WINTER CROP COVER

Dwaine Johnston, soil conservationist for the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, reported that many county farmers are protecting their land from excessive soil erosion by annual seeding of a winter cover crop.

Legume winter cover crops, such as vetch, Austrian winter peas and crimson clover, give farmers approximately 40-60 lbs./acre . Lake Drive, or call 731-635of nitrogen. Non-legume plants, such as wheat, rye and oats, are also used.

A winter cover crop also increases organic matter and water holding capacity of the soil. Johnson pointed out that the seeding of winter cover crops is not a new conservation practice, but one used by the grandparents of most of the farmers.

This application has taken on a renewed interest in recent years, with implementation of the Food Security Act and Conservation Compliance.

Johnson encourages farmers to make plans now to seed winter cover crops on their fields this fall.

911 Service Review Set

County Executive Rozelle Criner will chair a meeting Wednesday of next week to discuss "911" emergency telephone service in the county.

911 services are funded by telephone bill fees, runing about $238,000 a year, and by appropriations of $110,000 from the county, $30,000 from Halls, $10,000 from Henning, and $6,000 from Gates. Ripley funds its own local service.

BETTY RICH HENDON, second from right, in left photo, was welcomed with a reception Fri., Oct. 17th in the lobby of the Bank of Ripley, Highway 51 location. Mrs. Hendon and her husband, Drexel, of Germantown, were in the county to present copies of her book, The Bridge, to local libraries. The Bridge is the author's personal journey in a story of love, hope, expectation, encouragement, excitement, and inspiration. Mrs. Hendon is a recognized educator and speaker, named as an outstanding leader in elementary and secondary education, listed in the 2000 edition of Notable American Women, Who's Who in American Education and the World of Who's Who of Women. She has taught Sunday School, Bible studies, and seminars. She has worked in the field of education for thirty years as a teacher and elementary school principal. City of Ripley Mayor Richard Douglas, center, presented Mrs. Hendon with a Key to the City. Lisa Hankins, right, delivered a presentation promoting Ripley and Lauderdale County. Mrs. Hendon presented a signed copy of her book to Lauderdale County Library. Pictured with Mayor Douglas, Mrs. Hankins, and Mrs. Hendon are, from left, Beth Ables, of Bank of Ripley, and Jane Wiley, of Halls.

After a luncheon at Charlene's Tea Room in Halls, Mr. and Mrs. Hendon were welcomed at a reception in Halls City Hall. In right photo, Halls Mayor Eugene Pugh, left, presented her a Key to the City. She presented a signed copy of her book to Roger Charest, right, for the Halls Public Library.

Mrs. Wiley provided a scenic tour of the county to view the changing colors of fall.

Dyersburg Theft Ripley Wal-Mart

Two Lauderdale County men, Marquis Jamahl Bradley, aka Marquis Jamahl Morgan, 20, of Gates, and Derek T. Harvell, 19, of Henning, along with several juveniles were arrested Friday for the burglary of City Pawn in Dyersburg, according to an article in the Dyersburg State Gazette. The men were charged with burglary and theft of property of more than $1,000, bond was set at $25,000 each. They are being held in the Dyer County Jail. The minors, charged as juveniles, are being held in the McDowell Center for Children.

The store was evacuated and a search was made of the building. Officers with Halls Police Department and Lauderdale County Sheriff's Department assisted in the search of the building. Ripley Police Investigator Steve Sanders took the videotape of the area around the pay phone for examination and officers are listening to the audio tape of the call. When caught, the caller could face serious charges due to the nature of the threat. Ripley Police Chief Milford "Pop" Durham stated this is a serious offense and will not be taken lightly. Center.

All 911 calls come to the county Justice Center in Ripley, handled by employees of the County 911 Board, with Frank Currie as chairman and Jonathan Gay, director.

Sheriff Louis Craig is not happy with dispatch of his officers by 911 workers.

He has asked Halls, Henning, and Gates, in renewing 911 contracts, mid-2004, to put him in charge of those working the phones in the 911 center in the Justice Center, without any change in current appropriations.

Criner has invited Currie, the sheriff, and representatives of the three cities to next week's meeting, hoping to resolve the problems.

Hall's Community Club is planning a fall flea market at the center, 201 N. College, from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. Sat., Nov. 1st with no admission fee. Drinks and popcorn will be available for purchase. Vendors may reserve a table by calling Carolyn McCaslin, 836-0596 or Sybil Belton, 836-0026. All proceeds will benefit the Community

Ripley's Victors Visit Munford

Ripley High School's Tigers, play-off bound after last Friday's blanking of Brighton, 35-0, hit the road Friday to exit Reg. 7-3A, visiting Munford's Cougars.

The Tigers close their regular season next Friday, visiting so-far winless Gibson County for a region tilt.

The Cougars were 0-10 in 2001 but 4-6 last fall and third in Region 7-4A.

They almost pulled off a huge up-set in the first round of the play-offs before yielding to power-house Memphis East, 30-23.

Coach Mike Mahoney has back 26 letter-men, nine seniors, and six starters on each side of the ball.

But the Cougars are only

7-1 this fall, with a win from Memphis Carver, 20-14.

They have lost to Milling-14-6; Jackson North ton, Side, 17-7; Hardin County, 28-21; Covington, 34-14; Dyersburg, 20-18; Bolton, 21-6; and, last week, Jackson Central-Merry, 26-7.

Munford couldn't contain JCM's Adam November, who rushed for 190 yards in 24 carries, three of them for touchdowns. His two TDs in the third period were crucial.

Munford's TD over JCM was a 15-yard toss among total 102 yards passing. Munford is using a multiple "I" offense and an 8-man front on defense.

The insurance is required for all firms with more than four employees.
