PUBLISHED WEEKLY

HALLS, TENNESSEE, AUGUST 2, 1990

VOLUME 92—NUMBER 31

$5,000,000 has been approved by the Transportation Subcommittee of the Senate Appropriations Committee to re-build the Great River Road bridge over the Obion River, west of Halls, Sen. Jim Sasser reports. He chairs the Appropriations Committee. The original span collapsed before completion.

DAVID BELL, of Halls, participated in the county Coon-Hunters Association's, Max Richardson Memorial Hunt Saturday.

His Walker hound, Reba River Bend Flag, scored 40 points toward the night's championship and first place trophy.

Another Robbery At Unionville Grocery

Unionville Supply Co., west of Halls, Tuesday reported its second robbery in less than a month.

Aaron Fisher, owner, says two women and a child were in the store about 1 p.m., when one of them led a clerk to the meat counter in the rear of the store, after which about $140 was found missing.

Larry and Michael A. Littles, of Route 3, Ripley, are charged with armed robbery of the store July 6th.

Dr. Larry Farris Back In County

Dr. Larry M. Farris will be returning to Lauderdale County Aug. 6th to practice general family medicine in his new office in the Physicians Office Building, adjacent to Baptist Hospital Lauderdale.

After almost eight years in practice here, he returned to a radiology residency in Memphis in 1982. He has since worked in radiology in the Nashville area, in Dyersburg, in Union City, and in the hospital here one or two days a week, for the past two years.

Dr. Farris and his wife, Susan, have resided in Ripley since July, 1975, which, he says "almost makes me feel like a native, and to my children, Ripley is the only home they have ever known. This is where my best friends are."

Three From Halls Win UTM Grants

Three Halls residents have been awarded scholarships to attend the University of Tennessee in Martin for the 1990-91 academic year.

Laura M. Hargett, a senior elementary education major, and Tara Hargett, a sophomore psychology major, have been awarded Gooch Scholarships.

Cassie L. Riley, daughter of the Perry Rileys, of Route 3, Halls, a freshman pre-medicine major, has been awarded an Academic Achievement Scholarship.

Summers Named Appellate Judge

Gov. Ned McWherter has appointed Dist. Atty. Gen. Paul G. Summers, 40, of Somerville, who has served this county since 1982, to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The appointment was made after the dead-line for Summers to withdraw from the Aug. 2nd ballot. When he joins the court Sept. 1st, his office will be vacant, and McWherter will appoint his successor, to serve until the August, 1992, election.

Summers will serve the uncompleted term of Lyle Reid, of Brownsville, on the court. Reid is unopposed for election to the Supreme Court and has been chosen by four unopposed colleagues as Chief Justice for their full term.

Summers will have to run in 1992 for a full 6-year term in the court.

His salary as judge will be $81,500 a year. His present salary is $68,000.

New Mitch'l Grove Revival Scheduled

The Rev. Charlie Halliburton, of Finley, will speak in revival services in New Mitchell Grove Baptist Church at Barr at 7 p.m. Monday through Friday of next week.

W. B. Jones will be music director, and Mrs. Paula Phillips will be the pianist.

The Rev. Nolan Criner, pastor, invites the public.

Joel Sutton Excels At David Lipscomb

Joel Trent Sutton, son of the Joel Parker Suttons, of Route 2, Ripley, made the spring semester dean's list at David Lipscomb

University in Nashville, in which he is a computer information systems major.

He is a graduate of Halls High School.

JENNIFER KOONCE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Koonce, of Murfreesboro, formerly of Halls, won the Overall Crown for the state title in the 13 to 17 year old division of a Tenn. Universal Productions contest in Nashville. As the state's Ideal Miss, she will compete for the world title in August at San Antonio, Tex.

Big Voter Turn-Out Expected Thursday

Fueled by hot races for sheriff and county executive, a big vote is expected Thursday for a long list of candidates on the county ballot.

Two years ago, 5,957 cast ballots in the race for School Superintendent, Bobby Webb winning by 21.

If 6,000 vote this year, about one in five will have voted before election day.

Ella Mae (Mrs. Turner) Escue, the county's devoted and tireless Election Office manager, reported at 5 p.m. Tuesday that 253 voters had voted by mail and 905 (elderly or to be out of the county Aug. 2nd) had voted absentee in person.

E. W. James Plans Swap With Fred's; Both Grow

A major expansion of Ripley Plaza, on South Washington St. in Ripley, will see E. W. James & Sons Super Market swapping space with Fred's Discount Store, with an addition of 4,000 sq. ft. to the new Fred's space, south of the present grocery.

The swap will give E. W. James much more square footage than in its present quarters and permit it to add many new departments and services.

Plans propose re-location of the Farmers Union Bank branch to an up-front site on South Washington, clearing space for eight to 16 small retail establishments north of Dollar General.

Jimmy Glasrock, partner with Fletcher Bright and Jim Gilmore in Adanoroc Corp., of Nashville, says Lawrence Construction Co., of Ripley, owned by James Edward Lawrence, of Ripley, will be the general contractor.

FACTS & FIGURES

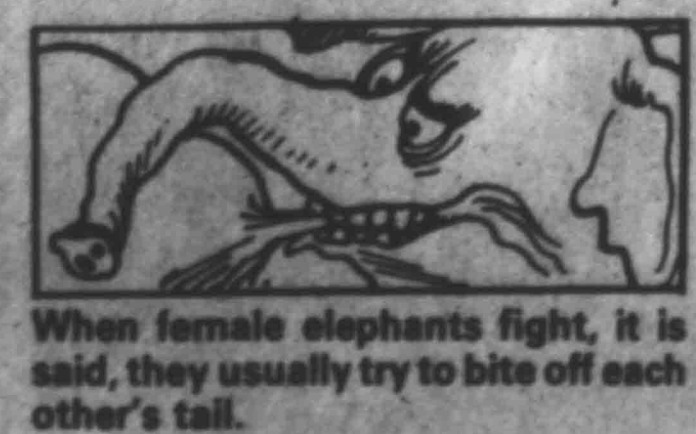

Here are some facts about allergies that may have you reaching for your handkerchief. According to a recent survey, approximately 41 million Americans suffer from allergies. The yearly cost of treatment of allergic symptoms in the United States? About half a billion dollars!

Allergic rhinitis is usually caused by pollen shed by flowers, trees, grasses and weeds. It can also be due to dust, molds and foods. Allergic rhinitis is estimated to cause three million lost work days and two million lost school days in the U.S. each year.

Until recently, the standard treatment for allergic rhinitis was antihistamines that cause drowsiness. Now, many doctors prefer to prescribe a medication, like Seldane, which does not cause drowsiness. Like other antihistamines, the drug relieves hay fever symptoms.

Allergic rhinitis can be seasonal, occur a few times a year, or be present virtually all the time. Now many allergy sufferers may be able to put away their hankies altogether.

When female elephants fight, it is said, they usually try to bite off each other's tail.

It wasn't until 1963 that Americans started to take drugs in commercially made pills. Jacob Dunton, a Philadelphia wholesale druggist, originated the machine. His entire production from 1969 until 1976 was less than that now made daily in U.S. laboratories.

Facts From Experts At National Council on Compensation Insurance Workers Compensation—How It Affects You

Employees all across the country can applaud the settlement of a racketeering suit against a Florida insurance agency which yielded a swift recovery to the reinsurance pool and the assigned risk servicing carriers.

As a result of the settlement over $700,000 will be paid to the NCCI as administrator of the National Workers Compensation Reinsurance Pool and over $2 million held by the defendants will be turned over to the servicing carriers. Additionally, the defendants were forbidden to conduct any further workers compensation assigned risk business in any state or receive any payment from any agency which conducts such business.

Basically, a Minnesota temporary labor company, Employees Overload, which operates in 42 states, engaged the services of the defendants George Lehor and Florida insurance agent Mark Petro to funnel their countrywide workers compensation claims through a front company. The front, Steve's Auto Repair, was located in Florida and had nothing whatsoever to do with the employee leasing business in Minnesota and other states.

The insurers became suspicious when they discovered they had paid out over $400,000 in claims, but taken in little more than $60,000 in premiums for the two policies.

According to National Council on Compensation Insurance senior vice president Michael Camilleri, "The civil RICO statutes are there to protect everyone from this kind of fraud. We intend to make full use of them in the future, not only to recover monies fraudulently lost to these bogus enterprises, but in the hopes of deterring rash attempts to defraud workers compensation insurers by putting the perpetrators out of business for good."

The National Council on Compensation Insurance is a voluntary, non-profit rate-making organization which prepares rating plans for workers compensation insurance.

Dining Out Trends

The 90s Belong To The Restaurant Service Person
 Chefs were the "celebrities" of the 80s. But the 90s belong to the service staff—the people who provide us with the positive experience of a restaurant.

This is because many diners choose their favorite "eating out" places based on the level of service restaurants provide. Too much emphasis on restaurant ambience and decor will not only be less important in the new decade, but could be negative influences, reports the Yankelovich Monitor, a study that tracks consumer trends.

According to Susy Davidson, food editor of Food & Wine magazine, today's consumers are ready to demand the excellence of service that matches the quality of food and restaurant design they've become accustomed to.

"As diners, we've shifted our interest from a restaurant's decor, to the food, and how to the way we feel when we're in a restaurant," says Davidson. Based on this new, service-oriented attitude, waiters, bartenders, buspersons, coat check people, maitre d's and their colleagues will assume a deserved prominence in this country."

This summer, diners around the country are playing an active role in promoting restaurant service excellence in a new program called "An American Express Salute to Restaurant Service." The program allows diners to acknowledge great restaurant service.

"Salute" gives American Express Cardmembers "Thank You Certificates" to award to restaurant staffers who give the best service. The staffer who collects the most Certificates receives the Grand Prize of $10,000 in American Express® Travelers Cheques. In addition, Cardmembers can enter a special sweepstakes, where the WINNING $25 from the county Historical and Genealogical Society for their rubbing of the tombstone with the county's earliest death date were Amy Hendrix, 10, right, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hendrix, of Ripley, and Jill Jackson, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Jackson, of Ripley.

The marker, for Mary Rutherford, in the Rutherford Cemetery between Double Bridges and Key Corner (carefully tended for many years by County Commissioner P. B. Bridges) shows a death date of June 12, 1839, but as noted by Bettie (Mrs. Gene F.) Davis, of Route 1, Halls, president of the Society:

"Mary Rutherford was the wife of Henry Rutherford, early surveyor and founder of Key Corner:

"Though the tombstone shows that she was born March 4, 1763, and died June 12, 1839, it also records that she was 'Aged 70 y's, 3 mo. & 8 D's' which is an error in either math or stone-cutting. Other records indicate that her death was, in fact, in 1833.

"Soon after the Chickasaw Cession of 1818 had cleared the title to West Tennessee land, the Rutherfords, along with several of their children and other close relatives, moved to land 'on the waters of the Forked Deer River' which Henry had surveyed and secured from the state of North Carolina.

"Though Mary's death was not the first in the Key Corner settlement, hers is the oldest grave now marked in the Rutherford Cemetery.

"Her husband Henry, also buried there, died in 1847.

"An obelisk memorializing several children of Richard and Rebecca Parr was also entered by Ann and Jill.

"The inscription on the marker in Parr Cemetery, in the Poplar Grove community near Halls, records the death of their daughter, Ann R. J., who died in Haywood County on Nov. 10, 1838.

"As the site of the Parr Cemetery was still owned by the family of Henry Rutherford's daughter, Elizabeth, at the time of Ann Parr's death, it was decided that she was most likely buried in Haywood County, which removed her early death date from contention."

Amy and Jill were accompanied on their search by Amy's grandmother, Mrs. W. E. Hendrix, of Ripley, who taught them the art of tombstone rubbing.

They were recognized at the society's meeting at Fort Pillow State Historic Area July 22nd.

New members at the meeting included Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Crichfield, of Halls, and Mr. and Mrs. James Orris Cox, of Memphis.

Visitors at the meeting from out of the county included Sue Williams, of Memphis, Charlene Moss, of Brownsville, Will Spence, of Chestnut Bluff, Tim Sican, of Covington, and Lynda and Rick Berry, of Virginia Beach, Va.

The next meeting, Sept. 9th, will be held in Halls.

I am but nineteen years old and a "New Generation Voter." Lauderdale County has been the only home I have ever had and I'm glad, for the first time I can participate in shaping my county's future. On August 2, 1990, I, along with many of my friends, will go to the voting booth and make our selections for continued success in Lauderdale County. Bill Pete Tucker will receive my vote for County Executive, because he is, and has been, a man for Lauderdale County as a whole. I have found it comforting to finally see a politician who is not in office solely for individual gain, but who is genuinely concerned about the welfare of the populace.

Some people will consider me politically naive because of my age, but I do have eyes and ears which have served me well these nineteen years, and can see what has happened to some individuals once they have obtained a political position in this County. All of a sudden what once was us, our, and we, has become me, mine, and how can I benefit from this. Bill Pete Tucker has always maintained what is good for the County as a whole is good for ALL, not just for a chosen few.

On August 2, (this Thursday) when I get ready to punch my ballot I will be thinking about not only my future in this County but also about Lauderdale County's future. For this reason I will vote for William "Bill Pete" Tucker for County Executive.

I urge the rest of the "New Generation Voters" to vote and let this County know we now have a voice in what happens in Lauderdale County.

Let's Keep Bill Petel

P.S. I also think that older people, especially the candidates who are running should watch their ethics and pay more attention to being a role model while campaigning. Especially if they claim to be Christians and are deacons representing a church.

These are the main reasons why young people today are not attracted to becoming Christians and going to church. If a candidate doesn't have enough good qualities or is not qualified to run for office, therefore feels the need to run on putting his opponent down by using dirty "mud slinging" I feel that he should not be trying to seek an office. Everyone should stand on his own merits.

one has ever been lost. For a brochure on Direct Deposit, send 50 cents to: Federal Reserve Direct Deposit Brochure, Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, CO 81009.

FACTS & FIGURES

Direct Deposit is the banking service that lets employers deposit employee paychecks directly into their bank accounts. Over 70 percent of federal employees now get paid by Direct Deposit, as do 50 percent of the nation's 43 million Social Security recipients. The estimated savings to the U.S. government is more than $100 million a year—savings passed along to all taxpayers.

The citizens of Lauderdale and Haywood counties have seen a "hard fought" race for State Representative this summer. Some people may feel that there has been some "mud slinging" going on. In my opinion, Danny Beard has given you the facts! He has not run a negative campaign, but a factual campaign.

This summer he has put his heart into this campaign only because he cares about our communities and does not want to sit back and watch them literally die. The surrounding counties are growing twice as fast as we are, and their representatives have taken part in their growth. This county needs a representative who sees the needs of all groups and wants the best for everyone, not just himself.

I have participated in this campaign and have never seen anyone work so hard for anything as my dad has worked. He has lived in this county almost all of his life and cares about the people here. He wants to help the working class people (himself included) build a better place to live that we can all be proud of. I know that he will never let the people of this county down because he has never let me down. He is an honest man and has always stressed honesty and integrity to my brother and me and has cautioned us to live respectable lives with concern for the opinions of others. He has been much more than a father to me...he has also been my friend. I could always go to him with every problem, knowing that he would give me the best answer. This side of him is what I want the voters of this county to know. He has worked hard for everything he has ever accomplished and will work equally hard for you as your representative.

He has always been concerned for our education system here and interested in our schools and their teachers. He believes teachers are of utmost importance and has never voted against anything that would help those who educate our children. I am studying to be a teacher myself, so doesn't it seem a little ridiculous that he would vote against anything that would ultimately affect his own child.

I believe it is time to give someone else a chance, so we can give our home a chance. I believe that Danny Beard can get the job done and will always stay in touch with the people. He will be working for you, and there is no other person I would trust more than my daddy. Think about the facts he has given you. He only wants you to know that he knows what is going on, and that he can change the facts and figures to be more favorable for us, the citizens of Lauderdale and Haywood counties.

Once again election day is upon us. I have already discussed the main issues that affect a Sheriff and his department on a daily basis. I have not and I will not participate in a negative campaign.

I have an 8-year record of which I am proud. Many long hard hours have gone into the establishment of this record. I simply urge you to look closely at this record and see for yourself that the Lauderdale County Sheriff's Department is doing the kind of job that you expect and deserve.

Voters Of Lauderdale County:

For the past several weeks, I have expressed my beliefs concerning the direction this county needs to go in the area of law enforcement.

These weeks have meant a lot to me as a person. I appreciate the support and encouragement you have shown me as a candidate. I also want to thank my workers and supporters for their honesty and sincere hard work. Each candidate has the responsibility to see that his workers conduct themselves in a proper manner. I, Jerry Crain, am pleased to state that none of my supporters or workers have defaced, mutilated, or destroyed any candidate signs, or property. Their hard work and effort has sincerely been for the betterment of our county.

