Maremont Believes Pay-Roll Stabilized

Ripley's Maremont plant, which has trimmed salaried employees from 115 to 41 and hourly workers from 800 to 338, expects no further cuts in employment and perhaps an increase, if the firm wins a $15,000,000 contract for General Motors J-cars (600,000 mufflers the first year)-decision expected any day now.

So Mike Abbott, former manager of the Ripley plant and now vice-president of operations for Maremont, based in Loudon, told Ripley Rotarians Tuesday, as program guest of Ripley Mayor Rozelle Criner.

"We've already cut to the bone, and sometimes into the

Club Seeking Oral History

The Halls High School Close-Up Club heard Bob Gates, Folklorist with the Tennessee Community Heritage Project at Dyersburg State College, explain how to effectively prepare oral histories at the group's September meeting.

The club will interview Halls Area residents about the period 1940-45. An Oral History Archives will be presented to the Halls Public Library by May, 1986.

The club welcomed 42 new members bone," Abbott said, "but facing a no-profit, no-growth year, we had to do it, just as anyone in business has to do it when the money coming in doesn't equal the money going out.

"Don't think the Ripley plant, our main manufacturing and listributing facility, has been unished in this.

"Last week, most of the 32 salaried employees and 100 hourly mployees laid off in Loudon had been employed there since that plant was opened 17 years ago."

Ripley Plant Praised

"Over three years, the Ripley plant reduced scrap 49% and upped productivity 20%.

"We're proud of that record, and it was rewarded by big wage increases.

"Now the economic picture has changed.

"To be competitive, we can no longer pay janitors $12 or $13 an hour, when we can get the same service, which cost us $150,000, for $20,000, from a private contractor.

"We've eliminated department lines, and we now have teams instead of workers plus foremenwe only have three foremen now, for two shifts.

"And we've gone to part-time employees, for peak periods, instead of paying someone to do nothing during dry spells.

"But we remain committed to this plant, its workers, and this community."

Price Pressures Cited

Abbott cited pressures on Maremont's markets:

• Catalytic converters required by federal legislation use cars-the per cent of buyers who return to the dealer who sold them the car to replace a muffler. Foreign competition needs only U.S. distribution networks to sell a muffler for less than Maremont pays for the steel in one; Canada is now underselling U.S. producers by 40%. • Domestic competition is up, from firms which don't offer Maremont's 4,500 parts, just the few in most demand.

Private Brands Boom

In its lush years, 1981-4, Maremont, with three major competitors, served the replacement market, largely through Sears and K-Mart, in favor of providing muffllers as original equipment to auto manufacturers, not then selling many units.

Now it must not only cope with 125 private brands and several dozen competitors but try to get back into the original equipment market in a big way-thus its bid for the multi-year General Motors J-car contract.

Cope it will, Abbott assured Retarians: with $180,000.000 in assets and little debt, Maremont is here to stay, but must adjust to current business conditions.

Nation's Farms Are Fewer, But Larger

By Jerry Parker The number of farms in the U.S.-in 1985 is estimated at 2.29 million, down 2 percent from 1984. The land in farms declined 3.8 million acres from the previous year. The average size of farms increased from 438 last year to 445 acres in 1985. A total of 3.9 million people were working on farms and ranches in the U.S. during the week of July 7-13. There were 3.9 percent. (161,000) fewer workers on farms this July than a year earlier. The wage rate for all hired workers was $4.24 per

School Construction Promoted Bids Below Estimate

Bids opened Tuesday for school construction were below budget allotments, says School Supt. Phillip Jackson. Lashlee-Rich Construction Co., of Jackson, was apparent low bidder on a new middle grade school to house students from Arp, Henning, and Ripley Junior High School.

Seaton Construction Co., of Dyersburg, was apparent low bidder to add four classrooms to Halls Elementary. No contracts were awarded, pending closer study of the bids. The Board of Education will consider them when it meets Oct. 10th in its offices in Ripley.

hour, 8 cents above the previous year.

Farm expenditures for 1984 totaled $128.3 billion, down 2.3 percent from a year earlier. The average expenditure per farm was $55,145 which is $375 below the 1983 average. Farms with more than $100,000 insales accounted for 52 percent of the total expenditures. Farms in the $20,000 to $100,000 category accounted for 29 percent of the expenditures. Farms with less than $20,000 in sales had 19 percent of the total expenditures.

James F. Herron

James Floyd Herron, 82, of Ripley, died Friday night after a head-on collision on Central Road in the Arp community.

Services were at 4 p.m. Sunday in Macedonia Baptist Church, with burial in Grace Cemetery. Mr. Herron, a retired farmer and security guard, died at Baptist Hospital-Lauderdale shortly after the 11:20 p.m. crash, a Tennessee Highway Patrol spokesman said.

Officers are Shannon Barnes, president; Kelly Vaden, vicepresident; Sara Kiestler, secretary: Todd Burks. treasurer; Cindy Carmack, parliamentarian; and Leanne Johnson, reporter.

School Trespass Cases Dropped

Charges against two adults for criminal trespassing at Halls Junior High School were dropped Friday in General Sessions Court when it was learned one had already been jailed on a drunk and disorderly charge in Dver County.

Local and school officials dropped the charges after meeting with the second person involved in the incident.

The pair were observed in the hall by a junior high teacher and a license number noticed as they left the area.

In a separate incident, a junior high student who allegedly used a knife in a fight with a high school student has been taken out of school and placed in a juvenile detention facility.

One person sustained a minor injury in incident.

stainless steel mufflers, which last longer, and cut into Maremont's market for replacement mufflers.

• Fewer old (3 to 8 year) cars are on the road, needing replacement mufflers.

· Consumer debt is up and spending down.

· Foreign cars command increasing shares of the market, with special muffler requirements.

Birthday Flight

RAYMOND BELTON and his wife, Lucille, of Nankipoo, in celebration of his birthday, were treated to a trip to New Orleans, La., by their eldest son, Raymond Belton, Jr., and his wife, Sybil, of Memphis. They met in Covington Sept. 20th and had dinner at Bozo's in Mason. After breakfast at Denny's in Memphis, they took a flight for New Orleans and had lunch at Ralph and Kacoos and coffee and French pastry at Cafe Dumonde. They toured the French Quarter and Jackson Square.

Soil Test This Fall

Farmers in Lauderdale County should not wait until next spring to begin planning their crop fertilization programs. They should begin now by collecting soil samples for testing while fields are relatively dry and accessible.

By testing soils this fall, growers avoid sampling wet fields next spring as well as the spring rush in the Soil Testing Laboratory. In addition, soil testing early allows growers to determine lime, phosphate and potash needs and to apply those materials as recommended this fall. This minimizes spring planting delays because of dealer's tight schedules. Also, fertilizers usually cost less in the fall than in the spring when demand is greater and supplies lower.

Although the above are good reasons why fields should be sampled and tested early, the primary one is to eliminate the risk of not getting fields sampled. If soils are not tested until near planting time in the spring, the chances are great that fields will not be tested at

To make sure that a soil test is a part of next year's crop fertilization program, soils should be tested this fall. The Lauderdale County Agricultural Extension Service Office has soil testing materials and information and is located at 217 North Main Street, Ripley, (Old Hwy. 51 North).

The spokesman said Mr. Herron was driving a 1976 GMC pick-up truck north on Central Road when it crossed the center line and struck a car driven by John L. Todd, 64, of Ripley. . Todd was injured and taken to Baptist Hospital Lauderdale.

Mr. Herron leaves a son, Lucien, of Ripley; three daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Pilcher, of Ripley, Mrs. Janelle Lockard, of Waco, Tex., and Mrs. Joan Beard, of Gates; a brother, Elwood, of Ripley; 14 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Halls' Christmas Parade will be held at 7 p.m. Dec. 5th instead of Nov. 28th, as first planned.

Ripley will hold its parade at the same time, sponsored by Ripley Chamber of Commerce and Ripley Exchange Club.

Top three floats in each of two divisions-business and industry, and churches, civic groups, and schools-will get trophies. Details from the Chamber of Commerce, 635-9541, or Accents, 635-1648.

After lunch on the grounds, there will be special singing.

The Rev. Tony Crossnoe, pastor, invites everyone to these services as the church celebrates 115 years of service.

Curve's Baptists Note 100thYear

Curve Baptist Church will celebrate 100 years of continuous service to its Lord with an Old Fashion Day Oct. 20th.

There will be guest speakers, beginning at 10 a.m. Lunch will be served at noon, with several singing groups in the afternoon, everyone invited.

This Is Family Sex Education Month

October is National Family Sexuality Education Month. There will be a state-wide public affairs campaign this month designed to motivate teens to make responsible decisions regarding sexual behavior. The theme is "Get the Facts". This article will cover "Teen Pregnancy: The Facts."

The United States leads nearly all other developed nations of the world in teen pregnancy:

There are 96 pregnancies per every 1,000 girls aged 15 to 19-more than double the next highest rate of 45 per 1,000 in England

This problem crosses all racial and economic lines. The rate for white teens alone is 83 per 1,000. In the last decade, the birth rate of unwed white teens rose

Last year in Tennessee, there were 16,424 teen pregnancies

That means about 45 teens became pregnant every dayalmost two every hour. Of those total pregnancies,

6,545 were to girls under 18 years of age. Teens accounted for one of every five pregnancies in the statë.

Teen pregnancy has always been a problem, but the devastat ing social and economic consequences associated with teen pregnancy are increasing. For nstance:

Babies born to teenagers are two to three time more likely to die in their first year of life than babies born to women in their 20's.

Unwanted teenage, pregnan-cies are associated with serious health consequences. These include a greater incidence of premature and low birth weight babies, mental retardation, infant and maternal mortality, and physical or emotional neglect and abuse.

Half of all teen mothers raise their children as single parents, facing almost certain proverty.

80% of pregnant teens 17 and under never finish high school making it extremely hard to find a good job.

Those who become fathers before age 18 are about 40% less likely to graduate from high school, and among high school dropouts. only 1 in 5 is employed.

The suicide rate is seven times higher among pregnant teens. Teen mothers are more likely to be child abusers. Of those teenagers who bear a child, 25% will become pregnant again within a year. Teen marriages are two to three times more likely to end in divorce.

Did you ever drive 60 miles or more to take advantage of a super special? An item that costs you $50 locally would have to save you $14.40 if you drove 60 miles round-trip to get it and just wanted to break even.

The American Automobile Association certifies that 24.0 cents is what it costs to drive your car one mile. So if you've driven 120 miles round-trip to pick up that special, you'll have to add $28.80 to the cost of your purchase. That sweet buy can suddenly turn quite sour.

Local merchants, whether they sell groceries, clothing, drugs, hardware, appliances or whatever, feature top line nationally advertised products at competitive prices. Courtesies Fete Lori Clendenin

Miss Lori Clendenin, bride-elect of Mark A. Darty, of Halls, was given a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Finis Hardy, near Gates.

Miss Clendenin chose a purple orduroy suit. At her shoulde was pinned a pink rosebud from the garden of Mrs. Beatric Wood, in a crystal bowl.

Special guests were the cou-ple's mothers, Mrs. Joe Clen-denin and Mrs. Kenneth Darty, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Viola Sawyers, and the groom's grandmothers, Mrs. Odis Darty and Mrs. James W. Wilson.

Assisting Mrs. Hardy were Mrs. Hal Pennington, Mrs. Mary F. Stewart, and Mrs. Beatrice

The home of Mrs. Darrell Manning in the Perry Community in Crockett County was the setting Sept. 28th for a brunch in Miss Clendenin's honor.

The bride chose a plaid dress with a contrasting jacket. Pinned to her shoulder was a cor-sage of cotton bolls and ribbon, given her by the hostesses. The table was laden with tempting foods. Punch was poured from a crystal bowl.

Special guests were the cou-ple's mothers, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. James W. Wilson.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Gary Manning and Mrs. Kenny Manning.

