

City Hall Collapse Shakes Gates

GATES' OLD CITY HALL FELL EARLY—Just after 11 a.m. Monday, two freight trains passing Gates simultaneously accomplished something already planned—razing of the old City Hall building, which collapsed, taking with it part of the former Gates Bank & Trust Co. building. Bobby Vaughn, owner of the buildings, said that when he came to work at Gates Banking & Trust Co. about 8 a.m. Monday, he noticed bricks fallen from a cracked wall so placed barrels to prevent parking near the buildings. City Hall had been moved some weeks ago to a trailer at the rear of Pennington Seed Co., and a barber shop which occupied the former bank building had closed. Collapse of the building knocked out power lines and demolished a sign in front of Brown's Junior Mart.

Halls Banquet Hails Payrolls

Halls Merchants Association will sponsor its fourth annual Industry Appreciation banquet May 24th in the Halls Elementary School cafeteria.

Tickets may be purchased from Police Chief Buddy Moore, at City Hall, or from Arnold Health Mart Drugs.

HUMBOLDT BOUND

The Halls High School Golden Tiger Marching Band will march Friday in the Strawberry Festival Parade in Humboldt.

Recent donations to the band booster World's Fair Fund are Miss Gwen Walker, Sheriff Joe O'Steen, Halls Western Auto Store, Mr. and Mrs. Burgis Smith, and Ray-bon Chambers.

New boosters are Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Valadez and the Wymond Thurmonds.

Band Day Saturday was well attended, with sale of hamburgers and hot dogs at Bob's Market adding well to the band's fund for the trip to the Knoxville World's Fair at the end of the month.

On Ballot

JERRY N. CORLEW, County Judge, announces his candidacy for re-election. He is seeking the position of County Executive. 'I have always tried to work in the best interests of Lauderdale County,' he says, 'and I will continue to conscientiously serve all the citizens of Lauderdale County. Your influence, support and vote will be greatly appreciated. A more lengthy statement will follow.'

For Re-Election

ROBERT S. THOMAS announces that he will be a candidate for re-election to the position of Chancellor, Part II, Ninth Chancery Division.

Born in Dyersburg, he was educated in public schools in that area. After graduation from high school, he worked in a local bank until 1942, when he enlisted in the Marine Corps in World War II. He participated in the invasion of the Marshall Islands, Saipan, Tinian and two Jima, and twice received a Presidential Unit Citation for the Saipan and two battles.

After the war, he entered Murray, Ky., State College for his pre-law education and received his doctor of jurisprudence degree from Vanderbilt University in Nashville. He entered law practice in Ripley in 1949 and was elected Chancellor in 1974.

He is a member of the National Judicature Society, the Tennessee Bar Association, the Moose Club, and is a past President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He is an elder in Ripley's First Presbyterian Church and was a Sunday School teacher and superintendent for many years.

'I have presided over the Chancery Court in all nine counties of the Ninth Chancery Division and still hold court in all of these counties,' he says.

'I believe I have done a good job in hearing and deciding cases fairly and on an equitable basis. A Chancellor presides over real estate matters, workman's Compensation suits, family matters, construction of wills, matters involving custody of children, adoptions, and numerous other civil matters.

'I ask for your vote on Aug. 5, 1982 for re-election to a second term as Chancellor, Part II.'

Survey Finds Halls Happy

Steve Levy has revealed the results of a survey made several weeks through the columns of The Halls Graphic.

The survey shows that more than 90% of those answering the survey are proud of Halls and enjoying living in Halls.

In other questions: Fifty-seven per cent said that they would approve curbside garbage pickup if fees were reduced.

More than 70% opposed higher fees to maintain current garbage service.

No decision was visible on the quality of public education in Halls with 55% undecided, about 20% saying yes and 22% saying no.

Fifty-seven per cent voted against high taxes to improve the school system, 22% were undecided, and 18% saying yes.

Forty-two per cent said they would use the cable TV system if it comes to Halls and 21% were undecided.

About one-half of those answering said they had checked out a book from the Halls Public Library during the past six months while 57% plan to use the library in the future.

The Halls Street Festival received 70% approval with 17% doubting the need for the Festival.

Forty-one per cent said the Town of Halls should give financial support to the Festival with 20% undecided.

Those answering the polls said the least attractive aspects of the town are dirty streets and garbage service with the friendly people and other city services getting major approval. Only 35 answered the polls.

AT FFA MEET

In Gatlinburg this week to attend the state Future Farmers of America convention were Halls High School chapter member Allen Burks, Donald Gooch, Jeff Baker, Barry McWilliams, Conley Wright, Leah Roberts, Venita Voss, Talley Perry, and Suzanne Hurt.

Several of the boys are candidates for State Farmer awards. Miss Hurt is running for a state office. Miss Roberts is competing for the title of Tennessee FFA Sweetheart.

Miss Perry, Miss Roberts, and Miss Voss, had an extra thrill Sunday as they attended the World's Fair in Knoxville and were seen on Channel 5, Memphis.

Bill Newsome, FFA advisor, accompanied the group to Knoxville.

The two 1,350 foot towers of the World Trade Center in New York City occupy only two acres, but can accommodate 130,000 people.

Brevities

The Wesley Swifts, of Huntsville, Ala., spent the weekend with the Jerre Jordans.

The Clyde Youngers spent the first of the week with their grandchildren, Elizabeth, Frank and Joanne Gianotti, in Memphis, while their parents were out of town.

Miss Stacey Coulter, a student in Duke University in Durham, N.C., will arrive Monday to spend the week with her grandparents, the Charles Alsobrooks, and attend the wedding May 15th in Dyersburg of her cousin, Miss Lucinda Spence.

Mrs. George Hiscox and son, Elliott, of Jackson, spent the weekend with her mother Mrs. F. G. Craig, while Mr. Hiscox and six of his students were attending the World's Fair in Knoxville.

The Fred Pincleys, of Brazil, spent Sunday in Halls.

Mrs. Mildred Thomas, of near Brownsville, visited her sister, Mrs. Holice Gilliland, and Mr. Gilliland, last weekend.

Mrs. Barbara Hendren attended a Delta Kappa Gamma meeting Saturday in Covington Elementary School.

Mrs. Jackie Belton and daughter, Cathy, of Memphis, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gooch, Saturday.

Mrs. Sandra DeSollar spent the weekend with Jane Brewer and Alesia Stanley in Martin.

They were joined Saturday by the Billy Brewers and Mack Stanleys for open house and tea at the Chi Omega sorority lodge. Alesia and Jane participated in the All-Sing that evening.

ERIC, 18, son of the Jerry Smiths, of Gates, Halls High School short-stop and pitcher, is being scouted by the University of Mississippi and East Tennessee State University; two weeks ago, he visited Auburn, Ala., University. A senior, he has been an all-star since he began playing in Halls' Dixie Youth League; he was quarterback and safety on the HHS football team which went to the state play-offs last fall.

Bumper Ballot Due In August

A bumper ballot Aug. 5th was assured at Tuesday's 7 p.m. filing dead-line, which found the county with eight candidates for sheriff, 8-term Ripley Mayor Rozelle Criner challenging incumbent Jerry N. Corlew for County Executive, and Jerry Pilcher, former Ripley alderman, challenging Paul Meadows for County Trustee.

Halls Curbing Mobile Homes

Halls Board of Alderman Monday night unanimously rejected efforts to change zoning laws covering mobile homes and voted to tighten enforcement of present regulations.

The step was taken after hearing recommendations by Gail Argetis and Mike Sparks, of the State Planning Office in Jackson, that all restrictions be rescinded or present laws enforced.

The board also voted to approve the fireworks display planned in connection with the annual Fourth of July Street Festival.

Deferred action on a request by Mrs. Marvin Searce that the old 911 emergency phone number be restored in Halls. Mrs. Searce, speaking for Halls Jaycees and Jaycettes, said the number is recognized throughout the nation and is needed here. Rising costs caused discontinuation of the number several months ago. Aldermen Eugene Pugh agreed to discuss the matter with the County Commission.

Took action on changes in the city's health and life insurance program.

Agreed to consider a suggestion by City Supt. Akin Barnes to enforce regulations now being violated by mobile home installation. The board agreed to seek the cooperation of power companies in not offering service.

Authorized application for funds for the continued operation of the Halls Senior Citizens Center. Present budget for the Center is $38,000 with the town expected to raise 20% of this amount, not necessarily in cash, but including services, etc. Present belief now is that federal funds will be cut about 15% for the coming year.

Two Halls Men Held For Theft

Two Halls men—James Robert Forsythe, 25, and Gordon Jackson, 21—were arrested Monday and charged with grand larceny in theft of a boat, trailer, and two motors from Jimmy Chisholm, of Route 2, Halls.

Halls Police Chief Buddy Moore said the boat and equipment valued at more than $4,000 were stolen Saturday night from behind Chisholm's office on the old Air Base. Most of that was recovered.

General Sessions Judge Willard Norvell set bail at $2,000, pending a hearing at 9 a.m. Friday.

Qualifying for the August ballot were:

For Sheriff—Joe P. Beard, Billy Joe Childress, Kenny Childress, Milford Durham, Johnnie Ford, Robert L. Henry, Emery J. Kissell, and 2-term incumbent Joe B. O'Steen.

For County Executive—Incumbent Jerry N. Corlew, Ripley Mayor Rozelle Criner.

For Trustee—Former Ripley alderman Jerry Pilcher, incumbent Paul Meadows.

For Circuit Court Clerk—former sheriff Louis Craig, who first filed for the County Executive post; incumbent Richard Jennings.

Unopposed for re-election to county offices are Nolan Criner, register of deeds; Vernon McBride, Jr., County Court Clerk; and Willard Norvell, General Sessions Judge.

County Commissioners (formerly County Court members) will be elected from districts adjusted slightly (per the 1980 census) from former districts; voters should check the map published in this newspaper April 22nd, or call the Election Office, 635-2881, if in any doubt that they may need to re-register to be eligible to vote Aug. 5th.

Plans to alter some voting places (boxes) for that election have been abandoned.

Traditional voting places will be used—but those who appear for voting must be registered in the proper district electing County Commissioners—if in doubt, phone 635-2881.

Halls History

Mrs. A. G. Hargett or "Miss" Astra, as she is affectionately known, celebrated her 95th birthday March 29th. Her health is not as good as it once was, but she has a sharper mind than most of us who are much younger.

Dr. Danny Green in Dyersburg, calls her his miracle patient, as her mind and memory are so very good.

She has good and bad days, and last week, when she was having a good day, she went to Louise Thurmond's beauty shop to get a permanent wave.

While she was doing this, she told me many interesting stories about her family and Halls. She has lived here her entire life and knows more about Halls, the happenings here, and the people than anyone I know living today.

Her grandfather, R. C. (Cleve) Robinson, brought his wife, Martha, and seven children here from Mississippi, when the railroad track was being laid through Halls. He built the bridges and trestles.

When Cleve was young, he wanted to serve in the Confederate Army but was turned down because his index or gun finger had been cut off when he and his brother were cutting wood. However, he did serve with a group of vigilantes, spying and reporting on the Yankee troops as the gun boats came down the Mississippi River. This was while he was living in Mississippi.

After he moved here, when the first train was to come over the tracks, the men hitched the horses to buggies and wagons, carrying women and children to see the train. It frightened the horses so much that they broke loose from whatever they were

Mr. McDearman

Buster McDearman, 93, of Halls, died about midnight April 30th in the Lauderdale County Nursing Home in Ripley. Services were at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Matthew Zion Baptist Church in Halls, of which he was a member, with burial at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Old Chapel Cemetery.

He was born Feb. 3, 1889, to the late Tom and Rachel Thurmond McDearman.

He and his wife, Niece, had one daughter who preceded him in death.

He leaves a brother, Roosevelt Scott, of Halls; a sister, Mrs. Gogge Lee Crockett, of St. Louis, Mo.; a cousin, Miss Lucille Thurmond, who cared for him as a daughter; and three grandchildren, of Chicago, Ill.

"Man is a biped without feathers."

Many people were glad to see "Miss" Dora return to Halls, one in particular, Mrs. Horace Jordan, who had come here from Alton, Ill., to work with "Miss" Dora in her millinery shop when she was a young girl, Pearl Traube, they had studied the millinery business in St. Louis together.

After marrying Horace Jordan, she remained in Halls until her death, rearing her children here.

John moved to California, where he married and had five children. He was not in Halls many times after he left.

The youngest child, Kathryn, the only child born after the Robinsons moved to Tennessee, was spoiled by the entire family. She married a Mr. Beckwith and moved to Champaign, Ill.

"Miss" Astra said that her grandfather built many houses in Halls and vicinity. He was most proud of the First Baptist Church's frame building, near where the brick building stands today. He also helped build the Frame First Methodist Church and helped move the Christian Church from Beech Bluff to the corner of Main and Church Street, where it stood until they built the new brick church on the

REPORTS FROM WASHINGTON

Over the past several years, there has been a great deal of discussion in Washington regarding the implementation of new incentives that would attract new recruits into the armed forces. These incentives would be in addition to increases in salary that have already been approved by Congress and the administration. Among the ideas that have floated around have been special tax exemptions for armed forces personnel, some type of veterans' program that would be available to those who served as volunteers in times of peace, and several others. Just recently, one of those ideas came a step closer to becoming a reality. It is an educational program for those who enlist in the military services and who serve at least three years.

This kind of program will be closely akin to the GI Bill program that got started after World War II. It was felt that veterans of that war should be afforded an opportunity to obtain post secondary education as a result of their military service. Without a doubt, it was a huge success as many young men returning from war took the opportunity to obtain a college degree. Needless to say, the program was continued on through the Korean War and through the Vietnam War but was allowed to expire in 1976.

Its expiration took place for several reasons. First, the American military forces in 1976 were being filled by volunteers as the draft was discontinued after war withdrawal from Vietnam. Secondly, our official involvement in the hostilities in Southeast Asia had ended. However, as the number of volunteers for the services fell off some, it was felt that some kind of GI Bill type program ought to be re-established not so much as a reward for military service but as an enticement to get qualified young men and women into the services.

Last year, it appeared that it was time to begin serious consideration of this proposal and the Veterans Affairs Committee of the House approved such a bill. Their bill provided that an educational stipend of $300 per month would be paid to those who served honorably for three years of active duty or two years of active duty and four years of reserve duty. Graduates of the service academic and Reserve Officer Training Corps programs would not be eligible since their educational expenses had been paid prior to their entering the service.

However, since this proposal was devised as a recruiting enticement the House Armed Services Committee had joint jurisdiction over it. Just this past week, the Armed Services Subcommittee on Personnel took action to approve a bill similar to the Veterans Affairs bill. The biggest difference in the two bills is the change made in the amount of educational stipend that would be paid. The Subcommittee on Personnel voted 7-6 to call for a basic educational stipend of $200 a month for people who have served on active duty at least three years. The Subcommittee also agreed to provide an educational stipend for those who do not have a college education and who serve at least six years in the reserves or National Guard.

It needs to be emphasized that this program, though available to Veterans, would not be undertaken as solely a veterans program. It is a recruiting program designed to attract young people into

Mrs. Ithmer Kissell and daughter, Sandra, attended the wedding of Phillip Kissell and Lori Bryant at the Hurricane Hill Methodist Church Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Erle Kissell, of Dry Hill, and Jody Arthur, of Central, had Sunday dinner with the Ithmer Kissells.

Mr. and Mrs. Bitay Smith and grandson, T. J. Lentz, of Curve, had supper with the J. D. Smiths Friday night. Sunday guests of the Smiths were Clifton Smith, Denise Carr, Junior Smith and John Osborne, of Memphis, and Cynthia Smith, of Henning.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Phillips and daughter, Kim and Rhonda, of Curve, and Mr. and Mrs. Dana Freeman and children, Dawn and Dana, Jr., visited the Rhea Freemans during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hardy and daughter and Mrs. Ward Hardy and Jake Kitchens attended the band day celebration for the Halls High School Marching Band in Halls Saturday.

Guests of the Roy Harrison during the weekend were Dorothy Jackson and children, Kim and Fredrick, of Double Bridges, and Mrs. James Taylor and Darlene Harrison, of Halls.

Mabel Harrison spent most of last week visiting her daughters, Mrs. Robert Timbs, and family at Curve and Mrs. Mickey Elder and Mrs. Ronnie Nelson, and families in Ripley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hardy and family at Curve, the service who want a college education but might not be able to afford one on their own. The administration, up to this point, has opposed this new GI Bill because they feel that it would be too expensive and is unnecessary in view of the recent recruiting success recorded by the Armed Forces. It appears that the bill is ready to come up for full Congressional consideration very soon, and I am sure that there will be much debate on its merits and its potential for achieving its stated goals.

Tea, Fashions Treat For 70

Approximately 70 homemakers attended the Annual Dairy Tasting Tea & Fashion Revue held Wednesday, April 28, at the Farm Bureau Building in Ripley. Highlighted by the 1982 Dairy Recipe Contest featuring "International Main Dishes." Placing first in the recipe contest was Mrs. Roy Thompson of Durhamville with a Greek dish—Tropita. Other winners were Mrs. Billy Thomas, second; Mrs. Bill Chipman, third; and Mrs. Frances Hardy, honorable mention. Other participants in the recipe contest were Juanita Driver, Pauline Pappas, Gloria Hawks, Lou Anna Cahill, Janice Farmer, Martha Barnes, Cindy Carmack, Lois Gamble, Faye Williams, Gladys Vaden, and Verneadine Thompson. The winning recipes will follow. Mrs. Roy Thompson will compete in the District I Dairy Recipe Contest May 7th in Jackson.

Charles Peal, Extension Leader, gave a program on Annual & Perennial Flowers and answered many garden questions while the dishes were being judged.

He was followed by Jane Connell, Asst. Extension Agent, who gave a demonstration on covering and making shoulder pads.

The noon luncheon was followed by an afternoon Fashion Revue. The fashions featured were made by the model or someone else. Participating in the Fashion Revue were Kristen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Moore; Helen Wadsworth; Lucy Coughlan, Julia Burks, Faye Williams, Gloria Hawks, Dean Harrison, Inez Thomas, Betty Ray, Amelia Escue, with granddaughter, Lindsey; Martha Parker, Mary Parker with son Patrick, and Wanda Odell. Narrating was Mrs. Connell.

The event was sponsored by the Lauderdale County Home Demonstration Council. Mrs. Everett Harrison was chairman. She was assisted by the following committee: Set-Up and Decoration for Tasting Tea, Progressive Club; Serving, Town and Country Club; Registration of Dishes, Bexar Club; Set-Up & Decoration for Fashion Revue, Ripley Homemakers; Line-Up for Fashion Revue, Gates Club; Registration for Revue, Curve-Woodville Club; and Clean-Up, Make & Mend and Key Corner Clubs.

Mrs. Kilpatrick Club's Hostess

Mrs. Florence Norman presented a program on Aging as the Key Corner Home Demonstration Club met April 21st in the home of Mrs. John Kilpatrick.

Mrs. Lucille Burroughs, vice-president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Kilpatrick read the devotional and Mrs. Wanda O'Dell gave a report of the club activities for the last six months. Roll call was answered by something a club member had done for an elderly person or a plan to help. Mrs. Ann Swims gave a demonstration on making jelly using no sugar.

The hostess served a party plate from a dining table decorated with spring flowers. Guests of the club were members of the Forked Deer Club, Mrs. Juanita Stanley, Mrs. Bobby Clair Escue, Mrs. Mabel Humphreys, Mrs. Ellie Clark, Mrs. Elsie Hardy, and Mrs. Demetra Williams.

Monday of last week, five members took refreshments to 60 patients at Lauderdale County Nursing Home in Ripley.

COLORFUL RICE SALAD
Mrs. Bill Chipman
Third Place

1 10-oz. pkg. frozen English peas
3 cups cooked rice
1/2 cup fat diced pimiento
1/2 cups diced cooked ham
6 green onions, chopped
4 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
1/2 cup sliced pimiento, stuffed olives
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/3 cup sweet pickle relish
1/2 cup shredded (mild) cheddar cheese
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup sour cream
2 tablespoons sugar
lettuce leaves, optional
cherry tomatoes, optional

Cook peas according to package directions; drain and cool. Combine peas with next 9 ingredients; stir well. Add mayonnaise and sour cream together, then add sugar to this mixture. Tossing until well mixed, chill thoroughly. Serve on lettuce leaves and cherry tomatoes if desired. Top salad with grated parmesan cheese.

HAM & RICE CASSEROLE
Mrs. Frances Hardy
Honorable Mention

2 10 1/2-oz. cans cream of celery soup
1 cup light cream
1 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese
1/2 cup grated parmesan cheese
1/2 tablespoons minced onion
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon pepper
4 cups cooked rice seasoned with butter
4 cups cooked ham
1 10-oz. pkg. frozen green peas (cooked)
13/2-oz. can french-fried onion rings

In saucepan, combine celery soup and cream. Stir until smooth. Heat over low heat until hot. Do not boil. Stir in cheeses, blend in onion, mustard, and pepper. Remove from heat, combine sauce with rice and cubed ham. In three quart casserole, alternate layers of ham and rice mixture with green peas, ending with ham and rice mixture on top. Sprinkle top with french-fried onion rings. Bake, uncovered, at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. If family is small, divide into two casseroles and freeze one for a later meal. This is a good way to use left over ham. Add a lettuce salad, and baked apples for a complete meal.

Serves 10 servings.

Canidate for SHERIFF

AUG. 5, 1982

Your Vote & Support Appreciated

THE CANDIDATE WHO BELIEVES:

- The sheriff of Lauderdale County should reunite and work with all law enforcement agencies, including the local police departments, Highway Patrol, TBI, FBI, constables, and agencies of surrounding counties. The Sheriff should also maintain a good working relationship with the judges and their respective courts.
- There has been an excessive turn over of employees in the Sheriff's department in the past. This is costing hundreds of dollars to train each new employee and could be eliminated by carefully screening and interviewing each applicant before hiring them.
- We should have deputies who are established residents of our county. We have qualified people living here in Lauderdale county who know the county and would be an asset to our sheriff's department. I feel a person representing our county should be of high moral character and maintain a code of ethics in all situations.
- The Sheriff's office should be returned to the courthouse, with the courts consent, so that it will be available to all citizens. It has been brought to my attention that because of the environment of the present office at the jail, some citizens have been reluctant to bring their complaints to the attention of the sheriff.
- The sheriff, as an employee of the county, should be available to the people at all times, and should welcome calls and suggestions so that he may serve more efficiently. This service should be rendered with GOOD COMMON SENSE AND FAIRNESS to all.
- During these recessionary times the sheriff's department should tighten it's belt, just as every citizen has been asked to do. The budget of the sheriff's department has increased 280% during the last six years.
- Due to the lack of activity available to the youth of our country, the sheriff should be instrumental in initiating safety programs for them. These programs would include; a gun safety program for those interested in hunting, a water safety program for those interested in fishing and water sports, and a drug awareness program presented by trained instructors.
- The sheriff should attempt to work out an agreement with the State of Tennessee and the circuit judge, whereas non-violent and short term inmates of the jail would work a forty hour week, under supervision, cleaning and picking up trash along the county roads. A neighboring county has such a program which is quite successful.
- The services of the sheriff's department should be rendered promptly in all cases, without prejudice to the nature of the complaint. All calls are considered legitimate by the complainant and should be treated as such by the sheriff's department.
- Much has been said concerning the drug problem in Lauderdale county. The sheriff should work with all local law enforcement agencies, the Tennessee Bureau Narcotics squad, who will assist any county upon request, the juvenile officer, and any authorized professional narcotic investigator to halt the drug traffic in our county. DRUGS MUST BE STOPPED!!!

Nankipoo Couple Enjoyed Smokies
By Mrs. Fleetwood Cates
NANKIPOO, May 4 — The C. L. Brays have spent ten days in the Smokies and with their son, M. L. Bray, and his wife in Knoxville. They attended an alumni banquet at Harrison-Chilhowee Academy in Seymour, and The Rev. Mr. Bray preached in Grassy Valley Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Cates, of Tampa, Fla., are visiting here. Mrs. Laura Frances Domm, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Crockett Raines, of Nashville, have spent two weeks in their house at Halls and visited here. With Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gates, John Harrison, and Mrs. Kathleen Littles, of Memphis, they attended Enon Baptist Church.

Mrs. Margie Edwards, of Memphis, spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Harvey Viar, and Mr. Viar.

Mrs. Kate Covington spent last week in Memphis with her grandchildren of the Alan Hammett and Jerry Hatafield families.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cates spent Thursday and Friday with the Thomas Griffins in Somerville.

Mrs. Jimmy Hansford, of Halls, visited Mrs. Douglas Collins Monday.

Dusting requires clean, dry, hemmed cloth. Dirty cloths can damage wood finishes and unhemmed dusters leave lint.

DOG CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

The Lauderdale County Health Department, in co-operation with the City Police, will conduct a one-day campaign to clean out stray dogs and unwanted dogs on May 20th, 1982. Also, a check will be made to find out how many dogs have been vaccinated and registered.

During this one day all dog owners are asked to either keep dogs up, or have current tags attached to their collars. This will help the rabies office and city officials in the dog pick-up. Dogs running at large without current tags will be picked up and brought to the dog pound at Ripley.

We ask the co-operation of all citizens in Halls in this campaign.

CINDY VAN ZANDT, of Memphis, seated, bride-elect of Charles T. Dyer, of Halls, was honored at tea Sunday in the country home near Double Bridges, of Mrs. Poston Arwood, standing second from right. Special guests were, from left, Mrs. Leonard Van Zandt, of Clinton, Miss., mother of the honoree, Mrs. Neil Dyer, of Halls, mother of the groom; and Mrs. Leonard Fulmer, of Gulfport, Miss., grandmother of Miss Van Zandt. Other hostesses were Mrs. Douglas Cherry, Mrs. Gerald Cherry, Mrs. C. G. Dyer, Mrs. Holice Gilliland, Mrs. Darriel Hilliard, Mrs. Phillip Hurt, Mrs. Hal Pennington, Mrs. Jerry Puckett, Mrs. Eugene Pugh, Mrs. Charles R. Viar, Mrs. James Voss, and Mrs. E. B. Williams. They gave the honoree a lamp with pleated shade.

Her corsage and those of the honored guests were of silk daisies tied with satin. Guests enjoyed apricot punch, cake squares, mints, nuts, and strawberries from a table centered with a tall silk arrangement in shades of yellow and apricot. They were served by Mrs. Arwood's daughters, Celia and Anita, of Memphis.

Mrs. Mark Barger, of Greenwood, Miss., bridal attendant, entertained at luncheon in the Knickerbocker Restaurant in Memphis Saturday. Places were marked with miniature flowering plants in pots covered in pastel colored fabric. Centering the long table was an arrangement of mixed spring flowers in a low footed crystal bowl. Twenty guests enjoyed a fresh fruit and chicken salad plate, served with hot rolls and butter, pound cake topped with hot vanilla sauce and whipped cream, and coffee or tea. The hostess pinned yellow daisy corsages for Miss Van Zandt; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fulmer, and the groom's aunt, Mrs. C. G. Dyer, of Halls. The party gift was a selection in lingerie.

Few expecting comfort
Only 30 percent of Americans expect their retirement income to enable them to live comfortably, according to a nationwide survey by the American Council of Life Insurance. An additional 21 percent said their retirement income will probably just cover living expenses, and 11 percent felt they wouldn't have enough to live on.

Johnnie Ford For Sheriff

Having been a City of Ripley policeman for 8 1/2 years, I understand the drug problem we have in our county. I will work hard to get the pushers. I have more ideas on this that I would like to talk to each of you about personally.

If elected, I will choose a group of citizens from each community to serve on a committee. We will meet monthly or bi-monthly to discuss the problems they are having in their community and to talk about things that I need to be doing in their community. The committee will be made of all races, equally rationed men and women.

I will be a sheriff whom everyone, of all races, of all ages, can talk to and trust.

Since I plan to live in Lauderdale County for the rest of my life, I will do nothing that would disgrace my family, my friends, and the people of Lauderdale County.

I would appreciate your vote and influence on Aug. 5th.

Anyone that needs to register to vote, I will be happy to come to your house and register you. Call 635-1620 or 635-1469 at night. Leave your name and address and I will be there as soon as possible.

On Ballot

JUDGE JERRY N. CORLEW this week announces formally his candidacy for re-election as County Executive. The title County Judge was changed by Constitutional Convention in 1978 to County Executive.

