Work Starts On New Halls Park

DIRT MOVING for the new 17-acre Halls-Crichfield City Park on East Main Street started Saturday. Local farmers and business men are donating equipment and manpower for the preliminary dirt work under the supervision of Larry Gavin of the engineering firm of Whitsett, Holcomb & Gavin, of Memphis and Nashville. Among those donating equipment and time are Eugene Pugh, Jimmy McCaslin, Billy Brewer, Billy Joe Childress, Roy Cook, Jr., Beasley Robertson, Larry Edwards, Larry Gibson, C. N. Armour, Herbert Brozn, and O'Neal White. Halls Mayor Sammie Arnold said Tuesday that work on the park is expected to continue at a rapid rate for the remainder of the year. Site of the park was purchased in 1977 from Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Crichfield and is known as the old Love property.

Halls Native Seeks House

Walter Frank Williams, 31, of Arlington, who was born in Halls and reared at Brownsville, is one of two candidates opposing the bid of State Rep. Jimmy O. Naifeh, 39, of Covington, for a third term.

The other candidate is A. F. "Beany" Whitley, Covington school board chairman.

Williams, a senior in Memphis State University's School of Law, hopes to get some rural votes in Tipton County and win by carrying the parts of the 81st District in Fayette County—Braden, Galloway, Garnett, and Long Town—and in Shelby County—Arlington, Brunswick, Cordova, Eads, and Morning Sun.

"The past two years, Arlington and Cordova have grown tremendously," he says, "and Lakeland has been incorporated into the district.

"The people here feel they are not fairly represented, and they want a lot of things done."

He wants industry to use West Tennessee's labor and water supplies and Tennessee Valley Authority power, but he says he wants "environmentally clean industry," and he cites the Tupperware plant at Halls as proof that industry is possible "without fumes and river waste."

2 Fillies Show Winning Ways

Two Tennessee Walking Horse fillies, owned by Gailon Smith, of Halls, and trained by George Rogers, of Germantown, have developed winning ways in area horse shows.

Copy's Ebony took first place in Guntown, Miss., July 22nd, won again in Adamsville July 27th, and then took her third consecutive blue ribbon Saturday night in Henderson. In the same shows the other filly, Ebony's Go-Boy's Dream, took a second, third, and fourth place.

Smith said this week that if the fillies continue to show well as competition toughens he will enter them in the National Walking Horse Show in Shelbyville in September.

Booster Club Meeting Set

Halls Booster Club will meet at 7 p.m. Aug. 14th at the high school to make plans for the forthcoming football season. All members are urged to attend.

Store Being Sold

MR. AND MRS. JOE MCCARTHY have sold the Western Auto Associate Store in Halls to Tommy and Carolyn Stanley, of Ripley, and Homer Hand, of Moscow, effective Aug. 12th. The McCarthys, coming to Halls from Tupelo, Miss., purchased the firm from Wymond Hurt in January, 1957. They say they are not retiring but will remain in Halls and continue active in civic and business affairs. McCarthy is a member of the Town of Halls Board of Aldermen. The new owners of the business are former residents of the north end of Lauderdale County. Mr. Stanley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stanley, of Route 2, Halls. He attended the University of Tennessee in Knoxville and is a quality control engineer with Universal Electric in Ripley. He plans to remain with Universal. Mrs. Stanley is the former Carolyn Hand, daughter of Homer Hand; she and her father will work in the firm full time. Mr. Hand resided in Gates for many years, serving as mayor, before moving to Moscow a number of years ago. He has recently retired from farming there.

Rains Helped Crop Outlook

By Charles T. Peal

Recent rains have aided yield prospects in all county crops. James Hickman, of Henning, believes soy beans are growing as well and have as good a color as he has ever seen.

Earlier beans are about mid-bloom. The younger ones growing rapidly from good moisture levels and high humidity.

Some nematodes are showing up in different areas of the county, despite a reasonable amount of moisture. Quite a bit of Nematicide was used this year, plus resistant varieties, but producers still need to survey their fields to check on possible outbreaks. Weed control has been good and bad. Many producers got excellent early control by using a pre-emergent material. Others, in their haste to plant, depended upon later weed control, and many had weeds to break through and canopy or equal the height of the beans, making control difficult. Many producers have experienced new kinds of weeds this year. Jimmy McCaslin found ground cherry in one of his fields, where he never had it before.

Since over-the-top applications are not very selective, farmers should control weeds as early as possible. Control within the first six weeks stops weed competition for water and fertilizer, allowing higher yields.

Corn planted early should produce 100 bushels or more per acre. The only problems here now are damage from the Southwestern corn borer and charcoal rot, which weakens stalks, causing them to fall when exposed to winds. Cotton is growing and squaring well. Scouting reports show few, if any, boll weevils and the bollworm population at this point is very small.

Edith Revival Hears Kulow

The Rev. Tim Kulow, pastor of Randolph-Hopewell United Methodist Churches in Tipton County, will lead revival services at 7:45 p.m. Aug. 6-11th in the Edith United Methodist Church.

New School Year Starts

High school staff members report at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday of next week to launch a new school year.

Students in kindergarten through eighth grade register at 8 a.m. Aug. 10th. Buses run as usual that morning and will leave schools at 10:30 a.m. to take students home.

Ripley kindergarten students will register at the old Ripley Primary building; first graders at the National Guard Armory; second graders at the Ripley High School physical education building; third graders in portable buildings on the site of the burned Ripley Primary School.

First full day of school for elementary students will be Monday, Aug. 14th.

High school seniors register Aug. 10th, juniors Aug. 14th, sophomores Aug. 15th, and freshmen Aug. 16th.

First full day of high school classes will be Aug. 17th.

Every student must have a complete immunization record. No student entering for the first time will be registered without proof of immunizations, physician's examination, and birth certificate.

Sutton Store Broken Into

A burglary of Sutton's Grocery at Curve Saturday night resulted in loss of the cash drawer and large quantities of cigarettes.

Entrance was gained by breaking a glass in a front door which had been replaced only two days earlier, after it was broken to gain entrance to the store July 22nd, when only cigarettes and soft drinks were taken.

State Finds No Land Lost From Tax Rolls

George M. Tidwell, director of the Division of Property Assessments of the state Comptroller's Office, has found no irregularities in examinations of county tax records requested by Bernice Crain, county assessor of property.

"You mentioned the verification of the total number of farm acres assessed in your county in 1975," Tidwell wrote the assessor July 13th.

"Regarding an alleged loss of 30,000 acres of farmland, verification disclosed this to be a mathematical error in the total of the farm acreage. Individual acreages were intact, and the mathematical error in the total in no way affected the amount of taxes to be collected in your county."

Crain had earlier requested Tidwell "to assign someone from this division to check your records and verify specifically the total number of acres of farmland assessed in your county for tax year 1978," Tidwell wrote June 26th.

"I asked Mr. Charley Hall, Regional Supervisor for your region, to do this task for us and submit a meaningful report.

"Mr. Hall has checked the acreage figures for assessments in your county. He found that a total of 282,093 acres had in fact been assessed by you.

"At the same time, Mr. Hall found that in the summary records of original entry, there had been some mathematical errors in transcription and recording of acreage. Further, the 9th Civil District total was inadvertently omitted from the grand total.

"Consequently, we do not find that acres have been omitted from the tax base in Lauderdale County.

"Those differences alleged to have occurred were clerical errors in the summary records and in no way affected the actual tax base.

"We have in this office copies of summary records and adding machine tapes, old and new, supporting the conclusions stated just above."

"I have authorized Mr. Hall to appear with your local Board of Equalization to demonstrate to whomever it might concern what he has found."

William H. Nelson, of the 6th Civil District, who published a letter to the editor noting that the 1975 total had been altered in pencil to bring it into line with years before and after, was invited to meet with the county Board of Equalization June 29th to discuss his letter, which the board said "indicates you have information concerning land not assessed for taxation."

He was not subpoenaed to appear, though the board has subpoena power.

Through an attorney, Paul E. Dew, of Ripley, Nelson has declined to meet with the board and has asked Circuit Court to block any subpoena; to order the Board of Equalization "to conduct an investigation through the Controller's Office of the State of Tennessee or in the alternative to order that all property in Lauderdale County be reappraised"; and to enjoin all county employees "from changing the assessments after the Equalization Board has reviewed them and adjourned."

Quarter Million Grant To Ripley

The federal Community Development Agency announced Tuesday a $250,000 grant to Ripley, including funds for winterizing homes.

BEAUTY SPOT

The Halls Garden Club beauty spot sign went to the home of the Ozell Ha gets on Jaynes Drive this week recognizing beds of periwinkle, salvia in planters on the carport, and hanging baskets of Wandering Jew.

Later Edition Carries County Vote Returns

The special supplement may be picked up without charge in the bank lobby as soon as the bank opens Friday morning.

Making Progress

We are pleased to see work get under way on the new city park after many delays. As planned the park will include lighted baseball and softball fields, playground equipment, picnic areas, and everything it takes to make a completely modern park. The park has been needed for many years, and efforts by Mayor Sammie Arnold and the city board members have finally been rewarded.

Another sign of progress is the razing of the old community center—the old elementary school building on North College—and efforts to build a new community center at the site. Civic leaders and young people but particularly young people have been working hard to get this building, and we're happy to see them making progress.

Completion of the long-needed new school building is also welcomed, although there still is no decent road to the building.

We hope that efforts to establish a library in Halls continue until they too are successful.

All of these projects are signs that Halls is beginning to make civic progress as well as material progress. The location of factories, the laying of more sewer lines, new water tanks, etc. were absolutely necessary, but so are these other projects.

The help that the Tupperware Co. has given to Halls should be acknowledged and appreciated by every citizen. In recent years they have made substantial donations toward lighting the high school football field, founding of the city park, and more recently for the erection of the community center as well as many other earlier projects. The Tupperware Co. continues to show itself as a good citizen.

Lively Week

Things have been lively at the Murchison home this week. Buddy drove up Sunday from Tuscaloosa to bring our two granddaughters, Michelle, 11, and Wendy, 9, to spend this week with us. Nothing has been dull since their arrival. We have enjoyed them and wish they were not leaving the last of this week.

REPORTS FROM WASHINGTON

Tax reduction legislation has been the subject of a great amount of work in the Ways and Means Committee since President Carter submitted his tax package to Congress earlier this year. Originally, the President called for a $25 billion reduction in taxes for individuals and businesses. He further requested certain provisions which would simplify tax reporting and provisions to reform the tax codes. At this point, the administration's proposal has changed significantly.

Since submitting the original proposal, President Carter has reduced the amount of the cut to $19 billion, citing economic experts who felt the larger figure would have an inflationary impact on the economy. In addition, efforts to cut capital assets taxes gained additional support, thereby tying up the committee and keeping it from making much progress on the overall tax cut bill.

The support for the capital gains tax cut has come from many quarters. Businessmen and some economists feel that this bill would have a stimulating effect on the economy as more investment capital would become available. Capital gains taxes, generally, are paid on any assets held for more than a year. Examples of those assets include stocks, bonds, or real estate. The maximum tax paid on these types of capital gains is now set at 50 percent. The capital gains tax reduction proposals would cut that to 25 percent, 35 percent, or 37 percent depending on which of the three proposals now under consideration is passed.

Rep. William Steiger's proposal cuts the capital gains tax to 25 percent. This was the original proposal to cut capital gains taxes. Rep. James Jones, of Oklahoma, then came up with a second proposal cutting the taxes to 35 percent. The last of the proposals only came to light last week when it was introduced by Rep. Joseph Fisher. It appears that there will be a capital gains provision in the final tax cut proposal that will come to the House floor for a vote later this year.

President Carter has stated and re-stated his opposition to a reduction in capital gains taxes. He feels that such a cut would benefit only the very wealthy and have little impact on the average American taxpayer. However, some within his administration have made statements indicating that such a cut might not be so bad since it would stimulate the further expansion of the economy, thus providing more jobs and possibly greater supply of goods in the market place.

It should also be noted that Rep. Jim Jones' proposal also makes several changes in individual taxes. It would in-

Married July 22nd

MR. AND MRS. GARY LIN HERRON were married July 22nd at Halls Westside Baptist Church, with The Rev. Harold Burroughs performing the marriage ceremony.

The marriage vows were exchanged before an altar arranged with candles and greenery. Marty Herron, brother of the bridegroom, lit the candles. Music was by Mrs. Akin Barnes and Miss Shannon Barnes, instrumentalists, and Mrs. Harold Burroughs, vocalist.

The bride, Kelly Diann, was given in marriage by her father, Tommy Nix. Her floor-length gown of white lace and organza was accented on the bodice and sleeves with tiny seed pearls. The gown was handmade by her sister, Mrs. Larry White, who also was matron of honor. Mrs. White wore a floor-length gown of double knit and carried a bouquet of pastel flowers.

Mike Herron served his brother as best man. Larry White escorted the mothers, Mrs. Nix and Mrs. Robert Herron, down the aisle. Mrs. Nix wore a rose colored knit dress while Mrs. Herron selected a melon colored gown. Each wore cymbidium orchids.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. Serving wedding cake, made by Mrs. Don Hilliard, and punch were Miss Felicia Olds, Miss Monica White, Miss Nancy Edens, and Misses Cynthia and Lori Lovelace. Miss Cherry Vaughn registered the guests.

Among those from out-of-town attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Nix, of Hartselle, Ala., Mrs. Billy Lovelace and children, of Salsbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheridan, Mrs. Linda Ward and daughter, and Mrs. Dawn McDonald, all of Chicago, Ill. Special guests were grandparents of the couple, Jim Lovelace and Mrs. Ina Erwin.

