SHIRLEY DANCY announces her candidacy for the office of Lauderdale County Trustee.

"The position of Trustee involves the collection of all state and county taxes on property within the County and the payment of all just claims owed by the county.

"For the past seven years, I have been the City Recorder for the Town of Gates. During my tenure, I have obtained all the necessary training required by Tennessee Law for the fullfillment of my duties as City Recorder, including, becoming a Municipal Specialist in Financial Management from the University of Tennessee Center for Government Training, completing the University of Tennessee Management Training Leadership Forum, becoming a Municipal Specialist in Municipal Management and becoming a Tennessee Certified Municipal Clerk and Recorder.

"My duties for the Town of Gates include, preparing the annual budget to be approved by the Board of Aldermen, maintaining the official minutes of the Board of Aldermen meetings and seeing to the payment of bills

Charges Brought In Air Conditioner Theft

Thomas Andrew Pearson, 29, of 168 Campbell Lane, Ripley, and Ira Lee Welch, 29, of 107E Willow Creek, Ripley, were charged with aggravated burglary and theft under $500 Thursday of last week in the theft of a window air conditioner.

According to Investigators Terry Jordan and Donnell Baltimore, of the Ripley Police Dept... in informant saw them lift the window and take the appliance out of a home on Highland St. They are both being held under a $5,000 bond.

owed by our City. As recorder, as the collector of debts owed to the City of Gates, I have the opportunity to meet our residents and take the time to explain what their taxes are paying for and how we maintain our budget and provide the service we can within our budget. Also, because of the knowledge gained, I have been able to assist our elderly and disabled residents in obtaining Tax Relief offered by the State. In 1994, my office conducted a special census resulting in Gates receiving an additional $13,000 in revenues.

"As a resident of Gates, I am involved with my community. This includes being president of the Community Club, conducting the annual Birthday Celebration, member of the Public Library board and working with JTPA to hire our youth during the summer months.

"I'm Shirley Dancy. I want to be your next Lauderdale County Trustee. I have the necessary training but I will also bring to this office the personality necessary to conduct our county's business.

JAMES T. ARWOOD, JR. announces his candidacy for the position of Lauderdale County Commissioner, District 6.

* "A native of Lauderdale County I currently serve as Sergeant First class with Ripley's 268th MP Company of the Tennessee Army National Guard. I hold a degree in supervisory management from Hawaii Pacific University. For the past eight years I have been employed with Marvin Windows and Doors of Tennessee where I am maintenance manager.

"I am seeking this position because I believe all the citizens in the Sixth District and this county desire to have a voice in the issues and concerns that face Lauderdale County. As a land and homeowner, I am interested in how tax dollars are being spent and how Lauderdale County is using its natural and economic resources to ensure continued growth and prosperity for future generations. I believe more attention must be paid to education and those problems encountered in our schools today so the children of this county will receive the best possible education in the safest possible environment.

"I am married to the former Johna Harrell, we have four children, Jimmy, 15; Jessica, 13; Heather, 9; and Virginia, 8. I pledge to listen to the opinions and concerns of the people in District 6 and work toward a better Lauderdale County for everyone.

Congratulations!

Kristen Moore
Tennessee Association FFA Reporter

Even a bank can't measure dedication in dollars and cents. That's why we would like to salute Kristen Beth Moore, because she has shown that dedication and a can-do attitude really makes a difference.

Kristen, a member of the Halls FFA Chapter, was selected to represent the State of Tennessee as State Reporter on the 98-99 Officer Team. Kristen feels her involvement in her local FFA chapter and the guidance of her advisor, Claire Hammond, has been very instrumental in preparing her for a future in agriculture.

The daughter of Mike and Donna Moore, of Gates, Kristen will be attending the University of. Tennessee at Knoxville this fall, pursuing a degree in pre-veterinary medicine.

Yard Signs and Candidates Are Replacing The Cicadas

It happens only every two or four years, but seems that it increases in scope and size each time that it arrives. "It" is the local and state elections that seem to come around faster each time. This year, August 6 is primary day and the yard signs are out as thick as cicadas were a few weeks ago. They are just as annoying as the big red eyed bugs and number only a few hundred less in most areas.

People have become obsessed with yard signs when it comes to cam-Candidates are spending hundreds of dollars for signs that display their names. Each red, white and blue sign cost a candidate a minimum of five

Please join with me in the celebration of our country's independence. The fundamental right of all Americans is the right to vote. Please exercise this right on August 6, 1998.

Our country has the greatest criminal justice system in the world. Although it seems unfair at times, it is still the envy of the world. The constitution of the United States of America guarantees due process for all citizens.

Sometimes it seems that justice takes forever. As sheriff, just as you . . . it is frustrating to arrest a person and have them post bond the next day or even that night. However, that is a fundamental constitutional right in which many have fought and died to protect.

This July 4th remember those who have fought and died for our freedom and never take your right to vote for granted.

15th Tomato Festival Continues Tradition

The 15th Annual Lauderdale County Tomato Festival begins Thursday. It will be held at a new location this year, the new Ripley Park. The festival began in 1984 and is a tribute to the Lauderdale County Tomato Growers.

There are several new activities and events at this year's festival. Famous blues artist, Little Milton will be performing Saturday night. The kids will enjoy a petting zoo and a carnival.

Opening ceremonies start at 9 a.m. Thursday at the Park's main stage. There will be arts, crafts, music and lots of entertainment, never a dull moment, just fun, fun, fun.

This years Tomato Growers of the Year are Johnie and Regina Ford, of Curve.

Produce and festival T-shirts will be on sale at the chamber booth throughout the festival.

See The Lauderdale County Enterprise's and The Halls Graphic special section for more information on the festival.

School Immunization Requirement Change

All children entering a school quired to present the following documents to school authorities registration: 1) birth certificate; 2) proof of medical examination; 3) Social Security number; and 4) proof of required immunizations.

for school have changed for school year 1998-99. Children entering 5-year-old kindergarten, fourth, eighth and twelfth grade and/or those entering college this fall will be required to have a second dose of MMR (measles, mumps, rubella vaccine) to enter school.