I would like to address one question that is being asked to me regarding the employment of the chief deputy and other employees of the Lauderdale County Sheriff's Department. No promises have been made to anyone regarding these positions. As sheriff, I will have ample time to make these decisions.

Ladies and gentlemen, please examine the way our county has become a less secure place to live, work, and raise our families. I believe in community involvement, and we, as citizens, working together can make a difference. Give me the opportunity to make a difference.

In closing, I, Jerry Crain, can not change the past but as sheriff, I can influence the future. The future of our county and children has been the main focus of my campaign. I praise our teachers for their help informing our children on the drug problems and with the parents help and a uniformed officer teaching a special class (DARE) our children will stand a better chance in their future. Lets save Lauderdale County and our children. We, as citizens, must always look forward and not behind. This is why, as a candidate for sheriff, I have informed you as to what I feel and believe would make our county safer and our law enforcement more effective and this can be done within the boundaries of the law. I need your vote and support on election day, August 2nd.

If you call, I'll be there.

With sincere thanks,

Jerry Crain

We All Come Out Winners

It's almost time for the election to take place. How many of you have a nervous stomach? I'll speak for myself. This is my first time to be a candidate for anything and I am as anxious as a child opening a Christmas present that has been under the tree for weeks.

Let me start by saying a very big "THANK YOU" to each and every citizen that I campaigned with. I was received with a smile at every door.

I realize that I have missed seeing a great many of you and to you I say, "I'M TRULY SORRY." I do hope that you have read my articles in the papers. I wrote each one by myself and I only wrote what I felt in my heart. I have made many, many new friends and for this I am truly thankful but I also know that I still have the old friends that I had when I first started. You ask me how I know this, let me explain.

When I first decided that I was going to run for office, I felt it a moral obligation to tell the present Judge, Judge Norvell. He was someone that I had known and respected all of my life. I also had known Mr. Billy Wayne Williams since I was a child and I also had known Mrs. Brandy Reed and her family from years ago. In our race, we all talked at one time or the other and agreed that there would be NO MUDSLINGING OR DIRTY POLITICS INVOLVED in our race. Now as I said: There has been no dirty politics in the General Sessions Judge's race to the best of my knowledge.

In my campaign, I asked each of you to do one thing when I asked for your support and that one thing was this: IF YOU COULD NOT VOTE FOR ME, CAST YOUR VOTE FOR THE PERSON THAT YOU FELT WOULD REPRESENT EVERY PERSON OF THIS COUNTY EQUALLY AND FAIRLY. I know that the other candidates did the same because I have had numerous people tell me so and their reaction was elated. There was so much mudslinging in the other races that it was like a breath of fresh air for them to have a group of candidates in the Judge's race all fighting for equal justice for all the people.

Again let me say in closing that I'm truly sorry that I was not able to see each and everyone of you and I do solicit your vote on election day.

I AM A WINNER whether or not I win the General Sessions Judge's race because I know in my heart that I, as well as the other candidates in this race, have all done what we agreed to do and that was to respect one another and fight for the common good of the everyday person. I know that I still have my old friends and I have new friends also as I feel the other candidates have too.

Again "THANK YOU" for your time and for the very last time I ask for your vote and your help.

Congressman

JOHN TANNER
REPORTS TO THE
EIGHTH DISTRICT

ECONOMY CAN BENEFIT FROM DEFENSE CUTS

Individuals across America are concerned about the economic impact possible reductions in defense spending will have on their communities. The Department of Defense should play a vital role in helping these areas in their transition to an economy which reflects the decreasing military threat to our nation.

Recently, Defense Secretary Cheney estimated that a 25% reduction in spending over the next five years would result in Defense Department civilian and military personnel reductions of 600,000 by 1995. Additional job losses will also occur in the private sector defense-related industries. These losses, however, could turn out to be the economy's gain if efforts are made now to soften the effects of future reductions.

There are several proposals now under consideration by the House Armed Services Committee which are aimed at relieving the financial pressures a smaller military would cause individuals and communities. These proposals recognize the responsibility of the government to assist military personnel who may be involuntarily released as a result of spending cuts.

They also recognize that the technological advancements made in the development of sophisticated weapons and defense systems should be exploited for their potential commercial use. Funding for economic development and technology transfer assistance to affected communities will be considered in the Defense Authorization bill for FY 1991.

The reduction in East-West military tensions will allow America to focus its attention on the threats which face it economically. Yet, Congress also has a responsibility to ensure that these cuts allow us to maintain a strong and vigilant national defense.

EFFICIENT MILITARY SPENDING NECESSARY

One area of defense budget spending which is under review by Congress is the Acquisitions Workforce. This sector of the Defense Department, responsible for billions of dollars of taxpayer funds, needs to be increasingly better trained as the ties between military and private industry begin to change.

In the past, this workforce has had little experience in relations with the business community. Legislation which may be considered would call for these positions to be longer-term assignments to ensure that the taxpayers' money is spent wisely. The thawing of the Cold War calls for reductions in military spending, but we must make sure that these cuts allow our military to remain effective and efficient.

spotlight on health Use Olive Oil For Heart Health Here's heartening news for people trying to maintain a heart healthy diet. Delicious olive oil can be a good part of your heart-smart meal plan. It's been well documented that, when substituted for saturated fat, monounsaturated olive oil reduces blood cholesterol—and here's news to make you feel good news. A recent study, led by Dr. Maurio Trevisan of the State University of New York, Buffalo, confirmed that olive oil, as part of a healthy diet, not only lowers serum cholesterol, but can also help reduce blood pressure and blood sugar levels. The study, published in the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA), was the first in-depth study to examine the actual eating habits of a large population—using real people and real food. Researchers examined the eating habits of 4,908 men and women aged 20 to 59. A comparison was made between the dietary intake of different types of fat (olive oil, butter and a variety of polyunsaturated vegetable oils) and their effect on several risk factors of coronary heart disease (CHD). The consumption of olive oil was associated with a low coronary risk profile. In addition to confirming olive oil's beneficial effect on cholesterol, this in-depth analysis corroborated previous studies that link diets rich in monounsaturated fats to lower blood pressure and blood glucose levels. Olive oil has a great history of health-related benefits. Early Mediterranean cultures believed that olive oil was easy to digest and had a protective effect upon the arteries, stomach and liver. Moreover, the safety of cooking with olive oil is well documented. For thousands of years it has been used by populations who, in addition to having a low incidence of coronary heart disease, enjoy a lifestyle of good food and good health. Fortunately, American consumers can easily incorporate this healthy and flavorful Mediterranean staple into their own lifestyles. Quality olive oils are readily available in supermarkets across the United States. For example, Bertolli offers three types of olive oil—Extra Virgin, Classico and Extra Light—to satisfy a variety of culinary needs. The Bertolli Nutrition Center recommends sampling each one to find the oil or combination of oils which best suit your individual taste preferences.

Church Vows Said

Mr. and Mrs. David Medlock were married July 14th in First Baptist Church in Halls. Officiating was a former pastor, The Rev. Nick C. Harris, of Ovilla Rd. Baptist Church in Ovilla, Tex., and the pastor, The Rev. Rodney E. Alexander.

The bride, Hope Harris, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger R. Harris, of Halls.

The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Milton S. Medlock, of Halls.

An arch of tall tapers arranged by candelabra interspersed with ti, sprenger, leather-leaf, and baby's breath was flanked by large fans of white gladioli in white wicker baskets and with spiral candelabra. Arch candelabra stood by the piano and organ. Center pews were adorned with hurricane lamps nestled in greenery and tied with peach satin bows.

The groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Eddie Medlock, sat on the arm of her son, Scott Medlock, both of Saltville, Miss., to be seated in the place of the groom's mother. The aqua skirt of her 2-piece linen dress was complemented with a white bodice trimmed in aqua. A gardenia was pinned at her shoulder. She wore matching white accessories.

The bride's mother, escorted by her son, Robert, of Halls, chose a silk suit of pale aqua with princess fit jacket and crystal-beaded petal neckline. She wore a gardenia wrist corsage. Accessories complemented her attire.

The bride was given by her father. Her gown, by Bridal Original, featured a fitted bodice with Alençon lace and iridescent sequins, beaded with pearls. High-puffed sleeves were caught midway by self-bows and accented with drop pearls; they extended to lace-covered ring points over her hands. The gown was closed in the rear by covered buttons to the dropped waist, above a miniature lace and pearl-covered bustle. A full semi-cathedral train featuring tulle and lace, with pearl and sequin-edged eye-lets, was edged with lace.

A band of Alençon lace and sequins held a veil of silk illusion, dotted with seed pearls. The bride carried a white cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, roses, stephanotis, and fresh ivy from the garden of Mrs. Ross W. Dyer, of Halls.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Kurt Brown, of Memphis, was matron of honor. Other bridal attendants were the bride's cousins, Lori Lynn Shelton, of Halls, and Mrs. Jaine Anne Steates Sherrod, of Garland, Tex., the groom's niece, Melanie Medlock, of Saltville, Shannon Barnes and Denise Pease, of Halls, Deborah McCord, of Knoxville, and Cindi Robinson, of Memphis.

cloths and held a counted cross-stitch 26th anniversary picture made by the bride, surrounded with wedding pictures made in 1965 in the same sanctuary and dining room.

Reception music was provided by Agnes Cechi, harpist, of Memphis, a gift to the couple from the bride's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Harris, of Dyersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Randall J. Harris, of Halls.

Assisting in the reception were the bride's cousins, Mrs. Julie Jacques Crosson, of McMinnville, and Mrs. Martha Calhoun Mastri, of Memphis, at the bride's table, and Miss Mary Ellen Calhoun, of Memphis, serving the groom's cake. Kim and Lindsay Harris, of Halls, assisted in serving.

Pouring punch were Kim Braden, of Milan, and Holly Freeman and Mrs. Steve Rehrig, of Memphis.

All servers wore corsages of white daisies. For the wedding trip, the bride chose a multi-floral cotton dress of bright and dark colors. Her going-away corsage was a white gardenia.

After their trip to Hilton Head Island, off the South Carolina coast, the newlyweds are at home at 4471 Fair Meadow Road, S., Cherry Meadows, Memphis.

The groom hosted the rehearsal dinner in the church dining room. Assisting were Mrs. Eddie Medlock, Mrs. Robert G. Harris, Mrs. Jamie Brown, and Mrs. Dan Shelton, all of Halls.

Satin bows adorned white lattice behind the head table, graced with an arrangement of Gerbers daisies and roses. On guest tables, glowing candles floated in crystal bowls between decanters containing live fish, blue rocks, and greenery, noting one of David's favorite activities.

Bud vases of peach daisies graced the buffet table, which offered barbecue, baked beans, slaw, rolls, melon balls and assorted fruits from a watermelon basket, fruit dip from a carved canteloupe, chocolate pie with whipped cream topping, and tea punch.

David gave groomsmen personalized address books. He gave his bride a gold necklace.

Hope presented her attendants with pearl earrings and gave David Samsonite luggage.

A Report for Tennesseans

Making Use Of Surplus Government Equipment

As chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, I know firsthand that every penny counts in these times of high deficits. It is critical that we use our resources wisely, setting priorities and eliminating waste.

That's why I was shocked to discover that much of the federal government's surplus equipment is being given to foreign countries without first being offered to our own states and localities, where it is sorely needed. In our state of Tennessee, for example, there were unanswered requests from nine counties and seven towns last year for the same surplus construction and engineering machinery that has recently been sent free to countries like Uruguay and the Philippines.

The origin of this odd set of priorities lies in a program called the Humanitarian Assistance Program (HAP). This program was originally intended to help supply refugees and resistance groups with limited types of federal surplus property. However, as the scope of the program expanded to a larger number of countries, so did the types of excess property requested. Instead of just clothing items and medical supplies, there has been an increasing emphasis on heavy duty machinery over the past two years.

The HAP program has clearly exceeded its original purpose. It has become a foreign assistance program that gives away valuable surplus government equipment - paid for out of the pockets of the American people - that is greatly needed here at home by financially strapped state and local governments. That's why I have introduced a bill to amend the Federal Property Act so that other federal agencies and the states would have first priority in the distribution of surplus Defense Department equipment. This will help ensure that the road building and construction needs of states and localities come first as we distribute surplus property. This additional equipment, some of which is of great value, will help us make vitally needed improvements in the infrastructure of this country. I intend to work with my colleagues here in the Senate to ensure the success of this bill and other measures that will help us make the best possible use of our resources

Spiller, of Halls, at 6 p.m. Sept. 29th in First Baptist Church in Halls, with the Rev. Rodney Alexander officiating. A reception will follow in the fellowship hall of the church, all friends invited.

Miss Buffalo is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover I. Smith, of Halls, and of Frewl Buffalo, and the late Mrs. Buffalo, of Gates.

Mr. Spiller is the grandson of Callie (Mrs. C. W.) Hogue, and the late Mr. Hogue, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Spiller, all of Halls.

Jr. Livestock Expo Entries Show Well

Lauderdale County 4H Clubs were well represented at the Tennessee Junior Livestock Expo for 4H and FFA members interested in showing beef cattle or sheep. Competing from Lauderdale County were Karen Newsom, Cliff Sanders and Eric Moore, students in Halls Elementary School.

The first part of Expo is the District Show at the West Tennessee Fairgrounds in Jackson, the second part at the Tennessee State Fairgrounds in Nashville which lasts four days. Karen exhibited a market steer, breeding ewes, and market lambs, Eric and Cliff competed in the market lamb show.

Karen's steer placed 6th in his class at Jackson and 12th in Nashville. She had four breeding ewes in the show, two of the ewes became the Grand Champion and the Reserve Champion Dressed Ewes and the remaining two placed first and second, respectively, in their classes. These same breeding ewes placed 3rd, 6th, 4th, and 8th, respectively, in their classes at Nashville. Karen exhibited two market lambs which placed fourth and sixth in their classes in Jackson and ninth and tenth in each class in Nashville.

Eric Moore placed second in his class in the market lamb show in Jackson and again in Nashville. Cliff Sanders placed fourth in his class at both Jackson and Nashville.

All of the exhibitors competed in the Market Lamb Showmanship contest and did excellent jobs of showing their lambs. Karen also competed in the Steer Showmanship and the Breeding Ewe Showmanship and was selected as the district winner in each of these contests. She also competed in the Ewe Showmanship Contest in Nashville.

Ocil Smith

Ocil W. Smith, 71, of Phoenix, Ala., formerly of Halls, died July 9th in a Phoenix hospital. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith, of Halls.

Services were at 10 a.m. July 11th in Greenwood Memorial Park Cemetery in Phoenix.

A World War II veteran, he was a member of North Hills Church of God.

He leaves his wife, Edna Sue Smith; a son, Terry A. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga.; two brothers, Murray O. Smith, of Virginia Beach, Va., and Donald R. Smith, of Hernando, Miss.; a sister, Maxine Cochran, of Humboldt; and two grandchildren.

Air Force Awards Genesy 3rd Medal

Staff Sgt. Jimmy C. Genesy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arda J. Genesy, of Route 5, Ripley, has been decorated with the third award of the Air Force Achievement Medal at Hurlburt Field, Fla., where he is a combat arms training and maintenance technician with the 834th Security Police Squadron.

He is a 1977 graduate of Ripley High School.

TEAM EXCELS

Lauderdale County's 4-H Dairy Product Judging Teams excelled again this year in district competition Friday at the West Tennessee Center for Agriculture in Jackson.

The Junior High Team — of Shane Booker, Deanna Harrell, Blair Robbins, and Kim Sweat — placed first out of ten teams in competition.