After a wedding trip to Nashville, Mr. and Mrs. Herron are residing on Highway 51 North at Halls.

Miss Margaret Wilkes Bride Of Alston Keller

Miss Margaret Wilkes, of Halls, and Alston Keller, of Henning, were married at 4 p.m. Wednesday of last week in the groom's country home in Henning, in the presence of the bride's six sisters—Mrs. Carl Brandon, Mrs. Jere Jordan, and Mrs. Charlie Viar, of Halls; Mrs. Farmer Paschal, of Ripley; and Mrs. Earl Graves and Mrs. J. W. Hickman, of Henning.

The ceremony was performed by The Rev. Roy Williams, pastor of Henning United Methodist Church, in the living room, before a cherry secretary made for the groom's great-grandfather before the Civil War.

Adding elegance to the occasion were arrangements of roses and baby's breath from the garden of Mrs. Richard Lazarus.

The bride, in a 2-piece blue ensemble, wore a large orchid.

The newlyweds are residing in Henning after a wedding trip to Gatlinburg and to Jamestown, Va.

The bride's niece, Mrs. Jim Ewell, honored her with a miscellaneous shower in her home July 12th. Her daughters, Jennifer and Sarah, gave the honors, who wore a white pants suit, a white Killian daisy corsage. Eighteen guests enjoyed delectable food from a table laid with a cut-work cloth and centered with gold and yellow shasta daisies, day lilies, and Queen Anne's lace in a copper chafing dish. Other summer flower arrangements were placed throughout the house.

Bethel Classmates Hold Fifth Annual Luncheon

Former classmates at Bethel College in McKenzie net Wednesday of last week in the home of Mrs. Glen Chisholm on Chisholm Lake road for their fifth annual luncheon.

They enjoyed a day of looking back, looking ahead, discussing projects and grandchildren, and enjoying covered dishes they had brought.

Attending as guests were Mrs. Dick Lazure, of Porter's Gap, Mrs. Henry Murkison, of Halls, Mrs. Jack Rochelle, of Ripley, and Miss Sharon Williams, of Curve.

The Bethel alumnae were Mrs. Guy Williams, of Forked Deer, Mrs. A. C. Carter, Mrs. Richard Owens, and Mrs. Ray Williams, of Curve, Mrs. James Smith, of Nankipoo, and Mrs. Holice Gilliland, Mrs. Sidney Gooch, and Mrs. James Voss, of Halls.

Shower Fetes Celia Arwood

Miss Celia Arwood, bride-elect of Barry Linn Jansen, was honored July 23rd by Mr. Jansen's sisters, Miss Shirley Jansen and Miss Karen Jansen, with a miscellaneous shower in the Ron Jansen home at Forked Deer.

They gave Miss Arwood a yellow daisy corsage to wear with her white blouse and slacks ensemble, which was accented with a yellow blazer.

Guests enjoyed Bingo and contests before the honoree opened her many gifts. Miss Lorna Dixon, of Jackson, amazed Miss Arwood and amused the guests by reading an instant replay of Celia's remarks as she opened each gift.

A white layer cake decorated with yellow roses was served with nuts and punch from a table centered with an arrangement of yellow and white flowers complementing the yellow rose pattern in the heirloom crocheted tablecloth, made by the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. C. M. Arwood, a guest.

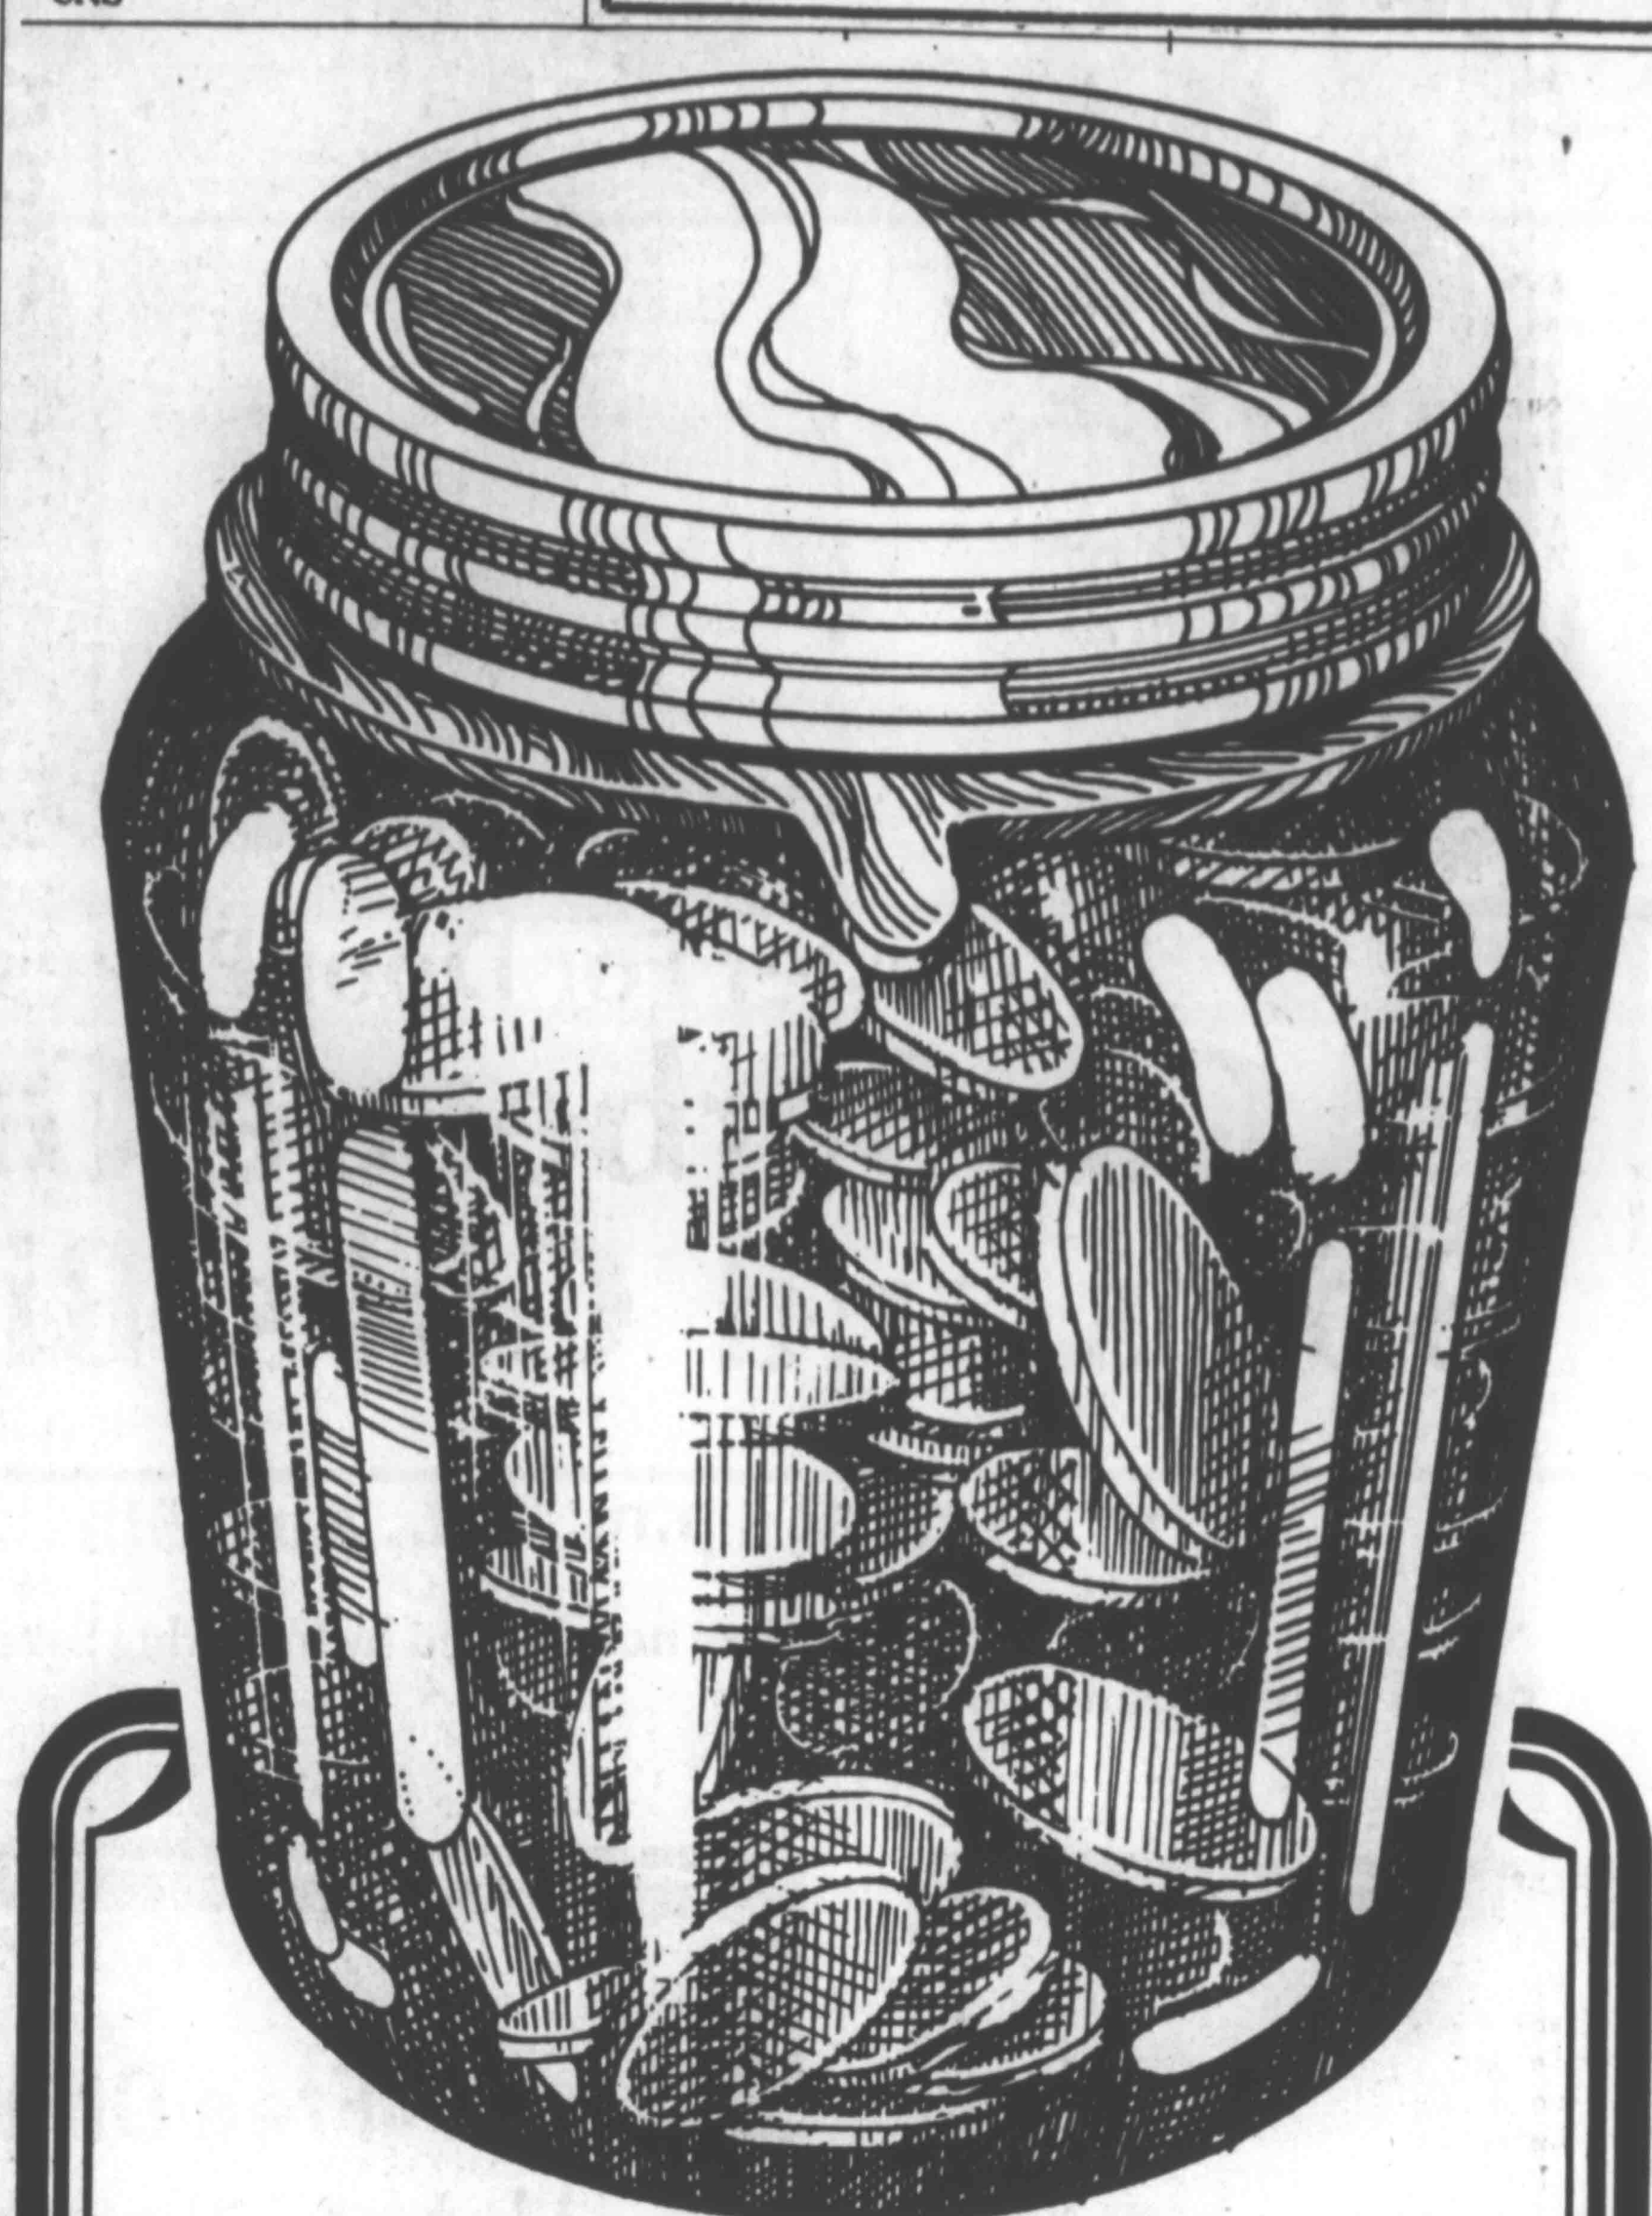

Other guests were the couple's mothers, Mrs. Poston Arwood and Mrs. Rom Jansen; the groom's aunts, Mrs. Floyd Emerson, Mrs. Pharis Escue, and Mrs. Harry Stanley; Mrs. Floyd Akin, Mrs. Jimmy Emerson, Mrs. Jimmy Hartman, Mrs. Tim Riley, Kathy Emerson, and Patricia Stanley.

