly built, redheaded school teacher, Mrs. Roxanne McDowell, said of the group of unemployed young men that she recruited from the block in Harlem to help her convert a garbage strewn lot into a playground: "Some people don't like them, but they're part of the reality of the neighborhood."

Jonathan Davies, 31, appeared from his home in Cotcott, England. He left a note for his parents: "Come to Australia, will be back in 18 years." He took his bicycle with him.

William Cupido was held up on a side street in Cape Town South Africa. When he opened his mouth to yell for help, the hold-up man snatched his gold teeth.

Gates Locals

By Mrs. Sally Cullipher

Mrs. Willis Warren, Sr., of Forked Deer, visited Mrs. Sally Cullipher Monday last week.

George Washington Country Heritage Trail Announced

A self-guided tour of historic sites associated with the life of George Washington has been created for the millions of tourists expected to visit the mid-Atlantic region during 1975 and the upcoming American Bicentennial year.

Called the George Washington Country Heritage Trail, the tour covers five states and the District of Columbia. Sixteen highlights of the region are visited along the 1,000-mile route, including memorials, historical sites and recreation areas associated with the Father of Our Country.

The Heritage Trail begins in Washington, D.C. with a visit to the Washington Monument, the 555-foot high marble memorial that is by law—the tallest structure in the nation's capital. A few blocks away, also located on the National Mall, is the United States Capitol.

On September 15, 1783, George Washington led the remnants of the Continental Army to the new Capital City bearing his name. Sixteen miles away in Northern Virginia stands Mount Vernon. At the age of 21, Washington inherited this grand estate overlooking the Potomac River, and it remained his home until his death almost a half-century later.

Next stop along the Heritage Trail is Richmond, Virginia, in the ruins of the Jefferson-designed State Capitol stands the celebrated Houdon statue of Washington, carved from marble by the French sculptor Jean-Antoine Houdon. Today it remains the best likeness of the man that exists and is considered America's most valuable marble sculpture.

Yorktown, Virginia was the site of the 1781 surrender of Lord Cornwallis' army to American and French forces under Washington and Lafayette, effectively ending the war for independence.

Near the Chesapeake Bay at Westmoreland, Va., is the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The original home burned to the ground during the Revolutionary War; the existing building, Wakefield, is patterned after a typical Virginia plantation of his time and built on the old foundations. Colonial houses surround the Maryland State House in Annapolis, oldest in continuous use in America. It was here that Washington resigned his commission in 1783 and the Continental Congress ratified the Treaty of Paris in 1784.

Wye Mills at Easton, Md., is the last attraction on the tour. This sprawling 18th century mill on the historic Eastern Shore once ground grain to make bread for the Continental Army. In Western Maryland, Cumberland was the site of Washington's first headquarters and his final appearance in uniform as Commander-in-Chief of American forces.

The "Stars and Stripes" was first displayed in a land battle at Coode's Bridge near Newark, Delaware. The action in 1777 was the only Revolutionary War engagement to take place on Delaware soil. Nearby is New Castle, a small city which still retains much of its Colonial charm. Washington was guest of honor at the wedding of Ann Van Dyke here in 1784.

Dignified, restored Independence Hall in Philadelphia is the location of the Liberty Bell and served as the meeting hall of the Continental Congress which adopted the Declaration of Independence in 1776. Washington chaired the Constitutional Convention here in 1787.

At Washington's Crossing, Pa., state park grounds now include the site of Washington's crossing of the Delaware on Christmas night, 1776. The attack on Trenton boosted the young army's spirits and led to a series of British defeats.

An hour's drive away, another state park marks the encampment of Washington's troops at Valley Forge during the bitter winter of 1777-78. Many restored buildings and memorials are located on the grounds.

Next along the Heritage Trail is Berkeley Springs, West Virginia. These natural springs were visited regularly by George Washington and have been public property since 1796. The healthful warm water baths are still in use, operated under the state park system.

The regional tour ends at Point Pleasant, W. Va. On land surveyed by Washington, American forces in 1774 defeated a large group of Shawnee Indians and relieved pressure on the Ohio Valley. Some historians consider this the first battle of the Revolutionary War.

George Washington Country is one of nine travel regions designated by the Discover America Travel Organization. It consists of the States of Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia and Washington, D.C.

More information about George Washington Country may be obtained by writing 13 South Fifth Street, Richmond, Virginia, 23219.

I am an American.
Do not fold, spindle, or mutilate.

Being an American is comfortable. After all, we do have more than any other country in the world. But sometimes we get too comfortable. We take our leisure and our prosperity and our freedoms for granted. Sometimes we have to be reminded that it wasn't easy for us to get where we are. That the freedoms we enjoy weren't handed to us on a platter.

Of course, the great majority of Americans have great pride in their country.

Millions of them show their pride by buying U.S. Savings Bonds. Through regular purchases when they work or bank, they've helped preserve our freedoms by investing in their country.

At the same time, they've been storing up quite a nest egg for themselves.

U.S. Savings Bonds pay a guaranteed return. And your investment is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America.

Also, the interest on Series E Savings Bonds isn't subject to state or local income taxes.

You can defer federal taxes on E Bond interest until you redeem the Bond.

If your Bonds are lost, or stolen, or destroyed, we simply replace them without cost.

They're safe.

