CONDIDENTIAL CORNER

By Henry Murchison

He's Bragging

Mrs. Mabel Tanner tells us that she received a telephone call last week from W. A. "Doc" Smith, now of Norman, Okla., who operated or was employed at drug stores in Halls for more than 50 years before he retired. Later he and Mrs. Smith, who taught bookkeeping and typing at Halls High School before she retired, moved to Norman to be near their daughter, Carolyn Smith Wesson, and family.

Mr. Smith told Mrs. Tanner that he wanted to know how she is doing since he had read in The Graphic that she had been in the hospital several times recently. Mrs. Tanner replied, "For an 82 year old lady, I think I am doing fine."

Mr. Smith came back with "I can beat that, I am 85 and have a 6 1/2 weeks old great-grandson." He says that both he and Mrs. Smith are doing well.

A Good Question

A friend of this writer asked a question last week that started us wondering.

He asked why, since we have retired and are having eye problems, we continued to write this column. Three reasons come to mind. Although it can become a chore we have enjoyed it; perhaps another reason is that we can express our opinions without being disagreed with by some of our coffee-drinking friends (they can disagree later); and, believe it or not, many Graphic readers have asked that we continue to write the Corner. We plan to continue to write and hope that it serves some worthwhile purpose.

Required Reading

An article that was published in the March 29th issue of the Memphis Commercial Appeal should be required reading for every Tennessean and for every politician.

The feature article outlines the career of former Tennessee Sen. Bill Brock, telling of his many services to the Republican party and to the United States.

We had the opportunity to become fairly well acquainted with Bill Brock while our son, Chuck, was his press secretary during his years in the U.S. Senate. We found him to be straight thinking, intensely concerned about the United States and its citizens, and in every respect an exceptional man.

The article portrays Brock as a conservative converted to a moderate but always felt that he was traveling a road that he perceived to be the best route for all people. In our opinion and perhaps in the opinion of the writer of the article, Brock is one of the most competent and clear thinking person in politics

We feel sure that it will never happen and don't even know if he would be interested but Bill Brock has the ability and integrity to be one of the better presidents that the United States has ever had.

Halls History

By Pat Higdon

The mural "Tribute" gained Mid-South attention during July 4th, 5th, and 6th Homecoming '86 festivities and was featured on Channels 13, 5 and 3. It is also included in the commercially prepared Halls Homecoming '86 Video.

The painting was located at that time in the American Legion Building on the former Dyersburg Army Air Base, after its removal from a service club. which was demolished

In September, 1986, I requested that the Legion Post allow the painting, which had minor water damage and some vandalism damage, to be restored and relocated in City Hall. On Sept. 23rd, Legion members gave their written consent and Ted Lannom, of Dyersburg, was chosen as the restoring artist on the recommendation of Pat Adcock, local artist and art teacher in Halls High School.

The cost of restoration, relocation, and the rededication ceremonies is to be paid by the balance in the Homecoming '86 fund and by funds provided by the Halls High CloseUp Club, which accepted this as its 1986-87 pro-

It was only at the conclusion of the July 4th celebration that I learned the name of the "Tribute" artist. Ruth Baker, of Halls, brought a 1945 newspaper article to the memorabilia display, about the 1946 open house on the air base, which said:

"Highlighting the luncheon hour was Governor McCord's inveiling of the mural, "I'nbpainted by Corp. Ernest Berkowitz of New York City. This mural, hung in the Officers' Club, depicted combined operaions on all fronts. The background showed a B-29 in the center with soldiers paying homage at the grave of an Unknown Soldier on one side and the ines' raising of the flag at Iwo Jima on the other. In the foreground were portrayed ral Halsey, General Wolfe General Kenney, General eneral Harmon, General . General Chenault and

Reader Urges Grave Rescue

"Lauderdale County should take pride in one of the nicest recreation areas I have ever enjoyed-the Fort Pillow State Historical Area at Fulton," writes H. C. "Bud" Pollard, of Dyersburg.

"There is one thing that bothers me terribly, though. There are seven graves just off the "Bluff Trail" that are about to cave into the Mississippi bottomland. One of those resting there is a World War I veteran, and this really concerns me. All seven deserve immediate relocation to a safe burial plot.