Parents are urged to begin now fulfilling requirement needed for their children to attend school this fall according to Marsha Rice, R.N., of the Lauderdale County Department. She says, "Putting this off leads to delays, confusion, last minute rushes and long lines as the school term begins. Enrollment and school attendance will be delayed if immuniza tions are not current."

Some children entering school this fall may not be adequately immunized as required by Tennessee law and will not be allowed to attend. Parents should have their children immunized now and avoid the long lines in late July and August. Further information from the health department, 635-9711.

Readers Speak

The FSA (Farm Services Agency) is an entity of the U.S. government which makes decisions and carries out certain important programs related to farm activities. As participants, the farmers are represented by elected committeemen. Recently, in Lauderdale County, a fiasco occurred when two of these committeemen were 'suspended' and replaced. No doubt, the replacements are of high integrity and ability. However, the manner in which this action took place is wrong, wrong, wrong!

Was the suspension because of criminal activities? Then why have no charges been made?

Was the suspension because of failure to do a job? They why have no complaints been lodged?

Could the suspension be because of their failure to act as political puppets and rubber stamping the decisions put before them? So far, evidence supports this last supposition. Nevertheless, these men were elected and should continue to serve until such time as they are replaced by the electorate. Shades

I Will Do The Job!

Friends, I am a candidate for Sheriff in the August 6th election. I have been a resident of Lauderdale County for 56 years. I am married to Marilyn Bruce Craig. She was formerly employed with Farmers Union Bank for 24 years and presently is with InSouth Bank in Brownsville. Marilyn and I have been married for 35 years. We have two children and five grandchildren.

My wife and I have been members of the Hee Haw cast for six years, participated in Relay for Life, Special Olympics and other community projects. Marilyn and I are members of Mary's Chapel Baptist Church.

I have 15 years experience as a State Trooper, an agent for the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and past Sheriff of Lauderdale County. I have attended numerous schools and have been trained on narcotics, accident investigation, driver control, financial responsibility, riot control and firearm handling. I contracted with the Tennessee Department of Tourism to maintain five rest areas in the state and had direct supervision of 35 men.

- Elected Sheriff 24 years ago, I was one of the youngest Sheriffs to be elected then in the State of Tennessee. I now have the maturity, wisdom and leadership capability, which we so desperately need in our county. I have very serious concern for the many problems we face in the coming years. The safety and welfare of all citizens are foremost. Our children are our most important assets and their lives must be enhanced with education to the dangers of drugs and other dangerous activities. I will do my duty and fulfill my obligaton to our children. My goals, aspirations and priorities are the same as all law-abiding people in our county.
- All law enforcement agencies in our county will be treated with respect and will be fully involved with the Sheriff Department in working together to make this county, our home, a better place to live and raise our children. A house divided cannot stand!
- My campaign will involve making direct personal contact with you, the people of Lauderdale County. I want to answer your questions, and, most of all, to give you an honest forthright answer. This is a large county. If I fail to talk to you individually, it is not intentional. I welcome your phone calls. I would like to take this opportunity to humbly ask for your vote and support on August. 6th. I will do the job! Thank you.

Healthy Tomato

The tomato is the most important processed vegetable, constituting over 23 pounds of the 54 pounds of processed vegetables the average American consumes each year:

Tomatoes are the most widely used canned vegetable in the United States;

Canned tomatoes are one of the most popular convenience cooking ingredients because they are available in a wide variety of styles, flavors, textures, blends and sizes and can be used to cook entrees, salads, soups, appetizers, condiments and even breakfast foods; Because processed tomatoes are consumed in so many foods, aside from the potato, tomatoes contribute the greatest amount of nutrients to the American diet;

California grows 90 percent of processed tomatoes in the United States; and Hunt Foods Company is the largest processor of processed tomatoes in the United States.

Rich in potassium and vitamins A and C. One medium-sized tomato provides about half of the required daily allowance of vitamin C for adults; A good source of protein, most of which is found in the seeds; Low in fat and calories and cholesterol free; A source of fiber; and Nature's richest source of lycopene.

Tomatoes naturally contain phytochemicals and antioxidant vitamins such as vitamin A and lycopene. Lycopene is an antioxidant that gives the tomato its characteristic red color. The redder the tomato, the higher the level of lycopene. Since processed tomatoes are generally ripened on the vine, they are an excellent source of lycopene. In fact, tomatoes are nature's richest source of lycopene, with one tomato providing 10 mg lycopene. It is also found naturally in watermelons and pink grapefruits.

Lycopene belongs to the carotenoid family which includes beta-carotene, a compound found in carrots which is also believed to help prevent disease.

Lycopene is twice as abundant in food as beta-carotene and is the most abundant carotenoid in the prostate gland. Recent medical research suggests that lycopene may help protect against certain forms of cancer.

tomatoes have been suggested in earlier research, a recently released study by the Harvard School of Public Health suggests that men who eat 10 or more servings a week of tomato-based foods such as tomato sauce are up to 45 percent less likely to develop prostate cancer. A report on the study was published December 6, 1995, in the Journal of the National Cancer Institute.

The six-year study, led by Dr. Edward Giovannucci, followed the dietary habits of 47,000 men. Researchers found that tomato and tomato products accounted for almost 90 percent of the lycopene in the diet of the men studied.

Cooked tomato products were identified as being more protective than juice or raw tomatoes. Tomato sauce was the most strongly associated with a lower prostate cancer risk because absorption of lycopene in the body is improved by cooking.

Additional research is being conducted to understand the role of lycopene in disease prevention. Since it is uncertain how effective current treatments are against cancer, it is critically important to find ways to lower the risk through diet

Previous studies have also linke copene to a reduced risk of cancer.