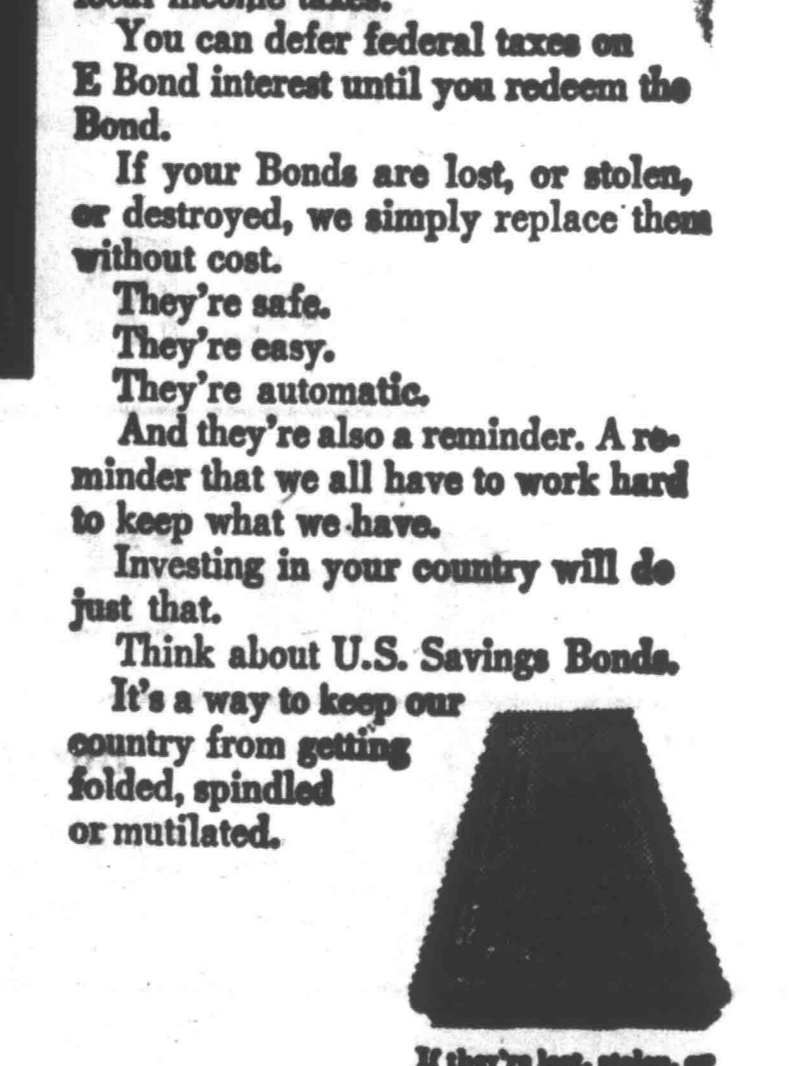

They're easy.

They're automatic.

And they're also a reminder. A reminder that we all have to work hard to keep what we have.

Investing in your country will do just that.

Think about U.S. Savings Bonds. It's a way to keep our country from getting folded, spindled or mutilated.

1975 Chicken Cooking Contest

It's official! The 1975 National Chicken Cooking Contest has been announced and it's time to think about entering. Thankless will be selected from each state and the District of Columbia. Each state finalist will win a round trip to the national cook-off in San Antonio, Texas a $100 cash award, a year's supply of the co-sponsor's products; a trophy and a chance to compete for the grand prize—$10,000. Second prize, $4,000; third prize, $3,000; fourth prize, $2,000 and fifth prize, $1,000. For the rules and entry blank, write to National Chicken Cooking Contest, 614 Madison Building, 1125 10th Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20006. In the meantime, here's a recipe from a recent National Chicken Cooking Contest that meets all the requirements for the 1975 contest.

KALIULA LIME-GLAZED CHICKEN

- 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in parts
- 1 teaspoon fennel enhancer
- 1 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup Masala corn oil
- 1/2 cup unseasoned pineapple juice
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 2 teaspoons grated lime rind
- 3 tablespoons lime juice
- 1/2 teaspoon dried basil or chervil leaves

Sprinkle chicken with fennel enhancer, salt and pepper. Pour corn oil into large heavy fry pan. Heat over medium heat. Add chicken and brown on all sides, turning as needed. Reduce heat. Add pineapple juice, corn syrup, lime rind, lime juice and basil or chervil. Cover and simmer basting several times with pan juice, about 25 minutes or until chicken is tender. Remove basting.

KOINONIA

Lesson for June 15, 1975
Background Scripture: Jeremiah 23:1-6
John 14:1-13
Devotional: John 14:1-13

In the Greek New Testament there frequently occurs a word for which there is no adequate equivalent. The word is koinonia (COIN-o-NE-ah) and most often it is translated as "fellowship," although that term is quite inadequate.

The word "koinonia" implies partnership, sharing, friendship, participation, communion, and relationship. As the Williams Dictionary puts it, koinonia is that bond which binds Christians to each other, to Christ and to God.

Each of the various writers of the Bible had experiences in which they encountered God. Their biblical writings are an attempt to express and share with us those experiences. Their purpose is not just to tell us about those experiences, but to help us enter into their experiences and encounter God for ourselves.

When the writers of Genesis wrote of creation and the story of Adam and Eve, they are attempting to help us to feel the sense of awe and wonder in God's presence which they felt. When the writer of 1 Kings tells us an episode from the history of Israel, he wants us to experience, just as he does, the presence of God working in the affairs of men.

"That you may believe..." When the Psalmist sets down his testimony of faith, he wants us to share personally in his moment of aspiration. When the prophet Isaiah's warnings to the people of Israel, he wants us to feel the same sense of God's judgment that he feels. When the writer of the Gospels records for us the words and actions of Jesus, he does so that we might encounter the Lord for ourselves.

This is what John says about the purpose of his gospel:
"Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book, but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name." (John 20:31)

It adopted a resolution urging the writer of Halls and Gates to share his experiences and feelings with us in the form of a book. The purpose is to give us an opportunity to let God speak to us about our problems, our concerns, and our lives.

The term, "The Word of God," is not simply a title for a book or magazine which we read, but it is the living experience of God himself who speaks through our words with those who produced the book we call the Bible.

Penny Swift Is Honored For Saving Life

Penny E. Swift—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Swift, of Halls, Ala., and granddaughter of Mrs. R. L. Siler, of Halls—and a classmate, Beverly Brown, have been commended for quick first aid to a fellow student after a heart attack.

Miss Swift, who graduated from high school this month, is a life guard at a Huntsville swimming pool.

V. M. Burnett, superintendent of schools in Huntsville, sent the following letter to Miss Swift and Miss Brown and to Huntsville newspapers:
"It has been brought to my attention that each of you worked together, giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to your classmate who had suffered a heart attack while at school. You cannot know how grateful I am to you—for your concern and for your acceptance of responsibility."

"It is difficult not to imagine that many adults under like circumstances would have panicked. Your cool was indeed beyond praise."

"A young man is alive today because you cared and you acted. You do not know who properly say "thank you" but can only hope that you understand my feelings."

Your teachers and the staff at your school are very proud of you, and I wanted you to know that your superintendent is also."

MARTIN GRADUATES
The University of Tennessee in Martin lists ten Lauderdale Countians to receive degrees Saturday in its largest graduating class, totaling 676.

Jewell Richard English, Jr., of Gates, will take a bachelor of science degree with high honors.

Martha Jane Hooper and William Neely Woodley, both of Halls, will take a bachelor of science degrees in education with honors.

John Souton Correll, of Ripley, will take a bachelor of arts degree in liberal arts. Receiving bachelor of science degrees in education are B. M. Barry Driver, Jr., Warner R. Pace, III, and Margaret Belle Cline Whittaker, all of Ripley, and Alice Jane Burroughs and Carl Layne Hilliard, both of Halls.

Dr. and Mrs. Mac McCallister and granddaughter, Lisa Allen, all of Mobile, Ala., were guests last week of Mrs. Birdie Spence.