"I don't know the race of these people and don't care. They need help! I challenge all service clubs, V.F.W., American Legion, etc., to take this on as a project. Reps. Floyd Crain and Ed Jones should look into this along with some of Governor McWherter's

"I'll be glad to take any interested person or persons to this site. My phone number in Dyersburg is 285-9792."

HISTORY PLANS

A number of Lauderdale Countains are soon to experience the rigors and discipline of writing, and readers will reap the benefits of learning more about the county and its history.

A published history of Lauderdale County is in the making now, by the Lauderdale County Historical and Genealogical Society.

Family histories will make up the bulk of the book. Each Lauderdale County family will be asked to write a historical essay, within a 500 word limit. A general county history will be included in the book, which will total 300 to 500 pages.

Histories of familiar landmarks, businesses, organizations, schools, and churches will comprise the rest of the book.

If you can lend your talents to the compilation of the history, call Oneal Ammons, 635-1942.

Robert Jackson Chapter Officer

Robert Jackson, son of the Melton G. Jacksons, of Halls, has been elected scholastic chairman of Lamda Chi Alpha at Union University in Jackson.

A 1984 graduate of Halls High School, he is majoring in computer science and minoring in business administration.

Halls Junior High Plans Open House

Halls Junior High School will hold open house Sunday, April 5th, with a brief program at 2:30 p.m., featuring the Golden Tiger Band, followed by a tour of the renovated facilities, followed by refreshments, public invited.

> As a matter of fact, he was in Memphis the summer of '86 doing just that, but at that time the Homecoming committee didn't even know who the artist

Mr. Lannom will begin restoration in April, on-site in City Hall. The re-dedication will not be until the summer, and the exact date will be set by Mr. Berke.

Kindergarten And Pre-School Screen

Children who will start to school for the first time in August, 1987, should register between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.:

April 10, at Arp School. April 16, at Halls Elementary. April 24, at Ripley Elemen-

Kindergarten students will register along with children who did not attend kindergarten but who will enroll in the first grade. Children registering must have a birth certificate or legal proof of age. Children eligible for kindergarten must be five years old by Sept. 30, 1987; children entering first grade must be six years old by Sept. 30, 1987. They must have a physical examination and proof of immunization through the health department. Parents should bring this health record to the school with them at this time. No child will be allowed to start to school in the fall without a birth certificate and health record on file.

Pre-School Screening will be held on the same dates for children ages 3, 4 and 5. This will include free vision and hearing checks. Screening identifies problems early, so a child might be better prepared to achieve in school.

Registration and screening is offered in Ripley and Arp, for public convenience, though children at both places will be registering for the new school opening in the fall.

Information from 635-2941.

Three Here Among Top Young Women

3 Run For Halls Mayor, 11 Seek 6 Board Seats

Three candidates have qualified to make the race for Mayor of Halls in the city election, May 7th, to succeed Mayor Sammie Arnold, who is not seeking re-election.

The candidates are Patricia A. Higdon, Jimmy McCaslin, and Noel Sherrod. Sherrod, operator of Halls Funeral Home, has served several terms on the Halls Board of Aldermen and made an unsuccessful race for mayor four years ago. Mrs. Higdon, a teacher in Halls High School, and McCaslin, a Tupperware employee, are newcomers in the city election.

Five incumbents on the Board of Aldermen-Eugene Pugh, Morris McCorkle, Mack B. Stanley, Robert J. Stolarick, and Stan Young-are candidates. James L. Jones is not seeking re-election.

Others seeking one of the six places on the Board of Aldermen are Randy Harris, Jimmy N. Hastings, Donnie Wayne Parish, William M. Perry, Thomas H. Simmons, and Gloria Vanessa Williams.

Halls Club Fixes Dues And Rents

Halls Community Club dues, payable Oct. 1st annually, are $25 per civic club, Scout troop, or family ($10 if household head is over 59).

Rent of Halls Community Center is $10 to members and churches for up to 25 persons; more, $35. Both must clean areas used and re-place furniture.