The home of Mrs. Jane Gilley in Jackson was the setting for a bridesmaids' luncheon Sept.

Hostesses were her daughter, Miss Jennifer Gilley, and Mrs. Kathy Moore.

Miss Clendenin chose a plaid dress with a jewel neckline, a fit-ted bodice, and full skirt.

Pinned to her shoulder was a ymbidium orchid corsage, gift f the hostesses.

After luncheon from a table draped with a cut-work cloth and centered with daisies and leather-leaf fern, the group made rice bags for the wedding.

Dresden, Greenfield Fade In Region 7-A

As Lake County and Halls downed opponents on the way to their showdown this week, Greenfield and Dresden continued to struggle as the 1985 grid campaign moved past the mid-season mark.

While the Falcons were dump ing Memphis Westside 28-0 and the Tigers were beating Dyer County 14-8, the Yellowjackets and Lions found themselves on the short end of 7-0 and 21-7 scores, respectively.

Gleason won for the fifth time, edging Greenfield and pinning the fourth loss on the Jackets. Nat Montgomery rushed for 166 yards and scored the game's only touchdown on a 78-yard

Greenfield's Joey Featherston had eight solo tackles and seven assists and his team outgained the Bulldogs 244 to 239 but couldn't get into the end zone.

At McKenzie, the Rebels raised their record to 4-1 with the victory over the Lions. Dresden managed only 137 total yards and scored its only six-pointer on a 24-yard pass from Peanut Wynn to Jeff Harris.

The Rebels ran up 288 rushing yards while knocking Dresden to 2-3. Their points came on scores by David Barksdale, Roddy Atkisson and Steve Perry.

At Tiptonville, the Green Machine won for the fourth straight time to up its record 4-1. Kenny Flagg scored two times and rushed for 147 yards on 20 carries to hand Westside its first loss of the campaign.

Flagg's scores came on runs of 20 and four yards. Robert Crawford added a two-yard run for six and Bill Mealer scored from six yards out.

Halls downed host Dyer County by scoring late in the first half and in the third period. The Tiger defenders allowed just one first down and only 47 total

The game is reported elsewhere in this week's issue. South Fulton, the fifth team racing for a Region 7A playoff spot, was idle.

In other games of interest, was Ripley over Bolivar 14-0; Millington 21, Dyersburg 14 Haywood County 35, Munford 14; Trenton over Crockett County 46-7; Milan over Cooke ville 22-14; Henry County 24 Lexington 7; Old Hickory 33, Gibson County 16; and Bolton 4. Elliston 6.

This week's Region 7A sche dule has Halls hosting Lake County in a key battle which will go a long way toward deciding the region crown. Greenfield travels to Dresden and South Fulton hosts Martin Westview.

Other area games of interest include Haywood County at Ripley; Humboldt at Union City; Trenton at Milan; Dyersburg at Jackson North Side: Covington at Obion County and Dyer County at Crockett County.

Maury County

The Majesty of

A New York reporter, trave ing in Tennessee in 1868, filed reports to his editor. Impressed with what he had seen, he said: "The finest plantations in the commonwealth are located in Maury County."

Although the lifestyle of the area has undergone many changes since the reporter's time, Maury County's reputa tion for fine homes and lush farmland is still evident today. Each fall a tour of antebellum homes enables visitors to view a wide variety of architectural styles.

Majestic Middle Tennesse Fall Tours will be held October 11-13 and October 18-20. The tours begin in Columbia, the county seat, located approximately 50 miles south of Nashville, Tennessee.

Eleven restored and maintained antebellum homes and churches are included in the 1985 tour, including two homes registered as National Historic Landmarks.

One of these has the distinction of being a U.S. president's home. Other than the White House, only one house mains in which James Polk, 11th president of the United States, lived - the James K. Polk Ancestral Home on West 7th Street in Columbia The house is a museum of Polk's life furnished with pieces used by him and Mrs. Polk in the White House. Some items were used by Polk in his law office in Columbia and some of the furnishings were those of his father's family, Samuel Polk.

Polk family portraits on the walls of the home give visitors a chance to see the likenesses of the former occupants, the president and his wife, Sarah Childress Polk. Items from his inauguration include the In augural Bible used by Polk and Mrs. Polk's gown and fan. From their days in the White House, displayed in the collection are pieces from four services of china and silver crystal and candelabra used for state dinners. The Polk properties include the kitchen and the house next door known as the "Sisters House." This house was once occupied by the families of the president's sisters. The Polk Gift Shop is located in this home. Polk accomplished four major goals set forth as part of his campaign for president and two of these goals were to settle the Oregon question and to acquire California With the achievement of these objectives, the territory of the country stretched from the Atlantic to the Pacific for the first time.

Rattle & Snap, also a Na tional Historic Landmark was built in 1845 by George W. Polk (a cousin of President Polk). It is considered an outstanding example of Greek Revival architecture. Often referred to as "the queen of middle Tennessee antebellum mansions," the present owners have restored Rattle & Snap and its formal gardens. The restoration and refurnishing of the mansion was completed with strict attention to the mansion's original design and appearance. The architectural style of the house represents a departure from the conventional ar chitecture of antebellum homes in this part of the South. Six additional Corin thian columns were added to the usual four and the magni ficent house with its ten columns makes an impressive statement atop a gentle rise at the end of a long driveway in the southwestern part of Maury County.

Two historic churches are on the 1985 tour. Gothic St. John's Episcopal Church built in 1842, is possibly the state's only remaining planta tion church. It was built by the Polk brothers, one o whom was George W. Polk of Rattle & Snap.

Zion Presbyterian Church is the oldest church still active in the county, dating from 1807. The present church building was constructed in 1849. The church was found ed by a colony of eleven im migrant families who moved westward from South Carolina to settle in Maury County. More than 1,500 per sons are buried in the church yard, including 11 soldiers of the American Revolution three War of 1812 soldiers and 47 Civil War soldiers.

Historic homes on the tour include Booker Place, Ken nedy Place, Lucius Frierson House, Park Place, the Frank Sowell Home and Vine Hill

Also included is the Athenaeum Rectory, a home of Gothic design built in 1835 The Atheneaum was occupied during the Civil War as the headquarters of Union General James S. Negley. One interesting feature of this house is that it never had a kitchen in the home or on its immediate grounds. An early occupant, Franklin Gillette Smith, served as head of the Columbia Institute, a regionally recognized girls school. The family always took their meals in the dining hall of the school, which stood close by until about 1915.

Majestic Middle Tennessee Tours is a self-guided tour and a detailed map is furnished with ticket purchase. Vans will be available to furnish transportation for a small fee Tickets may be purchased at the Polk Home and the Athenaeum on tour days; and in advance at the Polk Home The tour ticket is admission for every place on tour, and tickets are $10 for adults with discounted prices for students and senior citizens. Children six and under are admitted free

District 13-AAA's only unbeatens clash Friday when Ripley High School's Tigers host Haywood High School's Tomcats, of Brownsville. Ripley comes into the showdown after having blanked Bolivar last week, 14-0, for its third district win and a 5-0 record over-all. The Tomcats are 4-0 overall and 3-0 in the district af-

Dyersburg led 7-0 after a first period scoring pass from Carlos Thomas to Bob Thurmond, but Cat quarterback Dwight Jones went 23 yards to score in the second stanza, and Matthew Thornton's boot and 15-yard field goal made it 10-7 at the half.

Haywood Coach Rufus Lassiter, a graduate of Western Kentucky University, is 106-45-3 in his 14th season with the Cats. Of those years, this one has re quired the most rebuilding, with only 15 returning lettermen, three returning starters, and 10

One of the most malleable of metals, gold can be hammered into sheets so thin they are almost transparent.

It's a simple term, a two-syllable word meaning "protection from or resistence against assault." The word is defense and at Newbern Friday night, the Halls Tigers played it well in a 14-8 victory.

How well? The statistics speak for themselves: • First downs allowed-1.

• Rushing yards allowed—minus 14.

Garner found Bobby Britton

- Total yards allowed-47. • Punts forced-9.
- Turn-overs caused-2.

"What can I say about the defensive effort?" asked Halls head coach Andy Pugh after the Tigers stopped the Choctaws and won for the second straight outing. "They played well, almost as well as you could ask. Except for one play, they were doing what they should be doing, stopping the other team. With the exception of that one open over the middle for the play Pugh mentioned-a 54-yard score and then the pair con touchdown strike-the Halls nected for a two-point conversion defense was the story of the to take an 8-0 advantage. game. Halls, 2-0 on the road, had ouble moving the ball in the first half but managed to pul even with just four second remaining in the half.

Jeff Buckner put the Tigers of the scoreboard with a six-yard pass from Terry Lents with time running out in the second period. After moving from the Halls 44, the Tigers were faced with a second and nine when Joe Patrick rushed for eight yards, moving the ball to the six.

moving the ball to the six. Buckner lined up on the left side, turned back to Lents and grabbed a little dump pass, catching the Choctaw off guard for the easy score. Lents then found Patrick for the two-point conversion to tie the contest and the teams took the intermission in an 8-8 deadlock.

The Tigers missed a scoring opportunity in the first half, fail-ing on fourth down from the Dyer County 16, and lost another chance to add on points in the early minutes of period three.

Dyer County gained just two yards on its first second-half pos-session and punted the ball away, giving Halls field position on own 48. With Patrick carrying most of the load, the Tigers moved to the 23 where Randy Butler recovered a Lents fumble for the Choctaws to stop the march

Halls' defense arose, though, and stopped the Choctaws quickly. John Arwood tossed runner for a four-yard loss on first down and Derrick Harris and Zane Bernard teamed to sack Garner for a loss of six more on second down, setting up third and long.

Garner dropped back to pass and Benjie Goodwin was in the right place to intercept the toss, giving the Tigers field position at the Choctaw 26.

Jarrett Rogers picked up four on first down and Patrick, who finished the game with 107 yards on 27 carries, did the rest. The fleet-footed back got around the left side and scooted into the end zone to make it 14-8 with 4:53 left in the contest.

The point-after attempt was wide, leaving Halls up by six.

Halls saw a six-point lead vanish in the season-opener with Bolton but that wasn't to be the case in the fifth outing of the campaign. Dyer County man-aged to do little in the remainder of the contest.

After Halls moved ahead, Dyer County had the ball four times. On the first three possessions they punted after three plays. Their final possession started at the Tigers' 2 after Halls marched 51 yards and used up about five minutes of the clock. Three passes fell incomplete and the igers were winners.

"They (Dyer County) have a pretty good defense but they couldn't move the ball against our defense," Pugh said. "We managed to get two touchdowns and, with the defense playing so well, that was enough."

Arwood, 6-2, 290 pound senior, set the defensive pace for Halls, recording seven solo tackles and a fumble recovery. Tyronne Patrick was next with six individual stops.

"John played his best game of the year but he also had a lot of help from the rest of the defense," Pugh added. "The group played together and the players compliment each other. Its a team effort and I'm glad they are working well together."

The defense will get its biggest of the season next week when it hosts rival Lake County, a Region 7A opponent. The Falcons. 4-1, have won four straigh are the defending regio

"Andy has won two regi games already, so they're in," said. "If they beat us, they really got a good spot. If we be them, we'll all but be in, too And Pugh agrees.

"This one will go a long way toward deciding the home field advantage," he said: "We certainly want to give it all we've so that we'll be the position get the win."

Leading the Lake County attack will be a powerful run-ning crop. Robert Crawford car-ried most of the load during the early weeks, but Kenny Flagg returned against Westside to rush for more than 100 yards.

"They do a lot of things well," Pugh said. "It'll take an out-standing effort to beat them."

Halls To Flush Its Fire Plugs

Halls city officials and the Halls Fire Department will flush the city's fire plugs next week and are urging everyone to be cautious with their water use for a short period of time during the operation

According to Mayor Sammie Arnold, the plugs will be flushed at 8 p.m. Monday, Oct. 14th. The operation could cause some water discoloration for 24 hours and all washing and other water use should be limited.