He is married and has three children, two of whom are married, and one grandchild. He is a member of Ripley Church of Christ.

He was born and reared in Halls and was graduated from Halls High School. He is a graduate of Freed-Hardeman College and holds the bachelor of arts degree from Union University and master degrees from Middle Tennessee State University and the University of Alabama. He has worked thirteen years in the field of education as teacher and counselor. He has served as vice-president, president-elect, and president of the Lauderdale County Education Association.

During 1953-57, he served in the Naval Reserve and on active duty with the Navy, receiving an honorable discharge.

Since 1968, he has been a member of the Ripley Exchange Club and has served as secretary and member of the Board of Directors.

From 1972 to 1974, he was chairman of the Lauderdale County Cancer Drive. For several years, he has been on the board of the Lauderdale County Cancer Unit and has served one 2-year term on the state board of the American Cancer Society's Tennessee Division.

In 1974, he was elected County Judge. During this term, he has gained the respect of fellow judges throughout the state. He was elected Chairman of this area's development district, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee Council of Governments/Memphis Delta Development District. During 1980-81, he served as President of the Tennessee Council of Juvenile Court Judges. He is now serving as President of the County Judges/County Executives Association and is a member of the board of the Tennessee County Services Association, an organization which works for the welfare of local government in Tennessee.

"I have conscientiously worked full time in doing the job," he says. "I believe in good government and that one good term deserves another to continue the progress now being made for this county."

"I appreciate the confidence bestowed in me by the people of Lauderdale County when electing me to the office of County Judge. Your influence, support, and vote for the re-election of Jerry N. Corlew as County Executive will be greatly appreciated."

1974, when he was elected Sheriff of Lauderdale County for one term, 1974-76. He then served as an agent for the Alcohol and Beverage Commission until 1978. He is now active in the real estate and rental business. Son of past General Sessions Judge Odean Craig, he is married to the former Marilyn Bruce and the father of two children, Mike, 18, and Melissa, 13. He is a member of Mary's Chapel Baptist Church and a former member of the Lauderdale County Jaycees. "I humbly solicit your vote and support," he says.

Halls Band Rated 2nd In Humboldt

Halls High School's Golden Tiger Marching Band placed second in Class B in the Humboldt Strawberry Festival Friday. Camden placed first among 12 bands competing.

Recent donations to the band have been made by the Joe Beards, the Charles Moores, and the Andy Pughs. Halls Band Boosters will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in the high school band room.

Student Ambassadors

DONNA, daughter of the Paul E. Langleys, of Ripley, a nursing student in Memphis State University, has been elected to the Student Ambassadors Board—50 students aiding in fund-raising, student recruitment, and hosting university events. She is recording secretary of Alpha Gamma Delta and a Little Sister of Sigma Chi and has been on the Election Commission of Student Government.

JOHN HALE, JR., whose parents reside on Route 1, Gates, has been named to the Undergraduate Alumni Council of the University of Tennessee in Martin, where he is a sophomore in pre-medical studies. The council leads campus tours and aids in student recruitment, alumni receptions, and other projects.

Rites Lament Sheriff's Wife

Louise Osteen, 61, wife of Sheriff Joe B. Osteen, of Ripley, died Saturday, at home. Services were at 4 p.m. Sunday in First Baptist Church, with burial in Memorial Gardens.

She also leaves a son, Joe, Jr., of Portland, and three daughters, JoAnn (Mrs. Robert J.) Stolarick, of Halls, Mrs. Laura Jean McCutchen, of Seawater, and Mrs. Linda Louise Stout, of Vicksburg, Miss.

Diseases Hurt County Wheat

Continuation of the cool, damp weather has accelerated the wheat disease problem of Lauderdale and other West Tennessee Counties. Upon examination of the many fields, heavy infestations of leaf diseases, as well as powdery mildew, are still being found.

Some fields we have examined in the uplands in particular on thin eroded soils will have yields cut 50-75%.

Not all fields are affected. Those on better land that have been fertilized well, seem to have a healthy green color and the heads are of good size. One of the characteristics of the disease is complete destruction of plant leaves.

Producers should examine their wheat carefully and if the heads are rather small and prospects for the yield are dim then serious consideration should be given to putting this land in soybeans. We have seen some fields that should have been done this way.

On April 29th, the Tennessee Department of Agriculture cleared the material, Benlate, to be used on wheat in Tennessee for powdery mildew. It can be applied at the rate of 1/2 pound in combination with 1 1/2 pounds of either Manzate 200 or Diathane M45 for the control of leaf rust and other leaf diseases. This can be applied by aircraft at the rate of five gallons of water per acre. Repeat the same application 10 days later.

Some of our wheat has rust and other leaf diseases only. In this case apply the Manzate or Diathane alone, two applications ten days apart. If needing to spray for powdery mildew only, apply 1/2 pound of Benlate per acre with no repeat application. Use a spreader sticker in all types of applications.

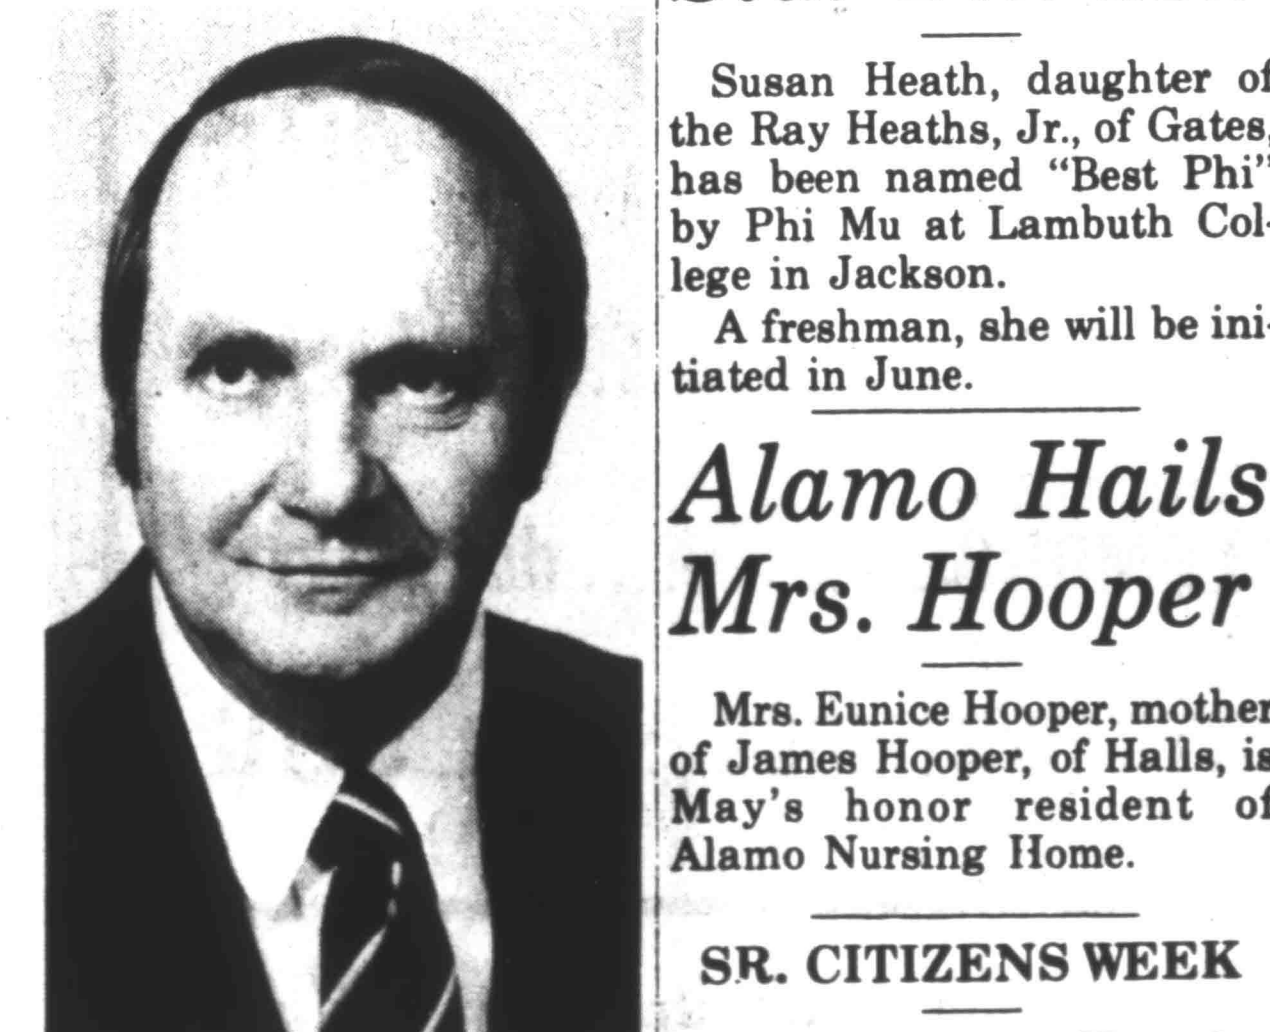

Cutworms Attack Tomatoes
 Vester Voss is having problems with cutworms on newly set tomato plants. This is the same story for gardeners as well.

Sevin in dust form can be applied around each plant or 50% wettable powder can be purchased and sprayed around each individual plant with three gallon sprayer. Care should be taken when using the three gallon sprayer to put enough insecticide to saturate the area so that the cutworm will be sure to get it. Also, it might be advisable to increase the rate of wettable powder to about three tablespoons to the gallon. Soil has a way of rendering insecticides less effective. If you apply dust, be sure to get it.

THREE BOYS TOOK TOP HONORS in the Halls High School's Class of 1982. David, center, son of the Cary Corlews, of Halls, is valedictorian, with an average of 97.88; Kurt, right, son of the Jamie Browns, of Halls, salutatorian, with 97.60; and Auguster Hartfield, jr., left, whose parents are residents of Route 2, Halls, historian, 97.04. Other top ten students and their averages are, in center photo, from left, seated, Allyson Nolen, 94.48; Gina Medlock, 94.75; Suzanne Hurt, 95.02; Luanne Manuel, 96.13; Sudonna Wiley, 94.50; standing, Conley Wright, 95.64, and Jeff Baker, 94.23. CARD OF THANKS The family of Mrs. Joe O'Steen wishes to extend our most sincere appreciation for your many expressions of kindness and sympathy shown during the long period of illness. We are grateful for the many prayers sent up by individuals, groups, and entire churches in her behalf. These prayers meant much to the entire family. Your many cards and phone calls letting her know that she was in your thoughts and prayers meant so much to her. The love you expressed by bringing food to our family helped us so much. It is times like these that we truly appreciate our friends. We also deeply appreciate the many beautiful flowers, the hundreds of Gideon Memorial Bibles, and the donations to the Cancer Fund sent from individuals, groups, and entire communities. Louise was sick for over a year, yet your faithfulness never wavered during the difficult time. We love you for it. The Family

Thank You My family and I are grateful for the excellent medical attention administered at Lauderdale Hospital, Inc.; to Dr. A. J. Butler for the referral to Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis; and to the ambulance crew and nurse who brought me to Memphis. My treatment at Baptist Hospital was of the highest professional caliber. We are thankful for all the calls, flowers, fruit, cards, and especially the prayers in my behalf. With proper diet, exercise, and medication, my doctors have assured me that I can resume my normal activities within a short time. In appreciation, JERRY N. CORLEW

To The People Of Lauderdale County: A few weeks ago I announced my candidacy for Sheriff of Lauderdale County. However, due to the unforeseen and uncontrollable circumstances of April 25th, I have withdrawn my name from the ballot. I have two minor daughters and it is my love and concern for them and their well-being that is of utmost importance to me at this time. I must make myself available to them, as our time together is so important during this period of readjustment. It is my hope that the decision I have made will build-up your confidence in me. If at some future time the opportunity arises for me to serve the people of this county, under more favorable circumstances you can depend on me to be ready and willing to serve. I would also like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to those of you that stood behind me in this short campaign. May I assure each of you that your confidence and influence will not be forgotten. Most Sincerely, Billy Joe Childress

To The Citizens Of Lauderdale County:

On March 1st, I announced my candidacy for sheriff of Lauderdale County. It is my goal to see each of you before election day to ask for your vote and support for this office. My goals for this office, if elected, are: 1. To take charge of the law enforcement duties prescribed by law and do the things necessary to preserve the peace and dignity of our county. 2. To serve ALL citizens, regardless of age or race, 24 hours a day, at your convenience, not mine. 3. To work WITH the youth of our county, not AGAINST them, in solving the problems they face today. 4. To have harmonious working relations with law enforcement agencies in our county and surrounding counties. I take this opportunity to ask for your vote and support. If you have any questions, you may call me at night at 738-5466. Thank you, ROBERT L. HENRY