On the Scene at This Crash

CHIEF DEPUTY SHERIFF MILFORD DURHAM, who had stopped his car (below) to investigate a car parked at the intersection of old Highway 51 and Cedar Grove Road, north of Ripley,

Saturday evening. Despite its flashing blue lights, it was struck from the rear by a car driven by Freddy Yandell, of near Ripley, who was charged with reckless driving and violating the financial responsibility law.

Looking Around

Prisoners at the state penitentiary in Nashville, Tenn., worked for several days on a building with some of the back where the front should be. A government project, no one cared to take the responsibility for reporting the error to his superiors.

For the "town that has everything" you can buy a historical marker that says "on this spot, February 29, 1776, absolutely nothing happened." The price is $20.

A mother of 12 in San Antonio, Texas, who cooked 24 tortillas for breakfast, noticed that two of the tortillas were left over one morning recently. Her settled police that one of her children was missing and they found the boy.

Peter Clark didn't show up for his wedding to Phyllis Chadwick in York, England, but there were 30 guests present so Phyllis went along with the reception and cut the cake for her guests. Her father said: "We don't ever want to see Clark again."

Mrs. Louise Mercer reported that someone stole the concrete steps from a home she owned in Jacksonville, Fla.

Poplar Grove Local

By Mrs. Nolle Kendrick
Mr. and Mrs. Pete Biel, of Okmulgee, Okla., and Mrs. Botha Rudi, of Fort's Gap, visited Mrs. Gladys Brandon last Friday and had lunch at Reelfoot Lake.

and Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hicks, of Las Vegas, Nev., visited Mr. Hicks' sister, Mrs. Ethel Leonard, last week.

Slow Cooker
The great taste and tenderness of meats cooked in slow cookers have made that product one of the fastest-selling in the portable appliance field.
Now such problems as the cost of buying a limited-purpose appliance and storage problems such a product creates have been considered in the creation of a three-purpose appliance.
The versatile cooker/ryer has been given a removable liner to produce a three-way appliance that does cook foods up to 14 hours, deep fries at high temperatures or functions as a conventional deep cooker for stews and similar foods.
Cooking is closely controlled by a temperature selector dial and a thermostat. The interior surfaces of the metal cooker/ryer bodies are Teflon II coated and the exterior is porcelain enamel for easy cleaning.
Since the crock is removable, it can be taken to the table for serving and to the sink for easy cleaning. It stores in the cooker/ryer when the product isn't in use.
One maker, Sunbeam, is offering ceramic liners separately to consumers who already have their brand cooker/ryer, permitting addition of slow cooking at a much lower cost than purchasing the entire cooker/cooker/ryer.

DOG CLEAN-UP
CAMPAIGN
The Lauderdale County Health Department in cooperation with the city police will conduct a campaign to clean out stray dogs and unwanted dogs on
June 25th, 1975
Also, a check will be made to find out how many dogs have been vaccinated and registered.
All dog owners are asked to either keep dogs up, or have current tags attached to their collars. This will help the rabies officer and city officials in the dog pick-up. Dogs running at large without current tags will be picked up and brought to the dog pound at Ripley.
We ask the cooperation of all citizens in Gates in this campaign.

Three women organized a charitable fund-raising party at the first annual informal party and supper party given by Mrs. and Mrs. Ronnie Robertson, of Dyersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henderson III, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie War in the Vlar home on Vlar Road.
Guests gathered on the provincial garden patio where arrangements of magenta blossoms added their beauty and fragrance to the night.
Miss Shipley, presented a corsage centered with a Kentia daisy, was introduced to guests as Mrs. d'ourees were enjoyed.
A Bavarian motif was carried out in the home, where covers were laid for 24 at small candle-lit tables laid with red and white checked gingham, accented with navy blue and white bandana napkins and white place cards.
Two white turtle-doves nesting in an arrangement of red and white checked gingham flowers marked the places of the engaged couple.
A beautiful focal point was a colorful array of spring flowers arranged in a silver champagne bucket.
Miss Shipley and Mr. Critchfield were presented a pair of pewter candle holders by the hosts and hostesses.
Dessert was served on the patio.

STAGE CENTER
Doris (Mrs. Sammie) Arnold got the thrill of a lifetime Tuesday evening when she was invited to sing with the Faron Young band at the Tennessee Municipal League banquet at the Hyatt-Regoey Hotel in Nashville. Mrs. Arnold, who has recorded, sang "For The Good Times."
Maye and Mrs. Arnold were in Nashville to attend the TML convention, returning home Wednesday.

PEOPLE PROTECTORS
Did you ever think of ads as guardians of your individuality? They are, you know. In a time when the edges are being eaten off our personalities and we're all being reduced to card-index numbers, we need to hang on to some things. Like our freedom of choice. And that choice is yours only as long as competition and free enterprise and advertising are working for you. Guard them. For they stand between you and a dull and standardized life.

Mountain-Top Experiences of Jesus (No. 2)

In a previous lesson, we noted that mountains played a significant part in many events in which Jesus participated.

JESUS WENT UP ON A MOUNTAIN AND WAS TRANSGURED. (Matt. 17:1-15; Mk. 9:2-10; Lk. 9:31-35). One main lesson of the transfiguration is that God acknowledged Jesus as His Son and declared that we are to hear Him. In other words, the law is no longer binding, and the prophets have finished their work, so today we are to hear Christ. (cf. Heb. 1:1-2).

JESUS CLIMBED A MOUNTAIN TO ATTEST THE ANNUAL FEASTS. The Bible often speaks of "going up to Jerusalem," and this is correct because Jerusalem is located up in the mountains. While Jesus was a living, it was necessary for Him to go to Jerusalem to observe these annual feasts in accordance with the Law of Moses. But today, it is not necessary for us to make such trips since Christ took the law out of the way and nailed it to the cross. (Col. 2:14).

AFTER HIS RESURRECTION,

CHRIST CLIMBED A MOUNTAIN AND GAVE THE GREAT COMMISSION. (Matt. 28:16-20; cf. Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 24:46-47). Here we have a brief account of the law of pardon as expressed under the New Covenant, and also the marching orders of the church. The book of Acts details the carrying out of this commission and records the beginning, growth, and triumphs of the early church.

JESUS WENT UPON A MOUNTAIN AND ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN. (Acts 1:6-11; Lk. 24:46-52). This even took place on Mount Olivet, and as He ascended, "two men stood by them in white apparel, which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." (Acts 1:10-11). This doctrine of Christ's second coming is emblazoned upon the pages of the New Testament, and one day He is coming back to claim His own. It should behoove all of us to be ready. (See Amos 4:12).

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Everybody Does It" Pedestrian Jenks, bowled over by an automobile, decided to sue the motorist for damages. But in a court hearing, the motorist pointed out that Jenks had been crossing in the middle of the block.

"What if I?" countered Jenks. "Crossing in the middle of the block happens to be the customary thing at that particular location. As long as everybody does it, that can't be held against me."