FIND BALLOT ERROR

Sample ballots published by the Election Commission last week identified Roy M. Cook, Jr., Eugene Pugh, James L. Jones, and William G. (Billy) Spence, unopposed candidates for county commissioner in the 12th Civil District, as candidates for constable. The error will be corrected on the ballots at the polls.

Dear Fellow Citizens:

When I decided to run for sheriff, I informed my family and supporters that I had decided to seek this office and that I would try and see as many people as possible. I would tell them what to expect when I became sheriff and that I would run a clean and honest campaign. I would not criticize any person.

To my supporters, I can honestly say you have supported a person who has told you the truth about everything, and I am going to make you a sheriff of whom you will be proud.

To you who, for some reason or other, did not support me, I am going to make you a good sheriff, also.

To you who are still undecided, I would appreciate your vote Aug. 3rd. Vote

Seek New Markets For Feeder Calves

By Charles T. Peal
Sidney Talley, of Hurricane Hill, is one of eight Tennessee Livestock Association members visiting feed-lots in northwest Illinois this week and making a dinner presentation on behalf of the Brownsville The Green Feeder Sales Barn. Tom Lane, TLA executive secretary, says this area likes Tennessee cattle and has bought many from this area. He says the same is true for many feed-lot operators elsewhere in Illinois and in Indiana. Jimmy Lloyd, Dyer County Extension Leader, says the Newbern Sales Co. has contacted the state Department of Agriculture about the possibility of starting a regular graded feeder pig sale in Newbern.

This county's producers selling in Huntington and Lexington would find it cheaper to transport to Newbern. Comments are invited from anyone interested.

James Tracy, Extension specialist in swine production, announces University of Tennessee Tested Boar Sales at 7 p.m. Aug. 15th in Jackson and Aug. 29th at Spring Hill—both at Experiment Stations. Included are Duroc, Hampshire, Yorkshire, and Poland China boars. Testing measures rate of gain, feed efficiency, and back-fat thickness. Both stations have gains over two pounds per day, with several boars gaining between 2.5 and 2.7 pounds per day. Hog operations are increasing in this county, and quality breeding stock is most important.

The hog futures market looks favorable for next year. Any farmer interested in a sale catalog may contact the Extension Office, 635-9551.

Insects Attack Pine Trees
"I have never seen such a mass of worms," said Mrs. Clara Hardy, of Arp, of the red-headed pine sawfly larvae destroying the leaves on the loblolly pine in her yard last week.

The next day, Joe Beard brought in a specimen of the same insect, and there were phone calls from others.

On Aug. 1, 1977, the first major steel industry strike in 18 years halted work in iron ore mines in northern Michigan and Minnesota.

City Park Is Board Topic

Progress of the new city park on East Main Street was the major topic of discussion Monday evening at the Town of Halls Board of Aldermen held their August session.

City Supt. Akin Barnes told the board that preliminary grading and dirtwork should be completed within a few days. He said installation of water and sewer lines would start immediately followed by sowing of grass.

Mayor Sammie Arnold opened the meeting to a public hearing on the park to discuss an application to the Tennessee Department of Conservation for additional funds with no opposition voiced.

In other business, the Board: Approved seeking a $75,000 temporary loan, after Mayor Arnold reported that funds from a water improvement project bond issue financed by Farmers Home Administration would not be available for several weeks.

The money will be used to defray present expenses and will be repaid when the bond issue is completed.

Named Noel Sherrard and Paul Jordan to promote and plan the annual Tennessee Industrial Recognition Week, Sept. 17th-23rd.

Voted to exchange property with Westside Baptist Church for property south of the church in order to keep the present road open and give Eddie Bishop access to the road.

Approved planning a supper for workers donating their time and machinery for work on the city park.

Took under consideration a petition to make Jones Street one-way.

BEAUTY SPOT
The patio of the Mrs. J. T. Connell home on West Tigrrett was chosen this week for the Halls Garden Club beauty spot sign.

The patio features planters of Boston fern and red geraniums and hanging baskets of various blooming plants. The lawn is also noteworthy for its many crape myrtles.

The group will also make plans for the 1978 football season which opens Aug. 25th at Alamo.

Shaky 5-1 Vote Launches Blue Law Overhaul

Ripley's city board voted 5-1 Monday to loosen the city's blue law—Ordinance 192, limiting Sunday business operations—to let all businesses open from 1 to 6 p.m. Sundays, but the vote—on first reading, with two more required—indicated the outcome's still in doubt.

Alderman Ben Emerson moved the change, with a second by Bobby Walker. Alderman Leon Hargett asked Mayor Rozelle Criner how many requests he had had for Sunday business hours to be changed.

"Two from business people," the mayor said. "Wal-Mart and Mrs. Howard Hony, plus some individuals."

Dennis Ankrum, Wal-Mart manager, and Mrs. Hony were visitors at the board's regular monthly meeting.

Ankrum asked Emerson to change his motion to permit Sunday business from noon to 7 p.m., at least during busy periods such as the Christmas shopping season.

Emerson declined to alter his motion.

On the roll call, in order around the table, new aldermen quickly agreed, without a vote, to preserve the status quo for the present.

Should two votes change, the issue would be left up to Mayor Rozelle Criner, who has made no secret of his opposition to more cash registers ringing on Sunday.

THE FASHION PLACE

By Elaine Monroe, Fashion Director, Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Pack up and go! Do you know how to do just that? Many women overpack—and don't always make the best use of suitcase space. But you can be a wise traveler just by following these suggestions:

- 1. Take a small number of clothes—but ones that can switch about for many different looks. 2. Take only hats that fold flat. 3. Clothes that can layer (and un-layer) are a good bet. 4. Take a versatile coat that can go over most anything, rain or shine. 5. Pick fabrics that pack small and travel well. 6. Limit the number of shoes, but be sure to include ones for walking. 7. Invest in travel-size versions of your favorite cosmetics and grooming aids. 8. Plan on two lightweight suitcases rather than one heavy one. 9. Use plastic cleaner's bags for packing. 10. Take a folding case to hold what you collect on your trip. 11. Pack softside luggage as tightly as possible. 12. Have a wonderful time!

The wise traveler knows to pack comfortable low-heeled shoes for walking, such as these from Sears Catalog.

DiETING No Secret— Just Eat A Bit Less

Everyone needs proteins, carbohydrates, fats, vitamins and minerals in the daily diet. Without them, the body can't function efficiently and health may be endangered.

A pamphlet of the American Medical Association points out that the secret to a successful reducing diet is not a dramatic shake-up in your eating habits—it's just a little bit less of everything.

Of course, if you want to lose weight, there are some extravagances you can't afford, like whipped cream-topped chocolate double-dip sundaes. Discretion and common sense is the better part of dieting.

You're more likely to stick to your diet if you balance and vary the menus. Select foods from the four broad categories of (1) the milk group—milk, cheese, and ice cream (2) the meat group—beef, veal, lamb, pork, poultry, eggs and fish (3) the vegetable-fruit group—fruit and vegetables rich in Vitamins A and C (4) the bread-cereal group—whole grain, enriched or restored.

COOKING CORNER

Nature's goodness goes into puddings

By MARJORIE RICE
Copley News Service

Creamy pudding rich with eggs, milk, rice and fruit is a honey, healthful dessert that's been a family favorite for years. The first in this batch of rice puddings features pineapple hidden under a toasted meringue. Others blend rice with raisins, apples or oranges.

MERINGUE-TOPPED PINEAPPLE RICE PUDDING
3 cups cooked rice
4 cups milk
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 tsp. salt
4 eggs, separated
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
1 can (13 1/2 oz.) pineapple tidbits, drained
1/4 tsp. cream of tartar
Red currant jelly
Combine rice, 3 cups milk, 1/4 cup sugar, and salt. Cook over medium heat until thick and creamy, about 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Beat egg yolks and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Stir into rice mixture. Cook about two minutes. Remove from heat; stir in pineapple. Pour into a buttered shallow 2-quart baking dish.

Beat egg whites until foamy; gradually add 1/4 cup sugar, cream of tartar, and remaining vanilla. Beat until stiff but not dry. Swirl lightly on pudding. Bake at 400 degrees for about five minutes. Top with dollops of red currant jelly.

SWEDISH RICE PUDDING
1 cup milk
3 cups half-and-half
6 eggs
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 tsp. cinnamon
3 cups cooked rice
1/4 cup seedless raisins
2 tps. butter
Cook over medium heat until rice is thick and creamy, about 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Add brandy. Spoon rice into a buttered shallow round 2-quart baking dish. Arrange apple slices on top in an overlapping spiral. Blend topping ingredients. Sprinkle over apples. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot or cold. Makes six to eight servings.

ORANGE CREAM PUDDING
2 cans (11 ozs. each) mandarin orange segments (drain; reserve syrup)
1/2 cup orange juice
1 tsp. grated orange peel
3 cups cooked rice
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup sugar
3 tps. orange liqueur
1 tsp. vanilla extract
1 cup heavy cream, whipped or 1 envelope (1 1/2 ozs.) whipped topping mix, prepared
Combine syrup from orange segments, orange juice, and enough water to make 2 cups. Add orange peel, rice, salt, and sugar. Cook over medium heat until rice is thick and creamy, about 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; stir in orange liqueur and vanilla. Chill until mixture begins to set. Stir in 1 cup whipped cream and half of the orange segments. Spoon into serving dishes; top with remaining whipped cream and orange segments. Makes 10 servings.

RICE AND APPLE PUDDING
3 medium tart apples
Juice of one lemon
3 cups milk
1 tps. butter
One-third cup sugar
1 cup uncooked rice
1 tsp. salt
2 tps. brandy

TOPPING
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 tps. sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
3 tps. melted butter
Peel, core, and slice apples in 1/4-inch wedges. Sprinkle with lemon juice; cover to keep from discoloring. Set aside.
Bring milk, butter, sugar, rice, and salt to a boil. Reduce heat, cover, and simmer about 30 minutes or until rice is soft and creamy, stirring frequently.
Add brandy. Spoon rice into a buttered shallow round 2-quart baking dish. Arrange apple slices on top in an overlapping spiral. Blend topping ingredients. Sprinkle over apples. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot or cold. Makes six to eight servings.

The two-way "squeeze," 1978

The tax take from personal income rose again in 1977. The Conference Board estimates that combined federal, state and local taxes amounted to 25 percent of pre-tax income last year, one of the highest percentages on record. The increasing tax share is one prong of the two-way "squeeze" on incomes. The other prong is inflation, which erodes the purchasing power of after-tax incomes.

From 1970 to 1977, the consumer price index (CPI) rose a total of 56 percent. To allow for that rise, and for a rising percentage tax take from income, a family's pre-tax income had to increase by about two-thirds if it is real income after taxes was to remain constant.—CNS

We wish to thank this means to thank the good people of the 7th District (Gates, Edith, Nankipon, and Double Bridges) for their kind consideration and support of our candidacy for County Commissioner.

This was our first political venture outside our home community, and needless to say, we are more than pleased with the results. Thanks again!

Thousands of persons are visiting the area to mark the first anniversary of the famous singer's death.

Severely Beaten, Found In Ditch

Tom Pearson, City of Halls employee, was found by county highway employees unconscious in a ditch on Gates Road, east of new Highway 51, about 10 a.m. Monday. He was sent to Baptist Hospital in Memphis. Doctors believe he had a blood clot on the brain after having been severely beaten. He was fully clothed and had $1,000 in cash and a diamond wrist watch on his person, Sheriff Joe B. O'Steen reports. The sheriff said Pearson, who resides west of new Highway 51, was reported to have left home about 4 p.m. Sunday to visit a neighbor and had not been seen since.