DOG CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN IN GATES

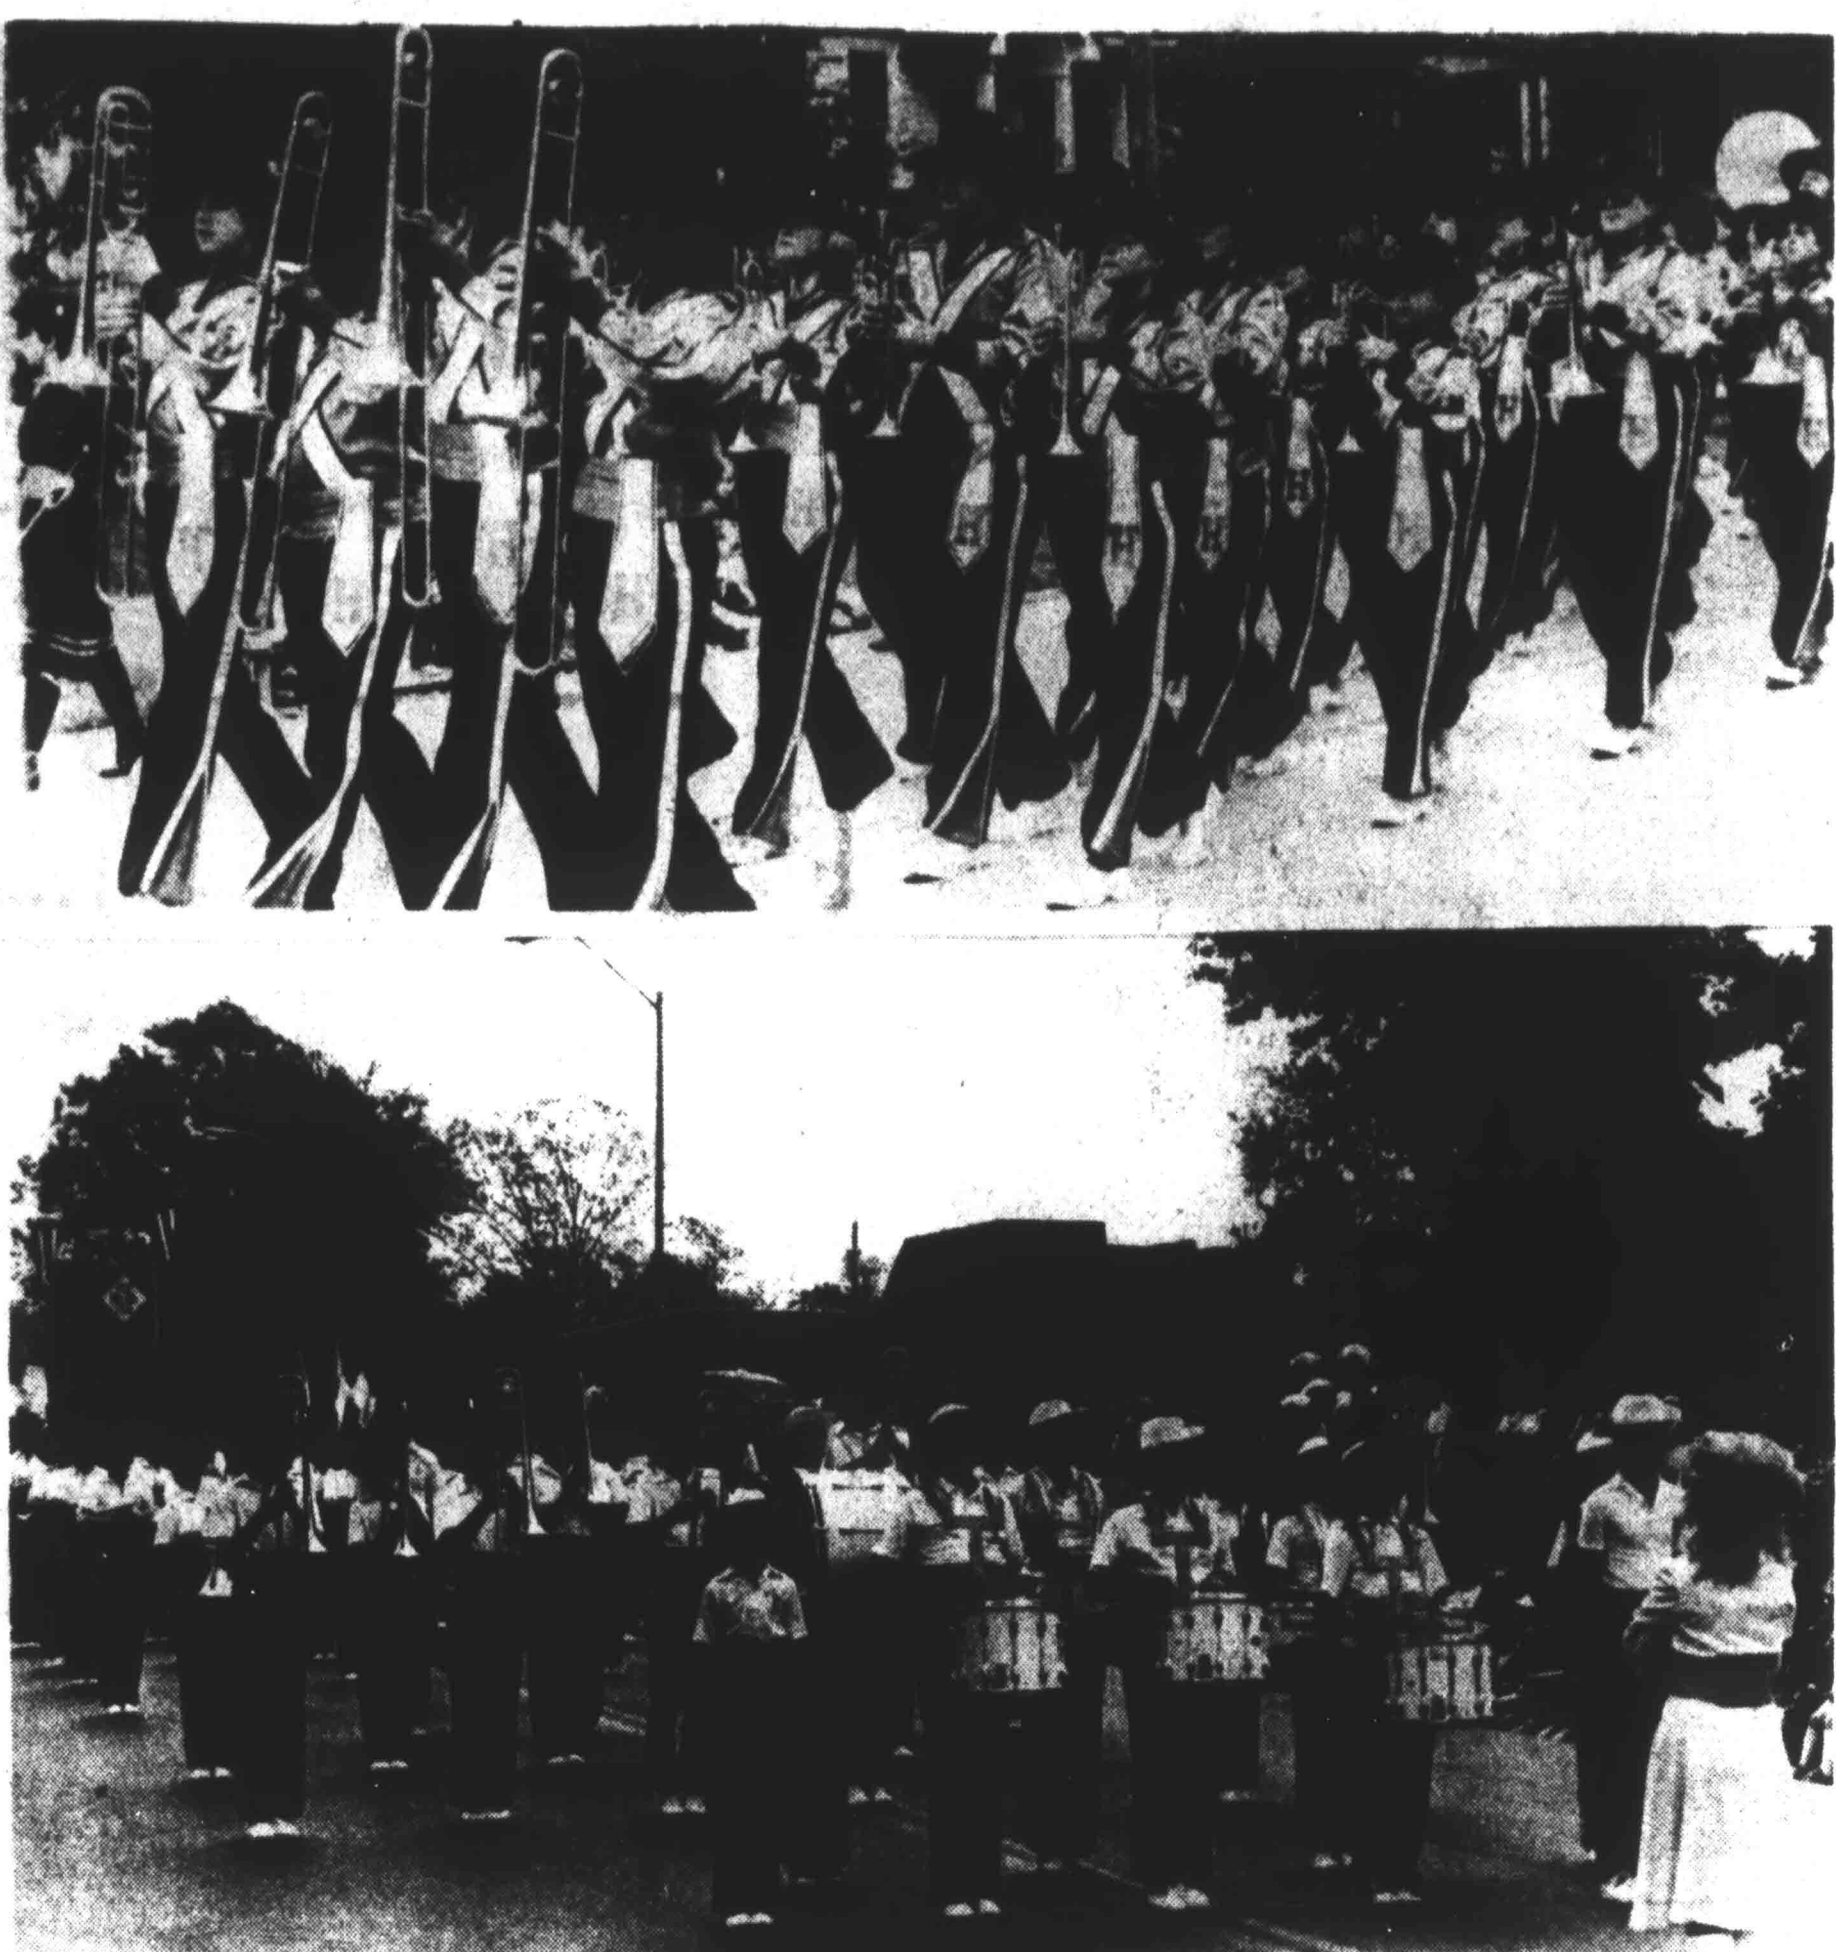

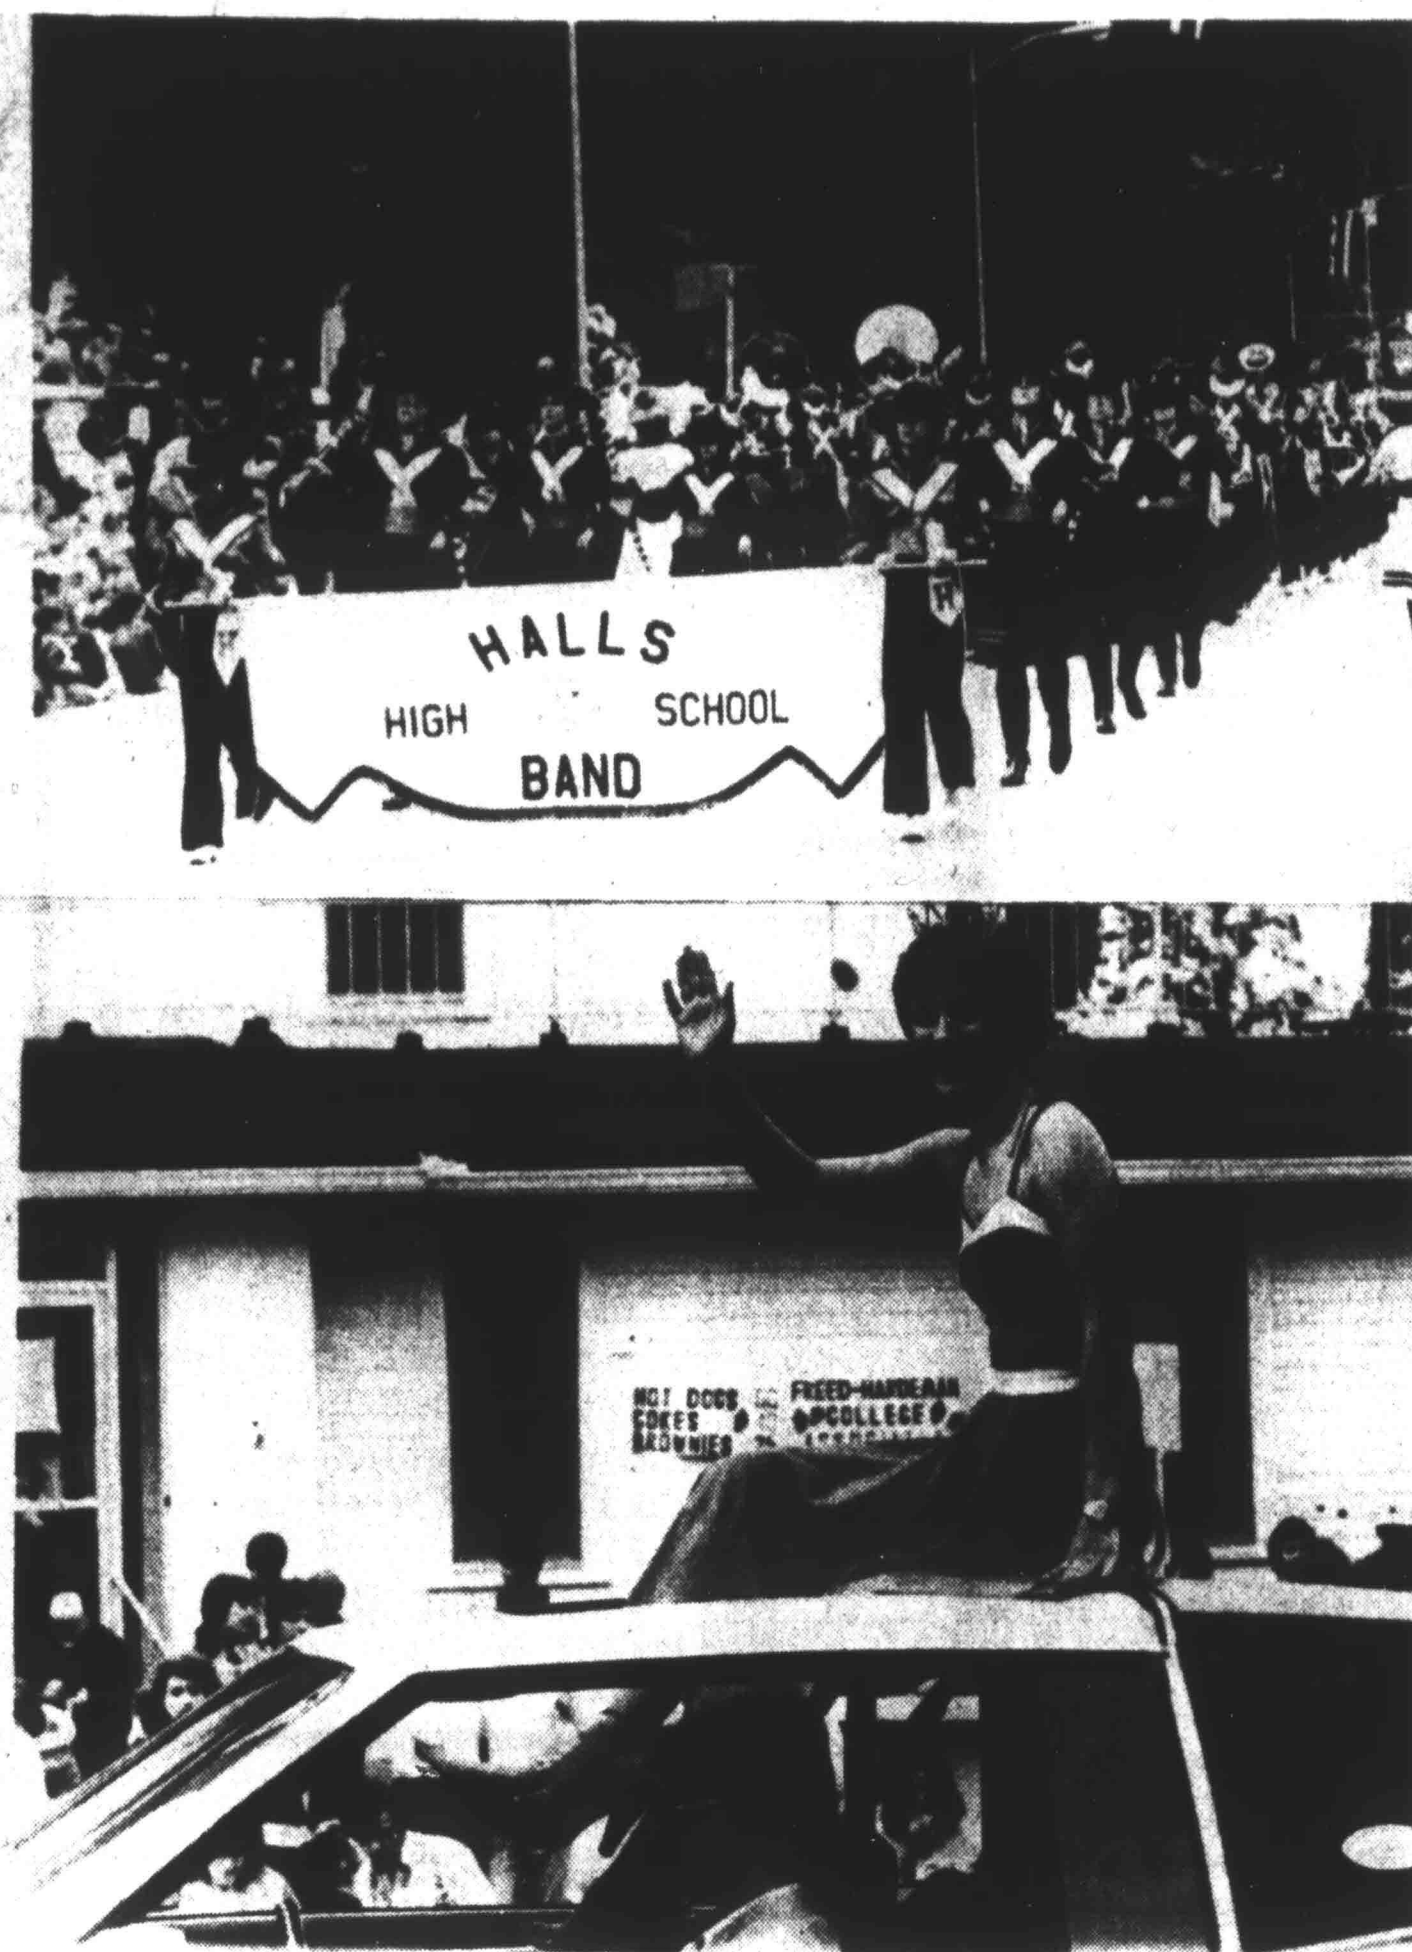

The Lauderdale County Health Department, in cooperation with the City Police, will conduct a one-day campaign to clean out stray dogs and unwanted dogs on May 27th, 1982. Also, a check will be made to find out how many dogs have been vaccinated and registered.

During this one day all dog owners are asked to either keep dogs up, or have current tags attached to their collars. This will help the rabies office and city officials in the dog pick-up. Dogs running at large without current tags will be picked up and brought to the dog pound at Ripley.

We ask the co-operation of all citizens in Gates in this campaign.

Halls Banquet Hails Payrolls

The Halls Merchants Association and the Town of Halls will honor Halls and Lauderdale County industries with a banquet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Halls Elementary School cafeteria.

Speaker for the annual event will be John Parish, Commissioner of the State Department of Economic and Community Development.

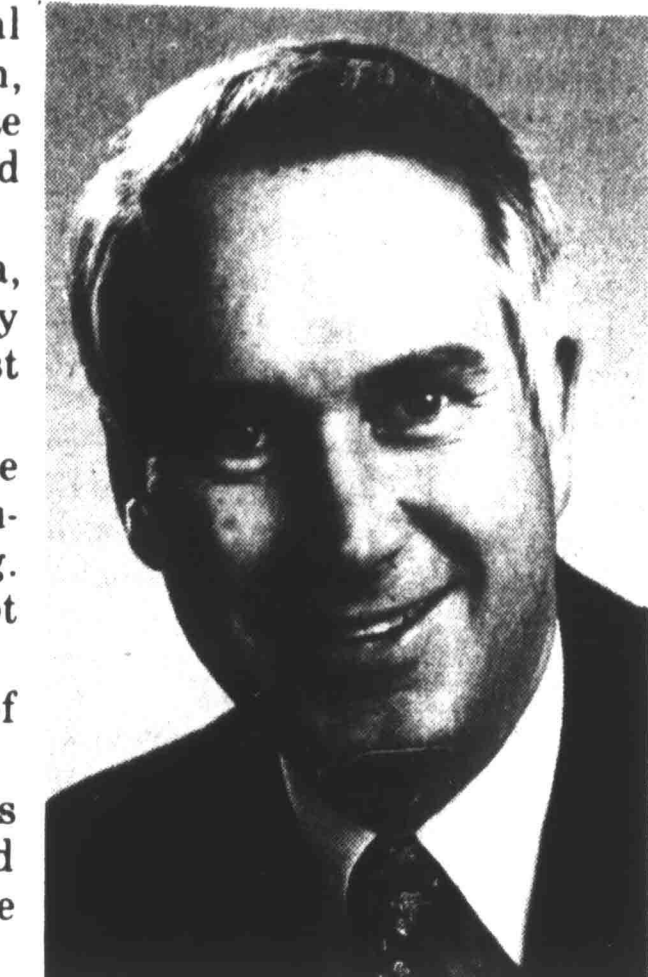

Mr. Parish, of Tullahoma, was named Commissioner by Gov. Lamar Alexander last March.

He took a leave of absence as President and Chief Executive Officer of Lannom Mfg. Co., of Tullahoma, to accept the appointment.

Steve Levy will be master of ceremonies.

Several out-of-town officers of Tupperware Co. and Anderson-Hickey Co. are expected as special guests.

Representatives of industries from throughout the county as well as county and city officials have accepted invitations to attend.

Sun's Beams Aid Farmers

By Charles T. Peal
Sunshine last week warmed the soil to allow completion of cotton planting and aid cotton already planted.

Corn seems to be growing well, and many acres of grain sorghum have been planted.

Tomato growers breathed a sigh of relief when plants began to develop more rapidly after the cold, damp weather they had been through.

The wheat situation seems about the same. Diseases will cut yields.

Lake County traps show army worms building up; wheat growers should eye a square foot or so, and then look for worms on the ground.

The county Extension office will keep tab on this threat and publicize any recommendations.

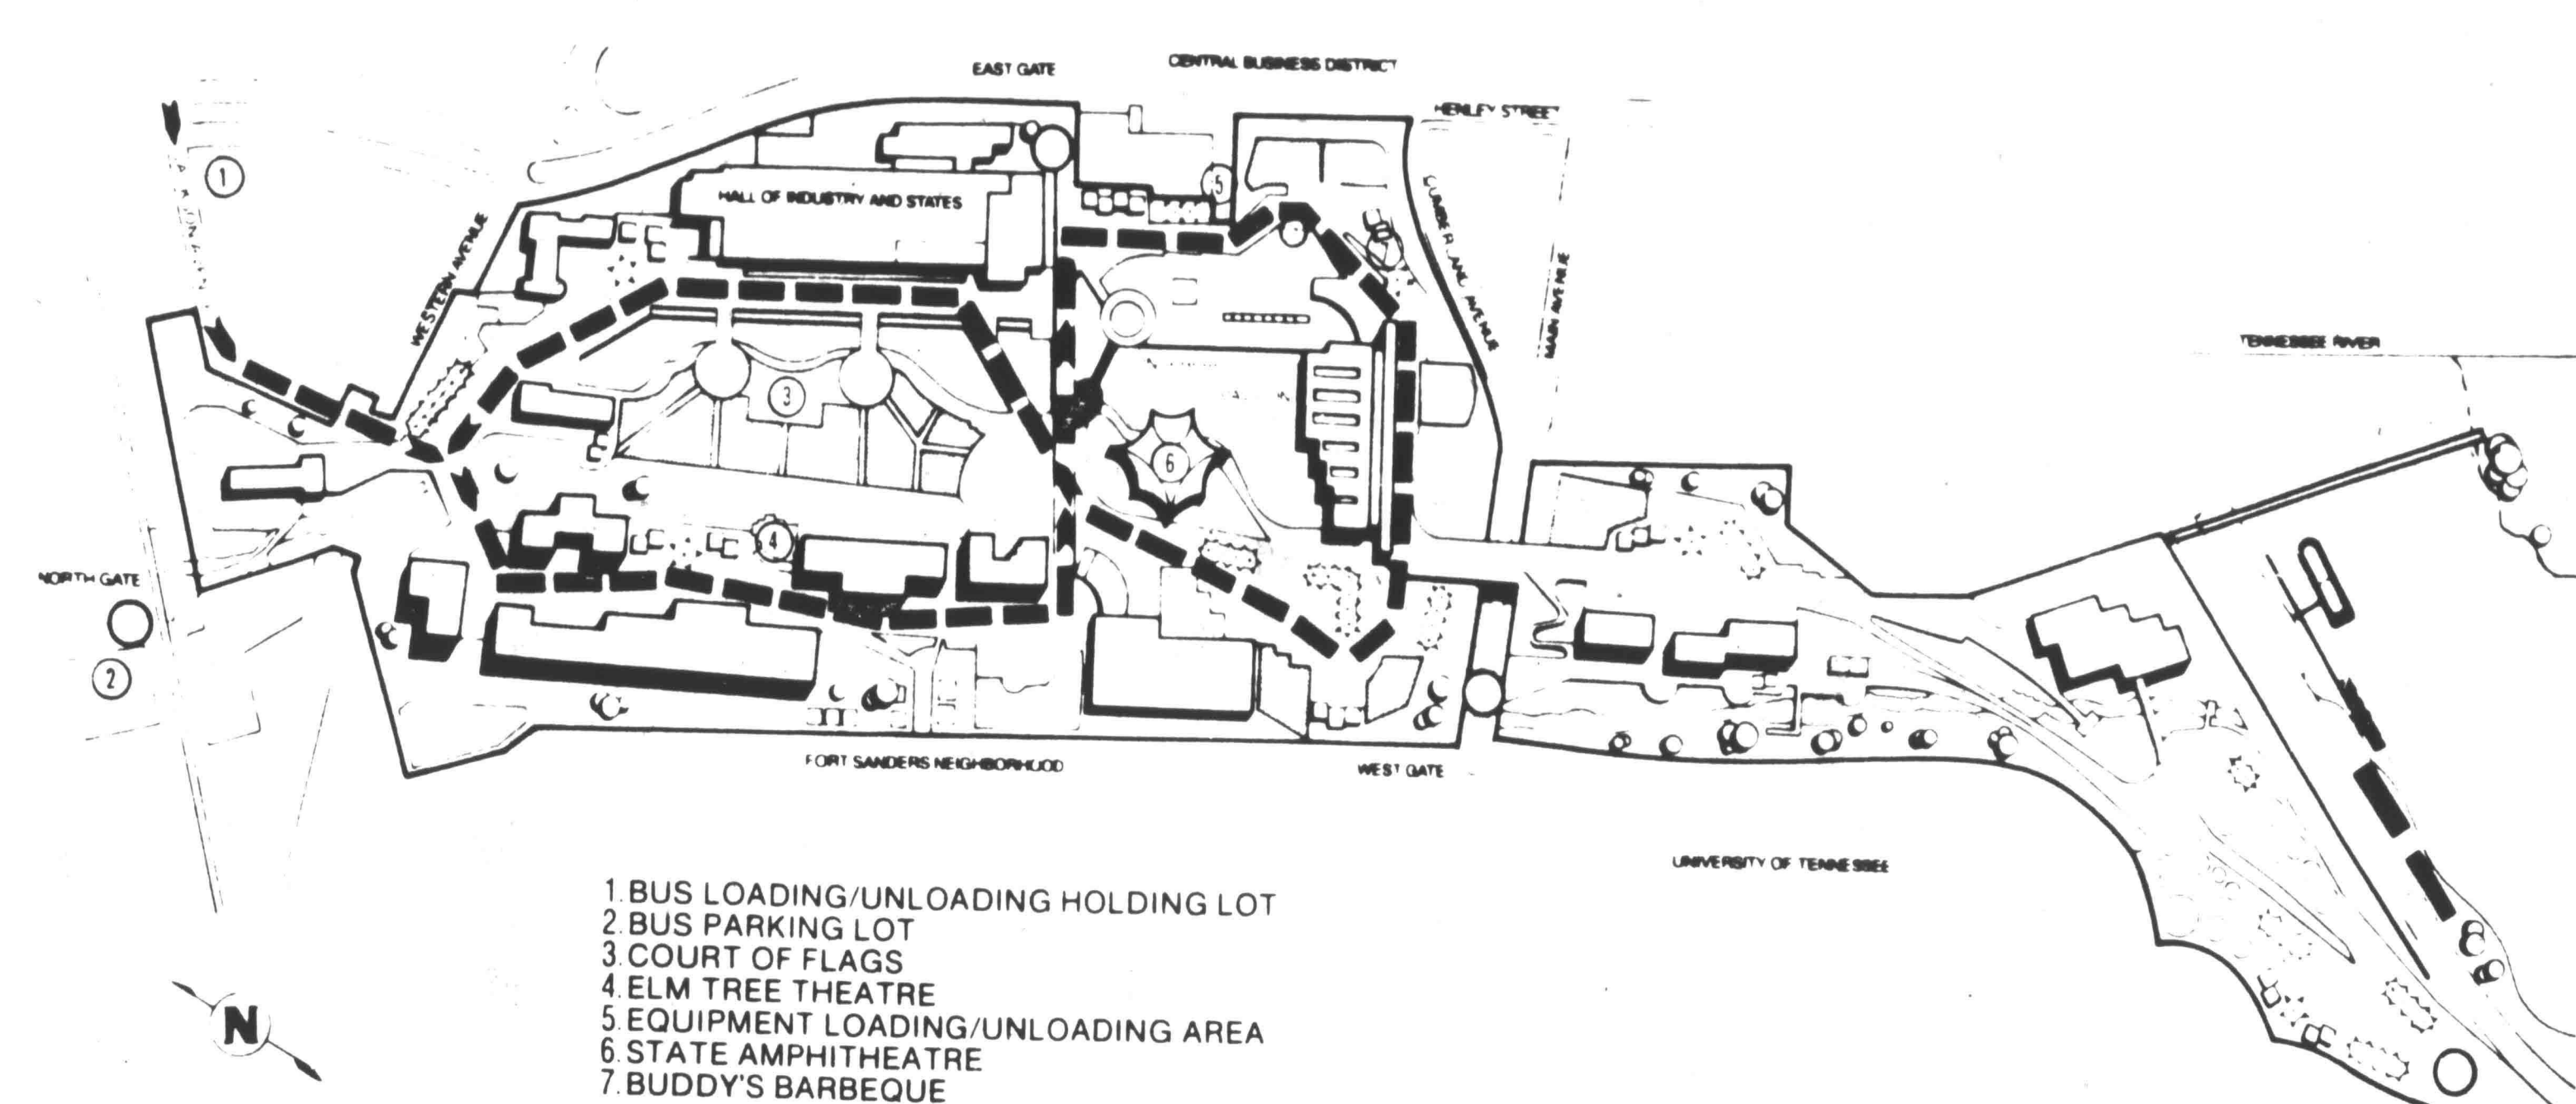

Soy bean growers, constantly seeking cost reductions in expectation of lower prices, prepared land for pre-plant chemical applications.

They must beware bean leaf beetles — medium size, tan to reddish, with a black triangle just behind the neck.

Seedling beans may be damaged seriously if unchecked for this foliar-feeder.

Control with Sevin 50WP at 1/2 pound active ingredient per acre in 20 gallons of water.

Cut-worms may be a problem on corn; control with Lorsban 4E at two pints per acre, applied broadcast in 15 to 20 gallons of water.

Halls Awards 104 Diplomas

Tractor Claims Pat Gay's Life

Pat Gay, 41, Ripley alderman and Clerk and Master of Chancery Court in this county, was found dead, about 10 p.m. Monday, of head injuries from a tractor he was riding a few hundred yards from the spot where his sister-in-law, Mrs. Billy Joe Childress, was fatally injured April 25th when two mules she was driving drug her several hundred feet under a sled.

Gay's body was found by Mr. Childress and Don Brasfield after he failed to return to his home.

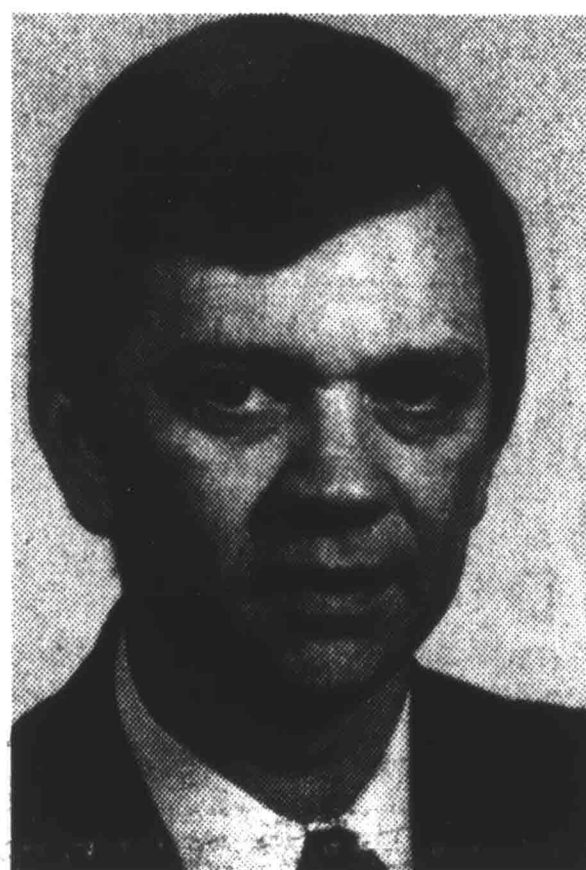

The Ford 5000 tractor was in a creek ditch, idling in first gear, with a 6-ft. disc raised, according to chief deputy sheriff B. V. Hutcherson.

Services were at 3 p.m. Wednesday in White field Assembly of God Church, of which he had been Sunday School superintendent and secretary-treasurer.

Interment was in Grace Cemetery.

He was a member of Ripley Exchange Club.

Johnnie Ford For Sheriff

Having been a City of Ripley policeman for 8 1/2 years, I understand the drug problem we have in our county. I will work hard to get the pushers. I have more ideas on this that I would like to talk to each of you about personally.

If elected, I will choose a group of citizens from each community to serve on a committee. We will meet monthly or bi-monthly to discuss the problems they are having in their community and to talk about things that I need to be doing in their community. The committee will be made of all races, equally ratioed men and women.

I will be a sheriff whom everyone, of all races, of all ages, can talk to and trust.

Since I plan to live in Lauderdale County for the rest of my life, I will do nothing that would disgrace my family, my friends, and the people of Lauderdale County.

I would appreciate your vote and influence on Aug. 5th.

Anyone that needs to register to vote, I will be happy to come to your house and register you. Call 635-1620 or 635-1469 at night. Leave your name and address and I will be there as soon as possible.

Baker Named Falcon Coach

C. B. "Butch" Baker, son of the C. B. Bakers, of Gates, has been named football coach at Lake County High School in Tiptonville.

He succeeds Cliff Sturdivant, recently named principal of the school.

Baker has been an assistant football at LCHS for the past nine years and basketball coach for three years.

He will drop his duties as basketball coach.

Baker attended Halls High School and the University of Tennessee in Martin.

Before going to Tiptonville, he coached freshman football in Humboldt High School.

The Henry Murchisons attended a choral concert at Whitesburg Middle School in Huntsville, Ala., Thursday of last week. Their granddaughter, Wendy Murchison, was one of the featured singers.

Another granddaughter, Michelle Murchison, was at the piano. The Murchisons were joined in Huntsville by the Buddy Murchisons, of Lafayette, Ga.

The Charles Alsbrooks and their guests, Leslie A. Sullivan, Jr., and John Sullivan, of Lake Charles, La., and Miss Stacey Coulter, of Forest City, Fla., visited Mrs. Alsbrook's brother, Lawson Spence, Sunday in Baptist Hospital in Memphis. William Spence, of Sweetwater, also was a visitor during the weekend. The group attended the wedding Saturday of Lawson Spence's daughter, Lucinda, and Michael Mason, of Oxford, Miss., in First United Methodist Church in Dyersburg. Others from Halls attending the wedding and reception at Dyersburg Country Club were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Spence and Mr. and Mrs. Will Spence.

Mrs. Wynona Hurt, Mrs. J. T. Connell, Mrs. H. G. McCorkle, Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Donald Hogue and children, LeAnne and Allen, Mrs. Marcus Spiller and son, Scott, and Miss Lynn Edens attended Mark Branson's vocal recital Tuesday evening at Union University in Jackson. Mr. Branson is minister of music for Halls First Baptist Church.

The Harold Bakers, of Jackson, and the Bernards Bakers, of Germantown, visited their mother, Mrs. Robert Baker, during the weekend.

Jason, and Mrs. Ruby Davis, of Halls, and Tilford Woodard, of Memphis.

L. Newsome is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Newsome, of Knoxville, and the grandson of the Woodards.

The group also attended the rehearsal dinner and the reception.

Red geraniums around the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Crifield on West Main Street were selected this week for the Halls Garden Club beauty spot sign.

The first opera was Dufne, with libretto by Ottavio Rinuccini and music by Jacopo Peri. It was originally performed at the Palazzo Corsi in Florence early in 1597, although the exact date is unknown.

The distinctive sound of the Scottish bagpipe will echo through the mountains in East Tennessee this spring as the first Great Smoky Mountain-Gatlinburg Highland Games is celebrated May 21-23 in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

This colorful Scottish festival is ideally suited for the resort town of Gatlinburg. The scenic mountain setting bears a strong resemblance to Scotland and, in addition, an estimated 60% of East Tennesseans have a wee bit of Scottish blood running through their veins.

This pageantry-filled social gathering encourages the wearing of traditional Highland dress such as kilts (the traditional knee-length, pleated skirt for men) and tartan material (colorful plaid patterns). More than 30 clans (people with the same Scottish surname) are expected and Scottish customs will be promoted through athletic contests, music and dance competition, native foods, and merchandise. Scots and non-Scots alike are welcome to participate in these flavorful activities. The festival will be held at Mills Park, two miles north of Gatlinburg.

The carnival-like sights and sounds of what promises to be an extraordinary weekend begin Friday night as a vivid parade marches through town. Following this, a two and one half hour Ceilidh (pronounced kay-lee) - which is similar to a variety show - features singer-guitarist Grant Adams of Scotland. A Scottish country dance exhibition will also be performed Friday night.

Starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, the bagpipe, drum, and Highland dance competition beginns. The bagpipe has been popular in Scotland for more than 500 years, and the shrill 'o' pipes will be heard from at least eight different bands, all dressed in full regalia. The distinctive sound of a bagpipe is caused by combining three drones, or sustained tones, with a chanter, a melody playing pipe. Curiously, no sharps or flats can be obtained on this instrument. Consequently, some songs like The Star Spangled Banner can't be played on the bagpipe.

Throughout the day, men and women participate in a Highland dance competition. Highland dances date back to the 12th century and are expressions of both personal and social emotions. They require natural poise, precise movements and the ability to perform intricate steps. Three of the most popular dances are the Highland fling, sword dance, and homprie.

Sewer traditional Highland athletic events will be held and they are as unique to Scotland as the bagpipes and the tartan. Probably the most famous of all the athletic events is the caber toss. The object is to heave a caber (a 16- to 20-foot wooden pole weighing about 100 pounds) end over end over end in a straight line.

Other events include various weight throws, wrestling, a one-mile kilt race and a sheaf toss where 16 pounds of hay enclosed in a burlap bag is thrust with a pitch fork over a bar.

"First timers" are invited to compete with seasoned athletes. Numerous prizes will be awarded and all participants will receive a red souvenir T-shirt. In addition, any killed participant may compete in the "bonniest knees" competition - a laugh-producing event where seven blindfolded females use their tactile ability to judge men's knees. Kilts will be provided for all who wish to enter.

Fascinating demonstrations showing the uncanny ability of border collies to guide and control sheep will be held both mornings and afternoons. Throughout the weekend, vendors will sell ethnic foods, and native items like tartan material and bagpipes may be purchased. Clan and ancestral information will be provided to interested parties.

Saturday evening a tartan reception, banquet and ball, informal Ceilidh and Scottish Country Dancing take place in town.

The next day, a Sunday morning worship service is set for 10 a.m. on the grounds, followed by a kirking of the tartans - moving ceremonial blessing of the tartans and the clans they represent.

More competitions continue Sunday afternoon. One unusual activity not to be missed is the women's heggis hurling event. Heggis is a tasty spiced pudding made of sheep entrails. A spirited tug of war among the clans occurs before the closing awards ceremony.

The admission price is $5 Friday, $5 Saturday and $4 Sunday for adults. Children 6-12 years of age will be admitted for $2 each day, and children under six will be admitted free. Camping and motel reservations should be made as soon as possible.

For more information about the Highland Games and related activities or lodging, contact the Gatlinburg Chamber of Commerce (615-436-4178) or the Department of Tourist Development, Room T, Box 23170, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our deepest and most sincere appreciation for the food, calls, visits, prayers and cards during the loss of our "little loved one," Shelly Selen McLemore. We would also like to thank Bro. Dillard West for his kind and comforting words. He was a true blessing to our family in our time of need. We would also like to thank the Halls Funeral Home for helping us with the arrangements. Your kindness and love will always be remembered. God bless each and every one of you who cared so much during our time of need.

Mrs. Ross Dyer, of Halls, and Mrs. Thomas R. Dyer, of Memphis, were hostesses Saturday at luncheon in the University Club in Memphis for Miss Cindy Van Zandt, bride-elect of Charles T. Dyer. Miss Van Zandt wore a sun dress in red cotton with flared skirt and white jacket. Guests were served beverages in the library. The table, overlaid with white, was centered with white, yellow-centered daisies in a wicker basket. A salad plate was served with hot breads and butter, iced tea, and an ice cream parfait. Hostesses gave Miss Van Zandt a crystal water pitcher in the Primrose pattern. Mrs. Neil A. Dyer, of Halls, the groom's mother, and Mrs. Elbert Edwards, of Whitehaven, his cousin, were special guests.