The operation will help pre pare the city in the event of an emergency requiring use of fire plugs and offer fire fighters an opportunity to use a number of fire-fighting practices as well as determine if any plugs require maintenance.

The flushing annually causes some inconvenience, and Arnold says he regrets the brief problems but explains the operation is required to properly maintain the fire plugs and determine a number of emergency water tests.

Anyone with questions is urged to call City Hall, 836-9653.

Irrigation Interesting

The vegetable irrigation tour at the West Tennessee Experi ment Station field day Thursday of last week proved most interesting to producers Ronnie Carmack, Bruce Little, and Jimmie Summar because they are contemplating irrigating at least part of their crop next year.

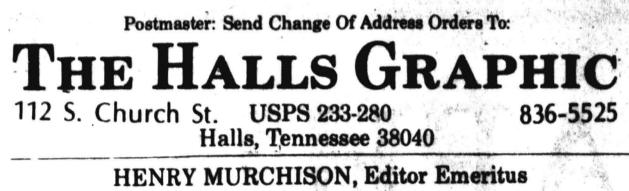

This field tour and display day also featured broccoli and cauli flower production, use of black plastic mulches and row covers, and for tomato production, varieties, staking, and tying.

Also covered was disease control on tomatoes and cool season and greens production Lauderdale Countains were especially interested in turnips.

After the tours, a market development panel included Bruce Little, speaking on the Lauderdale County marketing co-op.

Al Rutledge, University of Cennessee specialist in vegetable production, has worked with us closely for several years to help increase total volume per acre for our tomatoes in particular

LONG FOOTBALL EVENING Friday in Halls saw Lake County jump to a quick lead and roll to a 28-0 victory over the Tigers disgusting Halls senior Vincent Reed (See Page 6).

Ripley Ruling District Hill Two More Weeks

Ripley High School's Tigers, after a 25-14 win last week from Haywood, are atop District 13-AAA, 4-0, and sure to stay there for two more weeks.

Their unbeaten record, the only one in the district, is not at risk this Friday as the Tigers host winless Memphis Overton, of District 15-AAA, nor next Friday, when Southaven plays here.

After that, they return to the district for their last two games-in Dyersburg and hosting Jackson North Side. Dyersburg defeated North Side last week, 21-14, to move into fourth place in the district, 2-1, behind Haywood, now 3-1, and Jackson Central, 2-2 after winning from Munford last week, 28-6. North Side fell to fifth, 1-2. Only district action this weekend is North Side's game with Bolivar, in the district cellar at 1-3. Haywood, in best position to challenge Ripley for the district crown, has two district games to play, its last two scheduled, with Bolivar and North Side.

Tomcats Turned Tough Ripley led Haywood's Tomcats 13-0 after the first period and 19-0 at the half, but it was 19-14 after three quarters.

Ripley went for an onsides kick on the opening kickoff and recovered at the 45.

The Tigers drove 55 yards in seven plays, with quarterback Kelly Wright completing two passes—both to end Todd White. The big one covered 26 yards to the Brownsville three, Thompson scored two plays later from the one.

Ripley's second TD was set up by a reception from Wright to fullback James Griggs for 24 yards, to the Tomcat 9. Thompson scored on the next play. The drive covered 86 yards in nine plays, with Thompson carrying four times for 30 yards.

In the second period, Wright marched the Tigers in for another touchdown, completing a 40-yard pass to Greg Jackson to the 25. Thompson rushed for five, 10, and 10 yards to get the

Brownsville made a game of it in the third period behind the passing of quarterback Dwight

Jones hit Aubrey Williams with a 9-yard TD, but Ripley put the game out of reach with a 7 vard drive behind the running o Thompson, who had 56 yards on nine carries in the march, including the final three.

The Tomcats' other touch down came when Wright was stripped of the ball by Brownsville defensive end Jeff Allen, who picked up the ball and ran for the score.

Defensive back Gene Malone sealed the win by intercepting nass with 47 seconds left.

RICHARD VOSS managed to slap this pass away from the Lake County Falcon receiver, but the Lake Countians did nough damage through the air and on the ground to hand the Halls Tigers a 28-0 loss Friday.

New Rules Up Interest In Late Season Games Never have so many games meant so much to so many. The Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association's expanded football playoff system will mean more significant games being played later in the season than ever before.

It will also place an increased emphasis on head-to-head competition. Heretofore, when as many as three teams were tied in the race for a playoff berth, it mattered not if one team had defeated all the others with whom it was tied.

That has changed. The new format has some slight revisions in the tiebreaking procedure, but the slight revision could well make a difference in upcoming season for many teams.

Tie-Breaking Procedure

Listed below is the general format for determining a district champion and runner-up:

A. All teams are required to play all other teams within their district. The teams with the best district records shall be declared the district winner and runner-up and shall advance to the first round o the football playoff series. In Class A, Regions 6 and 7 shall play a regional schedule, in which case four teams shall advance from the region. B. In the event of a tie for the district winner or runner-up spot, if either team has defeated the other in regular-season play, the winner shall be rated above the loser in the standings. (After the winner has been determined, the tie-breaking procedure shall begin all over again, starting at the top. All teams who tied for first, except the champion, will be brought back for consideration.

C. If at any point when the following tie-breaking procedures are applied, one team has beaten all other teams that are tied for the playoff position, that team shall be rated above the others.

D. The following tie-breaking procedures shall be applied and all regular-season games shall count (this includes all district and non-district (After each of the following steps have been applied, item C above shall be applied.) 1. The team with the greatest number of victories. 2. The team who has the greatest number of victories over teams winning 50 percent or more of their 3. The team whose opponents have earned the most victories 4. The team whose opponents have received fewer defeats.

5. The team who has the greatest number of victories over teams in its own class

6. Ten yardline overtime procedure at neutral site Monday at 7:30

Popular Decision

One thing the new playoff format does is increase interested in regularseason games. That has proved to be popular decision with many who have watched their school's playoff chances end early, sometimes the first week of the season

Equally popular among coaches is the decision to allow head-to-head competiton to be the tie-breaking standard as often as possible. The genereal feeling is that the field of friendly strife, not the TSSAA Handbook, is the place to settle ties. This procedure allows those who play the games to earn the playoff spots.

"The proposal to add another team from each district was submitted and approved by a vote of the memberexplained TSSAA Executive Director Gill Gideon.

"Coaches and administrators thought that by keeping schools in competition for the playoffs longer, it cented would increase interest and help attendance. There was also the feeling that some schools districts might have two teams stronger than many others across the state. In this case, they'll get a chance to prove it."

The head-to-head clause is another

The Tigers, losers to the Fal cons 28-0 last week at home dropped to 2-1 but can still gain a post-season playoff berth and possible home-field advantage with a win in its last region contest Oct. 18 with South Fulton.

The Red Devils, though, continue to struggle and dropped to 2-3 overall with a 29-14 loss t Martin Westview. After winning the first two outings, Hea Coach Kerry Curling and his South Fulton team has droppe three straight. It had one open date.

Two other Region 7A club battled last week and Dresde severely damaged Greenfield's post-season chances with a 22-12 win over the Yellowjackets on Thursday night. The win uppe Dresden overall record to 2-4 and 1-1 in region competition. Greenfield falls to 1-5 and 0-2 against region teams.

Lake County rolled up 328 offensive yards in the big win over Halls and moved its record to 5-1. The Falcons won their fifth in a row and marked up their third straight shutout This week's region schedule has Halls at Gibson County. Lake County at home against Obion County, Dresden at home against Sharon and Greenfield at South Fulton.

In other games of interest last week, Dyer County clobbered Crockett County 24-0 Thursday night, Dyersburg notched an overtime win over Jackson North Side 21-14, Ripley moved to 6-0 with a 25-14 win over Haywood County, Obion County dumped Covington 27-20 and Milan beat Trenton 31-8.

Other contests this week has Denmark West at Dyer County, Memphis Overton at Ripley, Henry County at Dyersburg Munford at Covington and Gleason at McKenzie.

The Halls defense, which held Dyer County to just one first down in the Tigers' previous out ing, appeared to be ready to battle the Falcons and it forced a punt in four plays.

Halls' defense stood firm and with the help of a 15-yard penalty and a six-yard sack by Kelvin Robinson, the Falcons found themselves facing a third down and 34 play.

Baker called for a pass over the middle and the strike was complete from Bubba McClain to Tyrone Clay. Like the pun return, a number of Tiger defend ers gathered around the ball, hit the runner-and let him go. In seconds, Clay was in the end zone and the score was 14-0 with 11:48 left in the half.

And Lake County, despite 70 yards in penalties in the first period and only three first-half first downs, was on the top of the region heap.

In the second half, the Falcons put together two excellent, time consuming drives to secure the victory and smother the aggravated Tigers.

The first was on the opening possession of the third frame and covered 79 yards in 11 plays. Kenny Flagg, who missed number of games with an injury early in the year, capped the trel with a four-yard run and Craw ford booted his third PAT for the 21st point.

Halls picked up one first down before being forced to punt, an the Falcons again powered their way into the end zone. After Goodwin's boot, Lake County started at the nine and marche for the six-pointer in 15 plays to ice the contest. Flagg scored the fourth TD with an eight-yard

The Tigers had some chances but turnovers prohibited any scoring. In 10 possessions, the Tigers moved into Lake County territory three times and miscues stopped each drive.

HHS Risks Intact Record On Road

After a poor outing against rival Lake County, the Halls Tigers hope to rebound and begin a drive toward the end of the regular season with a good perfor mance against the Class AA Gibson Countains Friday night at Dyer.

The Tigers, 28-0 losers to Lake County, have a perfect 2-0 record on the road and hope to keep that mark intact after crashing with the 1-5 Pioneers.

Gibson County, a District 13-AA team and one of four squads in that district not competing for TSSAA-sanctioned post-season action, jumped ahead of Caruthersville. Mo., 14-0 in last week's contest but dropped heart-breaking 21-20 decision. "Any time you loose a close one, you really get after the next team you play trying to take out some of the previous week's frus-Halls Head Coach trations," Andy Pugh said about this week's skirmish. "I hope we'll be ble to get prepared for their fight and put up one our own.

The Pioneers led Caruthersville in first downs 20-6 and in: total yards 369-217 but allowed: the Tigers to score 14 thirdperiod points to erase a 20-7

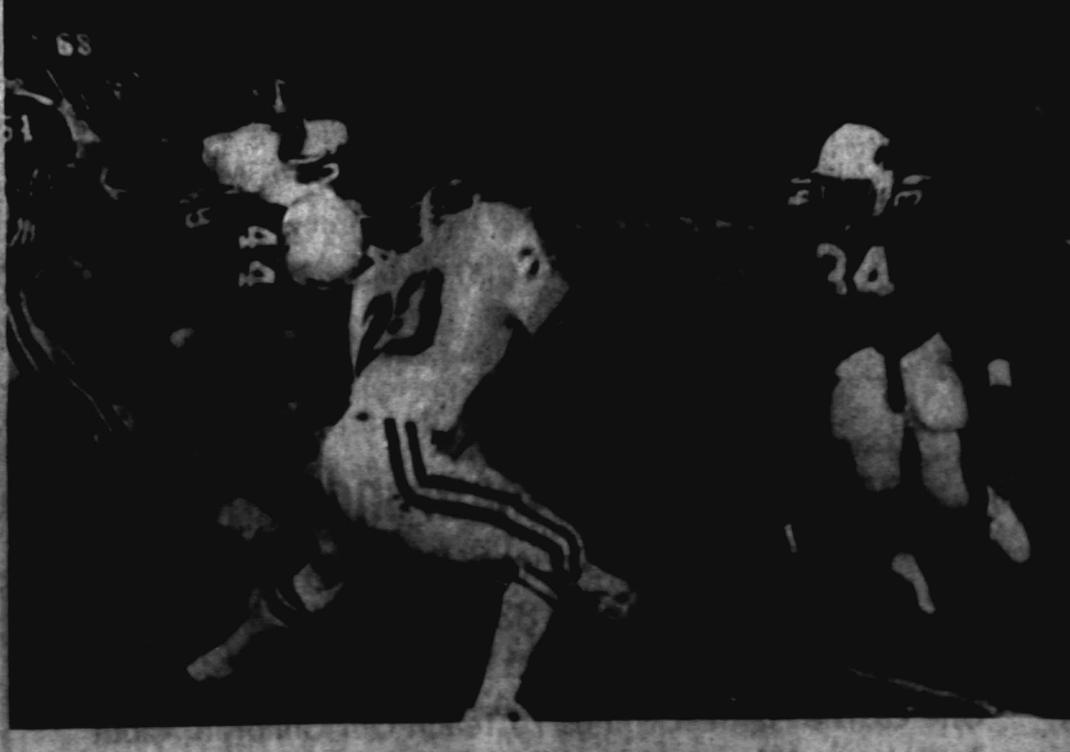

Randy Boals scored on a fourvard run to give Gibson County ts first points and he added a two-point conversion. Other Pioneer points came from a David Argo pass to Brad Oliver and a three-yard run by Boals.