Squires Equip Halls School

County Court Monday appropriated $27,960.19 for new chairs and desks for the new Halls Elementary School. Ross W. Dyer, Halls attorney, presented the request on behalf of a delegation of Halls women who attended the court session. L. G. "Red" Thompson told magistrates that Curve school enrollment was down because of the condition of the building, which has a leaking roof and lacks air conditioning and efficient heating. He termed the situation "a sin and a shame." The school, which had about 106 students last year, will probably lose a teacher this year. Central School enrollment is up, Arp School down, and other schools about normal as registration nears completion this week. The court has approved $500,000 to renovate Curve and Central Schools, but state approval has not been obtained.

Sears Hails Marenton

For the third consecutive year, Marenton Corp. has won the Sears, Roebuck Symbol of Excellence Award for quality merchandise and efficient production. ## Making New Farm Loans

A new Economic Emergency loan service for farmers who have financial problems caused by a credit shortage or crop-price squeeze is now in effect through the U.S. Farmers Home Administration (FmHA). Joe Moss, the agency's county supervisor for Lauderdale County, reports that FmHA is prepared to take applications at the FmHA Lauderdale Office in Ripley. Any established farm operator experiencing scarce credit or an overload of debt coming due may apply for up to $40,000 of credit through FmHA in order to survive in farming and continue a normal level of operation. Economic Emergency loans will not be made to expand a farm operation. Loans made directly by FmHA will be at an interest rate equivalent to the cost of money secured by the government through sale of its securities to the public, plus up to 1%. The rate initially will be 8 1/2%. Guaranteed loans will be made at rates negotiated between borrower and lender, with FmHA providing the lender up to a 90% guarantee against loss. Loans for operating purposes will be made for terms of up to 7 years, with loan consolidations and re-scheduling for another 7 years permitted, and 20-year payment authorized under special conditions. Real estate loans may be made for up to 40 years. Loans for annually-recurring expenses will be made repayable annually.

Major Effort Vs. Erosion

U.S. Rep. Ed Jones says state and federal agencies will join in a co-ordinated attack on "the state's biggest agricultural program—soil erosion in West Tennessee." Jones says that erosion averages 88 to 40 tons per acre per year—four times the national average. Recommendations of a conference of agency representatives in Washington include a demonstration farm in each county, a one-day face-lifting for a farm to dramatize conservation practices by installing them in one day, and accelerated information and education programs on soil erosion control and water quality improvement.

Brown Recluse Spiders Strike

By Charles T. Peal Some brown recluse spider bites have been reported in this county. This spider is commonly found around homes and farm buildings. Its bite is serious enough to require medical attention. It is not aggressive and prefers to hide in dark, quiet places but will sometimes bite if handled or when trapped in clothing. The bite of this pest is especially dangerous to the elderly and to those in poor physical condition. However, fatalities from the bite of the brown recluse are very rare. Normal reactions usually include intense local pain, a blister, inflammation of the affected area, and an ulcerating sore. The mature brown recluse spider, also called the fiddle-back spider, has a body about 1/8-inch long and 3/16-inch wide. Its leg span is about the size of a half dollar. The color of the spider varies from gray-brown to deep reddish-brown. The most noticeable mark is a dark fiddle-shaped area on the head. To control the brown recluse spider in the home, spray Lindane at the rate of two tablespoons per gallon of water along baseboards and dark places. Pump the sprayer up to higher pressure so a mist can be applied. One thorough spraying should do the job.

Henning Fall Festival Boosts Crutcher Park

Wandering Around

We wonder if the majority of the people feel as we do about the police and fire fighters strike at Memphis. We know nothing about the actual working conditions but we cannot help but feel that police and firemen should not be permitted to strike.

Halls Police Chief Buddy Moore asks all motorists to drive with care while school children are on the streets. Also he urges that motorists use their turn signals so that officers on duty at school intersections may know what to expect and can thus keep traffic moving smoothly.

Mitchell Moore brought us some beans Monday which he said were called yard-long beans and you may believe that they probably grow that long since they were more than 24 inches in length despite the dry weather. He says that they taste pretty good with ham hock but we wouldn't know since he didn't bring us any ham hock or beans cooked with ham hock.

The growing threat of inflation still hangs over the heads of all of us, but apparently neither President Carter nor Congress realize what is happening, since they take no real steps to cut government spending and labor and business do their share by continuing to push prices up.

Now that the election is over, we hope that the ill feeling which was being generated can be forgotten.

ED JONES

REPORTS FROM WASHINGTON

At this writing, the House of Representatives was scheduled to begin its debate of the tax cut bill which was the subject of the Washington report two weeks ago. At that time the bill was still being worked on by the Ways and Means Committee. Since then, however, the language of the bill has been finalized for debate on the House floor.

For business, the bill reduces the corporate tax rate, makes the 10 percent investment tax credit permanent, and re-structures the tax credit given businesses that create jobs to hire the unemployed.

Finally, the bill effectively reduces the maximum capital gains tax rate from 50 percent to 35 percent. This tax reduction applies to individuals and corporations and includes a reduction in the capital gains tax which is merged as the central issue in tax legislation.

For individual taxpayers, the bill increases the personal exemption from $750 to $1,000 but the general tax credit of $35 enacted several years ago would be allowed to expire. It also increases the standard deduction from $2,300 for single persons and $2,400 for married couples. In addition, the bill widens the tax brackets by six percent to help prevent wage-earners from being pushed into a higher tax bracket because of inflation.

Unfortunately, it appears that there will be additional controversy surrounding the bill on the floor of the House. Only three other proposals will be offered to the bill as amendments. One is supported by the Administration, another has the support of some committee members, and the other is the Kemp-Roth bill. The only part of the Kemp-Roth bill to be offered will be the section dealing with individual income taxes.

Debate on this proposal will probably be very detailed and complex. No doubt, there will be a great deal of parliamentary maneuvering to pass one bill or the other.

Editor:
It was a great privilege and honor for me to meet you just recently in the home of Ike and Britt Farmer on East Main Street.

As Brit told you, I had spent a couple of years during World War II at the Dyersburg Army Air Base. What she did not tell you, however, was how she and Pop had opened their home to this New York Yankee and how they treated me as one of their own.

The people of Halls are in a class all of their own and are the nicest, friendliest and kindest folk of any that I have ever met.

As you may recall, I visited home in the Farmers a week or so ago to help them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary and it was a very heart-warming experience for me. Once again, they and the people of Halls, took me to their hearts.

You all made such a wonderful impression on me that in 1976, after working for 30 years for a commercial bank in New York City and the passing of my beautiful wife, I decided to try to become a Southerner and retired to Florida.

Thank you all sincerely for being the wonderful people that you are. You really are the greatest!

Very respectfully,

In many ways it makes more sense to use our checks than the real thing. A trim check-book is much safer to carry than a full wallet. One check from Everybody's Bank can become any sum of money. Bill paying can be done through the mail.

Then there's checking records to show where the money's gone. Just about everything cash can't do, our checking does. Try it.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

BECAUSE OF A DREAM
Lesson for August 20, 1978

Background Scripture
Acts 27
Devotional Reading
Psalms 107:23-32

Some time ago I was conducting a weekend retreat for a church group. One of my presentations was upon the use of dreams as a means of revelation from God. The reaction of the audience was anything but positive. In fact, the mere suggestion that Christians can find God speaking through their dreams brought considerable hostility and the charge that the concept was unscriptural!

An Angel By Night
Whatever else the concept might be, it is definitely not unscriptural! Dreams are important channels of God's revelation from one end of the Bible to the other, spanning both Testaments. The word "dream" or its equivalents appears more than one hundred times in the Bible and there are other occasions in which the word "vision" is used in a manner that suggests a dream.

A case in point is to be found in Acts 27 when we find Paul on a ship on his way to Rome for trial. Having set sail from Crete despite warning from Paul who foresees danger, the centurion and ship's captain found themselves in extreme danger and privation. At last they are ready to listen to Paul and he tells them that during the night an angel had appeared to him and assured him that their lives would be spared because God wanted Paul to go to Rome.

In ordinary times they probably would have ignored Paul and his angel by night, but, desperate, they could not afford to ignore him. "So, take heart, men," he assures them, "for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told" (27:25).

All Escaped
There is tremendous irony in this story. There is a sea captain who presumably has much experience on the high seas of the Mediterranean. There is a centurion who commands a hundred Roman soldiers. And there is a prisoner, a suspected madman on his way to Rome to stand trial before the emperor, a man who tells of an angel who visits him in the night and assures him that everyone will be saved. Whose advice prevails? The prisoner named Paul.

Because of his dream or vision they will survive the terrible storm. Because his angel by night the prisoners will not be executed as the soldiers had planned in the event of shipwreck. Why would all these men listen to a dreamer and prisoner in chains? Because they detected the voice of God speaking through him. Somehow this man in chains was in contact with him and their very survival, it seemed, would depend upon taking the advice of a prisoner!

Why did this message come to a prisoner and not the captain or the centurion? It came to Paul because he was always willing to heed his dreams and be obedient to his visions. He was always ready to listen for and to the voice of God however he might reveal himself. Because of a dream and a dreamer who was obedient, lives were saved and God's plan was fulfilled. And so it can be, even today.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies
Fete Celia Arwood

Mrs. Neil Dyer, of Mitchell Lane, Halls, entertained last Friday evening to honor Celia Lou Arwood, bride-elect of Barry Lynn Jansen.

Guests were asked to bring a recipe and a gift for Celia's kitchen. Shirley Jansen, sister of the groom-to-be, registered the guests, who were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Hollie Gilliland. Friends from Ripley, Gates, Dyersburg, Jackson and Halls gathered in the living room to share the evening with Miss Arwood.

Mrs. Dyer directed a contest which was a shopping list made from the couple's names. As Celia opened each gift the accompanying recipe was placed in a card file by Mrs. Dyer and described to the group by the contributor.

Following the viewing of the gifts, 36 guests were served chocolate cake, topped with ice cream, and Coke.

The bride-elect thanked them for the many beautiful and useful gifts.

Plant Party
Guests bringing plants for the honoree, Miss Arwood, gathered at the Marvin Hansford home on Hansford Lane, Halls, Saturday morning. Cohostesses for the event were Mrs. Frank Baldrige, Miss Beth Baldrige, Mrs. Marvin Hansford, and Misses LouAnn and Jennifer Hansford.

Celia was presented a corsage of a red zinnia from the garden of Mrs. P. B. Bridges, a neighbor of the honoree, cleverly arranged in a miniature half-pot.

After guests enjoyed games directed by Miss Baldrige, contest winners presented their prizes to the honoree.

Following the contest guests were invited to view the plants displayed in the dining table centered with an arrangement of pink glads.

Refreshments of cheese straws, sausage balls, miniature blueberry muffins, open-faced sandwiches, and Coke were served from the dining table centered with an arrangement of pink glads.

Tennessee's Crown Jewel

The state capitol in Nashville has been referred to as an architectural gem; its footstep of scores of men and women who have made Tennessee history; and its classic lines are pleasing to every observer. Besides that, it's a fun place to visit.

The capitol is located on the highest hill in Nashville. Monumental steps lead to lower and upper terraces which surround the building and then to the portico. Each end of the 238 x 109' building is graced by eight beautiful Ionic columns. Rising from the center of the copper roof is a tower, 43' high, which supports a jewel-like cupola. The handsome tower and cupola, in particular, distinguish Tennessee's capitol from those of other states.

The interior of the capitol exemplifies superior craftsmanship, enduring materials, lavish ironwork in the library, fresco ceilings in the library and first floor corridors, and gashlight chandeliers now converted to electricity. On the tour of the capitol, there are beautiful paintings, statues and busts of historians, not to mention those which portray certain historical incidents and major influences that have affected the discovery, settlement, and development of Tennessee.

On the first floor, adjacent to the Governor's office, is the beautiful mural tracing the history of Tennessee. Be sure to ask about the official state press which is still used today to make the seals for Tennessee documents.

The second floor houses the Senate and House Chambers and the legislative lounge. For almost one hundred years, this lounge was the Tennessee State Library. It is an exact replica of the study of the famous novelist, Sir Walter Scott, complete with lavish ironwork railings and a circular staircase leading to the bookshelves. Portraits of Tennessee governors and other prominent Tennesseans are painted on the ceiling.

The tour wouldn't be complete without a visit to the well-kept grounds of the capitol. Monuments are erected in honor of Sam Davis, a Civil War hero; Alvin C. York, an outstanding hero of World War I and Andrew Jackson from Tennessee, the 7th president of the United States. At the northeast corner of the capitol is the tomb of James K. Polk, 11th president of the United States, and his wife.

From the nine-acre hill, venture across the street and visit the modern legislative offices where many of the state senators and representatives meet in the committee rooms.

A complete restoration of the capitol took place in 1956-58; the authenticity of the exterior being carefully preserved. Improvements in the interior were faithful to Strickland's concepts.

Free tours are conducted daily on the hour from 9 am to 4 pm. For information on other Nashville attractions, contact the Tennessee Department of Tourist Development, Box T, 505 Fesslers Lane, Nashville, Tennessee 37210.

The Himalayan range in Asia has hundreds of peaks over 20,000 feet and 20 more over 24,000 feet.

proaches you to use common sense judgment in the field. These officers follow the letter of the law, and you can expect nothing less from the court.

Each of us is entitled to an opinion about the fairness of this practice, but until all hunters ban together and demand that the laws be changed, they will be enforced as written.