Get wheeling with a Big Wheel Auto Loan.

However, the court ruled that Jenks was indeed guilty of negligence—regardless of the custom. The judge said the mere fact that many people do something wrong does not make it right.

This is the law's usual attitude toward those who follow someone else's bad example. And it applies not only to those who suffer an injury but also to those who inflict an injury.

On the other hand, while custom does not excuse negligence, it may at least shed light on what negligence is. In another case, a hurrying shopper crashed into the plate glass door at a market, shattering the glass. She claimed damages later on the ground that the pane should have been thicker.

But experts testified that the glass was of standard thickness, the kind used almost universally in market doors. Dismissing the woman's claim, the court said the custom of the trade was persuasive evidence that the company had simply not done anything wrong.

THE BIBLE "IT IS WRITTEN" Lessons for June 22, 1975

Background Scripture: Psalms 137:1-4; 139:1-12; Matthew 6:1-12; Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:1-11.

The Bible is credited with being the best-seller of all time. There seems to be no dispute about that.

It is irrelevant? The Bible described by "liberal" congressmen who are avowed enemies of the CIA. He told his interested listeners that Congress already has a "liberal" committee which is entirely capable and willing to control any abuses.

Gravely Improved Perhaps no one has been more critical of the state legislators during the past 20 or 25 years than our editor, but we must admit that the recently published legislative record, open to all, showed great improvement, with some pretty sound judgment used.

More desired than gold The Bible is relevant because it speaks to our needs today if we will take the time and effort to listen. The writer of the Psalms speaks of the scriptures, saying: "More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold, sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb" (Psalms 119:10).

C. W. English C. W. English, 82, retired farmer of Forked Deer, died Thursday at the home of his son, C. W. English, Jr., in Memphis. Services were at 2 p.m. Thursday in Eureka Methodist Church in Forked Deer, burial in the church cemetery.

SWIMMING LESSONS Carol Hilliard will direct Red Cross swimming lessons July 14-20 at Hall's Swimming Pool with registration set for 10-11 a.m., June 27th, at the pool.

Brook Makes Sense A small but attentive crowd heard Tenn. Senator Bill Brock outline some of the problems faced by the Congress at a Dutch restaurant Saturday in Forsyth's Restaurant in Ripley.

Johnny Hale Is Promoted John W. Hale, Town of Halls utility department employee for eight years, has been promoted to the position of assistant city superintendent, effective last week.

ON DEAN'S LIST Anita Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Poston Arnold, of Halls, has been named to the dean's list at Murray State University, Murray, Ky.

Looking Around Walls fishing in Madisonville, Kentucky. Henry Teague caught his lure on a beach. A bass jumped for it and landed in Teague's boat.

Looking Around The little town of Lowell, Michigan, has a problem. Where and how to spend $600,000 that millionaire Philip H. Schneider left the town to alleviate human suffering.

Entrance exams for admission to branches of the armed forces are getting so tough that the Philadelphia Library has set up a course to help young men and women pass the tests.

In Port Moresby, New Guinea, it is now against the law to play cards with anything but a deck rented from a licensed dealer. Anyone caught using his own deck will be jailed for three months.

Go To It Some of the new Democratic members of the House are contemplating moves to remove House Speaker Carl Albert from office, with the claim of ineffective leadership.

State Grants $65,000 Loan Gates officials have notified that the Tennessee Department of Health and the State Planning Board have approved a $65,000 loan for upgrading the Gates water system.

Woman Dies In Fire Wed. Aft. Mrs. Barbara Ann Thompson, wife of Victor Thompson, was fatally burned about 5:30 p.m. Wednesday when the former Watt Conington house in Dry Hill community was razed by fire.

Farmers Push Bean Planting By Charles T. Deal Racing a June 30th deadline to obtain a full season's crop, county farmers have been pushing hard to plant soy beans.

Looking Around First modern improvement on San Francisco's famed cable cars is almost a century may happen if they get windshield wipers, as planned.

Looking Around Students at the University of Madrid in Spain have now been rewarded with tough restrictions and iron bars on windows as a result of their demonstrations last spring seeking more freedom.

Mayor Grant MacDwan of Calgary, Canada, says he is in favor of paperback books in schools but doesn't like them in his own home because "you can't prop up a window with a paperback."

In London, Mrs. Violet Watts took matters into her own hands when she locked her husband's girlfriend. She threw black paint on her car, smashed its windows with a hammer, was about to cut the girl's hair off with a big pair of shears when police stopped her. She also got her husband back.

WILL SPENCE, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Spence, of Halls, Wednesday joined a group of young people in Jackson for a ten-day retreat of the Youth Life Group at Silver Cliff Ranch, Buena Vista, Colo.

Looking Around

"I'm glad you caught me" said Howard Cronin Jr. when policeman Marvin Robinson arrested him for burglary in Oakland, California. He explained that somebody was chasing him and firing a gun.

Sixty Methodist pastors have volunteered to ride 800 miles on horseback from McKendree Chapel in Missouri to Baltimore in observance of 200 years of Methodism in America next spring.

"Beards and effeminately long hair," are among the things not tolerated according to the Marquette University student handbook. Two bearded faculty members will remain unshorn — "a privilege of the profession" says Rev. Richard Sherburne.

A motel owner in Key West, Florida, appealed to the sheriff to let Harry M. York out of jail to put on a show of his paintings. York was in jail for passing bad checks to the motel owner.

The little town of Easton in the New Hampshire White Mountains has a population of 74 people and a family of moose. The moose are more curious than the people. Tourists stop to stare at the moose and the moose stare right back. Usually the tourists get tired first.

President Johnson invited Courtenay "Coco" McPherson to lunch at the White House one Sunday after church. But seven-year-old Coco declined politely, said she was going to a picnic.

Three youngsters in New Bedford, Mass., aged 10, 11, and 13, had a good racket going until they got greedy. They took small items from display racks, received cash for them at the refund desk. When they tried it on a big item, they were caught.

The Taylorville, Illinois, fire department charges $200 for calls outside the city limits. C. A. Paton, who lives 100 yards out of town, is sorry he called them. His shed was too far gone to save and was worth only $100 anyway.

There are 14,000 dedicated men in Portugal's fire departments, who have a world-wide reputation for excellence and glamour. They render all public services from sea rescue to hand playing and parading in gay dress. They not only are volunteers, but raise the money to buy and maintain their own motorized equipment.

Playing the favorite to show is frequently a way to "beat" the horses at Roosevelt Raceway in New York. A State law requires the track to pay a minimum of $2.20 on each $2.00 bet. With few starters, the show bets became almost a sure thing, cost the track $34,481, in the first part of the recent meet.

