Wildlife Refuge Week; County Lands Involved

President Theodore Roosevelt established the first National Wildlife Refuge in 1903, Pelican Island in Florida, to protect herons, egrets and other colonial nesting birds from slaughter by market hunters. During his presidency Roosevelt created 50 more refuges to protect wildlife species threatened with extinction.

Today there are more than 500 refuges, covering 92 million acres in all 50 states and several territories. They range in size from a half-acre to 20 million acres and include deserts, grasslands and remote islands.

Mollie Beattie, former director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, proclaimed the second week in October to be observed annually as National Wildlife Refuge Week.

Lower Hatchie and Chickasaw National Wildlife Refuges were established in 1980 and 1985, respectively. Together, they encompass about 29,000 acres. Land types consist of bottomland hardwood forests, lake and river areas, scrublands, grasslands, croplands and upland forests. The refuges are set aside to preserve a representative portion to protect essential habitat for migrating songbirds and shorebirds and to provide wintering habitat for waterfowl along the Mississippi River.

Visitors to the refuges can view many of West Tennessee's wildlife species including bald eagles, river otters, mallards, least terns, Mississippi kites, ospreys, wood ducks, great blue herons, green-backed herons, yellow-crowned night herons, snowy egrets, pectoral sandpipers, turkeys, bobwhite quail, Canada geese, cerulean warblers and white-tailed deer.

Most of Lower Hatchie and Chickasaw National Wildlife Refuges are open year-round for bird watching, wildlife photography, canoeing, bicycling, hiking, hunting and fishing. Check with refuge manager for access information and seasonal sanctuary area closures.

For information on the volunteer program call 635-7621 or visit the headquarters of Chickasaw National Wildlife Refuge, 1505 Sand Bluff Road, approximately ten miles north of Ripley.

Health Department To Offer Flu Vaccine

"The best preventive measure for the flu," according to Bettie Smith, of the Lauderdale County Health Department, "is use the annual vaccinations." Health department officials report that most cases of the flu occur between November and April. "Immunization is most effective at the beginning of the season," continued Mrs. Smith, "which is approximately the first of November in Tennessee." Since it takes about two weeks for the flu vaccine to become effective, you should think about getting your shot in October.

Mrs. Smith urges vaccinations for those at highest risk for complications from the flu. They include residents of nursing homes and other chronic care facilities; persons 65 years of age and older; adults and children with chronic disorders of the heart and lungs; and adults and children with long-term health problems.

People allergic to eggs should not receive the flu vaccine. Those with a fever or severe illness should postpone the vaccine until their symptoms have cleared.

The flu vaccine will be available through many doctors offices. The Lauderdale County Health Department will offer a limited quantity of the vaccine to persons at highest risk beginning Oct. 7th. A small fee will be charged for those persons not on Medicare.

Further information or to receive a flu shot, contact your physician or the Lauderdale County Health Department, 635-9711.

Brevities

Christie Hopper, Hillary and Taylor Hogue and Bobby Raines, of Lebanon, were weekend guests of Gilreath Dyer and Susan and Bobby Phillips.

James Meeks wrote me a note last week. He said there was a red oak tree that measures 28 feet and 10 inches about two feet from the ground. The tree shaded the original meeting house of Antioch Church of Christ bought from Mrs. M.P.W. Parr, buried in Parr Cemetery at Poplar Grove. James said that sometime ago he was talking to Odell Lucas and learned that Odell and Charles Albrook were related. James also learned that Odell was a descendant of the McDermans and James Meeks was distantly related to Odell. Thanks to James for the above information.

Sharlene Moore and daughter, Meredith Moore, and three friends, of Memphis, spent Friday night before last with Thomas and Ruth Martin. They had a cook-out of hamburgers, hot dogs and roasted marshmallows.

The Food and Drug Administration moved quickly to approve broader use of an implantable defibrillator that delivers jolts to the heart when it begins beating rapidly and erratically.
First used for patients who'd had at least one cardiac arrest, the device is now used also after some heart attacks. It's said to halve the risk of death of abnormal rapid heartbeats.
Scientists at Yale University and in California believe they have discovered the gene responsible for basal-cell carcinoma, the most common form of skin cancer. It is a tumor-suppressor gene that can be mutated by the sun or damaged when inherited.
It's safe for AIDS patients to take annual flu shots, researchers at Johns Hopkins found.
Swollen ankles are a common complaint on long jet flights. One British scientist suggests an easy preventive: wearing light support hose or socks to restore pressure on the leg.
Support sock? Of course. You'll always find a good selection of surgical supplies at your family health center, Arnold's Health Mart Drug Co., 111 East Main St., Halls, 836-7211.

HALLS, TENNESSEE
He couldn't have seen more than three or four years old, when he came running in one day with a little piece of paper hidden behind him and said, "here Granny I drew this for you." It was beautiful, mountains in the background, a plane in the sky, a bird perched on a limb in a tree. My, I wondered, where did that talent come from, certainly not from me, I can hardly draw a box. Time passed with many drawings and paintings on school notebook paper. Now he's all grown, and far surpassed the childhood notebook paper drawings and paintings, to an awesome mural he painted on an entire wall in my sister's new home.
Mr. Eddie Crowder wanted a picture of his old home place painted on his hand saw. It was so beautiful. The sign for Hurt Seed Co. is so spectacular.
Many nights he would call me at 10 or 11 o'clock at night and say, "see you still up Granny? I want to bring my new painting over for you to see." Each one more beautiful than the previous one.
Many of his paintings now hang in my home displaying this God-given talent. Am I proud of him? Am I prejudiced? Well, of course I am. He's my grandson, Robert Alston.

Westview	2-0	4-0
McKenzie	1-1	4-1

Tide Brings Experience

Trenton, 6-6 last year after losing its first four games, up-set

Memphis Briarcrest in the playoffs, 21-18, then lost to Loreto's Mustangs, 26-19.

Coach Tim Haney has half of those starters back on both sides of the ball.

Star of the squad is senior half-back Andre Anderson (5-7, 160), all-region and all-West Tenn. last year, with an honorable mention for all-state.

In 120 plays in nine games last fall, he posted more than 1,000 yards and eight TDs.

Last Half Edged Dresden

Halls tied with Dresden, 6-0, at the half, scored twice in the third period to register a 20-14 win.

Monrell Rogers (6-0, 192) drew first blood for the Tigers, from the four, in the first period, and added a 30-yard TD in the third, piling up 223 of Halls' 320 yards rushing, to 151 for Dresden.