For example:

A study released in 1994 by Dr. Franceschi at the University of Milan suggested that people who ate seven or more servings per week of tomato based products had only half the risk of digestive tract cancers (mouth, stomach, colon and rectum).

A study released by Dr. Vaneenwyk at the University of Illinois in 1990 suggested that women with the highest levels of lycopene had a five times lower level of developing cervical cancer.

Lauderdale County Tomato Festival

There are some 50 growers of tomatoes in Lauderdale County. Almost 1200 acres of Lauderdale County farmland are planted in tomatoes for the 1998 season. This labor intensive crop, using the latest technology, enables these specialty producers to not only produce income, but also enjoy working with the soil.

Staked plants grown on highly productive soils develop large fruits which ripen to a flavorful deep red color. Lauderdale County tomatoes are a favorite throughout the Eastern United States. Direct marketing to stores, brokers and fruit stands with long-standing customers enable growers to provide the grade and color these markets desire.

1998 FCE Tomato Tasting Approaches

By Jane H. Connell

FCE members are gearing up for the largest FCE Tomato Tasting yet. The annual FCE Tomato Tasting will be held Friday, July 10th, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Family Life Center of First Baptist Church, 107 Lafayette Street, Ripley. The FCE Tomato Tasting has become a high point of the Tomato Festival over the past few years attracting people from all over West Tennessee. They come to taste Terry Ford's Green Tomato Pie, Jane Connell's Tennessee Cornbread Salad and Garlic Creamies and those Fried Green Tomatoes. Due to last year's large crowd, the tasting has been moved from Carney Hall at the Bank of Ripley, host for the past five years, to the Family Life Center of First Baptist Church in Ripley.

The Tomato Tasting will feature over 25 recipes from Lauderdale County Recipes Featuring Ripley Tomatoes, Volumes I and II. Tickets at $3 will allow participants to sample any and all dishes.

In addition to the Tasting, exhibits have been added this year. Participants will get to look at an array of home-canned tomato products as well as store-purchased products. A canning exhibit will be on display with canning and freezing publications available free by the UT Agricultural Extension

HISTORY OF THE TOMATO

From

The Great Tomato Cookbook

By Mike Michaelson Great Lakes Living Press 1975

From humblest beginnings as an irksome weed, the tomato — the fruit of the lycopersicun esculentum — has beat a tempestuous path into the lofty realm of la haute cuisine and into the kitchens of millions. To reach this zenith of universal popularity, the tomato has survived, in its journey from the New World to the Old and back again, many unjust slurs against its character, perpetrated by careless translators, over-zealous botanical cataloguers and misdirected herbalists. Against all odds, this much-maligned plant struggled to convince its early detractors that it is not a potent aphrodisiac, a deadly poison or even merely an attractive ornamental plant.

Its earliest cultivation is believed to have occurred in Peru, where it was highly regarded in cookery and as a subject for decorating pottery. But it was from Mexico that it got its modern name and shaky introduction into early European cuisine.

Maize, ground into a paste and cooked over a fire into tortillas, was the dietary mainstay of the Mexican Aztecs. Cultivation was tough and weeds flourished in the maize fields. Among the weeds that aggravated Aztec farmers as they toiled under the hot sun, was the tomato-vine. Eventually, some adventurous farmer, perhaps tired of a bland, dreary diet of maize, sampled the fruit of this vine—and survived. Soon, thin strips of green tomato, a plant now known as xtomatle or xitomate, were being incorporated into Aztec cookery, while ripened fruit was found in partnership with hot chili peppers in a pungent sauce that enlivened dull bean dishes.

Then, in 1519, Hernando Cortes and his cruel conquistadores swept through Aztec Mexico in a ruthless search for gold. One kind of gold the foraging Spaniards discovered was the tomato, early varieties of which were yellow.

Cortez brought the tomato vine to Spain, where, because of its resemblance to an apple, it was known as manzana (apple). At first, the golden tomato was regarded mostly for its decorative value. Eventually, a cook at the Royal Spanish Court, who, in kinship with that enterprising Aztec farmer, had an active culinary curiosity, decided that these inviting yellow apples might be eaten. Using tomatoes, olive oil, onions and seasonings, this chef concocted a sauce that became, among the Moors (as Spaniards at that time were widely known), a popular accompaniment for meats.

As pomi dei Moro (apples from the Moors), the tomato made the journey into Morocco, and from there to Italy. There, the tomato also became known as pomo d'oro (golden apples) and was happily embraced and lustily tossed into salads, sauces and thick, peppery soup.

It was then that sex raised its ugly head. The story has it that a Frenchman dining at an Italian table was presented a dish containing tomatoes. Sampling the strange, pleasing vegetable, he inquired of its name. "Pomi dei Moro," answered his host. Translating the phonetics of this name to French, the visitor derived the spurious, but similar-sounding, pommes d'amour (love apple).

It was under this amorous appellation that France cautiously became acquainted with the tomato. But in sampling its sweet flesh, the French were ever-wary of more lascivious temptations of the flesh that consumption of the notorious love apple might arouse. In fact, in the France of that day it became a custom to present tomatoes as tokens of love.

It was in the mid-Sixteenth century that the herbalists, those creators and dispensers of allegedly-medicinal potions derived from plants, got into the act. They managed to compound the already-severe identity problem of the tomato. With a penchant for classifying new botanical specimens and a continuing quest to uncover their therapeutic potential, early botanists, such as the Italian, Pierandrea Mattioli, linked the tomato with various poisonous plants, notably those of the deadly nightshade family.

But despite dire forebodings of love and death, the tomato steadily gained acceptance in the kitchens of Europe, and by the Eighteenth Century, even the cautious English were about ready to concede. Until then, the role of the tomato in England had been purely aesthetic, as a popular adornment for ornamental trellises. But attitudes were changing. In his Cardener's Dictionary, published in 1752, eminent horticulturist Philip Miller wrote of the much-maligned tomato: "The Italians and Spaniards eat these apples as we do cucumbers with pepper, oil, and salt, and some eat them in sauces, etc.; and in Soups they are now much used in England. This fruit gives an agreeable acid to the Soup; though there are some persons who think them unwholesome from their great Moisture and Coldness..."