"We've been making a lot of turnovers and, it doesn't matter who you play when you make a lot of turnovers, anybody can beat you," Pugh added.

Halls, 3-3 overall, will be facfacing its third Class AA team after having split with Trenton (15-7 loss) and Dyer County (14-8 win.) A fourth Class AA oppo nent, Crockett County, is Halls 10th opponent

Sports Spectrum

Halls lost a real athletic cornerstone when Bill Price died this summer, but his memory, the recollection of his undying support of all sports activities in the area, is very much alive in the community Last week, his memory reached out to Evan Jones, of The Lake County Banner, and, here, reprinted with permission, is his tribute to our friend.

He followed Halls in football, basketball and all sports, but foot ball remained his true love. He lived alone and if he ever had any relatives I never knew of

My path crossed his at the Dyersburg State Gazette where he rai I would wait around for a couple of hours each Wednesday and Mr. Price was always there probing for information about the Falcons, giving his views on the Tigers and chain-smoking Mar-boro cigarettes. He was a rotound man, about 5-11 and upwards of 235 pounds. He had a weathered face with deep lines that gave him the look o someone who had worked outdoors for many years. I never asked nything about his past and he never volunteered much He wore thick horn-rimmed glasses that did nothing to knock the luster from a set of clear blue eyes that seemed to look cheerful even when he was mad, which was hardly ever.

Mr. Price would help me when we had inserts for the Banner Stuffing, as it is known in the trade, is a thankless boring job even when you are getting paid for it. Mr. Price offered his services. never asked for pay and groused about it when I offered. He usually took the money, in part because I insisted and most assuredly because he needed it.

The center of his world remained the Tiger football team. When they won he was proud. When they were injured, he worried. When they lost he was sad. When they looked bad he either blamed the officials or the coaches-or both.

From 1977-80 when Lake County played in the state finals three times and made the semis on four straight occasions, LCHS' biggest challenge always came from Halls.

Regardless of how impressive the Falcons looked going in and how poorly Halls had played, the game always developed into a tense struggle. That is what high school football is all about. During those four years Lake County always won, but it was never easy. "I'll tell you one thing," Mr. Price would say proudly. "Lake County won, but they knew they were in a game.

In 1981, Halls broke a 16-game losing streak at the hands of Lake County as they won 21-12. The fact that the Falcons were down and on their way to a 4-5 year knocked a little of the sting out of the win. However, in 1962, Lake County and Halls met at Tiptonville and as usual, a play-off berth was on the line. The Falcons were once-beaten at 7-1. Halls was 6-1-1 and a two-touchdown underdog. In a tremendous defensive battle, Halls finally won the game 3-0. on a 35-yard, fourth quarter, Danny Edenfield field goal. It was the Tigers' proudest moment in their long rivalry with Lake County.

The Banner ran a picture of Edenfield's heroic kick and Mr. Price cut it out and framed it. A friend who visited him said he had it displayed prominently in his room with the verdict, "Halls 3, Lake County 0" inscribed on it.

It was his proudest possession

Two years ago, he suffered a serious heart attack and his health deteriorated steadily. He had to drop his paper route, but he still continued to follow the Tigers both at home and on the road whenever his health permitted. The last time I saw him was at a basketball game last winter-watching the Tigers. He was gaunt, tired looking, and the sparkle was almost gone from his eyes.

He died this summer while I was out of town. I didn't even get to send flowers. "Keep your money," was what Mr. Price always said at the State Gazette.

This will be the first Lake County-Halls game Mr. Price has missed since the series resumed in the mid-seventies. He may not be in the crowd, but I'll bet he knows the score.

see rusty, dirty water coming from their faucets Tuesday were so surprised by almost perfectly clean water that many called City Hall wondering why the town's water pipes hadn't been flushed as planned. Surprise! They had.

"It just didn't turn everything so dirty this time," said Don Patton, Halls Fire Chief, about the procedure. "We did a little more planning and made every attempt to keep from causing so many problems. I guess it worked."

Indeed. A number of Halls residents, including City Recorder Katie Davis, were amazed that the flushing hadn't created the stir caused by similar efforts in years past.

"I wondered why they hadn't gone with the plan," she said. "Then I found out that they had. I was surprised, but it was a pleasant surprise."

Patton said five fighters and six city employees slowly flushed

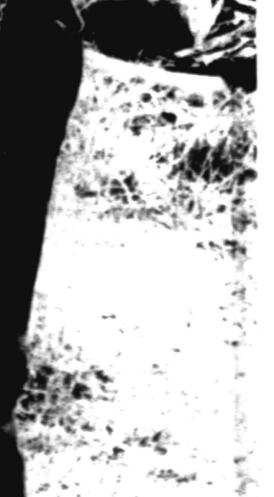

79 fire hydrants in the city limits and found only a few, three or four, out of service. "We found out that the city was really in better shape that we thought," he said. "We weren't sure what we'd find. We were glad that only a few weren't in operation. Patton said he felt the flushing job should be done every few months to keep pipes clean and to keep the amount of rust from building up in the water lines. He added that the use of some new plastic pipe helped keep the content of rust low in some areas and that gradual release of the water helped to keep the rust from stirring so bad.

"It caused some rusty water but it only stayed rusty a little while," he said. "The ladies in City Hall usually get flooded with calls about the rusty water. Today, the calls were asking why it wasn't rusty.'

Patton said the crews worked about three hours and discovered no major problems.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN WALTER WILLIAMS, JR., were married at 7 p.m. Sept. 21st in First Baptist Church in Halls, with the groom's cousin, Mike Pilcher, of Ripley, officiating before a heart-shaped candelabrum, flanked by spiral brass candelabra, overlaid with live fern. The pulpit area was outlined with live fern balls and accented by two 7-branch candelabra. The bride, Vanessa, was given by her father, Marshall C. Jennings, of Halls, in a gown of white satin with a sweetheart neck-line, a fitted bodice of Alen con lace and pearls, and bouffant three-quarter sleeves. Appliques of lace were sprinkled over the full skirt, whose hem, edged with lace, fell into a cathedral train. A head-piece of matching lace and pearl hat with a bow of bouffant netting fell into a chapel

The bride carried a cascade o silk flowers in pale shades o pink and mauve, centered with a large white calla lily edged in mauve.

The bride's niece, Rhonda Hines, of Halls, was maid of honor. Mrs. Rodney C. Hines and Mrs. Thomas R. Pipkin, or Halls, served their sister as matrons of honor. Other brida attendants were the groom's sister, Mrs. Sherry Nelson, and Mrs. Dan Cochran, of Memphis, and Mrs. David Jennings and Mrs. David Kesler, of Halls.

They wore floor-length gowns of daphne rose taffeta featuring sweetheart necklines and threequarter sleeves. Each wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bride, and carried silk cascades in shades of mauve and

Mr. Williams chose his father, of Ripley, as his best man Groomsmen were the bride's brothers. David and Gary Jennings, of Halls, with Danny Holmes, Kenny Pilcher, Jeff Roberson, and Terrell Stokley, of Ripley. Groomsmen wore charcoal gray tuxedoes of a formal cut-away design, each wore a pink boutonniere.

The bride's mother, in a floorlength gown of mauve crepe with matching accessories, entered the church on the arm of her son, Gary. The groom's mother, in a floor length gown of mauve chiffon with matching accessories, was escorted by David Jen nings. Each mother wore a gardenia corsage at her shoulder.

Providing nuptial music was Mrs. Charles Moore, of Halls, pianist, playing Longer, the theme from Ice Castles, And 1 Love You So, My Own True Love, O Perfect Love, and Alwavs.

Jim Pilcher, of Dresden, sang The Sweetheart Tree, To Me, and Truly.

Mrs. Shirley Jansen Spiller, of Halls, registered guests. For the reception in the fellowship hall, a table overlaid with lace held an all white 3-tier cake topped with a well of live miniature carnations in the wedding

Centering the table was an ice sculptured columned design olding floating candles in crystal votive cups. The centerpiece was accented by floral arrangements throughout the sculpture. and dry ice flowed softly from the base.

The groom's table held a layered chocolate cake with a allard duck design.

Jennifer Mills, of Ripley, and Natalie Pipkin, of Halls, distributed rice bags. After a weekend trip, the newlyweds are residing in Ripley.

Sergeant York: Hero from the Valley of the Three Forks

the Three Forks of the Wolf patchwork of forests and the towering sheltered by ridges, the valley has produced a fair living for generations of small family farm-Forks also produced one of America's most celebrated military heroes Sergeant Alvin York.

In 1968, the State of Tennessee purchased a large tract of land in the valley and created a park in honor of the backwoods marksman who became one of the most decorated soldiers of the First World War. The park ranger is none other than the famous Sergeant's son, Andy York.

"Daddy was born and raised, lived and died here" said Andy. "Aside from the time he spent abroad during the war. he lived his entire life right here in the Valley.'

During that two-year interval, the poor, ill-educated farmboy, who had never before traveled beyond the Tennessee mountains, became one of the most admired and acclaimed men in America

York's fame resulted from his legendary one-man firefight with the German Army in France on October 8, 1918. Leading a small patrol in the Argonne Forest, York killed 25 German soldiers and, almost singlehandedly, effected the capture of 132 others.

His exploits were rewarded with over 40 Allied decorations. A feature in the Saturday Evening Post brought York's story home to millions of Americans. The tale of his mountain upbringing, his simple piety and patriotism. and his battlefield heroics captured the heart of the nation. When he returned from France in May, 1919, York discovered he was now a bonafide American hero.

Gibson County planned a big homecoming celebration but a fired up Halls team spoiled the party with 21 first-period points and a 42-6 triumph over the host Pioneers on a comfortable evening near Dyer.

With an offensive explosion and solid defensive effort, the Figers improved their record to 4-3 and chalked up their second ictory over a Class AA squad this year. The Black & Gold reviously defeated Dyer County but dropped a close decision o a third Class AA foe, Trenton.

In Friday's action, the Tigers took advantage of a couple of arly breaks to jump on top and rolled to an easy win. "The quick score gave our offense some confidence and it erformed well," said Head Coach Andy Pugh. "We've made ome early mistakes and they've really hurt us. This time, we ot the breaks early and the offense responded favorably.

RHS Hosts Southaven Before District Finals

Ripley High School's Tigers-who Friday thoroughly controlled Memphis Overton but won only on last half touchdowns of one and three yards-entertain Southaven this Friday before resuming action-against Dyersburg and Jackson North Sidein District 13-AAA, in which they are undefeated and leading the pack.