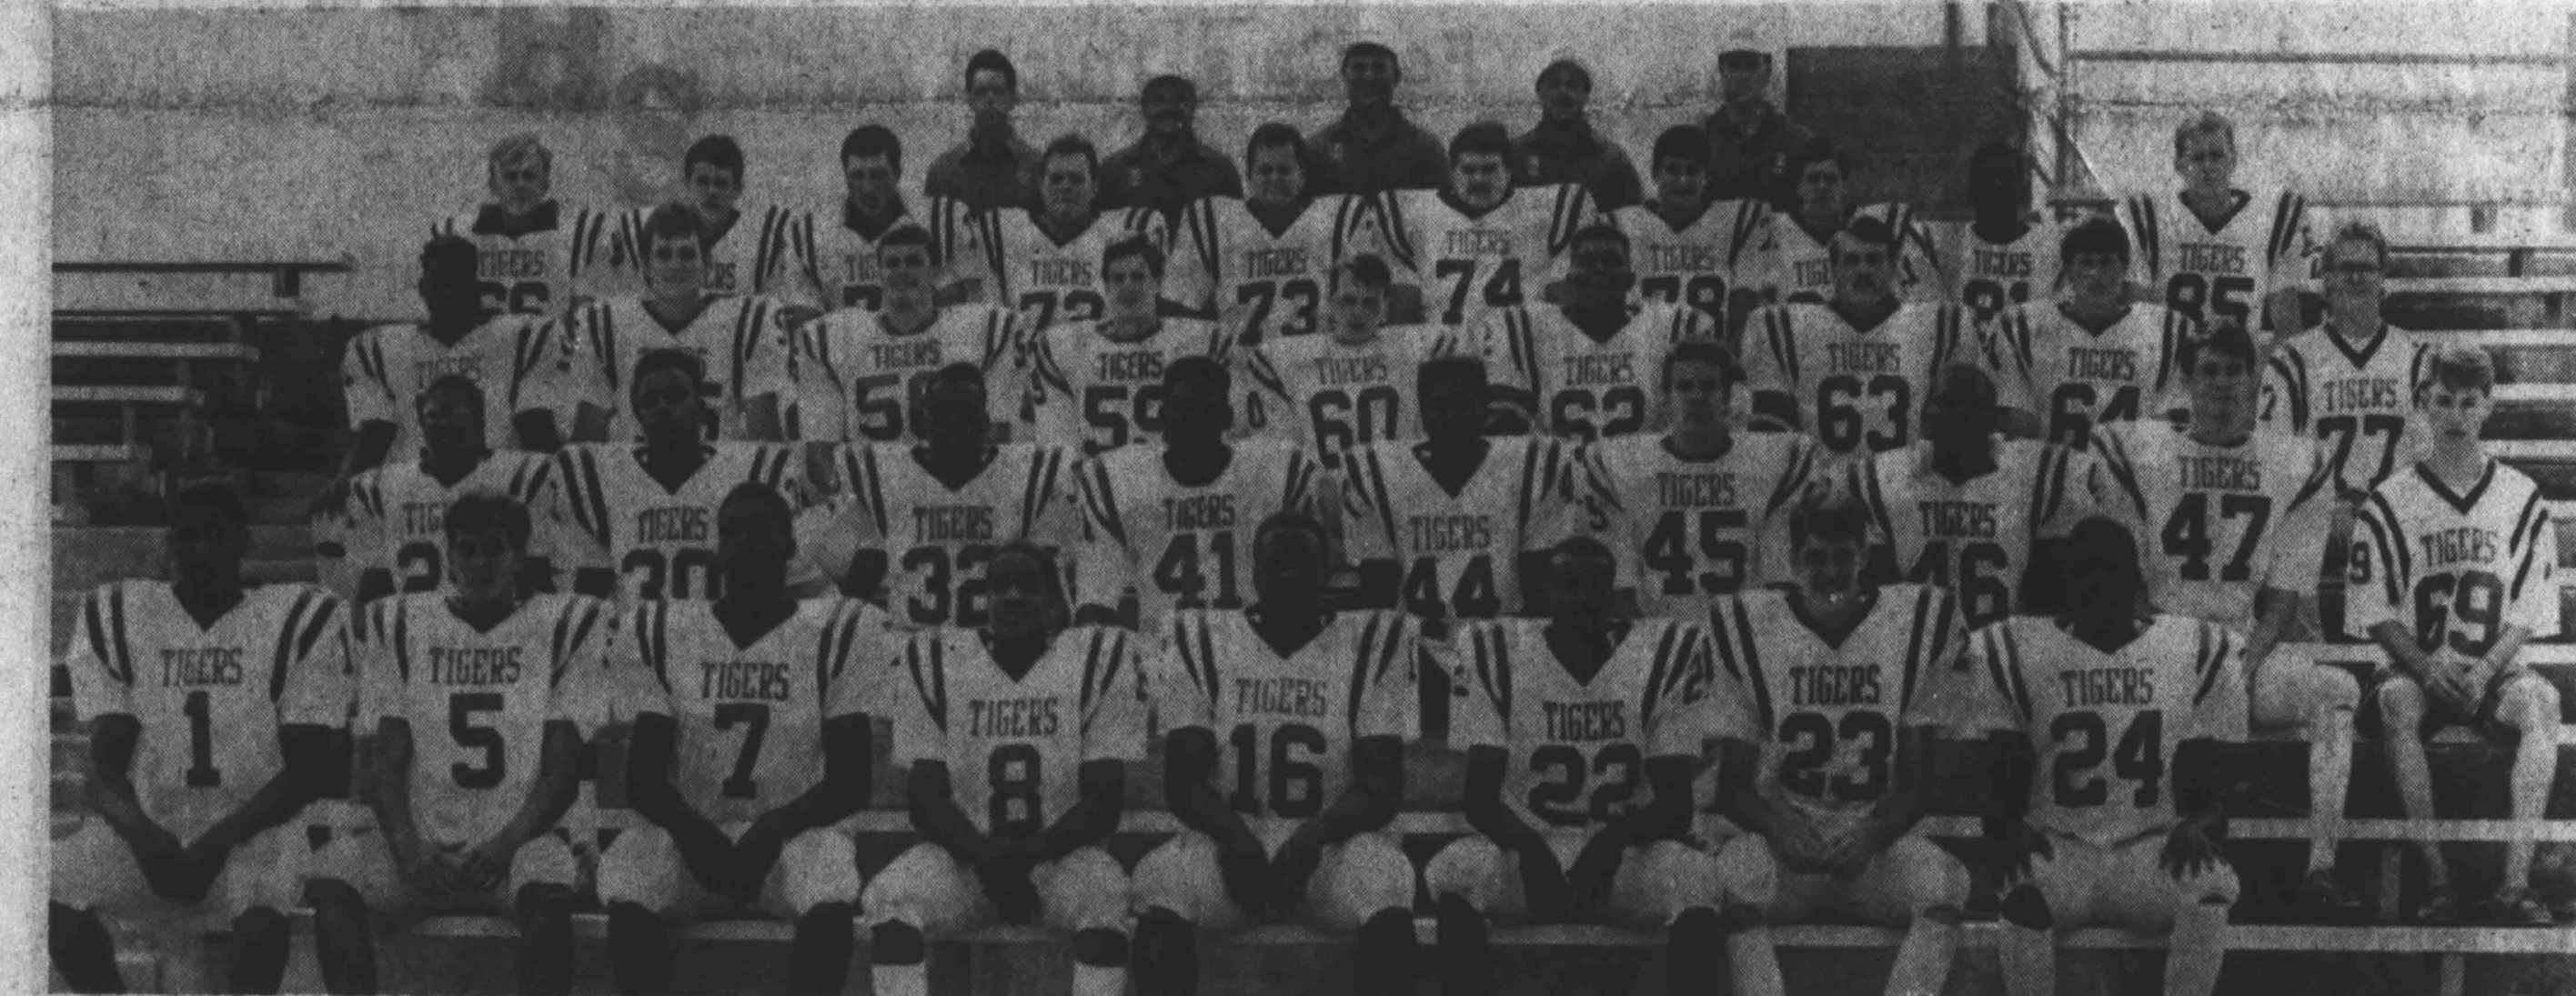

The Senior High Team — Emily Davis, Stacy Hubbard, and Brandy Shelton — placed second among 13 teams. This team will represent the district in competition at the University of Tennessee in Martin Oct. 15th.

Jane H. Connell, Extension Agent, coached the team. She and Mrs. Chandler Davis accompanied the group to Jackson.

The teams had trained for five weeks to recognize defects in milk, cottage cheese, cheddar cheese, and ice cream.

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS visiting Ripley last week, are shown with S. Norfleet Anthony, Jr., following breakfast held at Farmers Union Bank last Friday. The group consists of 12 officers selected from 12 countries to come to Washington, D. C. to study for one year at the National Defense University. Ripley was once again chosen to the rural town in which the officers would make a visit, and the only stop on their tour in which they would be able to spend a night in private homes. They include, front row, from left, Col. Abdullah Bin Ghani, of Malaysia, Gen. Abdullah Al-Marzouqi, of Saudi Arabia, Mr. Anthony, who was presented a plaque of appreciation for his efforts on behalf of international relations, Col. David Mark, of Nigeria, and Cap.

Ruben Gonzales, of Uruguay. Second row, Col. Luhut Pandjatan, of Indonesia, Capt. Alfredo Anaya, of Peru, Capt. Schames Ul-Haque, of Pakistan, and Col. William Hotchkiss, of the Philippines. Third row, Col. Richard Smith, USAF, the group's USA escort, Col. Wilson Boinett, of Kenya, Col. Sven Persson, of Sweden, Col. Albert Screllers, of Botswana, and Col. Bernard Peltier, of France. Ripley host families included the Phillip Jacksons, Herman Revieries, Bob Revieries, Jimmy Fullens, Norfleet Anthonys, Craig Fitzhughs, Bob Wilders, Norris Nixs, Samuel Lees, Howard Jones, Leland Jennings, and Mayor and Mrs. Fred Montgomery.

First game is set August 31st at Raleigh-Egypt.

Crain Sheriff By 15 Votes; Matthews Cnty. Executive; Rep. Crain Is Re-Elected

Two years ago, Bobby Webb was elected Superintendent of Schools by 21 votes, of 5,957 cast.

Last week, Jerry Crain was elected Sheriff by 15 votes, of 8,759 cast.

The big voter turn-out was fueled principally by the hot race for sheriff, in which Crain edged incumbent Milford 'Pop' Durham, who led him by 379 votes four years ago.

Gwinn Matthews, former sheriff and current County Commissioner, surprised almost every political observer not by winning the county executive's office from William (Bill Pete) Tucker IV, but by his margin of victory, 3,625 to 3,091, despite the late entry into the race of Ripley Mayor Rozelle Criner, who nevertheless drew 1,784 votes, backing his plea for more county support of industrial development. Criner's message will not be ignored.

In a changing of the guard, Billy Wayne Williams coasted, 4,791-2,458, to win the General Sessions Judgeship from incumbent Willard Norvell. Both are highly respected law enforcement officers, but voters were convinced that Williams will now serve best in the court to which most complaints are originally brought.

Paul Meadows won re-election as Trustee, with 4,997 votes, to 3,189 for Everette Harrison.

Voters rejected a scantily explained or promoted sales tax increase for school purposes, 3,098-2,572.

State Rep. Floyd Crain, of Ripley, carried this county, 4,212 to 2,510, and Haywood County, 2,783 to 2,075, for a 2,410 majority over County Commissioner Danny Beard, of Ripley, to win his 7th term in Nashville.

Joe H. (Jody) Walker III, of Ripley, won a new Chancery Court judgeship by 4,125 votes over Walt Freeland, of Somerville. He carried this county 6,119-1,088, Tipton, 4,250-3,923, and McNairy, 1,857-1,151, losing Fayette, 3,133-1,222, and Hardeman, 824-796.

Nelson Charged With Fatal Stabbing Of Ivorie Dewalt

Jeffrey Lee Nelson, of Hornbrook St., Dyersburg, was jailed Friday in Dyersburg and held Monday under $50,000 bond on a charge of criminal homicide in the fatal stabbing of Ivorie Dewalt, 27, of 918 Custer, Dyersburg, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dewalt, of Gates, and of Alex Peete, of Ripley.

Dyersburg police found about 100 people gathered around Dewalt, victim of numerous stab wounds, in front of Nelson's residence, about 1:30 a.m.

SCHOOL REGISTRY

Nelson was arrested at his mother's home on Salenfriend St. Services for Mr. Dewalt were at noon Wednesday in International Gospel Temple of which he was a member, with burial in Memorial Park Cemetery, Thomas Funeral Home in charge.

He also leaves a daughter, Erica Dewalt, and his mother, Mrs. Georgie M. Dewalt, of Dyersburg; five brothers, Elvold B. Peete and James Earl Demmie, of Ripley; Randy Holloway, of Gates, Jackson Parker, of Dyersburg, and James Lewis Dewalt, of California; and five sisters, Mrs. Patricia Anderson, of Ripley, Jackie D. Parker, Mary L. Parker, and Mrs. Deborah Mitchell, of Dyersburg, and Mrs. Linda Shaw, of Selmer.

Tomato Products Receive Awards

Verna (Mrs. Roy) Thompson received the Best of Show in the canned tomato category with her chili sauce relish and the Do Sew Homemakers Club received Best of Show in the creative arrangement category Friday during the tomato exhibits sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Frances (Mrs. Vernon) Gilliland placed first in the canned tomato and tomato juice divisions and Delene (Mrs. Rufus) Smith placed first in the miscellaneous canned products with her sliced green tomatoes.

Gladys (Mrs. Wheeler) Vaden placed first in the fresh tomato division.

Other participants were Helen Tunison, Beverly Vickery, Ima Webb, Lillie Ray, Katie Chisholm, Helen Wadsworth and the Heritage Extension Home-maker Club.

The Do Sew, Bexar, Town & Country, Variety, Heritage and CurveWoodville Clubs assisted Jane Connell, Extension Agent, with the exhibits.

AMY NICHOLS, 1990 graduate of Ripley High School, represented Tennessee in the Future Homemakers of America National Leadership meeting in San Antonio, Tex., July 7-12th. She competed in the Job Interview Proficiency Event and received the Two-Star Award and a Silver Medal. Also attending from Ripley was Sherrie (Mrs. Clifford) Sweat, Jr., Amy's adviser.

Tomato Star

BRUCE LITTLE, of Ripley, left, is congratulated by Richard Buntin, Lauderdale County Assistant Extension Agent, as Tomato Farmer of the Year in the Tomato Festival Thursday of last week. He received most votes in a contest sponsored by the County Chamber of Commerce.

Re-Union Recalls Gold Dust's Past

Among those from out of this area attending a Gold Dust School re-union July 29th in Ripley Community Center were Mrs. Fay Hancock Dugar, of League, Tex.; Mrs. Sarah Mooney Hankey, of Vermont, Ala.; and her husband, Dennis, Mrs. Cleo Gates, the former Eva Lois Ross, and Mr. Gates, of Alexander, Ark.; Eddie Abernathy, a former teacher at Gold Dust School, and Mrs. Abernathy, of Rogersville, Mrs. Morine Brooks Walton, and Mrs. Bernice Hancock Strong, of Jackson; Mrs. She Utley, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Garstang, of Brownsville; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Simpson, of Germantown; Mrs. Linnie Simpson and Mrs. B. J. Jennings, the former Doris Simpson, and Mr. Jennings, of Elaine, Ark.; Mrs. LaFrancis Braden Highland, Mrs. Sybil Minner Eeue, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon (Happy) Minner, Mrs. Evelyn King Shook, Mrs. Marie Chipman Brasfield, and Mrs. Mable Hancock Harrell, all of Memphis; Mrs. Gertrude Brown Thompson, of Collierville; Mrs. Marilyn Garrett and children, of Sharon.

"All remembered walking barefoot to school in summer when the roads were so hot their feet seemed to bake," Mrs. Harrell Chipman, of Mary's Chapel reports.

"But, in winter many walked 3 or 4 miles to school in rain, sleet, and snow. They were determined to obtain an education. Those who lived too far from school to go home for lunch, brought their lunch from home.

"Sometimes a lunch consisted of biscuit and butter, biscuit and meat, or on a lucky day, maybe a chicken leg and a fried pie.

"There was one thing sure, all who brought their lunch were anxious to hear the dinner bell ring at 12, even though, they knew for certain they were not having pizza, hamburger, french fries, or their choice of desserts.

"I never heard anyone complain about not liking what they had, but no one had junk food then.

"Many had breakfast early so they could do the chores before walking several miles to school, so, by lunchtime they really had an appetite.

"We remembered wearing home-made dresses. Even the boys wore shirts made from flour sacks. Sometimes their overalls were also homemade. The cloth could be bought at Sears Roebuck by the yard or by the bolt.

"At the re-union, all former students were well dressed and looked very healthy. Their prosperity was evidenced by the vehicles in the parking lot.

"As farewells were said, the sun was setting again on what was once Gold Dust, but no longer. The mighty Mississippi River has swallowed up acres of land, taking with it the business district. There are no longer any land-marks to remind one that Gold Dust was once there, but it lives on in the memories of the people who grew up there and survived the Great Depression."

Readers Speak

Editors:
The Lauderdale County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and I would like to express our sincere appreciation to you for the coverage that we received in the paper on the Tomato Festival. For several weeks before the festival, you had articles, pictures, and ads featured in the paper. We also want to say "thank you" for getting our programs and circulars printed for us in such an efficient manner.