Postmaster E. C. Balay of Wichita, Kansas, was very cooperative with a patron who said he wasn't at home during regular working hours and asked to have a package, for which he had to sign, delivered at some other time. Postmaster Balay delivered it himself at 5:45 A.M.

"I'm fed up with winning," said Doris Wallis of Bletchley, England, after she won the town's handicraft contest for the 11th straight year. She gave the trophy to the runner-up.

Gary Blamires of Tulsa, Oklahoma, tried out his new 15-speed bicycle, rode 2,500 miles from Washington, D.C., to San Francisco. He made 130 miles a day.

Give your country a hand. But don't lift a finger.

Except to fill out this Payroll Savings Card where you work.

After that, just sit back and be lazy. Each payday part of your pay will be automatically set aside for U.S. Savings Bonds.

And that can mean big money for you in the years to come. For a new home, for education, or for retirement.

It means big money for your country, too. The kind it takes to put men on the moon, build highways, and keep the nation strong.

And the government believes in safeguarding your investment in it. Bonds are guaranteed. And the U.S.

Treasury will replace them — free — if they are lost, stolen, or destroyed.

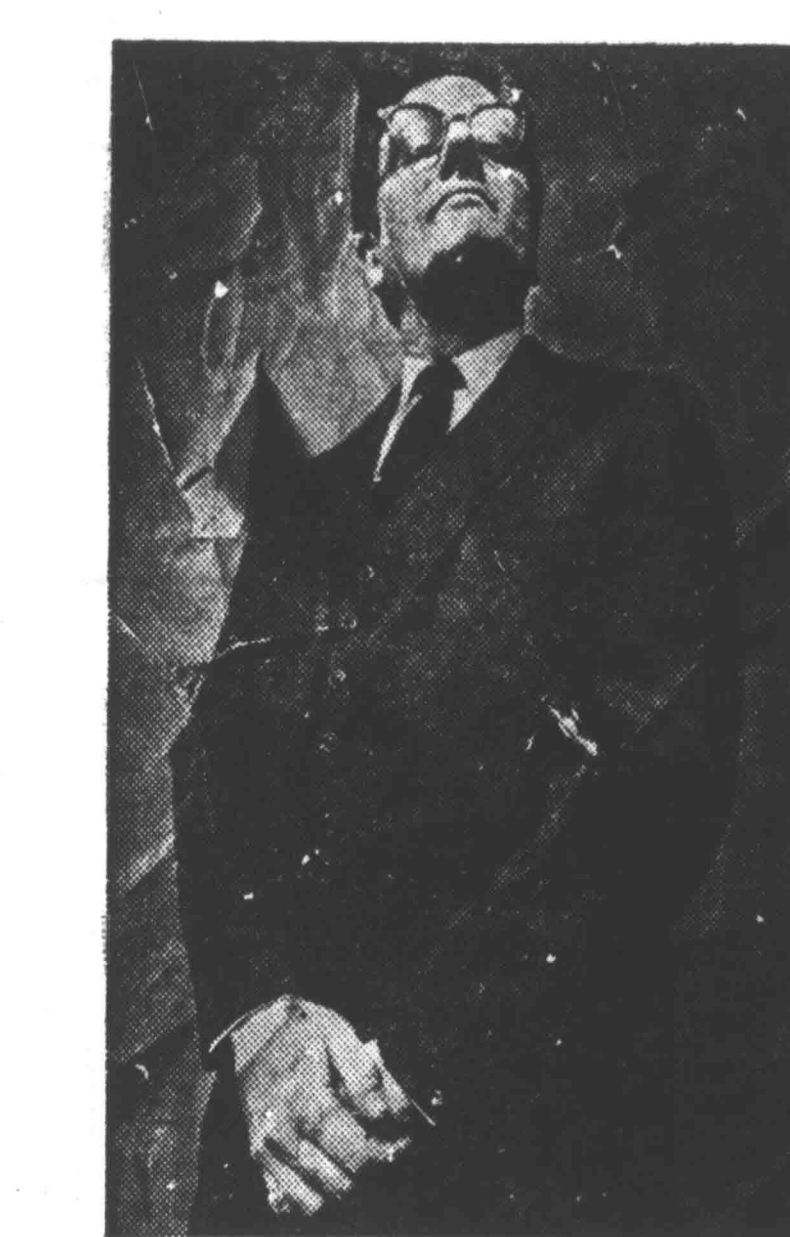

There's a bonus, too. Each Bond you buy entitles you to buy a Freedom Share of the same denomination.

Freedom Shares pay a higher rate of interest than Bonds, and mature in just four and one-half years.

Now doesn't that sound like easy handi-work?

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.

I am an American. Do not fold, spindle, or mutilate.

Millions of them show their pride by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

Through regular purchases where they work or bank, they've helped preserve our freedoms by investing in their country.

At the same time, they've been storing up quite a nest egg for themselves.

U.S. Savings Bonds pay a guaranteed return. And your investment is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America.

It's a way to keep our country from getting folded, spindled or mutilated.

You can defer federal taxes on E Bond interest until you redeem the Bond.

If your Bonds are lost, or stolen, or destroyed, we simply replace them without cost.

They're safe. They're easy. They're automatic.

And they're also a reminder. A reminder that we all have to work hard to keep what we have.

Investing in your country will do just that.

Think about U.S. Savings Bonds. It's a way to keep our country from getting folded, spindled or mutilated.

Of course, the great majority of Americans have great pride in their country.

DOG CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

The Lauderdale County Health Department in cooperation with the city police will conduct a campaign to clean out stray dogs and unwanted dogs on

June 25th, 1975

Also, a check will be made to find out how many dogs have been vaccinated and registered.

All dog owners are asked to either keep dogs up, or have current tags attached to their collars. This will help the rabies officer and city officials in the dog pick-up. Dogs running at large without current tags will be picked up and brought to the dog pound at Ripley.

We ask the cooperation of all citizens in Gates in this campaign.