Eventually, the English endorsed the tomato more whole-heartedly, and, to overcome the handicap of the island's dismal climate, developed extensive hothouse culture of the plant. The French, meanwhile, slowly came to discredit the tomato's reputation as an aphrodisiac and, by the 1850's, even discriminating Parisians adopted tomatoes into their cuisine, spurred by Empress Eugenie, a Spaniard, who imported tomato-inspired dishes from her homeland.

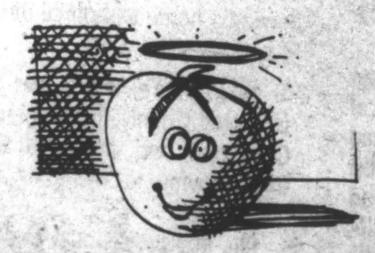

Under Italy's clear blue skies and long hours of sunshine, tomato plants flourished and produced a matchless abundance of firm, ripe fruit, which provided foundation for the nation's famous spicy, rich sauces. From fishing villages along the coast, there evolved a fish soup, colored red with tomatoes and seasoned with rosemary, basil and fennel harvested from the slopes of nearby mountains.

In North America, where perhaps the tomato has reached the pinnacle of its popularity, it was not until the mid-Nineteenth Century that the vegetable began to be used extensively in cookery. Although Thomas Jefferson grew tomatoes in Virginia as early as 1781, the cultivation of the plant as an edible vegetable went into eclipse until the 1830's.

Its unwarranted unsavory reputation had reached the United States and the tomato was widely eschewed as a food, particularly by prudent Northeasterners. The propagation of this slander against the tomato led one Colonel Robert Giddon Johnson, in 1820, to publicly consume tomatoes on the steps of the courthouse at Salem, New Jersey. His "daring feat" — and his survival of it — doubtlessly helped explode the myth of the "poisonous" love apple.

Cultivation on a commercial scale began in the Southern United States just before the turn of the century and blossomed, literally, into a vital money crop, particularly in Florida, Mississippi and Texas. In the northern states, cultivation under glass developed rapidly and the tomato emerged as a valuable forced crop.

Today, with the advocation of natural foods and soaring food prices, backyard gardens are enjoying a new surge of popularity, reminiscent of the victory gardens of World War II, with the tomato prized as the most common home-grown vegetable. Over the centuries, the once-forlorn and languishing love apple has become a fruit that is, indeed, much loved.

(Preserving Tomatoes)

Freezing: Tomatoes can be frozen successfully. It is true that fresh, ripe tomatoes don't freeze well. But if there is a good supply of tomatoes and freezer space, freeze them stewed or as juice.

Canning: Tomatoes can be water bathed or pressured following the instructions in "Canning Foods," PB 742, available at your local Extension office.

* TOMATOES CANNOT BE CANNED BY OPEN KETTLE METHOD! If you do not have a 1990 or later canning book, you need to obtain one. Many changes have been made, one of which is adding ascorbic acid to home-canned tomatoes. (The reason ascorbic acid is being added is because the new hybrid varieties have less acid than older varieties.)

Dried: Many gourmet recipes currently feature sundried tomatoes. These are just dried tomatoes. You can prepare them yourself using a dehydrator.

This publication features tested recipes from District I Extension home economists. We hope that you enjoy this information and be sure to visit your local Extension office for other information.

SALSA, the Mexican word for sauce, refers to sauces intended to make food look and taste better. These spunky little sauces are guaranteed to tickle your taste buds--literally. Sometimes the sensation comes from the combination of tomatoes and fiery jalapeno peppers, or perhaps it's simply the play of the cold salsa with hot food when you spoon it over vegetables or meat. That's the beauty of salsas. Freshness. Variety. Simplicity.

IT'S TOMATO TIME

The hot days of summer; oh, what a bummer, When the cotton is high, and the corn's laid by. Tomatoes hang heavy and ripe on the vine, All else aside, it's now canning time! It was on such a day, in a light hearted way, The FCE girls met at the Lauderdale County cannery. With a peck of peppers; red, yellow and green, Bushels of Ripley tomatoes, the best ever seen, Vegetable varieties, both old and new, Now came decisions of just what to do. We'll each do our part, but not for the flattery. Blanch slipped the skins; Olive measured the oil; With vinegar and spices; it came to a boil. They sang as they simmered, sauteéd and stirred. Where were the others? Willing hands they preferred. Sugar arrived all chic and brown from the sun; With onions and garlic, her work to be done, She settled down and dissolved in a heap, With tears in her eyes, she began to weep. Blanch came with a towel; Olive dried the tears. My goodness! At this rate, we'll be here for years! The stirring had stopped! The wooden spoon stuck! Olive was blamed for this stroke of bad luck. Blanch turned quite red; Sugar just disappeared. Turning off the flame, Dear Patience appeared. "No one is to blame, the batch is still good." Dipping from the top, gaily changed the mood. They ladled, they dipped; into hot jars they did pour Now under pressure; they relish with glee, a hot water bath and a Bloody Mary. C'est la vie! Ce-le-ry! Cool as a cucumber in the juice of a lime, For such is the joy of Tomato Time!

Tomatoes come in a bewildering array of varieties—early, late, big, little, round or pear-shaped, medium-size to oversize. Tiny cherries to giant beefsteaks, pink and orange, yellow and red

If you think of it, chances are some zealous grower has produced it and some progressive seed dealer sells it. All in all, over 100 varieties of tomatoes are being sold and grown in the United States — a variety for every need and every purpose.