Hunting is a "privilege," as Mr. Parker says, but it is a privilege for which each hunter pays a 10% excise tax and license fees.

Eliminating the controversy associated with this very popular sport rests upon the shoulders of each such taxpayer.

"Such fields will be visited, most likely on opening day."

Also keep in mind that the basic controversy stems from the fact that hunters who are invited or are a paying guest on some baited dove shoots are often not aware of the baiting.

Federal courts have been consistent in holding that knowledge and intent are not prerequisite to prosecution.

In other words, the only points the government has to prove are:

- 1. The field was baited.
- 2. The person charged was hunting doves.

Examples of such fields are:

- 1. Wheat which has matured and been mowed down, bush-hogged, or dragged down.
- 2. Sunflower which has matured and been mowed down, bush-hogged, or dragged down.
- 3. Millet or other grain which has been manipulated in similar fashion.
- 4. Corn fields in which the silage has been cut and left on the field.

The principal area of concern to officers is freshly planted fields. Situations to look for and avoid:

Dove Shooter Must Beware Baited Field

By Tony Mack

Dove season returns to Tennessee Friday, Sept. 2nd, Willie Parker, Special Agent in charge of District 10, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, notes special points agents look for in determining violations. There is no problem, he says, with dove hunting over harvested fields or on fields on which grain has been grown for the express purpose of attracting doves. Problems occur on fields on which small grain has recently been planted. In almost every instance for the last several years in Tennessee, he says, baiting has been done under the guise of "planting."

Federal officers have recorded an unusual number of instances, he says, in which baiting has been conducted for several weeks, then on the morning of the season's opening, all bait is disked under or covered, and the field is sown in a normal manner. Regulations prohibit shooting over such an area for 10 days. The principal grain used in these type operations is wheat.

So, how can the hunter protect himself under these circumstances?

- 1. Freshly disked fields in which no grain is showing.
- 2. Freshly disked fields heavily saturated with grain.
- 3. "Since hunting is a privilege, obviously considerable responsibility rests with the hunter," says Parker.
- 4. "We are of the opinion that if a hunter is prudent or just reasonably cautious, he is not likely to face a criminal charge of shooting over a baited area."

"If a hunter discovers unusual circumstances which indicate baiting, then elects to hunt, he places himself in jeopardy."

"Please keep in mind that this regulation will be enforced."

"Beginning about Aug. 1st, almost all of Middle and West Tennessee will be viewed from the air; some parts of East Tennessee will be checked."

"When baited areas are discovered, an investigation is made."

"Such fields will be visited, most likely on opening day."

Also keep in mind that the basic controversy stems from the fact that hunters who are invited or are a paying guest on some baited dove shoots are often not aware of the baiting.

Federal courts have been consistent in holding that knowledge and intent are not prerequisite to prosecution.

In other words, the only points the government has to prove are:

Edwards Assists Heart Drug Hunt

LeLon Edwards, of Ripley, now a medical student in Memphis, was one of three chemistry students assisting Dr. William E. Solomons, associate professor of chemistry in the University of Tennessee in Martin, in experiments in which a new pain killer, related to Demerol (a morphine derivative) has been synthesized.

Floyd Wiseman, of Sharon, now a graduate student in Louisiana State University, synthesized the compound.

His co-workers were Edwards and Diego Daponte Hernandez, of Caracas, Venezuela, now a graduate student in Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta, Ga.

Solomons, given a UTM mini-grant of about $1,200 for chemicals, enlisted the three students to aid in time-consuming laboratory work seeking a compound which would restore normal heart rhythm.

The pain killer's creation during this research is "not unusual," he says.

The drug he seeks is still in the very early stages of research, he emphasizes.

If it can be found, it will have to be tested in animals before use on human patients.

Solomons does not expect quick results. His strong interest in research began at the Center for the Health Sciences in Memphis, where he did cardiovascular (heart artery) research.

Edwards is the brother of Mrs. Johnny Porter, Halls.

Mrs. J. M. Riddick, of Maury City, visited friends in Halls Wednesday.

Bogue, 21, of Ellendale, was the son of Mrs. Coy Cribfield, of Ripley, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bates Sullivan, of Fort Pillow.

He was shot in the head with a .22 caliber automatic rifle which Simpson said discharged when he picked it up from the roof of their vehicle as he, Bogue, and Michael Wayne Dukes, of 3685 Orchi, Memphis, prepared to leave the Hatchie River bottoms near Stanton Dec. 18th.

Bogue died at 5 a.m. that morning in Jackson-Madison County Hospital.

Dukes first supported Simpson's account of an accidental shooting but later told Haywood County authorities there had been drinking and an argument before the men returned to their vehicle.

Simpson was arrested March 15th and charged with first degree murder.

He pleaded guilty in Haywood County Circuit Court Monday to the reduced charge of voluntary manslaughter.

Bogue, a painter, left a wife and daughter.

THANK YOU!

Voters of District 8:
I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the confidence you have shown in me by electing me Constable in District 8.

I tried to run a clean campaign with everything honest and aboveboard.

I know some of you were reluctant about having a black man in this responsible position. Let me say, here and now, that as far as I am concerned, I will be Constable for all the people. I know no racial barrier at any time, especially in this position.

I would like to say that I will strive to make advancements in the proper way to handle the job. I have a fair amount of police work and I am going to the Law Enforcement Training Academy for six weeks to learn the important basics of the law.

Also, I would like to thank the people who gave their time and energy to attempt to get me elected.

I will be available at any time. So, with God's help and His blessing, I will make you proud you voted for me.

Yours Thankfully,

Elevens Hit Road Friday

The county's high school football teams launch their seasons on the road this Friday—Ripley expecting an easy time of it in Somerville, with Fayette-Ware, Halls anticipating a bit more difficulty in Alamo.

Kelly Passes Obion Post

Paul Kelly, University of Tennessee in Martin assistant basketball coach who once coached Halls and Union City cagers, has withdrawn his name from consideration for head boys' basketball coach in Obion County Central High School.

McKinney got Halls first points of the year with 7:52 left in the quarter the Tigers played against Obion Central's Rebels in a jamboree in Martin Friday.

Halls stopped the Rebs once and drove to their 38 before a fumble lost the leather.