The icing on the cake came from sophomore Bobby Harrell's

60-yard TD in the third period. Halls had 11 first downs to six for the Lions.

Fire fighters stated that it is illegal to dump or set a fire, both pollute the environment. Smoke covered a large portion of the community making it hard to breathe outside.

Ripley Mayor Woos Industrial Prospect

Ripley Mayor Richard G. Douglas told the Board of Aldermen's monthly meeting Monday evening that he met last week with a firm interested in opening a 500,000 square foot operation in Ripley.

He said the contact was due to fast work by Annette Fisher, director of the Ripley Economic Development Corp.

The board approved purchase of fitness equipment, on Spirit Direct's low bid of $55,771.65. The high bid was $65,856.85.

Other business was routine or post-poned.

Parchman Road, Ripley, was sent to jail, after Judge Odell Horton was told that Carroll had contacted two witnesses in the 6-week trial in U. S. District Court.

Asst. U.S. Attorney Larry Laurenzi said Carroll phoned Pat (Mrs. H.P.) Webb, USDA employee, of 3338 Edith-Nankipoo Road, a year ago, and said he'd pay $1,000 for harm to come to her.

Laurenzi said Carroll visited Carolyn (Mrs. Lanny) Roberts, of Whitefield, after she testified in the trial.

Carroll's attorney, William Neese, of Dresden, admitted that Carroll had contacted both Webb and Roberts.

He offered a tape recording of the visit to Roberts, which he said included no threats.

He said Carroll's threat to Webb was not "serious."

Judge Horton said, "I don't think there is any such thing as a joking threat."

He ordered an investigation into the witness-tampering charges which could multiply Carroll's convictions.

Besides fraud charges, Carroll and Little were convicted of making false statements to the grand jury which held them for U. S. Court trial.

High Claims Rang Bell

Lauderdale County farmers received more than $5,400,000 in U.S. disaster aid for '93 losses, when Tracie Hensley headed the county program.

Little was also employed by the USDA's Agricultural and Conservation Service.

A USDA investigation found at least $500,000 of the 1993 disaster claims fraudulent, resulting in federal charges against seven countians.

Besides four convicted last week, Carmon Garrison, former County Commissioner, pleaded guilty and testified in the trial of the four.

Ray Bizzell and Thomas Pipkin, of Conner-Whitefield Road, are set for trial Nov. 4th.

Informal sources expect a U.S. grand jury to be presented with similar charges against at least four other countians.

Get Fire Permit Before You Burn

Tennessee's burning permit system will go into effect Oct. 15th. Tennessee Code Annotated 39-14-306 requires any person starting an open air fire between Oct. 15th and May 15th, within 500 feet of any forest, woodland or grassland, to first secure a burning permit from the State Forester or authorized representative," warns Steve Brabec, of the Tennessee Division of Forestry.

In Lauderdale County, call the Tennessee Division of Forestry office at the Ripley Fire Tower, 635-1105, to secure a permit. Permits will be issued from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Permits will not be issued more than two days in advance and will be valid only for the date specified. The Tennessee Division of Forestry can refuse to issue burning permits or can revoke

PAY FOR USE SERVICE

BellSouth now offers pay only when you use their services for call return, three-way calling and each use of these services is 75 cents for residential and small business customers. BellSouth Manager Kay Gibson stated, "By offering these services for both a monthly subscription rate and a per use rate, our customers can choose the option that is best for them. As of October 1 these three calling services are available in Halls and Henning and approximately 100 other Tennessee cities for those customers who want to try them or only need the services occasionally."

Previously the services were only available on a monthly subscription basis. We're simply providing our customers with another easy option for using beneficial services. These services are available by using *69 for call return, *66 for repeat dialing and pressing your switch hook to get a second dial tone, then dialing the third person for three-way calling, blocking is available at no charge. To avoid an inadvertent three-way charge, depress the switch hook for at least two seconds between calls. If you see a charge for the per use features you think is incorrect, stated Kay Gibson, "call our customer service center and we will remove the charge."

Fighting America's War On Cancer For 25 Years

Improving Cancer-Fighting Chemotherapy

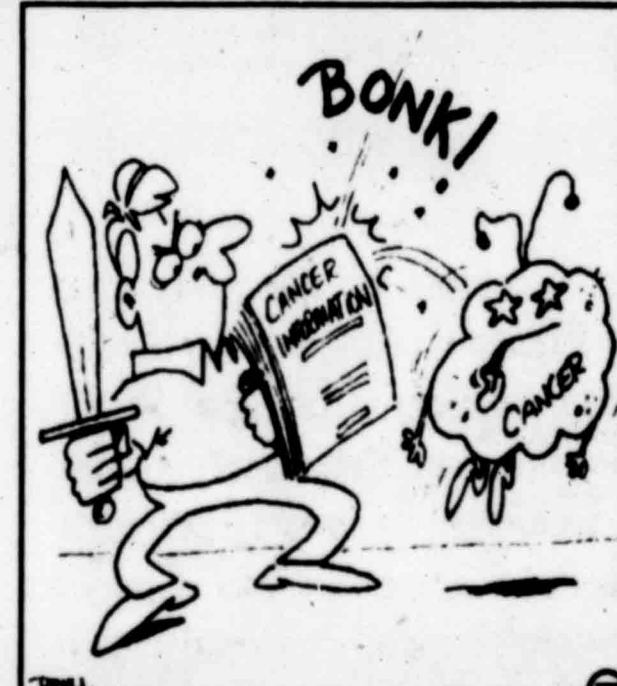

(NAPS)—Although the 25-year fight Americans have waged against cancer has not yet yielded a complete victory, the good news is that much progress has been made in minimizing the side effects of cancer-fighting chemotherapy.

A recent survey found that although most people (80 percent) chose to have the most aggressive chemotherapy possible in their battle against cancer, an even higher percentage (91 percent) want doctors to do something to minimize the side effects. A new, free booklet "Patient to Patient: Sharing Our Experiences with Chemotherapy" summarizes the results of the survey and focuses on the experiences of four patients.

Each person receiving chemotherapy has a somewhat different combination of side effects. Some of the most common are nausea and vomiting; hair loss; anemia; serious, possibly life-threatening systemic infection; and low numbers of blood platelets which can cause you to bleed or bruise more easily than usual.