“THAT IS YOUR OPINION”
Quite often in Bible discussions someone will say, "That is your opinion, your interpretation." I don't see it that way. Opinions should be avoided. Diligent effort should be made to discover exactly what the Bible says. This can be done by studying all that the Bible says on a certain subject, not just a few verses. The study should include related verses, being careful not to isolate any verse from its context.
Even on a subject like "Baptism" which is ordinarily considered to be highly controversial, one can agree with all others on what the Bible says. When we leave off all opinions and interpretations of baptism, this is what the Bible says:
1. Jesus commanded baptism. (Matt. 28:19)
2. Baptism is for those who have been taught, and who have believed and have repented. (Acts 2:38; 18:8)
3. When Jesus said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me"; they were not coming for baptism. (Matt. 19:13-15).
4. Baptism requires water (Acts 8:36); "much water" (Jno. 3:23); don't see it that way. Opinions should be avoided. Diligent effort should be made to discover exactly what the Bible says. This can be done by studying all that the Bible says on a certain subject, not just a few verses. The study should include related verses, being careful not to isolate any verse from its context.
5. There is one baptism. (Eph. 4:5)
6. Baptism involves going down into the water and coming up out of the water. (Acts 8:38-39)
7. Baptism is a burial and a resurrection. (Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12); should include related verses, being careful not to isolate any verse from its context. (Rom. 6:5)
8. Baptism is for (unto) the remission of sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16)
9. Baptism was performed with oil delay. (Acts 2:41; 16:33)
10. One rite from baptism to walk a new life. (Rom. 6:4)
11. Baptism puts one into Christ. (Gal. 3:26-27)
12. "Baptism death also now save us." (1 Pet. 3:21)
13. In refusing baptism, one rejects the counsel of God. (Lk. 7:30)
Each reader may verify in his own Bible that the above statements are factual and do not include opinions or interpretations. Does your baptism fit the Bible description?

You are cordially invited to worship
With The Halls Church Of Christ

GROW UP!

Lesson for June 27, 1975

Background Scripture: John 18: Devotional Readings: Isaiah 55: 7.

"Come and eat your food so that you will grow up big and strong!"

Someone has speculated that these words were among the first communications uttered by Prehistoric mothers to their children in caves and tree hollows.

Mothers are still saying these words and their children are still growing up. Some of them are hardly grown yet, but they do not want to "grow up."

Growing Older

Unfortunately, after years dedicated to growth, many of us slow down in that process and some of us even stop growing at all. Author John Bromfield, in one of his novels, says:

"I wish my mother was more like me. I had lost nearly twenty years which should have been employed in thinking, and I am because those years had been wasted I had never attained any degree of maturity. I had merely grown older, and like those men who constantly cling to their youth or return to it at college reunions and Legion conventions, I had not withered. Unfortunately, some people do not grow up, they only grow older."

Christians, the Bible makes it clear, are intended to continue in the process of "growing-up." The writer of Ephesians says that "we may no longer be children..." but "rather...grow up in every way." It is not enough for the disciples of Jesus to merely grow older.

In the Gospel According to John, we find an allegory of Christian growth. One of the key words of the fifteenth chapter of John is the word "abide." Jesus says, "Abide in me, and I in you" (15:4). Later he goes on to say, "As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me" (15:4). Still later he speaks of abiding in his love.

What does he mean abide? The word is often translated as "to dwell." Jesus is urging his disciples to dwell on love in him. J. B. Phillips translates this also as "grow." "Now you must go on growing in me and I will grow in you!" Later he uses the word "share": "It is the man who shares my life and whose life I share who proves fruitful."

Growing up

Obviously, we are intended to grow up in union with Christ. This union is like the union between the vine and its branches: the branches grow from the vine. Furthermore, just as in all growing up, fruit and Jesus makes much of the respective rewards of branches that are fruitful or unfruitful.

It is said that no one grows old. You are old when you stop growing. Let us stop worrying about growing old and let us concentrate on growing up "in every way to Christ."

A little girl who fell out of bed explained to her mother: "I guess I fell asleep too near to where I got in!"

Wans Against False Alarms

The Halls Fire Department has had a rash of false alarms lately. The person who is making these calls is violating the law as well as putting a burden on the taxpayer. These false alarms have cost the town about $9, which goes to pay the firemen, $2 each, besides the gasoline and wear on the fire equipment.

A locator is being installed by South Central Bell on the fire phone, 234-7101. If the person is caught, the Town of Halls will prosecute.

The Halls Fire Department is made up of twenty members and a chief. All of these men are trained and capable of handling any fire situation in the Halls area. There is one scheduled fire drill each month and the members' hoses are laid out, and water is pumped. These men have visited the local factories and are familiar with the fire control in these plants. Location of fire plugs and the size of water mains supplying them are known to the members. Except for a few new men, fourteen members have been to State Fire School several times.

Charge Murder In Fire Death

Kenneth Ray Williams, 35, of Ripley, has been charged with first degree murder in the death of his ex-wife, Mrs. Barbara Ann Thompson, 31, in a fire at the Thompson home in Dry Hill community Wednesday last week.

Lauderdale County Sheriff Louis Craig made the arrest Saturday after an autopsy indicated foul play.

Bond of $25,000 has been set by General Sessions Judge Willard Norvell. A preliminary hearing was scheduled at 9 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Thompson, an eight-year employee of GTE Sylva, Tenn., was married to Victor Thompson for 18 months. She is also survived by four children and her parents.

Confidential Corner

By Henry Murechon

It Didn't Happen

Well, the threatened confrontation between the freshmen members of the House of Representatives and Speaker Carl Albert fizzled.

Predicting attempts to force the resignation of Speaker Carl Albert, the new Democratic members of the House backed down after a face-to-face meeting with the speaker.

R representative from Oklahoma. We had hoped the most show-down would come so that the lower House Congress could get down to business and eliminate some of the wide-eyed liberal proposals advanced in the Senate.

However, it all fizzled out, and conditions remain much the same.

Women's Lib

The Equal Rights Amendment and the Women's Liberation movement are subjects that we have left strictly alone but we also have some recent thoughts on the subject.

To begin with, we wonder just which women they plan to liberate. Those we know are already completely liberated, facing very little rebellion in most cases.

What brought the subject to our minds is the occasional call from an unreasonable woman who calls to "bawl the editor out," taking advantage of the fact that she is a woman. This hasn't happened in some time, but we have had such calls. Also, this has happened recently, the rudeness of some women in stores, restaurants, etc.

The women's lib movement might not be a complete blessing for the ladies, since some men may lose his civility long enough to assert his rights also.

Fish Story

Don Hilliard and wife, Helen, have returned home after a week in Virginia Beach, Va., where they had a very successful deep sea fishing trip.

We probably would not have believed Don's fish story if he hadn't brought some of the evidence home with him and also promised to substantiate his story with pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard, along with two couples from Pennsylvania—one of the men is blind—chartered a boat for the fishing trip, with unexpected success.

The group landed 42 tuna, weighing more than 1,100 pounds, along with more than 30 blues and 40 odd "spots."

Largest of the tuna caught weighed 74 pounds and was caught by the blind man. Fishing luck was about evenly divided among the six, according to Don.

Don brought several tuna home and presented your editor with one, which is now resting in the freezer at home. Mrs. Hilliard says that natives told her that the tuna could be boiled and served as in tuna salad, broiled, or fried.

The captain of the charter boat told the Hilliards the trip he has carried out, with the catch recorded for a possible record.