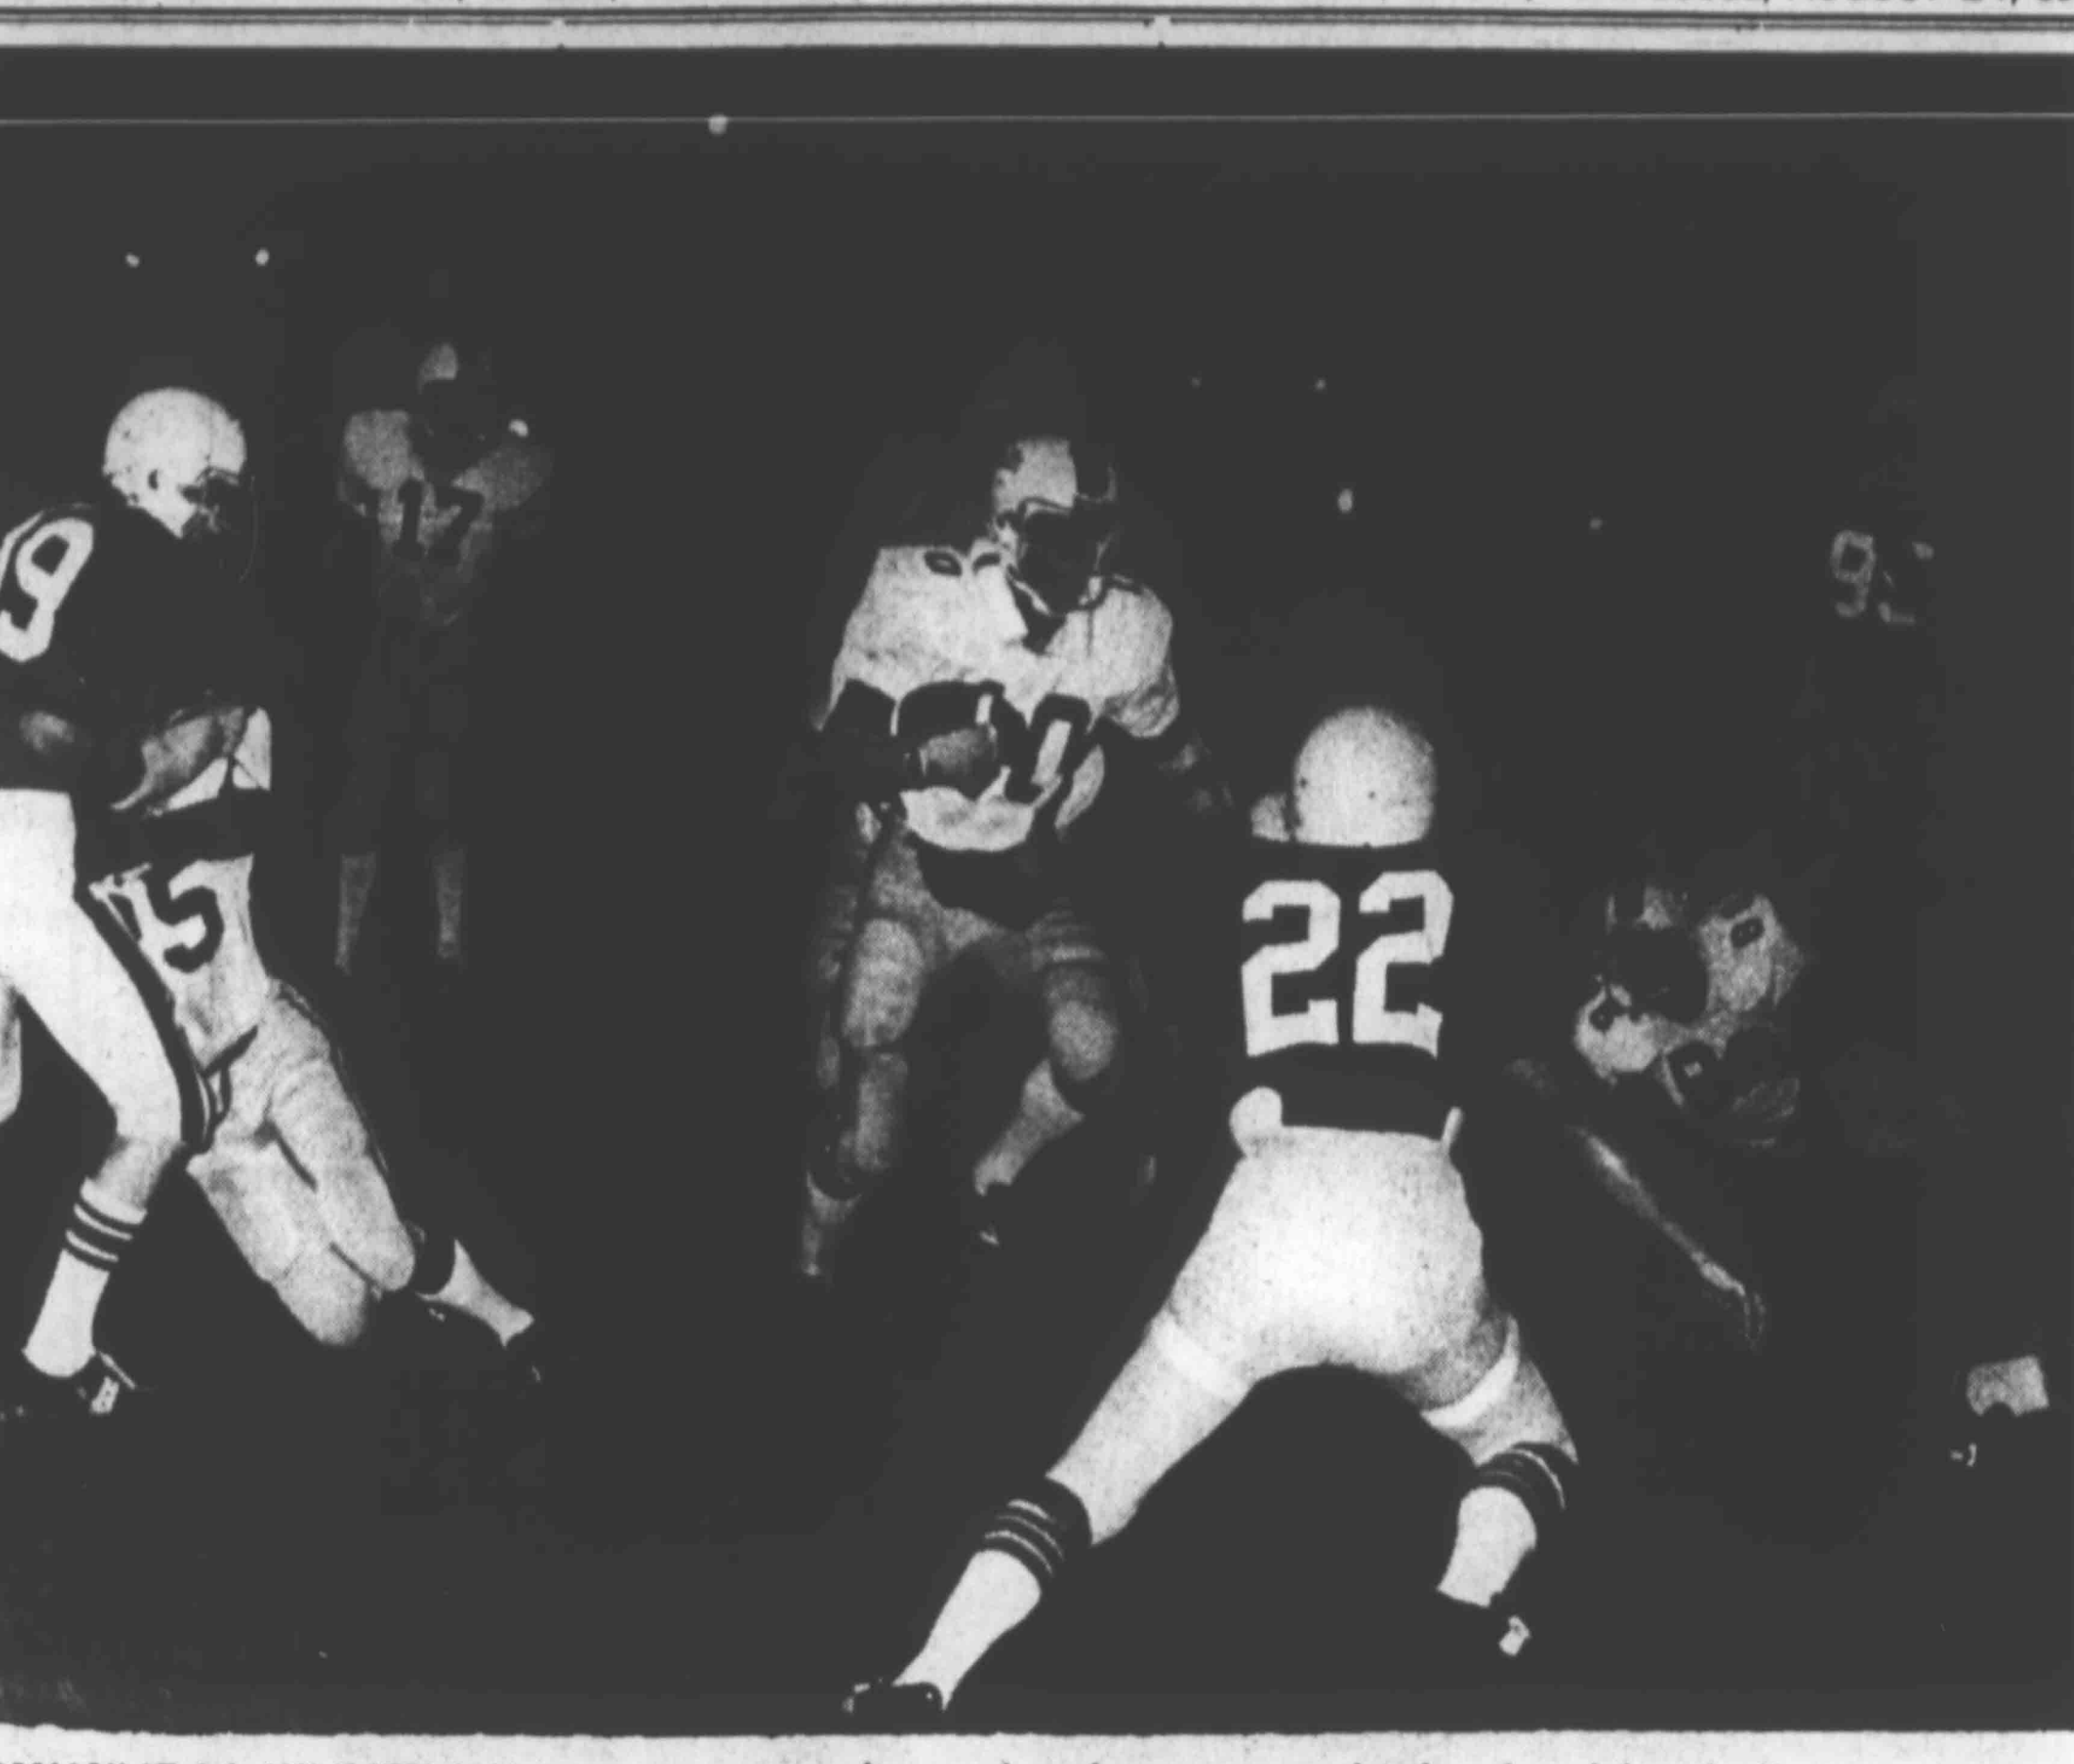

The Rebs were again held, for a loss on downs, and on the second play McKinney rambled 80 yards around left end.

Warren connected with Brian Jones to move the Rebs to Halls' 29, but penalties stalled them.

Halls took over on Central's 38.

Seconds later, Barry Washington scored on a 38-yard dash, with 1:07 on the clock.

Both point-after tries failed to close the quarter with Halls ahead 12-0.

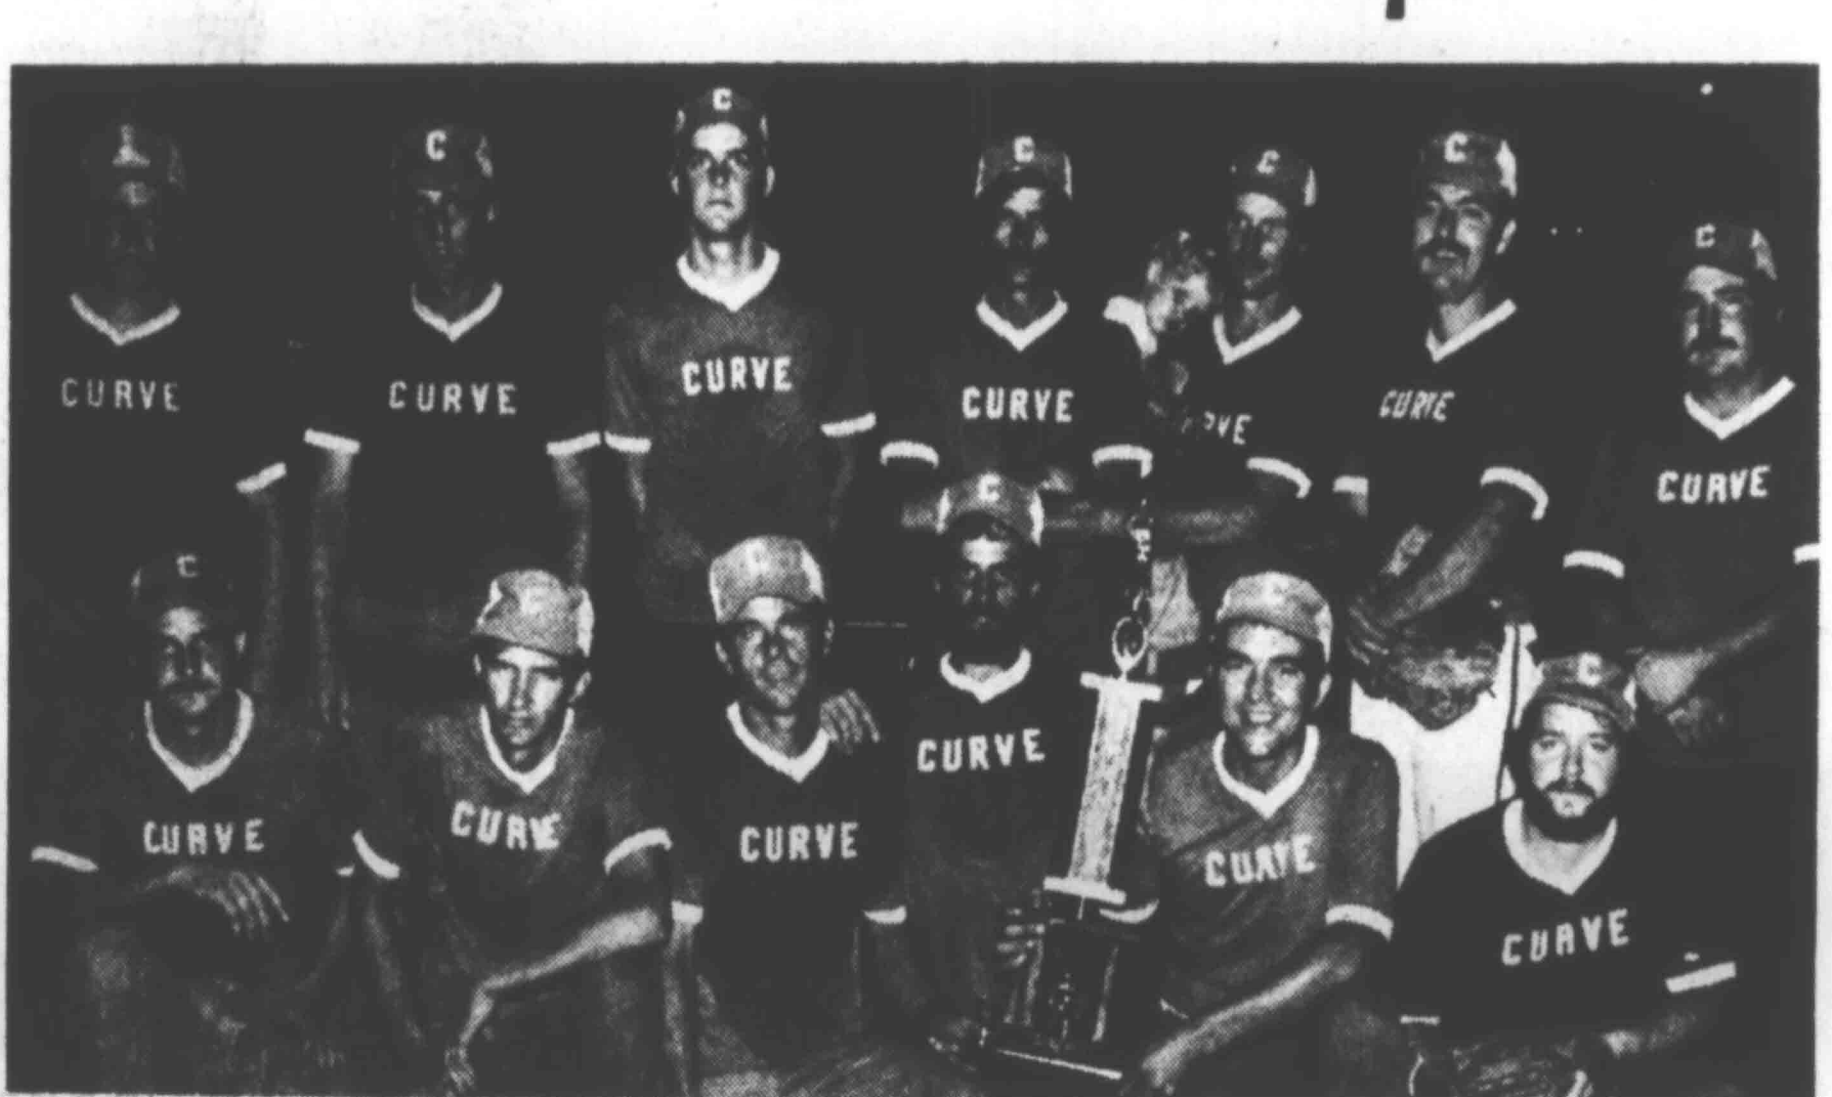

DWAYNE MCKINNEY (10), state scoring champ for the past two high school football seasons, goes 80 yards around left end for Halls' first points this year, on the second play of the Tigers' second possession in their quarter of combat with the Obion Central Rebels in Friday's jamboree in the Pacer Stadium at the University of Tennessee in Martin.

CURVE TEAM PLACED FIRST OF EIGHT in Tupperware's Invitational Tournament Aug. 7-18th. Is swaying ruining your swing?

Many a golf swing is ruined by sway. Often we don't realize that we are doing it. It makes good sense to get a friend to check on you while you are playing a friendly round.

The worst kind of sway takes the right hip out to the right on the backswing, either before it turns or instead of its turning. This shifts the center of gravity several inches to the right. It makes an accurate strike very problematical, although some players do manage to compensate for their sway in time and to hit a pretty good ball.

- 1. Adopt an open stance. Point the left foot out at an angle of 45 degrees toward the line of aim. Feel the pressure on the left foot as you go into the backswing.
2. At the address, make your initial movement a shift of both hips to the left. Shift them left several inches.
3. Don't remove the sway. Use it. Byron Nelson did. He was for a time the most consistent golfer of them all.

Nix August Grid Dates

This weekend will see the last August football openers for high school teams in Tennessee—at the expense of most "open" dates previously enjoyed—according to a vote last week of the Board of Control of the Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association.

Next year, no game may be played before the first weekend in September, with seasons limited to ten weeks—a week less than now allowed.

Practice — allowed July 28th this year—may precede next year's first game only four weeks—with the first week in shorts (even with helmets and shoulder pads).

The TSSAA board, which rarely acts without member approval, changed the season rules despite recorded opposition from members, in the face of medical protests about health risks in mid-summer training.

In 1976, members voted 174-96 for the rules in effect this year.

"We're not sure they haven't changed their minds," says Bob Baldrige, TSSAA assistant executive secretary.

"Hot weather is not only rough, but it cuts in on summer jobs for both players and coaches."

Though the Board did delay debuts, it softened a proposal submitted to it by its state office restricting pre-season practice to three weeks before the season's openers.

That would have meant moving practice ahead two weeks, instead of one as the board has now voted.