Sugar and smoking, the tooth will out

Two factors, refined sugar and smoking, may have most to do with keeping your teeth, according to a report on a large government study published this year. Investigators looked at data for 14,375 persons aged six to 64 for relationships between dental health and dietary and other habits. Between 1971 and 1974, 10 dentists examined participants at 65 locations for decayed, missing, and filled teeth—referred to as the DMF index. Interviewers trained in nutrition gathered information about food and drink habits. Dietary history for each person included what was consumed during the previous 24 hours as well as general food patterns over the preceding three months. Not surprisingly, the most striking dietary association with DMF teeth was consumption of refined sugar. This finding confirms those of earlier studies, but the government study goes further. It identifies frequency of sugar consumption as a more important factor than total amount of sugar consumed.

Total daily calories taken in sugar did not show a strong relationship with decayed, missing, and filled teeth. Total calories taken in sugary foods between meals did show a significant relationship with the DMF index. But the really strong association was between DMF teeth and the frequency of sugary snacks between meals. This relationship seems to indicate that the total time that teeth are exposed to sugar may have more to do with decay than the total amount of sugar consumed. Thus it might be better for a child to eat all his sugar ration at one time, say for dessert, than to suck candies or take swigs of soda pop or homemade sweet drinks throughout the day.

The national tooth study, the first one involving a large, representative sample under standardized and controlled conditions, adds great weight to the idea of refined sugar as a primary cause of tooth decay. In younger ages from six to 17, increased sugar snacking was associated mainly with decayed and filled teeth; in those 18 to 64, with missing teeth. Of a number of dietary variables studied, only one other was significantly associated with the DMF index. A considerably higher proportion of persons with natural teeth consumed higher levels of vitamin C. Fluoride intake was not measured, but tooth enamel was sampled for fluoride content. As might be expected, higher levels of fluoride in teeth were associated with less tooth decay. The second most significant life-style factor identified by the study was smoking and was strongly associated with periodontal disease. This disease—in which the gums are infected and inflamed and teeth become loose—is a serious problem for a large percentage of older adults in this country. A clear and significant relationship was identified between smoking and gum disease. The highest levels of disease were found among present smokers and the lowest levels among those who had never smoked. There was no relationship between levels of alcohol consumption and periodontal disease. Frequency of tooth brushing was also strongly related to periodontal disease, with those brushing regularly having the least.

Halls Salutes Industry

Progress, as shown in the picture above of our Public Safety Building, under construction at this time last year, and now completed and in operation is a good example of the progress made possible by a broadened tax base, a good payroll from nearby 1400 jobs provided by our industries, and many other benefits that industries have brought to us. It is time for everyone to recognize and appreciate the improved life style that is now available to our citizens because of our industries.

Message From Halls Businesses

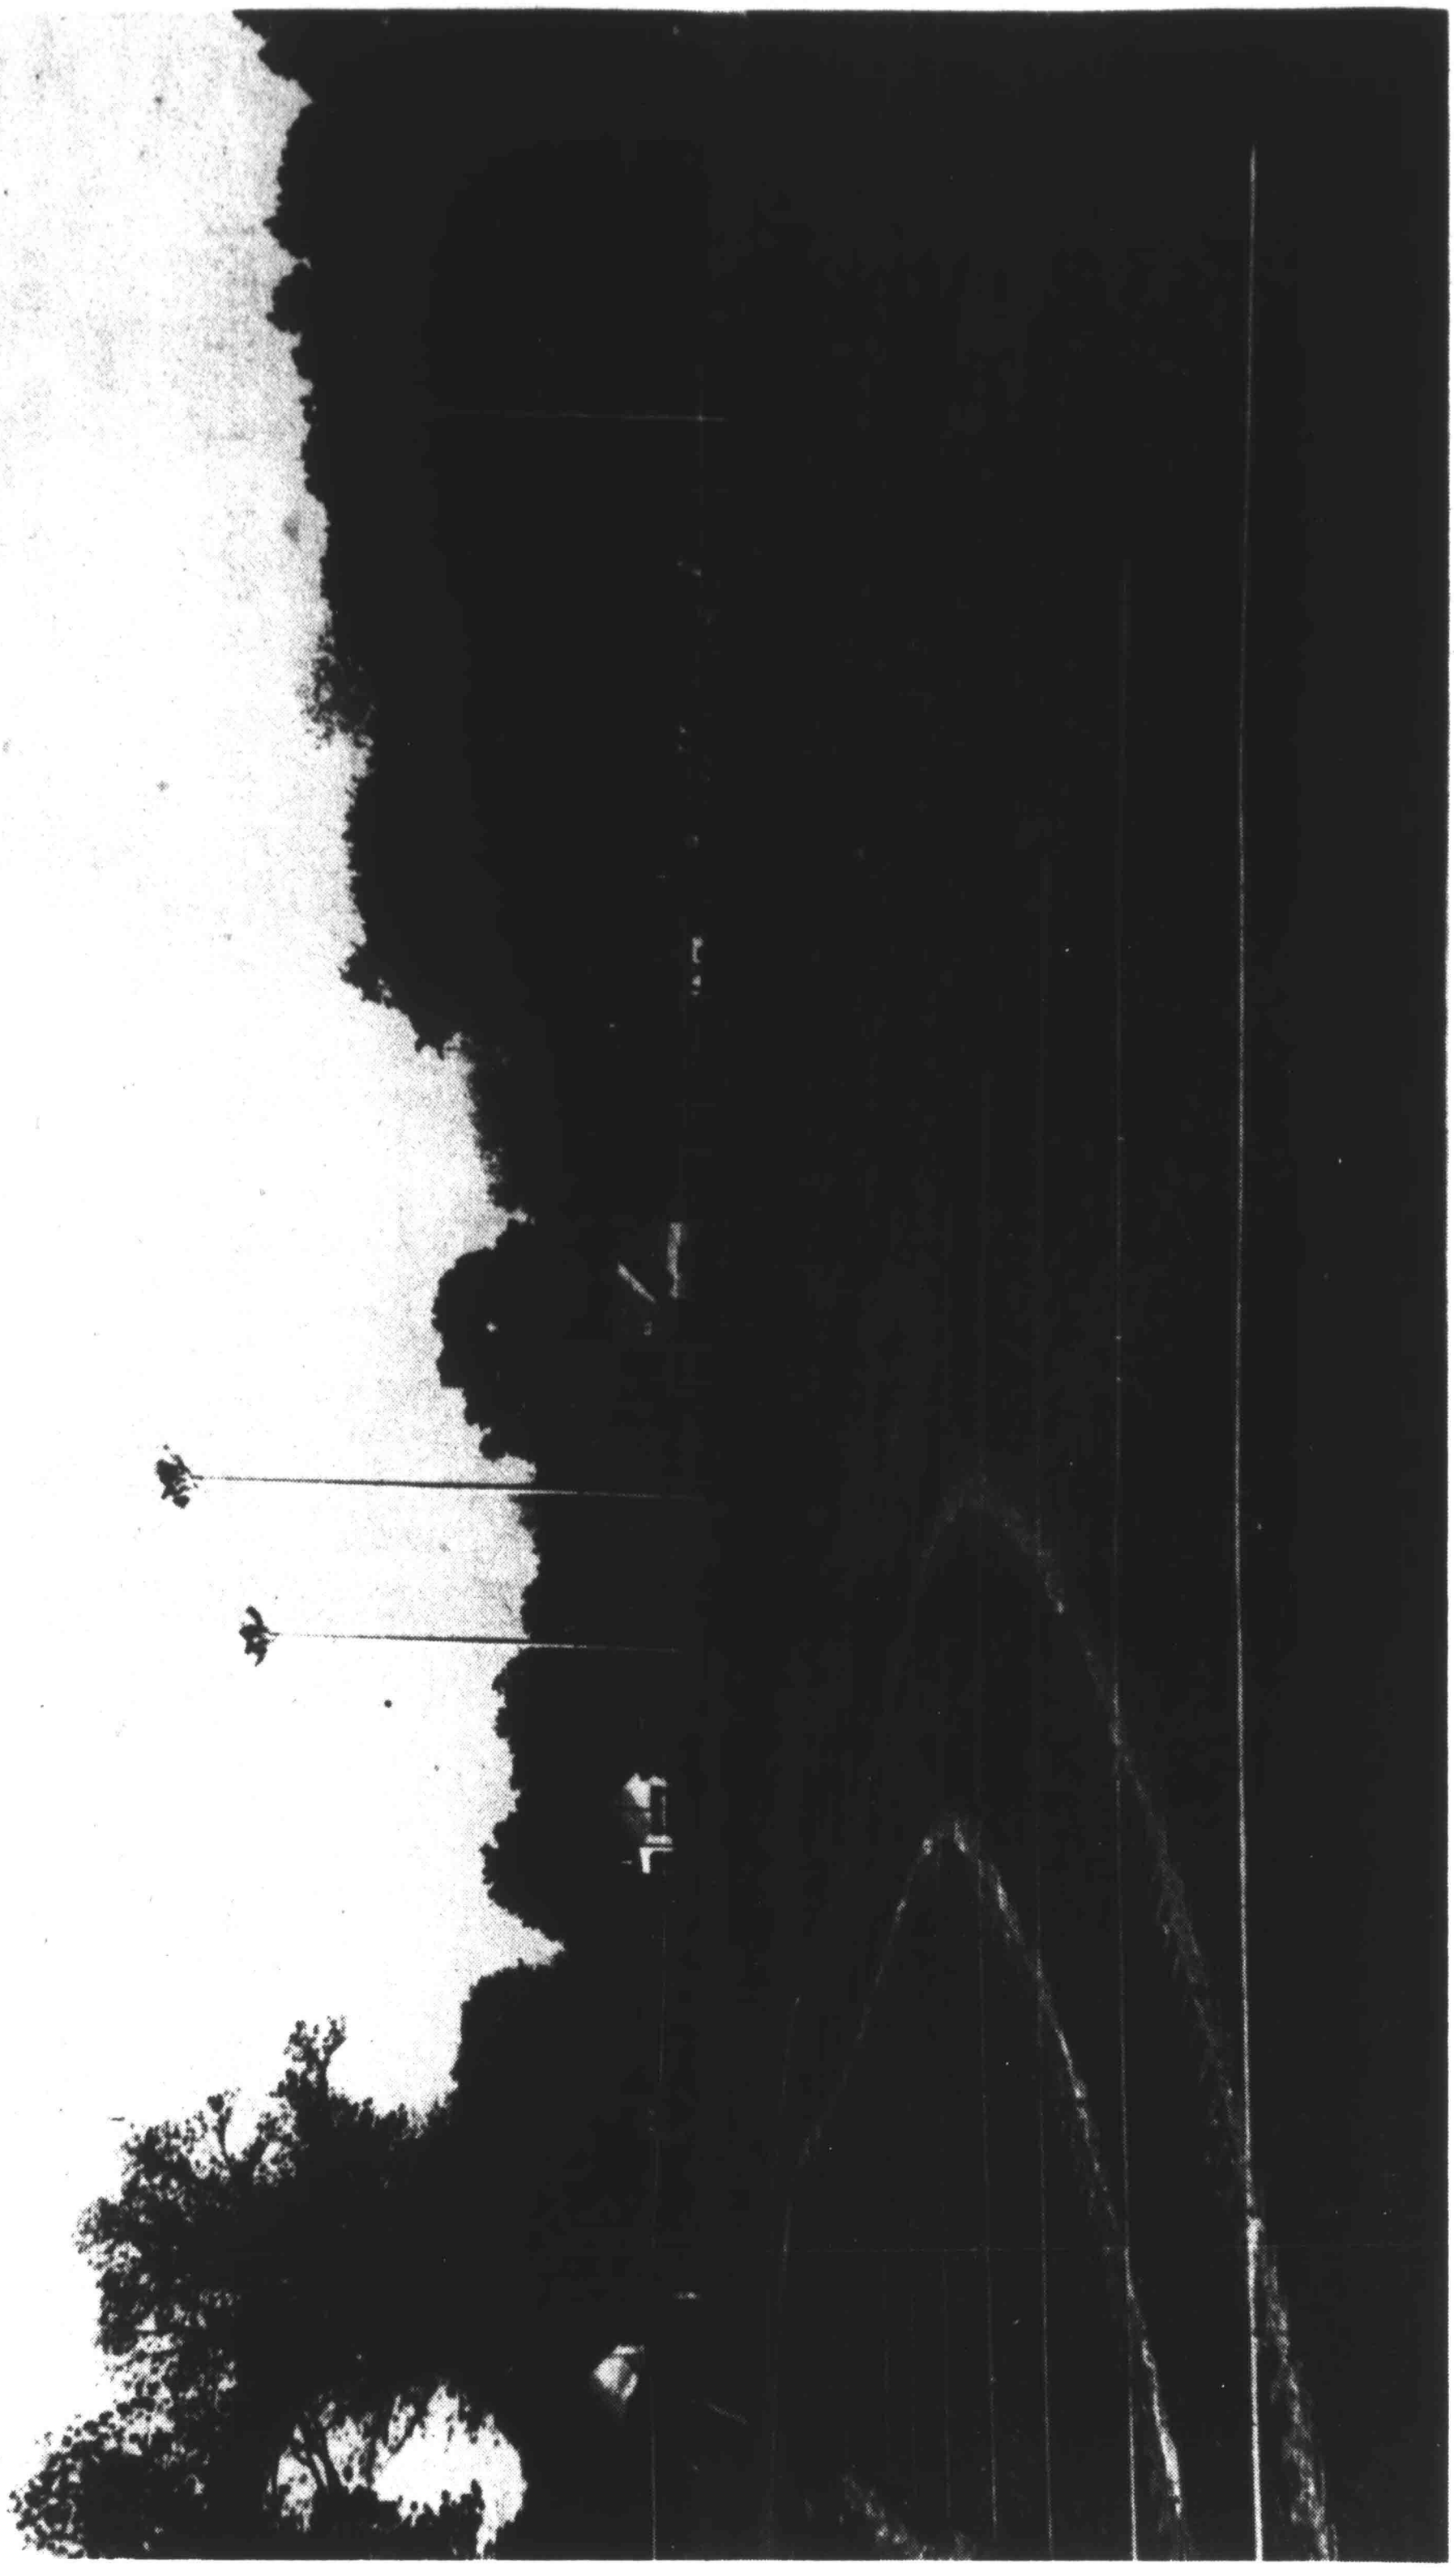

During the past several months, we have heard, seen, and read much about the poor economic conditions existing all over our great country, including most of our own state. Inflation and unemployment have both taken their toll, making life harder for a great number of people. Thus, it is quite interesting to note that there are now more jobs in Halls—actually more people working—than at any other time in our history.

I say this with great pride and gratitude, as this is due largely to the fine, well managed, and extremely strong caliber of industries we are fortunate to have in our community. We are proud of them, and proud too, that by locating here, they have made it possible for this area to offer a good and prosperous future for our young people; so they will have the opportunity to stay in our town, raise a family, and grow with all of us.

Although Governor Alexander has enlarged "Industry Appreciation Week" to this year's "Industry Appreciation Month", we still feel the little we do to show our appreciation is inadequate when compared to all the benefits we receive. Our efforts, however small, are sincere, and we truly appreciate the many contributions our area industries have made towards improving the life-style of our entire populace. . .INDUSTRY. WE SALUTE YOU!

HALLS MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION
Steven Levy, Chairman

What Halls Offers Industry

The nine Industries in Halls, excluding Agriculture, employ between 1300 to 1400 people. For a Town of less than 2600 population this would seem pretty good and could only mean that HALLS has a lot to offer Industry.

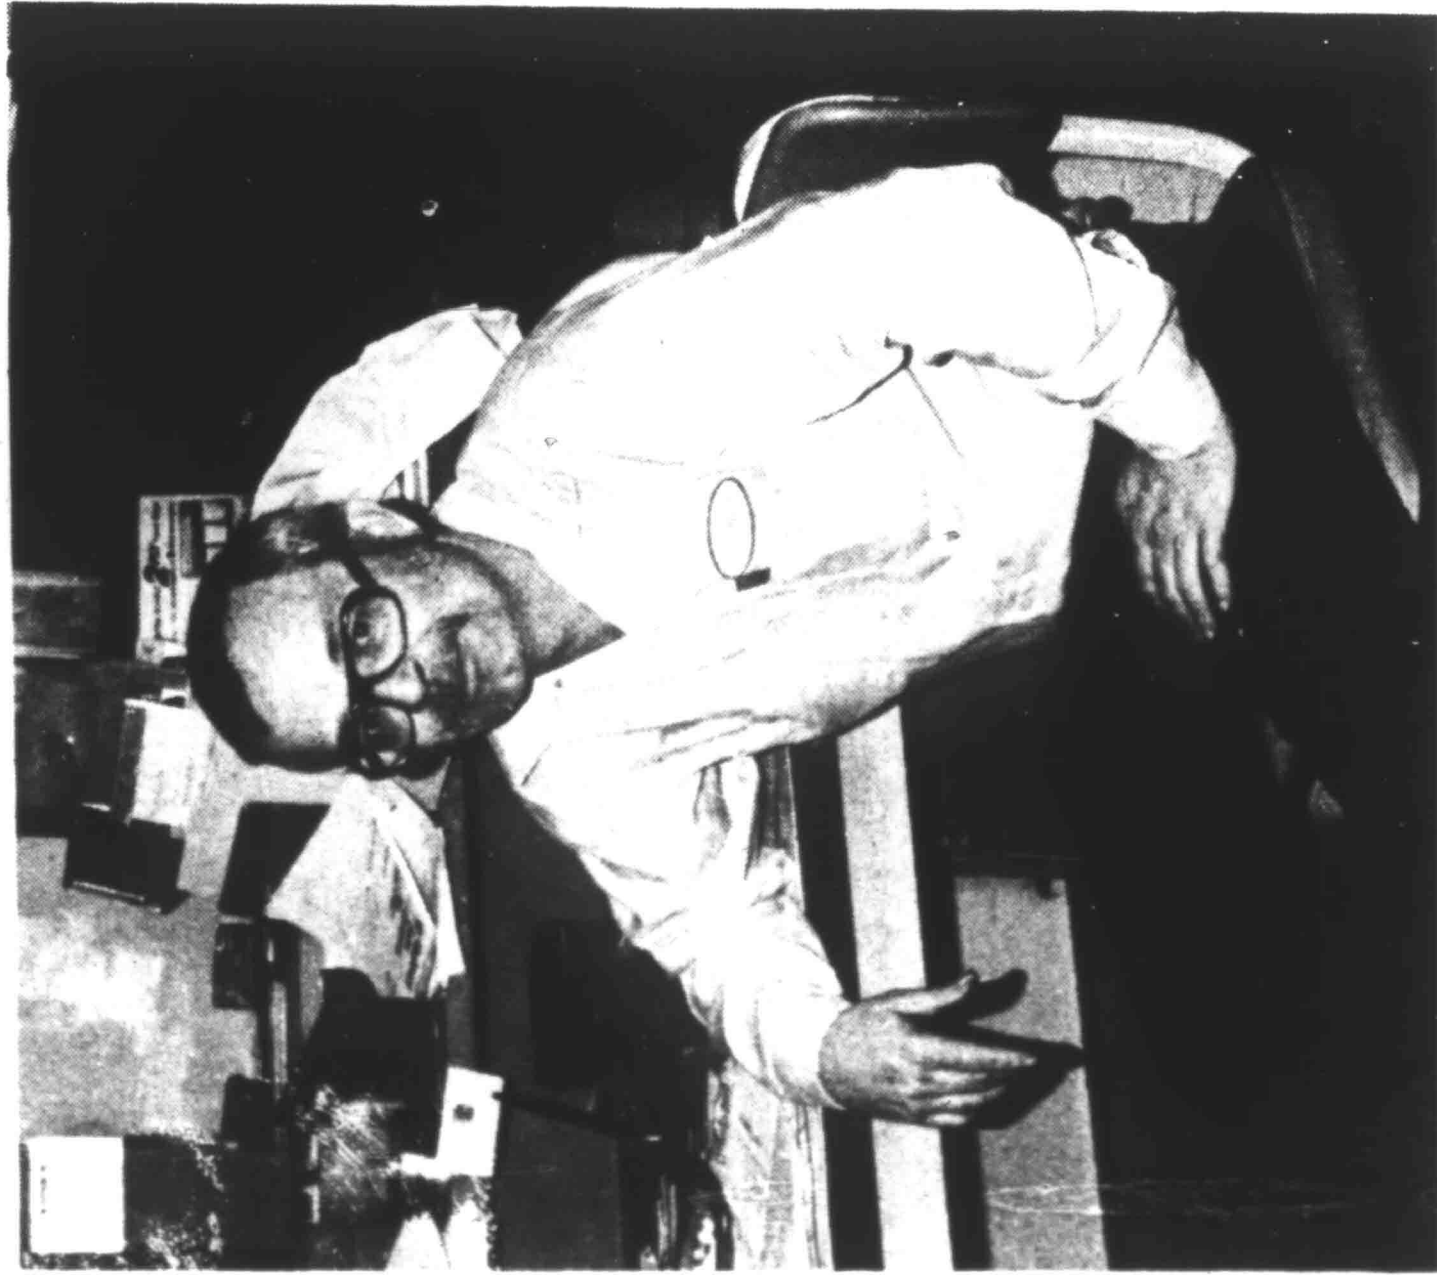

Probably the number one thing that our Industry Leaders would tell you they like about Halls is our people. I have been told that the cost of living in Halls is one of the lowest in the state. Industries having their most efficient plant in Halls, this is a great compliment to our people who show their appreciation for their jobs by being cooperative, getting to work on time, and missing work as little as possible.

There are several other very important attractions our Town has including one of the finest, best trained, small town Police Departments anywhere, and the same can be said about our Volunteer Fire Department. Two or three of our Industries know what a fine Fire Department we have because their services were necessary to them on an occasion or two.

Recreational areas, excellent schools, plenty of electricity, good transportation, fine churches, sufficient water, gas and sewer facilities are other items making HALLS a good place to locate.

We have a lot of excellent Industry but we know we can't be satisfied. We have a responsibility to do all we can to attract new, good Industry and we also know that acquiring Industry has become much more competitive than ever before. Halls has a lot to offer, so we believe our future is bright.

Tech-Four Tool And Die

To people who observe just a few employees and a small work area, the Tech-Four Tool and Die operation is not what they think of when they speak in terms of a successful business.

To owner Sam Woodbury, however, the small business has been living quietly since 1968 at the arboreal and continues to produce a wide variety of materials for such well known companies as Singer, Copeland Electric and Rockwell Inc.