Some are ideal for canning. Others shine at juicing or pickling or preserving. Some tomatoes are superpiquant and thus made-to-order for sauces, pastes and purées. Still others are suited for use in salads or sandwiches. And some expecially versatile varieties are equally competent

Above all, tomatoes are adaptable. Lots of space? Plant a combination of early, midseason and late tomatoes for the longest possible harvest. Limited space? Try indeterminate types which, when staked or pruned, require less room. Problem soil? There are attractive and flavorful varieties for every growing condition ... even productive ornamental varieties especially designed to flourish in containers or to climb trellises, and there is even a tree

A close relative—the Husk Tomato (also called the Ground Cherry or Pohaberry)—grows just like a tomato and yields cherry-size fruit ideal for jams. New varieties boast improved flavor and appearance and are especially resistant to soil-borne disease.

To help you through the maze, I have listed a number of varieties and their general characteristics. This listing is not meant to be an unqualified endorsement... merely a helpful guide. Most are varieties you will find in catalogues, seed racks or in the form of seedlings found at your friendly neighborhood garden center. The list is not complete... nor could it ever be since new varieties are constantly being developed and introduced.

The rule of thumb in choosing varieties is to buy only named, disease-resistant seeds or seedlings that fit your soil and climatic conditions. If your growing season is short, for example, you should choose early and early-midseason types. Then you should be influenced by the space you have available and your family needs. When in doubt about any of these considerations, consult your county agricultural extension service or rely on the advice of your

Red Ripe and Ready

Tomatoes are nature's own fast food. Their bold color and delicate flavor are enjoyed world-wide. The tomato is native to America, with a history dating back to 700 A.D. Nothing says summer like "home grown" tomatoes. They add variety to our summer menus and are nutritious as well. One medium tomato provides over one-third of an adult's daily requirement of vitamin A and C, is low in sodium, contains no fat and has only 35 calories.

Stages of Ripeness

The best flavor comes from tomatoes that are allowed to ripen completely on the vine. Such fully ripe tomatoes have an overall rich, red color and a slight softness.

Tomatoes are fragile and cannot withstand a lot of pressing or poking to determine ripeness.

Look for tomatoes that are:

- Firm, but well ripened to insure flavor.
- · Free from blemishes to reduce waste and safeguard flavor.
- Of good color depending on variety
- · Fairly well formed for serving attractive slices or whole tomatoes

State Merging Fort Pillow

Prison Beds; No Job Loss

By year's end, the state plans to "mothball" the 60-year-old main building of the Cold Creek Correctional Facility (formerly Fort Pillow State Prison) and move prisoners into the new prison being built across the street, north of Hwy. 87 west of Henning.

Donal Campbell, Correction Commissioner, says the 526 beds being closed cost $52 a day; in the new, 1,536-bed prison, he estimates $38.

The old prison will keep its 150-bed minimum security annex and its license Report Plantings To plate manufacturing plant,

Hwy. Commission Cut To 2; Pay Hiked 16%

County Commissioners voted Monday, 19-5, not to fill the vacancy on the Highway Commission created by the death, in February, of Douglas Collins.

To the two surviving Highway Commissioners, who have absorbed Collins' duties--Roland Henderson and Billy Spiller--the CC approved payment of an extra $500 per month, since February, above their annual salaries of $31,031 each, and a new annual salary of $36,031--a 16% increase in pay.

The next state legislature will be asked to officially cut the Highway Commission from three members to two.

Three Highway Commissioners traditionally managed the north, central, and south parts of the county.

Henderson and Spiller say they'll respond equally to any need, anywhere.

Voting against the plan were County Commissioners Akin Barnes, Mike Martin, Eugene Pugh, Robert Steelman, and Carol Woodley. Roy Cook, Jr., was absent.

TOWN OF HALLS Service Notice

The Town of Halls will be collecting your yard waste. To help us help you keep our town clean we ask that you follow these basic guidelines:

- . ' All yard waste must be placed at the curb by 7:00 a.m. on your regular sanitation route pick-up day. Yard waste quantities, weather and equipment break-downs will affect time of collection.
- NO household appliances or furniture will be collected.
- We cannot collect tires, auto batteries, motor oil or toxic
- The Town of Halls will not pick up construction, remodeling or demolition debris, carpet scraps or tree surgeon/landscaping debris. You should have this removed by your contractor.
- For safety reasons, no 55 gallon drum-type containers will be picked up.
- All leaves, grass clippings, small twigs, wood shavings, etc., must be in tied plastic garbage bags and may not exceed forty-five (45) pounds in weight.
- All limbs and branches must be cut so as not to exceed five (5) feet in length and three (3) inches in diameter. Small limbs must be tied into bundles not weighing more than fifty (50) pounds. They must be placed along the curb and stacked such as fire wood is stacked and not thrown into a pile. This is most important if you want it to be picked up.

WRONG

We truly hope this will help you in preparing your yard waste. Please remember that following these guidelines will help control costs for the tax and rate payers of the Town of Halls.

Cindy Cates Wins Grant From UTM

Jacinda Leanne Cates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny T. Cates, of 6035 Curve-Nankipoo Road, has won a Bakers/Honors Day scholarship for 1998-99 at the University of Tennessee in Martin, where she is majoring in economics.

An adult peacock's train contains 150 feathers.

- * Do you want equal treatment of the law for everyone? ELECT
 - * Do you want, as your next Sheriff, someone who knows the law and how to enforce it?
 - * Do you want a Sheriff that can and will work together with all law enforcement agencies?
 - * Do you want a Sheriff that WILL be seen and WILL be there for you?

I will work closer with the school officials, teachers, parents and students to help rid our school system of guns, drugs and violence so our children will not be afraid to get an education.

I am not going to be an office Sheriff. I will be out in the community working with the patrolmen and the citizens to make this county a safer place. I will be there on all types of felony cases. I will assist my officers in working all types of crimes. You will see the Sheriff of Lauderdale County as well as the Chief Deputy. Our officers will conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner.