Non-member rent is $50; corporate, $75 a half-day, $100 for five hours up per day; civic clubs $25 per year unless 50% of club members are HCC members.

Rent for money-raisers is $50 to members, including clubs, churches, and schools, otherwise

Fees are based on costs and current membership. The club is solely responsible for Center costs.

JUNIOR REVUE

Halls High School's Student Counsil will sponsor the Halls Junior Revue, for Halls Elementary School students ages 6 to 9, at 7 p.m. Friday, April 3rd in the Halls Junior High School gym.

The royalty will represent Halls in the Humboldt Strawberry Festival.

Miss Halls Crown On Line Saturday

Phillip Jackson, county school superintendent, will be master of ceremonies for the "Miss Halls" pageant ($2) at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Halls Junior High School gymnasium.

It will include street dance and evening gown competition, title holders from the 40s and 50s, and entertainment by Krista Hendren, Jennifer Koonce, Tony Prestridge, and Amy and Rebecca Stolarick.

Federal Loan For F'k'd Deer Co-Op

U.S. Rep. Ed Jones reports that Forked Deer Electric Co-Operative in Halls has been awarded at $1,700,000 loan from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Rural Electrification Administration to finance services for 660 additional customers and for 31 miles of distribution line.

JONES AGENT

U.S. Rep. Ed Jones will have a member of his staff in three City Halls in the county Tuesday-in Henning at 2:45 p.m., in Gates, at 3:30 p.m., and in Halls at 4 p.m., to meet anyone with a problem to discuss.

The Lauderdale County Bank would like to make a very important announcement to all of our Individual Retirement Account members. New tax laws will soon be in effect that will severely limit tax deductions for Individual Retirement Account-IRA-contributions for many people. However, the new regulations will not take effect until the 1987 tax year. So it still makes a lot of sense to fully fund your IRA for 1986. The Lauderdale County Bank makes this announcement to help keep our IRA customers a step ahead financially. This may be your last chance to take advantage of full IRA tax deductions. Remember, any monies invested in your IRA by April 15 1987, will still be deductible on your 1986 tax return. This announcement is just one of many ways The Lauderdale County Bank keeps you-a step ahead!

I'm glad I came home to Dyersburg and I make this committment to you

George Mitchell, President

- (1.) When you walk on our lot, you will be greeted by a friendly salesperson -- if not I want to know about it.
- (2.) We want to make a lasting friendship. The sale is important, but we want to make sure you are happy with the deal---if not I want to know about it.
- Our used cars are quality used cars. You can trust us --- if not I want to know about it.
- Our mechanics are factory trained. When your car or truck leaves this dealership ---if it's not repaired---I want to know about it.

At Dyersburg Ford we have a quality product to sell and we are anxious to do business with you. If you're in the market for a new or used car or truck--- I want to know about it.

During the past weekend Nell and your editor drove over a large portion of Lauderdale County west of New Hwy. 51. Everywhere one looked there were jonquils, bridal wreath, and other blooming flowers. The trees are turning green and the dogwoods were bursting into full bloom.

It seems likely that the fruit trees, perhaps the strawberries and many of the blooming plants were damaged, some badly, by the unfortunate freezing temperature but there is still enough of spring showing to make anyone feel better Why not take time to drive around yourself and enjoy the colors and brightness of a new spring?

The Highway Bill

The U.S. Senate Friday voted 67-33, a margin of one vote, to override President Reagan's veto of the $88 billion highway bill which also carried a rider permitting states to increase the highways. The House of Representatives had voted to overrid

President Reagan had vetoed the bill because it spent more money than his proposed budget provided.

The arguments used in support of the bill were jobs and the doubt the highway money is badly needed by the states but i figures quoted by respected newspaper columnists can be believed more than 100 road projects plus a number of mass transportation grants are included leading opponents to call it a "boondoogle" which we suspect is an accurate description. The bill does include huge amounts of money for pet projects of various members of the Congress. It will continue to be impossible to be impo sible to lower the deficit spending.