• Dyersburg, third in the district (behind Haywood) fell last week to Henry County, 19-0, outside the district. • North Side, 25-0 over Jackson Central Merry in its debut, lost its second game in as many weeks and its third straight district game to Bolivar, 14-6. That dropped it into fifth place in the district, below JCM.

Southaven, 2-4, comes to Ripley off a 28-14 loss to JCM, which lost to Ripley 21-7.

With a home-field advantage for the first round of the playoffs waiting, the Halls Tigers travel to South Fulton for a crucial Region 7A contest with the Red

The Tigers, big winners over ounty last week, have already won two of three region contest and could assure them selves a spot at home for opening round of the prep playoffs with a victory over the 3-3 Devils. But Kerry Curling's Redmen are battling for playoff positioning and with a 1-1 slate and two region games to go, a win over the Tigers could be the start of some thing big.

Region 7-A Race Is All But Settled

South Fulton's victory over Greenfield has all but settled the Region 7A playoff race, but final standing and homefield advang-tages are still up for grabs as action moves into the eighth

The Red Devils evened their overall record at 3-3 with a 21-14 triumph over the Yellowjackets and bumped the Greenfield team to 0-3 in region play, all but knocking them from the playoff hunt. Lake County remains at the top of the race with two wins, Halls is 2-1 and both South Fulton and Dresden are 1-1.

Lake County, 6-1 overall after a 62-35 win over Obion County last week, entertains. Dresden this week in a key region contest and South Fulton plays host to Halls in another critical battle.

At South Fulton, Greenfield fumbled the opening kickoff and fell behind two plays later on a 28-yard scoring pass from Joey Hall to Ronald Knox. Knox later added a four-yard run and Billy Bransford hit Hall with a twopoint conversion pass.

The Devils' other TD came on another Greenfield fumble and Johnnie Jones' four-yard ramble with the loose ball.

Greenfield's points came on six-yard scoring run by Joe Martin and a one-yard lunge by Doug Wren.

The Falcons rolled up 563 total rds in a wild contest at Tiptonrille. Kenny Flagg rushed 18 imes for 156 yards and two scores, Robert Crawford ran for 139 yards on 10 attempts and scored three times and Clint Cardwell added a six-pointer and 97 yards. Bill Mealer added a D. Donnie Mays tossed a 50a 1 strike to Fred Tharpe and Brian March capped the evening with another scoring play.

At most big banks, the money you work hard for leaves town to work hard for someone else.

At our Independent Bank it's comforting to know that money you deposit stays right in our community. Going to work for your neighbors who need a hand in financing new cars, homes and investing in the future of our community. It also helps finance the education of your grandchildren and supports important local causes that help your friends and neighbors. Banking the Independent Way is more than just current interest rates, convenience and up-to-the-minute banking services ... it's working together to create a stronger tomorrow.