If elected Sheriff I will not have any family members employed, nor will I change all of the present staff. I wil change the positions of the present staff to better serve the citizens of Lauderdale County.

While going door to door with the citizens of this county have learned that many of you have had to call upon the Sheriff's Department for assistance and have yet to be seen by them. I, want you to know that if you call upon our office WE WILL BE THERE.

All present programs such as DARE, Neighborhood Watch, etc. will still be kept intact and we will continue to better each of these programs.

I am not going to tell you I will get rid of drugs and gangs in this county. I can tell you I will do everything possible to combat the war on drugs and gangs in this county. No one can erase the presence of drugs in our society, but we can put forth our best effort and erase a little at a time, one by one.

Before you vote for the next Sheriff of Lauderdale County, think and decide for yourself what type of person you want for your next Sheriff and how you would like our county to be seen. If you answered yes to the above questions, then vote and support STEVE SANDERS as your next Sheriff of Lauderdale County. You, the citizens, have an important say in what happens in your county.

Latest U.S. Census Bureau figures (as of July 1, 1997) estimate Lauderdale County's population as 24,161, up 2.9% from the 1990 census figure of 23,491.

Only eight other counties, of 95, show lower growth rates-closely matched Decatur and Jackson, 2.8%, and Weakley, 2.7%; Haywood, 1.9%; Clay, Obion, and Pickett, 1.3%; and Hancock, 1.0%.

But this county leads the state in percentage decline of its residents more than 65 years of age.

In the 1990 census, they were listed as 3,499. Latest estimate 3,124, off 10.7%.

Of 14 other counties showing a reduction in senior numbers, closest rivals are Clay, 8.9%, and Crockett, 8.8%.

Others are Haywood, 6.2%.
Jackson, 5%. Lake, 4.8%, Dyer, 4.4%. Hancock, 3.1%. Trousdale, 2.6%. Pickett, 2.2%.
Weakley, 2.1%. Gibson, 1.6%, Van Buren, 1.4%. Decatur, 7%, and Carroll, 5%.

and Carroll. 5%.

State Figures Favorable

State-wide. census estimates jump 10.1%. to 5.368.198 (17th of 50 states. 14th in growth).

That compares with 6.2% in the 1980s and 16.9% in the 1970s.
In 12 "Southeastern" States, including Arkansas. West Virginia. and all states east. Tennessee's growth rate is led only by Georgia (15.6%). Florida (13.3%). and North Carolina (12%).

Tennessee is trailed by Virginia. 8.8%. South Carolina. 7.9%. Arkansas. 7.3%. Alabama. 6.9%. Kentucky and Mississippi, 6%.

he was right. Let me rephrase that. All of the time he was right.

I have heard him say, "Put one boy doing a job and you have one boy. Put two boys doing a job and you end up with a half boy, and put three boys doing a job and you end up with a half boy, and put three boys doing a job and you end up with no boy." Yes, he knew us pretty well.

When it was too wet to work in the fields, there was usually a fence row that needed cutting out or there was not something that I had uttered those words, it is certain that either mother or father would have found me something to do.

Yes, many times this meant those days was working along hours and some hard work, but the greatest thing that I can remember complaining that I was bored. I knew better. If I had uttered those words, it is certain that either would not do himself. He led and taught us by example, which is something I don't see as much of himself. He led and taught us by example, which is something I don't see as much of have as mort lend itself to opportunities allowing children to work along side their parents.

True. We don't have as many people doing hand labor on the farm as we did when I was a youngster, but the stressing of the importance of working hard is not being taught as much as it was in years past. I can remember the feeling of being extremely tired after a

Cop Grilled In Arrest Of Halls Lad Resigns

Three days after a Jackson Police Department hearing for Mark Peddy, one of its officers since September, 1996, he resigned.

He was accused of excessive force in the arrest of Antonio Patrick, 19, of Halls, April 11th, in the Old Hickory Mall at 2021 N. Highland Ave., on a charge of simple possession of marijuana.

A fellow officer said Peddy slammed Patrick into a patrol car three times. Another police report said Peddy forced Patrick to "walk bent over by applying force to his handcuffed arms and tripped him, causing a fall."

"I turned around," Patrick said, "after I was cuffed, and the officer put one hand on the cuffs and the other on the back of my head and slammed my head against the car a couple of times."

"I did not physically slam him," Peddy said. "I pushed him up against it [the car] and ... I did lean

Patrick escaped serious injury.

Announces

MIKE MARTIN announces his candidacy for re-election as county commissioner for the seventh district.

"I am a life-long resident of Lauderdale County. My wife, Linda, and I have two children, Scott and Pamela. I am a member of Melville United Methodist Church.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank the voters of the seventh district for allowing me to serve as county commissioner for the past four years and would appreciate the opportunity to serve you again. I feel I have served the citizens of the seventh district to the best of my ability. I have listed to the concerns of the people and have been their voice in county government.

"I am very concerned with our children's education and the growth of our community. These are very important issues. If reelected I will strive for the continued betterment of our county.

"I ask for your vote and support on August 6th.

Unopposed

RICHARD JENNINGS announces his candidacy for re-election as Circuit Court Clerk.

"I have been Circuit Court Clerk, Lauderdale County, for the past 17 years. During this time, I successfully completed many State of Tennessee educational seminars related to the administration of your Clerk's office. These seminars have kept me current with changing laws and guidelines that govern the offices of Circuit Court and General Sessions Court Clerk.

"I feel honored to be unopposed this election year and pledge to continue serving you, the citizens of Lauderdale County, in a professional manner.

"Your complimentary vote would be greatly appreciated."

Did you know you can heal a chronic wound by applying pressure in the right place?

If you think you've tried everything to heal your wound, you haven't called Methodist Wound Care Center.

The Methodist Wound Care Center specializes in treating nonhealing wounds caused by diabetes, poor circulation, pressure, or surgical ncisions that haven't healed. Our highly trained doctors and nurses use a comprehensive approach to help heal wounds that resist other forms of treatment. So if you suffer from a nonhealing wound or sore, don't wait another day. Ask your doctor about the Methodist Wound Care Center, or give us a call. And get the help you need.