2,518 Acres Added To 10-Yr. Reserve

The county Soil Conservation District has added 2.158 acres from 60 farms (97% of offers) to bring 5,978 acres from 142 farms into the 10-year Conservation Reserve Program. Goal is 25% of county crop-land, about 53,000 acres, to be retired from row crops and put in grass or trees.

without regard to hay or pasture. Increased interest in the Reserve is brought about by better understanding of the CRP. low crop prices, successive years of bad weather, and presently making more money from highly erodible crop-land without the risks and expenses.

Lauderdale County farmers are receiving the highest rental rates in the Southeast. Maximum bid for the last four sign-ups ($60 per acre). As an added incentive, corn producers took advantage of a onus payment offered to entice highly erodible corn land into the program. On a state-wide basis, bids on 129,000 acres were accepted in February, bringing the state total to 260,000 acres. Nation-wide, 10.6 million acres

The Just Say No program is off to a good start. The people of this county have responded greatly to our efforts to date and we want them to know how much we appreciate it. We also want them to know why and how it got started. Many school authorities and parents were appalled to learn that school age children were drinking beer and/or taking drugs before school started at 8 a.m. They were also alarmed at the escallating juvenile related crimes within the county, not to mention the fact that Lauderdale County had the largest number of illegitimate teen-age pregnancies in the entire state for 1986. Also the City of Ripley recently prohibited parking on business premises after hours because of malicious vandalism, littering and loitering, especially on wee-

A Report for Tennesseans

Veto Override Of The Highway Bill A Victory For Tennesseans

Last week's override of President Reagan's veto of the Federal Aid-Highway Bill was not a defeat for the President. It was a victory for the American people and

The bill is not a budget buster. Funds for construction on our country's highways come out of a Highway Trust Fund, a fund dedicated to highway construction financed by a tax on gasoline.

That is a tax paid by American motorists, and every one of us has contributed to it in one way or another. We deserve to see some benefit from our tax investment For Tennessee, the bill means $241 million this year in road improvements, for better transportation routes and

For example, in Knoxville, this bill provides funds for the widening of Karnes Bridge, a bridge which has been a safety hazard for a number of years. For a dangerous stretch of Highway 41-A between Clarksville and Fort Campbell, it means much needed funding for improvements and repairs. Enactment of the bill also provides funds for the construction of a vital connecting road in the mountains around Erwin in Upper East Tennessee

In addition to these and similar projects across the state, this bill contains a provision allowing states to raise the speed limit on our nation's rural highways from 55 to 65 m.p.h. Of Tennessee's 1057 miles of interstate, nearly 800 are in rural areas.

The release of these funds will also mean jobs -- 300,000 directly created in the construction trades, and 800,000 in spin-off economic development

Ouite simply, this bill is an investment, in safer and more convenient and efficient transportation, in economic development and growth, and in the creation of hundreds of thousands of new jobs nation-wide.

To The Citizens Of Halls:

I am announcing my bid for re-election as alderman You, the voter, will be at the polls on May 7th, with the future of the Town of Halls relying on your selection

To help you make your decision, I would like for you

I am the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Young. I have lived in Halls the entire 31 years of my life. I live at 431 East Main Street with my wife, Cathey, and our four children. I am the parts manager at Cook Implement Company, Inc., where I have been employed for 14 years. I am a member of the Halls Fire Dept. and presently serve as assistant fire chief. I am a 1974 graduate of Halls High School. I served as scoutmaster for Halls Boy Scout Troop 286 from 1977 until 1986 and still serve on the troop committee as chairman. In 1984, I was selected as one of the Outstanding Young Men of America. I have served as alderman on the Town of Halls board for the past two years.

I am not seeking re-election for prestige or to be iden-tified as a member of the Town of Halls board.

I am seeking to be re-elected because I care about the future of Halls.

There are many types of industry looking for a place to locate. The Town of Halls has a lot to offer, with railroad, airport, and trucking businesses and competitive water and gas rates. It is going to take the mayor, with the aldermen, to go out and get these industries. It can be done, and if re-elected, I intend to investigate every possibility.