Much progress has been made in treating side effects, with medications available to combat the lowered resistance to infection and nausea. These medical advances often allow patients to receive stronger doses of chemotherapy, which can give them a better chance of beating their cancer.

When Wilhelmina Grant received a high-dose chemotherapy treatment that included a series of three drugs, some days her stomach felt like "a gerbil running round on its wheel." Other times,

Staying informed can help a patient win the battle against cancer.

she said, it was as if "someone were scrubbing my stomach."

Her chemotherapy treatment was administered in combination with a bone marrow stimulating agent, called NEUPROGEN™, to help produce the infection-fighting white blood cells that would be lost during chemotherapy and leave her vulnerable to life-threatening infections.

Now Wilhelmina enjoys her second chance at life and a newfound purpose. She provides outreach to the African-American community, including workshops in wellness training and hotline call-backs and is very involved in patient advocacy work.

Not all side effects develop in everyone but there are steps you can take to minimize some of the side effects you do experience. For a free booklet of tips on how to cope with and minimize side effects, call (800) 333-9777.

Bicentennial HIGHLIGHTS
By Miss Daisy

How-dee!

Sarah Cannon, known and loved by the world as "Minnie Pearl," had favorite recipes she enjoyed sharing with others. Her recipes also have stories behind them that create a special warmth.

In the spring of 1995, I was very blessed to speak with "Miss Minnie" about her health and the upcoming grand celebration of Tennessee's 200th birthday. That particular afternoon she was her whimsical self and gave me direction on some legendary Tennesseans' recipes I should acquire for my recipe files.

She told me stories about several of her favorite recipes, and she suggested I use her Chicken Tetrazzini recipe. The chicken dish is one of her beloved husband Henry's favorites.

The recipe is easy to prepare and freezes well for later use. These are two of the many casseroles in Miss Daisy Celebrates Tennessee which I classify as the best recipes to take to church suppers—Minnie Pearl's Chicken Tetrazzini and Music City Beef Casserole.

Minnie Pearl's Chicken Tetrazzini

- 2 CUPS CHOPPED CELERY
- 1 1/2 CUPS CHOPPED ONION
- 3 TABLESPOONS BUTTER OR MARGARINE
- 2 CUPS CHICKEN BROTH
- 1 TABLESPOON WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE
- SALT AND PEPPER
- 1 10 1/2-OUNCE CAN CONDENSED CREAM OF MUSHROOM SOUP
- 1/2 CUP MILK
- 1 CUP GRATED SHARP CHEESE
- 1/2 POUND SPAGHETTI, COOKED AND DRAINED
- 6 CUPS CHOPPED, COOKED CHICKEN
- 1/2 CUP SLICED STUFFED OLIVES
- 1 CUP CHOPPED PECANS

In a saucepan, cook celery and onion in butter until tender. Add chicken broth, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Simmer about 15 minutes. Slowly stir in mushroom soup, milk and cheese. Mix thoroughly. Remove from heat. Add cooked spaghetti. Let stand for one hour. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Grease a 9x13-inch baking dish. Add chicken and olives to spaghetti. Place in prepared dish. Sprinkle with chopped pecans. Bake 20 to 25 minutes or until hot and bubbly. Yield: 12 servings.

Music City Beef Casserole

- 1 POUND GROUND ROUND, BROWNED AND DRAINED
- 4 SMALL BAKING POTATOES, PEELLED AND Sliced
- 2-OUNCE CAN Sliced MUSHROOMS, UNDRAINED
- 1 8 1/2-OUNCE CAN GREEN PEAS, UNDRAINED
- 3 CARROTS, SLICED
- 3 STALKS CELERY, SLICED
- 1/2 CUP CHOPPED ONION
- 1 TEASPOON SALT
- 1 10 3/4-OUNCE CAN TOMATO SOUP

Assemble all ingredients and utensils. In a 3-quart greased casserole dish, place all ingredients in layers. Pour the soup over top. Cover and bake in a 350-degree oven for 50 to 60 minutes. Optional: top with 1 cup grated cheddar cheese and brown for the last 10 minutes. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

On her 96 in '96 Bicentennial tour this summer, Miss Daisy will visit each of the state's 95 counties, plus the site of the lost county of James.

King will be promoting brick sales for the Tennessee Bicentennial Mail Path of Volunteers and signing copies of her best-selling cookbook Miss Daisy Celebrates Tennessee.

Look for "Miss Daisy" at Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores, at Bicentennial Exposition Train stops, and at book retailers across Tennessee.

In conjunction with the '96 in '96 tour, the publisher is sponsoring a recipe contest looking for special dishes and corresponding family stories that truly express who we are as Tennesseans.

By Mrs. Charles Albrook

Mrs. Roger Harris and grandson, Matthew Modlock, visited Alison Brown, new little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Brown, of Memphis, both formerly of Halls, last Monday. Matthew returned to Halls to spend the week picking cotton with his grandfather, Roger Harris, and uncle, Robert Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Simmons, of Jackson, Miss., visited Tommy Simmons Saturday. David and Lydia Wright, of Atoka, Minnie Throgmorton, of Halls, and Paul and Lee Ann Throgmorton, of Cookeville, spent the weekend in the Smokey Mountains. They drove to Asheville, N.C. and toured the Biltmore Mansion and Farmers Market. They spent one night in their camper in the mountains. The weather and foliage were beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Nunn were visited by their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, and children, Brian, Anne and Jeanne, during the weekend. The Nunn's drove to Nashville Sunday to meet Mr. Nunn's sister, Mrs. Alvin Hallman, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is visiting her brother, David Nunn, and other relatives and friends.

Harry and Martha Wright and Patsy Wright and daughter, Elizabeth Wright, and a friend, Kyle Mahan, students at Missouri State University in Springfield, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Conley Wright in Cookeville.

Home-coming was observed in Halls First United Methodist Church Sunday. The Rev. Paul Jones, former pastor of the church, delivered the message, "Coming Home To Supper." He and his wife, Morie, reside in Bradford. The Rev. Jones retired after leaving a church in Lake County. Mrs. Jones said he was pastoring a church now and had preached at most lives in his home on Ann Street. A step-son, Ricky, and grandson, Liggins, live with him. He does the cooking, washing, buys all the groceries and pays the utilities. L.J. has worked all his life. He has a pleasant disposition and enjoys arguing with some of the women that he moves yards for in and near Halls. He moves a lot of yards each year. The people he could remember that he moved for this year included the Bank of Halls, David Nunn, Oliver Nunn, Gilreath Dyer, Neil Dyer, James Jones, Poplar Grove Church, Lois Brandon, (he says Mrs. Brandon owns one of the smartest dogs he has ever seen—a stray that just came to her house), Sarah Cherry, Mot Vaden, Anita Steelman, Jean Spence, Marshall Pierce, and Mrs. Hollis A. Gilton.