To The Citizens of Lauderdale County

Friends, sometimes the truth and facts hurt. The local papers carried an article written by me responding to our present Sheriff's promises that he made in 1994. The words were taken directly from his own article that he placed on July 7, 1994 and again on August 3, 1994. I did not place these promises in the papers. He did! If anyone wants to read these articles they are available. Simply put, the people deserve the truth. The past 4 years verify the article I placed in the papers July 15, 1998. There are no sub-stations, no mobile crime unit, no Cadet program (Boy Scouts are not a part of our school system; they are a fine organization that started way before the sheriff was born).

Janelle Buckner, of Halls, rep resentative for the Honeywell

Now, to more facts; prior sheriffs have had problems with jail certification in the past due to the dilapidated condition of the old jail. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to certify a multi-million dollar facility. We, the hard-working tax-payers of Lauderdale County, along with a visionary County Court, and a strong County Executive, funded a brand new Justice Complex with jail facilities that enabled certification to be accomplished. Many fine people contributed ideas, and most of all, their tax dollars are paying for the Justice Complex. One man alone did not accomplish this. We, the people of this county, deserve some credit, don't you

Lawsuits filed since 1994 have been a serious drain on our county with several hundred thousand dollars being paid out to employees, lawyers, and court costs. A sheriff must know his limitations when he is entrusted with the very important administrative duties that this office holds.

We must get behind words and promises! Learn the truth and on August 6th, Elect A Good Sheriff!

I Will Do The Job!

My wife and I would like to take this time to thank the people of Lauderdale County for the warm response we have received from all of you. I appreciate the cold drinks and warm hospitality.

I am running for sheriff because I can and will do a good job. As I have matured I have generated some ideas I know will make this county a better place to live. We need public cooperation and compliance every day, just so we can do our basic job: ENFORCE LAWS, KEEP THE PEACE, PROVIDE SERVICES. People are losing faith in the criminal justice system.

I want the community and the sheriff's office working together. The new census we just received showed that we have about 24,000 residents in this county. After the election, I would like to have everyone's support regardless of their vote. We need to work together.

The sheriff's office has received some bad press over the last 4 years. I would also like to say that there are several good employees that do a good job everyday, but this office must be handled like a business. I have been in business for over 20 years and have supervised many employees since being your sheriff. I know and understand due process and civil rights. This county lost several hundred thousand dollars to poor administrative decisions. We are not living in the 60's and 70's anymore. This office should and will be treated as a business should, after all, it is your tax dollars paying for it. Nothing is worse in the support of the criminal justice system than conduct which persuades the public to believe that employees violate the very laws they enforce.

I WILL HAVE FAIR POLICIES AND PROCEDURES.

- WILL HAVE INSIGHT TO INTERNAL PROBLEMS AND TAKE RESPONSIBILITY.
- I WILL INVESTIGATE ALL COMPLAINTS AND STAY IN TOUCH WITH THE PEOPLE.
- WILL HAVE DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES THAT ARE THOROUGH, FAIR AND OPEN TO ALL.
- I WILL POLICE OURSELVES AS WELL AS OTHERS.

I WILL INSTITUTIONALIZE ETHICS INTO THE DEPARTMENT.

I WILL PRACTICE WHAT I PREACH.

Doing what one is supposed to do is the first step in establishing credibility and trust. I believe that police officers be no better than the society that produces them and reflects its prejudices. However, they need to know and understand the needs of the community if they are to use their discretion wisely, showing proper care and concern for all.

I pledge to you today that I will be a working sheriff. I will not be in the office or courtroom all the time. I will be available to the citizens of this county at all times. The entire county will know and see me because I will be assisting my officers on all types of crimes. My chief deputy will not be another secretary in the sheriff's office. He or she will not have set office hours. The chief will work when and where he is needed. My chief and I will have an open door policy and our phone numbers will be available to every citizen of this county.

I have not engaged in negative politics during this campaign, nor have I slandered other candidates. I will continue to run a positive campaign. I encourage others to investigate and separate fact from fiction of things that have been and will be talked about during this election. I have walked all over this county and will continue to do so until election day. I have received support from people that have never supported me in the past. I have not promised to fire or hire anyone. I have not obligated myself to any person or special interest group. I will be obligated to every citizen of this county and will do the job that is expected of me. I hope to see each and everyone of you personally before the election. If I fail to contact you, I would like to use this opportunity to ask for your vote and support on August 6th.

Sincerely,

Land Craig

Four years ago I asked the citizens of this county to elect me sheriff. I promised this county I would be a leader, I would be ethical and I would have a professionally run office and jail. I promised an allout effort to enforce the law, cooperation with the cities, schools and communities to make this a better place to live and raise a family. I believe I have kept these promises and humbly ask for your vote and support on August 6th for re-election.

As we approach the next century the proper foundation has been laid. I believe my office has built a solid foundation of hard work, ethics, organization, accountability and leadership for greater success in the century to come. Now, more than ever, we need character, leadership and proven experience. We need a sheriff who has shown he can set goals, work with all people and get those goals accomplished.

When I was elected sheriff four years ago there were several goals I set for myself and my staff. THE FIRST GOAL WAS TO GET THE COURT ORDER, IMPOSED BEFORE I WAS SHERIFF. LIFTED AND GET OUR JAIL RECERTIFIED. It was important that we get organized, establish policies and procedures and keep good records. This goal was ACCOMPLISHED. ANOTHER GOAL ACCOMPLISHED was to MAKE THE JAIL AN UNPLEASANT PLACE TO SPEND TIME. There are no more tv's, no radios, no physical contact during visits and no tobacco products. All of this has been done within the letter of the law. ANOTHER GOAL WAS TO SUPPORT OUR YOUNG PEOPLE by making the DARE OFFICER A FULL-TIME POSITION and EXPANDING THE AGE GROUPS it covers. This has been DONE. DARE is a very vital and active program. We also wanted to INCREASE VISIBILITY and PINPOINT OUR COVERAGE of the county in a methodical, scientific way. We chose to ESTABLISH ZONE AND COMMUNITY PATROL PROCEDURES. We have had great response to this and find it very effective.