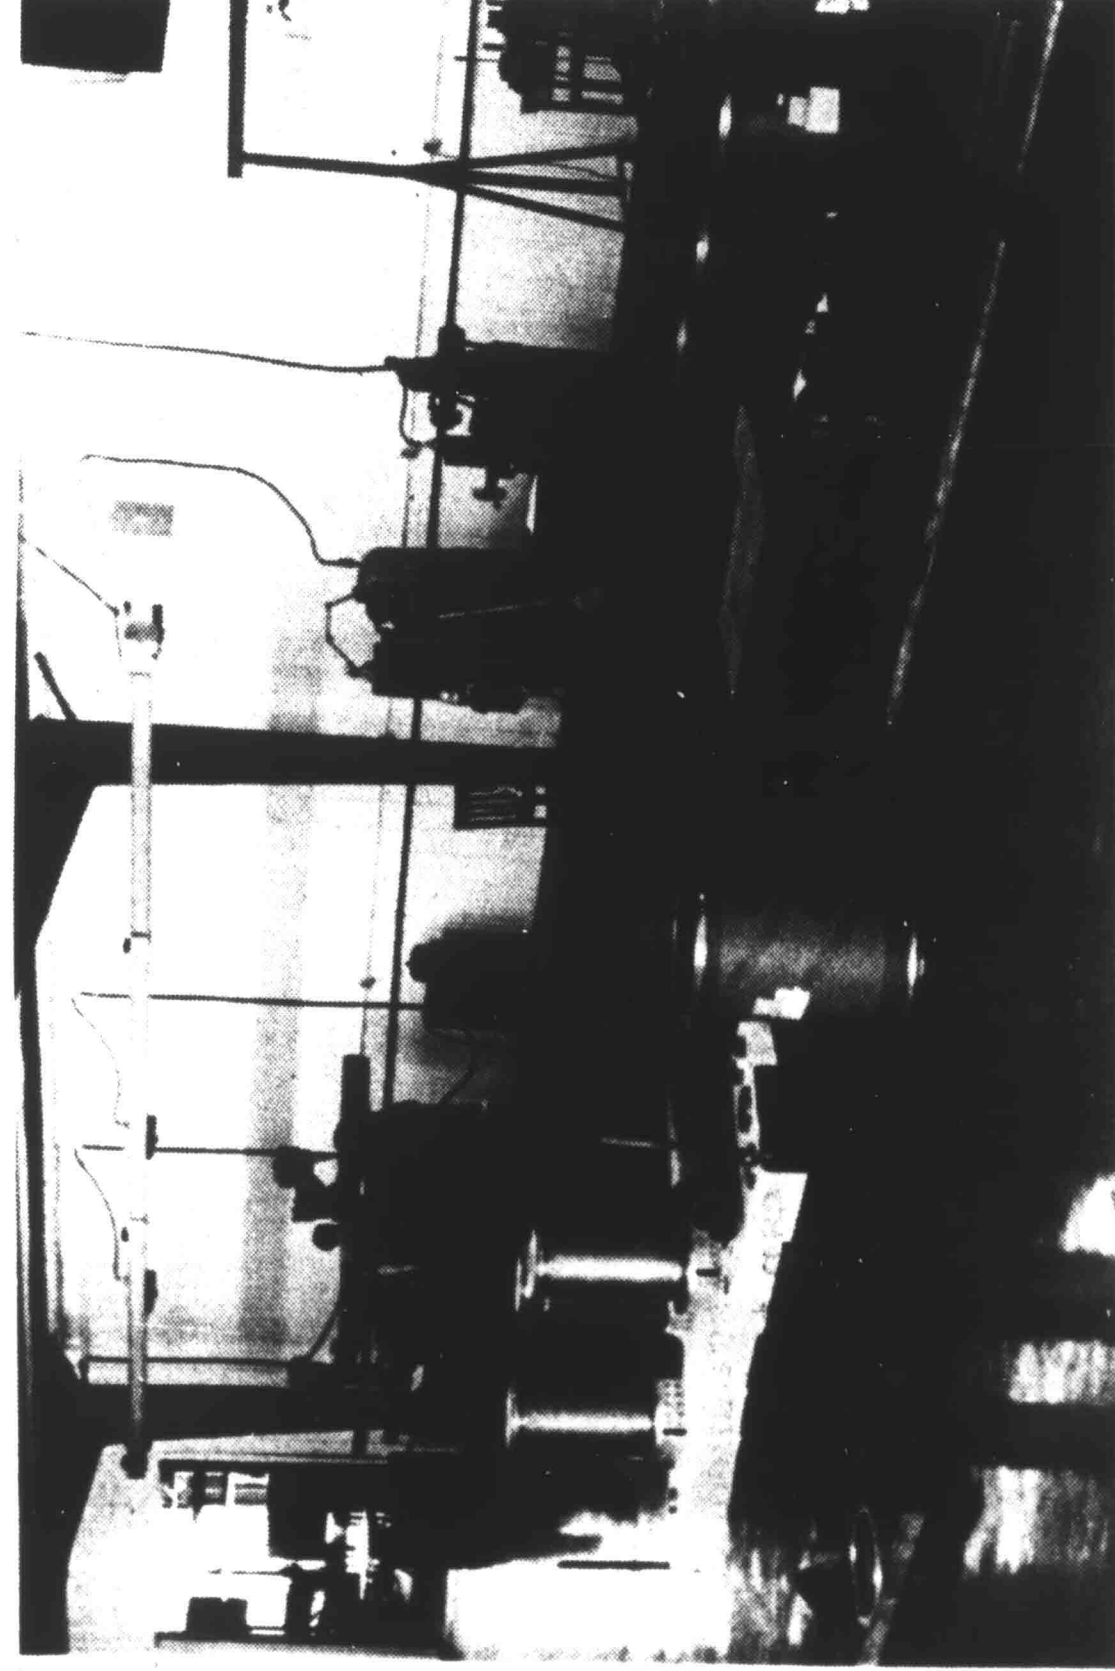

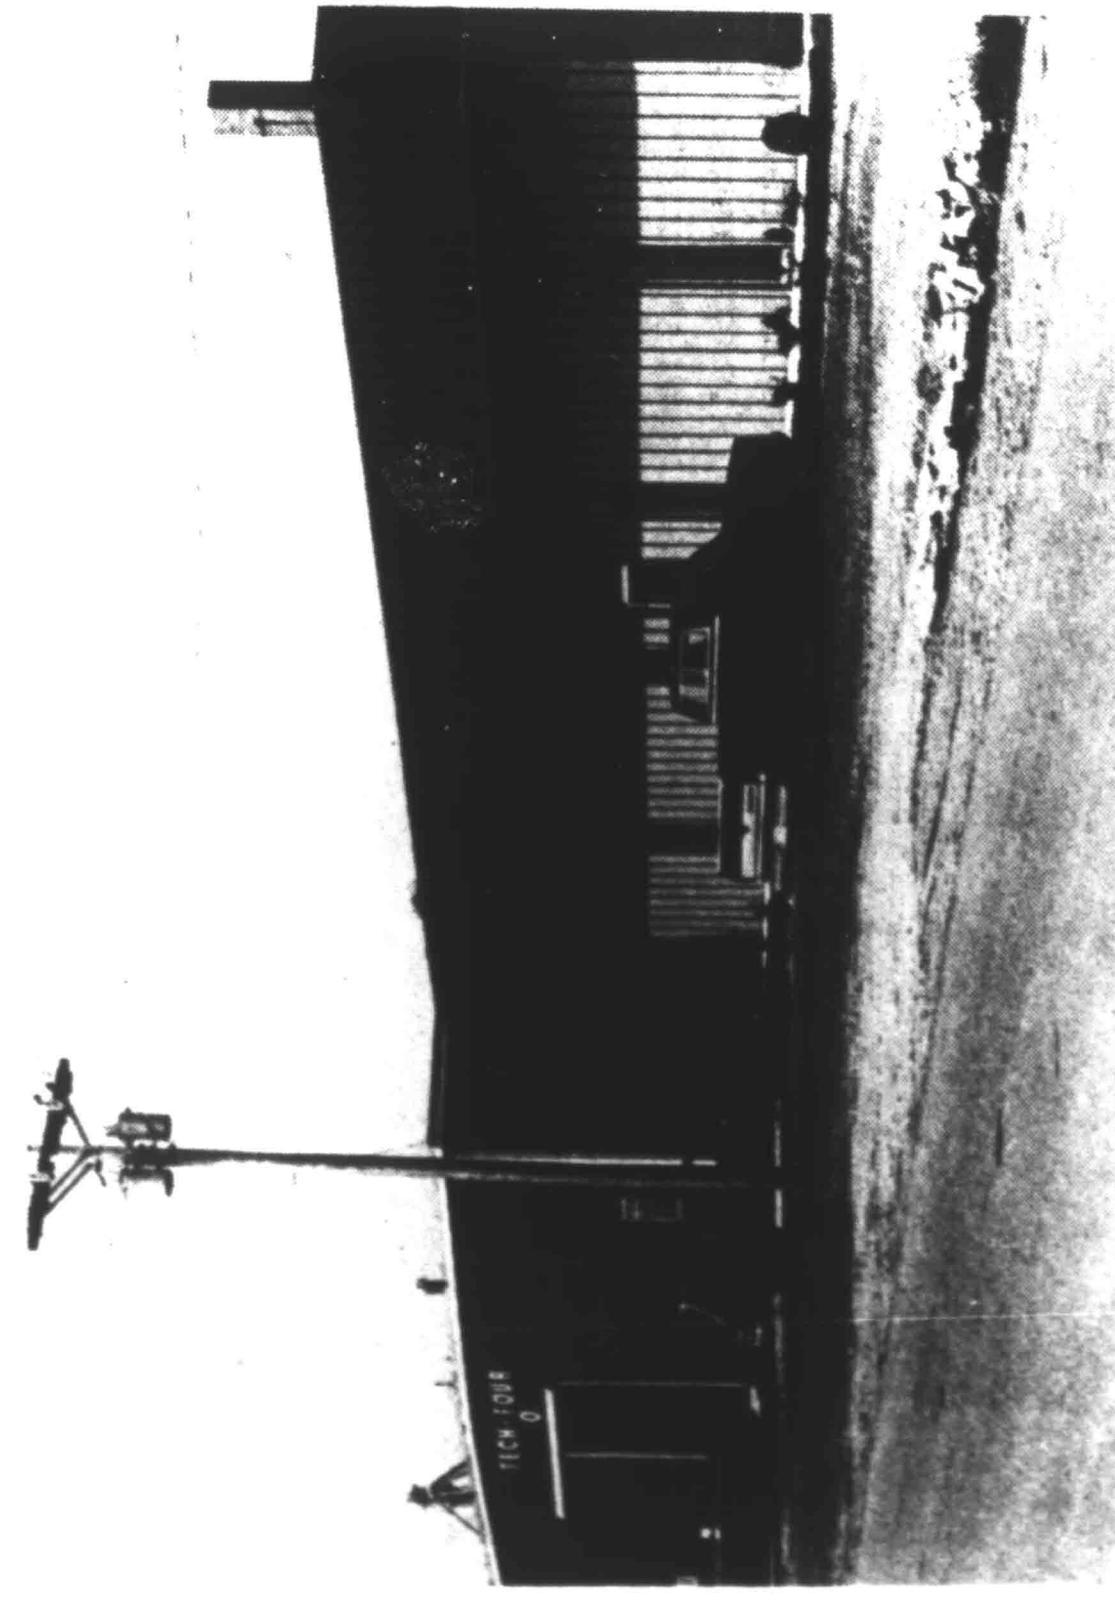

To the employees of the small business, their job is just as important as any other business opportunity in the Halls area with more than ten years to support their work.

James Craig is the manager at Tech-Four. Nine employees are presently operating the small metal stamping plant.

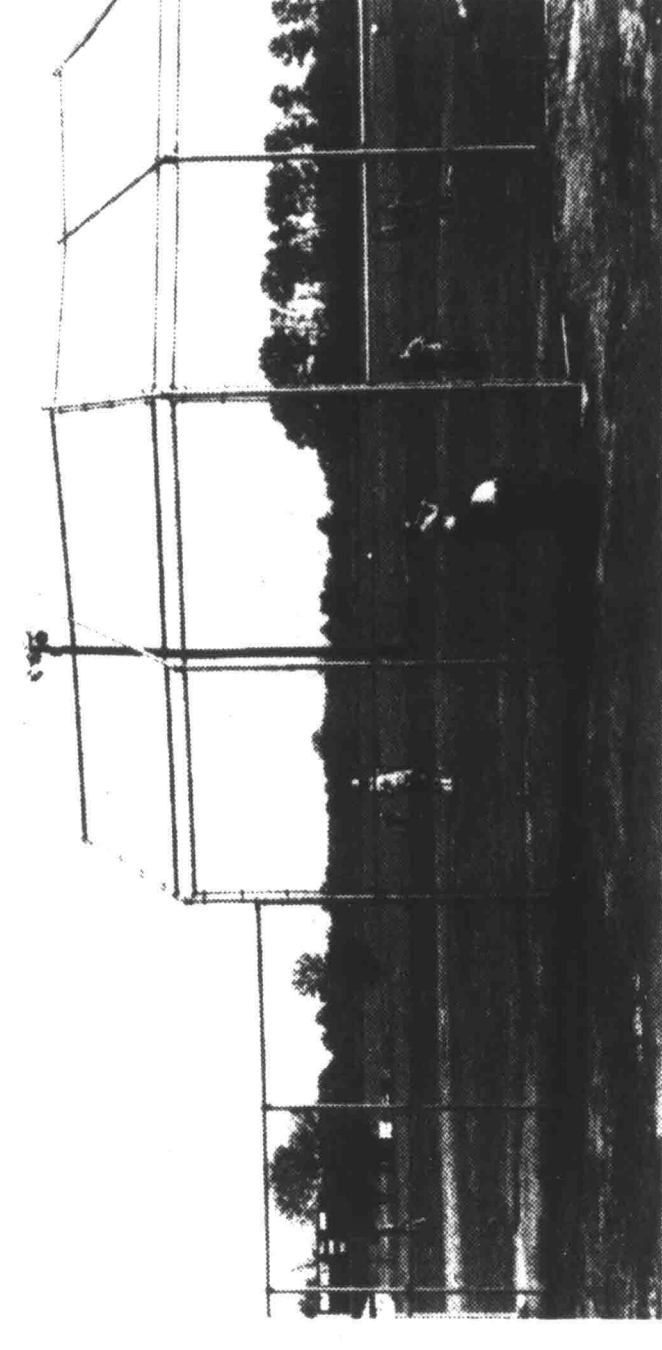

This year a new addition to Tech-Four was completed, more than doubling their space and work force. The new space provides for beautiful offices and employee lounge as well as much needed work space.

"We are very happy with this new space," James said, "I would hate to have to put this machinery back into that small area."

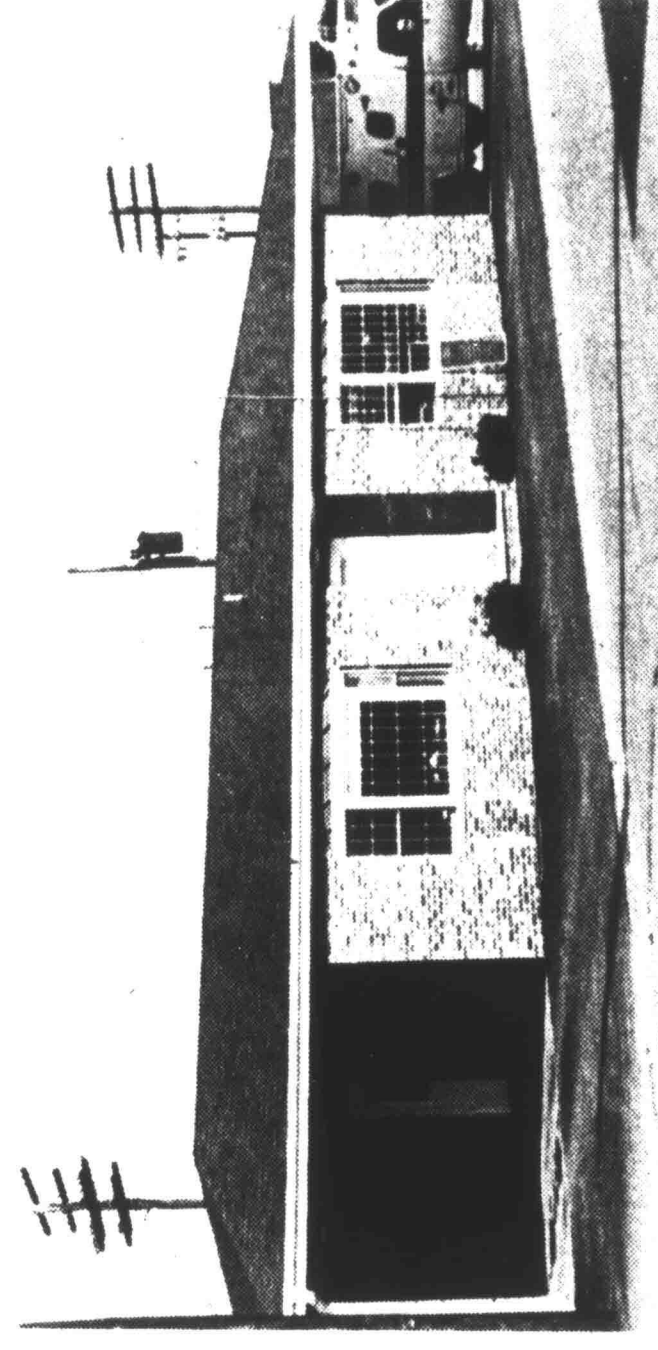

This is a good example of how your present industry can grow to provide new jobs.

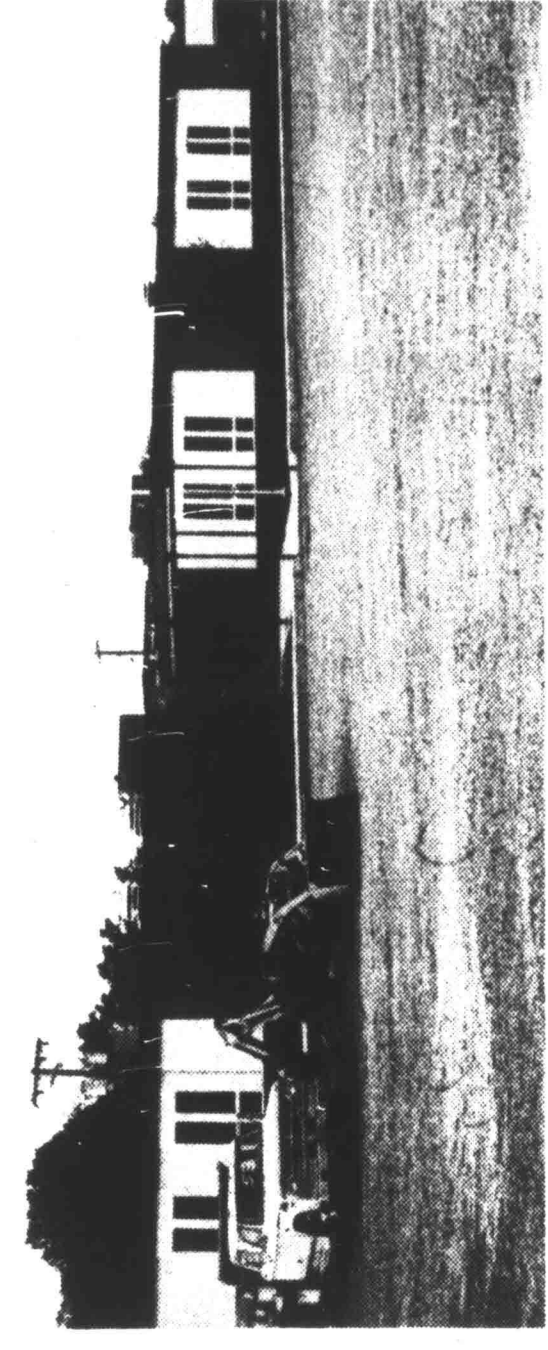

Public Buildings And Services Completed In Recent Years

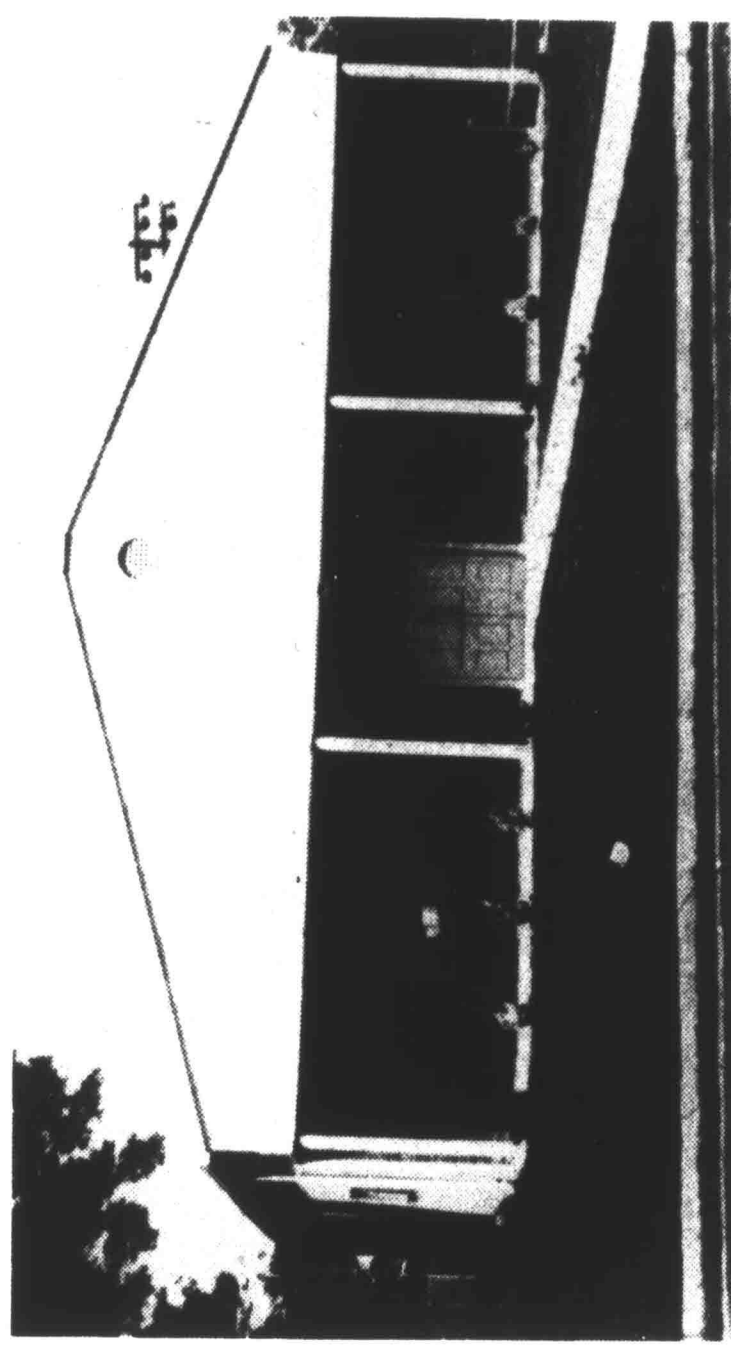

CRICHFIELD MUNICIPAL PARK, with two double tennis courts, two lighted baseball fields, a soft ball field, picnic tables and grills gives our people a chance to play, watch, or relax.

THE NEW PUBLIC SAFETY BUILDING which houses the Police and Ambulance Stations help to insure the safety of our citizens and is a source of pride for the people who work there and for our citizens also.

THE SENIOR CITIZENS CENTER has been a big success in Halls. By meeting some of the needs of our older residents, a place for relaxation and recreation as well as a hot meal, encourages our people in their retirement years to continue leading active involved lives.

THE HALLS COMMUNITY CENTER stays busy all the time with a variety of activities and although it is open to anyone it serves mainly our young people.

OUR AIRPORT has caused much interest already and since most Industrial leaders today travel by private plane it will be very important in future negotiations with other Industries to provide more jobs for our area.

Hutcherson Scrap Co., Inc.

Wiley Hutcherson, a Halls native, began Hutcherson Scrap Co. in 1964. The fast growth of his business has caused him to move twice, gaining more space with each move to accommodate his largely expanding business with employment up to 40 people.

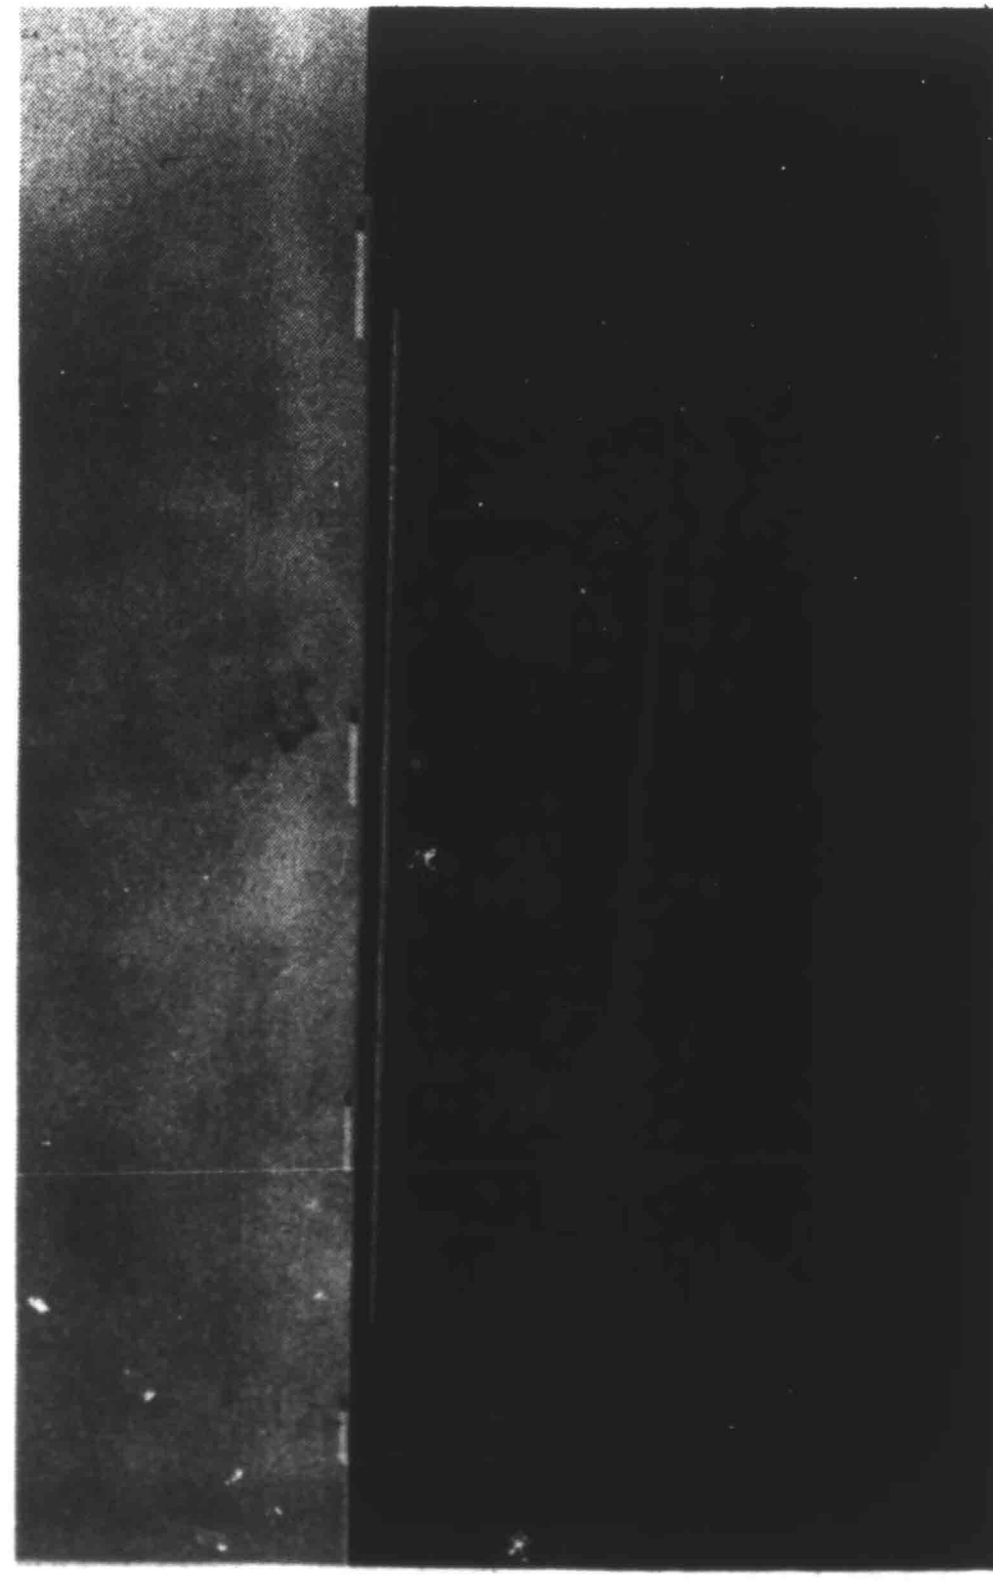

The company now has a new location on Old Highway 51 North with 5 metal buildings totaling some 64,300 square feet.

A railroad spur has been added at the new location, allowing metal pieces cut into scrap to be loaded directly onto railroad cars.

His smelting plant melts and separates up to 40,000 pounds or a trailer load of aluminum during a nine and one-half hour day. Temperatures in the smelting plant go up to 1600 degrees to melt aluminum and 1100 degrees to melt zinc.

Wiley sells the finely granulated zinc powder to other companies who use it in the production of other products.

Wiley and his wife Frances have been an inspiration to the people of Halls since they are living proof that the small town guy can make good.