The Halls Police Dept, needs to be improved and updated to give Halls the proper protection and law enforcement it needs. There is a need for more manpower, better equipment, and maybe some personnel changes. The city needs to increase the budget for this

The Town of Halls needs to be cleaned. There are many lots that have burned or run down vacant houses that need to be cleaned up. There are vacant lots with runaway weeds. Our parks need to be free of beer bottles and litter. There are sidewalks and streets that need to be repaired; the board is presently working on a solution

These are just a few of the things that need to be done

With Halls sure to get a new mayor and at least one new alderman, I feel you need to keep experience on the board. This is why I am asking for your vote and support

Let's all work for the future of the Town of Halls. Thank You.

lay Be A Mistake

We may have to eat these words next year but in the opinion this writer Tennessee Senator Albert Gore, Jr., has made a mistake in deciding to make the race for the Democratic party nomination for president in 1988.

Sen. Gore certainly will make an attractive candidate. He makes a good impression on the voter. He is intelligent, willing to work hard, does his home work, and apparently has qualifications to be a viable and desirable candidate. He probably would make an excellent president

After reading what we have just written the reader will likely wonder just why we would think that he is making a

One of the major obstacles that he will face is the fact that he is only 39 years old. Many voters will back away from Gore for that reason with the claim that he lacks experience.

Another and perhaps more damaging reason is that he is from a southern state. Let's face it. Jimmy Carter is the only Southerner to be elected president in many years. Of course, Lyndon Johnson was from Texas but he became president ecause of the assassination of President John Kennedy. He was elected for a full term largely because of the feeling that he ould and would carry on the Kennedy programs

Still another strike against Sen. Gore is that he is not a ember of the group that has been in control of the Democratic party for many years. That could be reversed and work toward Gore's advantage but probably not without causing a major

In addition we fear that a failure now will continue throughat his political career. For some strange reason voters are no nclined to follow anyone who has previously lost in a race for the same political office. This is not always true but a study of story will show that losing candidates usually become less

Everyone Welcome

To The Citizens Of Halls:

I would like to take this opportunity to ask for your vote and support for Alderman on May 7, 1987.

I am the son of the late Charles A. Harris, Jr., and Nelle Harris Kendrick, of Poplar Grove. I am married to the former Shea Lea Arwood, of Halls. We have one-daughter, Lindsay, and are expecting our second child in September.

I am running for Alderman because of my concern for Halls and its citizens. We must not only talk about bringing new industry to our town. This must be Top Priority! We need our governing body to be fair for all people, regardless of who a person is or what color they may be. I believe that a person living within the city limits and paying city taxes should have all city services available to them.

This is your election. Please vote for the candidates that you know will do the best job. Thank you for your consideration.

Randy Harris

Re-Elect Dr. Bob Stolarick Alderman

The next board of Alderman and Mayor will make decisions that will:

1. Influence the future of Halls-perhaps more than any city officials in history.

2. Manage a budget that makes the city of Halls one of the largest businesses in Lauderdale County. Make no mistake about it, the city of Halls is a business, a people business-not just a popularity contest. Vote for the people you trust to manage your money—because that's exactly what city money is, Your Money. I pledge to continue to watch every dollar to see you get your money's worth. I am against a tax increase. My number one priority is to continue to serve the people of Halls as best I can. I'm extremely proud of my voting record, my attendance record, and my record of listening to the people of Halls. We need to continue our efforts to attract good jobs to Halls so our youth can stay

I want to help finish some of the projects we've started-ambitious sidewalk and street improvements mprovements at the airport, drainage improvements. I'm committed to our parks programs.

Look around, compare our city tax rate and level of city services with other cities our size. I think you'll find dedicated city employees and department heads and good city money managements. Living in Halls is a

John Thomas Scopes vs The State of Tennessee

DAYTON, Tenn. -- A small, quiet town in the hills of southeastern Tennessee seems an unlikely candidate for world attention. Great events do not usually occur in such peaceful little communities, but in July of 1925, with President Calvin Coolidge settling down to his second term in office and much of the south sweltering in a huge heat wave, quiet little Dayton, Tennessee, a few miles north of Chattanooga, suddenly became one of the most famous places in America. The occasion was a monumental legal confrontation between two of the legendary figures of that era William Jennings Bryan and Clarence Darrow. The issue was a Dayton high school teacher named John Scopes. accused of teaching the Darwinian theory of evolution to a high school biology class in violation of a recent ly passed Tennessee statute making it unlawful "to teach any theory that denies the story of the divine creation of man as taught in the Bi-

The Scopes "Monkey Trial" American history. It drew worldwide media attention and was the basis for the popular drama In-herit The Wind. More than half a century after that epic legal battle the echoes still linger.