Mr. Mitchell is a deacon in Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church on Steelman Road, west of Halls. Isaac Ringer is 84 years old. He is Mr. Mitchell's brother. He is married to Marie Thurmond Ringer, daughter of Henry and Lugenia Thurmond. Isaac and Marie lived on the Donald and Douglas farm before moving to Halls. Marie worked for Mrs. Joe (Miss Virgie) Sumrow when she was a young girl. She also worked for Mrs. W. C. (Miss Geneva) Vlar, Mrs. W. A. Smith and Mrs. Warren Nunn.

Isaac and Marie attend Trinity C.M.E. Church south of Halls. In the August issue of Mid-South Golfer Dr. Cary Middlecoff was pictured on the front cover featuring "The Golf Doctor," an exclusive interview with Memphis golf legend, Dr. Middlecoff. Dr. Middlecoff says he is doing

O.K. these days after experiencing a five in his hand last year and only a month after his wife, Edie, had a stroke. Edie is trying to recover. She can walk but her right arm is completely paralyzed and neither of them can drive a car. Dr. Middlecoff was born in Halls, the son of a dentist; Herman F. Middlecoff, and his wife, Lucille Hutchinson Middlecoff. He started his golf career by playing with his father at Chickasaw County Club in 1928. His mother hosted a weekly bridge club in her home each Sunday. She wanted the house for her bridge game so his father took young Cary to play golf. Cary won the club championship at the age of 16 and the Memphis City High School Championship. He attended Central High School for one year and Christian Brothers for two years. After attending Ole Miss, Cary decided on dental school and attended the University of Tennessee Dental School. He planned on following in his father's footsteps by joining him in his successful dental practice. He continued to play good golf and won the Tennessee State Championship three times.

Pharmacy Topics

Pharmaceuticals, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Dr. Cary Middlecoff and David Wells

Blood from a newborn's umbilical cord and placenta can provide vital treatment for leukemia patients, The New England Journal of Medicine reported. The placental blood can take the place of bone marrow with less likelihood of rejection.

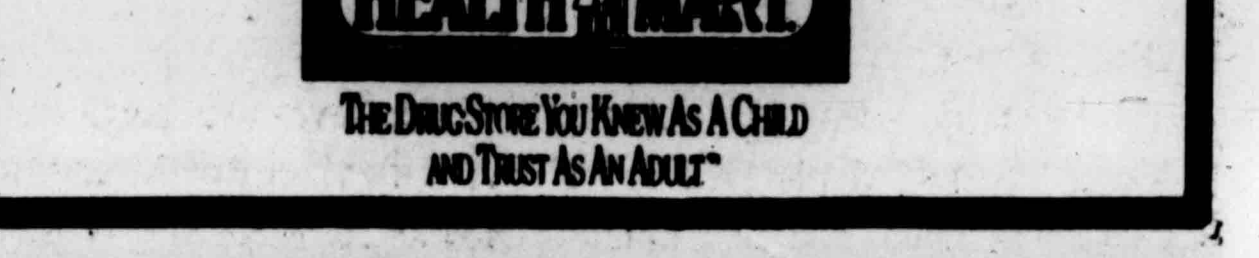

From Finland comes word of a new margarine that controls and even lowers cholesterol, thanks to an extract from pine trees mixed into it. There's not yet enough Biscool to sell beyond Finland.

Easy "cure" for tender gums and some other mouth irritations: trimming cinnamon sticks. A lot of foods and mouth-care products contain this popular spice.

Smoking may increase a woman's risk for cervical cancer. Research in England noted a corollary: when women smokers with abnormal Pap smears stopped smoking, their risk fell significantly.

Researchers note that smokers are more likely to develop gum disease—and have more severe cases—than those who don't smoke.

Want to quit smoking? Helpful and effective nicotine patches are now available without prescription at Arnold's Health Mart Drug Co., 111 East Main St., Halls. 836-7211.

THE CLINTON DRUG POLICY

"JUST SAY SURE"

After 11 years of decline, drug use among teens has increased over 100% under Bill Clinton. In the debate, Bill Clinton claimed that he hates drugs. But on MTV, in front of millions of young children, he was asked if he would inhale if given another chance to do drugs. Clinton replied, "Sure, if I could. I tried before."

Clinton's "Just Say Sure" Drug Policy:

- * Slashed the drug czar's staff by 87%
- * Reduced drug interdiction by 25%
- * Appointed a Surgeon General who advocated legalizing drugs
- * Cut over 400 positions from drug enforcement
- * Drug prosecutions dropped 12% in 2 years
- * Average sentences for dope dealers dropped after liberal judges were appointed by Bill Clinton

They Did Clean Up

Well, will wonders never cease! We actually looked up the other morning and saw Sherman Oldham (the street cleaner) down in our block picking up some paper and trash. Also we notice that the accumulation of paper across the street from the Mayor's office has been gathered up. Under present conditions there can be no hope that it will remain clean but at least there is being an effort made to keep the paper and trash from piling up. We also notice that business firms are cleaning up their premises too. Keep the good work up and thank you Mr. Mayor and Mr. Marshall.

Thills Calves

The Tigers lost a football game Friday night but we wish to say and we are of the opinion that anyone who saw that game Friday night felt that he or she had gotten their money's worth. We do not remember any football game which kept the fans at such a high pitch throughout the game. The sudden drive of Covington to reach pay dirt in the second quarter, the continued racking up of first downs by the local team, many interception of passes and the final fourth quarter drive that netted more than eighty yards and a touchdown for the Tigers and then the breathtaking run back of the kickoff by Boyd to put Covington in the lead again and finally the almost complete pass which would have tied the game again for Halls. We have been seeing football games in Halls for most of the years that it has been played here and we cannot remember any single game in which the spectator was treated to more thrills. Tough, mighty, tough to lose but still football at its greatest. Ask Bill Beasley who saw the second game that he had ever seen in his life.