Looking Around

1,100 COUNTY FAMILIES GETTING FOOD STAMPS

Participation in the food stamp program in Tennessee declined in May for the second month in a row, according to figures released today by the Tennessee Department of Human Services.

There were 4,127 fewer Tennessee receiving food stamps in May than in April, a decrease of 3.2%. Food stamp participation declined by 2.2% in April, breaking a steady upward trend of seven months that began in October, 1974, when the economic crisis began to severely felt in Tennessee.

In Lauderdale County, 1,175 families, representing 4,196 persons, purchased food stamps at a cost of $61,383, with actual value of the stamps being $152,810.

Food stamp participation still is up by more than 26% compared with the same month a year ago. A total of 125,765 persons were receiving benefits from the program in May.

On Display At Christas Gardens . . . Authentic Examples of Famed Biblical Coins

ON DEAN'S LIST

Carolyn Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Webb, of Halls, was named to the Dean's List at the Halls Bible College in Hollywood Beach for the spring quarter.

GATLINBURG, TENN. — During the winter season the Christas Gardens Collection, one of the three finest in the world, will be made available to financial institutions for display in their lobbies.

And about the penny given in tribute to Caesar which prompted Jesus to make the statement, "Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's."

But does anyone really know what these biblical pieces of money looked like?

Yes, you can see authentic examples of these ancient coins with the Halls Bible College in Hollywood Beach for the spring quarter.

The village of San Leo in Italy has asked the government for a capon. The food folk don't want to abstain from eating capon, so they would eat the capon and use the meat to make a capon stew.

Wans Against False Alarms

The Halls Fire Department has had a rash of false alarms lately. The person who is making these calls is violating the law as well as putting a burden on the taxpayer. These false alarms have cost the town about $9, which goes to pay the firemen, $2 each, besides the gasoline and wear on the fire equipment.

A locator is being installed by South Central Bell on the fire phone, 234-7101. If the person is caught, the Town of Halls will prosecute.

The Halls Fire Department is made up of twenty members and a chief. All of these men are trained and capable of handling any fire situation in the Halls area. There is one scheduled fire drill each month and the members' hoses are laid out, and water is pumped. These men have visited the local factories and are familiar with the fire control in these plants. Location of fire plugs and the size of water mains supplying them are known to the members. Except for a few new men, fourteen members have been to State Fire School several times.

Charge Murder In Fire Death

Kenneth Ray Williams, 35, of Ripley, has been charged with first degree murder in the death of his ex-wife, Mrs. Barbara Ann Thompson, 31, in a fire at the Thompson home in Dry Hill community Wednesday last week.

Lauderdale County Sheriff Louis Craig made the arrest Saturday after an autopsy indicated foul play.

Bond of $25,000 has been set by General Sessions Judge Willard Norvell. A preliminary hearing was scheduled at 9 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Thompson, an eight-year employee of GTE Sylva, Tenn., was married to Victor Thompson for 18 months. She is also survived by four children and her parents.

Confidential Corner

By Henry Murechon

It Didn't Happen

Well, the threatened confrontation between the freshmen members of the House of Representatives and Speaker Carl Albert fizzled.

Predicting attempts to force the resignation of Speaker Carl Albert, the new Democratic members of the House backed down after a face-to-face meeting with the speaker.

R representative from Oklahoma. We had hoped the most show-down would come so that the lower House Congress could get down to business and eliminate some of the wide-eyed liberal proposals advanced in the Senate.

However, it all fizzled out, and conditions remain much the same.

Women's Lib

The Equal Rights Amendment and the Women's Liberation movement are subjects that we have left strictly alone but we also have some recent thoughts on the subject.

To begin with, we wonder just which women they plan to liberate. Those we know are already completely liberated, facing very little rebellion in most cases.

What brought the subject to our minds is the occasional call from an unreasonable woman who calls to "bawl the editor out," taking advantage of the fact that she is a woman. This hasn't happened in some time, but we have had such calls. Also, this has happened recently, the rudeness of some women in stores, restaurants, etc.

The women's lib movement might not be a complete blessing for the ladies, since some men may lose his civility long enough to assert his rights also.

Fish Story

Don Hilliard and wife, Helen, have returned home after a week in Virginia Beach, Va., where they had a very successful deep sea fishing trip.

We probably would not have believed Don's fish story if he hadn't brought some of the evidence home with him and also promised to substantiate his story with pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard, along with two couples from Pennsylvania—one of the men is blind—chartered a boat for the fishing trip, with unexpected success.

The group landed 42 tuna, weighing more than 1,100 pounds, along with more than 30 blues and 40 odd "spots."

Largest of the tuna caught weighed 74 pounds and was caught by the blind man. Fishing luck was about evenly divided among the six, according to Don.

Don brought several tuna home and presented your editor with one, which is now resting in the freezer at home. Mrs. Hilliard says that natives told her that the tuna could be boiled and served as in tuna salad, broiled, or fried.

The captain of the charter boat told the Hilliards the trip he has carried out, with the catch recorded for a possible record.

1,100 COUNTY FAMILIES GETTING FOOD STAMPS

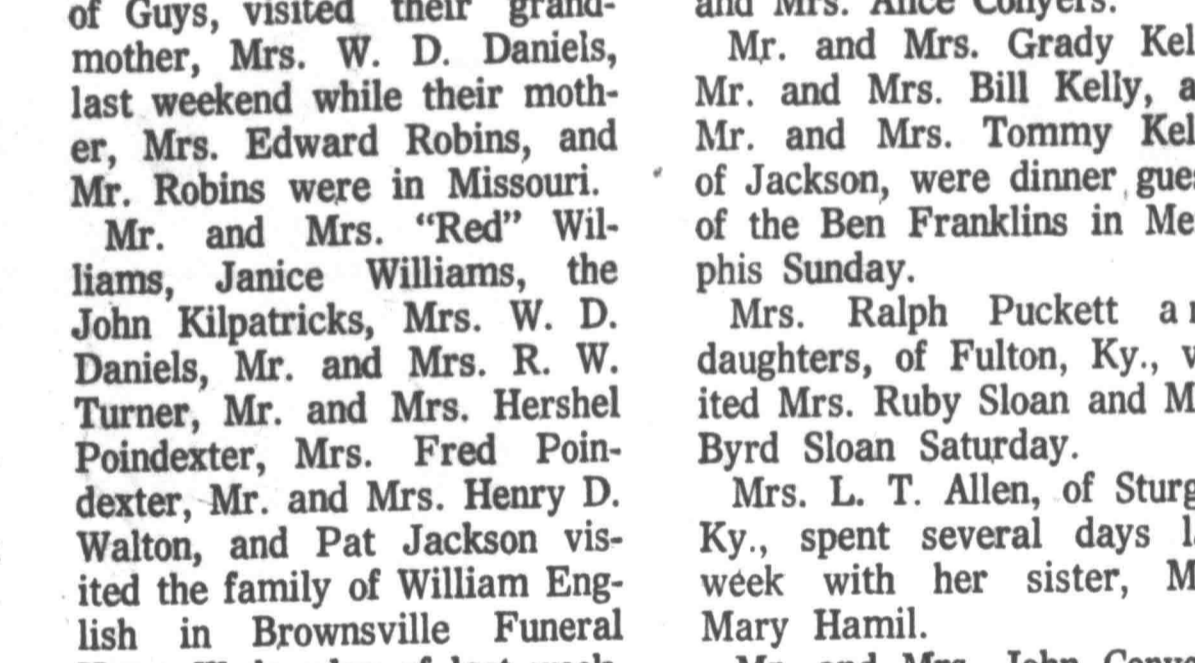

Participation in the food stamp program in Tennessee declined in May for the second month in a row, according to figures released today by the Tennessee Department of Human Services.