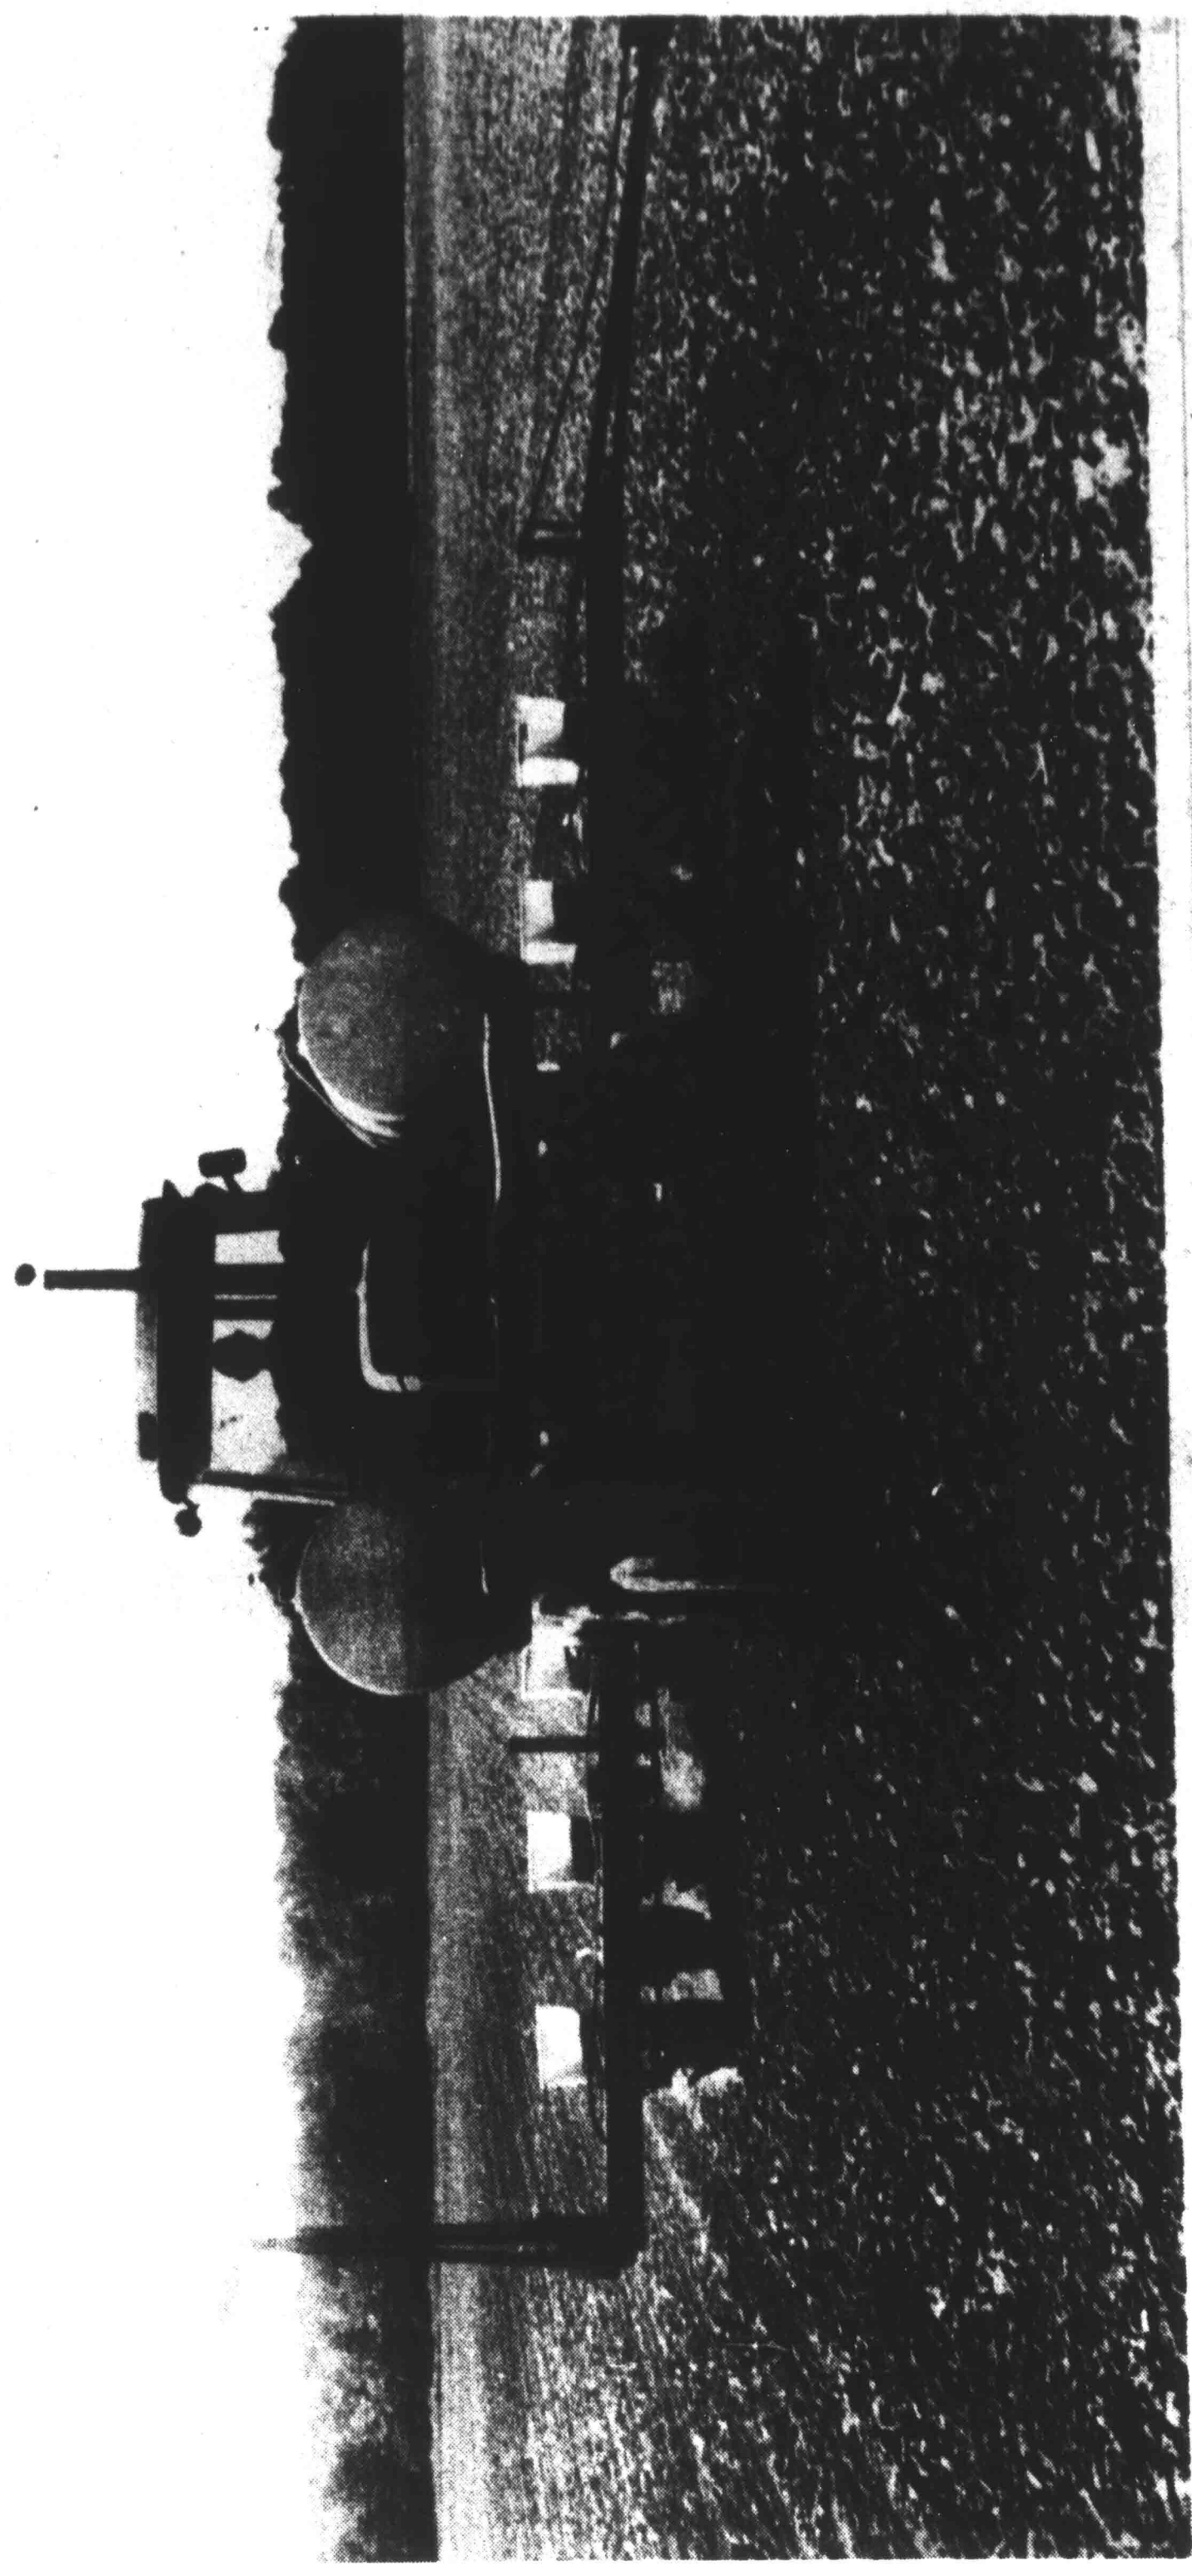

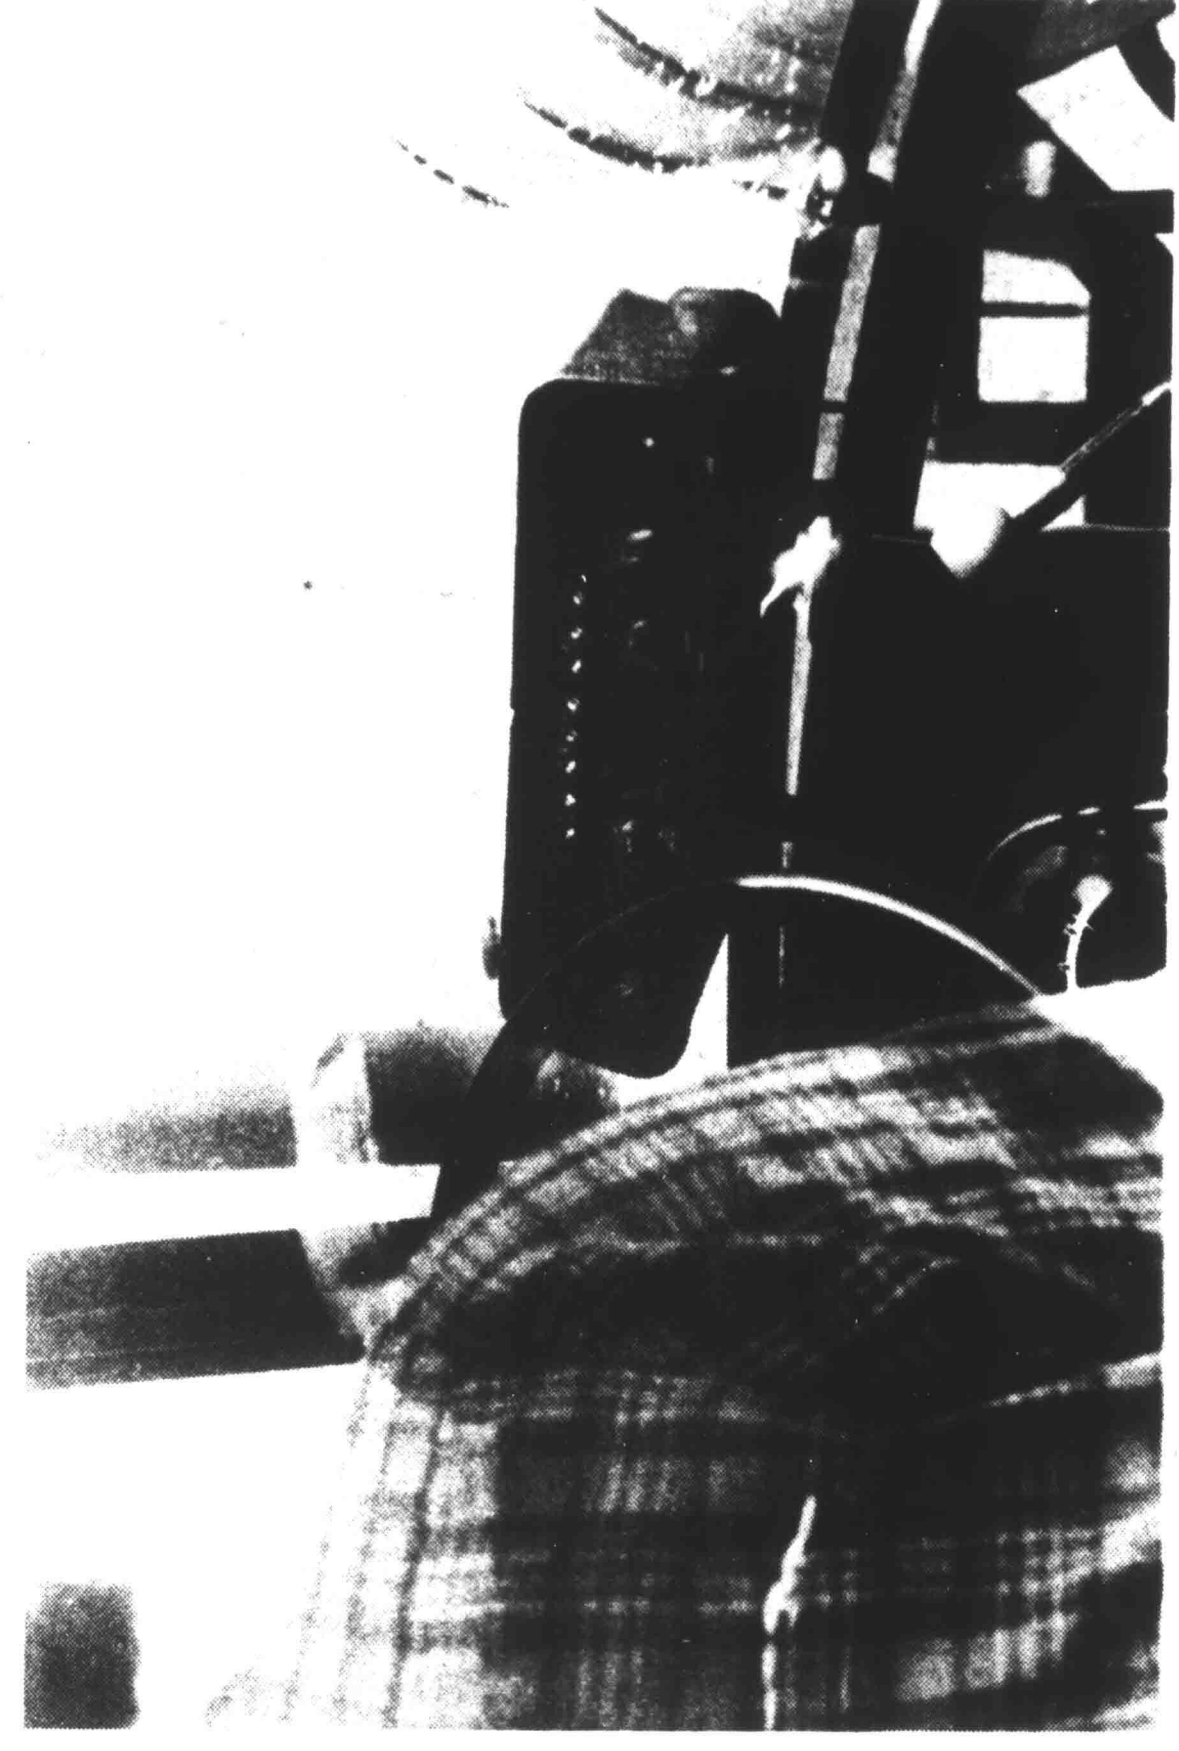

Agriculture

Farming has always been an important industry to our county and with a total annual agricultural income of $35,000,000 there is no doubt that the farming industry is here to stay.

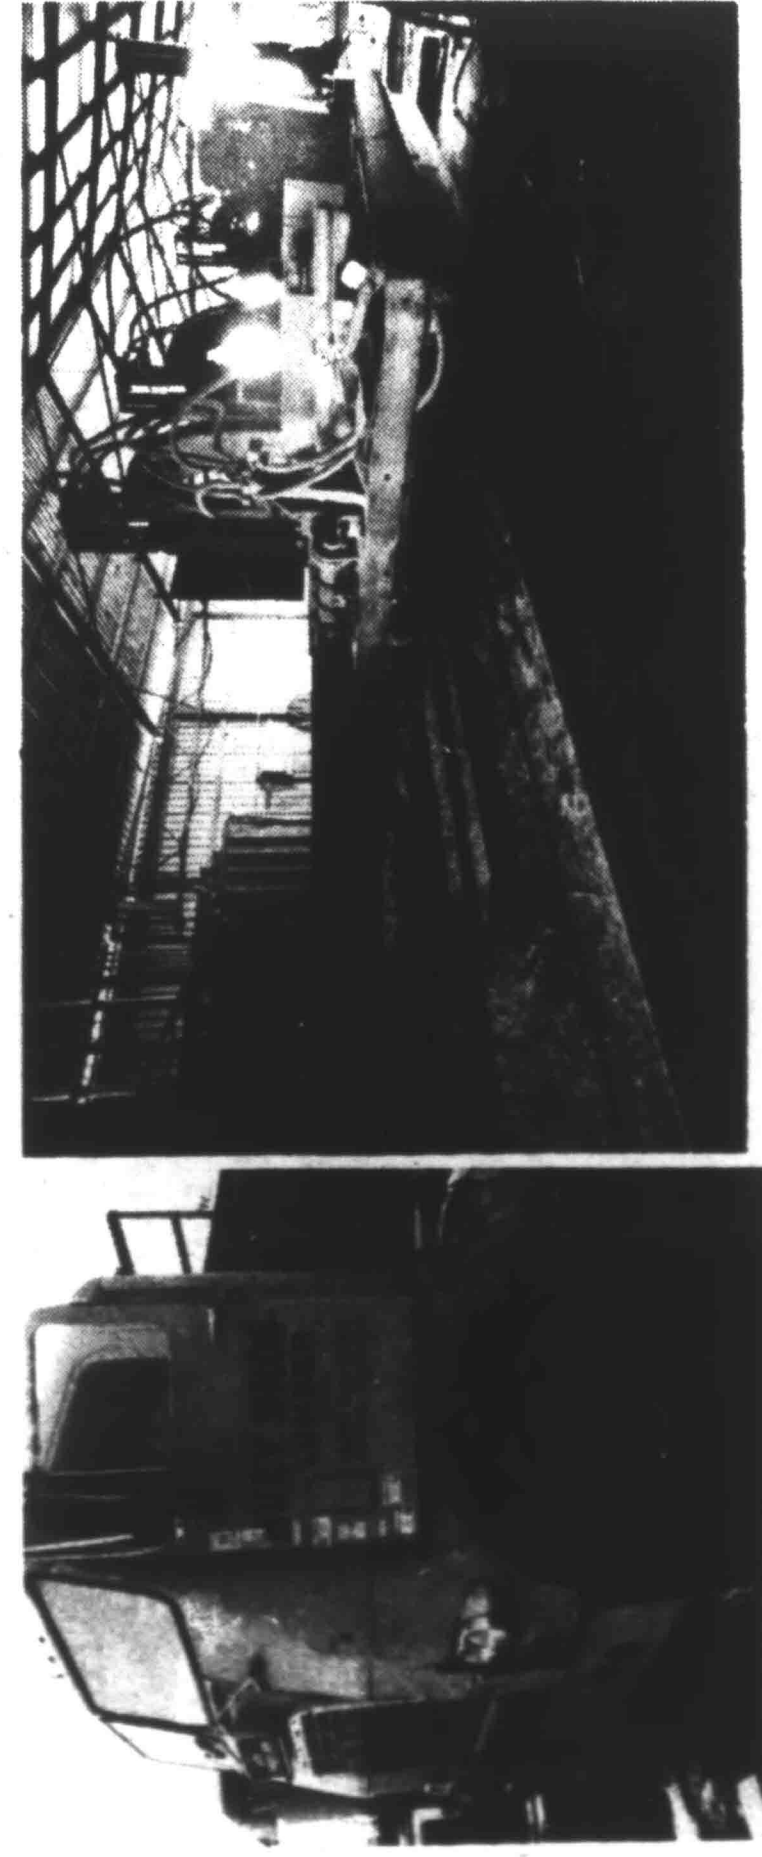

There are approximately 500 farming units throughout Lauderdale County with soybeans being the number one crop and livestock second. Cotton is listed to be number one but has slipped to third place. Other important products are tomatoes, wheat and hay.

Farming today has become highly sophisticated and a farmer has to be knowledgeable about many things such as soil testing, fertilizer, soil erosion, insecticides, herbicides, more complicated equipment, and with the ever increasing cost of putting in a crop they have to be good businessmen.

The Farmers have responded to every challenge, however, and no other industry or business can come close to the gain in efficiency that the farmers have over the last several years.

Huey & Son Lumber Co., Inc.

D. B. Huey is the owner of Huey Lumber Company on the Old Airbase apron. This has been their location for 16 years.

On some days 25,000 feet of lumber will run through the company, starting as rough wood, processed until available for purchase for fine buildings throughout the area.

Mr. Huey has a very modern lumber company and employs 25 people.

Allen-Stone Box Co.

Albert Stone, Owner

R. C. Allen, Owner

Shipping Corrugated Materials

Allen—Stone Box Co. is located on the southeast corner of the concrete apron on the old airbase.

The company started in 1966 and now employs 40 people to produce corrugated paper shipping materials. They produce about 8,000,000 square feet of packaging each month for industries within a 200 mile radius of Halls.

Allen—Stone fits well into the Halls area industrial scheme because before almost any product can be shipped it must be packaged. They supply packaging to such customers as Tupperware, Colonial Rubber, and ITT American Outdoor Lighting Division.

They buy their paperboard in flat sheets and then proceed to fold, cut, print, and slot and then fit the dimensions desired by the customer.

The shipping labor supply is the market for business throughout the area headed Allen—Stone to a successful business operation.

The Company is owned by R. C. Allen, Albert Stone Jr. and Don Landon.

Allen-Stone Boxes, Inc., Has Tripled In Size Since Locating In 1966

Ivey Tool And Die Co., Inc.

The newest member to our Industrial Family is Ivey Tool & Die Co., Inc. They make tools and dies for other manufacturing companies. Their plant here is very important to other plants in our area who will use their highly skilled services. They also furnish an added attraction in negotiating for new industry.

They have been operating in their new 3500 square foot building on the airbase for about a month and employ 5 people. Halls is fortunate to have such a highly skilled operation with a fine reputation for doing quality work to locate here.

Anderson Hickey

Last year we stated that Anderson Hickey could very well be the best prospect for adding new jobs in Halls. In spite of the recession and "rough going" for a lot of industries Anderson Hickey has continued to expand. Their employment has gone from 165 last year up to approximately 225 this year.