Good Students, Good Athletes

Elsewhere in this issue of the Graphic will be found a list of some thirty-two honor students for the first six weeks of Halls High School. An interesting sidelight on the list is that while only 10 of the 32 are boys, 9 of the 10 boys on the list are members of the football squad and the other will probably participate in basketball. We have been told at various times that the best students do not take part in athletics but we have found that the exact reverse is true and that the boys that are trying to amount to something and are interested in their grades are also taking part in sports. An additional interesting note on that situation is that some fifty per cent of the girls who are honor students will be members of the girls basketball squad. Don't tell us that participation in sports isn't an incentive to higher goals throughout life. We can prove that you are wrong.

The Sun Was Shining

Grady McCorkle is this week a very happy man! All last week the weather was his main topic of conversation and Mrs. McCorkle tells us that he got up at daybreak to look at the weather Friday morning. (Please don't ask Nell about us.) The report is that Mrs. McCorkle knew that the sun was shining last Friday morning after one look at Mac's face. You see he had guaranteed the weather to your editor and "Red" Thompson and they had predicted a record breaking crowd at the football game. Well, it was there. A total of at least 1750 people were crowded along the sidelines of the field for the Covington-Halls field with more than six hundred dollars going into the coffers of the athletic association. Grady didn't believe us but he does now. He says that it is the largest crowd that he ever saw at a small town football game BUT (Continued on Page Ten)

Local Merchants Fail To Gauge Public After Decontrol Of Meat Prices Last Week

Probably Halls people little realize had fortunate they are in having merchants here who have not taken a great advantage of the release of ceiling prices on meat.

The Memphis newspapers have been full for the past few days of the great increase in meat prices with boiling meat quoted as high as $1 per pound. There have been no such prices set in Halls.

A check of the meat markets in Halls Tuesday at noon revealed that a 150 jump of sausage from 50c to 65c per pound is the greatest single up in price. However packers are quoting as high as $1.25 cents per pound for the markets and reliable reports state that a price of 75c per pound is being asked in nearby towns.

A comparison of selling prices and present prices of beef steak revealed an increase of from six to ten cents per pound and that of pork chops is finding it difficult to sell.

SIGHT SEEING TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Dilly of Halls have returned home after an 8-day sight seeing tour through the South. They report a very enjoyable trip.

During their tour they visited McComb, Gulfport and Jackson, Miss., Baton Rouge, Alexandria, Winfield, Jonesboro and New Orleans, La., and Edmore, Pine Bluff, Little Rock and Pine Bluff, Ark.

They crossed the Smiles long bridge P. Long Bridge across the Mississippi river and spent some time in the state capital building at Baton Rouge, La.

Their guests of relatives at Baton Rouge, Pine Bluff and Memphis.

Athletic Association Asks Public's Help In Seeking Name For Halls Football Field

Members of Halls Athletic Association committee in a meeting Wednesday night of this week went to ask the public to help them in selecting an appropriate name for the Athletic Field and at the same time voted to inquire into costs of building concrete bleachers along the embankment on the west side of the field.

Several suggested methods of selecting a name or of a name itself may make their suggestion to any member of the committee which is composed of J. O. Thompson, chairman, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Jr., H. G. McCorkle, James Peery, F. E. Fugh and J. H. Murchison.

The public's cooperation will be greatly appreciated by all members of the committee.

Tigers Suffer First Defeat

Before a record crowd of some 1750 people and in a game that was a spectator's delight, the Covington Wildcats kicked the Halls Tigers out of the undefeated column last Friday night with a resounding thud.

In a game replete with thrills the Covington eleven took advantage of every opportunity to rack up a 15 to 7 win which included the first winning effort for a team that has just reached its pre-season expectations.

Halls started off with a bang carrying the game into Covington's territory from the first but inability to complete forward passes cost them at least two opportunities to score. Attempting to take advantage of the type of game Covington was playing the local eleven switched to a passing game for the first time this season but failed to complete a pass to hit the receiver. Covington was able to intercept six Halls passes during the game.

Early in the second quarter Covington uncorked their only successful drive of the evening with Boyd doing most of the ball carrying and finally a pass from the eleven yard line across the goal line to Cannon was good for six points. The try for point was no good.

Halls came back hard in the third quarter but passes still were being knocked down and intercepted and were unable to reach pay dirt.

Finally in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter Halls regained the ball on their own 19-yard line. Stallings was trapped for a six yard loss back to the Halls thirteen. On the next play on a fake punt Stallings went outside Covington's left end and raced to the thirty-eight yard line before being dropped. His knee was wrenched on the play and he was forced to leave the game. Thornington replaced Stallings and the Tigers began a series of spinners and reverses which eventually carried them to the Covington twenty yard line a pass by Thornington was good for seven yards and three running plays carried the ball across. Strain making the touchdown and plunging across for the extra point.

Halls fans relaxed but were electrified within a minute when Boyd took Burroughs kickoff on the eighteen crossed the field to the east sideline and raced the way for a touchdown. The try for point was good and Covington was leading 15 to 7.

Halls received the kickoff and Thornington came up the middle of the field to the Covington 42 where he was stopped. On his first play Baker, Halls wingback, passed beyond Covington defense line to Burroughs in the clear but Burroughs was unable to draw it. Three times more the Halls passer hit his receiver but none were completed and the game ended with Covington intercepting a final Halls pass.

Statistics revealed that Halls racked up a total of twelve first downs as compared to four for the visitors.

Outline Method Used In Mailing Xmas Gifts

Postmaster E. J. Shannon of Halls, announces that Christmas packages will be mailed to covington, without request slips, before the period October 15 to November 15.

This gives relatives and friends of soldiers a month longer to mail packages to insure their arrival overseas by Christmas Day than would be the case during the war. Postmaster Shannon stated, due to the great reduction of soldiers in foreign fields since hostilities ceased.

Only one package may be mailed by any one person to any individual overseas in any one week during the mailing period specified. The weight limit per package is seventy pounds and may measure not to exceed one hundred inches in length and eight inches in diameter.

For Army Personnel sent overseas shortly before or subsequent to October 30, and these packages must be marked Christmas parcels and only one such parcel will be accepted from any individual.

A change of the war years is noted in the fact that parcels may be mailed.

Honor Students Are Listed

Prof. H. G. McCorkle, superintendent of Halls Schools, this week submitted a list of the Honor students for Halls High School for the first six weeks of the 1966-67 term. We particularly call your attention to the fact that with student enrollment of 205 and daily attendance of 200 an average of more than 15 per cent of the total enrollment attained an honor roll. Students with an A-1 task following their name attain a record of straight A's which others had secured of 3 A's and 1 B.