Without kind people like you and your staff, our festival would not have been a success. Thanks for doing a wonderful job on printing the paper each week. We are proud of you and the product that you manufacture in our town.

Again, we say a big THANK YOU. If we can ever be of any assistance to you, please feel free to contact us.

Football team captain, he was All-District, Most Valuable Player in District 14-A, and All-State. In baseball, his batting average led the Tigers, with most home runs.

THANK YOU

For the opportunity to continue serving as your County Court Clerk. For your generous vote of confidence, I am humbly grateful. I will always strive to be worthy of your trust and support.

VERNON McBRIDE, JR.
YOUR COUNTY COURT CLERK

First I want to say a sincere "Thank You" to the thousand who voted for me last Thursday. When I finish this month as your County Executive, I will have served you for seven years in this office. I'm proud of my record and the things that you and I have accomplished for our county.

As budget deliberations continue and my term ends, I also reaffirm my objection to any property tax raise this year. I realize that it will be hard for the schools but I leave with a balanced county general budget and the belief that any raise in taxes will be met with opposition.

Thank you again to the many that supported me throughout the years.

Bill Pete Tucker

To The People Of Lauderdale County:

Thanks for your help and concern during my campaign. I appreciate all of your efforts.

Thank you for allowing me to continue to serve as your County Trustee.

Paul Meadows

THANK YOU

for the opportunity to continue to serve as your Probate and Juvenile Judge.

I greatly appreciate your confidence in me, and I look forward to working for all citizens of Lauderdale County during my next term.

Helpful Tips and Ideas To Help You or a Loved One Quit Smoking—

Women & Smoking

Is the female smoker at added risk? According to statistics from the National Institutes of Health, she may be. In fact, the percentage of women who smoke is declining much more slowly than is the percentage of male smokers. The smoker rate for women (27.8 percent) nearly equals that for men (32.8 percent).

The smoking rate for women nearly equals the smoking rate for men.

During the past 20 years the death rate from lung cancer in women in the U.S. has been steadily increasing, and in 1986, lung cancer surpassed breast cancer in mortality rates for women. Because nicotine is an addiction, it's not easy to stop smoking. Each year, however, three million Americans do. Fortunately, help is available. Doctors can prescribe a medication in gum form that releases small amounts of nicotine into the mouth. This produces nicotine blood levels sufficient to reduce withdrawal symptoms.

The important thing to do first is to make your decision to quit smoking and see your doctor.

For Randal Martin the dream

Whites Creek Trading Post

WHITES CREEK, Tenn. — Outlaw Bill Ryan never intended to stop at the Whites Creek saloon that windswept, rainy night in 1881. Heeded west, he planned to pass right through Whites Creek on his way up Paradise Ridge (a place where no man would ask your name as long as you minded your own business) and on to Missouri. But on this night, a warm drink in the store saloon seemed more inviting than the pounding rain.

It was to be his last drink as a free man. Before the night was over he would be sitting in the Nashville jail, his dreams of fame as a member of the notorious James Gang shattered.

More than a century later the end of Bill Ryan's dream is the beginning of a dream come true for another man. For Randal Martin, the little store now serves as honor and business and is known as the Whites Creek Trading Post, offering Martin's own oil paintings and fine art prints, a line of frontier trade goods and the handiwork of Native Americans.

"I grew up on a steady diet of cowboy westerns and frontier stories, especially Davy Crockett tales," says Martin. "And I always dreamed of running a frontier store and now it has happened!" he adds.

For Randal Martin the dream

became reality one evening when he was told that the historic building was available for rent. The owners, the Thompson family, wanted to see the historic property used and a frontier store would fit in with the history of the site. Opening the store would also give visitors a chance to see the place that marked the beginning of the end of the Jesse James Gang.

The dry goods store and saloon was built around 1876-1880 and was run by the Earthman family. Mr. Earthman served as a magistrate for Whites Creek, and had served as a constable of Davidson County.

On the night of March 25, 1881, Mrs. Earthman was minding the store when a stranger arrived, wet and cold from the terrible rainstorm that raged outside. As the stranger drank he began to talk and to boast. He flashed a lot of money and kept his guns on.

At the time, rumors had been circulating around Whites Creek that the James Gang was in the area, and Mrs. Earthman began to suspect that one of them was sitting in her saloon. She slipped out and fetched the blacksmith from across the road — a tall, strong, black man — who surprised Ryan from behind and held him until he could be "hog tied." Just in time Mr. Earthman arrived to haul the stranger to the Nashville jail. Word soon spread throughout the area that Bill Ryan, a dangerous man in the employ of Jesse James, had been arrested. Within a few hours the hunt for the James Gang began, but Jesse and Frank James had packed up their families and left Tennessee ahead of the posse. Soon, the good people of Nashville began to piece together the story of how Frank and Jesse had lived among them as respectable farmers and business men... when not robbing banks and trains. Bill Ryan and Jesse James had committed their first bank robbery 18 years earlier in Russellville, Kentucky and had returned to Nashville $17,000 richer than when they left. The James families went by the names of Howard and Woodson, and their own children did not know their real names until the night that Bill Ryan was arrested.

"Aside from their aliases, it was also fear of the brothers and their reputation for shooting people down that created a refuge here," remarked Martin. "And at that time some people considered them heroes of the Confederacy, on the run from a Yankee government."

The Whites Creek Trading Post remains a vivid link to those times. Restored in 1981, the swinging doors to the small saloon remain, and one can stand before them and wonder at the struggle that Bill Ryan put up as he was taken into custody. But instead of belying up to the war, visitors can shop in the old dry goods store and select fine prints and original oil paintings by the resident proprietor.

Whether it's the glowing eyes of a cougar or the piercing stare of an old Indian, as in his print "Two Feathers," Martin captures his subjects with amazing realism. His newest print is an interesting study of sunlight on leather and is called "Goin' to Town." It depicts the boot of a cowboy riding on his horse toward the "watering hole."

Visitors to the trading post will also find a wide assortment of items for the living history re-enactor. Bone-handled knives, tin cups, leather shooting pouches, frock coats and other goods for frontier men and women are sold here. "We also carry handmade silver and bead jewelry, moccasins, deer-skin Indian dresses, blankets, and pottery made by local Indians. We have items for the tourist trade like southwestern tee shirts, but even these are made by an artist that I know," says Randal as he unfolds one of the turquoise and silver shirts.

For Randal Martin living and working at the old store keeps history close at hand. Never mind that the saloon is now his kitchen. At any moment the James Gang might come riding up, tie their horses close to the porch and look over the union suits, dusters, and kerchiefs as they study the bank across the road. And outside, at dusk, Cherokee ghosts walk down the road, forever treading the Trail of Tears, past the community where white men once stood to watch them pass.

The Whites Creek Trading Post is open weekdays and Saturdays 10-5 and Sundays 1-5.

Thanks From The Lauderdale County Chamber Of Commerce

for making the 1990 Lauderdale County Tomato Festival a great success. Several new ideas were added this year and we hope to make next year a bigger success.

Reigning over the Lauderdale County Tomato Festival was Queen Sandra Blakely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blakely, first Maid Rhonda Ross, daughter of Troy Ross, and second Maid Dawn Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lee.

This year the Chamber of Commerce was honored to present the Outstanding Tomato Grower Award to Bruce Little.

It is impossible to thank everyone who helped with the activities or who donated so much to the Tomato Festival. The Chamber of Commerce is extremely proud of the participants.

Our co-sponsor, Dr. Pepper Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company, of Dyersburg, gave so much of their time to our festival that it definitely was an added plus to the festival.

The attendance at all the functions was great this year. We hope to continue to grow next year. If you have any suggestions for next year, we welcome your ideas.

Annie Laura Jennings
 Register of Deeds

I want to take this time to thank the people of this county that have supported and encouraged me over the years that I have held public office. Thank you for electing me into office 8 times.
 In each position that I have held, I strived to do the very best job that I could. I leave behind good, clean records to be proud of. I believe one of the keys to a successful life is the desire and ability to serve others. This is what I have done during the 37 years that I have served this county. I will continue to do this in my church, civic organizations, and county involvement.
 I wish the very best for our new Judge, and support him. I am now looking forward to retirement, and to what the Lord has in store for me for this new phase of my life.
 Thank you,

Willard Norvell

Thanks, Lauderdale County!

It has truly been a pleasure and an honor for me to have served as sheriff of Lauderdale County for the past eight years. I have proudly worn the Sheriff's Badge every day of these two terms in office and have never forgotten that it was you, the citizens of Lauderdale County who bestowed this honor upon me. It is hard to find the words to express the gratitude I feel, so I would simply say "Thank you citizens of Lauderdale". I also appreciate the support of concerned citizens who never hesitated to help this department in many ways, from simply making a phone call to assisting in searches, manhunts, and in times of tragedy. By working together, I feel that we have made great strides in the Sheriff's Department and that it is a much better law-enforcement agency today than it was eight years ago.

At this time I would like to congratulate Sheriff-elect Jerry Crain and offer him my support and assistance to continue to make the Sheriff's Department better able to serve Lauderdale County. I know Jerry to be energetic and hard working, but no one man can carry the burden alone. I urge each citizen to support him as strongly and as faithfully as you have me in the past. This may be a good time for all of us to come together and send a message to the criminal element of our county. That message being that the people of Lauderdale County will not tolerate criminal activity in their county.

Again let me say, "Thank you for the past eight years". I would like to say thanks especially to all those who voted for and supported me in this latest campaign. I am proud of the way our campaign was run and we certainly have nothing to be ashamed of. I wish each of you nothing but the best in the future.

Thank You!

THE HALLS GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

HALLS, TENNESSEE, AUGUST 16, 1990

VOLUME 92—NUMBER 33

MR. AND MRS. CALVIN BARLOW, seated front center, are seen with their children, Will, John, Linda, Terry, Ezzward, Sheila, Ronald, Annie, Donald, Mildred, Barry, and Joseph.

Air-Lift To Arabia No Surprise To The Calvin Barlow Family

Sgt. (E-6) Will E. Barlow, 35, is being flown from Ft. Campbell, Ky., to Saudi Arabia, to confront Iraqi troops armed with chemical weapons. That concerns his parents, the Calvin Barlows, of 159 Oak, Ripley—but is not a surprise to this family.

The Barlows' oldest of nine sons, The Rev. Joseph Barlow, 43, employed by a paper company in Nashville, is in the Air Force Reserve.

Sgt. (E-6) Donald Gene Barlow, 31, is in the Air Force, stationed at Hessian Oldendorf, Germany.

Sgt. (E-6) Ezzward Barlow, 30, is in the Army, residing in Jefferson City, Kans. The Rev. Barry D. Barlow, 28, pastor of Friendship Baptist Church in Nashville, is a National Guardsman.

Of five daughters, Linda, 37, is the wife of Willie L. Miller, a Navy petty officer stationed in Bermuda.

And her twin, Brenda, resides in Jacksonville, N.C., with her husband, Douglas Martin, a veteran of Navy service.

Another daughter, Sheila, 26, a hospital employee in Pontiac, Mich., is the wife of Nelson T. Tyus, who serves in the Naval Reserve in Madison Heights, Mich.

Their father, Calvin Barlow, born at Arp, has retired from 20 years of service at Tennessee Electroplating in Ripley.

Their mother, the former Annie Catherine Johnson, was born at Ripley. She was a teacher's aide in Johnson Consolidated Elementary School in Ripley, 1965-68. And she is an office occupations student in the Ripley State Area Vocational School, despite fractures in an automobile accident en route to school in April.

Her husband has long been a deacon in Morning Star Baptist Church in Ripley. He and his wife plan to be proudly on hand Sunday when their second son, Calvin, Jr., 40, pastor of the Second Missionary Baptist Church in Nashville, speaks in 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. services in Morning Star.

The speaker took a bachelor of science degree in music education, with a minor in history, from Tenn. State University in Nashville. Founder and president of C&C Insurance Agency, he is licensed as an agent for insurance, real estate, and the National Association of Securities Dealers.

He and his wife, the former Rutha L. Nixon, have three sons, Calvin III, Jeremiah, and John, among 28 grandchildren of the Ripley couple.

Though military obligations are a major concern now, the Riplians are no less proud of their other children without military links.

John Walter, 39, attended Shelby State College. He is employed by Roadway in Memphis and pursuing real estate interests.

Terry B. Barlow, 36, of Route 5, Ripley, attended DSC and was employed at Maremont; Donald's twin brother, Ronald, of Spring St., Ripley, also attended DSC. Both are now employed by DeVilbiss, air compressor makers, in the Industrial Park west of Jackson.

Annie (Mrs. Robert) Deberry, 33, a graduate of LeMoyné-Owen College in Memphis, resides in Rocky Mount, N.C., where she is supervisor of the chemical department of Consolidated Diesel.

Mildred Barlow, 21, is about to enter her third year of studies in TSU.

Brenda and Linda are graduates of Draughton's Business College.

Powers Smith Paid Tributes

Powers Smith, music director of Henning's First Baptist Church for 40 years, was honored in morning services July 29th.

Johnny Laton, presiding deacon, introduced Dr. Hiram Barefoot, president of Union University in Jackson; Steve Reynolds, executive vice-president of Health Care System, of Memphis; Gene Edwards, a Gideon, of Henning; Fred Montgomery, Mayor of Henning; The Rev. James Williams, of Troy, former pastor, and The Rev. Teddy Evans, retired missionary for the Big Hatchie Baptist Assn., for their tributes to Mr. Smith.

The Rev. James Chunn presented a plaque; Dr. Barefoot presented a certificate.

Gene Edwards presented for the Gideons an honor card for 40 honor bibles.

Steve Reynolds presented a certificate of recognition to the church.

The congregation sang Happy Birthday to Mr. Smith, 81, July 29th.

Relatives present included his daughter, Meredith Busee of Olive Branch, Miss., who played a few of his favorite hymns on the piano.

Adult and junior choirs presented special hymns in his honor, accompanied by John Royce Jacobs, pianist.

Special guests in the congregation were The Rev. Ira Perkins, Director of The Big Hatchie Assn., Bill Torrence, of Baptist Hospital Lauderdale and several members of the Ripley Gideon Camp.

Concluding the service, The Rev. James Chunn invited everyone to attend a fellowship meal in the dining hall.

Classes begin Aug. 20th.

SCHOOL REGISTRY

Register for county schools as follows:

Thursday, Aug. 16 — Halls Elementary School, grades K-3; Ripley Elementary, K-1; Lauderdale Middle, 4-5; Halls Jr. High, 7; high schools, 11-12.

Friday, Aug. 17 — HES, 4-6; RES, 2-3; LMS, 6-8; HJH, 8; high schools, 9-10.

Busses will pick up students on regular schedules, returning them from 10:30 on.

RHS fees (Social Security No. required) are $5 for Identification Card ($10 if photo not made in spring); locker, $4; school photo, $1; parking permit (grades 11-12 only), $4.

F&S and LMS students through age 11 may register for Extended School (up to 6 p.m.) ($15 enrollment, $20 per week). Information from Jackie Walker, 635-3324.

Classes begin Aug. 20th.

RHS Ranks Thin For Grid Season

Ripley High School football coach Randy White predicts a slim and small squad, but with speed, for the Ripley Tigers this fall.

He told Ripley Rotarians Tuesday that of 42 players in spring training, only 30 have been in camp this fall, and only 20 to 25 at a time. (absentees varying).

Projected quarterback Marcus Harrison, in hospital, is out for the season. Nate Patterson is showing up well as his replacement.

White will be playing three sophomores but warns that all Tigers will be playing just about every minute of every game, against foes who can field many different teams (Haywood reports 57 players training).

RHS scrimmages in Milan Friday and with Memphis East on Kneel Field at 4 p.m. Monday. It meets Halls in a jamboree at 7:30 p.m. Friday of next week in Dyersburg.

Jamboree tickets are being sold by the RHS Boosters Club, which meets at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in RHS. Information from Mike Galloway, 635-0136, or Martha Drumwright, 635-3585.

Torrence Joins UT Conference

Bill Torrence, vice-president of the Lauderdale Chapter of the University of Tennessee National Alumni Association, participated in a comprehensive 2-day leadership conference last weekend at the Hyatt Regency in Knoxville.

The conference, sponsored by the UT National Alumni Association, is held each year for new members of the Board of Governors and alumni chapter officers from throughout Tennessee and the nation.

The conference revolves around a series of "how-to" workshop sessions and seminars designed to inform alumni leaders of their roles and functions in the various programs of the National Alumni Association.

The central theme of the conference was presented in the introductory remarks by Alumni Association President, Mr. James L. Thomas, of Goodlettsville.

"In the year just ended on June 30, over 54,000 alumni participated in various alumni functions, including 140 alumni chapter meetings in Tennessee and across the nation, alumni tours, class re-unions and alumni class receptions."