The focal point of the trial was the Rhea County Courthouse, still the dominant building in downtown Dayton. The three-story, red brick structure and the second-floor courtroom where the trial took place have both been restored to their 1925 appearance.

The courthouse basement houses a museum containing artifacts and photographs from the trial and of its amous participants. A small theater offers actual 1925 newsreel footage from the trial as well as a BBC documentary about it which was filmed in Dayton. Either film s shown to visitors on request The man who started it all was

George Rappelyea, a member of the newly-formed American Civil Liberties Union, who saw the recently enacted Tennessee law forbidding the teaching of evolution as a constitutional issue. Rappelyea talked John Scopes into challenging the constitutionality of the new law.

Ironically, the material Scopes was charged with unlawfully teaching came from a textbook approved by the state for use in Tennessee schools. Even more ironically, Scopes was the school's regular math teacher, substituting for the absent biology teacher simply because he happened to have a free period at the right time.

What promised to be an exeedingly dull trial was turned into a national event by the entrances of William Jennings Bryan and Clarence Darrow, two of the biggest names in America in 1925, and two of the biggest drawing cards on the old Chataugua entertainment cir-

To All Citizens Of Halls:

I, Jimmy Hastings, am announcing my candidacy for alderman of Halls.

I moved to Halls in 1969 from Dyer County and mar-ried Beverly Young. We live at 504 Jaynes Drive and have three children. I have been a volunteer fireman since 1972. I am employed at S&R in Ripley, and my wife and I are co-owners of Halls Furniture Center.

Since moving to Halls, I have seen many improve-ments made, but I believe there is still a lot to be done. If Halls is to succeed as a thriving community we need leadership who cares. We need industry and more jobs for our citizens. While I know this is not an easy task, I will do my best, if elected, to bring industry to Halls.

I think we need more funds for our police department

I can't promise you I'll do all of this by myself, but if

Last week, we went grocery shopping.

When you're in business, you hear a lot about "the other guy." Well, we decided to check out the other guy for ourselves. We went to Dyersburg Kroger's and bought groceries. We bought what we considered normal groceries. We didn't buy any sale items because we did not think that would be fair. For instance, we had 2-liter soft drinks on sale that week, and Kroger didn't, so we used the 3-liter for comparison. Do you know what we found?

Kroger was cheaper than we were on a lot of items. Well, no surprise there. We've been hearing that for years, usually from

But guess what else we discovered? On a lot of items, we were cheaper than Kroger On one particular item - 10 lbs. red potatoes — they were over twice as high

So now for the big surprise - the famous "bottom line":

The total for the purchases at Kroger was $90.08. The same items purchased at Halls IGA totaled only $84.76. So the bottom line was a savings of $5.32, or 5.9% at Halls IGA.

Don't take our word for it. Check it out

The next time you go Krogering, stop by IGA and add up the very same items from our store, and see where the savings are

The Bottom Line: $5.32 Cheaper At Halls IGA!

You can take a pumpkin, cut some holes in it, give It an old snaggletoothed grin, and it turns out sort of cute.

Halls isn't like that.

You let a merchant go out of business and that empty building stands out like a smile with a front tooth miss-

Everyone is always hollering "Halls needs more industry."

If you were in charge of a factory looking for a nice place to locate, would you choose some broken down old town full of empty buildings and 'Gone Out of Business' signs, or would you choose a town on the move, full of thriving businesses?

Most people would choose the one with the pretty smile.

Halls has lost enough teeth. Help us keep the ones we have left.

Support Halls merchants. If we haven't got what you want, just ask.

If you've shopped around, and you feel that our prices are too high, tell us—we need your business.

Help Halls Smile Again!