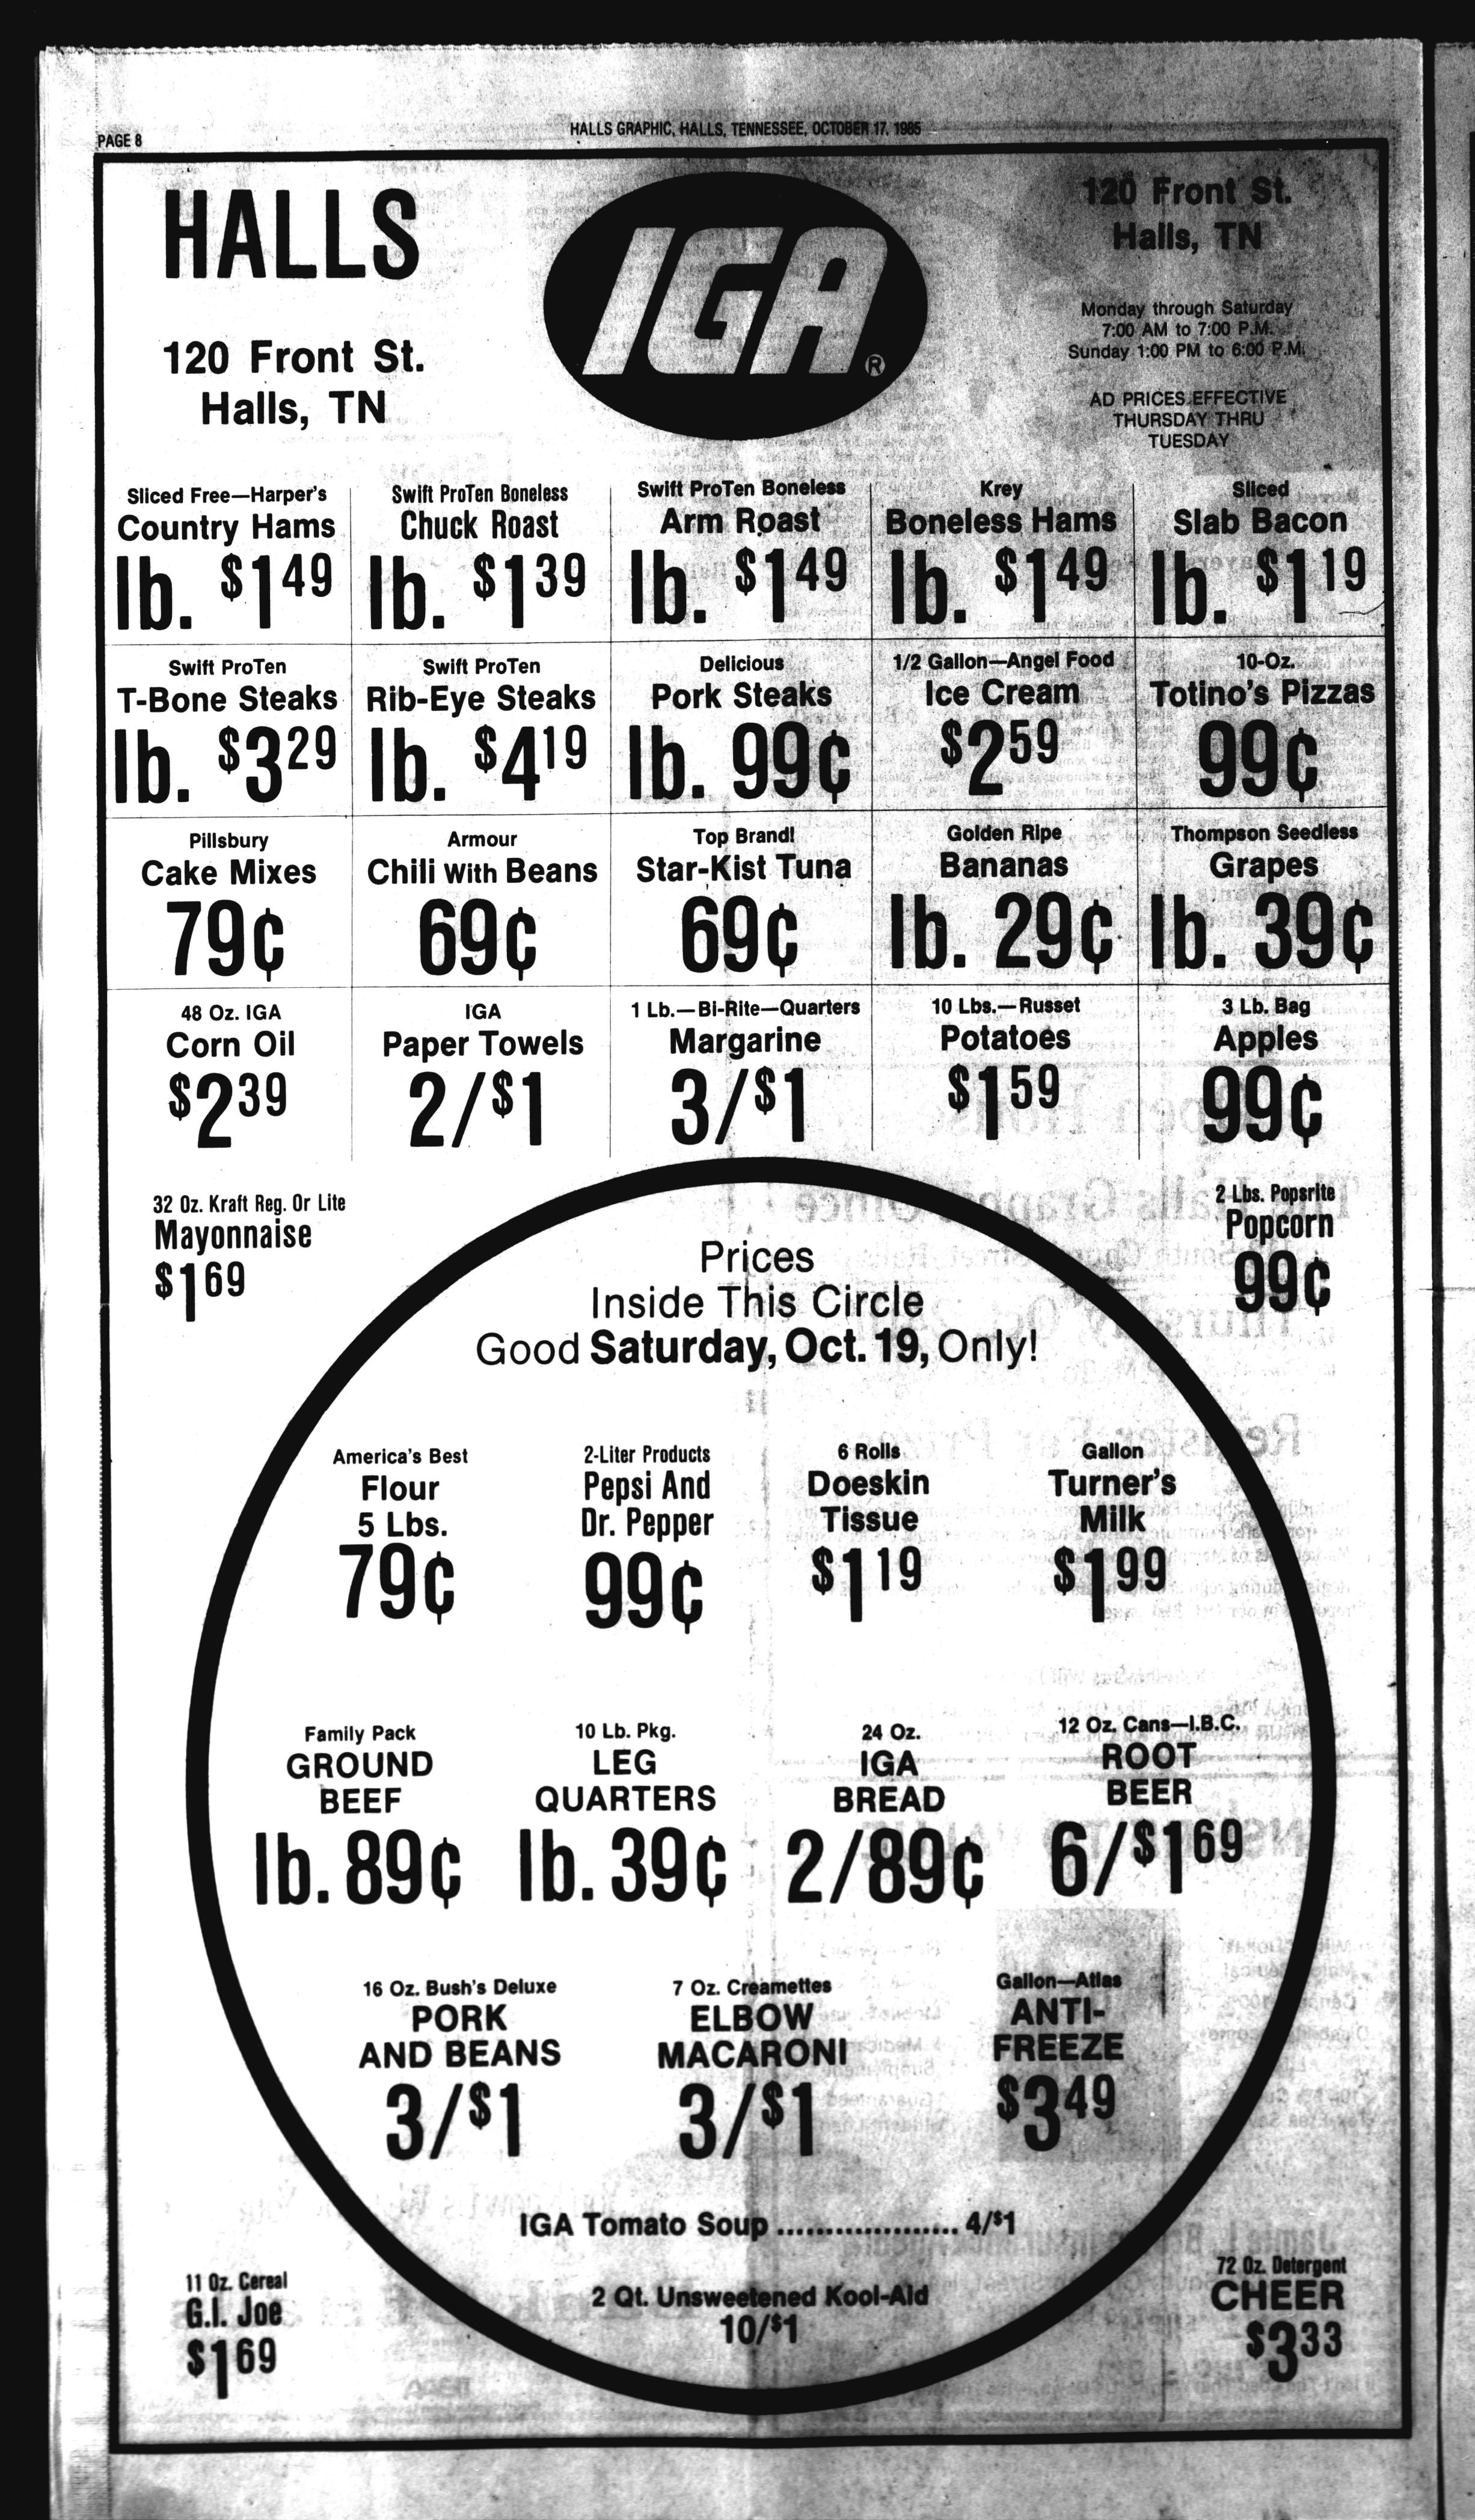

It's a lot better working with people you know and people who share in what you do.

Re-Appraiser Sees Timing Fortunate

Tony Sykes, of Henry County, employed by Tennessee's Division of Property Assessments, explained re-appraisal of county property at the Halls-Gates Rotary Club meeting Monday, saying it is the only way property owners can be taxed

This is the first re-appraisal in the county in more than 15 years and will probably increase the tax rate, according to the county's budget needs. Sykes said.

"That's not news people like to hear, but it is the only way to keep fair taxation." Sykes said the county could be lucky that the assessment was not made three or four years ago. "The economy has changed nomewhat over the past few years," he added. "The final assessment may not be as bad now as it could have been a few years ago."

Sykes said about 10 people have been working since last fall and should complete re-appraisal by next spring. All property owners will be advised of new assessments of their properties and remedies available if disagreements arise.

In other Rotary business, tickets were distributed to sell a video cassette recorder to raise money for projects in the area. The VCR is on display at Arnold Healthmart Drugs in Halls.

1982 Farm Deaths Under New Probe

State and local officials have re-opened an investigation of two Lauderdale County farm deaths ruled accidents more than three years ago, Dist. Atty. Gen. Paul Summers, of Somerville, said Friday.

The Lauderdale County Sheriff's Department and two Tennessee Department and two Tennessee Bureau of Investigation agents, with help from TBI forensics experts, have been looking since early September into the deaths of Peggy Childress and Pat Gay, Summers said.

When the investigation is complete, "I'll make a decision as to whether the facts substantiate that a crime has or hasn't occurred, and I will take the appropriate action," he said. Mrs. Childress, 44, died April 25, 1982, after being dragged several hundred yards beneath a mule-drawn sled used in the cultivation of tomatoes.

Gay, 41, Mrs. Childress' brother-in-law, was found dead May 17, 1982, after receiving skull fractures from apparently being run over by his tractor.

Both deaths were ruled accidents in 1982, Summers said. Both deaths occurred on farms off Edith-Central Road near Ripley.

Summers would not comment Friday on what led him to re-open the investigation. He would not say whether foul play is suspected.

Sheriff Milford Durham also declined comment on the investigation. He said the probe may be completed within the next few weeks.

CONFIDENTIAL CORNER

By Henry Murchiso Old Time Politics

The death of W. V. (Bill) Lightfoot, of Dickson, a native of auderdale County and husband of the former Earline Meadows, of Halls, brings back memories of a story which he elighted in telling on himself.

During the 1930 depression years Bill and the late Oscar Grimes made the race for Lauderdale County Trustee. Since times were bad and neither had any money they did their campaigning by walking the county to contact the voters. Mr. Grimes as many of you will remember had only one leg and Bill had lost the sight of one eye. Grimes won the race and Bill enjoyed saying that "a one-legged man outran a one-eyed

Bill later worked as an engineer with the Rural Electrification Administration and was in Alaska when the big earthquake struck Anchorage and other points in Alaska in March, 1964. He also was stationed in Washington, D.C. with REA. Sidewalks A Problem

During recent weeks your writer has been walking to town and back home on many mornings to pick up the mail and stop in the office. We probably should have known it before but we had not realized the poor condition of the sidewalks in Halls. Because of our eye problems we must walk on the sidewalks and they are in such deplorable condition that it is difficult for anyone to walk on them, particularly any person who may have any kind of handicap or disability.

We are aware that money isn't a plentiful item in the town's coffers but some plan needs to be worked out to begin renovation of sidewalks throughout Halls. It is entirely possible some one could be seriously injured under present conditions. Congratulations

The Halls High Tigers last Friday night clinched a position The Tigers have had some problems this year but are still in the state Class A football playoffs and it is our understanding that they will play their first game on the home field. among the better teams in Class A. They will be looking for your support!

South Fulton's game plan called for plenty of passing, but the Halls defense snagged five errant throws, stopped the Devil attack, and clinched a home-field advantage for the postseason play-offs with a 15-8 victory Friday. The win gives the Tigers a 5-3 record over-all and a 3-1

Region 7-A slate, leaving the Black & Gold assured of its fifth consecutive post-season playoff berth and a home contest Nov. Halls jumped ahead of the Devils 9-0 on a Terry Lents touchdown run and a safety and held on as the host squad battled to within one before the Tigers put the game away. "It was a big win," said Halls

Head Coach Andy Pugh. "The defense did the job when it had to, the offense got the points to win and now we can look forward to playing the first playoff game at home."

Before the Tigers begin post season play, they must meet Denmark West this Friday and Crockett County at Alamo Nov.

Halls' victory celebration was dampened by the loss of senior runningback Joe Patrick. The fleet-footed runner suffered a knee injury in the third period and will be lost for the rest of the

In an emotion-packed battle, the Tigers held off two early Red Devil drives under the guidance of quarterback Joey Hall. But the momentum shifted to the Tigers after Jeff Buckner picked off the first of Hall's five interceptions, giving the Tigers good field position at their own 44.

Lents, a lanky senior, rolled to the left, found running room behind a pair of blockers and burst into the clear for a 56-yard scoring jaunt, his longest of the year. Benjie Goodwin booted the PAT and Halls was ahead 7-0. In period two, Halls punted the ball away and backed South Fulton against its own goal line, leaving Hall little room to work. On a halfback pass attempt Tiger defender Derrick Harris made an outstanding play and captured Dan Faulkner in the end zone for a safety, pushing the Tiger lead to nine.

But the Devils, again coached by veteran Kerry Curling after a one-year business venture, responded with a good thirdperiod effort and cut the Halls lead to one. Hall found Chris Tibbs for a 13-yard scoring pass and then hit Lavon Aiken for a two-point conversion, trimming their deficit to 9-8 with lots of time remaining.

Halls had trouble moving the ball and Patrick's injury shifted the Tigers' thoughts away from the game, momentarily, giving the Devils the upper hand. Just when the Tigers needed a boost, Buckner picked off his second pass and gave the Tigers the ball at the South Fulton 18. Jarrett Rogers, who carried the ball 25 times for 114 yards, carried on three straight plays and put six points on the scoreboard with a 7-yard run, making the score 15-8. The point-after was wide of the mark but the Tiger defense kept South Fulton away from the end zone and secured the win.

"I think they (South Fulton) decided they couldn't run on us and just started passing," said Halls' assistant Al Bradford. "When the linebackers did their jobs and the lineman put on a good rush, the secondary was ready to get some interceptions.' Buckner's interceptions were key plays and two interceptions by Richard Voss and his three blocked passes and seven tackles was more than the South Fulton offensive could survive. Lents also snagged an errant pass and Harris recorded the safety and kept the Devil spooked with agressive hitting.

After the Tigers moved ahead by seven, South Fulton tried to make a last-ditch scoring effort but with limited running-only 22 yards on the ground-and good pass coverage, the Tigers had the victory.

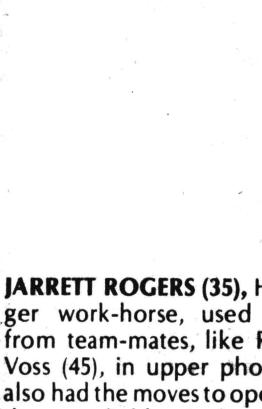

Statistically, Halls rushed for 197 yards and moved the ball 55 yards through the air. Hall completed 12 of 43 passing attempts for 188 yards.

The Devils, also a playoff team under the new region alignment dropped to 3-4 overall and 1-2 in games against region competition

"On paper, we should get two more wins," he explained. "West has only won two games and Crockett County is still winless. But football games aren't won on paper, they're won on the field and we can't take anything for granted.

Ripley Seeks District Crown In Dyersburg

Ripley High School's Tigers, having breezed past Southaven, Miss., 32-14, can insure themselves the District 13-AAA crown when they visit Dyersburg's Golden Trojans this Friday.

To claim the district championship, the Tigers must win either in Dyersburg, this week, or from Jackson North Side, here, next week, for at least a 5-1 district record

That's the best the district's second place team, Haywood High, of Brownsville, 4-1, can muster if it tops thirdplace Jackson Central-Merry, now 3-2, in its final regular season contest on the Haywood field.