"Over the past year, we raised over $6,797,799 in annual giving. It is through the continued involvement of you, the alumni, and many other dedicated friends of the University, that this rare achievement came about."

In addition to Mr. Thomas' keynote speech, other highlights of the conference included presentations by UT President Lamar Alexander, Dr. Joseph E. Johnson, UT executive vice-president and vice-president for development; and the Chancellor or their representatives of the University's four primary campuses.

Participating in the Chancellor's Panel were: Dr. John J. Quinn, Chancellor of UT Knoxville; Dr. Frederick W. O'bear, Chancellor of UT at Chattanooga; and Dr. Margaret N. Perry, Chancellor of UT at Martin.

Kennetha Read was Tiny Tot winner Aug. 5th in Palmer-Turner Community Center in Henning.

Ashley Andrews placed second, Bryan Jones third. Prizes were also awarded to Lawrence Andrews, Ashley Nicole McGill, and Doris Mitchell.

Palmer-Turner royalty in the Junior Division were April Green, with Bertina Harris runner-up, and Harvey (Trey) Taylor III; in the Senior Division, Cherun Jones, with Lakesha Alston as runner-up, and Calvin Douglas.

Mrs. Sue Toles was mistress of ceremonies. Judges were Mrs. Linda Cooper, Mrs. Ethel Hayes and Mrs. Jennett Jones. Mrs. Earnestine Chaney chaired this event.

Thomas On S'west Electric MC Board

William S. Thomas, of Route 5, Ripley, was elected to a 3-year term on the Board of Trustees of the Southwest Tenn. Electric Membership Corp. in its annual meeting Friday at its headquarters in Brownsville.

Tanner Holding Public Meeting

U.S. Rep. John Tanner, of Union City, who represents this county, invites the public to meet him and members of his staff at 11 a.m. Aug. 20th in the county Courthouse in Ripley.

Blood Is Sought For Mrs. Turner

Donors are urged to come next door to City Hall in Henning between noon and 3 p.m. Aug. 25th to replace blood given Linda (Mrs. Gene) Turner.

MUSICAL TRY-OUTS

Try-outs for the musical comedy, Bye Bye Birdie will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Aug. 28th in Ripley High School's Little Theater, for a cast of 28 adults, teen-agers, and children.

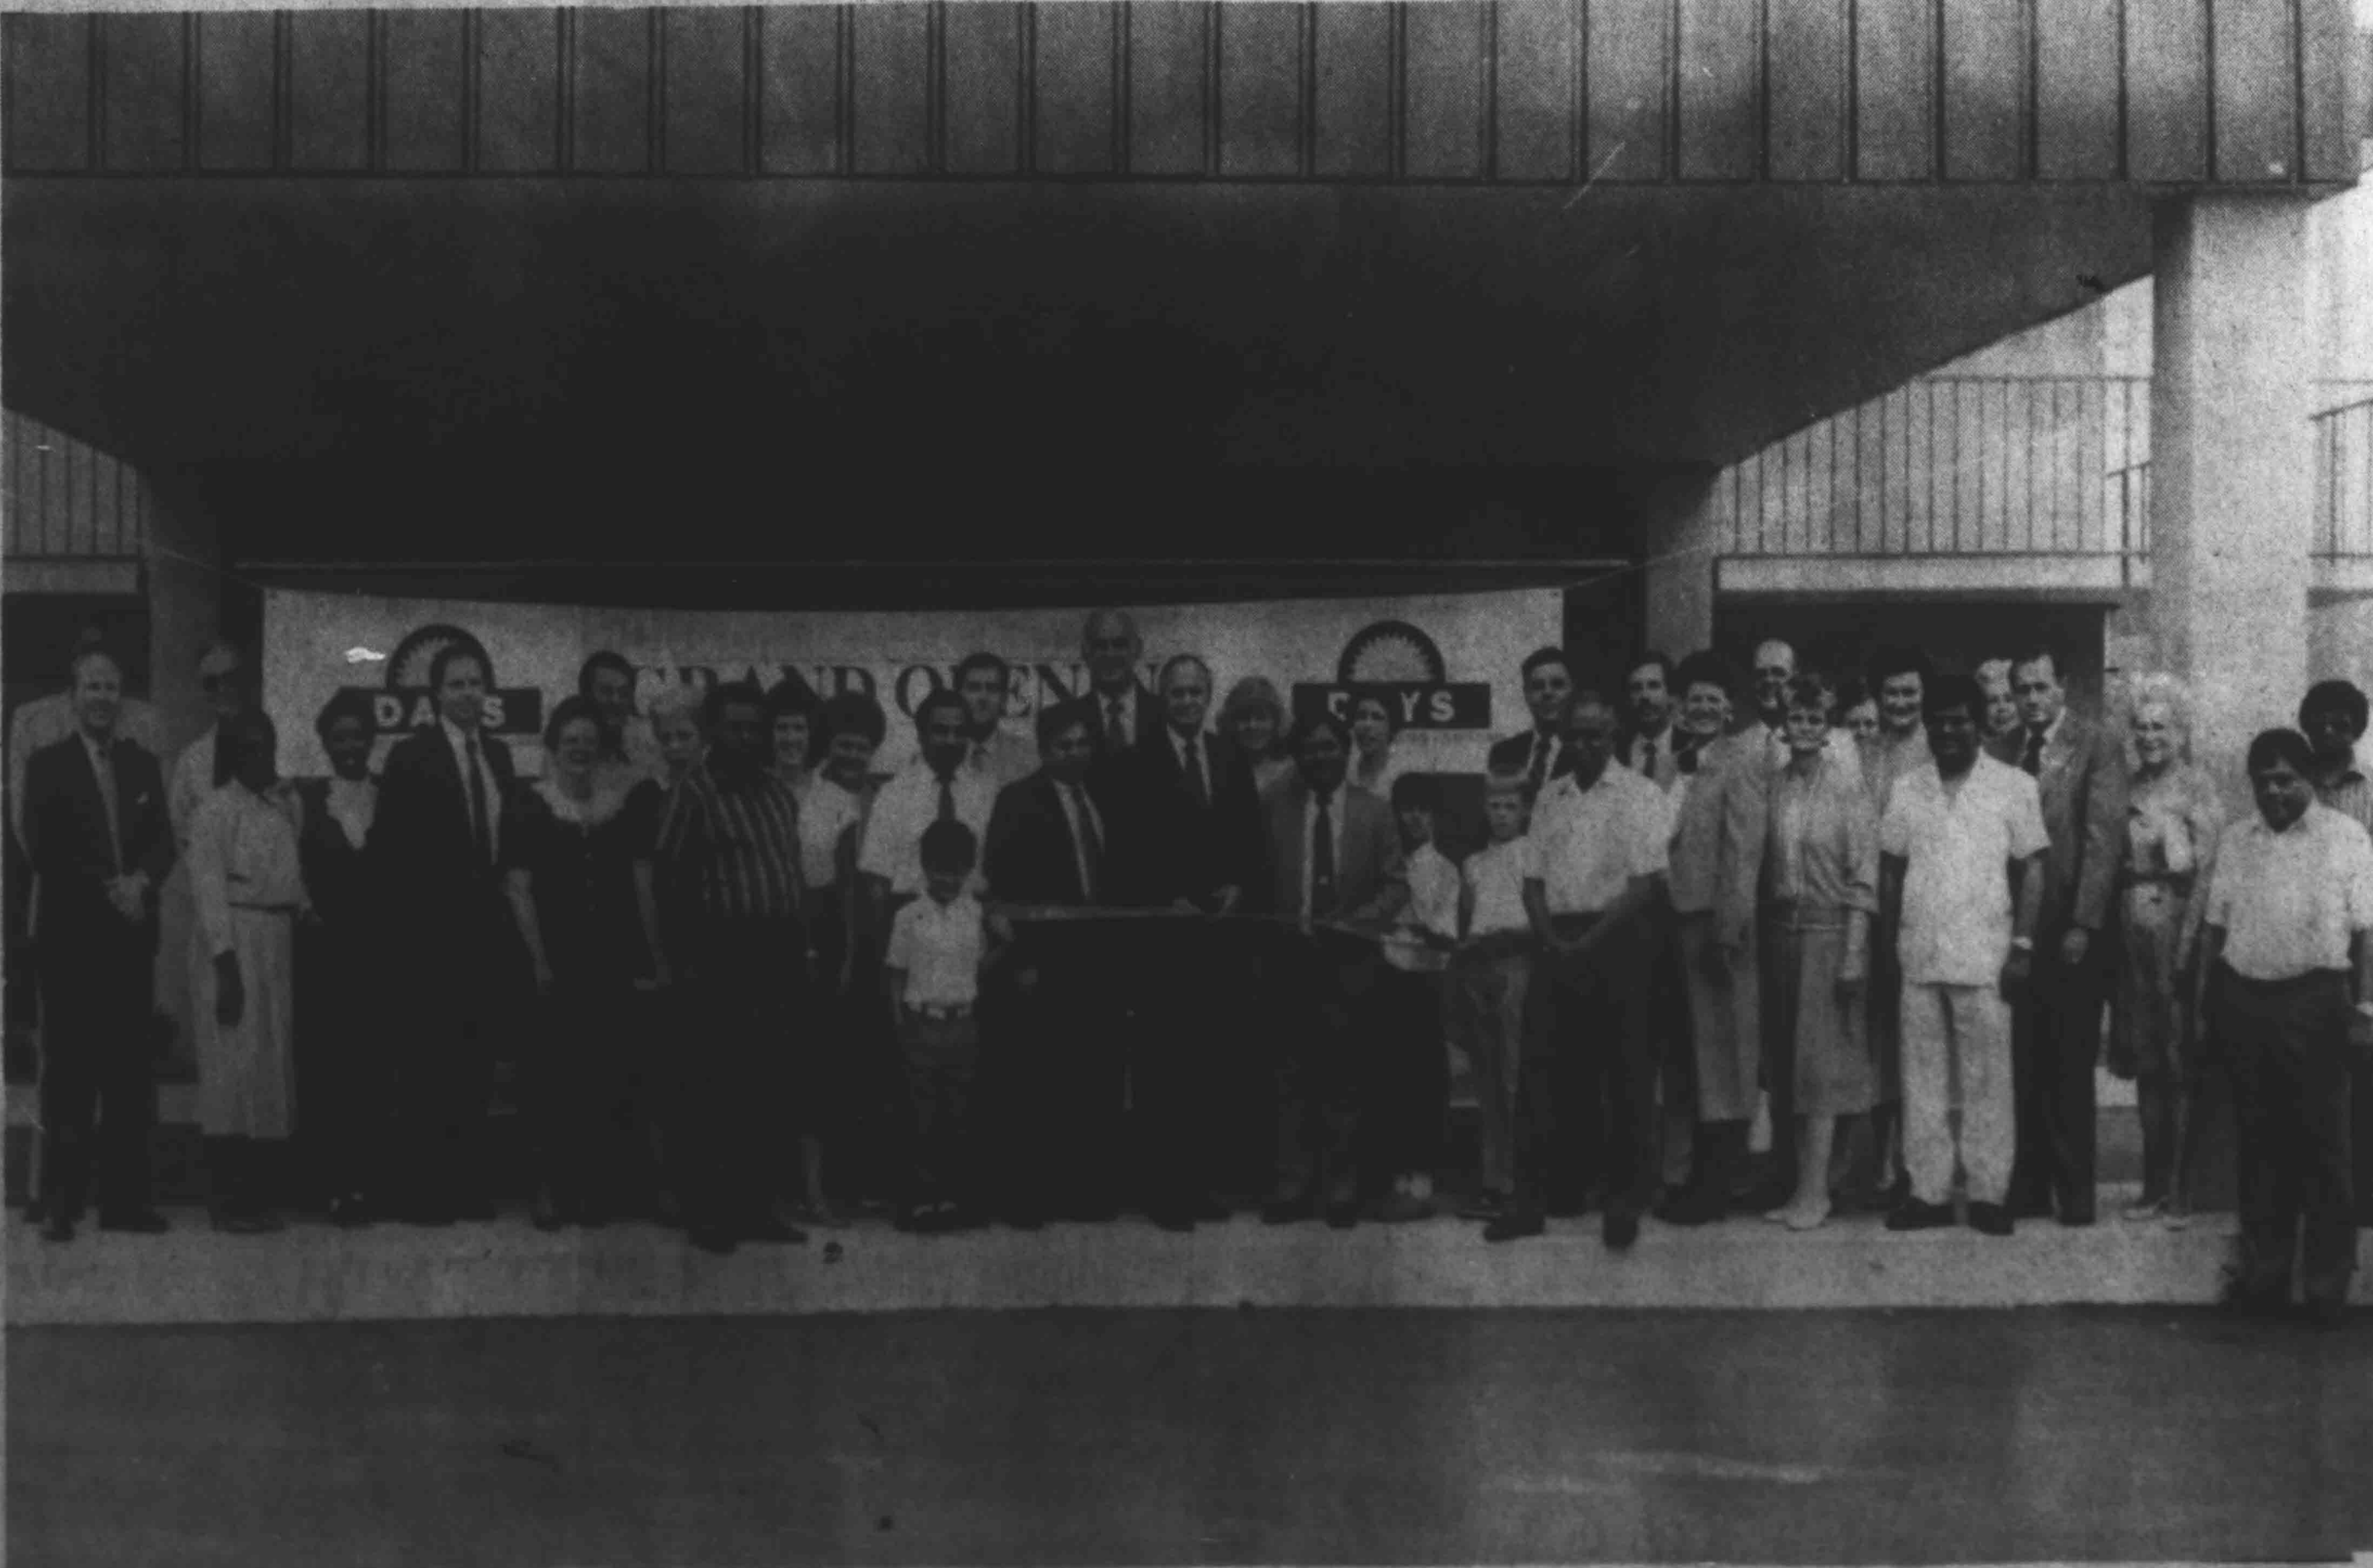

Pick up materials at the County Chamber of Commerce, or call 635-3541 or 635-5272.

FREE COMMODITIES

Free commodities are offered from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Aug. 22nd at 604 Airport St., Halls, Henning Community Center, and Rice Park and Ripley Community Center in Ripley.

Free commodities are offered from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Aug. 22nd at 604 Airport St., Halls, Henning Community Center, and Rice Park and Ripley Community Center in Ripley.

Ripley Days Inn Opened

RIPLEY DAYS INN owners, employees, and friends enjoyed refreshments after a ribbon-cutting ceremony to open the facility Sunday.

BUS TO ATLANTA

County alumni of Tenn. State University in Nashville will board a bus leaving Ripley at midnight Sept. 31st, to attend the TSU game with Florida A&M Sept. 22nd, in Atlanta, Ga.

FACTS & FIGURES

Tourism is tops: Seems that tourism is now the top U.S. export, beating out revenues from pork bellies and agricultural products. In 1989, the U.S. got $43 billion in international travel receipts, including payments by foreign visitors to American air carriers. U.S. agricultural exports reached $40.6 billion.

As our number one export, travel and tourism also improves the U.S. balance of trade with other nations. The lodging industry alone generated $57.1 billion in sales in 1989, resulting in over $5.6 billion in federal taxes.

According to the United States Travel and Tourism Administration, it predicted that the number of travelers from abroad will increase 75 percent by the end of the decade. To accommodate these foreign and domestic travelers and as an ongoing campaign to promote

BREAKFAST ON THE RUN!

When you begin your day on the run, don't deprive yourself of a good homemade breakfast. A little advance planning will have you on your way, breakfast in hand, without skipping a beat.

The Nabisco Consumer Food Center staff have created these easy-to-prepare fiber-rich bran recipes that can be individually wrapped and stored in the freezer. Made with NABISCO 100% Bran, you get all the healthy benefits of a high-fiber cereal. So the next time you're on the run, grab your bran and go!

PB & J BRAN MUFFINS Makes 1 dozen

1 1/2 cups NABISCO 100% Bran
1 1/4 cups skim milk
1/3 cup chunky peanut butter
1 cup all-purpose flour
1/3 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/4 cup margarine, melted
1/4 cup cholesterol-free egg product
1/4 cup strawberry preserves

Mix bran and milk; let stand 5 minutes. Mix in peanut butter.

In large bowl, mix flour, brown sugar and baking powder; stir in bran mixture, margarine and egg product just until blended. Fill 12 greased 2 1/2-inch muffin-pan cups with half the batter. Spoon 1 teaspoon preserves in center of each cup. Top with remaining batter.

Bake at 400°F for 20 to 25 minutes. Remove from pan; cool slightly. Serve warm.

To Freeze: Muffins can be individually wrapped and frozen for up to 1 month. Defrost at room temperature 1 1/2 hours or unwrap and microwave 1 muffin at HIGH (100% power) 30 to 35 seconds. (Preserves may become very hot.)