MURDER SUSPECT

Thomas Croscup is hand-cuffed Monday evening by Deputy Sheriff Fred Sanders in a field between Halls and new Highway 51, after pursuit by Sanders, Sheriff Joe B. O'Steen, second from right, and Deputy Wymond Lovelace, right. A man who called Halls police several times, telling Joffre Herring he had killed a man but providing no more information, agreed to meet Halls officer Jimmy Garrett near this spot; at the same time, the sheriff and his deputies were en route to Halls in answer to calls by a woman to Ripley police, also reporting a murder, without details. As the sheriff's group arrived, Croscup fled his car and took to the fields, the sheriff says. The sheriff says Croscup said he dumped his victim into a pond but was unsure of its location. Earl West, soil conservationist, furnished pond locations near Halls. Tuesday morning, the body of Calvin Brewer, of Gates, with a belt pulled tightly around his slashed throat, was taken from a pond on Mrs. Demetral Beard's farm west of Gates (photo below). The body, sent to Memphis for autopsy, will be sent to Lexington for services and burial. Croscup, former New Yorker who has worked as handyman in Halls for about three months, has been charged with first degree murder. The sheriff says Croscup's wife is believed to have made the calls to Ripley police.

Farmers Make Alfalfa Plans

By Charles T. Peal

Eugene Anthony, Oliver Gay, and Bill Stephens are among county farmers planning to seed alfalfa before the 15th of next month.

The Green month Alfalfa, Scene which provides the highest quality and cheapest protein of any feed that can be grown on farms in this area, produces five or more tons of hay per acre, well managed.

Fertilization is of prime importance in alfalfa production, and these men are following soil test recommendations provided by the University of Tennessee.

An example of fertilization at seeding is the use of 15 pounds of nitrogen, 30 pounds of phosphate, 240 pounds of potash, and two pounds of boron.

Bill Stephens learned that each year he will need 40 pounds of potash, and two pounds of boron.

Recent research on dates of planting alfalfa has shown that as well prepared, moist seedbeds, where weeds have been controlled, alfalfa can be successfully seeded before Sept. 15th.

These early fall plantings are not damaged as much by cold weather as are later seedings.

The rate of 20 pounds of seed per acre, with the varieties Gladiator, Te am, Weevichok, and Williamsburg, are recommended.

A complete alfalfa weed control program using chemicals allows the producer to keep the stand five years or more, if he follows the program correctly.

This spreads the cost of the initial seeding application, thus reducing the total in-put figure.

Alfalfa requires a soil which is deep and well drained.

Producers should know their soil and/or auger it to determine the soil depth.

Proper production techniques can not only provide low cost protein for the cattle herd but also yield quantities for profitable hay production.

Sow Pastures Soon

Wheat grazed during winter can provide good quality forage.

There is ample opportunity and plenty of land available for county livestock producers to sow such a winter cover crop.

When cold weather occurs between Nov. 1st and March 20th, there is a big difference in forage production among the small grains.

Wheat produces 1,650 pounds of dry matter per acre, as compared to 1,850 pounds for rye, and 1,950 pounds for oats.

Wheat seems to fit into this county's production programs more easily, as it can be sown behind soy beans, grazed during winter, and still be harvested for grain.

Hay Directory Set

County farmers with hay for sale may have their names listed in the Tennessee hay directory, now being compiled by the Tennessee Dept. of Agriculture.

Producers may contact the County Extension Office, Tenn. Hay Directory, P. O. Box 40627, Meigs Station, Nashville, Tenn. 37204, or by telephone, toll-free Commodity Market News, 1-800-342-8206, between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Information needed by Oct. 1st is: Name, route or street, city, state, zip code, telephone (including area code), type of hay, quantity, quality, price per bale or ton, and location (field or barn).

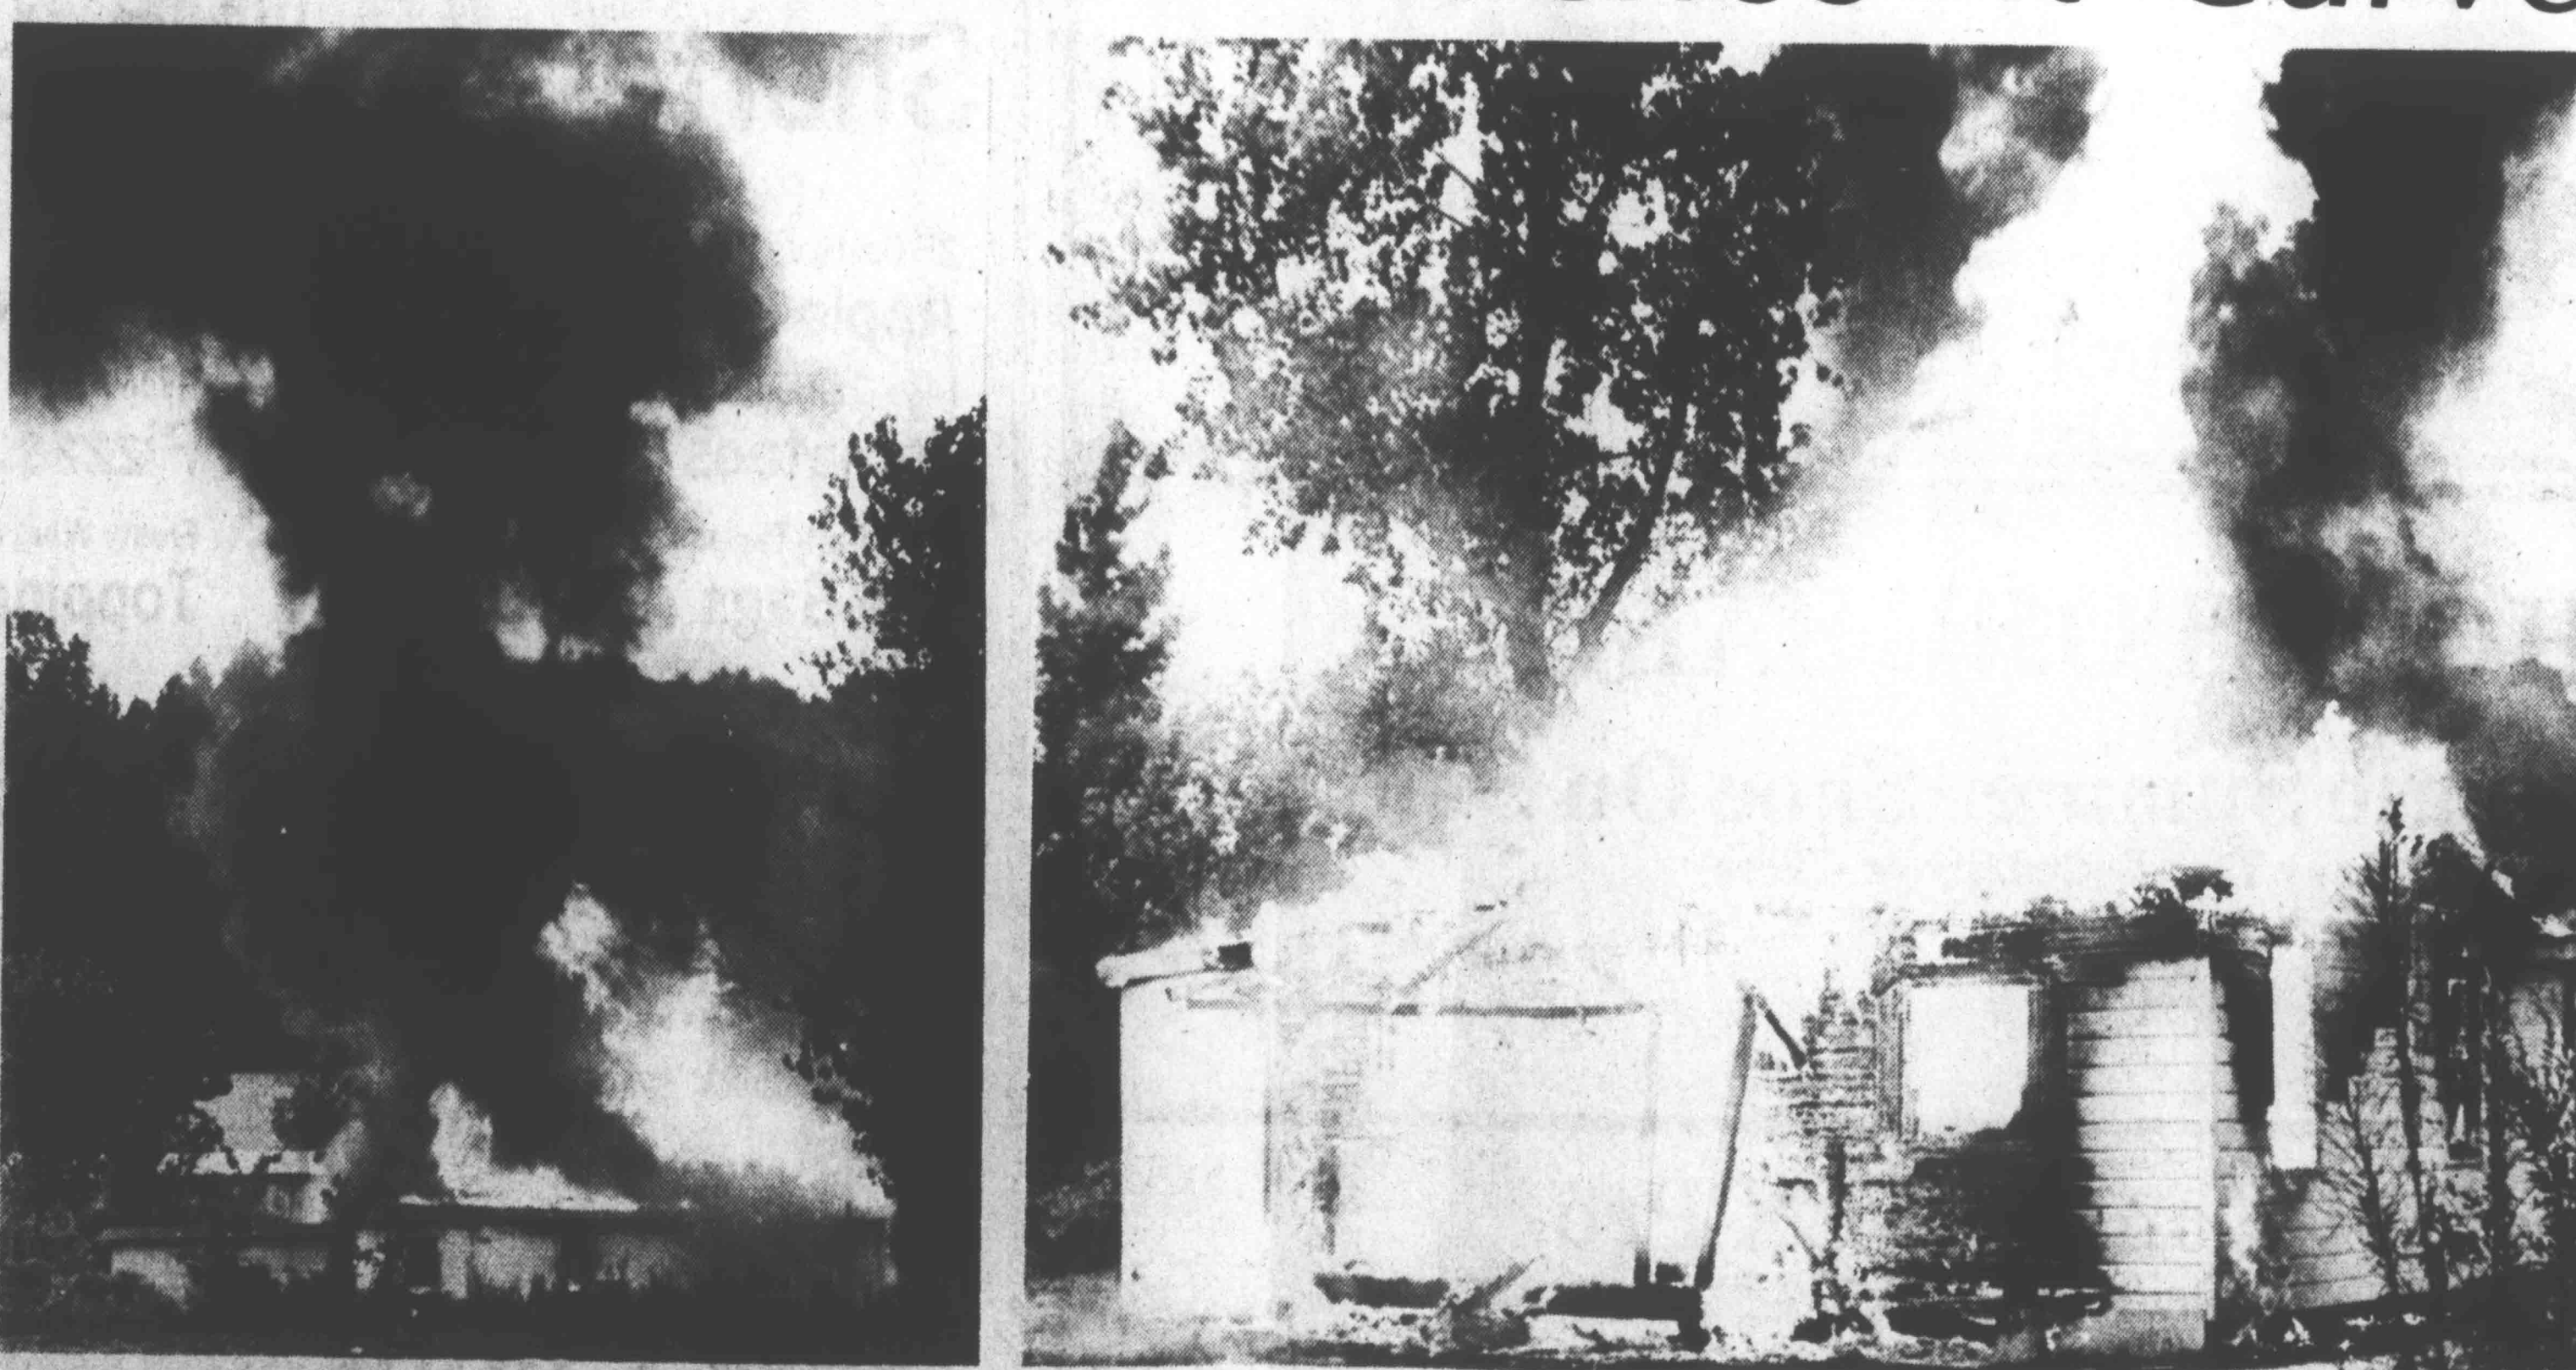

Copies of this publication will be made available free to agricultural businesses, farmers' organizations, and state and federal agricultural offices by Nov. 15, 1978.