Tigers To Play Union City Tonight

Stinging from a 13 to 7 defeat handed them by Covington in the last few minutes of play the Tigers will travel to Union City Friday night seeking help for their wounded feelings through a victory over the Obion county team which two weeks ago handed Covington a 7 to 6 defeat.

Stalling, who sustained an injured knee in the Covington fracas, will make the trip but probably will not see much service with Thornington expected to get the starting assignment in the ballback spot. However Stallings is expected to be back in shape for the Millington game here the following week and may be on the field for the game Friday night. Baker, who also injured a knee in the Newbern game, but was able to play throughout the Covington game has had some trouble but will be ready Friday night. All other squad members should be in good shape for Friday night.

Brunt of the attack on Union City is expected to be borne by Strain, hard driving Halls fullback, who has yet to be stopped in the line. Line Captain Rodgers, Love and Henderson will lead the attack.

Game will be called at eight o'clock with a large number of fans from Halls expected to make the trip.

All shrink and no lay makes Judy a cut can.

Suggests Farmers Hold Cotton Until Market Settles

F. H. Paschal, County Agent

Many Lauderdale farmers are holding their cotton for a higher price or to go in the Loan to wait for higher prices.

Many cotton experts were this week urging farmers all over the county to hold their cotton for higher prices. They pointed to the shortage crop in recent history, now believed by many to be not more than 2,500,000 bales, the high price level of all commodities, the small carry-over of good cotton, the unusually strong demand, and many other definite reasons why cotton should sell for more than 50c a pound.

Membership Committee of the Farm Bureau are this week urging their neighbors to join the Farm Bureau and help them wield more influence for the benefit of farm people. This drop in the cotton market caused many people to remember the drop which came in 1920 or 1921 from 44c a pound down to 5c. The only thing that makes such a thing impossible now is the Government Loan on cotton which will hold it up to at least 25c. The Farm Bureau has been ready for this difference in the security farmers have on prices now as compared to the situation in 1920 and 1921.

The Farm Bureau deserves the support of more and more farm people. They should voluntarily join and add their membership strength and influence.

Organized labor is already threatening to strike, again for higher wages to offset the higher food prices now prevailing. Unless farmers maintain a strong national organization to protect the interests of Agriculture, the farmer can easily be the forgotten man in the race between Capital and Labor to gobble up the nation's income.

Land Can Drop Too

The sudden and severe drop in the price of cotton should be a reminder to us of how fast land prices can drop when it once gets started. Land has been going up in price at the rate of about 12 per cent per year for the last 10 years, but I saw it drop after the war more than 100 per cent in value in one year, resulting in more than 420,000 farms in the nation being foreclosed. Millions of others lost heavily.

Good Advice

How long the high demand for farm products will continue depends largely upon employment. Remember the drop of more than 100 per cent in the price of cotton in 1920 or 1921 from 44c a pound down to 5c. The only thing that makes such a thing impossible now is the Government Loan on cotton which will hold it up to at least 25c. 3 Charged In Midnight Struggle And Shooting

Suri Martice Jelks, 21, of 966 Norris, Brownsville, faces four charges after a shooting just before midnight Friday in the home of Denise Wright, 29, at 185 Land St. in Ripley.

Jelks, also known as Martice White, is charged with aggravated assault, especially aggravated robbery, reckless endangerment, and burglary, according to General Sessions Court records.

Lance White, 19, of the same address in Brownsville, faces the same charges, except burglary.

Antonio Miller, 18, of 187 Land, is charged as an accessory after the fact.

Ripley police officers Jeff Fain and Willard Lane, Jr., responding to a burglary report from 183 Rose, Ripley, pursued a man who ran across South Washington toward the Pizza Hut, then re-crossed to behind 189 Land, where the officers lost his trail.

A 25-calibre Erma-Werke pistol taken in the burglary was later found behind 189 Land. A few minutes after the officers investigated the burglary, arrest reports allege that Jelks and White, both armed with pistols, broke into Wright's home, demanding cash and drugs.

The arrest reports say that after Jelks pointed a pistol at Willie J. Buck, a struggle followed in which both Jelks and Buck suffered flesh wounds in the lower abdomen.

Both were treated in Baptist Hospital Lauderdale and released.

"Tony" Miller, who resides next door to 185 Land, and with whom Jelks and White have often lodged over-night, is alleged to have been standing on the front porch of 185 Land when Jelks and White entered Wright's residence.

Bell South Adds New Ripley Prefix

Bell South regional manager, Kay Gibson, announced that "Due to growth in Ripley, Bell South added a new telephone prefix (221) for the local Ripley exchange."

"Customers who need to call directory assistance for any new local numbers can do so by dialing 1-411. Although they will hear a recording indicating that for 45 cents the operator will dial the call, this doesn't mean this is a long distance call," added Gibson. She concluded by stating, "This is an optional service that some customers find helpful in letting the operator dial the call for them."

Bizzell, Pipkin Plead Guilty Of Ag Frauds

Ray Bizzell and Thomas Pipkin, of the Conner-Whitefield community near Ripley, pleaded guilty Tuesday of last week, in U.S. Court in Memphis, to collecting about $300,000 by filing illegal claims with the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Bizzell pleaded guilty to three felony counts, Pipkin to one. Each count could be punished by five years in prison and a $250,000 fine, in addition to repaying the federal funds obtained illegally. Bizzell and Pipkin remain free on bond, pending a sentencing hearing scheduled for Jan. 10th.

Bizzell and Pipkin are the last two of seven Lauderdale Countians, indicted last summer, now on record as guilty of 1993 ag frauds.

Carmon Garrison, former County Commissioner, pleaded guilty and testified against Jimmie and Tracie Hensley, of 2861 Conner-Whitefield Road, Johnny Little, of 3765 Conner-Whitefield Road, and Johnny Carroll, of 734 Parchman Road. On Oct. 3rd, after a 6-week trial, a jury found the four guilty of 38 of 39 charges.

Little and Carroll were also convicted of making false statements to the grand jury.

Little and the Hensleys remain free on bond, pending sentencing.

Carroll was jailed after U.S. attorney Larry Laurenza told Judge Odell Horton that Carroll had approached witnesses in the case.

Carroll's attorney, William R. Neese, of Dresden, denies published reports that Carroll phoned Pat (Mrs. H.P.) Webb, U.S. Department of Agriculture employee, of 3338 Edith-Nankipoo Road, saying he'd pay $1,000 for harm to come to her.