Nutrition Information per muffin: 165 calories, 217 mg sodium, 0 mg cholesterol, 8 gm total fat, 1 gm saturated fat, 3 gm dietary fiber.

BANANA-BRAN SQUARES Makes 24 servings

1 1/2 cups NABISCO 100% Bran
1 cup lowfat plain yogurt (1.5% milkfat)
3/4 cup margarine, softened
1 1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar
2 cups all-purpose flour
1/4 cup wheat germ
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup cholesterol-free egg product
2 large ripe bananas, mashed (about 1 cup)
Confectioner's sugar, optional

Mix bran and yogurt; let stand 5 minutes. With mixer, beat margarine and brown sugar until light and fluffy. Add flour, wheat germ, baking powder, baking soda, egg product and bran mixture; beat at medium speed 1 minute. Stir in bananas. Spoon batter into greased 13 x 9 x 2-inch baking pan. Bake at 350°F for 40 to 50 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center of cake comes out clean. Cool in pan on wire rack 10 minutes. Remove from pan; cool completely. To serve, dust with confectioner's sugar; cut into squares.

To Freeze: Squares can be individually wrapped and frozen for up to 1 month. Defrost at room temperature 1 1/2 hours or unwrap and microwave at HIGH (100% power) for 25 to 30 seconds.

Nutrition Information per serving (without confectioner's sugar): 163 calories, 140 mg sodium, 1 mg cholesterol, 6 gm total fat, 1 gm saturated fat, 2 gm dietary fiber

NEWS OF CHILDREN

New Children's Hospital in China

Medical research at a new children's hospital in China may help millions of children.

In Shanghai, a city of 12 million people, there's only one pediatrician for every 1,100 children and the city lacks a modern pediatric referral hospital designed to care for children's diseases and trauma. Now, Project HOPE, an international health education foundation, and the Chinese government have joined to construct a $50 million children's hospital on 13 acres in the Pu-Dong district of Shanghai. The facility will be a training and referral facility for Chinese health professionals.

The new hospital will include a 250-bed acute care unit, a 100-bed residence for patients' parents and patients receiving pre- and post-admission testing and treatment, a 40-bed day surgery outpatient unit and on-site housing for doctors and medical students.

Costs for the hospital are shared equally by the Chinese and the Virginia-based Project HOPE. HOPE has agreed to provide the educational component of the project, along with architectural design and supervision and medical equipment for the hospital. The Chinese are providing land, architectural and engineering drawings, construction, non-medical equipment, staffing and maintenance.

Chinese youngsters have something to smile about these days: A new $50 million children's hospital in Shanghai.

Project HOPE, which currently operates programs in 20 countries, has been working in China since 1983 and has established educational programs at five Chinese universities. These programs include biomedical engineering, nursing education, preventive dentistry, stomatology and oral oncology, training pediatric personnel, maternal-child health, a graduate program in hospital administration and a rural medical education program. It's hoped this latest project will bring better health to millions of Chinese children.

Children And Sports—Preventing Injuries

Statistics show that each year thousands of children are victims of sports-related injuries.

But, according to Dr. David J. Colton, the director of athletic medicine at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Michigan—and the team physician for three of Detroit's professional sports teams, many of these injuries can be avoided by following a few simple guidelines.

Dr. Colton offers advice to parents whose children participate in sports in a new brochure available through Little Caesars Pizza, the world's largest carry-out pizza chain, and long-time advocate and sponsor of amateur sports.

Dr. Colton says that making sure children are in good physical condition before allowing them to compete in sports is the first precaution a parent should take against injury.

He adds that children should have a complete physical examination before joining a sports team. This will reveal any unknown physical abnormalities that could be dangerous during strenuous activities.

Other sports safety tips offered by Dr. Colton include:

- PHYSICAL CONDITIONING—The greatest deterrent to sports injuries is to be properly prepared to begin sports play.
- "Light jogging, cycling, swimming and calisthenics are good warm-up activities."
- "It is important to warm-up before stretching."
- "Each sport has specific skills and drills necessary to play well."
- "Weight training is permissible with some caution."
- EQUIPMENT—When properly used, sports equipment can serve as a primary safe-guard against physical injury.

- "Dress for the weather, as well as for the sport."
- TEAM COACHING—It is important to seek qualified coaches who not only have the enthusiasm, but the knowledge needed, to teach the proper techniques for safe sports play.
- DIET—Children should maintain a balanced diet from the four food groups.
- "Children must stay hydrated, and should drink plenty of fluids before, during and after sports activities."
- "Caffeine and large amounts of sugar should be avoided prior to and during participation in sports activities."

Cities Hold Tax Rates, County May (A Year)

The County Commission meets at 7 p.m. this Thursday in the Courthouse in Ripley to consider a recommendation from its Budget Committee, approved 5-1 Monday, to transfer 20% of the general fund's share of the current $2.23 real estate tax rate, per $100 assessed, to the Board of Education.

Critics says this simply means a 20% or more increase in the real estate tax next year, to make up for the transfer. Some propose a $5 increase in the county wheel tax, imposed on every vehicle registration.

All four incorporated cities in the county are holding current tax rates — Halls, $1.16, Henning, $1.30, Gates, $1.45, and Ripley, $2.

Reception Honors Retiring Officials

The public is invited to a reception honoring County Executive Bill Pete Tucker, General Sessions Judge Willard Norvell and Sheriff Milford "Pop" Durham and his staff from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, Aug. 24th.

The reception, hosted by courthouse employees, will be held in the upstairs courtroom.

Congressman JOHN TANNER REPORTS TO THE EIGHTH DISTRICT

CRISIS IN THE MIDDLE EAST FORCES PRICES UP HERE

The increasing interdependence of the world's economy means that economic disruptions abroad often cause price fluctuations at home. The current crisis in the Middle East is no different. In the few days following the August 2 invasion of Kuwait by Iraqi forces, gasoline prices rose by an average of 16 cents per gallon. This nearly immediate increase, though not entirely attributed to the loss of oil supplies from this region, vividly displays the extent to which the U.S. is dependent on foreign oil sources for our energy supply. In the 1970's, when the OPEC oil embargo and the Iranian Revolution caused price increases and long gas lines, the U.S. imported only one-third of the oil it consumed. In the past decade, however, domestic production

CRISIS HIGHLIGHTS OUR ENERGY VULNERABILITY

America's ability to withstand a crisis of this kind has been improved since the energy crisis of the 1970's. The U.S. has initiated a Strategic Petroleum Reserve which now has the equivalent of 75 days of net oil imports. This reserve acts to ease the pressure on gas prices in emergency situations. Americans have also become more energy-conscious. Automobiles have increased their fuel efficiency by 78.5% since 1975. Homes built today are 50% more efficient than those built in 1973. The result of these efforts begun in the late 1970's is that total energy consumption in the U.S. is not much higher than it was in 1973 even though the economy is twice as big. These improve-has decreased and oil imports have risen to 50% of America's consumption. With approximately 23% of our imports originating in the Middle East, the American consumer is extremely vulnerable to supply disruptions in oil production in those countries.

In response to the dramatic increase in gas prices following the invasion, I supported Members of Congress and American consumers who immediately demanded an investigation into the pricing policies of oil companies. Responding to this pressure, many oil companies agreed to slow or even freeze the increase in prices during this crisis. Oil prices, however, may continue to hover at their highest level in a decade throughout, and possibly beyond, the term of the crisis.

The crisis in the Persian Gulf reemphasizes America's energy vulnerability. Since the 70's there have been repeated calls for the development of an effective national energy policy. A policy which promote alternative fuel sources and reasonable conservation measures would not only benefit our ability to weather future crises, but would also have positive environmental effects. As a member of the House Subcommittee on Natural Resources, Agricultural Research and Environment, I work to improve our nation's energy resources in an environmentally sound manner.

HOW LEAD SERVES AND PROTECTS US

Lead, one of the first metals humans ever used, is now helping man in space! Scientists say nothing surpasses the reliability of traditional lead-ally solder to connect transistors, relays and other electronic components.

Lead solder is the "glue" that binds our electronic world together. Lead-ally solder needs little energy to apply and makes joints impermeable to gas or liquids. Lead glasses also protect the latest electronic micro-circuits.

From computers to cameras to the rocket systems themselves, lead makes a major contribution to flawless performance in outer space.

HEALTHIER HEARTS START WITH EATING SMART

Eating a low-fat, low-cholesterol diet for a healthier heart is becoming easier in the '90s. The number and variety of low and no cholesterol food products is growing rapidly. In addition, Americans' knowledge about cholesterol and proper nutrition to lower blood cholesterol levels is improving, thanks to programs such as national "Cholesterol Awareness Month," going on throughout September. Fortunately, catering to your cholesterol level doesn't mean giving up great taste. By substituting Egg Beaters, 99% real egg product for eggs, you can keep 100% of the flavor with zero cholesterol.

So treat your family to a healthier heart with a healthier diet. Try a chicken or a chicken la divan you can feel good about. As part of a low-fat, low-cholesterol diet, both are a great way to eat smart for your heart.

- CHICKEN A LA DIVAN
Makes 8 servings
- 3 cups cooked fresh broccoli spears
- 1 1/2 pounds sliced cooked chicken breast
- 3 tablespoons FLEISCHMANN'S Margarine
- 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 cups skim milk
- 1/2 cup EGG BEATERS 99% Real Egg Product
- 2 tablespoons sherry cooking wine
- Paprika

In saucepan, over low heat, melt margarine; blend in flour. Cook, stirring until smooth and bubbly; remove from heat. Gradually stir in milk; return to heat. Heat to a boil, stirring constantly. Gradually blend about half the hot milk mixture into egg product, then combine with remaining hot mixture. Stir in sherry. Spoon sauce over chicken and broccoli; sprinkle lightly with paprika. Serve immediately.

Nutrition information per serving: 232 calories, 156 mg sodium, 73 mg cholesterol, 7 gm total fat, 2 gm saturated fat, 2 gm dietary fiber (27% calories from fat)

SPINACH LASAGNA
Makes 8 servings

- 2 cups no salt added low-fat cottage cheese (1% milkfat)
- 2 (10-ounce) packages frozen chopped spinach, defrosted and drained
- 1/2 cup EGG BEATERS 99% Real Egg Product
- 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning

Nutrition information per serving: 280 calories, 196 mg sodium, 12 gm cholesterol, 7 gm total fat, 2 gm saturated fat, 2 gm dietary fiber (23% calories from fat)

Arrange broccoli in the bottom of a 2-quart shallow baking dish or 6 individual baking dishes. Place chicken slices over broccoli; cover with foil. Bake at 350°F for 20 minutes or until hot.

Married In Halls Vows Set At Edith

MR. AND MRS. CHUCK DANEHOVER pledged doubling vows in a candle-light ceremony Aug. 5th in First United Methodist Church in Halls. The Rev. Kim Kulow officiated.

The bride, Abby Cherry, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Buford Cherry, of Halls.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Danehower, of Forrest City, Arkansas.

The altar was framed in candlelight from three candelabra interspersed with ti, sprengeri, leather-leaf, and baby's breath. The altar was flanked with white wicker baskets filled with white gladioli and two 9-branch candelabra. The bride's parent aisle was marked by two brass aisle candelabra, interspersed with ti leaves, sprengeri, leather-leaf, and baby's breath. Stained-glass windows were decorated with candles and leather-leaf.

Mrs. Martha Miller, of Ripley, pianist and organist, presented We've Only Just Begun, Canon in D. Theme from Ice Castles, Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Us, Träumerei, Liebestraum (Great Is Thy Faithfulness), and Hallel's Largo (The Lord Is My Shepherd). Attendants entered on Trumpet Voluntary. The bride entered on Mendelssohn's Wedding March, also used as the recessional.

Sharon (Mrs. Brantley) Morris, of Ripley, sang There Is Love, Sweet Spirit, and The Lord's Prayer. Mr. and Mrs. Morris sang Cherish The Treasure.

The groom's mother, Virginia, entered on the arms of her sons-in-law, James Boyd and Len Cobb. She wore a mauve georgette cape tea-length dress complemented with a front over-blue, low drape tie, and long sleeves tapering to the wrists. Her dress was accented with beaded applique flowers at each shoulder. A silk white gardenia was pinned at her shoulder.

Special friends of the bride's family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom M. Privett, of Friendship, were also seated. Mrs. Privett entered on the arm of Bob Weeks. She chose a Lady Helena tea-length dress of light blue lace and satin with three-quarter sleeves and a full skirt. A silk white gardenia was pinned at her shoulder.

The bride's gown, a Jessica original, was made of white hand-clipped Chantilly lace with solid Venice trim and multiple sequins and pearls. The gown featured a fitted bodice and mandarin neckline outlined in lace. Appliques of silk Venice in a V extended from the neckline to the waist-line. The gown had long tapered sleeves with embroidered cuffs. The gown was closed with a very full skirt and court train with rows of inset ruffles and topped with a large satin bow.

The 2-tier finger tip veil with a scalloped hand rolled edge was covered in 3-dimensional silk Venice lace and accented with brilliant sequins, and pearls. The bride carried a cascade of white lilies, Sweetheart roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and pearl sprays with ivy.

The bride's sister, Penne, of Halls, was maid of honor. Other bridal attendants were the groom's sisters and niece, Carol Danehower, of Memphis, Kim Danehower, of Nashville, and Meredith Boyd, of Winchester, Ky.

The bridal attendants wore dresses designed by Alfred Angelo, of New York, of blue satin and lace. All-lace bodices featured fabric neck lines with cut-out backs, accented with satin bows and slightly pouffed and tapered sleeves. The satin skirts flowed gracefully into hi-lo hemlines.

The attendants carried brass vestal lamps, with lighted candles surrounded by shades of blue dogwood blossoms and white baby's breath, accented with a blue bow. These lamps were presented to her attendants as a gift from the bride.

The groom's father was best man. Groomsmen were the bride's brothers and groom's cousin - Randy Cherry, of Boynton Beach, Fla., Alan, and Ben Cherry, of Halls, and James Woods, of Camden, Ark. They wore Christian Dior black tuxedos. They held lit candles during the ceremony.

Ushers were James Boyd, of Ky., Len Cobb, of Memphis, and Bob Weeks, of Halls. The unity candle was lit by Randy Cherry and Carol Danehower, observing the joining of two families. The ceremony featured the lighting of memorial candles from the bride's side of the unity candle, in memory of her parents, Buford and Bobbie Cherry. These candles were lit by Ben Cherry. During this time, Sharon Morris sang Sweet Spirit.

The reception was given by Ben Cherry in the fellowship hall. The bride's table, draped with Quaker lace over taffeta, held a 3-tiered strawberry cake accented with royal and light blue roses, topped with a Precious Moments bride and groom.

The bride's table also held punch, blue mint and a silk centerpiece of blue roses, dogwood, and baby's breath which will complement the couple's home.

The groom's table featured a chocolate cake decorated with an Arkansas Razorback. The cake was surrounded by fresh greenery and red and white Razorback candies.

Serving were Mrs. Betty Anthony and Dianne Lane, of Ripley, and Mrs. Corine Danehower and Mrs. Verna Woods, of Forrest City, Ark. They wore white silk rose corsages.

Married In Halls Vows Set At Edith

MILISSA L. NICHOLS, of Halls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nichols, of Horn Lake, Miss., will marry Donnie F. Reed, Jr., of Halls, at 7 p.m. Sept. 15th in Open Door Baptist Church at Edith, all friends invited.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Ruth Nichols, of San Antonio, Tex., and the late Wilburn Nichols, of Maury City, and of Buford Ozment, of Alamo, and Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of Southaven, Miss.

Mr. Reed is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Reed, of Ripley, and of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Sneed, of Ripley. He is employed by Tennessee Electroplating in Ripley. The couple will reside in Ripley.

Serving were Mrs. Betty Anthony and Dianne Lane, of Ripley, and Mrs. Corine Danehower and Mrs. Verna Woods, of Forrest City, Ark. They wore white silk rose corsages.

Miss Christie Cherry, of Friendship, distributed rice bags.

Attending the register was Miss Wanda Foust, of Memphis.

The newlyweds are at home at 415 South College Street in Halls. Mr. Danehower is an Area Farm Management Specialist with the University of Tennessee Agricultural Extension Service in Ripley. Abby is a counselor in Ripley Elementary School.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's family: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Danehower, Carol Danehower, Len Cobb, Kim Danehower, and James, Martha and Meredith Boyd at the home of Carol Danehower and Len Cobb in Memphis. White satin bows and blue and white balloons adorned the driveway. Picnic tables were covered with blue cloths and accented with white baskets of flowers. About 80 guests helped themselves to a wide assortment of appetizers, drinks, a lovely buffet, and a variety of desserts.