Dwayne McKinney, two year state scoring champion, picked up Friday night where he left off as he scored two touchdowns and two extra points.
Mike Hudson, freshman speedster, added the other 6-pointer with a 92-yard dash, the longest run from scrimmage by a Halls back in many years. Barry Washington kicked the extra point.
The Tigers scored early in the contest with McKinney going in from the 8-yard line. Hudson's run came in the third quarter, and McKinney tallied his final touchdown in the fourth stanza.
The Tigers amassed 13 first downs and a total of 320 yards while Alamo had 8 first downs and 56 total yards. The Tigers caught 125 yards in penalties and Alamo 85.
Hudson led the Tigers in rushing with 110 yards in 3 carries. McKinney had 76 yards in 14 attempts. Marvin Brown carried 10 times for 74 yards. Barry Washington had 28 yards in 8 attempts, and Walter Lazure gained 18 yards in 2 carries.
Tiger quarterback Lazure completed 2 of 6 passes and Alamo hit on 7 of 16 and had one intercepted by Tracy Davis.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

By Will Bernard

Personal Effects

Harry's will left his "personal effects" to the friendly lady next door, and the rest of his estate to relatives. Among his assets was a $10,000 certificate of deposit at a local bank. Should this money go to the neighbor lady?

After a court hearing the judge said no, ruling that a bank deposit did not qualify as "personal effects." He said the phrase generally means items that are "worn or carried about the person (or) have some intimate relation to the person."

All too often, language that seemed to be plain English at the time a will was written turns out to be ambiguous later on. "Personal effects" is a typical source of dispute and litigation. Seeking its meaning in a particular situation, courts try to find talitate clues in the surrounding circumstances.

Take another case. A woman left her daughter "my personal effects of every kind and description, including silver, linens, and china." Did this include an automobile?

The court decided that it did indeed, awarding the car to the daughter. Reason: the woman must have had a broad definition of "personal effects" in mind, because silver, linens, and china obviously would not be worn or carried on the person.

In one unusual case the owner of a large yacht left his "personal belongings and household effects" to his widow. Rival claimants argued that the yacht was too major an asset to be covered by such a vague expression.

However, the court held that the yacht was included and must therefore go to the widow. Pointing out that the deceased had been a very rich man, the court said it could have been perfectly natural for him to consider a mere yacht too insignificant to need special mention in his will.

25th Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. GENE PATTON, center, of Route 2, Gates, were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary in a reception given by their children—from left, Miss Gene Patton, Jan (Mrs. Larry Don) Moore, of Gates, and Molly (Mrs. Lynn) McCulloch, of Dyersburg. Mrs. Patton is the former Mary Joan Garrett. The Pattons, members of Concord United Methodist Church, have a grandchild, Dawn Moore.

Improved quake watching system

A computer now watching over CalTech's extensive network of seismometers allows seismologists a faster, more precise look at Southern California's earthquake activity.

The computer allows records of seismic events to be made available far more quickly than with the previous systems of measuring by hand seismic records on paper and photographic films. — CNS

Radar readings not absolute

Often a radar readout is accepted in court as an accurate record of a vehicle's speed. However, it has been found that radars are susceptible to mechanical and operator error and the readings obtained are not "absolute."

Several cases have been cited in which a patrol car's blower motor for the heater caused a radar to read speeds of up to 38 mph—even though there was no traffic on the highway. — CNS

Air conditioner maintenance

Just as an automobile needs a good spring check-up to maintain top performance, a home air conditioner can use a similar check to achieve maximum energy efficiency.

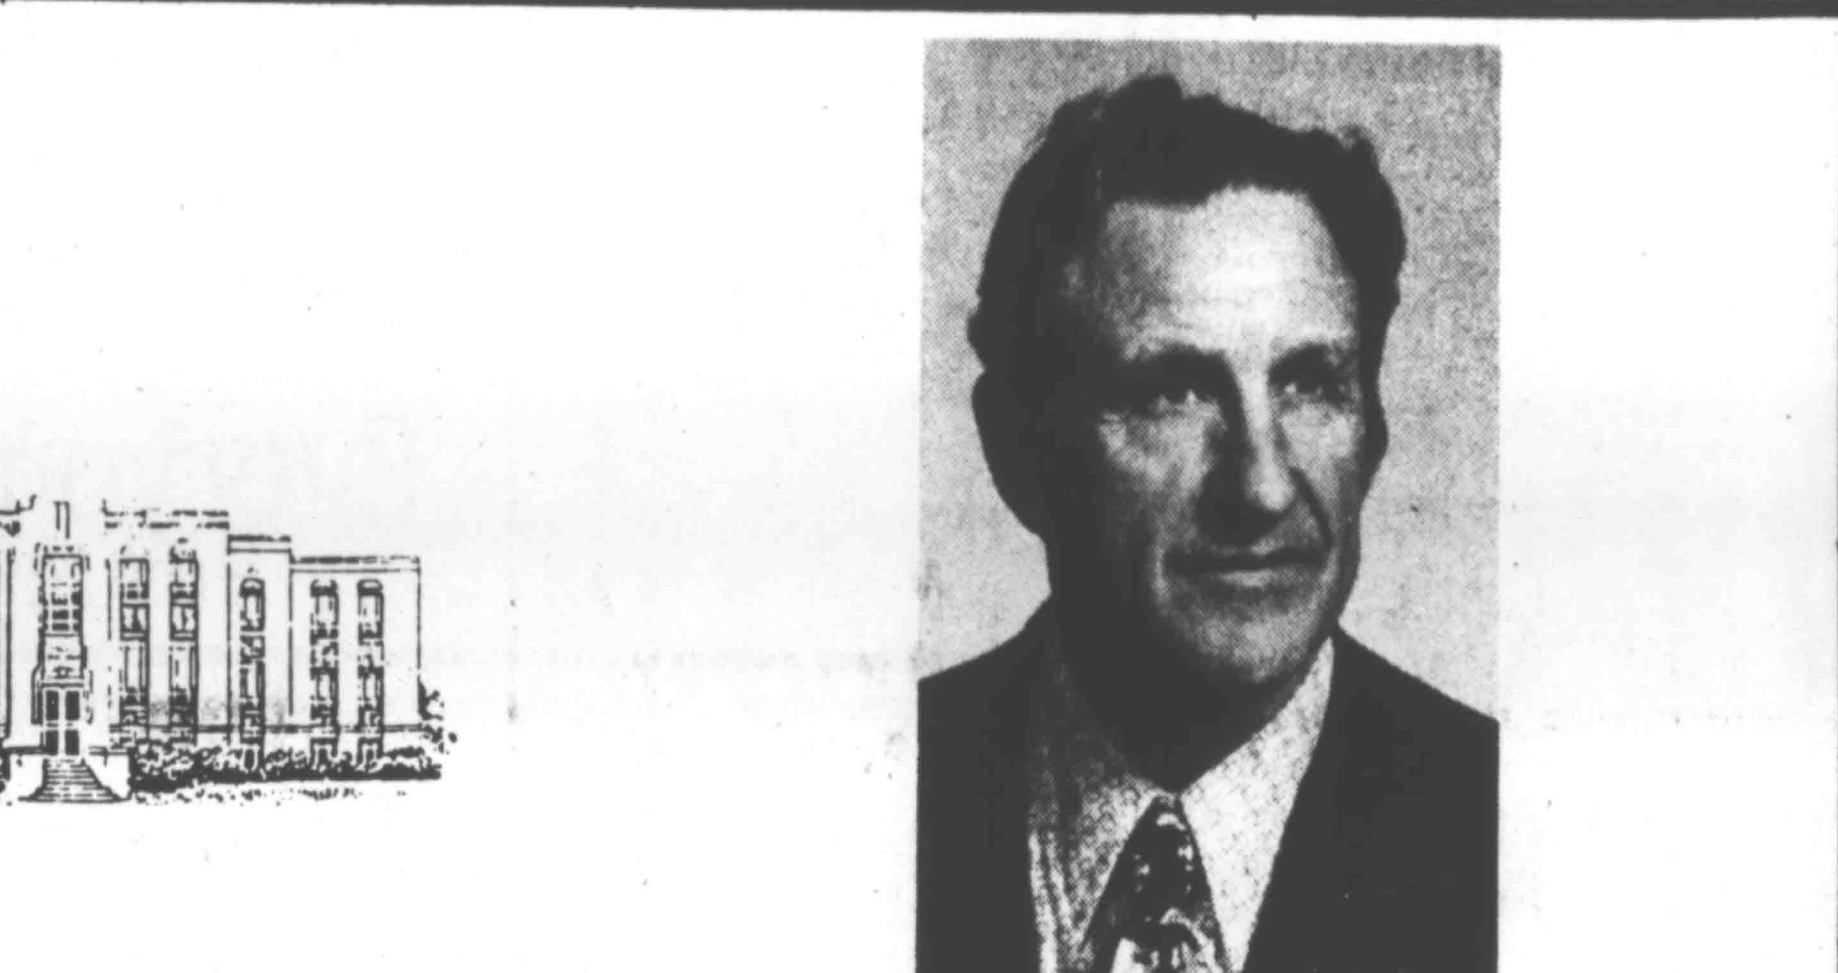

"A thorough cleaning and lubrication will add extra years to the life of your air conditioning equipment and save you money on electrical bills by allowing the unit to operate more efficiently," advises Dave Moore, vice president-customer services at Amara Refrigeration, Inc. — CNS

Visit dentist in the morning

You can tolerate more pain in the morning than in the afternoon, and it has nothing to do with your mood, according to a recent study. The variation in pain threshold is attributed to natural biological cycles. So, you may be better off going to the dentist before work than after. — CNS

PROFIT INCREASE

During 1977 major California-based corporations posted an increase in profits double the rate of the nation as a whole, according to a study released by United California Bank. — CNS

JOE O'STEEN, SHERIFF LAUDERDALE COUNTY RIPLEY, TENNESSEE 38063

Letter to the Citizens:

Please accept my heartfelt appreciation for re-electing me your Sheriff. Most of you are law-abiding citizens and have never had a need of a police officer or Sheriff in your everyday lives. There are approximately 25,000 people in this county and only one of me. Therefore, most of you do not know me personally. I promise you I will continue to be a good, honest, decent Sheriff and with God's guidance and your help, together, we can make Lauderdale County the best county in the State of Tennessee.

As your Sheriff, I am sworn to uphold and enforce the law. Therefore, if it is unlawful and it is called to my attention, I am bound by oath to take a stand for the law, no matter how unpopular the law may be or how unpopular this decision may make your Sheriff.

My deputies are expected to conduct themselves as officers and gentlemen, both on the job and off the job.

The people within the confines of the jail will be treated as human beings, but will not be coddled or coerced, nor will they enjoy their sentence since they are in jail of their own prerogative, and have been sentenced as a punishment and deterrent.

To you County Commissioners, I will personally see to it that this department is run as economically as possible, and I will be calling on all of you from time to time for advice and suggestions. With your help, our Sheriff's office can become self-supporting.

To you business people who are receiving a multitude of bad checks, I will assign a special officer to see that the check warrants are served with dispatch; and if these warrants cannot be readily served for any reason, you will be kept advised as to the warrant status.

To you parents and others who are and should be concerned with the drug situation, I will personally see to it that this department activates and uses all of its know-how and equipment to bring to justice the supplier, the pusher, the wholesaler, the user and those who condone this horrendous practice, no matter who they are.

To you who are losing property to vandals, this will present a problem in the future. The court would not fund the criminal investigator we sent to school last year. This will take one patrol car off the road at night, leaving us easy prey to hoodlums who do their dirty work after dark. Unfortunately, the T.B.I. is not always available to do our work. They, too, have a heavy work load.

To you who are elected and appointed State, County and City officials, I ask that you help me to my job; and let me help you do your job.

I humbly request that we all erase our past differences and pull together rather than pulling in many different directions. This department wants to and will cooperate with each of you.

I most humbly ask each of you to help me perform my sworn duty and help me stop the popular trend of "if it's against the law, do it." Time will not permit me to see many of you and to thank you personally for re-electing me your Sheriff.

My deputies and I are your employees and we will do the best job for you that we know how.

Again, I thank you for the opportunity to serve our great county and its people.

IF YOU NEED LAW ENFORCEMENT, CALL 655-1311, AVAILABLE 24 HOURS PER DAY.