"The actual report," he says, "was that Mr. Carroll contacted a third person concerning Mrs. Webb, but this was never verified, and no evidence presented to confirm the claim."

"Since the alleged threat was supposed to have been made over a year ago, and the government and everyone else was aware of the allegation at that time, it was obviously not taken seriously. Otherwise, the alleged threat would not have been ignored until after this trial. Ignoring the alleged threat is entirely inconsistent with a belief that the threat was made and that it was made seriously."

"[Everyone else] did not know about the allegation. This newspaper first heard of it after Mr. Carroll went to jail -- Ed.]

Neese admits that Carroll did speak with Carolyn (Mrs. Lanny) Roberts, of Whitefield, who was a witness in his trial.

"As he was entitled to do," Neese says, "since learning that the conversation was recorded, no one has alleged that any threats or other improper communications were made."

Judge Horton, told by Neese that Carroll's alleged threat against Mrs. Webb was "not serious," told Neese, "I don't think there is any such thing as a joking threat." He ordered an investigation into Laurenza's charges that Carroll approached witnesses.

It's almost election time again. Bill Clinton reminds me of a little ditty that goes like this:
*He wiggled in and wiggled out,
And kept the folks all in doubt,
As to whether the snake that made the track,
Was going in or coming back.
Not to mention all the other negatives, it is hard to believe that* liberal, irresponsible leadership. One of these days you might not have the opportunity to vote. This might be sooner than you think.

DAVID HURTT, SR.
Halls, TN

Editor:

some who dodged the draft and wasn't willing to serve their own country, is president of our great nation and is now sending our young men and women to foreign countries not to defend America's peace, but somebody else's peace.

Senator Bob Dole did think enough of his country and its people to fight for it and in doing so almost lost his life and did lose the use of his right arm and hand. Which one do you think you can trust?

Clinton reneged on his promise to cut taxes but gave us one of the largest tax increases. Clinton and his mannikin back-up, with the help of the liberal media, are trying to straddle the fence and appeal to some of the more moderate and conservative voters. These two are about as conservative as were Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey.

Clinton and Gore are always so concerned for the poor while putting down the rich. I think the poor need to be a little skeptical of these characters' sincerity, who, when they have their big fundraising events are seen hobnobbing with all the big elite and wealthy supporters making huge donations and don't forget about the big labor bosses and their exorbitant contributions.

I think there is a skunk in the woodpile. Their social programs, hand-outs and inflation keep the poor poor. It is to these kind of politicians and their cronies interest to keep these people dependent on them, the more poor the more votes. This is proven by the fact that in spite of all the increases in social programs the poverty list keeps growing.

We are losing more of our freedom everyday. The more money we send to Washington the less power we have as individuals and the more power we are giving the politicians to control us and to tell us poor devils what to do.

This is directly opposite to the intentions of our founding fathers. We have also got to close the big loop-hole, deficit spending, passing the bill to our children and future generations. If you love your country and your precious children, then do your duty as God-loving American citizens and go to the polls Nov. 5th and vote against this thankful that we live here in the U.S. - so much of the world would gladly trade places with us any day. Take an honest look at your circumstances, are you better off than you were four, ten or twenty years ago? Most of us can easily say yes, we are. We still have a society where a young person can start out with nothing, work hard and make a decent living for themselves and their family. That young person then has a responsibility to the next generation to work for a better community, state and nation. There are still many opportunities if we are willing to work. But we can accomplish nothing if we aren't willing to invest our time, talents and energy.

I urge you again to make an informed decision and VOTE!

High-resolution ultrasound may help women with breast lumps avoid unnecessary biopsies. New technique, okayed by the FDA, gives an image sharp enough that doctors can examine the lump's border, which offers clues to a tumor's malignancy.
After balloon angioplasty, the use of a heparin-coated stent to hold the arteries open avoided the need for heavy-duty anti-clotting drugs to bar restenosis, the journal Circulation reported. The stent also reduced bleeding complications.
What turns some kids into aggressive bullies? It may be exposure to low levels of lead, according to researchers at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center.

Halls Seeking 5-5 Year As It Hosts Middleton

Halls High School's Tigers have excellent prospects of closing their season 5-5 Friday as they host Middleton's Tigers in Region 7-2A.

Middleton is 1-8 for the year, 0-6 in the region.

Halls is 1-5 in the region, after a 25-8 win from McKenzie.

Halls bowed in region play last week to Union City, 21-0.

It is out of the race for the 8-team region's four play-off spots.

Middleton Squad Scant
Middleton coach Mike Stigall was 48-14 coaching junior high ball, but as head coach for the past three years, his high school squads won only four games, two of those last season.

Graduation cost the Tigers eight players from last year's squad, and another one moved.

Stigall began the season with only 19 players, and only three with significant experience.

Of Middleton's eight losses this fall, five have been shut-outs.

Westview won 70-0, McKenzie 32-0, Union City 46-0, Trenton

Peabody 62-0, and, last week, Camden, 41-0.

Middleton lost to Bolivar, 32-8, Faulkner, Miss., 30-14, and Huntington, 53-8.

Hobbs Paced Single Win

Middleton's only win, from Adamsville, 21-7, came on three fumble recoveries and two interceptions by Cory Hobbs, one interception scoring a 20-yard TD, after which he kicked the extra point.

Sophomore quarterback Gregg Crocker (5-11, 162) passed to junior back Jace Bodiford (5-11, 189) for a 3-yard TD, with senior center Chris Timms (5-10, 245) kicking the point after.

Crocker scored Middleton's other TD from the one and kicked the point after.

HOW CAN YOU PAY FOR IT?

No one bothered to ask you when Bill Clinton signed the largest tax increase in history - after promising a tax cut. Bob Dole believes it's time for Washington to pinch pennies. By trimming 1¢ from each $1 that Clinton spends, Bob Dole can balance the budget and cut taxes.

Fully phased-in plan. Based on average wage earner in each group. Assumes married couples filing jointly. Heads of households would have similar results. All tax-payers would benefit significantly from the Dole-Kemp plan. The largest benefits would accrue to working families with children.

named Benton. When she was grown, Susan Davis, who was one of the five Davis girls, married Benton Moore, and they had a little girl named Dicey, whom they called "Dicey". She was born in 1795. Benton was in the cattle business, and drove them from Lexington, Kentucky to Cincinnati.