The bride presented her attendants with terra cotta picture frames. The groom presented his attendants key chains with their engraved initials and the date of the wedding.

Ushers were James Boyd, of Ky., Len Cobb, of Memphis, and Bob Weeks, of Halls. The unity candle was lit by Randy Cherry and Carol Danehower, observing the joining of two families. The ceremony featured the lighting of memorial candles from the bride's side of the unity candle, in memory of her parents, Buford and Bobbie Cherry. These candles were lit by Ben Cherry. His wife, Diana, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Campbell, of Route 3, LaFollette.

He received an associate degree from the University of Maryland in College Park in 1989.

Census Proposals Concern Officials

Preliminary census figures show a drop in Lauderdale County's population and in the population of each of its four incorporated cities:

	1980	'87-8	1990	Loss %	Loss	Housing	Vacant
County	24,555	25,200	23,341	1,214	4.9%	9,297	919
Gates	729	729	606	123	16.9%	240	21
Halls	2,444	2,562	2,444	118	4.6%	1,054	75
Henning	638	849	726	123	14.5%	285	23
Ripley	6,366	6,395	6,119	276	4.3%	2,481	210

*Estimates: County '87, Census Bureau; cities, '88, as certified by the state Dept. of Economic Development. Not applied to computing preliminary '90 census loss from 1980 census.

County and city officials have about a week in which to challenge the reports (15 days from receipt last week).

The census is important because each city resident is currently worth about $90 a year to the city in state funds (mainly from sales taxes and motor fuel revenues).

And that could hold annually for the next 10 years, unless a city pays for a special census earlier.

Of all counties in West Tennessee, only Madison and Shelby, plus two adjoining counties each, are credited with gains:

	1980	1990	Gain	% Gain
Madison	74,546	77,031	2,485	3.3%
Henderson	21,390	21,770	380	.02%
Chester	12,727	12,807	80	.01%
Shelby	777,113	815,161	38,048	4.9%
Tipton	32,930	37,281	4,351	13.2%
Fayette	25,305	25,431	126	0.5%

Dyer County is reported down a hair, from 34,663 to 34,513; Haywood down sharply, from 20,318 to 18,888 (a new low for this century); and Crockett plunging from 14,941 to 13,300.

County Commissioners Hold Line On Tax Rate

County Commissioners voted Thursday evening of last week to hold the county real estate tax rate to $2.23 per $100 assessed valuation and to transfer 20% of the rate from the general fund to the Board of Education.

All commissioners present voted for the rate; three — P. B. Bridges, Talmadge Crisfield, and Hal Pennington — voted against adopting the budget financed (in part) by the rate.

Not attending the meeting were Commissioners Lawson Chipman, Darrell Crook, B. V. Hutcherson, Jr., Vernon McBride, and Robert Scates.

TMTA Certificate Hails Mrs. Evans

Mrs. Russell G. Evans, Jr., of Route 6, Ripley, has achieved professional recognition from the Tennessee Music Teachers Association as a teacher of piano.

Mrs. Evans was recommended by the Certification Committee of TMTA for the Emeritus Certificate on the basis of achievement and high professional standards in the field of music teaching.

Qualifications for this award include musical competence, teaching preparation, and successful teaching experience.

The TMTA Certification Plan is based on that of the Music Teachers National Association and corresponds to the high national standard for the evaluation and recognition of qualified music teachers in private studios, colleges and universities, and elementary and secondary schools.

Continuing education, performance, and professional involvement are important aspects of this program.

County Schools Capture Award

The Executive Council of the Tenn. School Boards Assn. has chosen the Early Intervention Program of Lauderdale County schools for an Award in Excellence in Educational Programs.

In the program, principals and counselors offer high-risk students from grades 5-8 15 group sessions and four parent sessions. Student behavior has improved.

A 1982 graduate of Ripley High School, he received an associate degree from Dyersburg State College in 1984.

Williams Through Air Force Course

Air National Guard Airman First Class Robert W. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy W. Williams of Route 1, Ripley, has completed an aerospace propulsion specialist course at Chantute Air Force Base, Ill.

The Variety Homemakers Extension Club met Aug. 21st in the Fellowship Hall of St. Paul's United Methodist Church.

Thirteen members answered roll with "what I like most about summer." Two visitors were welcomed — Mrs. Charles Griggs and her granddaughter, Marcy Cutlip, of Ripley, who gave a program on 4-H Club activities.

The devotion was led by Mrs. Roy Thompson, "Ten Commandments of Human Relations."

Mrs. Katherine Bailey provided dietary tips.

Cookies, nuts and punch were served.

Allen Lewis, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Lewis, of Gates, has been named Star Farmer of America (winning $1,000) to compete with three other regional winners for the national title (and another $1,000) at the Future Farmers of America convention in Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8-10.

Win or lose there, he will join the FFA Stars International Experience touring Europe.

"Farming has always been my first love," Allen says. "I knew what I wanted to do following graduation — I wanted to farm."

Today, he farms full-time with his father. In addition to raising more than 1,400 acres of cotton, soybeans and wheat, their enterprises include custom harvesting of cotton and contract finishing of hogs.

Allen is an outstanding young man and a dedicated, highly motivated farmer," says Bill Newsom, Lewis's advisor in the Halls High School FFA chapter. "Diversity is the key to his success."

In 1986, Allen was the National Fiber Crop Proficiency winner. Two years later, he won the 1988 National Diversified Crop Proficiency Award.

As a national proficiency winner, he toured farms and agri-businesses in Europe during an FFA European travel seminar, spending three weeks there in 1987 and 1989.

"It opened my eyes to the different ways of farming," Lewis says.

He noted that every available acre of land is planted and that farming in Europe is much more difficult, physically, relying heavily on manual labor.

Halls, Ripley, Tied In Jamboree, Open Grid Seasons Friday Night

Halls and Ripley High School football teams, who tied 7-7 Friday in a jamboree in Dyersburg, open their regular seasons this Friday.

Halls will host the Cavaliers of Crockett County High School in Alamo.

RHS visits Raleigh-Egypt in Memphis, a District 15-AAA team 0-10 last year.

In the jamboree, Ripley led Halls 7-0 after the first quarter, in which Halls posted only one first down.

The second quarter was another story, as Halls quarterback Sam Parker, a senior starting in the slot for the first time, connected two key passes to move Halls to the one.

Patrick Dampier hit the end zone from there to tie the tilt with 3:42 on the clock.

Cooking With Canola

A diet plan that's healthfully light on calories can still be heavily weighted in favor of good tasting foods, nutrition experts agree. Sometimes all it takes is using the right kind of cooking oil.

Switching to canola oil, for instance, can be an easy way to eat healthier without changing cooking methods or foregoing favorite recipes. Canola, related to the mustard plant, is a flowering plant that produces small, round black seeds. Canola is derived from "Canadian oil," and is grown primarily in Canada, though U.S. farmers are beginning to cultivate it.

Canola oil, such as Hollywood Canola Oil, is the oil lowest in saturated fat—only six percent. This quality canola oil is also high in monounsaturated fat, which has recently been credited with reducing harmful LDL cholesterol. All in all, canola oil, available at local food stores, offers a healthy combination: lowest level of saturated fat, and beneficial amounts of monounsaturated and polyunsaturated fats.

Here's how Hollywood Canola Oil can add a lusciously light touch to an all-time favorite recipe, Apple Nut Muffins. These moist muffins, featuring chunks of apple, chopped walnuts, a touch of honey and no cholesterol, are a delicious way to eat well while you keep cholesterol at bay.

Apple Nut Muffins

- 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 egg whites
- 1/4 cup HOLLYWOOD Canola or Safflower Oil
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup skim milk
- 2 cups coarsely chopped unpeeled apples
- 1/4 cup chopped walnuts

Preheat oven to 350°F and grease muffin cups. In a small bowl, stir together flour, baking powder and salt. In a large bowl, beat egg; stir in oil, sugar and vanilla. Stir in 1/2 of the dry ingredients. Stir in milk and then remaining dry ingredients. Fold in apples and nuts. Fill muffin cups 2/3 full. Bake for 20 minutes. Allow to cool 5 minutes in muffin cups before removing to wire racks.

Apple Nut Muffins made with canola oil can be a healthful way to welcome the day.

Makes 16 muffins.

MILITARY RESERVES TO PROVIDE VITAL SUPPORT SERVICES

In the four weeks since Iraq invaded Kuwait, the U.S. military has undertaken the largest airlift in its history. More than 1 billion pounds of ammunition, food, trucks, water, household goods, and other supplies have already been shipped out to American forces in the Persian Gulf. Following President Bush's announcement last week to activate selected military reserves, some of the logistical support for this massive delivery and other support needs will likely be handled by reserve units across the nation.

Since 1973, individuals active in the U.S. Reserves have increased to approximately 1.5 million men and women. Most branches of the military now rely on reserve manpower to perform a variety of support services. In fact, Army reserve units, which make up about 50% of the total Army force, perform roughly 70 percent of that branch's medical, intelligence, and logistical support needs. In order to support the active duty forces already in the Middle East, reserve and National Guard units are needed in the United States to fill vacancies left by active-duty military personnel sent overseas. In the Middle East, reservists are needed mainly to handle the logistics of a sustained U.S. deployment there, as well as to fill emergency medical teams and hospital facilities.

Iraqi retreat from Kuwait, a goal which has been identified by President Bush and other world leaders, can't be achieved diplomatically. As long as U.S. and international military forces remain in the area, I will closely monitor the crisis in the Middle East. We all hope for the safe return of the men and women of the armed forces, and the speedy return of occupied lands to legitimate Kuwaiti leaders.

DRAFT NOT LIKELY IN THE NEAR FUTURE

I have had several people call me to ask whether the draft would again be reinstated for the crisis in the Middle East. At this time, there is no need for these additional personnel. Unlike the Vietnam War era, the U.S. military now has a large, trained reserve and Guard force ready to support active-duty deployments. Therefore, reserve forces can perform the same functions as new draftees without the added cost of training.

In 1973, when the draft was abolished by Congress, the military became an all-volunteer force. Although the Selective Service requires the registration of all males from age 18-25, it would take a similar act of Congress and the President's signature to reinstate the draft.

ON UTM DEAN'S LIST

Tamra Renee Donaldson, of Ripley, made the summer semester dean's list at the University of Tennessee in Martin.

Refreshments were provided by Lauderdale County Bank co-workers.

Guests included Sharon's aunt, Demetra (Mrs. Jim) Jackson, of Gates, Joy (Mrs. Billy) Hunter, of Frog Jump, her sister, Marcia (Mrs. Carvin) Pitts, of Bells, Karen (Mrs. David) Bell and Sharon (Mrs. Gary) Crowson, of Halls, and Lauderdale County Bank employees from Ripley and Halls.

Readers Speak

I had thought about writing a farewell letter to all the citizens of our county but hadn't put it together when I received the letter below from my cousin, Dr. Lanny Tucker, of Chapel Hill, N.C., son of Helen (Mrs. Landrum) Tucker, of Ripley, and the late Dr. Tucker. Allow me to share it, instead of boring you with my words:

"I was very sorry to hear that you did not win the recent election. I talked to Mother about it, and she told me some of the details and that it was a difficult election....

"I wanted you to know that I have always admired you and Margie. I think you have done an awful lot for Ripley and Lauderdale County in ways the people there will never know.

"In fact, I would say the Tucker family has done a lot for Lauderdale County and Ripley over the last hundred years. I admire your family and my father and grandfather for all the things that were accomplished in the town.

"I think it is not an easy thing to go back to your home-town and be successful there, particularly when you come from a successful family.

"I know there have been hardships in all the Tuckers over the years, and I think they many times have risen to meet the challenges and do not usually ask for much help from others in doing so...."

I thought about sharing this letter with you for two reasons. Number one, the contents are my sentiments exactly, and I couldn't have said it better. And number two, I'm sure most of you know Lanny and that he is one of the great people from this county of whom we are very proud and would appreciate his wisdom.

Focus On Healthy Dining

For Your Health's Sake! Eat Like The Swedes!