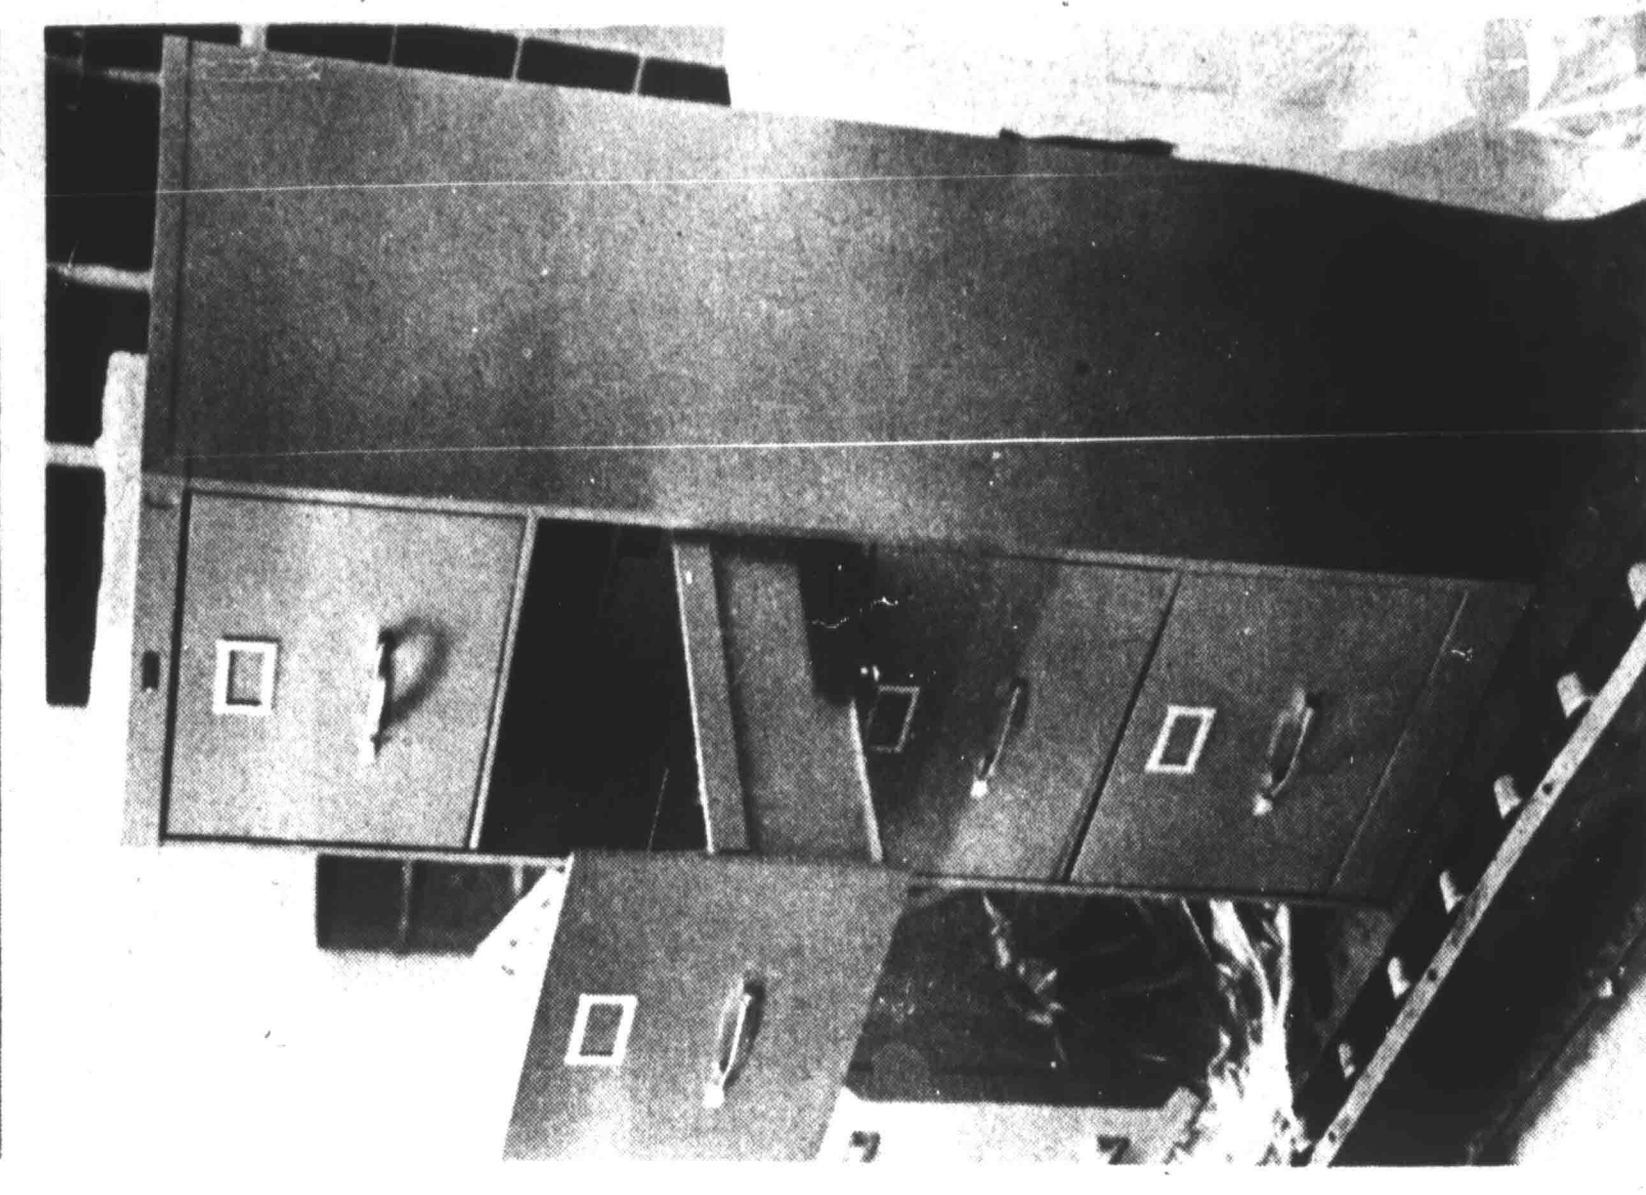

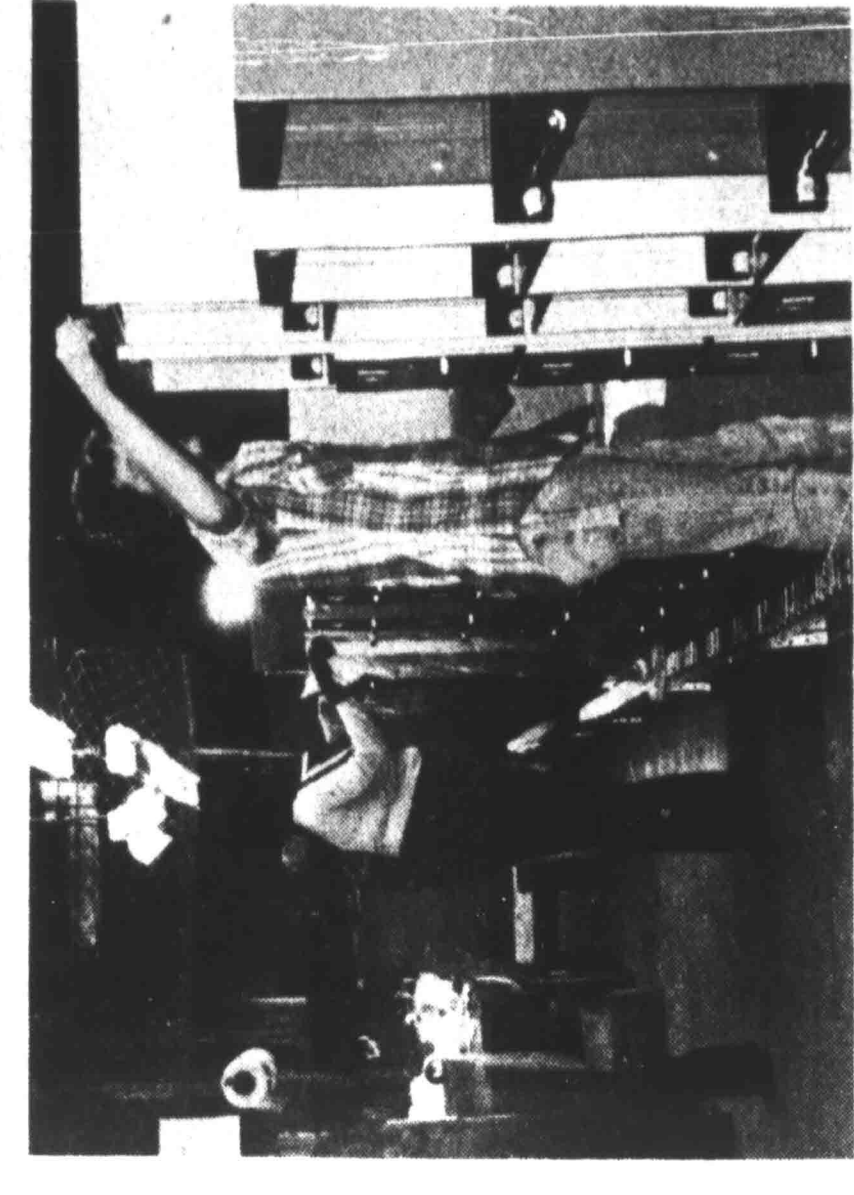

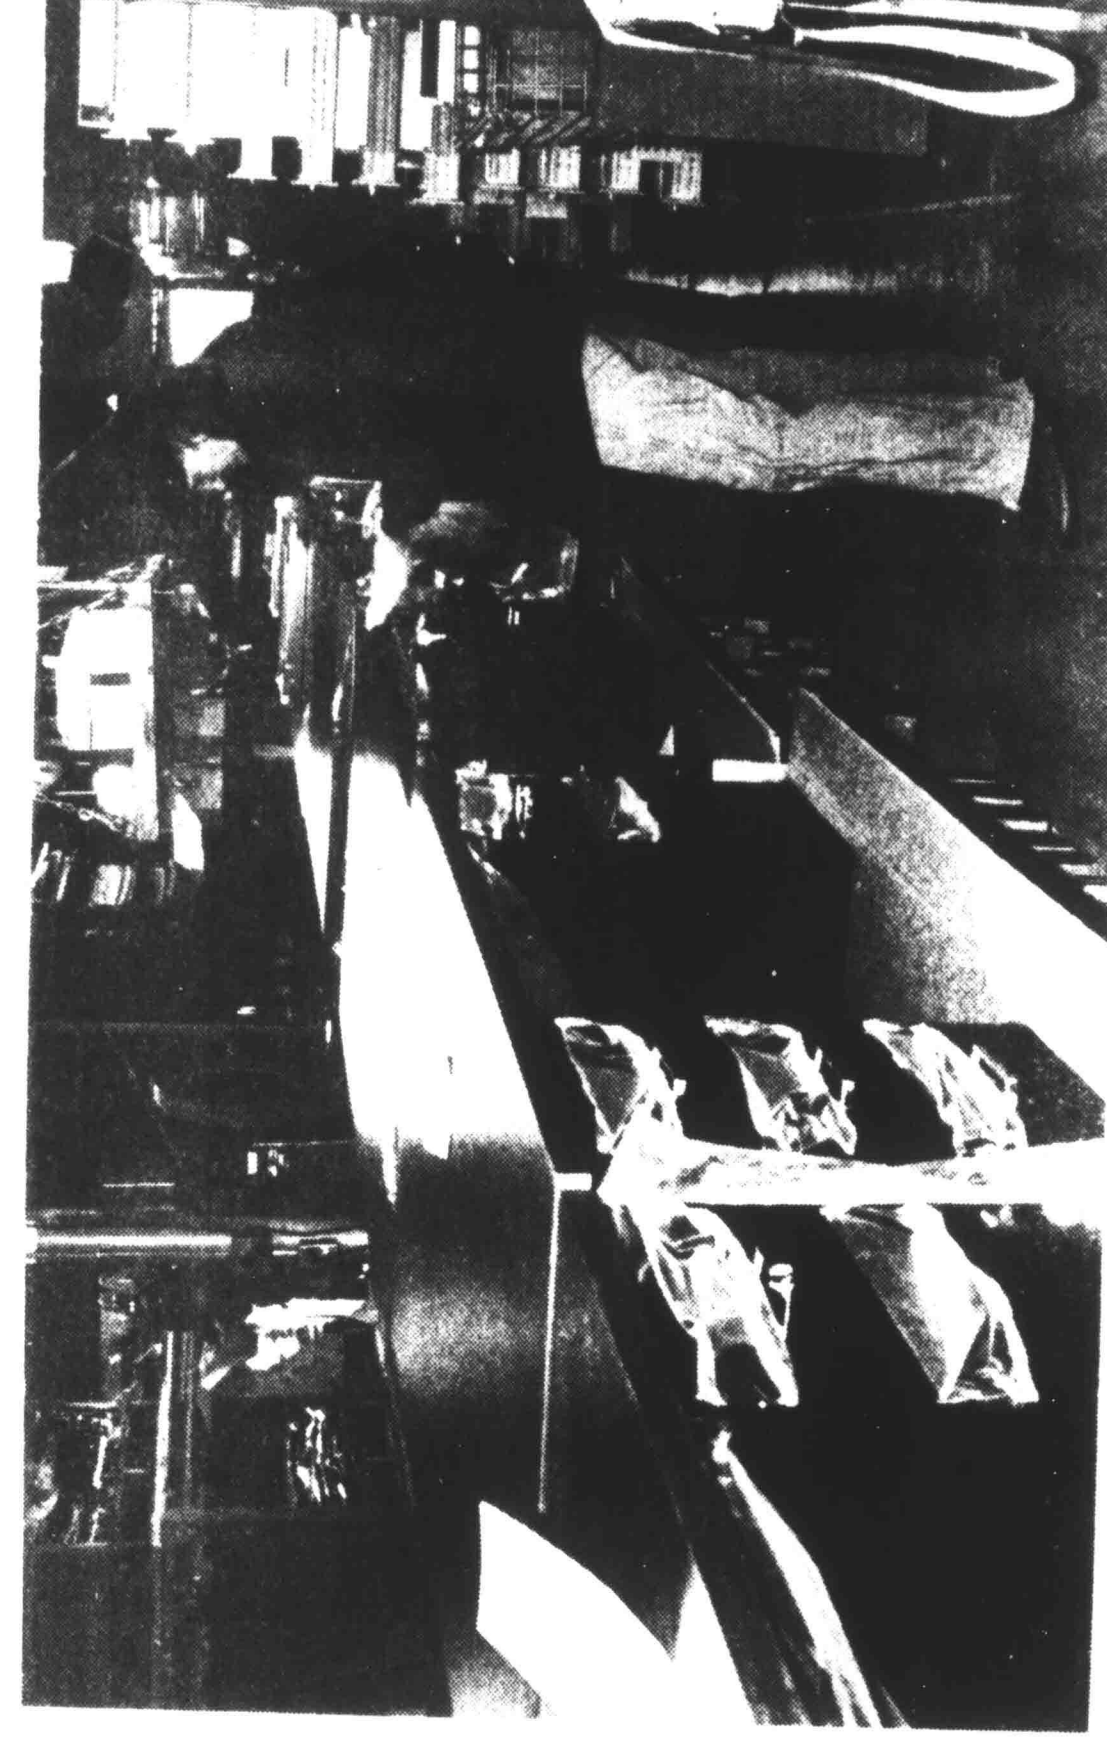

Anderson Hickey started production in Halls in 1977 in the old Custom Craft Building. Their only other plant is located in Henderson, Tex. They manufacture office desks and filing cabinets.

An expansion and remodeling project is almost completed and several new efficient machines for shaping and cutting the materials used in the manufacturing process have been installed giving the plant a modern and streamlined look.

Dick Strouse, manager of our second largest industry says that several new items will be added to the line of metal office furniture already produced there.

"We will have a new line of computer tables and will be getting into production of lateral filing cabinets" he said.

Anderson Hickey is a Division of U.S. Industries with headquarters in Dallas. They are still a good prospect for many more jobs in Halls.

Halttex Clothing Co.

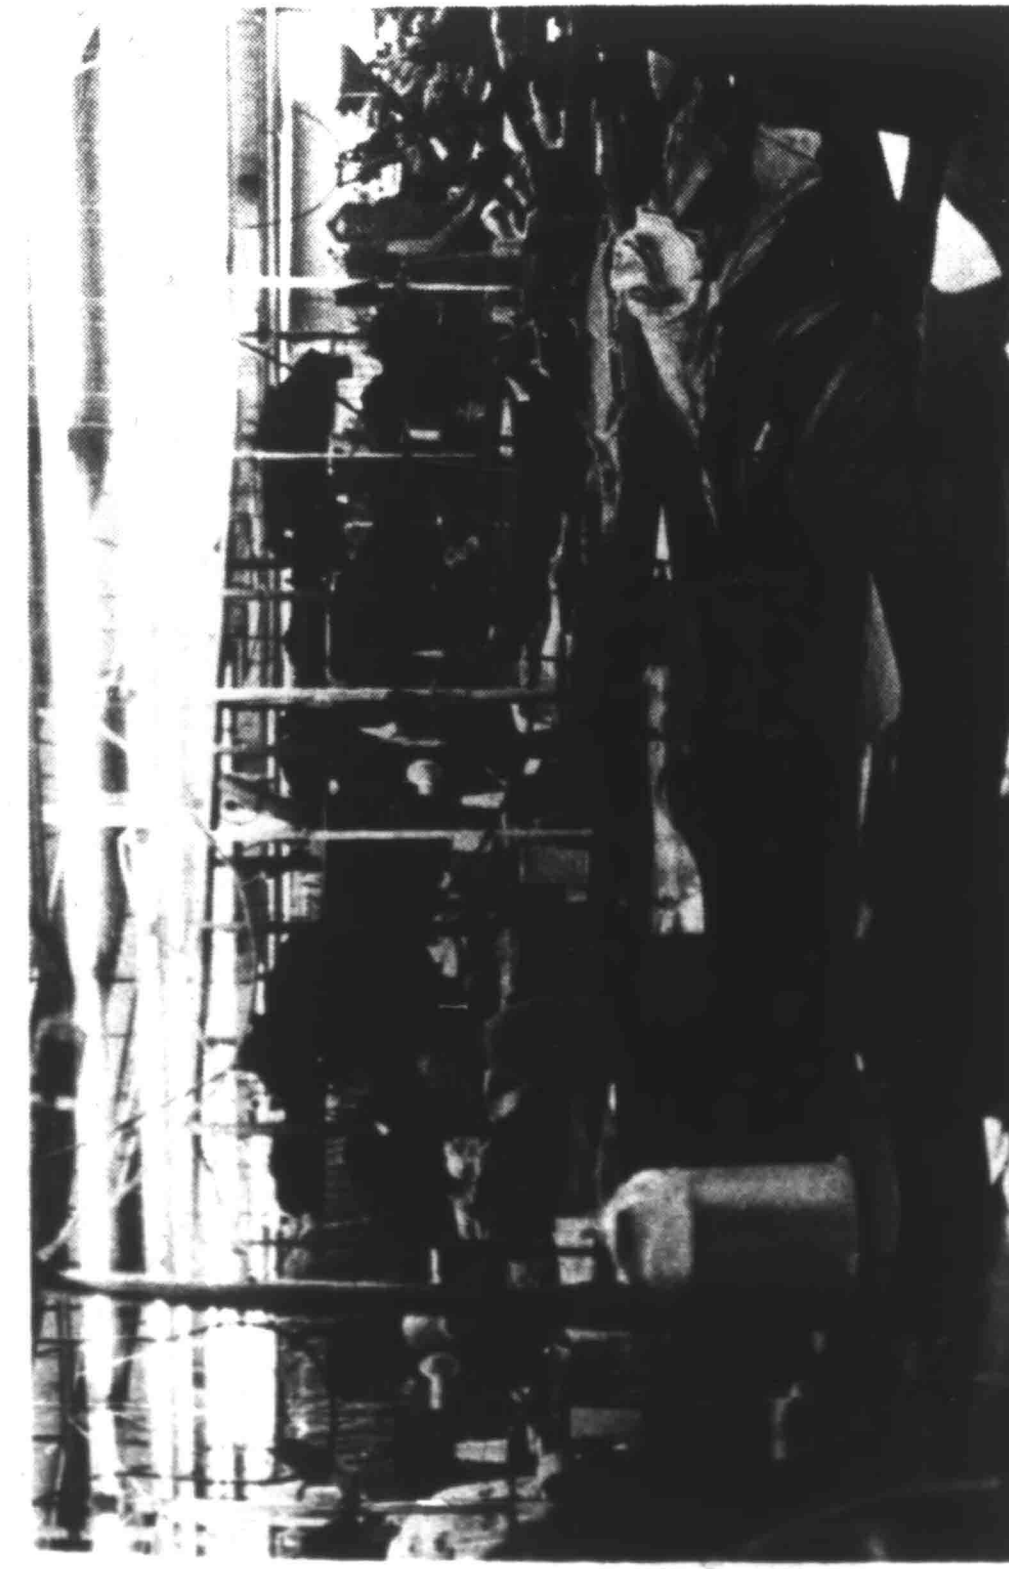

"The future looks brighter for Halttex," says new manager Alvis Leggett. Orders from large customers like Stanley-Blackler of New York for 40,000 men's sports coats in March plus orders from other department and chain stores have kept the 170 employees busy this year.

Mr. Leggett was the third person ever hired by Halttex 19 years ago when it opened in Ripley (name of company has changed since then.) Later when the company moved to Halls Mr. Leggett came too.

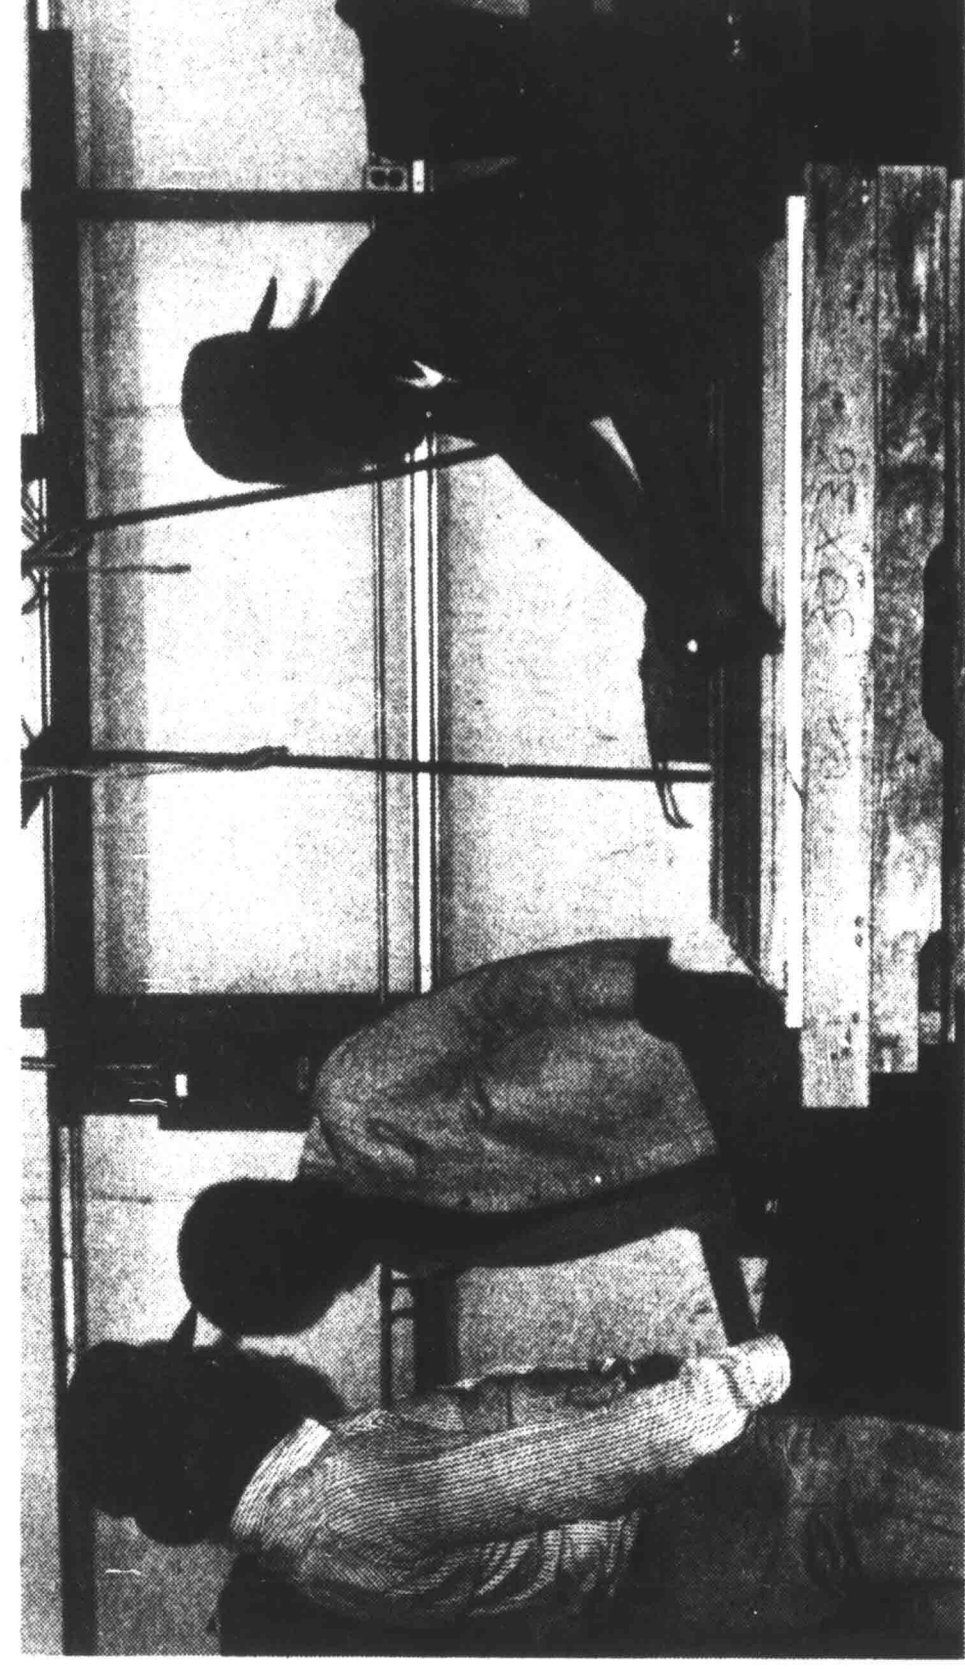

Named as the assistant manager is Mrs. Debra Moody, who has been with the company for nine years.

One of the new programs initiated by Halttex to improve a better attendance record is a contest that allows each employee who hasn't missed a day for a full month to enter a drawing. The winner of the drawing gets $500.00. Ardel Simmons was the first winner in February and Dorothy Jean Parker won in March.

Besides the other outlets for the men's sport coats and ladies' blazers produced by Halttex, their parent company S.F.M. Corporation owns a large retail store in Philadelphia and buys large quantities of these items.

H&H Pallet Co.

H & H Pallet Company began operation in 1979 in a new 4,800 square foot building on the airbase. The company ships about 2500 to 3000 custom made pallets a week. Some of their largest customers are other industries in our county including, Universal Electric, Maremont, Heckethorn, and Hayes-Albion Corporation.

H & H Pallet is owned by Mike and Roger Harris and Joyce Rogers is foreman of the plant and oversees all the company operations. Besides making pallets they assemble cardboard partitions for another local industry. They have nine employees on the payroll and five on contract labor.

Tupperware

TUPPERWARE

Tupperware began production in Halls in March of 1969 and many good things have happened to our town since.

Besides employing nearly 800 people, giving our economy a tremendous boost, they have also been very generous in helping with several worth while projects that make our town more attractive and a more desirable place to live.

The Halls Plant is one of four in the United States but plants are also located in England, Belgium, France, Spain, Greece, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Brazil, Canada, Japan and the Philippines.

The "Tupperware Family" enjoy many benefits both on and off the job as a result of association with the company. Perfect monthly attendance brings a $25.00 bonus to each worker who doesn't miss a day at the plant. At the end of the year, employees with perfect attendance receive a $100.00 bonus and a chance to win a new car.

A special summer program is available to workers who have teenage children. Parents who work on any shift may bring their school age children to the Tupperware recreation center during the day and enjoy a beautiful playground and many planned activities.

There is a Christmas party each year for children of employees. About 600 children attend and receive gifts.

The annual "Family Outing" each year, usually held in October, is attended by over 2000 people who play games, win prizes, enjoy carnival rides, eat a buffet supper and enjoy snacks all day long without spending a dime. Their recreation room, tennis court, basketball court and ball-field are available to employees also.

This year the Tupperware employees are enjoying something new. All Tupperware employees will receive one "Free" hot meal daily. At lunch there will be a choice of 3 to select from:

1. From the grill
2. Meat with vegetables
3. Soup and salad

There will also be a large selection of beverages.

Breakfast will be served with homemade biscuits. The luncheon can seat about 136 people at a time.

The ladies at Tupperware pay particular attention to the decor of the lunchroom which has picnic painting on the walls. The floor is soft amber flash brick tile (6" x 6" squares). The booths are made of teakwood with multi-color table tops in orange, honey and lemon and the ceiling is white acoustic tile, and there are a variety of hanging plants around the wall.

The ones who prepares the food will enjoy the all new stainless steel kitchen.

In addition to all of this the Tupperware Family enjoy good salaries, and excellent medical insurance coverage.

Tupperware has set the standard for the community in Industrial Achievement as well as community support.

Honorees Of Year

MAN AND WOMAN OF THE YEAR, presented at Monday's meeting of Halls-Gates Rotary Club, are Mrs. Warren Nunn, center, and Roger Charest, left. Making the annual presentation for the Halls Police Department, sponsoring organization, was Jerry Cribfield, right, Rotary president.

Mrs. Nunn, a native of Memphis, attended Southwestern University and took a master's degree from Memphis State University there. She taught in Atlanta, Ga. and in Memphis before marrying Mr. Nunn in 1967. They moved to Halls in 1972, where Mr. Nunn joined his father at Bank of Halls. She is president-elect of Halls Parent-Teacher Organization, having previously served as president and treasurer and a member of the Committee on Education for West Tennessee. She has served as chairman of Heart Fund and Cancer Society drives and is a member of the board of directors of Lauderdale County Red Cross. The Nunnns have two sons, Nick, 11, and Chris, 8.

Charest, a native of Uxbridge, Mass., joined Tupperware Co. in December, 1960. He served 18 years with the National Guard and Reserve and was discharged in 1970 with the rank of captain. In August, 1968, he came to Halls as assistant plant manager of Tupperware Co. He was named manager in April, 1974. An avid bowler and golfer, he is active in support of the Scouting program, has served on the board of directors of Halls Community Club and other organizations, and was first president of Halls-Gates Rotary Club. He and his wife, Terry, have three children, Mrs. Dennis Jones, of Halls, and Donna and Richard Charest, of Uxbridge, and three grandchildren.

CONFIDENTIAL CORNER

By Henry Murchison

Purely Personal

Through the years, we have enjoyed writing this column, but during recent months we have found it increasingly difficult to write anything of value. However, because of popular demand—someone mentioned that it had been missing from recent issues of The Graphic—we are going to resume writing the column.

We have used this space to complain, gripe, compliment, congratulate, and poke fun at various persons and activities, but more and more we found that most of the space was devoted to griping and fault finding, and that is not our intention.

First, we will start by saying that we were both surprised and pleased at the high school athletic banquet two weeks ago, when we were presented a plaque by the high school football coaches and the 1981 Halls Tigers, reading "HHS Appreciation Award, Henry Murchison, 1981 Halls High Tigers." Through the years, nearly 60, we have supported and appreciated Halls High football teams, but we had never expected any recognition for it. Our thanks to Coaches Andy Pugh, Ike Taylor, Al Bradford and members of the 1981 Halls Tiger football squad. We are proud of you!

Our congratulations and compliments to the graduating seniors of Halls High and especially to those who walked away with scholarships and awards. Much luck to each of you in your future endeavors.

Bobby Vaughn recently has been giving The Halls Graphic more credit than it rightly can claim. Back in March, Bobby began advertising for someone to raise the old Gates Banking & Trust Co. and the old City Hall buildings, but for various reasons, including serious illness and subsequent death of his mother, he was unable to contract for the demolition of the buildings. However, the problem was solved when two Illinois Central Gulf freight trains passed through Gates at the same time, with the result that down came the buildings. Now, Bobby is offering public apologies to The Graphic for believing that its coverage was not sufficient. Bobby, who says he didn't know that The Halls Graphic reached the ICG and an even higher authority. He is now a firm believer in advertising in this newspaper.

Well, apparently Halls will be short a good bit of its population this weekend, with many families planning to make the trip across the state to Knoxville to see and hear the Halls Golden Tiger Marching Band at the World's Fair. Nell and your editor are planning to be in Knoxville to take pictures and cheer for the Band.

The band trip will be the culmination of one of the most united efforts in the history of Halls, with almost everyone in this area having contributed in some fashion to make the trip possible.

and productive citizens of each and every one of them. We are depending on them for the future.

The education system of our county requires the largest block of tax dollars from the county budget. The school system is big business, and I believe we need business men and women to attend to the school board business.

I have had 35 years experience in the business world, ten years of banking and wholesaling prior to moving to Halls, and 25 years retailing and banking here, along with my years in county government and city government.

I feel I am qualified for the job I am seeking and have some experience to offer the people of Halls and Lauderdale County.

Everything I have in Halls, Tennessee. I am vitally interested in Halls and her people, and I earnestly solicit your vote and your influence in this election.

I shall make an effort to contact you before election day, but in case I miss you, I am asking you now for your help.

Candidate

JOE M. MCCARTHY announces his candidacy for School Board member in the Ninth Commissioner's District of Lauderdale County Industrial Board.

"I believe most of you know me," he says, "and I feel that I know a great number of you and will try to meet those I am not acquainted with during the campaign.

"My wife, Nelda, and I owned and operated the Western Auto Store for 21 years.

"I served as city magistrate for Halls in the last big Quarterly Court this county had, when there were 39 members, and chose not to seek re-election when the court was re-apportioned.

"I have served three terms as alderman for the town of Halls. I have been a member of the Town of Halls Industrial Board since its inception and am now serving my third term as a member of the Lauderdale County Industrial Board.

"I served a time as director of First Federal Savings and Loan of Ripley and Halls.

"I have been associated with the Bank of Halls as vice-president since Nov. 1, 1978.

"My family attends First Baptist Church in Halls, and I am a member of Halls-Gates Rotary Club. We have a daughter, Gara Strong, who teaches in Halls Elementary School, and a granddaughter, Heidi Strong, who is a student in Halls Elementary, and our son-in-law, Dave Strong, is an instructor in Dyersburg State Community College. You can therefore see my interest in education.

"I believe our young people are our greatest assets, and we desperately need to do the very best we can to train them to make useful

Boosters will meet at 7:30 p.m. June 1st in the high school band room to elect officers for the new year.

Halls Library Adds Books

VERGIE NORMAN, left, librarian, and Don Levy, right, board chairman, show Halls Mayor James Cheshier, center, some books received recently at Halls Public Library. The library held open house Sunday with visitors from Ripley, Gates, and other nearby towns. Opened in September, 1980, the library moved to its present location last January. It has about 6,000 volumes, including a set of Tax Cases donated by Mrs. Bob Harris, in memory of Mr. Harris. Recent figures show 2,865 books circulated in the first quarter of 1982, compared to 1,267 during the same quarter of 1981. The library has 650 card holders. A 4-week reading program, beginning June 4th, offers certificates for children reading ten or more books, and prizes for those reading the most. Films will be shown Tuesdays, at 9:30 a.m. for ages 3-6 and 11 a.m. for up to 12-year-olds.

Johnnie Ford For Sheriff

Since I have announced my candidacy for sheriff, I have seen and talked to a number of citizens through out the county. Their main question to me was, if elected, would I serve the citizens of Lauderdale County if a complaint was made?

Citizens of the county have told me, that complaints have been made and they are told that the department does not have the manpower. Several burglaries and thefts have occurred in the county in the past years that have gone unattended.

The people in Lauderdale County do not deserve this kind of law enforcement. Citizens pay their taxes and should receive the best that law enforcement has to offer.

If elected, I will be an honest and fair sheriff who will treat everyone equally.

I will do my best to slow drug traffic in Lauderdale County.

I will work with and for all law enforcement agencies I come in contact with.

I will do nothing that would disgrace my family, friends, or the people of Lauderdale County.

I will be a sheriff who will try to work out programs for our young people, in which I have a great interest.

I will be a sheriff who remains in contact with the people, so they will know they have a sheriff they can talk to, trust, and not be afraid to discuss their problems with—this will be for all age people and for all races.

I will choose a group of citizens interested in their community to serve on a committee to meet monthly or bi-monthly, to tell me what I am doing right or wrong in their community or what I need to be doing. This will show the citizens that I'm interested in all of Lauderdale County, and not just part of the county, and will give each community a voice in the sheriff's department. This group will be chosen from all races, ages, and sexes.