The 1888 account reads, "One morning as he (Benton) was preparing to take off a drove of cattle, he seemed unusually sad, took leave of his father, mother and wife, he stooped down and took his child in his arms, caressing her tenderly, then placed her in his mother's arms, saying 'Mother, I want you to promise me if I never return that you will raise my child'. 60th Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. ITHMER (IKE) KISSELL, of Barr, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary with a reception, hosted by their children, at 5 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 16th in New Mitchell Grove Baptist Church, all family and friends invited, no gifts please.
Mr. and Mrs. Kissell were married on Nov. 21, 1936 by C. W. (Jack) Hardy in his home. They have been blessed with six children, ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Brevities

By Mrs. Charles Alsobrook

Susannah Brown and daughter, Hathaway, of Columbus, Miss., and Jean Spence and Dot Craddock spent Saturday and Saturday night with Dot's daughter, Jan Vogelfanger, and family in Memphis. Sunday afternoon, they joined Mary Jo Cribfield and her daughter, Jordan, and Betty Warren and her daughters, Sally and Sarah Beth, at the Orpheum Theater to see the musical, Grease.

Mrs. Charles Alsobrook visited friends, May Bell Marshall, Bob Smith and Paul Jordan in Dyersburg Manor Nursing Center Thursday of last week. May Bell was director of the Dyersburg Duplicate Bridge Club at one time. She was an excellent bridge player and we would sometimes go to tournaments in Memphis together. She has trouble remembering things now but does not suffer, and counts her blessings every day.

Bob Smith is 89 years old and certainly doesn't look his age. He was born at Chestnut Bluff. His parents were Will and Ethel Young Smith. Their children were Emma Lee Palmore (deceased), Bob, Pete (deceased), Gailon, 86, and Loraine Barksdale, of Memphis, and Buna Cook (deceased), Eva (deceased), and Dot Hunt, of Trenton and Dyersburg. When the Christian Church was built at Chestnut Bluff, the first function there was the wedding of Ethel Young to Will Smith. They lived at Chestnut Bluff for many years. Bob told me that there was a big fire there one time and his parents went to see the fire and left him, a small boy, at home. He climbed a tree as high as he could so he could see the fire too. When his family returned, he was so high up in the tree that he could not get down. They got one of the firemen's ladders to get him down. Bob went to Memphis and worked for Frank Smith and later to Dyersburg where he had a washerette and dealt in antiques and second-hand furniture. The Smith family was born and bred Republicans. Gailon married Aliene Olds Tillman, a born and bred Democrat. On one side of their yard is a Dole-Kemp-Thompson sign and on the other Clinton-Gore-Houston Gordon. Halls is decorated with harvest, Halloween and political decorations.

When I went to see Paul Jordan he told me that his pastor, The Rev. Rodney Alexander, of Halls Baptist Church, just left. Paul's daughter, Peggy Pilcher, goes to see him almost every day and then calls her mother, Waurine Sayles Jordan. Paul and Waurine lived with Paul's grandmother, Mrs. Rena Jordan, when they were first married. Paul's father was Ed Jordan and his mother was Molly Powell Jordan. Paul was a carpenter until he hurt his back, then he bought a fish market. He served several years as alderman on the Town of Halls board. Paul and Waurine had three children, Peggy Pilcher, of Dyersburg, Betty Stallcup, of Friendship, and Maurice Jordan (deceased).

OPEN HOUSE was held at the Lauderdale County Justice Center Sunday afternoon with a ribbon cutting ceremony. Attending were Lauderdale County law officials, county commissioners, employees, friends and families and Chamber of Commerce members.

Dr. Middlecoff was stationed in, of all places, Augusta, Ga. during World War II, and the members of Augusta National made him an honorary member. "They were great to me," he stated, "I played a lot of golf and I knew practically all the members. I went into the army in the Specialized Services (ASTP) and the war started while I was in dental school. Overall my army experience was good and when I left the army I held the rank of Captain."

But the smooth swinging dentist, with a pause at the top of his swing, shocked the golfing world on March 8, 1945 when he won the coveted North/South Open Pinehurst as an amateur. Because of the strong field, the North/South Open was considered a major tournament and to win as an amateur was unheard of. Everyone wanted him to turn pro (wonder if Tiger Woods can relate) but it was a career decision for Dr. Middlecoff.

"I practiced dentistry with Daddy, for 7 or 8 months, after I got out of the army. I kept my name on his office door for years," he continued, "for the first two or three years on the tour, I would take off in the fall and go down to work on patients. One day after I had won the National Open (1949 U.S. Open in Medinah, Ill.) Daddy said, 'I'm awful proud of you but quit this crap and go play golf.'"

Herman Middlecoff had been planting a seed in young Cary's mind for quite a while about a girl from Hughes, Ark. and "all I could think of was some girl jumping cotton rows. I met Edie at my daddy's dental office and when we decided to get married it couldn't have made daddy any happier." They were married March 3, 1947 and will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary next spring. "Edie was an attractive stewardess for American Airlines and her experience as a stewardess made it a lot easier on me when we were traveling on the tour because she could take care of herself. I didn't have to watch her like some guys did whose wives had never traveled. We did it for 16 years." Most people have heard about Ben Hogan's life threatening automobile accident in February 1949. Very soon after, Dr. Middlecoff and Edie went to visit him in the hospital. "We were the first one to see him in the hospital only two days after the wreck. They drove him down to New Orleans to operate on him and he was close to dying then. We were leaving Tucson, going to El Paso and Ben and his wife, Valerie, had driven for about 200 miles on a foggy road in Texas. This Greyhound bus was coming at him and he threw himself in front of Valerie to try to save her. If he had stayed in his seat the steering wheel would have killed him for sure. All the Tour players had to drive to each tournament on two lane roads because there were no freeways. When you play five straight weeks on the Tour you might have to drive 800 miles between Sunday night and Thursday.

(Conclusion next week.)

Mrs. Roger Harris spent several days last week in Memphis with her grandson, Matthew Medlock, while his parents were in Baptist Hospital East with his new little sister. Sunday guests of the Medlocks in their east. Memphis home were Roger, Robert, Rhonda and Zach Harris, all of Halls, and Bedford and Ruth Calhoun, of Germantown. Mrs. Calhoun is the former Ruth Stallings, of Halls. Jerald Daws, of Germantown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Winston Daws and Tommy Simmons Saturday.