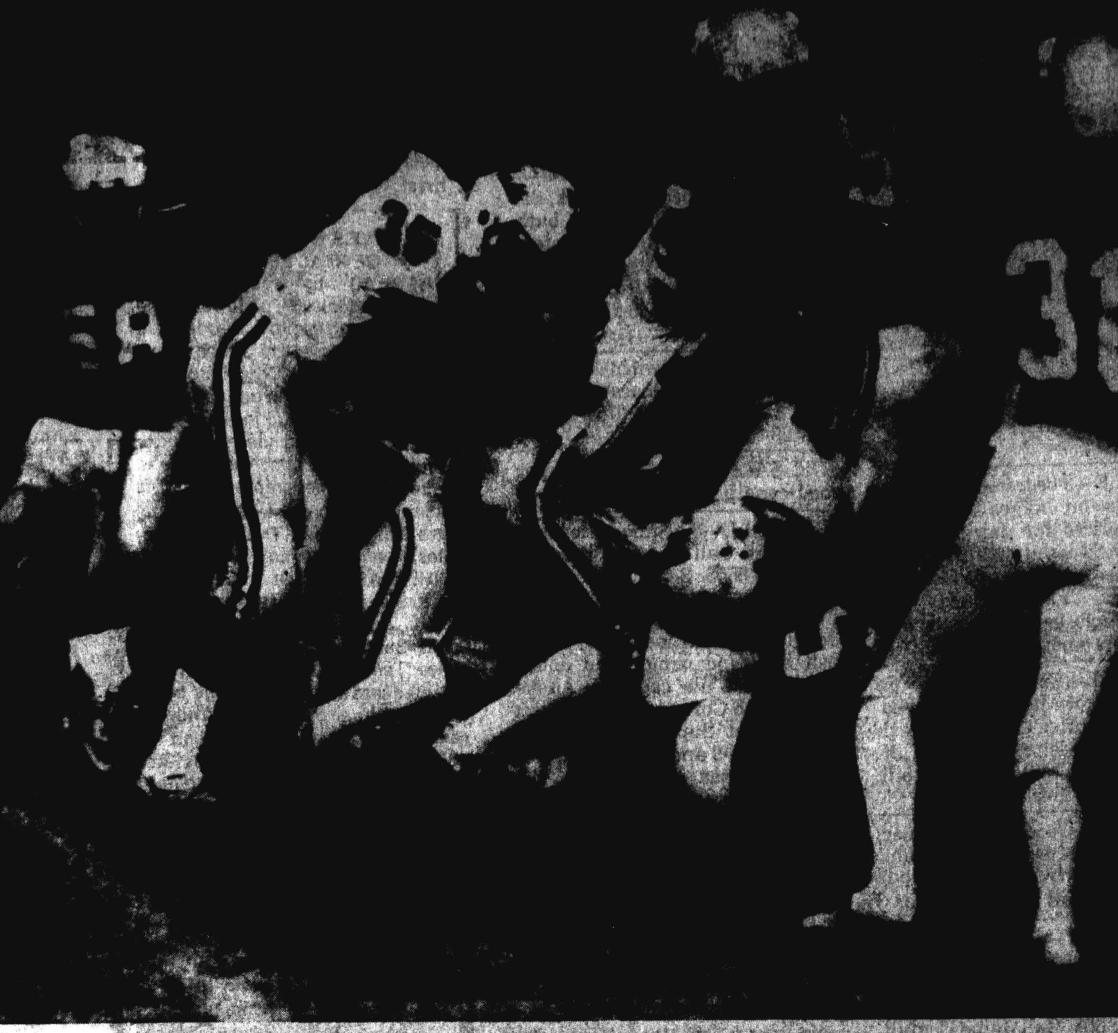

And since Ripley topped Haywood, 25-14, in their meeting. Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletics Association rules would break the tie in standings in favor of the winner of the game between the teams tied. Ripley can't expect to walk over Dyersburg, 2-6 overall but 2-2 in the district, after a 37-14 loss last week to JCM. Its other district loss, to Haywood, was only 17-7, and it has won from North Side 21-14 and from Bolivar 7-6.

With a state-playoff berth and homefield advantage secured the Halls Tigers return to the friendly confines of Conley Sta dium this week to meet Denmark West in the school's annua omecoming contest.

The Tigers, 15-8 winners over South Fulton last week, have fin ished Region 7A play with a 3-1 mark and second place in the race for the playoffs. They'll hos a first-round contest Nov. Before post-season action begins, though, they'll battle West this week and conclude the egular season at Crockett County Nov. 1

West, a Region 6A squad, is oming off a 28-6 loss to region foe Bruceton and will meet Halls team eager to win at home. The Tigers dropped their last mefield contest 28-0 to Lake County on Oct. 4 and were on the short end of a 15-6 contest with Trenton in Halls Sept. 13th, and Bolton, the team's first oppo-nent, started Halls' home season on a sour note with a 7-6 win, givng the Black and Gold just or victory on the home turf all year

Players Of Week

Outstanding efforts by a pain of Halls seniors have earned them this week's "Players-of-the Week" honor after the Tigers' 15-8 victory over Region 7A foe South Fulton.

Jarrett Rogers, a speedy runningback, rushed for 114 yards on 25 carries and scored one touchdown on a seven-yard run in the fourth period to lead the Tigers to the win. He was the workhorse when the Black & Gold needed a late score to ice the contest and he came through with a good effort.

Richard Voss, a 5'8, 146pounder, snagged two intercep-tions, blocked three passes and had seven tackles to lead the Tiger defenders against South Fulton's potent passing attack. Rogers, who missed the '84 campaign, earned his second "Players" honor and Voss was tabbed for the first time this vear.

Students Opposing Drinking, Driving

Halls High School's Distributive Education class plans fight drinking and driving next week with an annual candleligh walk and presentation by Lt. Jerry Simmons, of the Highway Patrol, and of Alcoholics Ano-

Under the theme "You've Got A Choice," the class is attempt ing to reach 3,000 people with the message that drinking and driving kills

The class has dedicated this year's campaign to Joyce Shatley, a HHS graduate and club member active in last year' campaign. She was killed this summer in a boating accident when an allegedly drunk driver crashed his boat into a boat which she was a passenger.

Co-chairmen Elizabeth Taylor and Tracy Kee plan a display in the Dyersburg Mall Nov. 2nd and will erect tables in Halle throughout the week. Presenta tions will also be given to the junior high students and to the third grade classes at Halls Elementary School.

After the candlelight walk at p.m. Nov. 5th Sally McDonald of Alcoholics Anonymous, wil be guest speaker at a banquet for DE students and their parents. Information from Mrs. Betty Warren, 836-9642.

Weather Forecast Offered By Phone

The complete, current weather forecast will be available by telephone 24 hours a day, starting Nov. 1st, by dialing 635-5300. The West Tennessee Weather Service, based in Martin, has been offering this service to residents of Weakley County for more than eight years and also provides the service in Carroll, Crockett, Dyer, Henry, Lake, and Obion Counties in Tennessee and in Fulton County, Kentucky. Services will begin in Tipton County in November.

The forecast will normally be updated at least twice each day, before 5:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., using material provided by the National Weather Service.

"Generally, our forecast is going to be exactly what the National Weather Service issues," says manager John Cur nutt, "although in some instances, we will use our own knowledge of current conditions to update its data.'

During the winter, or under unusual circumstances, up-dates may be more frequent, but for storm warnings, rely on radio or television.

The Weakley County operation has received nearly 2,000,000 calls since it began operation Aug. 1, 1977.

"We expect a high level of calls the first few days," says Curnutt. "This has been the trend in other locations; we have seen the figures level off after the first week "If you should get a busy signal in this initial operating period, keep trying, because it is a condition we don't expect to continue over a long period of time."

The service is being sponsored by Mays-Dunavant Pharmacy. Ripley Power and Light Company, and the Lauderdale County Bank.

The West Tennessee Weather Service also provides farm market news by telephone and recently completed its first nine months of operation in Lauder-

Many Gains Near For Halls Schools

County School Supt. Phillip Jackson Monday gave the Halls-Gates Rotary Club details of pending construction projects, including three in Halls-new classrooms at Halls Elementary School and construction at both the high school and junior high

Jackson said the junior high structure was in good condition needed vast repairs, includ ing a complete central heating air conditioning system, electrical and plumbing work, and stage and auditorium work.

Auditorium plans call for installation of a new tarten surface to allow multi-purpose use, including basketball and stage worry about damaging a new wooden floor.

Junior high bleachers will be torn out to make way for new backed seating.

The stage will be enlarged and new lights installed. A new sound system is included. At the high school, carpets are to be replaced, a new roof attached, and painting done. Cafeteria work is included, and an additional 3,000 square foot area is to be built to make an improved banquet facility.

Other changes include work on the outside of the junior high building which will make the junior high and high school appear to be one structure.

If funding is available, a 900seat bleacher system is to be built at Conley Stadium, and renovations are planned at the field house and band room.

Greg Crihfield Star Swimmer

Greg Crihfield, 8, son of the Jerry Crihfields, of Halls, partic-ipated with his Jackson-Pepsi Young Men's Christian Assn. swim team in the Nashville Aquatic Center, against teams from across the state and from Alabama and Kentucky.

Individually, he was runner-up in the 25-yard free style, 50-yard breast stroke and 100-yard indi-vidual medley. He placed third in the 100-yard free stroke, 50-yard free stroke, 25-and 50-yard butterfly, and 25-yard breast stroke. He also placed in the 25-and 50yard back stroke

Crihfield swam with the 10year-old relay team in both the 200-yard medley and the 200yard free, placing second.

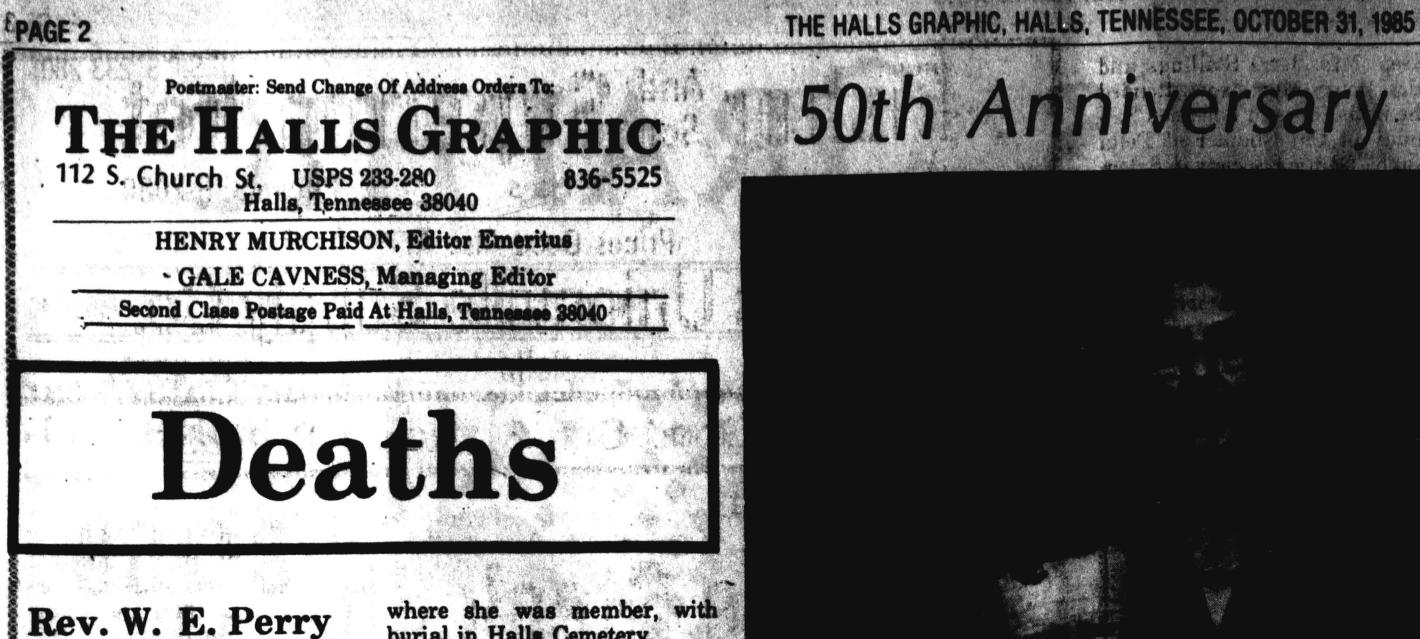

The team will compete this weekend at Memphis State with 450 swimmers from across the state and from Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Missouri, Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois, Louisiana, Florida, and Georgia.

Prison Reform

CORNER

When U.S. District Judge Thomas Higgins issued the order ast week that no more prisoners may be admitted to Tennessee prisons until conditions are improved he was highly critical of Gov. Lamar Alexander and the State Legislature.