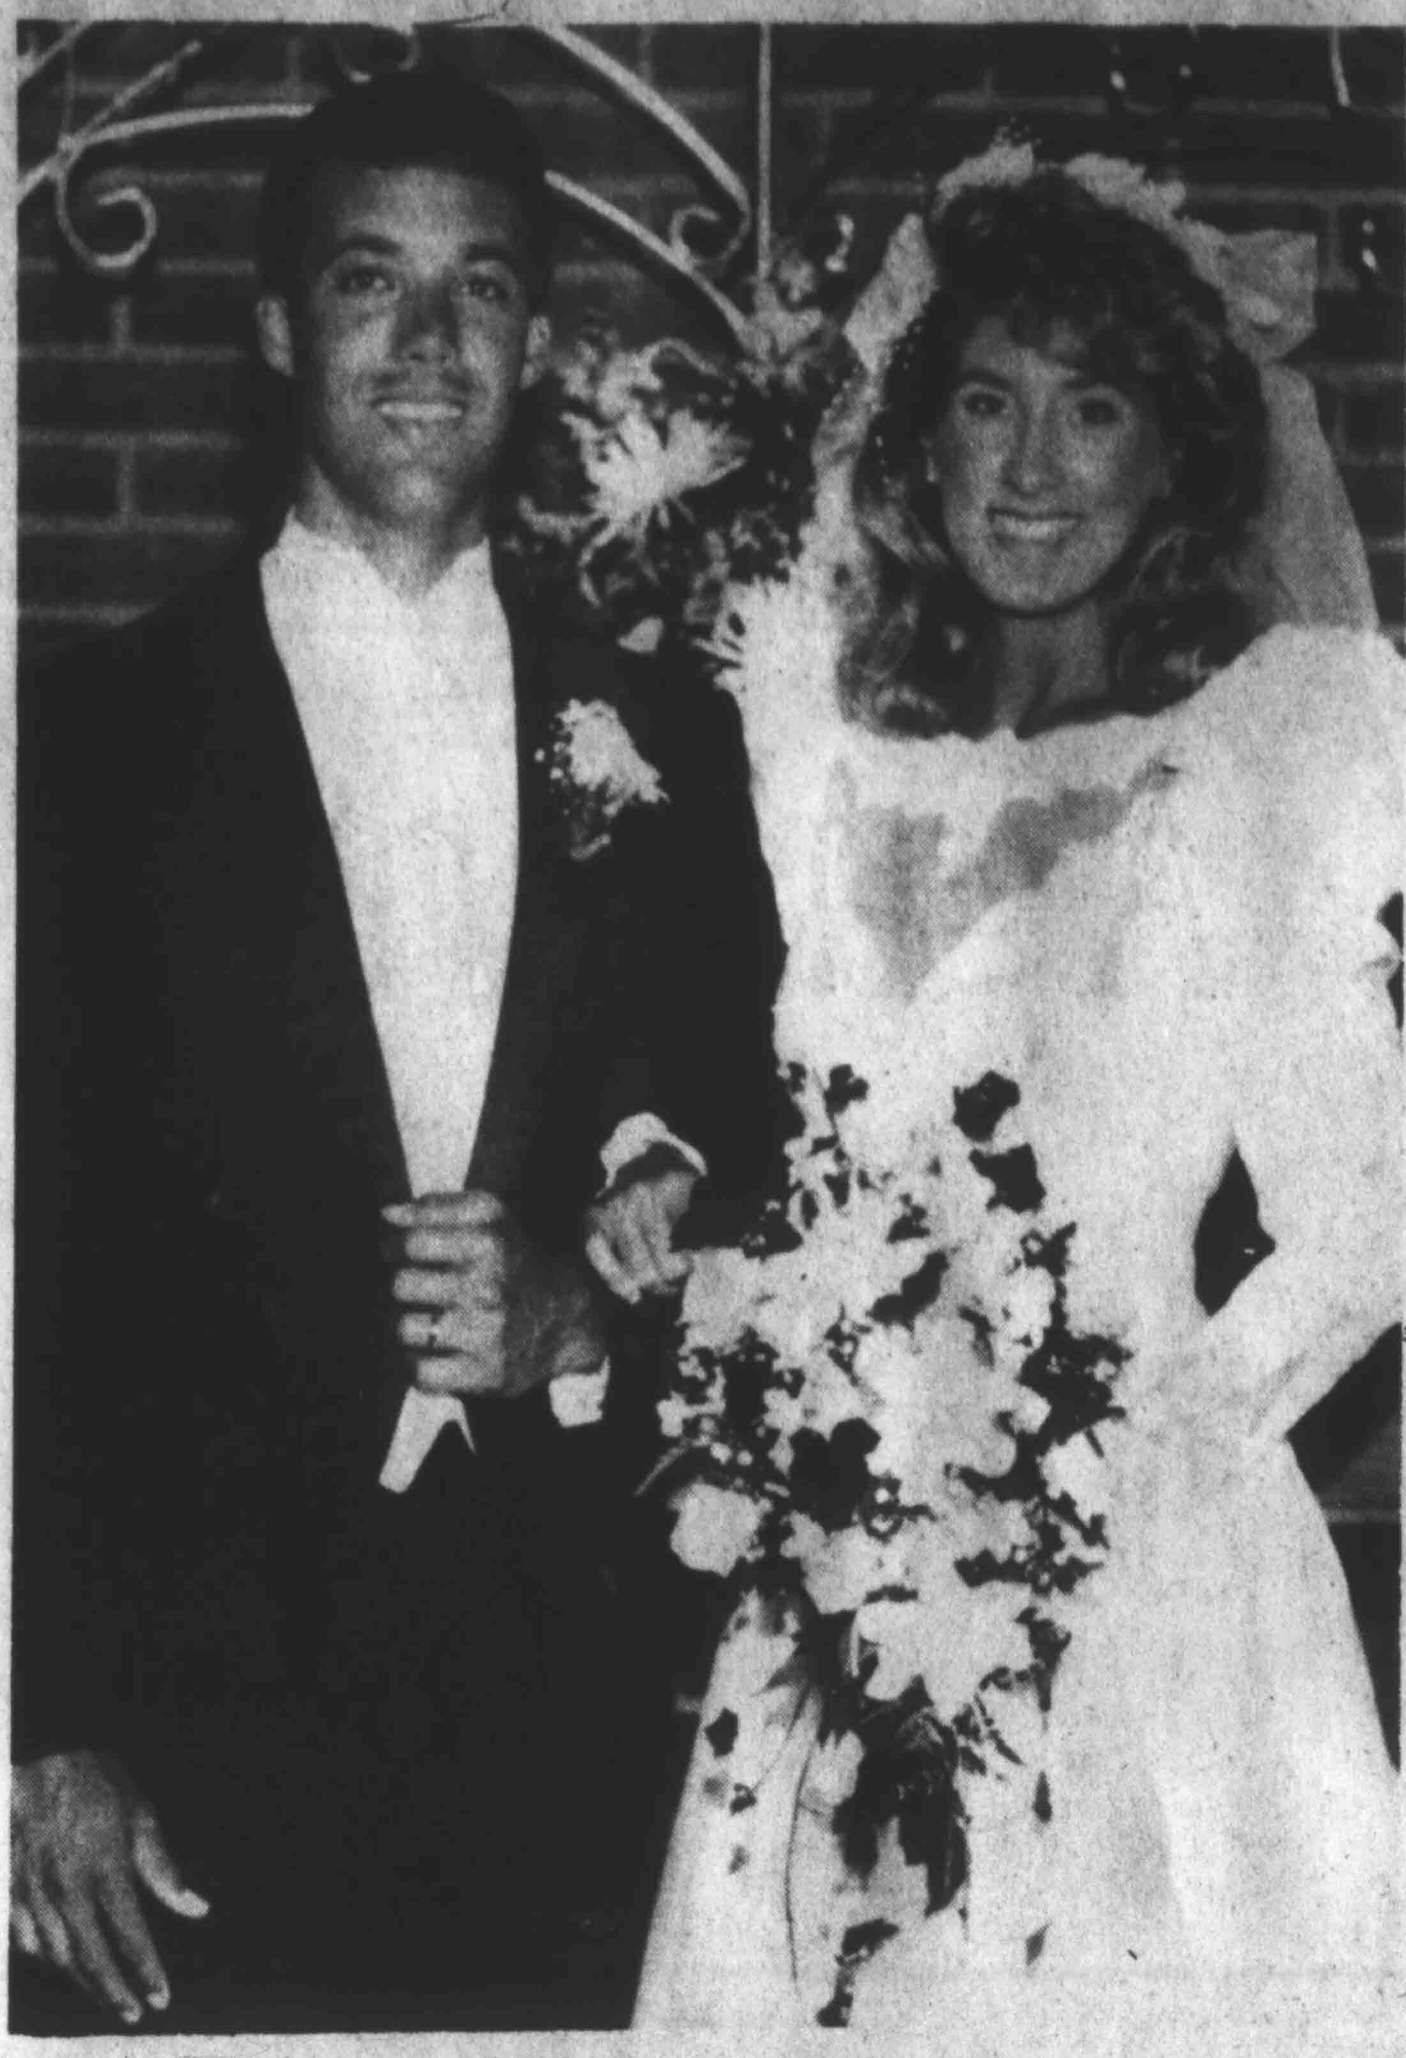

Here's some food for thought: In spite of brutally cold winters, Swedes live an average of two years longer than Americans and have a significantly reduced likelihood of suffering from many major illnesses compared to Americans. One reason, say experts, may be wise dietary choices and regular exercise.

Swedes enjoy one of the highest life expectancies in the world, exceeded only by Japan. Swedes also have a dramatically lower incidence of stomach ulcers, cancer, cirrhosis of the liver, diabetes, osteoporosis and other diseases than Americans. That good health record may come from a fitness-oriented lifestyle—many Swedes bicycle to work—and eating a diet that's low in fat, cholesterol and calories and high in fiber. Here, from the makers of Sweden's Wasa Crispbread, are five secrets of the healthy Swedish lifestyle:

• Eat more fish. Swedish people eat nearly ten times more fish than Americans do. That comes to about 50 pounds of fish per Swede annually, compared to our consumption of just 5.6 pounds of fish per American per year. So pass the herring!

• Eat less red meat and fat. Swedish people eat 75 percent less red meat than Americans. Instead, Swedes choose to eat more chicken or fish for a diet that's lower in fat and cholesterol. The result? The

Church Vows Pledged

MR. AND MRS. JOHN STEPHEN TUCKER exchanged double ring vows at 6:30 p.m. July 14th in Colonial Heights Presbyterian Church in Kingsport.

The Rev. Mark Knisley officiated at the altar, which was decorated with a bouquet of summer flowers in shades of pink, amidst four candelabra and eight ferns. Eight stained glass windows held hurricane globes and magnolia foliage. Pews were marked with summer flowers and ivy, tied with pink ribbon.

The bride, Sonja Yvette Arnold, of 125 Merman Rd., Kingsport, was given by her parents, Mrs. Ronald Lee McPherson, of that address, and Joseph Fuson Arnold, of 541 Gammon Rd., Kingsport. She was presented by her father.

Her gown of candle-light satin and imported schiffli lace featured a Sabrina neck-line outlined with lace and pearls. A fitted Basque bodice was overlaid with lace and swirls of pearls with iridescent flowers. A yoke of English net fell into a deep "V," as did the rear of the bodice. Bishop sleeves, accented with insets of lace, ended in points at the wrists. Scalloped lace hemmed a softly gathered skirt. Similar lace and organza motifs trimmed a cathedral train. A halo of pearls and silk flowers held a triple pout of illusion sprinkled with pearls.

The bride carried a cascade of white roses, gardenias, stephanotis, and ivy.

Her sister, Heidi Noelle Arnold, of Kingsport, was maid of honor. Other bridal attendants were Fawn Marie Cannon and Mary Elizabeth Pierce, of Kingsport, Laura Lane Hantel and Mrs. Lorraine Armstrong Harlan, of Nashville, and Michelle Marie Mabry, of Knoxville.

They wore tea-length gowns of taffeta and candle-light Chantilly lace. Fitted bodices had Sabrina neck-lines and short, capped sleeves. Softly gathered skirts fell from dropped waist-lines into double ruffled tier skirts. They carried cascades of pink summer flowers and ivy.

Myra Ailyn O'Dell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John O'Dell, carried a basket of rose petals. She wore a tea-length gown of candle-light voile with ecru lace and hand embroidery.

The groom, of 150 Wakewood Place, Ripley, chose his father, Dr. William Henry Tucker, of that address, as best man. Groomsmen were the groom's brother, Jeremy Smith Tucker, John William Sumrow, and Brian Alan Webb, of Ripley, Andrew Louis Harrington, of Dyersburg, and John Franklin Freeman, of Atlanta, Ga.

The bride's mother, Margaret, wore a tea-length dress of champagne satin overlaid with champagne Chantilly lace. The neck-line was Victorian. Long sleeves were fitted at the wrists. The dress was accented with a satin bow at the knee. A white gardenia was pinned to her purse.

The groom's mother, Jennie, chose a tea-length pink linen by William Pearson, with a jewel neck-line, puffed sleeves edged with lace, a pink satin sash, and a skirt softly gathered from a dropped yoke and hemmed with lace. She wore a white gardenia wrist corsage.

Attendants entered to Dr. Alan Lilley's Tramper Voluntary. His wife, Barbara, was organist. Mrs. Ethel Phillips sang Songs of Ruth and Heavenly Father.

Halls History

By Mrs. Charles Alsbrook
Red Williams of Forked Deer called me yesterday to tell me of receiving a letter from J. B. Ellis, of Knoxville, and a former resident of Halls. Red is not well and indulges in giving himself up to reminiscences.

He told of one night in about 1931 when he and my brother, Jack Spence, were at a dance in Dyersburg and on the spur of the moment decided to leave and go to Nashville to see the Tennessee - Vanderbilt football game.

They picked up another brother, William Spence, and as they went through Gates, James Pickard joined them for the long trip on the old road to Nashville.

As they had no tickets, they went to the stadium early hoping to find someone with some extra tickets. It turned out that they didn't need them for a large crowd came without tickets and the gates were crashed with several people ending up hurt. The four boys came through the ordeal unscathed.

They enjoyed watching Bettie Fethers, Brezzy Wynn, Deke Brackett, Sheriff Maples, and most of all J. B. Ellis, with the other Tennessee players beat Vanderbilt that day. Ben Byrd, a sports writer, said of Fethers, "He is part Cherokee Indian, has calves like kegs and the most natural running motion". Fethers played tail back on the single-wing team and made All American.

Red Williams and James Pickard had played with J. B. Ellis on the Halls High School football team. James played half back; J. B. tackle, and Red, guard. Halls played Dyersburg, Covington, Ripley and other big teams and won most of the games.

While at Tennessee, J. B. was an Honorable Mention All American. The people in Halls were so proud to have him start out play.

A Fine Move
Activated by the Parent Teachers Association and under the direction of PTA President Mrs. Douglas Hurt a definite move was made this week toward the establishment of a school safety patrol to lessen the opportunity for accidents during the peak time of movement to and from school. In previous years the PTA had endorsed such a patrol and voted to purchase equipment but for one reason or another there had been no definite move made and consequently nothing had ever actually been done. This year, however, at the PTA meeting Monday a member of the Safety Department of the State Highway Patrol was invited to attend and aid in setting up the patrol. Lt. Robinson did attend the meeting and real progress was made. Tuesday afternoon a plan was set up and certain boys designated to make up the patrol and steps taken to invite Lt. Robinson to return here to train the boys selected. It is hoped and believed that the patrol can actually begin operating next week. We wish to heartily endorse this program and offer the columns of a newspaper to aid in any possible way.

We Are Amused
A week through this column we wondered what had been done concerning the sale of bonds for the construction and equipping of schools in the county as authorized by the state. We were surprised to find that the sale of the bonds for the new school building at Ripley was completed on October 14 as the date for the sale of the bonds. There seems to be no valid reason for delay and we wish to commend Judge J. E. Lewis for his immediate action as authorized by the County Court.

Bank To Celebrate
Possibly few of you realize that the Bank of Halls will observe its fifteenth anniversary during October. This institution has served this community for fifty years of continuous service on October 9, 1949.

Your Cooperation Asked
City Marshall J. S. Walpole has requested the cooperation of the people of this section in the fall season in talking down Front Street. On the north side of Main Street between Main Street and the cotton platform the people are asked to park their cars on the west side of the railing and not park between the railing and the cot. This request is made so that cotton may be transported to the cotton platform and so that freight cars may be unloaded and loaded with a minimum of delay. South of Main Street on Front Street cars may park on either side of the railing according to Mr. Walpole. He states that the cooperation of the people will be greatly appreciated in this matter.

Drive Safely

Don't Pack
Main Street from the Theatre to Front Street and along the highway in the business district continue to be crowded with double parking problems. Chief Walpole is making every effort to keep traffic moving but it seems likely that lines may be necessary to bring it to an end.

Elementary News Notes

Andrews, Connell, Dunaway, Old School Days - School Days!
Dear old "wooden" rule days. Chapel and lessons and short recs.
Working and working our minds toward success.

Well, school has started. Is everybody glad? (Maybe they had better not say.)

The enrollment of the Elementary School is 426 pupils. The first grade has 82 pupils with Mrs. W. C. Walker, Jr. and Miss Gwendolyn Clark as teachers. The second grade has 69 pupils with Mrs. Tony Trovans and Mrs. Roy Patton as teachers. The third grade has 47 with Mrs. M. E. McDesmar, Jr. as teacher. The fourth grade has an enrollment of 48 with Mrs. Nell Ferguson as teacher. The fifth grade has 40 pupils with Mrs. Henry Murchison as teacher. The sixth grade has 63 with Mrs. Roy Hillard and Mr. Birt Cates as teachers. The seventh grade has 45 pupils and the eighth grade has 39 pupils. Their teachers are as follows: Mrs. H. G. McCorkle, Mrs. H. O. Gilliland and Mr. Bill McCorkle.

Mrs. James Voss is music instructor for the eighth grade.

We appreciated the visit of Rev. Maxedon and the visiting evangelist, Rev. H. A. Butts, who conducted chapel for us Tuesday morning. They plan to visit us again Thursday morning.

Second Grade

We have 82 on roll in both rooms. All of us are about adjusted. Some still take their naps in the afternoon during the rest period. We'll have more to tell you about us next week.

Third Grade

The second grade has an enrollment of 69 pupils. We are happy to welcome Mrs. Roy Patton as our new second grade teacher. She and her pupils have a very nice room in the high school building.

Tigers Win Over Germantown; To Play McKenzie

The Halls Tigers started the season off with a bang last Friday night when they handed the Germantown eleven a resounding 20 to 0 kicking on the Germantown field.

Led by a heavy and experienced line the Tigers scored twice in the second quarter and once in the third quarter before the Shelby County club pushed across a touchdown in the final quarter of the game.

To open the game Halls kicked off to Germantown and then promptly forced the home team to gain. Halls took the ball and with three successive first downs drove to the Germantown thirteen yard line. The ball was then swapped back and forth until early in the second quarter Sumrow hit Franklin Moore at the goal line for a touchdown and then Ehrigde fluffed the attempted kick for point after touchdown.

Once more Halls kicked off and after some maneuvering and four first downs for Halls, Sumrow once more hit Moore with a pass for a second touchdown and this time Ehrigde split the posts for the extra point.

Germantown was still unable to get going and Halls was having things very much their own way when finally a reverse on the Germantown eighteen yard line sent Welch across for the third touchdown with Ehrigde making the second successful kick. At the end of the third quarter score Halls 20, Germantown 0.

After playing fairly good ball for three quarters the Halls team began to fade and made numerous penalties - most of them 15-yarders - enabling Germantown to reach Halls territory and touch down when an end run gave them the only score. A jump pass was good for the extra point and Halls led in all the play of Halls line was highly pleasing with Conell, Rodgers, Mosley and Joe Moore all showing up well on defense and the pass catching of Franklin Moore being almost phenomenal. Blocking was poor as the Halls running attack bogged down on several occasions through lack of blocking and the poor timing of the backfield. However, most fans who saw the game were pleased and quite optimistic over chances of future victories. Particularly pleasing was the passing combination of Sumrow and Moore and the generally improved tackling of the entire team. At no time was the Germantown team able to build a sustained attack and through the numerous penalties assessed against the Halls club were they able to reach scoring position. Halls failed 13 first downs and Germantown six while Halls received 120 yards in penalties as compared to 25 against Germantown.

Tonight (Friday) the Tigers will travel to McKenzie for their second straight game away from home and next Friday night, September 23, they will open the home season against Brownsville. Little is known about the McKenzie team but the local boys are giving a good chance to score home with the second straight victory of the season. Game time is 8 o'clock on the McKenzie field.

ATTENDED FRIGIDAIRE MEETING IN MEMPHIS

Marvin Hanford of Hart & Hanford, local Frigidaire appliance dealer, was in Memphis on Thursday last week to attend a showing of the new Frigidaire electric ranges by factory representatives.

Led by a heavy and experienced line the Tigers scored twice in the second quarter and once in the third quarter before the Shelby County club pushed across a touchdown in the final quarter of the game.