There were 4,127 fewer Tennessee receiving food stamps in May than in April, a decrease of 3.2%. Food stamp participation declined by 2.2% in April, breaking a steady upward trend of seven months that began in October, 1974, when the economic crisis began to severely felt in Tennessee.

In Lauderdale County, 1,175 families, representing 4,196 persons, purchased food stamps at a cost of $61,383, with actual value of the stamps being $152,810.

Food stamp participation still is up by more than 26% compared with the same month a year ago. A total of 125,765 persons were receiving benefits from the program in May.

On Display At Christas Gardens . . . Authentic Examples of Famed Biblical Coins

Scotland Yard is convinced that most major crimes are committed by people without the intelligence to plan them, and the Yard is searching for a way to catch the "thinkers" who plan big train robberies or jewel thefts while summing themselves in the South of France and never get within hundreds of miles of the actual scene of the crimes.

Last summer a new service was inaugurated in Paris to provide housekeeping help for men whose wives were at the beach for vacation. The wives heard about it when they came home, think it is a wonderful idea, and are calling for the service more than the lonely husbands did.

Italian scientists are trying to wipe out flies by sterilizing them. During a one month experiment, 5,000 flies were sprayed by a chemical that was infectious to other flies but harmless to humans. All but eight of the flies were incapable of producing offspring and other flies with whom they came in contact were also sterile.

THE WAY TO SALVATION

As one studies the Bible, it is immediately apparent that many factors enter into one's salvation. For instance, the scriptures teach that we are:

- saved by God. (1 Tim. 1:1; 2:3; 4:10).
- saved by Christ. (Lu. 19:10; Jno. 4:42).
- saved by the Holy Spirit. (Jno. 16:8; Rev. 22:17).
- saved by the gospel. (Rom. 1:16; 1 Cor. 15:1-3).
- saved by love. (Jno. 3:16).
- saved by grace. (Eph. 2:8-9; Acts 15:11).
- saved by mercy. (Tit. 3:4-5).
- saved by Christ's blood. (Matt. 26:28; Eph. 1:7).
- saved by the name of Christ. (Acts 4:12).

All of the above factors enter into salvation are related to the divine side. But there are other factors on the human side. The scriptures teach that we are:

- saved by calling on the name of the Lord. (Rom. 10:13).
- saved by faith. (Jno. 3:16; 3:36; Acts 15:9).
- saved by repentance. (Lu. 24:46; 47; Acts 2:38).
- saved by confession. (Rom. 10:9-10).
- saved by baptism. (Acts 22:16; 1 Pet. 3:21).
- saved by obedience. (Matt. 23:23; Heb. 5:9).
- saved by works of righteousness (or faith). (Acts 19:34-35; Phil. 2:12; Jas. 2:17-18).
- saved by hope. (Rom. 8:24).
- saved by enduring. (Matt. 24:13; Rev. 2:10).

There is a tendency among some to stress one factor in salvation and ignore others. We are not saved by faith alone. (Jas. 2:14-17). We are not saved by any one thing alone. If we would please God, we must accept all that His word teaches. We must never refer to any command of God as non-essential. Jesus said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God." (Matt. 4:4).

Floyd B. Akin, Jr. Weds Miss Hayes

Cynthia Diane Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes, of East Main, Halls, was married to Floyd B. Akin, Jr., whose late parents resided at Woodville, at 2 p.m. June 14th in the pastor's study of First Baptist Church in Halls, with The Rev. Nick Harris, pastor, performing the double ring vows in the presence of close relatives.

She wore a gown of natural batiste with wide bands of Brussels lace on the tiered skirt and sleeves. She carried a summer bouquet of yellow roses, white daisies, and baby's breath.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Elaine Jones, of Curve, was gowned in pale yellow, with a white daisy corsage.

Jimmy Emerson was best man. The bride's aunt, Mrs. James Carnell, of Memphis, served a 2-tier cake, decorated with yellow rosebuds, white doves, and double wedding rings, in the reception in the church. Mrs. Gayle Overton, of Martin, poured yellow punch from a crystal service. Silver appointments held mints and nuts. The bride's sister, Mrs. Lisa Hyde, of McKenzie, assisted in the reception.

The newlyweds are residing at Woodville. Mrs. Akin, a graduate of Halls High School and the University of Tennessee in Martin, is employed in Curve School. Mr. Akin, a graduate of Haywood High School in Brownsville, is employed by Tupperware and has farming interests.

Mrs. Jimmy Emerson and Mrs. Jimmy Layne, of Woodville, honored the bride with a shower in Mrs. Emerson's home, serving Tahiti punch, cookies, cup-cakes, mints, and nuts.

Mrs. Wayne Hilliard and Mrs. David Strong were shower hostesses in Mrs. Hilliard's home, serving home-made cookies, mints, nuts, and yellow punch. They

C. W. English

C. W. English, 82, retired Forked Deer farmer, died June 17th in Baptist Hospital in Memphis.

Services were June 19th in Eureka Methodist Church, with burial in the church cemetery.

He leaves two sons, Jewel, of Forked Deer, and C. W. English, Jr., of Memphis; two daughters, Mrs. David Parrish, of Halls, and Mrs. Florence Johns, of Memphis; a brother, Jewel C. English, and a sister, Alyce English, both of Brownsville; ten grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

presented the honoree with a gown and negligee ensemble.

Faculty and staff of Curve School, where the bride teaches kindergarten, surprised her with a buffet luncheon May 27th.

More people would learn from their mistakes if they weren't so busy denying they made them.

FREDA LYNNE HARRELL, daughter of the Linnie L. Harrells, of Halls, who took an associate of science degree with a 4.0 average and high honors from Dyersburg State College May 31st, will enter Freed-Hardeman College this fall to major in pre-medical studies.