He probably was entirely justified in his criticism but it eems to us there is plenty of fault to go around. Former Gov: Winfield Dunn was highly criticized and lost the support of nany Tennesseans when he attempted to build regional prisons during his terms in office. Citizens throughout the state expressed their unwillingness to have prisons located in their reas and also were greatly opposed to spending the needed

THE HALLS GRAPHIC, HALLS, TENNESSEE, OCTOBER 31, 1985

An offensive unit which has struggled throughout much the 1985 campaign scored more than 40 points for the secon time in the last three weeks Fri day night to bury hapless Den mark West 41-12 in Halls annual homecoming affair.

The Tigers, 6-3 and on a three game winning streak, jumped ahead 20-6 in the first half then exploded for 21 third-period points to roll to an easy victory It was the second win at Conley Stadium this season and fifth tr. umph in the Black & Gold's last six outings. Two weeks ago, the Tigers dumped Gibson County

'It capped a nice homecomin. week," said Head Coach Andy Pugh. "It gave us an opportunity to play some people in some different positions and time to get the offense going."

Halls, a team assured of a postseason playoff berth, has had trouble scoring through the year but has managed to win contests in which the offense scored more than once. The Tigers scored three times in the first half and added three more scores after the intermission to seal the victory and keep the winning streak alive.

Jarrett Rogers scored the first six-pointer with 3:59 remaining in the opening period. Rogers, the backfield leader, capped an eight-play, 45-yard march with a five-yard scamper and Benjie Goodwin booted the first of five extra points to give the Tigers the lead.

Defense kept West from getting back into the contest with three good efforts and Halls had the ball back at its own 47 after the punt. Richard Voss was the workhorse on the Tigers' second scoring drive, carrying the ball seven times on a 12-play march. His three-yard plunge and the PAT made it 14-0.

West, 2-7 after the evening. appeared ready to get back into the contest after falling behind by 14, moving downfield quickly to get its first score. Jeff McLemore got 55 of the visiting Tigers' 63 yards on one carry and capped the drive with a two-yard plunge. A two-point conversion attempt failed and the Halls lead was 14-6.

Halls couldn't move after West scored and punted the ball away after just three plays, giving the guests the ball at its own 20.

A strong defense has been the key to much of Halls' success tis year and the defenders came alive on West's first play. Derrick Harris tossed McLemore for two-yard loss on first down Gees Elmore stopped the ball earrier after a one-yard gain on second down and John "Bulldog" Arwood teamed with Tyrone Patrick on third and long to stop the play, giving up just three yards.

On fourth and long, Halls went after the block and Patrick, after getting a tremendous effort from the Halls lineman, leaped through the air, blocked the punt and scrambled for the loose ball in the end zone. After leaping on the bouncing ball, it was 20-6 and the rout was on

"That sort of set the stage for the rest of the night," Pugh said. "It really got the team and the fans fired up. After that, we had complete control.

In the third period, the Tigers came out smoking. With Arwood & Co. leading the way with outstanding blocking and defensive line efforts, the score ballooned to 41-6. Rogers added his second five-yard scoring run with 9:06 left in the period and Goodwin made it 27-6.

West, now down by three scores, couldn't move the ball against the inspired defense and three offensive plays netted just two yards, forcing a punt

Senior Jeff Buckner, who ha turned in outstanding efforts in the Tiger secondary, settled under the punt, found a hole and burst into the clear. In seconds, he was in the end zone with a 62-yard punt return and a touchdown.

After the return, West con tinued to sink. Greg Johns forced a one-yard loss on the visitors first play and the remainder of the series netted little, resulting in another punt.

The Black & Gold took control at its 37, used up a lot of time and added its sixth score of the contest with a long drive. Reserve quarterback Ashe Burnette, who guided the team to its first score after starter Terry Lents missed a few plays with an injury, scrambled for 14 yards to the West six and the added two more to the four before handing the ball to Elmore for the final sixpointer with 1:14 left in the third stanza. Goodwin nailed the PAT and Halls' scoring was over.

West controlled the ball the rest of the way but managed only one score against the Halls reserves. Robert Taylor snagged a 24-yard scoring strike from Charles Greer on the game's final play, making the score 41-12. The visiting Tigers tried another two-point conversion but failed again, leaving the final deficit at 29.

"We got to work on a lot of things and gave the crowd a good show," Pugh added. "But nomecoming is over and we have to start thinking about Crockett County. They haven't won a game so they'll be after us."

Against West, Halls dominated the statistics. The Tigers outrushed the guests 263 to 172 and registered 16 first downs to West's 6. Neither team passed much with Halls completing just one of three. West managed to complete only one of seven passing attempts.

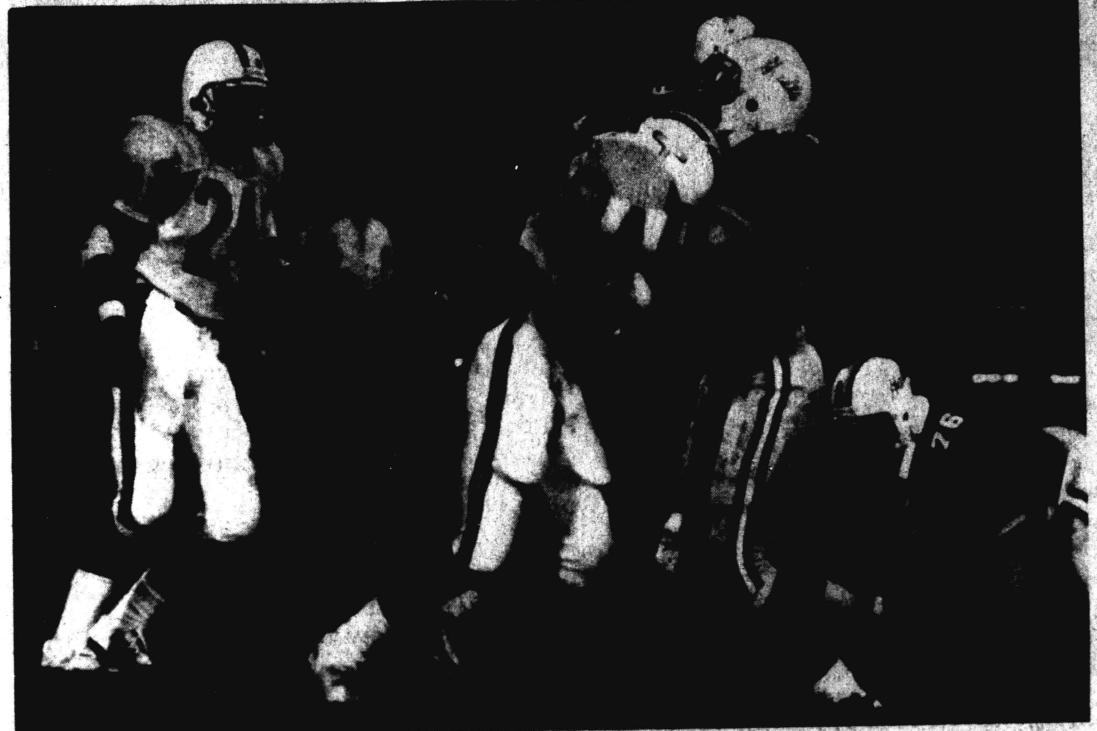

The officials also had as easy time, calling just two infractions. both against the host Tigers for total of only 10 yards.

This week, while Halls closes out the regular season against Crockett County. West will travel to Old Hickory Academy for a critical Region 6A contest. The winner of that battle will clinch the final playoff spot in that region.

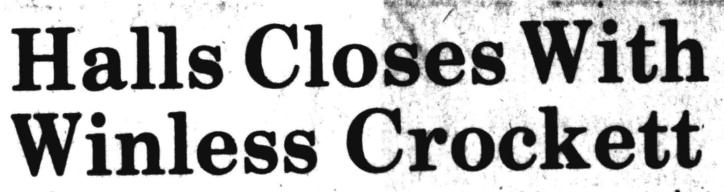

Halls has already clinched the runner-up spot in Region 7A but will have to await the outcome of the final week of regular season play to see who it will meet in the first round of the playoffs. The Tigers have won the right to open post-season play at home.

WITH THE OFFENSIVE LINE driving toward the goal-line, Halls running back Richard Voss had an easy time sticking the football up the middle against West for one of six touchdowns. The linemen did an out-

"A lot." said Halls Coach Andy Pugh as his Tigers prepare for winless Crockett County Friday night at Alamo. "A win in the last game would be a big boost going into next year, especially since they are in the neighboring county and we're already heading into the playoffs. They've got nothing to lose, so the pressure is on us." the Cavaliers but the going has been tough. Last week, they

Halls, 6-3 after a lopsided win last week over Denmark West. has won all four of its previous road outings in 1985, and Pugh hopes the team can keep that record intact against the Cavaliers. The squad gained victories over Dresden, Dyer County, South Fulton and Gibson County away from the friendly onfines of Halls' Conley Sta-

"We've played well on the road and that speaks well of the X-Loke County team," he said. "We're hoping a good crowd will make the short trip to Alamo to support us and that we can play well in a warmup game for the first round of the playoffs." Crockett County, a Class AA team, has had a terrible season and a victory over the Tigers could be a boost the recentlyconsolidated school needs to put the program on its feet. The squad, coached by Ron Mohundro, won two games last year and had 12 returning this year but has failed to get into the win

"That record can be deceiv ing." Pugh said. "It is hard to tell exactly what a team is capable of doing, especially since other teams are getting the wins and talking very little about them. We'll have to go after them because this is their last chance this year. They'll be after us." from Dyersburg, 29-7, hope to add to those laurels an unbeaten season as they host Jackson North Side's Indians at 7:30 p.m. this Friday. As the Tribe (5-4, tied with Dyersburg at 2-3 for fourth place in the district) circles its wagons against the Purple, District 14-AAA's clash between Bartlett and Kirby is the key to determining Ripley's first foe in the play-offs.

In that contest, Ripley hosts, as a district champion, the runner-up in 14-AAA; Haywood, runner-up in 13-AAA, visits the 14-AAA champs.

If Bartlett (7-1, 4-1) tops Kirby (6-3, 3-2), for a 5-1 record, to face Haywood, Ripley will meet last year's 14-AAA's champs, Christian Brothers (7-2, 4-2).

If Kirby tops Bartlett (and you think things get close in District 13-AAA?), five teams could be tied in 14-AAA, at 4-2, for both first and second places, and no one can say, before the weekend's action, who would come out of that spaghetti picture.

HEADS TURNED SUNDAY afternoon when Todd Thrash, a 1985 graduate of Halls High School, now in the Marine Corps, stopped on the street corner with his pet, Sam, a 9-foot, 30-pound python. Todd was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Thrash, of Gates. Todd says the snake is easy to care for, makes little noise, and requires only one rat every two weeks for food. Thrash and a friend, John Hopkins, waved at a lot of people as they passed, but few stopped to visit.

Herman L. Reviere. of Ripley, esigned Tuesday of last week, cffective this Friday, after 18 years as judge (at $60,000 a year) of the Judicial Circuit (Lauder-25th dale, Tipton, Fayette, Harde-man, and McNairy Counties), to draw "$3,000 to $3,300 a month" from a "holding company" owned by his daughter, Sherrin with which the state has contracted for a $229,000 (first year) program to sentence criminals in the five counties to only part-time (or no) confinement Len Holmes, of Covington, has been employed as education director. County co-ordinators are Mary Cubine in this county and Rick David in Tipton, Larry Harvey in Fayette, Allen Cooper in Hardeman, and Jerry Norwood, n McNairy.

Gov. Lamar Alexander will appoint a judge to serve until next year's general election; it will elect a judge to serve the unexpired porton of Reviere's 8-year term, which runs until 1990.

The Associated Press reports at least three applicants for the appointment: Ripley attorney Jody Walker, 40, who served a year's special appointment as Chancery Court judge in 1982; Ripley attorney Robert C. Wilder, 33, part-time juvenile and probate judge in this county; and Kerry Blackwood, 38, of Somerville, an assistant to District Attorney General Paul Summers for 10 years.