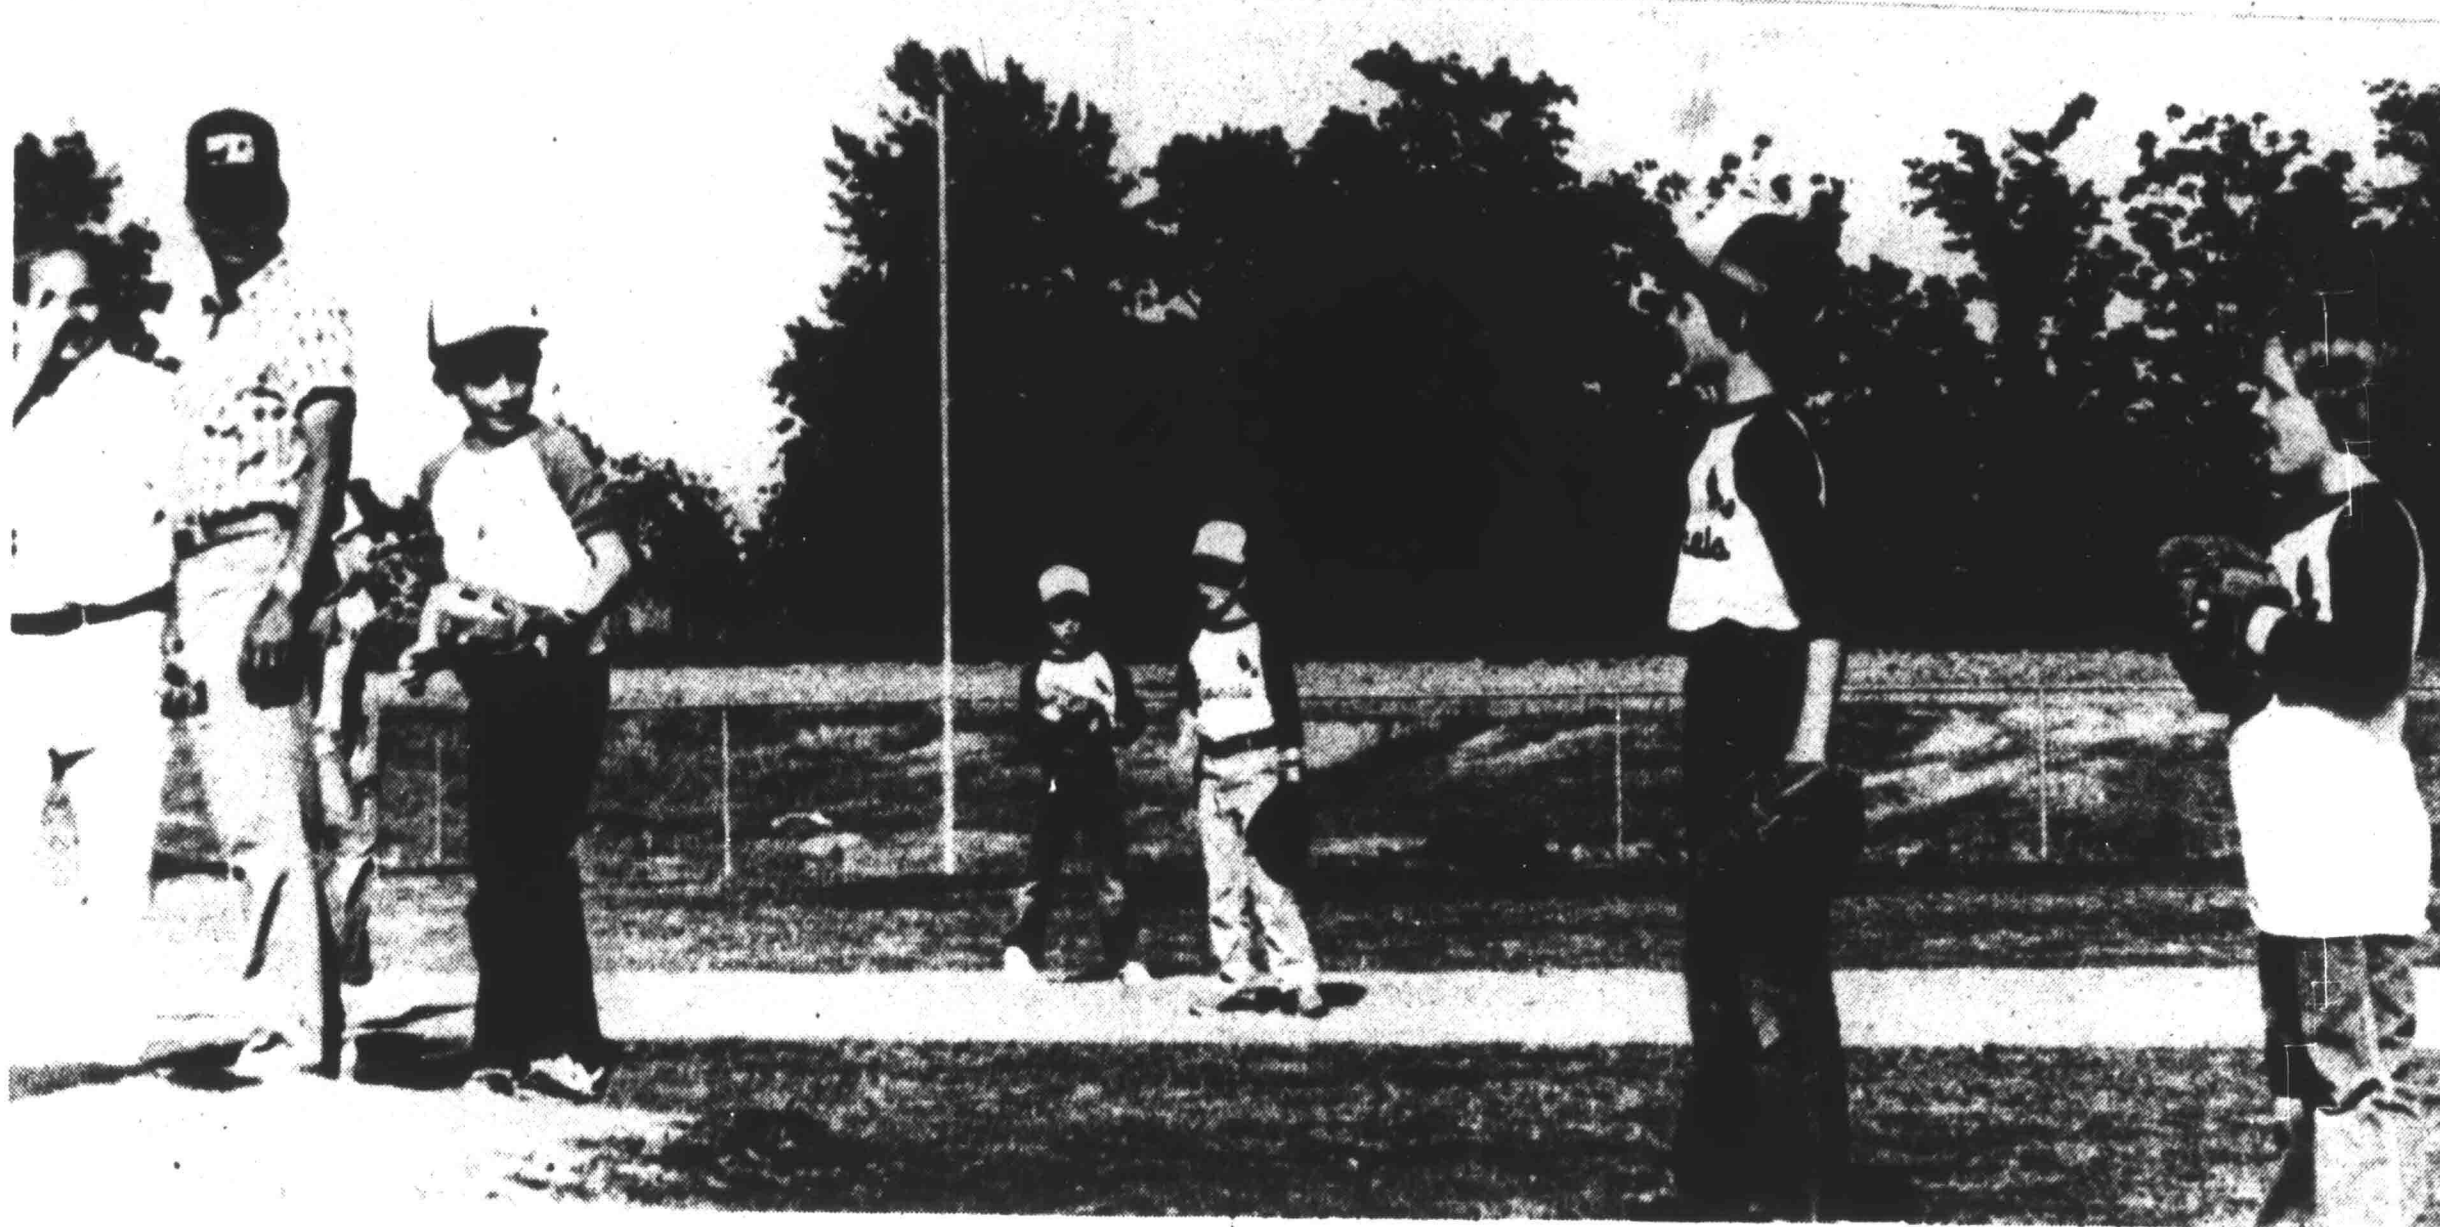

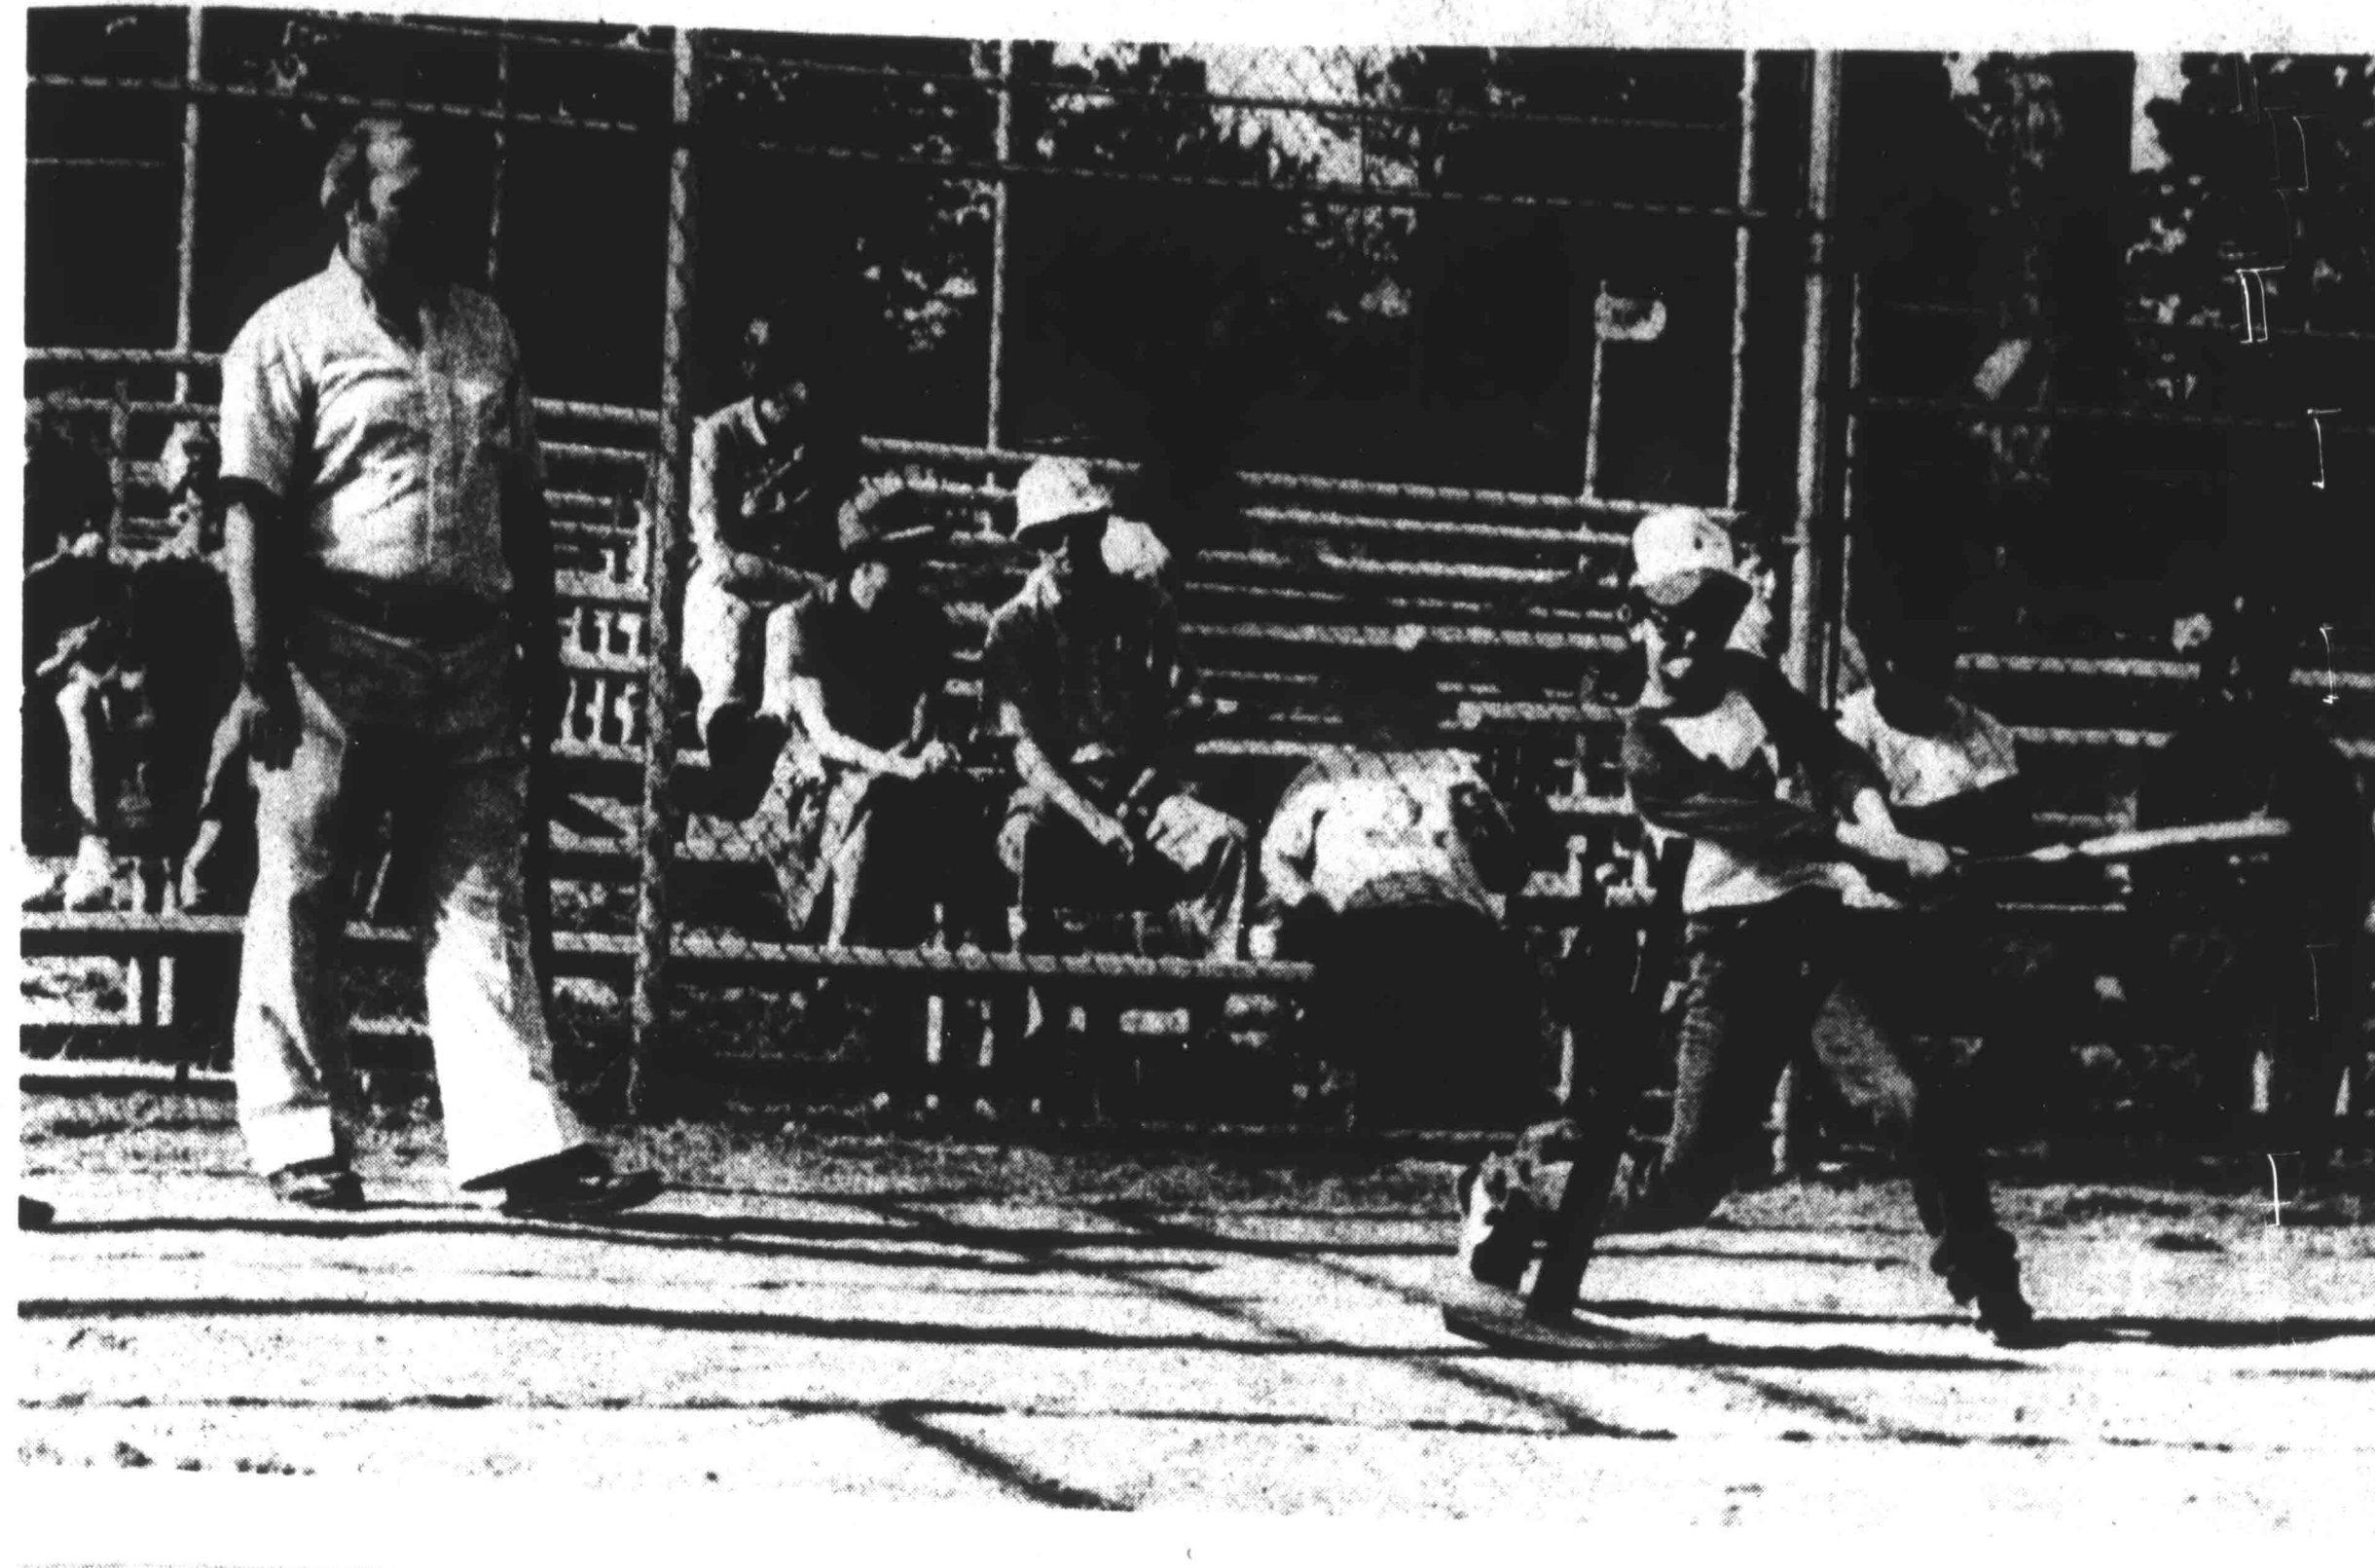

I have been a policeman in Ripley for 8 1/2 years; I have the experience that qualifies me for this most important position. When I was a policeman in Ripley, I tried hard to be the best policeman in the department. I did my best to enforce the laws of Ripley, I tried to be courteous, and treat the people as I would want to be treated. My record will stand for itself, I don't know of any black marks that can be thrown against me.

I would appreciate it if people who think that I'm the best candidate for sheriff would get out and talk to your friends, neighbors and relatives and support me on Aug. 5th for your sheriff of Lauderdale County.

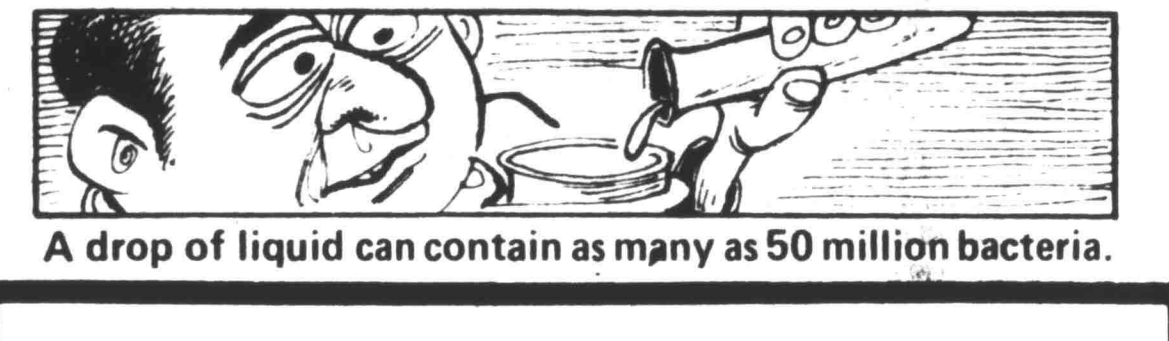

Your vote and influence would be greatly appreciated on Aug. 5th.

Tee-Ball Introduces New Twists

The Narrows of the Harpeth

In the southern section of Cheatham County, Tennessee, west of Nashville, the Harpeth River meanders into a graceful six-mile loop, doubling back until it almost meets itself. At one point the channels are a mere 200 feet apart, separated only by a peninsula of limestone bluffs. Over the centuries, the river currents have gradually worn the bluffs into a tall, thin ridge, commonly known as the Narrows of the Harpeth.

An ancient Indian village believed to have been the second largest in the entire United States once stood here. The city flourished from 1000 A.D. until around 1800 when, historians believe, its inhabitants were wiped out by a disease introduced by white explorers.

In the early 19th century, the Narrows caught the attention of Montgomery Bell, one of the most colorful and controversial characters in Tennessee history. The tall, steely-eyed Pennsylvanian came to Tennessee in its formative years with a tireless determination to establish himself as the state's premier ironmaster and industrialist. In 1804, he purchased the Cumberland Furnace from James Robertson, the founder of Nashville. Among other things his furnace supplied cannonballs for Andrew Jackson's army at the Battle of New Orleans. Bell's aggressive business tactics eventually created an industrial empire, including several iron forges in the region.

But for all the iron his forges produced, Bell still did not have the capability to make a simple iron skillet. He needed a source of power to operate huge hammers that could pound his pig billets into malleable iron that could be shaped into a any form desired.

Around 1818, Bell believed he had found the answer to his problem at the Narrows of the Harpeth. He gambled his empire in a bold and costly enterprise, which resulted in one of the most remarkable engineering feats of the 19th century.

Using the crude methods and tools then available, Bell blasted a tunnel through the base of the narrow ridge separating the two channels of the Harpeth. The river now drops about 15 feet through the short-circuiting tunnel, creating a useable source of power. At the tunnel exit Bell built huge water wheels, which powered the hammers and the bellows of his forges.

Bell named the operation Patterson Forge in honor of his mother. During the 1830s Patterson Forge developed into an industrial complex, employing a small army of hammer men, woodcutters, burners and blacksmiths. The pounding of the hammers reverberated through the hills day and night. Finished products flowed from the forge and were floated downstream to the Cumberland River, where they were shipped by steamboat to places like Natchez and New Orleans.

Patterson Forge was a major Tennessee industrial operation until about the time of the Civil War. Bell died in 1855 and was buried with in site of his monumental tunnel.

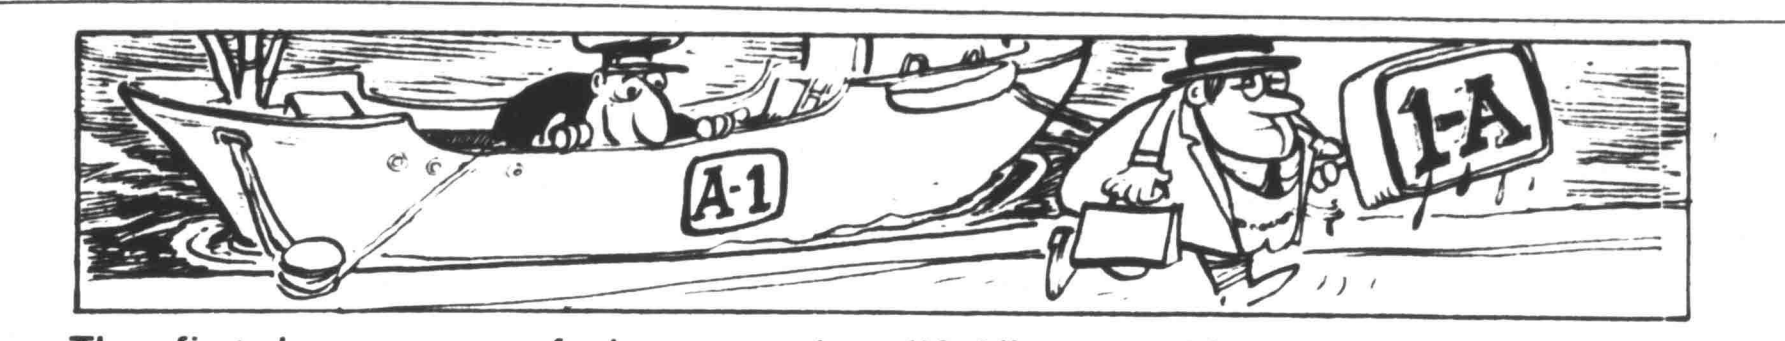

Today the Narrows of the Harpeth is a State Historic Area. Few remnants of Bell's complex remain except for the tunnel itself, which may be there forever. It is possibly the oldest extant tunnel in the country, and has changed very little over the course of 160 years. The water level in the Harpeth is often low enough for visitors to wade right in for personal examination of the tunnel. There are no developed facilities in the area, but the pool at the tunnel outlet has become a popular swimming hole and picnic ground. An age-old Indian trail leads to the top of the 200-foot bluff, providing a panoramic view of the river as it winds through the lush woods and farmland.

The Harpeth itself has been designated as a State Scenic River, and is a favorite stream of canoeists.

The tunnel is located about 30 miles west of Nashville, just off of U.S. Highway 70. Where the highway crosses the Harpeth River bridge, turn north on the paved road and go about three miles to the Historic Area entrance. The area is open daily from sunrise to sunset, and rangers are on duty.

Camping and accommodations are available at nearby Montgomery Bell State Reformer Park, one of the premier recreation areas in Middle Tennessee. The park contains two lakes, hiking trails, camp sites, a resort inn and restaurant complex. It also contains the historic birthplace of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

For more information on the Narrows of the Harpeth, contact the ranger office at 615-797-2099 or contact the Department of Tourist Development, Room T, Box 23170, Nashville, Tennessee 37202.