ANOTHER GOAL ACCOMPLISHED was to address some of the NEEDS OF OUR SENIOR CITIZENS. We ESTABLISHED NEIGHBORHOOD WATCHES in many communities. I STARTING 55-ALIVE CLASSES for our senior citizens we helped REDUCE THEIR AUTO INSURANCE.

We opened a SUB STATION IN THE NORTHERN END OF THE COUNTY and have ACCESS TO HENNING CITY HALL 24 HOURS A DAY to operate as needed. WE WORK IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CITIES.

We have had MORE DRUG ARRESTS, DUI ARRESTS AND WARRANTS SERVED than any 4 year sheriff, I firmly stand on this public record.

ANOTHER GOAL I have is to RUN A POSITIVE AND INFORMATIVE CAMPAIGN. I will not engage in negative ads, comments or attempts at slander. I believe the people of this county deserve better. I will continue to take the high road and encourage others to do likewise.

I ASK FOR YOUR VOTE BASED ON THE GOALS WE HAVE ACHIEVED, THE HARD WORK OF MY STAFF AND THE LEADERSHIP THAT HAS BEEN SHOWN. I AM VERY PROUD OF THE GOALS WE HAVE REACHED. EVERYTHING WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED IS PUBLIC RECORD.

Thank you for your words and commitment of support over the last several months as I have gone door-to-door. This last week I will continue to reach as many people as possible. With a county our size there will be those I will miss and not be able to contact. I regret this and humbly ask for your support.

PLEASE HELP ME CONTINUE TO FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT. VOTE FOR AND RE-ELECT RON RICKARD ON AUGUST 6, 1998.

"MARK" YOUR BALLOT MARK DAVIDSON FOR GENERAL SESSIONS JUDGE

Paid for by the committee to elect Mark Davidson, Debbie Escue, Treasurer.

There is no sincerer love than the love of food.

-George Bernard Shaw

To The People of Lauderdale County:

It has been an honor to serve as your trustee since 1970.

When I first came to the office, we were using bounded receipt books. Thus creating long lines of people paying their taxes. In 1971, we developed a new type of receipt. This allowed us to write addition receipts at the same time and the lines that many of you remember disappeared. Later, the State of Tennessee recommended this type of receipt to all Trustee's.

Over the years, we have instituted many changes to save time and money. In the 28 years my office staff has increased (12 of 1 person) (1 person 5 months of each year). This would be considered a small amount since the county budget has increased from approximately $3.5 million to $30 million in the same time span. We have always maintained a staff with courteous and prompt service.

I have always tried to operate the office as efficient and economical as possible. We have been able, through the use of our new computer system, to solve a problem that has always plagued Trustee's across the state. The state required that a tax notice be sent to the last known address of a person owning a piece of property on January 1st of each year. This created a problem for a new property owner.

With the help of the new computer system, we are able to notify both parties and also keep up with delinquent taxes filed with Clerk & Master. This will take a couple of years to complete, but I think it will make a major improvement. This was not possible until we installed the new computer system.

Since my election in 1970. I have been a member of the Tennessee County Trustee's Association. This is the association that promotes the senior citizens tax relief program. This program has put many thousands of dollars back into the hands of our deserving senior citizens. I am proud to be a part of this effort.

To list the many duties and responsibilities of the trustee's office would take up too much room for this article. I hope my record of public service stands for itself.

My record of community service spans almost 50 years. I joined the gospel quartet when I was 12-years-old.

I would like to congratulate my opponent for running a clean and positive campaign.

If I have not been able to see you personally and ask for your support, please let me use this article to ask you.

I need and appreciate your vote and support.

Governor Sundquist made Tennessee the first state that provides access to health insurance for all children. Childhood immunizations have reached an all-time high while infant mortality rates and teen pregnancies have fallen to all-time lows. And by consolidating and improving services to "at risk" children, preventive services have increased while children taken into custody have decreased.

Governor Sundquist is committed to improving Tennessee education at all levels. He has fully funded Tennessee's Basic Education Program and has made Tennessee the first state to connect all of its public libraries and public schools provided record funding for higher education capital improvement and maintenance programs, and is open to reforms that improve teaching and expand opportunities for student and parental choices.

Tennessee's air and water are the cleanest in 25 years. Governor Sundquist reached an agreement with the U. S. Department of the Interior and the National Park System to protect the Great Smoky Mountains from increased air pollution, and established a Clean Water Loan Fund to help communities extend and repair their water systems. The Governor also has increased budgets for park maintenance and management, added seven new state natural areas, and launched a statewide system of hiking and biking trails.

By abolishing the scandal-plagued Public Service Commission and transferring its truck safety functions to the Department of Safety, Governor Sundquist won Tennesse national recognition for highway safety. He put more troopers on the highways and created a model program to ensure that commercial vehicles are in good order and driven safely.

Governor Sundquist has improved the TennCare^{NM} program that has replaced Medicaid at a savings of about a billion dollars a year. He has cut in half the rate of growth in state government spending and has reduced the number of government positions. The state of Tennessee is also one of only nine states that has a AAA bond rating by all three bond rating agencies.

The progress of Tennessee and goals of the Sundquist Administration during the past four years have been accomplished with no new taxes, with no increases in old taxes, and with no state income tax. Moreover, targeted tax relief has been provided for farmers, senior citizens and job-creating business expansion. Financial World magazine ranks Tennessee the lowest in the nation in taxes as a percent of personal incomeal most 23% below the national average.

Governor Don Sundquist keep getting things done. Be
